STATUTES at Large, &c.

Anno Regni GEORGH III. Britanniarum Regis, Quinquagesimo Secundo.

AT the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster the Twenty-second Day of June, Anno Domini 1802, in the Forty-seventh Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith; and from thence continued, by several Prolegations, to the Seventh Day of January 1812, being the Sixth Session of the Fourth Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

CAP. I.

An Act for continuing to His Majesty certain Duties on Malt, Sugar, Tobacco and Stuffs in Great Britain; and on Professions, Offices and Personal Estates in England, for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and twelve. [4th February 1812.]

XXXVI. PROVIDED always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge or to authorize the deducting from or withholding any Pensions under any of the Provisions of this Act, upon any Annuity, Pension or Stipend paid to such Person on account of his having been or acted as a Member or Resident at any foreign Court.

XXXIX. And whereas by the said Act passed in the Thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for making perpetual, subject to Redemption and Purchase in the Manor of Stovin, &c. the several Tolls of Money now charged in Great Britain as a Land Tax, for One Year, from the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight (a), it was enacted, That the several Duties imposed on Sugar by Three Acts of the Twenty-seventh, Thirty-fourth and Thirty-seventh Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, on Malt, by an Act made in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and the Duties of Excise on Tobacco and Stuffs, by an Act made in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, should continue in force until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine, and no longer, but should from thenceforth cease and determine, unless the same should be specially continued by Parliament; which had several Times been, by an Act made and passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for continuing and granting to His Majesty a Duty on Professions, Offices and Personal Estates in England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and certain Duties on Sugar, Malt, Tobacco and Stuffs, for the Service of the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, further continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred, and which, by several subsequent Acts, were further continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eleven: And whereas, by an Act passed in the Forty-ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs chargeable on Goods Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, the said several Duties on Sugar were repealed, and other Duties granted on Sugar in lieu thereof; And whereas, by another Act passed in the Forty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act to repeal the Duties of Stamp payable in Great Britain, and to grant other Duties in lieu thereof, certain of the said Duties on Licenses to be taken out by Dealers in Tobacco and Stuffs, and certain Duties on Tobacco, were repealed, and other Duties granted in lieu thereof: And whereas the said Duties granted by the said last-mentioned Acts were continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eleven:

C & P. II.

An Act to permit Sugar, the Produce of Martinique and other conquered Islands in the West Indies, to be taken out of Warehouse on the Payment of the like Rate of Duty for Wares as British Plantation Sugar. [4th February 1812.]

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for making Sugar and Coffee of Martinique and Mariegalante liable to Duty on Importation as Sugar and Coffee out of the British Plantations, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of the Island of Martinique, imported into this Kingdom, is subject to the Payment of such Duties, and also to such Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as are by Law imposed and provided in the case of Importations of Sugar out of the British Plantations; and by another Act, passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intitled, An Act for making Sugar and Coffee of Guadeloupe, Saint Eustace, Saint Martin and Saba, liable to the same Duty on Importation as Sugar and Coffee out of the British Plantations, similar Provisions are made as to Sugar, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Guadeloupe: And whereas, by an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for permitting certain Goods imported into Great Britain to be stored in Warehouses without Payment of Duty, when any Goods, Wares or Merchandises are intended to be taken out of or from any Warehouse or Place in which the same shall have been lodged or secured according to the Directions of the said Act, for the Purpose of Exportation, the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs are required to re-examine the same; and in case it shall appear on such Re-examination that the Quantity is less than the Quantity taken by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs by virtue and in pursuance of the said Act as the said Examinations thereof, then and in such case the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignor or Consignees of such Goods, Wares or Merchandises, or the Person or Persons intending to take out the same, or before the same are so delivered out of the Warehouse for the Purpose aforesaid, to make a due Entry of such deficient Quantity, and pay to the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs the full Duties of Customs thereon: And whereas it would not be reasonable to subject the Importers, Proprietors or Consignors, or the Persons intending to take out of the Warehouses any such Sugar, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Martinique, Mariegalante, Saint Eustace, Saint Martin, Saba or Guadeloupe, to the Payment of the high Duties upon such Deficiencies: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever, upon the reweighing any Sugar, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of the Islands of Martinique, Mariegalante, Saint Eustace, Saint Martin, Saba or Guadeloupe, for the Purpose of Exportation, it shall appear that the Weight of the Sugar is less than when taken account of by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs at the first Examination thereof, the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Consignor or Consignees, of such Sugar, or the Person or Persons intending to take out the same, shall not be subject to the Payment of any higher Rate of Duty for the deficient Quantity than what is charged and payable upon the Importation of Sugar, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of the British Plantations at the time the Sugar shall be reweighed for the Purpose of Exportation; any Thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

C & P. III.

An Act to revive and continue, until the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve, so much of an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty, to prohibit the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grains, in the United Kingdom, as relates to Great Britain, and to revive and continue another Act made in the Forty ninth Year aforesaid, to suspend the Importation of British or Irish-made Spirits into Great Britain or Ireland respectively, and for granting certain Duties on Wares or Wines made from Sugar during the Prohibition of Distillation from Corn or Grains in Great Britain. [7th February 1812.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act to prohibit the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grains in the United Kingdom for a limited Time, should be revived and continued for a time to be limited, as far as the same regards Great Britain: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Eighth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve, the said Act shall, and the same is hereby, as far as the same regards that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, and as far as the same is not altered by this Act, revised, and shall remain in force from thenceforth, until and upon the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case His Majesty, at any time after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twelve, shall in His Royal Discretion judge it to be for the Benefit and Advantage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, to permit the making of Worts or Wash for Distillation from Oats, Barley, or any other Cereals or Grains (Whence excepted), or from Malt, Flour or Bran, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order in Council, to be published from time to time in The London Gazette, to 'permit and suffer all and every Person or Persons (but not any particular Person or Persons), at any time or times, not less than Thirty Days from the Date of such Proclamation or Order in Council, to make Worts or Wash for Distillation from Oats, Barley, or any other Cereals or Grains (Whence excepted), or from any Malt, Flour or Bran; or in case His Majesty, at any time after the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twelve, shall in His Royal Discretion judge it to be for the Benefit and Advantage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, to continue the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grains from the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve, until Forty Days after the then next Meeting of Parliament, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order in Council, to be published from time to time in The London Gazette, to continue throughout that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, from the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve, until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, the Prohibition heretofore mentioned; that it is to be, that throughout that Part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, during the Continuance of such Prohibition, no Worts or Wash for Distillation shall be made from Oats, Barley, or any other Cereals or Grains, or from Malt, Flour or Bran, or any Mixture with the same.

III. And be it further enacted, That all and every Distiller and Distillers, and Maker and Makers of Spirits, shall, on or before the Twenty second Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve, distill into Spirits all the Worts or Wash brewed or made from Malt, Corn or Grain which shall, on the said Eighth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve, be in his, her or their Custody or Possession, on Pain of forfeiting all such Worts or Wash which shall, after the said Twenty second Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve, be found by any Officers or Officers of Excise, or by the Custody or Possession of any such Distiller or Distillers, or Maker or Makers of Spirits; and to Distill or Distillers, or Maker or Makers of Spirits, shall distill, mix or brew any Sagar for the making of Worts or Wash for extracting Spirits, with all the Worts or Wash brewed or made from Corn or Grain which shall have been in the Custody or Possession of such Distiller or Distillers, or Maker or Makers of Spirits, on the Eighth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve, shall have been actually distilled into Spirits at the Second Extraction, by the Space of Four Days at the least, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

IV. And whereas an Act was made in the said Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intituled, An Act to suppress the Importation of British or Irish-made Spirits into Great Britain or Ireland respectively, until the First Day of June next ensuing eight hundred and ten, which Act was further continued by another Act passed in the Forty sixth Year aforesaid, and the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and ten, and was further continued by another Act made in the Fifthth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty: And whereas it is expedient that all the Powers and Provisions in the said Acts contained as aforesaid contained, except as far as respects the Extension of the Penalty for the Forfeiture of any Spirits arriving in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, within a time therein limited, shall continue and be in force from the Commencement of this Act, until Year Months after the Expiration of the time which shall be fixed under the Authority of this Act, for prohibiting the Distillation of Spirits from Grains in Great Britain.

V. And whereas during the Continuance of the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grains it will be expedient to encourage the Distillation of Spirits from Sagar, and also to modify and regulate the Duties to be levied and the Drawbacks to be allowed; Be it therefore enacted, That for and during the Period of time in which, by or under the Authority of this Act, the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grains in Great Britain shall be prohibited, all and singular the Duties on Worts or Wash brewed or made in England or Scotland, respectively, for extracting Spirits, and all and singular the Duties on Spirits made or distilled in Scotland, and on Spirit-ale or Strong Waters made or distilled in Ireland and imported into Great Britain; and also the Duties on Licences on the Content or Capacity of Stills used or employed in Scotland, for making or distilling Low Wines or Spirits; and also all and singular the Duties on Spirits made or distilled in England, and imported or brought from thence into Scotland, and any such; and also all and singular the Drawbacks on the Exportation of any such Spirits, shall be and the same are hereby suspended, save and except in all cases relating to the recovering, allowing or paying any Arrears thereof respectively, which shall or may become unpaid; or to any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties or may prohibit the Distillation for a longer Period.

48 G. 3. c. 102.

50 G. 1. c. 52.

Penalty continued. Exceptions.

Duties on Spirits distilled from Corn, and Drawbacks, suspended.

Facilities or Forfeitures relating thereto respectively, which shall have been secured at any time before or on the Day upon which such Prohibition of Distillation from Corn or Grains shall commence and take effect.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Prohibition of the Use of any Material or Commodity whatsoever, in the making or brewing of Wort or Wash for distilling or extracting Spirits in the Highlands of Scotland, except Oats or Barley, or Bear or Hogg of the Growth of the said Highlands, shall not be suspended during the Period of time that the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grains shall by or under the Authority of the Act be prohibited; any thing in this or any other Act of Parliament to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as any such Prohibition as aforesaid, of the Use of Corn and Grains in the Distillation of Spirits shall cease and determine, all and singular the Duties, Drawbacks, Provisions, Reins, Regulations, Restrictions, and also the Prohibition which by this Act are or shall be suspended, shall be revived, and the same are hereby in such case declared to revive and become in full Force and Effect to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in and against of the Duties hereby suspended, there shall, during such Suspension, be raised, levied, collected and paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, the several Rates and Duties of Excise hereinafter mentioned; that is to say,

For every Gallon of Wort or Wash brewed or made for extracting Spirits in England for Home Consumption from Sugar, an Excise Duty of One Shilling and Eight pence:

For every Gallon English Wine Measure of Wort or Wash brewed or made from Sugar, for extracting Spirits in the Lowlands of Scotland for Consumption in Scotland, an Excise Duty of Eight pence Facking:

For every Gallon English Wine Measure of Spirits of the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, and so in Proportion for every higher or lower Degree of Strength, which shall be made or distilled in the Lowlands of Scotland for Consumption in Scotland, not exceeding the Number of Gallons of Spirits limited and restricted to be distilled by or from each Still, to be paid over and above the Duty on the Licence or Consent of the Still, and the Duty on the Wort or Wash from which such Spirits may be made or distilled, an Excise Duty of Five pence:

For every Gallon English Wine Measure of the Cubical Content or Capacity of each and every Still, including the Head and every Part thereof, and of any Hops, Pipe, Tube or other Apparatus therewith connected, under whatever Name or Designation the same may be called or known, as high as the Screw can ascend, and until the Top of the Head shall turn downwards, and form an Angle of Twenty two Degrees, which shall be used or employed for the Purpose of making or distilling Low Wines or Spirits from Sugar in the Lowlands of Scotland for Consumption in Scotland, an Excise Duty of One shilling and Sixty two Pence:

For every Gallon English Wine Measure of Wort or Wash brewed or made from Sugar for extracting Spirits in the Highlands of Scotland for Consumption in the said Highlands, an Excise Duty of Seven pence:

For every Gallon English Wine Measure of Spirits of the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, and so in Proportion for any higher or lower Degree of Strength which shall be made or distilled in the Highlands of Scotland for Consumption in the said Highlands, not exceeding the Number of Gallons of Spirits licensed and restricted to be distilled by or from each Still, to be paid over and above the Duty on the Licence or Consent of the Still, and the Duty on the Wort or Wash from which such Spirit may be made or distilled, an Excise Duty of Two pence:

For every Gallon of English Wine Measure of the Cubical Content or Capacity of each and every Still, including the Head and every Part thereof, and of any Hops, Pipe, Tube or other Apparatus therewith connected, under whatever Name or Designation the same may be called or known, as high as the Screw can ascend, and until the Top of the Head shall turn downwards and form an Angle of Forty six Degrees, which shall be used or employed for the Purpose of making or distilling Low Wines or Spirits in the Highlands of Scotland for Consumption in the said Highlands, an Excise Duty of Five Pence:

For every Gallon English Wine Measure of Spirits of a Strength not exceeding that of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, and so in Proportion for any higher Degree of Strength, made or distilled from Corn or Grains in England, and imported or brought from thence into Scotland, to be paid by the Importer thereof, before the landing thereof, an Excise Duty of Eight Shillings and Three pence:

For every Gallon English Wine Measure of Spirits of which an Account shall have been taken in performance of this Act, of a Strength not exceeding that of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, made or distilled from Corn or Grains in Scotland, and imported or brought from thence into England, to be paid by the Importer thereof, before the landing thereof, an Excise Duty of Nine Shillings and Five pence Halfpenny:

For every Gallon English Wine Measure of all such Spirits as aforesaid, of a greater Strength than that of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, and not exceeding Three per Centum over and above the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, an Excise Duty of Nine Shillings and Five pence Halfpenny; and also a further Excise Duty, proportioned to the Degree of Strength in which such Spirits shall exceed the said Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, to be paid by the Importer thereof, before the landing thereof:

For every Gallon English Wine Measure of Spirits of the Strength not exceeding that of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, and so in Proportion for any higher Degree of Strength, made or distilled in England from Sugar, and imported or brought from thence into Scotland, to be paid by the Importer thereof, before the landing thereof, an Excise Duty of Six Shillings and Three pence Halfpenny:

For every Gallon English Wine Measure of Spirits of a Strength not exceeding that of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, made or distilled in Scotland from Sugar, and imported and brought from thence into Eng-

For all Rum, Brandy, Spirits, Aqua-vita, or Strong Waters (except Rum of the Produce of the British Plantations), imported into Great Britain, and for which the Duties chargeable thereon shall not have been paid on the Fourteenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, or exported after that Day, an additional Duty of Twelve Pence and Ten Shillings per Centum upon the Produce and Amount of the several Duties of Excise imposed for or in respect thereof by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That each of the Duties by this Act imposed, as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England; and that each Part thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the time being.

X. And be it further enacted, That every Officer of Excise in England, having any Still or Still House, or other Place used for the Purpose of making or distilling Spirits under his Survey, shall keep exact Accounts in his Books of all Worts and Wash whereon the Duties are by this Act imposed, and shall in his said Books give into the several Distillers, or Makers of Spirits under his Survey, a Credit of Twenty one Gallons of Spirits, of the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, for every One hundred Gallons of Worts or Wash brewed or made from Sugar, by each Distiller or Distillers, during each year as each Distiller or Distillers shall continue to work or distil Spirits from Sugar.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller in Scotland shall be charged with, and pay the several and respective Duties by this Act imposed on Spirits made in Scotland, for the Consumption of Scotland, and also after the Rate of Twenty one Gallons of Spirits for every One hundred Gallons of Worts or Wash brewed or made from Sugar by any such Distiller; and every such Distiller shall have Credit, and be allowed Permits for Twenty one Gallons of Spirits, of the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, for every One hundred Gallons of Worts or Wash as aforesaid, brewed or made, and actually distilled into Spirits by each Distiller.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller in England shall make, distil, extract or produce any Quantity of Spirits exceeding the Proportion of Twenty one Gallons for every One hundred Gallons of Worts or Wash brewed or made from Sugar as aforesaid, every such Distiller shall pay Duty for all such Spirits exceeding the Proportion aforesaid; that is to say, and after the Rate of Seven Shillings and Eleven pence Farthing for every Gallon of such Excise, computed at the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller who shall make or distil Spirits in England, for Exportation from thence to Scotland, or who shall make or distil Spirits in Scotland for Exportation from thence to England, shall for every One hundred Gallons of Worts or Wash brewed or made from Sugar, for making or extracting Spirits for Exportation as aforesaid, produce to the Sight of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, and duly export to Scotland or England, as the case may require, at least Twenty one Gallons of Spirits of the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof; and in every case where the Produce of Spirits extracted and produced to the Sight of the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, and duly exported as aforesaid, shall fall short of the Proportion aforesaid, every such Distiller or Distillers shall, and he, she and they it and she lawfully made chargeable with, and shall pay for every Gallon of Spirits which shall so fall short or be deficient, a Duty of Twenty Shillings.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, upon the First Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve, no Perish or Perishes shall be permitted to make Entry of any House or Houses, or Place or Places in England, for making or distilling Spirits from Sugar for Exportation to Scotland, nor shall any Perish or Perishes be permitted to make Entry of any House or Houses, or Place or Places in Scotland, for making or distilling Spirits from Sugar for Exportation to England, save and except such House or Houses, or Place or Places, as shall have been duly entered and employed, or used for making and distilling Spirits from Corn or Grass for such Exportation from England to Scotland, or from Scotland to England, as the case may require, between the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and eleven and the passing of this Act; nor shall any Perish or Perishes be permitted to make, or any such entered House or Houses, Place or Places, or to export a Number of Gallons of Spirits within the Year, from the Commencement of each Entry on the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and eleven, beyond the Quantity which such Perish or Perishes would have been entitled to have made from Corn or Grass, and to have exported from England to Scotland, or from Scotland to England, as the case may require, if the Distillation from Corn or Grass had not been prohibited, further than the Excess of Produce of Spirits from Sugar Wash above the Produce of Spirits from Corn Wash, computed both Produce or and after the Rate of Eighteen Gallons of Spirits, at the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, for every Hundred Gallons of Worts or Wash made or distilled from Corn during each Part of the Year as each Distiller or Distillers shall have been making or distilling from Corn since the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and eleven, and of Twenty one Gallons of Spirits at the Strength aforesaid, for every Hundred Gallons of Worts or Wash to be distilled from Sugar during each Part of the present Year or year next, as such fact Distiller or Distillers shall continue to make or distil Spirits from Sugar from and after the said Eighth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve, until the time at which the annual Entry of such Heads or Heads, or Place or Places, would have expired; any thing in this or any other Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. [See page 611.]

XV. And be it further enacted, That when and so long as any Distiller in the Lowlands of Scotland shall have brewed or made and distilled into Spirits a Quantity of Wort or Wash from Sugar, sufficient to produce Two thousand twenty five Gallons of Spirits of the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, for each and every Gallon of the full Content or Capacity of the Still or Stills specified or mentioned in the Licence granted to such Distiller in the said Lowlands, computing Twenty one Gallons of such Spirits of the Strength aforesaid, for every One hundred Gallons of Wort or Wash, then and in every such case the Licence of such Distiller shall cease and determine, and be no longer in force.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That when and so long as any Distiller in the Highlands of Scotland shall have brewed or made and distilled into Spirits a Quantity of Wort or Wash from Sugar, sufficient to produce Seventy five Gallons of Spirits of the Strength of One to Ten over Hydrometer Proof, for each and every Gallon of the full Content or Capacity of the Still or Stills specified or mentioned in the Licence granted to such Distiller in the said Highlands, computing Twenty one Gallons of such Spirits of the Strength aforesaid, for every One hundred Gallons of such Wort or Wash, then and in every such case the Licence of such Distiller shall cease and determine, and be no longer in force.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller in England shall be obliged or liable to any Penalty, Forfeiture or Prosecution, for discontinuing to work, provided such discontinuing is or shall be occasioned by the Expulsion or other Vermotion of the Possibilities of the Use of Corn or Grain in the Distillations by or under the Authority of Parliament; any thing in relation any other Act of Parliament heretofore made to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, and they are hereby authorized and required in case of the Vacancies, by or under the Authority of Parliament, of the Possibilities of the Use of Corn or Grain in the Distillations of Spirits, or of the Revival of the Laws which allow the Distillations of Spirits from Corn or Grain before any licensed Distiller in Scotland shall have distilled into Spirits the full Quantity of Wort or Wash, to which the Licence of any such Distiller shall be limited, to pay and allow to such Distiller out of the Duties arising by the Distillery in Scotland a Sum of Money equal to that which shall or may have been paid in advance by such Distiller, over and above the Quantity of Wort or Wash made and Spirits actually distilled under and by virtue of any such Licence.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland to license any Still or Stills in Scotland for the Purpose of distilling Spirits from Sugar after the Distillation from Corn or Grain shall be prohibited, provided that no such Licence be granted in the present Year of our Lord shall be granted to commence or take effect before the Eighth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve next, and so such Licence which shall be granted after the said present Year shall be granted to commence and take effect before the first Day of December next ensuing the granting thereof; nor shall any such Licence be of any Validity or have any Force or Effect until all the Wort or Wash brewed or made from Corn or Grain in the Cellary or Possibilities of the Person or Persons to whom any such Licence shall be granted, shall have been actually distilled into Spirits of the Second Extraction, by the Space of Four Days at the least; any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XX. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to authorize the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland to grant Licences until the First Day of December in the present Year One thousand eight hundred and twelve, to any Person or Persons, or to any Heads or Heads, Place or Places for distilling or making Sugar for extracting Spirits in Scotland for the Consumption in Scotland, excepting to such Person or Persons, or Heads or Heads, or Place or Places, which, from the Tenth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and eleven, shall have been licensed, and shall have begun and commenced to make Spirits from Corn for such Consumption in Scotland; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller or Distillers in England or Scotland respectively shall be allowed to make Entry for, or to make or distil any Spirits from Sugar for Exportation from England or Scotland, or from Scotland to England, at any other time than from and after the First Day of December in each Year of our Lord after the present Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twelve.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when and so long as any such Prohibition as aforesaid, of the Use of Corn and Grain in the Distillation of Spirits, shall cease and determine, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons of England or Scotland respectively to make Entry for, and to make or distil Spirits from Corn and Grain for Exportation from England or Scotland, or from Scotland to England, at any time within Thirty Days from the Time when such Prohibition shall cease and determine; Provided also, that no such Entry shall have effect for any longer Period than until the First Day of October three next ensuing, nor shall any such Entry be made or allowed while any Spirits distilled from Sugar, or any Materials for such Distillation shall be remaining on any Part of the Premises of such Distiller or Distillers; any thing in this or any other Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XXIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, or the major Part of them, or to or for the respective Collectors and Supervisors of Excise in Scotland, by and with the Leave and Approbation of the said Commissioners, to grant a Licence

C A P. VI.

An Act for making Provision for the better Support of His Majesty's Household, during the Continuance of His Majesty's Indisposition.

[14th February 1812.]

May it please Your Most Excellent Majesty:

WHEREAS the Continuance of the former Indisposition with which it has pleased God to afflict the King's Most Excellent Majesty, renders it necessary to make several Provisions for the better Arrangement of His Majesty's Household, and for the Exercise, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, of the Royal Authority among such Illness: We Your Majesty's most devoted and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, do pray Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there be granted to His Majesty, during the Continuance of His Indisposition, over and above the several Sums of Eight hundred thousand Pounds, One hundred thousand Pounds, and Sixty thousand Pounds respectively, raised by Three several Acts, passed in the First, Seventh and Forty fourth Years respectively of His present Majesty, the further Revenue of Yearly Rent of Seventy thousand Pounds, to commence from the Eleventh Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve; and that the same shall be charged and chargeable upon and payable out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, in the manner and according to the true Rights, and under the same Powers, Authorities and Provisions, as the said several Sums aforesaid are now paid, as if all the Powers, Authorities and Clauses relating thereto, were contained in this Act.

II. And whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been graciously pleased to declare His Intention of commencing the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, issued annually from the Exchequer to His Royal Highness by virtue of His Majesty's Royal Warrant under His Privy Seal, bearing Date the Seventh Day of November One thousand seven hundred and eighty three, in Aid of the Revenues of the Civil List: Be it therefore enacted, That during the Continuance of His Majesty's Indisposition, the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds directed by His Majesty's said Warrant of the Seventh Day of November One thousand seven hundred and eighty three, to be issued annually from the Exchequer to His said Royal Highness, shall, during the Continuance of His Majesty's Indisposition, be placed and carried to the Exchequer to the Account of the Civil List, and make Part of the Civil List Revenues, instead of being issued and paid as directed by the said Warrant.

III. And whereas an Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the better Support of His Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Queens of the United Kingdom; and for preventing Accumulation of Arrears in the Payments out of the Civil List Revenues: And whereas it is the Will of His Majesty, that the Civil List Revenue has not, in any one Year, been equal to the Charges on the Civil List, and such Excess of Charge above the Revenue has, upon an Average of the Years since the passing of the said Act, amounted to about One hundred and twenty four thousand Pounds, but as such Deficiencies have been supplied from time to time by the Application of such Proportions of the Sums arising from Droits of Admiralty, and the Scraps of the Hereditary Revenues of His Majesty in Scotland not applied in Payment of the Civil Establishment in Scotland, and which are declared to belong to and be at His Majesty's Disposal by an Act passed in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act to repeal the Duties and Drawbacks of Customs and Excise payable in the Importation and Exportation of Wine (except Wine the Produce of the European Dominions of the French King, Rhine, Germany and Hungary Wine, Port and Madeira Wine, and Wine of the Produce of Spain, or of any of the Dominions of the King of Spain); and for granting other Duties and Drawbacks in lieu thereof to repeal the Duty of Excise upon Foreign Green Glass Bottles imported, and for charging an additional Duty of Customs in lieu thereof for preventing the Duty on Carriages of all Manufactures of the European Dominions of the French King imported directly from thence; for abolishing a Trade with respect to the Duties on White Russian Cloths exported; and for referring to His Majesty the Hereditary and other Revenues of the Crown in Scotland, as were necessary for that Purpose; and so as to amend therefore his orders to be laid before Parliament under the Provisions of the said Act: And whereas it is expedient to amend and to amend that an Account should be laid before Parliament, from time to time, of any Excess of Charges upon the Civil List, beyond such Average Amount: Be it therefore enacted, That whenever the Amount of the Deficiency of the Civil List Revenues shall exceed such Average as aforesaid, by the Sum of Ten thousand Pounds, the Lord High Treasurer, or Lords Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the time being, shall make an Account of such Deficiency of the said Loan Revenue to be laid before Parliament, within One Month after the same shall have ended, or Parliament shall be then sitting; or if Parliament shall not be then sitting, within One Month after the next Sitting of Parliament.

C A P. VII.

An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain Sum for defraying the Expenses incident to the Assumption of the Personal Exercise of the Royal Authority, by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty.

[11th February 1812.]

* Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS it is expedient that Provision should be made for defraying the Expenses incident to the Assumption of the Personal Exercise of the Royal Authority by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty; Therefore We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and he it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be issued, applied and paid, out of all or any of the Aids or Supplies granted or which may be granted in this Session of Parliament, to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, the Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds free and clear from all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever; and that the Account or Receipt of His said Royal Highness shall be a good and sufficient Discharge for the Payment thereof, and a sufficient Authority to the several and respective Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer, for the Payment of the said Money.

An Act for the Regulation of His Majesty's Household, and enabling Her Majesty the Queen to meet the increased Expense to which Her Majesty may be exposed during His Majesty's Indisposition; and for the Care of His Majesty's Real and Personal Property; and to amend an Act of the last Session of Parliament, to provide for the Administration of the Royal Authority during His Majesty's Absence.

[11th February 1812.]

WHEREAS the Continuance of the severe Indisposition with which it has pleased God to afflict the King's Most Excellent Majesty, renders it necessary to make further Regulations for the Assurance of His Majesty's Household, and for the Exercise of the Royal Authority during such Absence; and for enabling Her Most Excellent Majesty the Queen, to meet the increased Expense to which, in consequence of such Indisposition, Her Majesty may be exposed; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Eighteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and during the Continuance of His Majesty's Indisposition, the Vert Gentleman of His Majesty's Bed Chamber (commonly called the Groom of the Stole); the Vice Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse, Two of the Gentlemen, and Four of the Grooms of His Majesty's Bed Chamber, the Master of His Majesty's Robes, His Majesty's Equeries and Page, together with a Private Secretary of Her Majesty, and Secretary to the Groom of the Stole, and such Number of Attendants and Servants as may be requisite and desirable for the due Attendance on His Majesty's Sacred Person, shall be appointed, by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, or selected and chosen from the respective Departments of His Majesty's private Household, and shall be under the sole Direction and Control of Her Majesty, for the Care and Attendance upon His Majesty's Sacred Person, and the regulating, ordering and managing all Things relating thereto; and Her said Majesty shall have the full and sole Power and Authority to order and direct all Matters and Things relating to the Management of such Part of His Majesty's Household, as shall be in Attendance upon His Majesty's Person as above directed, and the respective Duties and Attendances of all such Officers of the Household and Attendants and Servants aforesaid, and shall also have full Power and Authority, by any Instrument or Instruments in Writing signed and sealed by Her Majesty, or under, and in and against, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, all the Persons who shall be in Attendance upon His Majesty's Person, and in like manner to supply all Vacancies arising by Removal, Resignation or Death of any such Officers of the Household, or Attendants and Servants or Persons aforesaid, except such as have heretofore been actually nominated and appointed by the Lord Chamberlain or Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, or the Master of His Majesty's Horse, or the Master of His Majesty's Robes respectively; and the said Vert Gentleman of His Majesty's Bed Chamber, commonly called the Groom of the Stole, is appointed to attend upon His Majesty's Person, and to command and appoint to all such Vacancies as shall arise by Removal, Resignation or Death of any such Officers, Attendants or Servants aforesaid, as have heretofore been nominated or appointed by the Lord Chamberlain or Lord Steward respectively of His Majesty's Household, or by the Master of the Horse to His Majesty; and such Groom of the Stole shall have all such Jurisdiction, Power and Authority, over such Officers, Attendants and Servants, as have heretofore been and are now usually exercised by the Lord Chamberlain and Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household respectively, and by the Master of the Horse to His Majesty.

Part of this Act is altered by His Majesty, and is under Direction of and appointed as altered by Her Majesty. Powers of Groom of the Stole.

lain's writ, by virtue of His Majesty's Act for the Extension of the
Majesty.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, during the Continuance of His Majesty's Indisposition, in order and direct the Vice Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household to act in the Absence of the Governour of the State ascribed for each Groom of the State, or during any Vacancy of the Office of such Groom of the State, as if he was lawfully deputed for that Purpose, and to perform all the Duties of the said Officer during such Absence or Vacancy; and all such Acts, Matters and Things done, or Orders given by such Vice Chamberlain during such Absence of such Groom of the State, or the Vacancy of such Office, shall be as valid, and have the same Effect, as if done or given by the said Groom of the State; Provided always, That such Vice Chamberlain shall not remove or appoint any Officers, Attendants or Prefects, of such Part of His Majesty's Household as shall be under the Jurisdiction of the Governour of the State, during any Absence of the Governour of the State, unless he have special Authority for that Purpose from the Governour of the State, or the said Office shall be vacant.

VII. And whereas it is proper that Provision should be made to enable Her Majesty to meet the increased Expence to which, in consequence of His Majesty's Indisposition, Her Majesty may be exposed; Be it therefore enacted, That there shall be paid to Her Majesty, during the Continuance of His Majesty's Indisposition, out of the Revenues, or Sums of Money from time to time in the Exchequer applicable to the Purposes of His Majesty's Civil Establishment, an annual Sum or yearly Rent of Ten thousand Pounds, to commence from the Eighteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and to be paid in quarterly Payments, the first Payment to be made on the Fifth Day of April next, for the proportionate Part of the Quarter between the said Eighteenth Day of February and the said Fifth Day of April, and that the same shall be charged and chargeable upon, and payable and paid out of any Sums of Money in the Exchequer applicable to the Purposes of His Majesty's Civil Establishment, next after the said Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds, and in preference to all other Payments, and free and clear of and from all Taxes, Rates, Assessments or any Charge, Fines, or other Deductions whatsoever, in like manner as any Sums now payable out of the Civil List Revenues to His Majesty are paid; and the like Acquittances or Receipts as are now given for the Payment of any Money payable to His Majesty out of the Civil List Revenues, shall be a good and sufficient Discharge for the Payment thereof, and a sufficient Authority to the several and respective Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer for the Payment of the said Money.

Purposes

VIII. And whereas by the said recited Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse was directed, out of the Salary thereof Pounds three hundred and sixty one Pounds yearly, and Four thousand two hundred and sixteen Pounds quarterly, in manner directed by the said Act: And whereas the said respective Sums have been found to be inadequate to the Purposes for which they were respectively directed to be applied, by the Sum of Three thousand and eight hundred and thirty three Shillings and Five Pence for Annual Purposes and Allowances heretofore accustomed to be paid and applied under the immediate Direction and Authority of His Majesty, and the further Sum of Five thousand five hundred and eight Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Eleven Pence for occasional Payments for the last Year, making together the Sum of Eight thousand five hundred and twenty six Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Four Pence: And whereas it is necessary that Provision should be made for the Payment of such Expenses and Charges as have been heretofore incurred, and may hereafter be incurred, for Medical Advice, Attendance and Assistance, necessary for His Majesty during his Incapacitation, and the Expences incident thereto: And whereas it is reasonable that such Expenses should be paid out of the Surplus of the Duchy of Lancaster, and Payment of such Sum as aforesaid, and out of the Net Surplus of the Revenue of the Duchy of Lancaster, and it is therefore necessary that further Provision should be made in that behalf: Be it therefore enacted, That the Sum of Sixty thousand Pounds, issued annually to the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse, shall be issued in the same manner as heretofore, and the said Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse shall, and he is hereby authorized and directed, out of any Money in his Hands as Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse, or standing in his Name in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, under the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, to issue and pay to each Person as shall be appointed by Her Majesty to receive the same, the said Sum of Eight thousand five hundred and twenty six Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Four Pence, in Addition to the Annual and Quarterly Sums issued under the said Act as aforesaid, to make up the Intersupply of the said Sums, and be applied, paid and accounted for, in like manner as required by the said Act as to each Quarterly Sum; and the said Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse shall, and he is hereby authorized and directed, during the Continuance of His Majesty's Incapacitation, out of the Moneys issued to him, to make such Payments, and to continue to issue and apply a Sum not exceeding in the Whole in the Year the said Sum of Fifty thousand four hundred and sixty one Pounds, as directed by the said Act; and also any Sums not exceeding Four thousand six hundred and seventy Pounds in each Quarter, in less and instead of the Sum of Four thousand two hundred and sixteen Pounds in the said Act specified, in manner and for the Purposes by the said Act directed, as to the said annual Sum of Fifty thousand four hundred and sixty one Pounds, and quarterly Sum of Four thousand two hundred and sixteen Pounds respectively; and also applying such Sums in each Year or Quarter as aforesaid, the Remainder of the Sum of Sixty thousand Pounds issued to the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse, together with such Sum as shall be required, not exceeding Ten thousand Pounds in each Year, from the net Surplus of the Revenues of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster, shall from time to time be applied in the Payment of all such Charges and Expenses as shall arise from the Medical Advice, Attendance and Assistance, which may be required for His Majesty during the Continuance of his Incapacitation, and any incidental Expenses relating thereto; and the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse shall, after Payment of such Sum of Eight thousand five hundred and twenty six Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Four Pence aforesaid to make up the intersupply of such annual and quarterly Sums as aforesaid, apply the Remainder of all Moneys which shall be in his Hands as Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse, and the Remainder of all Moneys which shall be standing in his Name in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, deposited to the Directions of the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, and also of the Product of such Public Funds or Government Securities as shall here be purchased with the Remainder of the said Sum of Sixty thousand Pounds, and out Surplus of the Revenues of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster, under the Provisions of the said Act, in the Payment of such Expenses and Charges as shall hereafter accrue in respect of such Medical Advice and Assistance, and incidental Expenses as aforesaid; and after applying such Sums, and making such Payments as aforesaid, the Surplus (if any) in each Year shall be paid to the Comptrollers appointed under this Act for the Care of His Majesty's Real and Personal Estate, to be by them applied as the other Produce of His Majesty's Personal Estate is directed to be applied: Provided always, that if in any succeeding Year the Surplus of such Privy Purse, and of the Revenues of the Duchy of Lancaster, shall not be sufficient to pay such Expenses as aforesaid, the Keeper of the Privy Purse shall be entitled to demand, and is hereby authorized and required to demand, and the said Comptrollers are hereby directed to repay, any Sums, or any Part or Proportion of any Sums which shall here be paid over in any one Year out of any Personal Estate of His Majesty under their Care and Direction, as may be sufficient to pay such Expenses; and the Sums so paid shall be applied in the Repayment of such Expenses as aforesaid.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Authorities for the Payment of the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse of such Sums of Eight thousand five hundred and twenty six Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Four Pence as aforesaid, and of such Quarterly Sums aforesaid, shall be given to the Person appointed by Her Majesty to receive and apply the same, under the Hand of Her Majesty; and the Authority for the Payment of such Expenses and Charges as here already accrued in respect of such Medical Advice, Assistance and medicinal Expenses as aforesaid, shall be the Warrant of His Most Excellent Majesty the Queen, and His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, counter-signed by any Three or more of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer for the time being; and of such Expenses as may hereafter arise in respect of such Medical Advice and Assistance and medicinal Expenses as aforesaid, shall be the Warrant of His Most Excellent Majesty the Queen, counter-signed by the Two Gentlemen of His Majesty's Bed Chamber, commonly called the Green of the Side; and the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse shall, within Three Months after the passing of this Act, produce to the said Commissioners an Account of the Purves to whom, and the several Proportions to which, and the times when, and the manner in which the said Annual Sum of Fifteen thousand five hundred and sixty one Pounds shall have been heretofore actually paid, and shall also produce to the said Commissioners the Warrant so counter-signed as aforesaid, for Payment of such Charges and Expenses as have already accrued for Medical Advice, Assistance and Attendance upon His Majesty, together with the Receipts or Discharges of the Persons to whom Payments shall have been made under such Warrant; and shall also annually, between the Fifth Day of January and the Fifth Day of April in each Year, produce to the said Commissioners the Receipts or other Discharges of the Persons contained in such Account as aforesaid, to whom he shall continue to make his said Annual Payments as aforesaid; and shall produce the Authorities under the Hand of Her Majesty, for the Issue of such Quarterly Sums as aforesaid, together with the Receipts of the Persons to whom the Money was issued under such Authorities; and the Warrants so counter-signed as aforesaid, for the Payment of the Expenses and Charges herebefore made in relation to Medical Advice and Assistance required by His Majesty as aforesaid, and the Receipts or other Discharges of the several Persons to whom Payments are made under such Warrants, and such Receipts, Discharges, Authorities and Warrants as aforesaid, shall respectively be a full and complete Discharge to the said Keeper of the Privy Purse for all such Sums so issued by him out of Moneys in his Hands as Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse; and the Person appointed by Her Majesty to receive and apply such Sums of Eight thousand five hundred and twenty six Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Four pence as aforesaid under this Act, and such Quarterly Sums as aforesaid, shall, within One Month after the Issue of such Sums of Eight thousand five hundred and twenty six Pounds Eighteen Shillings and Four pence, as to such Sums, and within One Month after the Issue of any Issue of any future Quarterly Sums under this Act, deliver to the said Commissioners a full and true Account of the Application of all such Sums respectively, and produce proper Acquittances, Discharges and Vouchers for such Payments; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required to examine and audit the same, and for that Purpose to call for all Vouchers and other Documents, and to examine all Persons whom they shall deem it necessary to examine, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Accuracy of such Accounts upon Oath (which Oath is a Part of them in hereby authorized to administer), or otherwise to ascertain the due Application of such Money, in such manner as they shall deem necessary.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, from time to time, to order and direct, and give Authority under Her Majesty's Hand as aforesaid, for the Payment of any new Pensions or Allowances, to be payable out of the Money issued to the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse, to any old Servants of His Majesty, or the Widows or Children, or other Relations of any old Servants, who may be deemed by His Majesty fit Objects of His Majesty's charitable Bounty, in so that such Pensions and Allowances fall not, in Addition to the Sums which shall continue to be applied under the Authority of His Majesty in each Quarter, under the Provisions of the said recited Act, of the last Session of Parliament, and this Act, exceed in the whole the said Quarterly Sum of Four thousand five hundred and seven Pounds aforesaid, and in also as that the new Pensions and Allowances, granted or ordered in any One Year, shall not exceed the Sums of One thousand Pounds; and that no new Pension or Allowance shall rise of the Annual Sum of Three hundred Pounds; and such new Pensions and Allowances shall be paid under the same Authority, and at the same time, and together with the Sums issued Quarterly, to the Person appointed by Her Majesty under this Act, and the due Application of the Money issued for the Payment thereof, accounted for in like manner to the said Commissioners as directed by this Act, as to such Quarterly Sums as aforesaid.

XII. And whereas Provision was made in the said recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, for the Case of His Majesty's Real and Personal Estate and Property, under an Act passed in the Thirtieth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty: And whereas the Continuance of His Majesty's Indisposition makes it necessary that further Provision should be made in that behalf; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, and His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, by any Instrument in Writing under their Hands and Seals, to appoint Three Persons to be Commissioners, one of whom shall be a Master of His Majesty's High Court of Chancery, who shall sit without any Salary, Fee or Reward, for the Protection, Care and Management of His Majesty's Property during His Indisposition, and such Persons to remove, and from time to time in like manner to appoint others as they shall see Vacancies by Death, Removal or Resignation, of any of the said Commissioners.

XIII. And he it further enacted, That every Commissioner so appointed shall, before he enters upon the Execution of the Duties of his Commission, take an Oath before the Barons of the Court of Chancery, or one of them, in the Form following: may be sworn.

‘ I, A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully execute the Trust reposed in me, and keep secret all the Proceedings and Accounts of such Trust, which I shall be required to disclose the same, or any Part thereof, by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, or His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, or make any such Disclosure shall be necessary in any Course of Law or otherwise, for the Care and Protection of His Majesty's Property, in the Execution of my Trust. ‘ So help me GOD.’

Oath.

XIV. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to commence, prosecute, or defend any Suit, Action, Information or other legal Proceeding, or file any Bill or Bills in Equity, or proceed in any manner in Law or Equity, for the Recovery, Discovery or Protection of any Property, Real or Personal, of His Majesty, and for the Recovery of any Damages for any Injury done thereon, and for that Purpose to use the Name of His Majesty, or of any Trustee or Trustees of His Majesty, or their own Names, as they shall deem most expedient; and no Suit shall abate by the Death of any such Trustee or Trustees, or Commissioner or Commissioners; and all Costs, Charges and Expenses incurred, shall be paid out of the Property under the Care and Management.

C A P. IX.

An Act to repeal an Act of the Twenty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for better securing the Duties on Coals, Culm and Castles; and making other Provisions in lieu thereof; and for requiring Ships in the Coal Trade to be insured. [28th February 1812.]

‘ WHEREAS Masters and Owners of Ships and Vessels employed in the Coal Trade in England and Wales, are put to great Inconvenience and incur great Risk by the present Practice of loading and clearing out such Ships and Vessels; And whereas it is expedient, in order to obviate such Inconvenience and Risk, that other Provisions should be made, and that the Regulations contained in an Act passed in the Twenty fifth Year of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for better securing the Duties upon Coals, Culm and Castles, should be repealed, as far as the same relates to England and Wales: Be it therefore enacted executed by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act, in so far as the same relates to England and Wales, shall be, from and after the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve, no Coquet shall be granted by the Collector, Controller, or other Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs, in any Port, Harbour, Haven or Creek, in England or Wales, for the shipping Coastwise, any Coals, Cakes or Cinders, nor shall the Master or Person having or taking the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel be permitted to land any Coals, Cakes or Cinders on board any such Ship or Vessel until the Fitter or Fitters, or if there shall be no Fitter, then until the Coal Owner or his Agent, vending or shipping the Coals, Cakes or Cinders, shall have delivered to the said Collector, Controller, or other proper Officer aforesaid, signed with his or their own Hand or Hands, two Certificates respecting the real Quantity of Coals, Cakes or Cinders intended to be shipped on board such Ship or Vessel, which Certificates every such Collector or other proper Officer is hereby directed to sign, enter and register in a public Book to be kept by such Collector, or other proper Officer at the Custom House in the respective Port or Place where such Ship or Vessel is to be cleared Coastwise as aforesaid, one of which Certificates, after being so signed, entered and registered as aforesaid, shall be delivered to the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel in which the same are intended to be shipped, and the other shall remain in the Custody of the said Collector, or other proper Officer in the Custom House aforesaid, to which said Register any Person or Persons shall and may lawfully resort to see and examine the same without Fee or Reward; and it shall not be lawful for any Collector, Controller or other Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Customs in any such Port, Harbour, Haven or Creek as aforesaid, to clear Coastwise, any Ship or Vessel wherever, laden or in part laden with Coals, Cakes or Cinders, nor to sign, issue forth, or grant any Coquet, License, Tonnage or other Discharge of any Nature or Kind whatever, for the clearing of a Coasting Voyage, any such Ship or Vessel, unless the Fitter or Fitters, Coal Owner or Agent, who is vended or shipped the Coals, Cakes or Cinders on board the said Ship or Vessel, shall have delivered to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at such Port, Harbour, Haven or Creek aforesaid, where such Ship or Vessel is to laden, or in part laden, such Certificates as are herebefore directed and required.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said First Day of March it shall and may be lawful for the Collector, Controller or other proper Officer of the Customs, in any Port, Haven, Harbour or Creek in England or Wales, to sign, issue forth, or grant any Coquet, for the clearing Coastwise of any such Ship or Vessel, for which the Certificates of the Fitter, Coal Owner or Agent, required by this Act, shall have been delivered according to the Directions herein contained; and such Coquet shall and may be issued forth and granted by any such Collector, Controller, or other proper Officer, for and according to the Quantity declared in such Certificates to delivered as aforesaid; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases of Shipment of Coals, Cakes or Cinders to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, in any Ship or Vessel whatever, the Certificate to be delivered as aforesaid, by such Fitter, Coal Owner or Agent, shall express the true Quantity of Coals, Cakes or Cinders actually laden on board such Ship or Vessel.

V. And be it further enacted, That in case any Fitter or Fitters, Coal Owner or Agent, vending or shipping Coals, Cakes or Cinders, shall not give such Certificates as aforesaid, or shall give or make any false Certificate or Certificates of the Quantity of Coals, Cakes or Cinders, sold or vended by him or them, and intended to be shipped or laden, or actually shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel whatever in England or Wales, or who shall deliver any such Certificate or Certificates signed by any Person except himself or themselves, every such Fitter or other Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Coals, Cakes or Cinders, shall be on board any such Ship or Vessel, which shall be cleared Coastwise at any Port of England or Wales, from and after the said First Day of March shall upon any Passage whatever be delivered in any Part beyond the Seas, before the Duties due upon the Exportation thereof have been paid, the Master or other Person or Persons having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel shall, before he or any other Person be permitted again to enter or clear the said Ship or Vessel Coastwise, or far Parts beyond the Seas, not only pay to the Collector or other proper Officer at the Port of England or Wales, from whence the said Ship or Vessel is intended to be cleared out as aforesaid, the Export Duties on the present Quantity of Coals, Cakes or Cinders, which it shall appear that any such Ship or Vessel is capable of containing, but also the further Sum of Three Shillings for every such Chaldron of Coals, Cakes or Cinders, Wholesale Measure, to be applied and appropriated to the same Uses with the respective Duties now payable as Coals, Cakes or Cinders exported: Provided nevertheless, if it shall appear upon the Oaths of the Master, together with the Mate and Two of the Mariners belonging to such Ship or Vessel, and who were on board at the time he was cleared Coastwise, and taken in her during the whole Voyage, taken in the open Custom House before the Collector and Controller of such Port (who are hereby authorized and required to administer the same), that such Ship or Vessel was really and bona fide laded by contrary Winds or other unavoidable Necessity and Distress have proceeded with such Coals, Cakes or Cinders, to some Part or Place in Great Britain, which Proof shall be manifested by such Officer to the Commissioners of the Customs in England; and if it shall appear to their satisfaction that such Vessel was so forced into Parts beyond the Seas as aforesaid, the said

Commissioners

Commissioners of Customs, or any Four of them, shall and may order the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs, to whom the said Duties and the said Sum of Twelve Shillings for every Children is assessed shall have been paid as herebefore directed, to grant the Master of each Ship or Vessel a Special Certificate thereof, in order that his Crew Bond may be discharged, and to return such respective Sum of Twelve Shillings for every Children of Coals, Colm or Cinders, to paid as aforesaid; but on Failure of the Proof herein directed, or if the same shall not be satisfactory to the said Commissioners, such Bond shall and may be performed and put in force; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in order to ascertain the greatest Quantity of Coals, Colm or Cinders, which any Ship or Vessel having so delivered any Coals, Colm or Cinders in any Part beyond the Bars, is capable of containing, a proper Person or Persons to be selected and appointed by the Collector of the Customs of the Port in England or Wales to which such Ship or Vessel shall first return after such Delivery in Parts beyond the Bars is aforesaid, shall measure each Ship or Vessel, for the Purpose of ascertaining the greatest Quantity of Coals, Colm or Cinders to be computed in Children, Woods for Measure, which such Ship or Vessel is capable of containing, and the said proper Duties and additional Duties shall be paid according to such Assessment; and such Person or Persons to be appointed shall be paid by the Owner or Owners of any such Ship or Vessel so measured, for his or their Trouble, after the Rate of One Penny Halfpenny for every Children which such Ship or Vessel shall appear to be capable of containing.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Entry and Register of the Factor's Certificate, is directed as aforesaid, shall be accepted and admitted as and taken to be full and complete Evidence of the Fact in all cases where the original Certificates are not produced.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Penalty in this Act mentioned shall and may be performed, determined and recovered by Bail, Pleas or Informations, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, and in the Court of Exchequer in Edinburgh respectively, whereas no Essoins, Pleadings, Privilege or Waiver of Law shall be allowed; and One Mooty thereof shall be to the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Mooty to the Person or Persons who shall sue for or prosecute the same.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it shall appear to no have been done, then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff shall be satisfied, or discontinue his Action after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if Judgment shall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same which the Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other cases of Law.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fiftheth Year of His present Majesty, for granting a Sum of Money to be raised by Exchequer Bills, to be advanced and applied in the Manner and upon the Terms therein mentioned for the Relief of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies. [28th February 1812.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Fiftheth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for granting to His Majesty a Sum of Money to be raised by Exchequer Bills, and to be advanced and applied in the Manner and upon the Terms therein mentioned for the Relief of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies: And whereas considerable Sums of Money have been advanced and disbursed for the Use of His Majesty's Navy in the East Indies, and for other Public Services, for which Credit cannot be given for the said Company in Payment of the Sums advanced under the Provisions of the said Act, by reason that such Payments are required to be made, on or before the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, to carry to the Credit of the said Company, in Repayment of the Sums advanced under the Provisions of the said Act, any Sum or Sums of Money which shall have been advanced or disbursed by the said Company in the East Indies for His Majesty's Navy, or any Public Services; and it shall also be lawful for the said Company to pay any Sum or Sums of Money on account of or in Repayment of Sums of Money advanced under the said Act, into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, at any time after the First Day of January in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twelve, any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and all Sums so advanced or disbursed in the East Indies as aforesaid, which shall be allowed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury to be carried to the Credit of the said Company, and all Sums paid into the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer after the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, in Repayment of Sums advanced under the said Act, shall be received at the Exchequer, and go in Discharge of any Balance which shall remain unpaid of Sums so advanced as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury to issue and apply the same to such Services as shall then have been voted by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in this present Session of Parliament, and all such Payments shall go in Discharge of the Amount to be paid of any Bonds given by the said Company for Repayment of Advances under the said Act, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

C A P. XI.

An Act to repeal an Act passed in the Thirty-sixth and Fortieth Year of His present Majesty, for establishing certain Regulations in the Offices of the House of Commons, and to establish other and further Regulations in the said Offices. [28th February 1812.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in a Session of Parliament, holden in the Thirty-sixth and Fortieth Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for establishing certain Regulations in the Office of the House of Commons: And whereas the Provisions of the said Act are in several respects defective, and in others require to be varied and amended: and it is therefore expedient to repeal the said Act, and to make other and further Provisions in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the Lords, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And whereas by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date at Whitehall the Third Day of June in the Eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the Office of Clerk of the House of Commons, with an Assent of Ten Pounds, and all other Rewards, Dues, Rights, Profits, Commodities, Advantages and Emoluments whatsoever in the said Office, after what manner, time, or condition, then or thenceforth lawfully appointed, incident, accustom'd or belonging, was granted to John Haydon Esquire, for and during his natural Life: And whereas also by certain other Letters Patent, bearing Date at Whitehall after the Fourth Day of July in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the said Office was granted to John Loy Esquire, for and during his natural Life, to take Effect from and after the Death of the said John Haydon in as full, ample and beneficial a manner as the same had been granted to the said John Haydon as aforesaid: And whereas John Clowdsley Esquire was, on the Seventh Day of January last, appointed by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent of the United Kingdom, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty, to be the Serjeant at Arms attending upon the Speaker of the House of Commons, during the Sitting of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient, that, also the Salaries, Fees and Emoluments belonging to the said Office, respectively, and that Regulations should be established in relation to the Salaries and Emoluments of the said Office, and other Officers of the House of Commons: Be it therefore enacted, That the Speaker of the House of Commons for the time being, and the Secretary or Secretaries of State, the Chamberlain of the Exchequer, the Master of the Rolls, and the Attorney and Solicitor General for the time being (they and each of them being able Members of the House of Commons) shall be and they are hereby constituted, constituted and appointed Commissioners for the Purpose of this Act; and any Three of the said Commissioners (whereof the Speaker of the House of Commons for the time being shall be one) shall be and they are hereby authorized to carry this Act into Execution.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Expire of the said Letters Patent, so granted to the said John Haydon and John Loy, and of the Appointment of the said John Clowdsley as aforesaid, all Salaries, Fees, Perquisites and Emoluments, which would have been due and payable to any former Clerk or Clerk Assistants of the House of Commons, or Serjeant at Arms attending the Speaker of the House of Commons for the time being, in case this Act had not been made, shall from time to time, as the said Commissioners shall direct, be paid into the Hands of the said Commissioners, or of such Person or Persons as they shall by Warrant under their Hands and Seals appoint to do so the same, and shall by the said Commissioners be applied and distributed, as the same shall be directed to be.

IV. Provided always, and be it furthermore enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed to prevent the said Commissioners, upon the Expire of either of the said Letters Patent, granted to the said John Haydon and John Loy Esquire, or of the said Appointment of the said John Clowdsley Esquire, which ever may first happen, from carrying the Purpose of this Act into Execution, as far as the Nature of the respective cases will admit; and provided also, that the said John Clowdsley Esquire, so long as he shall continue to hold the said Office of Serjeant at Arms, shall hold the same under the like Regulations as the same were holden by his immediate Predecessor in the said Office.

V. And whereas the Office of Serjeant at Arms attending the Speaker of the House of Commons during the Sitting of Parliament, and of House-keeper of the House of Commons, was, and for a long time past have been holden respectively by the same Person, and the Salaries, Fees and Emoluments appertaining to the Office of Serjeant at Arms, have been hitherto brought to account separately under the Act hereby repealed: Be it therefore enacted, That after the Expire of the period limited of the said John Clowdsley Esquire, he is appointed Serjeant at Arms as aforesaid, the Office of House-keeper of the House of Commons shall hereafter be holden by the Person who shall be appointed to the Office of Serjeant at Arms attending upon the Speaker of the House of Commons; and the Salaries, Fees and Emoluments heretofore usually paid to the House-keeper, shall be paid into the Hands of the said Commissioners, or the Person or Persons so appointed by them as aforesaid, and be accounted for to the said Commissioners, and applied by them, together with and as the same shall be directed to be, to the Salaries, Fees, Perquisites and Emoluments due by this Act directed to be paid and applied.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Person or Persons to be appointed by the said Commissioners to collect and receive the Salaries, Fees, Perquisites and Emoluments, shall give such Security as shall be required required by the said Commissioners, for the faithful Execution of such Trust, and duly to account, from time to time, as often as he or they shall be required so to do by the said Commissioners, for all Sums of Money which shall come to or be in their Hands as such Collector or Collectors as aforesaid; and how they shall render such Account of Money so received as aforesaid, together with an Account of all the Sums due and payable to the said Clerk, Clerk Assistant, Sergeant at Arms, and Deputy-Sergeant at Arms respectively, in Right of their respective Offices, who are hereby severally required to verify such Accounts under their Heads respectively; and every Account of Money received by the Collector or Collectors shall be verified by him or them upon Oath as to the State thereof, and all Particulars relating thereto; which Oath may one of the said Commissioners be lawfully authorized to administer; and each Collector or Collectors shall from time to time, as shall be directed or prescribed by the said Commissioners for that Purpose, pay into the Bank of England, in the Name and to the Account of the said Commissioners, all Sums of Money which shall hereunto come to or be in his or their Hands as such Collector or Collectors as aforesaid, and such Accounts shall be called 'The Account of the Commissioners for regulating the Office of the Clerk of Commons'; and the Name of the Speaker of the House of Commons for the time being shall be inserted therein; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to make the Money to be placed in their Account as aforesaid, as they shall think fit, and to apply the same to any use or uses, in such Manner as they shall think fit, for the Purpose of the said Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, and they are hereby directed to pay to the Clerk of the House of Commons for the time being, the set annual Sum of Three thousand Pounds, for and during the first Five Years which the said Clerk of the House of Commons shall hold his said Office, and from and after the said Term of Five Years to pay to such Clerk of the House of Commons, the further set Sum of Five hundred Pounds annually, making together the Sum of Three thousand five hundred Pounds; and to pay to the Clerk Assistant for the time being the set annual Sum of Two thousand Pounds, for and during the said Five Years which the said Clerk Assistant shall hold his said Office, and from and after the Expiration of the said Term of Five Years, the further set annual Sum of Five hundred Pounds, making together the Sum of Two thousand five hundred Pounds; and also to pay to the Second Clerk Assistant for the time being, the set annual Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds, for and during the said Five Years which the said Second Clerk Assistant shall hold his said Office, and from and after the Expiration of the said Term of Five Years, the further set annual Sum of Five hundred Pounds, making together the Sum of Two thousand Pounds; which several annual Sums the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to pay by Half-yearly Payments or otherwise as they shall think fit; and which Sums so paid by the said Commissioners to the Clerk and Clerk Assistant and Second Clerk Assistant of the House of Commons respectively, shall be taken and accepted by them respectively, in full Satisfaction and Discharge of all Salaries, Fees, Perquisites and Emoluments, to which they might or could have been entitled, or which they may lawfully have claimed respectively to receive by virtue or in respect of their said respective Offices, previous to the passing of this Act, any former Practice or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall apply to or prevent the demanding, receiving and taking the Fees which may arise from the Examination of the Sufficiency of the Sureties who enter into Recognizances to prosecute Eleazar Petitions, or for using the Coils and Expenses of prosecuting and appealing any such Petitions, which Fees are established and ascertained under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty eighth Year of His present Majesty, for the further Regulation of the Trials of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Number of Years more than Five Years which any Clerk Assistant or Second Clerk Assistant for the time being, who shall be appointed to the Office of Clerk of the House of Commons after the Expiration of the Letters Patent aforesaid, shall have held the Office of Clerk Assistant or Second Clerk Assistant, shall be reckoned as Part or the Whole, as the case may be, of the Five Years by this Act required to entitle the Clerk of the House of Commons to have and receive the full Salary or Sum of Three thousand five hundred Pounds; and shall entitle such Clerk Assistant or Second Clerk Assistant appointed to the Office of Clerk of the House of Commons, to the full Sum of Three thousand five hundred Pounds per Annum; and in like manner if any Second Clerk Assistant who shall have served more than Five Years as such, shall be appointed to the Office of Clerk Assistant, he shall be entitled thereupon to the full Sum of Two thousand five hundred Pounds per Annum.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and directed, from and after the Expiration of the Interest of the said Job Crompton in the said Office of Sergeant at Arms, to pay to the Sergeant at Arms succeeding the Speaker of the House of Commons, during the sitting of Parliament for the time being, the set annual Sum of Two thousand Pounds, which said Sum of Two thousand Pounds shall be taken and accepted by the said Sergeant at Arms for the time being, in full Satisfaction and Discharge of all the Salaries, Fees, Perquisites and Emoluments, to which any former Sergeant at Arms might or could have been entitled, or which he might lawfully have claimed to receive by virtue or in respect of his said Office previous to the passing of this Act, and also of the Office of Housekeeper of the House of Commons heretofore enjoyed, any former Practice or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: And also except the Allowance of Three hundred Pounds a Year, now usually paid to such Sergeant at Arms, in Fee of a Residence for the said Sergeant at Arms, he attending the Speaker as aforesaid, and such Summable and convenient Residence as the Variety of the House of Commons shall be provided as heretofore for such Sergeant at Arms as aforesaid; and which Sum shall be paid as heretofore by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and be receivable by the Sergeant at Arms in addition addition to such Salary as aforesaid, upon the Condition of his applying the same towards providing himself with a Residence in the Vicinity of the House of Commons as aforesaid.

Allowance to Deputy Serjeant
at Arms.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, and they are hereby directed, to pay to the Deputy Serjeant at Arms, an Allowance of Eight hundred Pounds; which said Sum of Eight hundred Pounds shall be in lieu of all other Allowances, Fees and Emoluments, to which any former Deputy Serjeant at Arms might have been entitled, or which he might have been accustomed to receive by virtue or in respect of his said Office, previous to the passing of this Act, say former Practice or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding; and except an Allowance of Two hundred Pounds a Year, or less of a Residence for the said Deputy Serjeant at Arms, and less suitable and convenient Residence, in the Vicinity of the House of Commons, shall be provided otherwise (which said Sum shall be paid to him in like manner, and under the like Conditions, as the Allowance before-mentioned to the Serjeant at Arms); and also except such Captain Fees as, upon an Account thereof to be rendered to the Commissioners, shall be allowed by them; which Allowance, in lieu of such Residence and Captain Fees as aforesaid, shall not may be received by such Deputy Serjeant at Arms in addition to such Salary as aforesaid.

Commissioners
to pay Collectors,
&c. and Clerks.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby directed, to pay the Collector or Collectors and other Persons employed by them in the Execution of this Act, such Salaries or Allowances as shall appear to them to be just and reasonable; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners, from time to time, to pay and allow to the Clerks in the Office of the Clerk of the House of Commons, such Fees and Allowances as may be just and proper, according to the Rules and Usages heretofore, or which may hereafter be established, or in use, for regulating such Allowances; which Payments and Allowances shall be deemed and taken to be in lieu of all Payments for the like Services heretofore made upon Accounts of the House of Commons or otherwise.

Accounts to be kept by them.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and required to prepare and lay before the House of Commons, within Twenty Sitting Days after the Commencement of every Session of Parliament, a Statement shewing the Amount of the Money received as their Account at the Bank, or collected under their Order, pursuant to the Provisions and for the Purposes of this Act, after the making of all such Payments as are hereinbefore required or authorized by this Act, or referring what may be necessary for making such Payments, together with a Plan of the manner in which it is proposed or intended by the said Commissioners that the Relief be applied and disposed of, towards making a Provision for the Support of such Officers of the Speaker of the House of Commons, or of the Clerk of the said House, or Serjeant at Arms, as may from special circumstances appear to require the same, and for allowing a permanent Allowance to the Clerk, Clerk Assistant, Second Clerk Assistant, Serjeant at Arms, or Deputy Serjeant at Arms, and such other Persons as aforesaid, who may have been debted by Age or Infirmary from the Discharge of their respective Duties; which said Plan shall be binding and conclusive on the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and directed to carry the same into Effect, within the said House, within Twenty Sitting Days after the said Plan shall have been so laid before them, shall have otherwise ordered and directed; and this and in such case with such Variation as shall have been so ordered and directed.

Directions for laying Account before the House of Commons, and for Appropriation of Surplus.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall prepare and lay before the House of Commons, within the further Space of Twenty Sitting Days after the said Plan shall have been concluded upon and established, a Statement shewing the Amount of the Money so received by them by virtue of this Act, and of the Purposes to which the same shall have been applied and disposed of, or for which any Sum or Sums of Money may be necessary to satisfy the same, and carry the said Plan into Execution, in order that the Sums necessary to supply any Deficiencies in the said Fund for the Purposes to which the same as by this Act made applicable, and to pay such Salaries and Allowances as are directed and authorized by this Act, may be provided by Parliament; and any Surplus (in case it shall appear from the said Account that there is in the Hands of the said Commissioners a Surplus remaining, after making all Payments required and authorized by this Act, and carrying into Effect the Plan and Order aforesaid in respect thereof) shall be applied and disposed of towards providing, in case the House shall so be, a Remuneration for the Person or Persons by whom the Duties of Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means shall have been discharged during the then Session of Parliament; and in case there shall be any further Surplus over and above a Sum equal to the Amount of the Charges and Outgoings for the last Year, and of the Payments proposed and to be made under the Plan aforesaid, together with such Remuneration, if any, the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required, in the next Place, to retain such Sum towards Payment of the Charges and Outgoings of the ensuing Year, and to pay (except all such Salaries and Allowances as aforesaid, by Half-yearly Payments or otherwise, as they shall think fit; and the said Commissioners shall, within Twenty Days after the Conclusion of each Session of Parliament, pay the said Surplus into the Exchequer, to the Account of the Consolidated Fund.

Account to be kept by the Clerk.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That after the Expiration of the present Interest of the said John Haydel and John Ley, the Power of Nomination or Appointment, by the said Clerk of the House of Commons, of all the Clerks in his Department, together with the Power of Suspension and Removal of all the Clerks so by him nominated or appointed, shall be holden, exercised and enjoyed by the said Clerk of the House, in such manner as the same are holden, exercised and enjoyed at the time of the passing of this Act; Provided it nevertheless, upon the Expiration of the said Interest Patent, granted to the said John Haydel and John Ley, no Clerk (but the House of Commons shall choose the said Office by Deputy.

C A P. XV.

An Act for further continuing, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, certain Bounties and Drawbacks on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain; and for suspending the Countervailing Duties and Bounties on Sugar, when the Duties imposed by an Act of the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty shall be suspended; and for continuing so much of an Act of the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty as allows a Bounty on Raw Sugar exported, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

[31th March 1812.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for allowing certain Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain, and for allowing other Drawbacks and Bounties in lieu thereof, and the Fifteenth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and four: And whereas an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend Two Acts passed in the Forty third and Forty fifth Years of His present Majesty, for regulating the Drawbacks and Bounties on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain: And whereas Three other Acts passed in the Forty sixth, Forty seventh and Forty eighth Years of His present Majesty, for further continuing the said Act of the Forty third Year of His present Majesty: And whereas another Act passed in the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for further continuing, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and ten, certain Bounties and Drawbacks on the Exportation of Sugar from Great Britain, and for suspending the Countervailing Duties and Bounties on Sugar when the Duties imposed by an Act of the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty shall be suspended: And whereas, in an Act passed in the Forty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for suspending the several Duties of Customs chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof: And whereas by Two other Acts passed in the Fifth and Forty sixth Years of His present Majesty, the Drawbacks allowed by the said recited Act passed in the Forty ninth Year aforesaid, and the Bounties allowed by the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty were further continued: and it is expedient that the said Drawbacks and Bounties so continued by the said Acts of the Fourth and Fifty fifth Years of His present Majesty, should be further continued: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Drawbacks in the Schedule to the said last recited Act of the Forty ninth Year aforesaid, and the Bounties in the Schedule to the said recited Act of the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty annexed, shall be respectively paid and allowed in like manner in every respect, and subject to and under, and according to the like Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, (except when any Alteration is made by this Act) as the said Drawbacks and Bounties were respectively paid or allowed before the passing of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That if it shall appear by Notice in the London Gazette published on the Saturday which shall happen next after the First Wednesday in May, the First Wednesday in September One thousand eight hundred and twelve, or the First Wednesday in January One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, that the Average Price of Brown or Mulcombo Sugar taken in manner directed by an Act made in the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for regulating the Allowance of the Drawback and Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, and for providing the Incentives of Sugar and Coffee into the Bahama and Bermuda Islands in Foreign Ships, for the Four preceding Months, computed to the Whitstides immediately preceding such Saturday nextforesaid, shall on and from succeeding Months, be taken as a Half-ton Weight exclusive of the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon as the Importation into Great Britain, then and in every such year the Drawback or Bounty in the Schedule to the said recited Act passed in the Forty sixth and Forty seventh Years of His present Majesty shall be respectively several times, as corresponding to or with the Price of such Sugar Notice in the London Gazette shall have been given as aforesaid, shall be paid or allowed until Notice of any other Average shall in like manner appear in the London Gazette on any other of such Saturdays as before mentioned; and such Drawback or Bounty shall be paid or allowed in like manner in every subject, and subject and order and according to the like Rates and Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as any Drawbacks or Bounties were paid or allowed before the passing of the said last recited Act (except in any such Rates or Regulations are altered by the said recited Acts of the Forty sixth and Forty seventh Years aforesaid).

111. And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for regulating the several Duties of Custom chargeable in Great Britain, and for granting

49 G. 3. c. 51. other Duties in New Jersey, the Lord High Treasurer or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury,

49 G. 3. c. 49. or any Three or more of them, are authorized to Suspend the Payment of the additional Duties of Customs of Sugar, granted by the said last recited Act, either in the Whole or in Part, whenever the average Price of Sugar ascertained as directed by the said recited Act, and by another Act passed in the Forty sixth Year *of His Majesty, intitled *An Act for regulating the Mode in which the average Price of Brown or Black Coffee

Sugar, exclusive of the Duty thereon, is to be ascertained under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty, shall be below the Prices mentioned in the said last recited Act of the Forty sixth Year aforesaid: And whereas it is expedient, that, during the Period of such Suspension, the

Countervailing Duties on Refined Sugar imported from Ireland into Great Britain, and the equivalent

Drawback or Bounty on the Exportation of Refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Great Britain, and also the additional Bounty on the Exportation of Refined Sugar from Great Britain, or other than Ireland, imposed and allowed by the said last recited Act, should in like manner be suspended: Be it therefore further enacted, That whenever the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, shall exercise the Power vested in them, and shall, according to the Direction of the said Act, suspend the Payment of the Whole or Part of the Duties on Sugar thereby imposed, it shall be lawful for them and they are hereby authorized and required in like manner and for the like Period, to suspend either the Whole of the additional Countervailing Duties of Customs on Refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Ireland, imported from thence into Great Britain, and of the additional Drawback or Bounty on the Exportation of Refined Sugar of the Manufacture of Great Britain, and of the additional Bounty on the Exportation of Refined Sugar from Great Britain, other than to Ireland, imposed and allowed by the said last recited Act, or each Part thereof respectively as shall bear a just Proportion to the Amount of Duty so suspended.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said recited Act of the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, and all the Powers, Provisions, Authorities, Regulations, Clauses, Matters and Things in the said Act enacted, except as the same are varied or altered by this Act, shall be and the same are hereby further

continued from the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and shall be and remain in full Force until the Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for the Port of London, and until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, for other Parts of Great Britain.

V. And whereas by an Act passed in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to

47 G. 3. c. 68. allow for Two Years, from and after the passing of this Act, an additional Bounty on Double Refined Sugar,

48. and to extend former Bounties on other Refined Sugar, in such as shall be provided, except or broken; and to

49. allow for One Year certain Bounties on British Plantation Raw Sugar exported, a certain Bounty was allowed

50. upon the Exportation of Double Refined Sugar; and also a Bounty was allowed upon the Exportation of

51. Raw Sugar; and it was enacted that so much of the said recited Act as related to the allowing of a Bounty

52. upon Double Refined Sugar should continue in force for Two Years from the passing of the said Act; and

53. so much thereof as related to the allowing of a Bounty upon Raw Sugar should continue in force for One

54. Year from the passing of that Act: And whereas by another Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of His

55. *present Majesty, intitled *An Act to amend and continue until the Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and nine, so much of an Act of the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty, as relate to certain Bounties on British Plantation Raw Sugar exported, so much of the said last recited Act as related to the said Bounties upon Raw Sugar was further continued with certain Alterations till the Twentieth

Day of March One thousand eight hundred and nine: And whereas so much of the said recited

Act of the Forty seventh Year aforesaid, as related to the Bounties upon Raw Sugar, as altered and continued by the said last recited Act, and also the said last recited Act allowing and continuing the same, have been by subsequent Acts continued until the Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve; and it is expedient that the said Bounties should be further continued: Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said recited Act of the Forty seventh Year aforesaid, as relates to the Bounties on Raw Sugar, as altered and continued by the said recited Acts, shall be further continued until the Twentieth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That from and after the Fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twelve, the Allowance of the Bounty granted upon the Exportation from Great Britain (except to Ireland) of Single Plantation Raw Sugar by the said last recited Act of the Forty seventh

C A P. XVI.

An Act for the more exemplary Punishment of Persons destroying or injuring any Stocking or Lace Frames, or other Machines or Engines used in the Framework knitted Manufacture, or any Articles or Goods in such Frames or Machines; to continue in force until the Fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen. [20th March 1812.]

WHEREAS the Provisions of an Act of the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better and more effectual Protection of Stocking Frames and Machines or Engines against Theft or spoil thereof, and for the Punishment of Persons abetting or assisting of such Stocking Frames, Machines or Engines, and the Framework knitted Pieces, Stockings, and other Articles and Goods used and made in the History or Framework knitted Manufacture, or breaking or destroying any Machinery contained in any Mill or Mills used or in any way employed in preparing or spinning of Wool or Cotton for the Use of the Stocking Frame, have been found insufficient: And whereas such Offences have for some time past been carried on to an alarming Extent; it is therefore necessary that more effectual Provisions should be made against such unlawful Practices, and for preventing such Offences, and punishing Offenders therein to exemplary Justice; and that such Provisions should be extended to the Framework Lace Manufacture, against which similar Offences have been committed: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons shall, by Day or by Night, enter by Force into any House, Shop or Place, with an Intent to cut or destroy any Framework knitted Piece, Stocking or Lace, or other Articles or Goods being in the Frame, or upon any Machine or Engine thereto annexed, or therewith to be used or prepared for that Purpose; or with an Intent to break or destroy any Frame, Machine, Engine, Tool, Instrument or Utensil, used in and for the working and making of any such Framework knitted Piece, Stocking, Lace, or other Articles or Goods in the History or Framework knitted Manufacture; or shall wilfully and maliciously, and without having the Consent or Authority of the Owner, destroy, or cut with an Intent to destroy or render useless, any Framework knitted Piece, Stocking, Lace, or other Articles or Goods being in the Frame, or upon any Machine or Engine as aforesaid, or prepared for that Purpose; or shall wilfully and maliciously, and without having the Consent or Authority of the Owner, break, destroy or damage with an Intent to destroy or render useless any Frame, Machine, Engine, Tool, Instrument or Utensil used in and for the working and making of any such Framework knitted Piece, Stocking, Lace, or other Articles or Goods in the History or Framework knitted Stocking, or Framework Lace Manufacture; or shall wilfully and maliciously, and without having the Consent or Authority of the Owner, break or destroy any Machinery contained in any Mill or Mills used or in any way employed in preparing or spinning of Wool or Cotton, or other Materials for the Use of the Stocking or Lace Manufacture, every Offender being thereof lawfully convicted shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death, in all Cases of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Person in whose House or Custody or Possession any Frame, Machine or Engine, Tool, Instrument or Utensil, used in and for the working and making of any Framework knitted Piece, Stocking, Lace, or other Articles or Goods in the History or Framework knitted Stocking, or Framework Lace Manufacture as aforesaid (not being his or her Property) shall be at the time of the Destruction or damaging thereof, or of any Framework knitted Piece, Stocking, Lace, or other Articles or Goods, being in the Frame, or upon any Machine or Engine as aforesaid, and who shall not, within Twenty-four Hours after he or she shall have known of such Destruction or Damage being committed as aforesaid, give Notice thereof to the Owner of such Frame, Machine or Engine, Tool, Instrument or Utensil, as aforesaid, if residing within Twelve Miles, or if such Owner shall not reside within such Distance, then to some known Agent of such Owner, if any such Agent shall reside within the Distance of Twelve Miles; and also within Forty eight Hours, go before some Justice of the Peace or Magistrate residing near the Place where such Destruction or Damage shall have taken place as aforesaid, to be examined upon Oath, as to every Matter or Thing relating to the committing of such Destruction and Damage, and his Knowledge thereof, and of all Particulars relating thereto, which may lead to the Discovery of the Offender therein, every such Person shall for every such Neglect, be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor; and every such Offender, being thereof lawfully convicted upon any Indictment or Information, may be punished as in Cases of Misdemeanors, by Fine and Imprisonment, at the Discretion of the Court: in which he shall be convicted; and every Justice of the Peace or Magistrate before whom any such Person shall so go, shall examine such Person upon Oath (which Oath every such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate is lawfully authorized to administer) as to his Knowledge of such Destruction or Damage, and of the Person committing the same, or of any Particulars which may lead to the Detection of the Offender therein; and shall also show the Owner of the Frame, Machine or Engine, Tool, Instrument or Utensil, as aforesaid, or Agent if present, to put any Question upon Oath to such Person for the Discovery of the Offender; and if such Owner or Agent shall not have had sufficient Notice to be present when such Person came before the Justice or Magistrate for Examination as aforesaid, such Justice of the Peace

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Person examined by or before any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate under this Act as aforesaid, shall wilfully or corruptly swear any Matter or Thing which shall be false or untrue; or if any Person shall suborn or procure any Person to commit Perjury in any such Examination, every such Person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to the like Pains and Penalties as are by Law inflicted upon Persons committing Perjury, or guilty of Subornation of Perjury.

An Act may be printed.

Continuance of Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall remain in full force until the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and no longer.

C A P. XVII.

An Act for the more effectual Preservation of the Peace, by enforcing the Duties of Watching and Warding, until the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in Places where Disturbances prevail or are apprehended. [20th March 1812.]

WHEREAS considerable Numbers of disorderly Persons have for some time past assembled themselves together, on different Occasions, in a riotous and tumultuous manner, in several Parts of the County of Nottingham, and in the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, and in the adjoining Counties, and have had Recourse to Measures of Force and Violence, and have actually committed various Acts of Outrage in different Parts of the said Counties, whereby the Property of many of His Majesty's Subjects has in several Instances been wholly destroyed, and their Lives and Properties are still endangered; and whereas the giving more prompt Means, and more effectual Powers for enforcing the Duties of watching in the Night-time, and warding in the Day time, will tend to the Preservation of the Peace, and to the Protection of the Persons and Properties of the Inhabitants of the said Counties, and of any other Counties in which similar Outrages may be committed: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Chief Justice, or in his Absence the Sheriff, or any Two Justices of the Peace sitting in and for any County in that Part of the United Kingdom called England, may, from time to time, and as often as Occasion shall require, in case any Disturbances or Offences against the Peace prevailing or being apprehended within the County, shall in his or their Opinion render the Execution of this Act advisable and necessary, by Order under his or their Hands and Seals respectively, direct the Clerk of the Peace sitting for the County, or his lawful Deputy, to convene and assemble a Special General Session of the Justices of the Peace sitting in and for the County, by Notice given in some Newspaper circulating in the County, and put up upon the Church Doors and conspicuous Places of the Market Places, if any, of the several Parishes, Towns and Places in which such Disturbances shall be or are apprehended, Two Days at the least before the time fixed for the Meeting, to take into Consideration, and to determine upon the Expediency of carrying into Effect all or any of the Powers and Provisions of this Act; and the Justice so assembled may adjourn the said Special General Session, and so from time to time as Occasion may require.

Chief Justice, or Sheriff, or Justice, to convene a Special General Session for Execution of Act.

Justice in Special General Session to appoint and declare the State of the Peace in the County, and Expediency of executing Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall appear to the Justices of the Peace at any such Special General Session so assembled as aforesaid, that Disturbances prevail or are apprehended in the County, within any Parish, Township or Place, situated within their respective Jurisdictions, and that the ordinary Officers appointed for preserving the Peace are not sufficient for the Protection of the Inhabitants and Security of the Property being or lying in the Parish, Township or Place where such Disturbances prevail or are apprehended, then and in any such case it shall be lawful for the said Justices, not being less than Five, and they are hereby empowered to adjudge and declare, that the Officers ordinarily appointed are insufficient for the Preservation of the Peace, and for the Protection of the Inhabitants, and the Security of the Property being or lying in any such Parish, Township or Place; and that every Man residing within any such Parish, Township or Place, above the Age of sixteen Years, and charged or assessed to the Rate for the Relief of the Poor therein, shall be subject and liable to the Duties of watching by Night and warding by Day, according to the Provisions of this Act; and thereupon to subscribe and order the Powers and Provisions of this Act to be carried into Execution within every or any such Parish, Township or Place, and forthwith to give Notice of such their Adjournment and Orders to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, and Notice of such Adjournment shall also be published by the Clerk of the Peace in some one or more Newspaper or Newspapers usually circulating in the County.

Justices to subscribe Warrants, and so make Commissions to them.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace sitting in and for any such County, by Summons under his Hand and Seal, to cause to come before any such Special General Session so assembled as aforesaid, any Person or Persons whomsoever, to give Evidence and to be examined concerning any Matters relating to the Execution of this Act; and the Justice at every such Special General Session are hereby authorized and empowered to order the Treasurer of the County to pay out of the County Rates to every Person

Person

Perfus to be summoned or required to give Evidence as aforesaid, such Sum or Sums of Money as by the Justices at their said Special General Sessions may be adjudged to be a proper and reasonable Compensation for his, her or their Loss of Time, Trouble and Expenses; and if any Person be summoned as aforesaid, if it ought to be refused to appear at the time appointed by such Sessions, and no just or reasonable Excuse shall be made, or sufficient Cause alleged for such Absence; or if any Person appearing upon any such Sessions shall refuse to be examined upon Oath, it shall be lawful for the Justices present at such Special General Sessions, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any Two of them, to commit any such Person for neglecting or refusing to appear, or refusing to be examined, to the Common Gaol or House of Correction of the County, for any time not exceeding Three Months.

Imprisonment

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Justices in each Special General Sessions shall order Notices of such their Adjournments to be given by the respective Chief Constables to the several Constables of every Parish, Township or Place in which the Powers and Provisions of this Act are required to be enforced by any such Act or Statute as aforesaid, and to the Special Constables, if any shall have been appointed under this Act, and to the Precincts regarding from the said Constables, within such time as shall be required by the Justices, not exceeding Three Days after such Notice, a List and true List of the Names, Occupations and Ages of all the Men above and under the said Years dwelling within their respective Parishes, Townships or Places, above the Age of Seventeen Years, and who are charged or subject to the Rates made for the Relief of the Poor therein, and to return the same to the said Justices, or to any Two of them, attested in such Special or Petty Sessions as shall or may be appointed to be held for receiving the same.

Justices in Special General Sessions to order Notices to be given by Chief Constables to require Lists to be made by the said Special Constables, or Men above the Age of 17 Years paying Poor Rates, to be returned to the said Justices: Constables to deliver Copies of Lists to the said Justices and to the said Special Constables, and to the said Men above the Age of 17 Years.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Constable required to return or still in the making making such List as aforesaid, to demand from the respective Overseer or Overseers of the Poor of every such respective Parish, Township or Place, a true Copy of the Assessment laid made for the Relief of the Poor therein, or the Imprest and Use of such Assessment, for making a Copy or Copies of the same, or any Part thereof, or Extracts thereof; and in case any such Overseer or Overseers shall neglect or refuse, by the Space of Twenty four Hours, to deliver such Copy of the said Assessment, if the same shall be demanded, or shall refuse the Imprest and Use of such Assessment, he or they shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds for every such Offence.

Constables to make true Lists of Persons liable, and to give Notice to Overseers requiring Time and Place of Appeal.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every such Constable shall, and he is hereby required, within such Time as shall be prescribed by the said Justices, to make out a true List of every Man within the Parish, Township or Place, or any Part thereof, for which he shall be required to make out such List, above the Age of Seventeen Years, and rated as aforesaid, and shall to every such Person deliver a Notice according to the Form contained in the Schedule hereto annexed, marked [A], specifying that he is liable as contained in such List, and mentioning the Time and Place appointed by the Justices for hearing Appeals by Persons claiming to be exempt from the Duties required or ordained by this Act.

Justices may require Attendance of Overseers, and a Return of Lists.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Justices of the Peace, or any Two of them, may from time to time give their Order under their Hands and Seals, requiring the Attendance of any Constable at their Office of any such Parish, Township or Place, at such Time and Place within the said County, as shall in such Order be expressed; and if any such Constable or Officers shall without sufficient Excuse neglect to appear according to such Order, or to return any List which shall have been taken by him under this Act, or shall in making such Return be guilty of any Fraud or wilful Partiality or gross Neglect, he shall, for every such Offence, be liable to forfeit a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, nor less than Forty Shillings.

Justices may require a List in Duplicate, &c.

VIII. And be it enacted, That if any such List of any Parish, Township or Place, be lost or destroyed, any Two Justices of the Peace for the County within which any such Parish, Township, or Place is situated, may at any Special or Petty Sessions, order and cause a new List to be made and returned to them as aforesaid, at such time as they may appear.

Constables to notify Returns on Oath, and to attend Lists, and to give notice of warning and warding.

IX. And be it enacted, That the Constables who shall have made any such Lists, shall severally attend and verify the said Returns on Oath, on each Day and at such Place as may be appointed; and the said Justices at any Special or Petty Sessions held for receiving this Act into Execution, or any Two or more of them, shall, after hearing any Appeals or Claims of Exemption, direct such Lists to be attended as the same may require, and shall also direct the Names of all Persons omitted to be inserted; and after attending the said Lists, shall appoint such Number of Watchmen to be liable to undertake and execute the said Duties of watching and warding, as the said Justices shall think necessary to keep Watch in every such Parish, Township or Place, every Night from Six o'clock until Six o'clock, and also to keep Watch during the Day time, if and in their Judgment shall require (reasonable regard being had to the Extent and Population of the said Parish, Township or Place); and shall also determine, make, and arrange, the Order, Rotation and Turn, in which every Person is liable to the Duty of watching and warding, shall undertake and perform the same, and regulate the manner in which the said Duty shall be performed.

Where it shall be necessary to appoint a greater Number of Persons than the Four Rates in any Parish, to perform the said watching and warding, Justices to appoint what Lists.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace, in any case in which it shall appear to them that the Number of Persons rated to the Poor Rates in any Parish, Township or Place, is not sufficient for the Duty of watching and warding under this Act, to require any other Lists, and appoint any such Number of other Persons as may appear to them to be necessary to perform the Duty of watching and warding under the Provisions of this Act; who shall be thereupon liable to perform their Duty, and subject to all the Provisions, Powers, Authorities, Faculties, Privileges and Provisions of this Act, as if they had been returned in the Lists of the Persons rated to the Poor; and it shall be lawful for the said Justices to allow to such Persons such Compensation for their Services as may appear to them to be reasonable and proper to be paid in like manner as any Compensation to Persons watching and warding is directed by this Act to be paid.

Appel.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person whose Name shall be inserted in any such List or Lists as aforesaid, shall think himself aggrieved thereby, or by the Omission of any other Names, or shall claim to be exempted from serving, he may make Appel to the Special or Petty Sessions appointed for hearing such Appel; and that the Justices of the Peace then and there present, or any Two or more of them, may hear and determine the same; and in case the same Appeals cannot be heard on the Day appointed, they may adjourn to any other Day or Days.

Special Sessions to appoint Constables, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Watchmen, and Ward.

XII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Justices, at any Special or Petty Sessions, to appoint such Number, and of such Persons, whether rated or not, in the Parish or Place, or not, as to them shall appear fit and proper, to be designated Special Constables, who, in conjunction with or independent of the Constables for the time being, or One or more of them, according to the Order of the said Justices, shall direct, regulate and manage, from time to time, all Persons engaged or employed in keeping Watch or Ward: Provided always, that the said Special Constables, and all the said Persons so engaged or employed in watching or in warding, shall be subject to the general Superintendance and Control of the Civil Constable in and for the Hundred or Division in which each of the said Parishes, Townships or Places is respectively situate; provided that no Person, not resident in the Parish or Place for which he shall be so appointed a Special Constable, shall be obliged to serve as such against his Consent.

Justice of the Peace, or Sheriff, may direct an Act to be put in Execution in any Part of the County.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if it shall appear to the Custos Rotulorum, or Sheriff or Justice aforesaid, who shall direct the choosing and appointing of any Special General Sessions as aforesaid, that the Circumstances under which they convene such Sessions, make it advisable that watching and warding should be enforced with as little Delay as possible, if the Justices assembled at the Special General Sessions should deem the Execution of the Act necessary, it shall be lawful for such Custos Rotulorum, or Sheriff or Justice, to give Notice to the Constables, and appoint other Special Constables, and require Lists, and hear Appeals, and do all such Acts, Matters and Things, and use and exercise all Powers and Authorities for the completing of every Act, Matter and Thing necessary, for the more speedy Execution of the Act, if the Special General Sessions shall upon assembling deem it necessary to put the Provisions thereof in force; and all the Provisions, Ordinances and Regulations in this Act, shall be applied for the enforcing such Directions of the Custos Rotulorum, Sheriff, or Justice aforesaid, as if the Special General Sessions had assented the Act to be carried into Execution; and in the case aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any Two of the said Justices to appoint Special Constables for the Purpose of watching and warding; and also to appoint any other Persons who may be willing to undertake the said Duty, until the Determination of the Special General Sessions shall be known; and to direct the Payment to such Constables and Persons respectively, of Compensation in manner directed by this Act, as if the Provisions thereof were in force under the Administration of the Special General Sessions.

Chief Constable to visit and enquire into Special Sessions.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Chief Constable of every Hundred or Division shall, once at least in every Week, or as often as the said Justices shall direct, visit every Parish, Township or Place, in which Watch and Ward shall be served as under the Provisions of this Act; and shall diligently enquire respecting the manner in which the said Duties of watching and warding have been carried out Effect within the said several Parishes, Townships or Places, and shall make and deliver a faithful Report of the same, and of all Matters relating to the Performance of the Peace, or Writing, to the Justices at their respective Special or Petty Sessions.

Refusing to watch or ward.

XV. And be it enacted, That if any Person is appointed to watch or to ward, shall neglect or refuse to appear at such Time and Place as shall be appointed by the Constable or Special Constable or Constables of the Parish, Township or Place, for the Performance of the said Duties, or either of them, or shall neglect or refuse to proceed according to the Directions and Orders of the Constable, or of the Special Constable or Constables of any such Parish, Township or Place, in the regular and peaceful Performance of the said Duty, every such Person is neglecting or refusing, who shall not prove to the Satisfaction of the Magistrate that he was prevented by Illness, or such other unavoidable Accident as shall in the Judgment of the Justices be a sufficient Excuse, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds nor less than Forty Shillings for every such Neglect or Refusal: Provided nevertheless, that the said Justice of the Peace, or any Two of them, at the said Special or Petty Sessions, may exempt and discharge from the Duty of watching or warding any Man exceeding the Age of Fifty Years, and not occupying Lands or Tenements of the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds.

Penalty.

Provision for Persons above Fifty Years of Age, not occupying and a Year's Imprisonment, or by Peace Sessions or Civil Constables.

XVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Person, who shall have served a sufficient Habitude, as he approved by the said Justices at the said Special or Petty Sessions, or by the Chief Constable of the Hundred or Division in which the said Parish, Township or Place shall be situate, and who shall have inserted the Name, Age, Occupation, and Place of Abode of such Habitude in the Book of the Constable, or his lawful Deputy, within the said Parish, Township or Place, shall be liable to any such Forfeiture; but that every such Habitude, so appearing and so being recorded, shall be subject to the same Duties and Authorities, and also to the same Penalties for neglecting or refusing to execute the same, or any such Authority, so if he had been personally subject to keep Watch and Ward, which he shall give Notice in Writing of his Intention to withdraw his Service as a Habitude, both to the said Constable and his said Employer, at least Two Days before the time when the Services of the said Habitude would become necessary, according to the Return or Surrender established within the said Parish, Township or Place.

Constables, in the Execution of their Duties, may require necessary Arms, &c. by

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the Constables of Parishes, Townships or Places, shall, at the Expense of the same, provide Rattles, Staves, Lighters, and such Weapons, Arms, and Accoutrements, as the said Justices shall at their said Special or Petty Sessions direct, for the Use of every Person so keeping Watch or Ward; and such Arms and Articles to be delivered to every Person who shall undertake the said Duty of watching and warding, and to be returned by every such Person to the Special or other Constable of the Watch, as soon as any such Person shall come to be engaged or employed in the said Duties of watching or warding; and shall also provide, at the like Expense of the said Parishes, Townships or Places, such Watch Hoods or Watch Hooks, or other Accommodations and Conveniences as the said Justices shall in like manner advise necessary or expedient; and all such Expenses shall be paid out of the Poor Rates of each Parish or Township, or if more Parishes or Townships than One, out of the Poor Rates of the several Parishes or Townships, and shall be raised and contributed in such Proportions as shall be settled by the Justices at Special or Petty Sessions; which nevertheless to Receive, and any such Allowance as may appear to be proper by the Justices assembled at the next or any subsequent Special General Sessions, in case any Parish shall think the Proportions are not properly regulated by the Justices at such Special or Petty Sessions.

The Duty of Special Sessions.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That every Person so appointed to watch or to ward, shall, during his respective time of watching or warding, to the utmost of his Power, endeavor to prevent all Murders, Burglaries, Robberies, Affrays, and all Felonies, Outrages, and Disturbances; and for that End, each and every of them is hereby authorized and empowered to arrest and apprehend all Nightwalkers, Malefactors, Rogues, Vagrants, and other loose, idle, disorderly and seditious Persons, who shall be found within the Precincts or any Part of his said Parish, Township or Place, and to deliver the Person or Persons so apprehended, as soon as conveniently may be, to the Constable, or to some One of the Special Constables for the said Parish, Township or Place, at the Watch House, or if there be no Watch House, at such other House or Place of Security as may be appointed for the Reception and Detention of such seditious Persons or Offenders by the Constable of the said Parish, Township or Place, until he, he or they can be constantly carried before some or One of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace sitting for the County in which such Parish, Township or Place is situated.

The Duty of Persons engaged to watch and ward.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That in case any One or more of the Persons keeping Watch or Ward within any Parish, Township or Place, shall want any Assistance to enable him or them so to perform any Part of the Duty hereby required to be done by him or them, then and in every such case any other of the Persons keeping Watch or Ward in the same or any adjoining Parish, Township or Place, having Knowledge or Notice thereof by the Banns, or by other Signal, Outcry, or otherwise, shall and may, and is hereby required immediately to repair to and assist, by the best ways and means in his or their Power, and as the case may require; but that no Person, during the time of keeping Watch or Ward as aforesaid, shall absent himself from his particular Stand or Walk, without the Consent and Direction either of the Constable or the Special Constable of the Night, unless on some such Occasion or Occasions as is or are above expressed, or for the Suppression of some Disorder of which he shall be an Eye or Ear Witness on some adjoining Stand or Walk, in the Absence of the Person keeping Watch or Ward on the said adjoining Walk or Stand, nor longer on any of the said Occasions than the Necessity of the case may require.

Watchmen to assist each in apprehending Disturbances.

XX. And be it further enacted, That every Constable or Special Constable so intrusted as aforesaid with the Direction, Regulation and Management of such Persons as may be required to perform the Duties of watching or warding shall respectively on every Night of such watching, and on every Day of such warding, diligently observe and examine the Behaviour and Conduct of every Person so engaged or employed under him in watching or warding; and shall enter in a Book to be kept for this Purpose the Name of every such Person, with the Hours of his Attendance, and with Remarks upon his Conduct, specifying whether he has been attentive and diligent, or disobedient and remiss in the Duty of watching or warding; and such Constable or Special Constable shall, once in every Week, or oftener if required, deliver such Book, containing such Report, and such other Observations as may arise in the Discharge of his Duty, to the Chief Constable of the Hundred or Division in which such Parish, Township or Place is situated, or to such Person as the said Justices in such Special or Petty Sessions shall appoint to receive the same.

Constables to report the Conduct of Persons watching or warding.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Magistrates of any City, Borough, Town or Place, having exclusive Jurisdiction as Justices of the Peace for the Preservation thereof within their respective Cities, Boroughs, Towns or Places, shall have full Power and Authority to every the said Act into Execution within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions; and it shall be lawful for any Two Magistrates to make any Advertisement or Order, or do any Act, Matter or Thing for which any greater Number of Justices is required by the Provisions of the said Act, as in any County; and it shall be lawful for the Town Clerk of any such City, Borough, Town or Place, or if there shall be any such Officer therein, or if there shall be no such Officer, for any Person appointed by the Magistrates in that Behalf, to give any Notice required to be given by the Clerk of the Peace, for assembling any Special General Sessions; and all the Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Authorities, Penalties and Forfeitures in this Act contained and enacted as to any Cities, and Justices sitting in any Counties, and as to carrying this Act into Execution within any County, shall extend and be construed to extend to all Cities, Boroughs, Towns and Places, the Magistrates whereof have exclusive Jurisdiction as Justices of the Peace, so fully and effectually as if all such Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Authorities, Penalties and Forfeitures were severally and separately re-enacted as to such Cities, Boroughs, Towns and Places.

Magistrates in Cities, &c. have exclusive Jurisdiction and execute the said Act within their respective Jurisdictions.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in every case in which the Expenses attending the Police or Preservation of the Peace in any City, Borough, Town or Place within any County, shall have been paid out of any Rate or Assessment made in such City, Borough, Town or Place, distinct from any Rate levied in the County, although the Magistrates in such City, Borough, Town or Place, shall not have any exclusive Jurisdiction as Justices of the Peace, it shall be lawful for the Magistrates and Justices of the Peace within such City, Borough, Town or Place, to carry the said Act into Execution within such City, Borough, Town or Place, and to require the Payment of all Expenses arising thereunto, separate and distinct from the County within which such City, Borough, Town or Place shall be situated; and as a City, Cities, &c. having a Police may continue to execute the Act in such Cities, and shall not be liable to a County Rate.

Borough,

Borough, Town or Place, or Parish therein, in which any such Rate or Assessment shall have been raised or levied for the carrying this Act into Execution, or in which the Expense of carrying this Act into Execution shall have been paid out of the Poor or other Rates raised in the Parishes of such City, Borough, Town or Place, shall be liable to contribute to the making of any Rate for the County, at large, for the carrying this Act into Execution, nor shall any such Rate be levied in any Parish or Part of any such City, Borough, Town or Place, beyond the local Limits within the Jurisdiction of the Watch and Ward shall be performed under the Provisions of this Act; any thing in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Powers, Authorities and Duties, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, Particulars and Provisions in this Act contained, in relation to Constables, shall stand and be confirmed to extend to every Headborough, Burfilden, Tythingman or other Officer performing the Duty of Constable, by whatever Name such Officer may be called, as if by as if every such Officer was reported in the General Clauses relating to Constables in this Act.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all the Provisions in this Act contained, in relation to any County, shall extend to any Riding or Division within or for which separate General or Quarter Sessions are held, and it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace in any County, City, Borough, Town or Place, to add any Extra-parochial Place to any Parish for the Purposes of this Act, and all the Provisions in this Act contained in relation to Parishes shall extend to all Townships or other Divisions of Parishes, and to all Extra-parochial Places added to any Parishes for the Purposes of this Act, as fully and effectually, as if all the Parishes, Churches, Parishes, Authorities, Regulations, Provisions and Particulars in this Act contained had been severally and separately enacted, so as to such Townships, Divisions of Parishes, or Extra-parochial Places; and all Constables and Special Constables, and other Officers performing the Duties and having the Authority of Constables, shall have full Power and Authority in any such Extra-parochial Place; and where there shall be no Rate levied in any such Extra-parochial Place, either for the Payment of any Taxes or of Poor, or for the Provision of the Peace, or for the Relief of the Poor, out of which any of the Expenses of getting this Act into Execution can be paid, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace to cause Rates to be made and levied in such Extra-parochial Place for the Payment of such Expenses, so that such Extra-parochial Place shall bear their fair Proportion of Expense with the Parishes or Divisions in which they shall be added; and all Constables and others required to make and collect such Rates shall have full Power and Authority for the making and collecting, raising, levying and collecting the same as the Overseers of the Poor have by Law for the making and levying any Rate for the Relief of the Poor, as if all such Powers and Authorities, and Provisions and Particulars in any Neglect, were specially enacted in this Act as to such Rates.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Constable or Special Constable, in any case in which any Person offending against this Act shall upon Parole escape out of the Jurisdiction of such Constable upon such Parole to apprehend such Offender at any Place, although out of his Jurisdiction, and do all Acts, Matters and Things, and execute all such Authorities, and enjoy all such Privileges in relation to the Apprehension and Arrest of any such Offender, as if he had been taken and apprehended within the Jurisdiction of such Constable.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Person watching or standing in the Capacity of such Special Constable, shall for every Night and for every Day during which he shall be so engaged, be entitled to receive such Compensation or Allowances as the Justices of the Peace, at any Special General Sessions to be held as before mentioned, shall direct, for every Night and for every Day; and every other Person engaged in so watching or standing, shall (if his Jurisdiction shall have been granted to the Constable or Special Constable of the Watch of that Parish in which he resides) be entitled to receive such Sum as the Justices at the said Special General Sessions shall direct, for every Night and for every Day, which he shall be so employed; to be paid forthwith by the Constable of the said Parish, and regard to the said Constable by the Overseer of the Poor of the said Parish, or being entered in a Book by such Constable, and delivered to such Overseer of the Poor, after having been verified upon Oath before any One Justice of the Peace for the said respective Counties, and entered in Writing by such Justice, as having been so verified upon Oath, and as having been examined and allowed by the said Justice; Provided always, that any Person from whom any such Compensation for watching or standing shall have been so withheld by any Constable, may appeal to any Justice of the Peace for the County in which such Complaint arose, whose Decisions concerning the same shall be conclusive on all Parties.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Magistrates or Justices of the Peace in any County, City, Borough, Town or Place, in which any Disturbances shall be committed by the Peaceful or be apprehended, and in which any Number of Persons shall, with the Approbation of the Majority of such Magistrates assembled at any Special General Sessions of the Peace within such County, City, Borough, Town or Place, have voluntarily assembled for the Purpose of watching and warding, and shall watch and ward under such Regulations as shall be approved of by such Magistrates or Justices, to allow to the Persons so watching and warding, (although such Watch and Ward shall not be warranted under the Provisions of this Act) such Compensation for their Time as shall appear to such Magistrates to be reasonable and proper, out of any Rate or Assessment levied in such County, City, Borough, Town or Place, for the Relief of the Poor, or out of the Poor or other Rates of the several or any of the Parishes or of, in such Proportions as shall appear to them under the Circumstances to be proper; and if any such case it shall be lawful for the Persons authorized to raise and levy such Rates, to raise any Sum or Sums of Money necessary for paying such Compensation as aforesaid, by all such Powers, Authorities and Provisions, and under such Particulars and Provisions as Neglect or Refusal to pay any such additional Rate or Assessment, as they are by any Act or Acts of Parli-rent, or Law or Lawful Demand to use, execute and put in force for raising the Rates out of which such Contributions are by this Act made payable; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or Law or Laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall assault or resist any Person watching or warding, within the Execution of his Office, or shall provoke or encourage the same, every such Person, for every such Offence shall, upon Conviction before a Magistrate, forfeit and pay out of his own and exceeding Twenty Pounds; and shall be also liable to such other Punishment upon Conviction, as any Justices or Information, for such Offence, as any Person are liable to for assaulting a Peaceable in the Execution of the Duties of his Office.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Visitor or Keeper of any Public House shall knowingly harbour or entertain or permit any Person to be engaged in watching or warding, to abide or remain in his House drinking or topling during the Hours and Times directed by watching or warding, every such Visitor or Keeper of a Public House shall for the First Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Forty Shillings; and for the Second Offence the Sum of Five Pounds; and for the Third and every Subsequent Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds.

XXX. And whereas there is disposed and suspected Persons resort to Towns and Villages, and frequent Places in which they have no fixed or permanent Residence, with Intentions to seduce others to join in Disturbances against the Peace, or to aid and abet such Disturbances in other Counties and Places; and although their evil Purposes are sufficiently manifested, Justices of the Peace have an effectual means of removing them: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace, upon Information upon Oath by any Constable, or other credible Witness, that any Person or being an Householder in the Place, and not being legally settled therein, or a Native thereof, is in the Belief of such Constable, or other credible Witness, upon his Oath, dangerous to the Peace of the Place where he is resorting, or that he is endeavouring to seduce others to aid and abet Disturbances therein, or in other Places, to issue a Warrant to apprehend such Person, and to cause such Person to come before them, and to remove such Person upon Oath as to the Parish or Place where he was last legally settled, and the Place or Places where he has resided for some time past, and as to his means of Livelihood, and his Occupations and Employment, and Mode of living, and Reason for resorting to the Place where he is so found; and the Substance of such Examination shall be reduced to Writing, and signed by such Justices, and by the Person so examined, and shall be transmitted to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County, there to be filed and kept of Record; and if such Person shall not be able to give a satisfactory Account of himself, and of his Way of living, and of his Reason for resorting to the Place where he shall have been at the Time of such Information of such Constable or other credible Witness as aforesaid, and it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Justices, upon any such Examination, or upon the Examination upon Oath of the Constable or other credible Witness (which Oath the said Justices are hereby authorized to administer), that there is just Ground to believe that the Person so apprehended is engaged in Practices dangerous to the public Peace, then and in such case it shall be lawful for the said Justices to order such Person forthwith to remove, or if he shall refuse to obey such Order, to remove such Person to the Place of his legal Settlement, if the same can be ascertained, or if not, to the Place where he shall have last resided, in like manner as any Vagrant may now by Law be removed; and if such Person shall, after any such Order to remove to his Place of Settlement or Residence, or Removal to such Place as aforesaid, return to the Place from which he shall have been so sent or removed as aforesaid, without showing sufficient Cause, to be approved of by the said Justices; or if such Person shall upon his Examination refuse to answer, or if the Account which he has given of himself shall prove to be false, it shall be lawful for any Two Justices to adjudge such Person to be a Rogue and Vagabond, within the Intent and Meaning of the Statute made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds, and other ill disposed and disorderly Persons, and the Ways of Correction.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace, to require the Constables in any Parish or Place to make out and deliver to them, within such time as shall be required by such Justices, and as often as the said Justices shall deem the same to be necessary, just and true Lists of all Persons usually residing or then being within the Parish in which the List shall be required, where the Age of Females; and for the Purpose of making such Lists, it shall be lawful for any such Constable to demand from each Householder within the Parish a true List or Account of the Children and Servants of every Person then in the House of such Householder above the Age of Fourteen Years; and every Person who shall neglect or refuse, on the Case being demanded, to give such List or Account to the Constable, or who shall knowingly give any false Account, shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds; and every Constable who shall neglect or refuse to make out and deliver such List to the Justices who shall demand the same, shall forfeit for any such Offence any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person shall think himself aggrieved by the Judgment of such Justices as aforesaid, such Person may appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for the County or Place wherein the Cause of Complaint shall have arisen, such Person, at the time of such Judgment entering into a Recognizance personally to appear at the said Sessions to try such Appeal, and to abide the further Judgment of the Justices at such Sessions assembled: Provided always, that such Appeal shall not have the Effect of preventing in the mean time the Execution of the Judgment of the said Justices, unless the Party appealing shall procure Two sufficient Sureties, being Householdors of the Parish in which he was apprehended, who shall enter into a Recognizance to XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That any Petition or Petitioners guilty of any Offence for which any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture shall or may be incurred by this Act, shall and may be convicted thereof by Informations upon the Oath of any One credible Witness, by any One or more Justices of the Peace sitting as Justices of the Peace for the County wherein such Offence shall be committed; and that all and every the pecuniary Penalties or Forfeitures which shall be incurred or become payable for any Offence or Offences against this Act, shall and may be levied by Distress under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of any Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County in which any such Offence or Offences was or were committed, or where the Forfeiture or Penalties were or were incurred; and shall, when levied, be paid, One Month to the Informers, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish in which the Offence was committed; and in case of no sufficient Distress whereby to levy the Penalties, or any or either of them, imposed by this Act, it shall and may be lawful for any such Justice or Justices respectively, before whom the Offence or Offences shall be committed, to commit such Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, to hard Labour, for such time not exceeding Three Months, as the said Justice or Justices in his or their Discretion shall think fit.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Justice or Justices before whom any Petition or Petitioners shall be convicted in manner prescribed by this Act, shall cause every such respective Conviction to be drawn up in the Form or to the Effect specified in the Schedule to this Act, and marked (B); and the said Justice or Justices, before whom such Convictions shall be had or made, shall cause the same to drawn up in Form aforesaid, to be fairly written on Parchment, and transmitted to the next General Quarter Sessions, to be kept among the Records of the said Court: And in case any Petition or Petitioners shall hereafter be convicted of any of the Offences punishable by this Act, shall receive him, her or themselves to be aggrieved by such Conviction, then and in every such case, it shall and may be lawful for each Petition or Petitioners respectively, and he, she or they shall or may appeal to any General Quarter Sessions of the Peace next holden after such Conviction is had for the said respective Counties, among which the Justice or Justices, before whom such Conviction shall be made, Notice in Writing, within Eight Days after any such Conviction of his, her or their Intention to prefer such Appeal; and the said Justices, in their said General Quarter Sessions, shall and may, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to proceed to the Hearing and final Determination of the Matter of such Appeal, and to make such Order therein, and to award such Costs, to be paid by and to either Party, not exceeding Forty Shillings, as they in their Discretion shall think fit; which final Order shall be binding and conclusive on all Parties; and such Appeal, or the Subject Matter thereof, or any Order therein, shall not be removed by Writ or Writs of Certiorari or otherwise.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace, at any Adjournment of their said Special General Sessions, or at any future General Special Sessions convened or adjourned in like manner as is heretofore accustomed, shall and may, according to their Discretion, suspend or discharge the Powers and Possibilities of this Act, in any or every of the Parishes, Townships or Places, within their respective Jurisdictions; whenever it shall appear to them, upon sufficient Evidence, that the Disturbance of the Peace within any or every of the said Parishes, Townships or Places, shall have actually subsisted or been suggested; and that the Offence evidently appeared for the Prosecution of the Peace are sufficient for that Purpose, as well as for the Protection of the Inhabitants therein, and the Security of the Property lying or being in any or every of the said Parishes, Townships or Places, and shall thereupon give Notice thereof to His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Home Department.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Person who shall be engaged or employed as a Special Constable or Watchman, for the Purposes of this Act, shall thereby gain or acquire a legal Settlement in any Parish, Township or Place; any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prejudice or in any manner to affect any Jurisdiction, Right or Privilege, Clergy or Curson, of either of the Two Universities of Oxford or Cambridge, but that the several Jurisdictions, Rights, Privileges, Clergy and Customs respectively, shall remain to full Power and Effect; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, that every such Action or Suit shall be commenced within Three Months next after the first committal, and not afterwards, and shall be laid and brought in the County where the Cause or alleged Cause of Action shall have accrued, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence on any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the time was due in performance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it shall appear to be so done, or if any such Action or Suit shall be brought after the time is limited for bringing the same, or shall be brought in any other County, City or Place, than that in which the Cause of Action shall be laid thereupon, and that the time was due in performance and by the Authority of this Act, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall have recovered, or if their Action or Actions, or if a Verdict shall pass against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have and may recover Treble Costs, and have the like Privilege for the same, as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit in other cases by Law.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and others, without specially pleading the same.

XL. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed, by any Act or Acts As directed.
to be passed in this Session of Parliament.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall remain and continue in force until the First Day of Continuance of

C A P. XXX.

An Act to render void and effectual certain Oaths administered to and taken by certain Members of the House of Commons before Deputies of the late Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, during the Vacancy of the said Office. [20th March 1812.]

17 Geo. 3. 1. 13.
 17 Geo. 3. 1. 13.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the Fifth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled An Act for the Amalgamation of the Queen's Royal Palace over all Estates and Subjects within her Dominions; and by another Act passed in the Seventh Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King James the First, intitled An Act for amending the Oath of Allegiance and Acknowledgment of several Powers Religious; and by another Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Their late Majesty King William and Queen Mary, intitled An Act for the amending the Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and appointing other Oaths; it is provided and enacted, that every Person who should thereafter be elected or appointed a Knight, Citizen or Burgess, or Baron for any of the Five Ports, for any Parishes therein to be holden, before he shall enter the Parliament House or have any Voice there, equally sworn and pronounce the Oaths required by the said several Acts to be taken before the Lord Steward for the time being or his Deputy or Deputies And whereas Henry Frederick Compton Comyns Esquire, who was on the Eighth Day of February last returned to serve in the present Parliament for the Borough of Derby, did on the Twenty fourth Day of February take the Oaths required by the said Statute before Sir James Graham Barronet, who had been by Commission bearing Date the Twenty second Day of June in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and seven, under the Seal of His Grace Earl of Aylesford, then Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, continued, renewed and appointed One of the Deputies of the said Lord Steward, to administer and receive the Oaths required by Law to be taken before the said Lord Steward or his Deputy or Deputies or any One of them: And whereas the Honourable Laurence Dundas Doctor of Civil Law, who was elected on the Fourteenth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and eleven to serve in this present Parliament for the City of York, did on the Third Day of March last take the said Oaths before Peter Hume Esquire, who was also by the said heretofore mentioned Commission appointed One of the Deputies of the said Lord Steward: And whereas the said Henry Frederick Comyns did on the Nineteenth Day of February last, and before the said Days respectively on which the said Oaths were administered to the said Henry Frederick Comyns Comyns and Laurence Dundas as aforesaid, resign his Office of Lord Steward, as if by such persons the said Sir James Graham and Peter Hume had no Power or Authority to administer or receive the said Oaths: And whereas the said Oaths were administered to the said Henry Frederick Comyns Comyns and Laurence Dundas, and received by the said Sir James Graham and Peter Hume without the Knowledge of the Registrar of the said Lord Steward, and that the Powers and Authorities given by the said Commissions had expired and increased: And whereas the said Henry Frederick Comyns Comyns and Laurence Dundas did thereafter enter into and vote in the House of Commons; and it is expedient that the Oaths so as aforesaid administered to and taken by the said Henry Frederick Comyns Comyns and Laurence Dundas be rendered as void and effectual as if the said Commissions had been then in full force and effect; and that the said Henry Frederick Comyns Comyns and Laurence Dundas should severally and respectively be indemnified against any Penalties, Forfeitures, or Disabilities by Law imposed relative to any such Acts, Matters and Things, as aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Oaths so administered to and taken by the said Henry Frederick Comyns Comyns and Laurence Dundas shall be, and the same are hereby rendered a void and effectual to all Intents and Purposes as if the said Commissions had been in full force and effect at the times of taking the said Oaths by them respectively; and the said Henry Frederick Comyns Comyns and Laurence Dundas shall be, and they are hereby indemnified and freed from all Penalties, Forfeitures or Disabilities, for and in respect of all or any such Acts, Matters or Things, by them done as aforesaid.

The Oaths administered to the Persons herein were administered 1812.

C A P. XXII.

An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Questions.

WHEREAS the raising or keeping a standing Army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain or of Ireland, in time of Peace, which it be with the Consent of Parliament, is against Law; And whereas it is judged necessary by His Majesty, and this present Parliament, that a Body of Forces should be maintained for the Safety of the United Kingdom, the Defence of the Possessions of His Majesty's Crowns, and that the whole Number of such Forces should consist of Two hundred and forty five thousand one hundred and sixty six effective Officers and Men, including His Majesty's Forces serving on the Sea; And whereas no Man can be lawfully put to Life or Death, or subjected in time of Peace to any Kind of Punishment without this Reason, by Martial Law, or in any other manner than by the Judgment of law; And according to the known and established Laws of this Realm; yet nevertheless, it being requisite for the retaining of all the before-mentioned Forces in their Duty, that as much Discipline be observed, and that Soldiers who shall mutiny or stir up Sedition, or shall desert His Majesty's Service, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy Punishment than the usual Forms of the Law will allow; Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person who is or shall be commissioned or in Pay as an Officer, or who is or shall be held or in Pay as a Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier, shall at any time during the Continuance of this Act, begin, execute, or be in any Manner or Sedition in His Majesty's Land or Marine Forces, or shall not use his utmost Endeavours to suppress the same, or, coming to the Knowledge of any Mutiny or intended Mutiny, shall not, without Delay, give Information thereof to his Commanding Officer; or shall make, have made, or shall be in any way actually absent or absent as any Garrison, Detachment, Post or Guard committed to his Charge, or which he shall be commanded to defend; or shall compel the Governor or Commanding Officer of any Citadel, Fortress or Post, or deliver up to the Enemy, or to anybody else the same; or shall speak Words, or use any other means to induce such Governor or Commanding Officer, or others, to subscribe before the Enemy, or to himself, or to anybody else, or to deliver up any Garrison, Fortress, Post or Guard committed to their respective Charge, or which he or they shall be commanded to defend; or shall leave his Post before allowed; or shall be found keeping as his Post; or shall hold Correspondence with, or give Advice or Intelligence to any Rebel or Crew of His Majesty's Ship, either by Letter, Message, Signs or Tokens, in any manner or way whatsoever; or shall meet or receive any such Rebel or Enemy, without His Majesty's License, or Leave of the General or Chief Commander; or shall strike or use any Violence against his Superior Officer, being in the Exercise of his Office; or shall disobey any lawful Command of his Superior Officer; or shall desert His Majesty's Service; or shall in any manner or way offend in any of the matters before mentioned, whether such Offence shall be committed within this Realm, or in any other of His Majesty's Dominions, or in Foreign Parts upon Land, or upon the Sea, shall suffer Death, or such other Punishment as by a Court Martial shall be awarded.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That no Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier who shall desert His Majesty's Service, shall be exempt from the Pains and Penalties imposed by this Act; so that such Offence by again returning into His Majesty's Service; but any such Soldier shall, notwithstanding such subsequent Indulgence, be deemed to have deserted His Majesty's Service, and shall in like manner suffer Death, or such other Punishment as by a Court Martial shall be awarded.

III. And whereas Doubts have arisen, whether Soldiers, who of Right belong to Corps from which they have deserted, may be proceeded against and tried for deserting any other Corps in which they may afterwards have enlisted, or from His Majesty's Service, if they shall not after such subsequent enlisting have been placed in any Corps, or for any Crime committed by them whilst serving therein? Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Soldier shall be liable to be tried by a Court Martial, and punished in like manner as if he had originally enlisted in, and of Right belonged to the Regiment, Corps, Troop, Company, Detachment or Party in which he shall be at the time of any subsequent Desertion, or committing any Offence, notwithstanding it shall have been discovered he knows that he had previously belonged to some other Regiment, Corps, Troop or Company, Detachment or Party, and had not been discharged therefrom: Provided always, that if such Soldier shall be charged by such other Regiment, Corps, Troop or Company, Detachment or Party, and be proceeded against as a Deserter therefrom, his subsequent Desertion from any One or more Corps in which he may have successively enlisted, may (unless he shall already have been tried for the same) be given in Evidence as an Aggravation of his Crime; previous Notice being always given to such Deserter of the Fact or Facts intended to be produced in Evidence upon his Trial.

IV. And be it further enacted and declared, That in the case of any Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier tried and convicted of Desertion, whatsoever the Court Martial, which shall pass Sentence upon such Trial, shall not think the Offence deserving of capital Punishment, such Court Martial may, instead of awarding a Capital Punishment, adjudge the Offender, according to the Nature of the Offence, if they shall think fit, to be transported as a Felon, for Life, or for a certain Term of Years; and also, if such Court shall think fit, to be at the Expence of such Term of Years in the Disposal of His Majesty for Service as a Soldier in any of His Majesty's Forces at Home or Abroad for Life, or otherwise, as His Majesty shall think fit; and every such Soldier shall be subject to any Law or Articles of War, for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion;

XVIII. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That all General Courts Martial held under the Authority of this Act, shall consist of Three or Nine Commissioned Officers, as the Case may require; except the first shall be holden upon any Officer, Non Commissioned Officer, or Private Soldier of His Majesty's Forces, which shall be strong in any Place beyond the Seas out of His Majesty's Dominions, or out of any of the Settlements belonging to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, in which Case any General Court Martial may consist of any Number not less than Seven; and except the first shall be holden in Africa or in New South Wales, in which Places such General Courts Martial may consist of any Number not less than Five; of whom none shall be below the Degree of a Commissioned Officer; nor shall the President of any General Court Martial be the Officer commanding in Chief, or Governor of the Garrison where the Offender shall be tried, nor under the Degree of a Field Officer, unless where a Field Officer cannot be had; nor as any Case whatsoever under the Degree of a Captain.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no General Court Martial, consisting of any less Number than Three Commissioned Officers, in which holden in any Place beyond the Seas out of His Majesty's Dominions, or out of any of the Settlements belonging to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or in Africa or New South Wales as aforesaid, shall sentence any Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier to Loss of Life or Limb, or Transportation.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any such General Courts Martial, by their Sentence or Judgment, to inflict Imprisonment or Corporal Punishment, not extending to Life or Limb, as such Court shall think fit, on any Soldier for Insubordination, Misdemeanour or Neglect of Duty.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any General or other Court Martial to sentence any Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier to Imprisonment in any House of Correction, Common Gaol or Public Prison; and all Gaolers and Keepers of such Houses of Correction or Prisons shall receive into their Custody, and keep in Confinement for such time as they shall be respectively required so to do, any Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier who may have been sentenced to Imprisonment by any General or other Court Martial, and shall provide a proper Place for the Confinement of any such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier, according to the Sentence of such Court during the Period of his Imprisonment, upon receiving an Order in Writing from the Commanding Officer of the Detachment within which such General Court Martial shall have been held, or from the Commanding Officer of any Regiment or Corps to which such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier is tried by any Regimental Court Martial as aforesaid shall belong; and every Gaoler and Keeper of a House of Correction or Prison who shall refuse to receive and to receive any such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier in manner as aforesaid, shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt or Information for the Use of His Majesty.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier to be imprisoned as aforesaid, shall forfeit all Right to any Pay from the Day of his Commencement during the time of such Imprisonment; and also, that during the Continuance of any such Imprisonment, the Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison or House of Correction shall receive the Sum of Nine Pence per Diem out of the Subsidies of such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier during the time that such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier shall continue in Custody, which shall be the Secretary at War is hereby authorized and required to make so be paid to the said Gaoler or Keeper aforesaid, upon receiving an Appliance in Writing signed by any Justice of the Peace or the Clerks or Return to which such Court Martial or House of Correction shall be lawfully bound, together with a Copy of the Order under which the said Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier was sentenced. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the Secretary at War for the time being, if he should think fit, to order to the said Pay out of the Monies of such Pay as may Passes thereof, or of any Arrears thereof, to or in favour of any such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier, during or after the Expiration of the Period of his Imprisonment.

XXV. Provided always and be it further enacted, That in all Trials by General Courts Martial, to be held in virtue of this Act, every Member sitting at such Trial, before any Proceedings be had there upon, shall take the following Oath upon the Holy Evangelists, before the Judge Advocate, or his Deputy (who are hereby authorized to administer the same); that it is his Oath,

‘YOU shall well and truly try and determine, according to your Evidence in the Matter now before you, So help you God.’

‘I A. B. do swear, That I will duly administer Justice, according to the Rules and Articles for the better Government of His Majesty's Forces, and according to an Act of Parliament now in force for the Punishment of Mutiny and Disobedience, and other Crimes therein expressed, without Partiality, Favour or Affection; and if any Article shall ever be such as is not explained by the said Articles, or Act of Parliament as aforesaid; or my Conscience, the bill of my Understanding, and the Custom of War in the like cases: And I further swear, That I will not divulge the Sentence of the Court said it shall be approved by His Majesty, or by some Person duly authorized by him; neither will I, upon any Accusation, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the Vote or Opinions of any particular Member of the Court Martial, unless required to give Evidence thereof as a Witness, by a Court of Justice, or a Court Martial, in a due Course of Law.

‘So help me GOD.’

LXIII. And for the better enabled by the Authority aforesaid, That for the better and more regular Provision of Carriages for His Majesty's Forces in their Marches, or for their Arms, Cloths, or Accoutrements, in England, Wales, and the Towns of Berwick upon Tweed, all Justices of the Peace, within their several Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Staves, Liberties and Precincts, being duly required thereto, by an Order from His Majesty, or the General of His Forces, or the Major General or Lieutenant General of His Majesty's Ordnance, or other Person duly authorized in that behalf, shall, as often as such Order is brought in, direct into one or more of them by the Quartermaster, Adjutant, or other Officer or Non Commissioned Officer of the Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company, is ordered to march, either out his or their Warrants to the Constables or Petty Constables of the Division, Riding, City, Liberty, Hundred and Precinct, from, through, and to which such Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company, shall be ordered to march, requiring them to make such Provision of Carriages, and Horses or Oxen, with able Men to drive the same, as is mentioned in the said Warrant, allowing them sufficient time to do the same, that the neighbouring Parishes may not charge their Burghs, and specifying in the said Warrants the Place or Places to which the said Carriages shall, by virtue of such Order as aforesaid, be required to travel, which shall not exceed the Day's March of the Troops, as prescribed in the Order produced to the Magistrate, unless in case of pressing Emergency or Necessity, and shall in no case whatever exceed Twenty five Miles from the Place at which the March shall commence: And in case sufficient Carriages cannot be provided within any such Liberty, Division or Precinct, then the Justice or Justices of the Peace of the next adjoining County, Riding or Division, shall, upon such Order as aforesaid being brought, or shown to one or more of them by any of the Officers aforesaid, issue his or their Warrant to the Constables or Petty Constables of such next County, Riding, Liberty, Division or Precinct, for the Purposes aforesaid, to make up such Deficiency: And the aforesaid Officer or Officers, who, by virtue of the aforesaid Warrant from the Justices of the Peace, are to demand the Carriage or Carriages therein mentioned of the Constable or Petty Constable, to whom the Warrant is directed, as and are hereby required, at the same time, to pay down on Hand to the said Constable or Petty Constable, for the Use of the Person who shall provide such Carriages and Men, the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Wagon with Four or more Horses shall travel, and the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Wain with Six Oxen, or Four Oxen with Two Horses, shall travel, and the Sum of Nine pence for every Mile any Wagon with seven Oxen, or any Cart with Four Horses, respectively, or carrying not less than Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; and the Sum of Six pence for every Mile every Cart or other Carriage, with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; or any further Sum not exceeding Four pence, for every Mile any Wagon with Four or more Horses, or any Wain with Six Oxen, or with Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall travel; and not exceeding Three pence for every Mile any Cart with Four Horses, or carrying not less than Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; and not exceeding Two pence for every Mile any Cart or Carriage with less than Four Horses, and not carrying Fifteen Hundred Weight, shall travel; according as the same shall be fixed and ordered by the Justices of the Peace for any County or District assembled at any General Sessions of the Peace for such County or District, the said Justices having regard to the Price of Hay and Oats at the time of fixing the said additional Rates; for which respective Sums so received the said Constable or Petty Constable is hereby required to give a Receipt in Writing (which Receipt need not be stamped) to the Person or Persons paying the same: And such Constable, or Petty Constable, shall advise and apprise each Person or Persons, having Carriages within their respective Liberties, so they shall think proper, to provide and furnish such Carriages and Horses and Oxen and Men, according to the Warrant aforesaid, who are hereby required to provide and furnish the same accordingly; and no Person owning or driving, or causing to be driven, any such Wagon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage, shall be subject to any Penalty or Forfeiture, nor shall any such Wagon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage be stopped or detained by reason of any Weight in any such Wagon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage, or of being drawn by any Number of Horses or Oxen; but it shall be lawful for any Owner of any such Wagon, Wain, Cart or other Carriage, to put any additional Number of Horses or Oxen to those prescribed or good for under this Act, any thing in any Act or Act of Parliament relating to Highways or Turnpike Roads, or any particular Highway or Road, to the contrary notwithstanding: And if any Military Officer or Officers, for the Use of whole Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company the Carriage was provided, shall force and constrain any Waggon, Wain, Cart or Carriage, to travel beyond the Distance specified in the Magistrate's Warrant, or shall not discharge the same in due time for their Return Home on the same Day, if it be practicable, or shall suffer any Soldier or Servant (except such as are sick), or any Woman to ride in the Waggon, Wain, Cart or Carriage aforesaid; or shall force any Coachable or Petty Coachable, by threatening or menacing Words to provide Saddle Horses for themselves or Servants, or shall force Horses from the Owners by themselves, Servants or Bailiffs, every such Officer, for every such Offence, shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, Proof thereof being made upon Oath before Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the same County or Riding, who are to certify the same to the Secretary at War, who is hereby authorized and required to give Orders for the Payment of the aforesaid Sum of Five Pounds, according to the Order and Appointment under the Hands and Seal of the aforesaid Justices of the Peace of the same County or Riding, and for detaching the same out of such Officer's Pay: Provided always, that in cases where the Day's March of the Troops shall exceed Fifteen Miles, such further Compensation shall be made and paid in like manner to the Owners of the said Carriages as shall be deemed reasonable by the Magistrate who granted the Warrant for imposing them, not exceeding the usual Rate and Hire of such Carriages: Provided also, that every Order of the Justices aforesaid at any General Sessions of the Peace, being a farther Sum to be paid for the Hire of Carriages as aforesaid, in addition to the ordinary Rates of our Riding, and New price, and Six pence per Mile respectively, shall specify the Period for which the same shall be in force, and which shall not in any case exceed Ten Days beyond the General Sessions of the Peace for each County or District, save enforcing the Date of such Order; and a Copy of every such Order, signed by the Chairman or presiding Magistrate, and One other Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at the Quarter Sessions at which the same shall be made, shall within Three Days after the making thereof, be transmitted to the Secretary at War; and so such Order shall be valid or effectual, unless a Copy thereof be so signed and transmitted as aforesaid: Provided always, that in every case of any increased Rate being allowed for the Hire of any Carriage, the Justice of the Peace granting or giving the Warrant shall insert in his own Hand the Amount of such increased Rate for each Deficiency of Carriage, as is ascertained by the Justice at Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, and such Warrant shall be given to the Officer or Non-Commissioned Officer commanding the Regiment, Corps, Company, Detachment or Party requiring such Carriages, as the Warbur for the Payment of such increased Rate, and no increased Rate shall be demanded but such as shall be so ascertained by the Justice in the Warrant.

LXIV. And whereas it may sometimes become necessary in cases of Emergency to provide proper and speedy means for the Carriage and Conveyance, not only of the Arms, Clothes, Accoutrements, Tents, Baggage, and other Equipage of and belonging to His Majesty's Forces in their Marches, but also of the Officers, Soldiers, Servants, Women, Children, and other Persons of and belonging to such Forces: And 'twas it is expedient that Provision should be made for enforcing prompt Obedience to such Orders as His Majesty may in such cases think fit to give, in pursuance of the Powers by Law vested in Him for the Advancement of the general Good and public Welfare of the Realm; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by His Order, strictly stating that such case of Emergency doth exist, signified by the Secretary at War, for the time being, to any General or Field Officer commanding His Majesty's Forces in any District or Place, or to the Commissary in Chief of Stores and Provisions of Home, to authorize such General or Field Officer or Commissary in Chief as aforesaid, by Writing under his Hand, making such Order of His Majesty, to require all Justices of the Peace within their several Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, Liberties and Precincts in England, Wales, and Towns of Burrow upon Towed, to set out or to cause their Warrants or Warrants for any of the Purposes hereinafter mentioned; and such Justice or Justices shall, when and as often as such Requisition in Writing as last mentioned shall be brought and shown unto any One or more of such Justices, by the Quarter Master, Adjutant, or other Officer of the Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company, be ordered to be obeyed, or by any Officer in the Department of the said Commissary General, to refer on his or their Warrants or Warrants to the Constables, or Petty Constables, of the County, Riding, City, Liberty, Hundred and Precinct, from, through, over or to which such Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company shall be ordered to be conveyed, requiring them to make such Provision not only of Waggon, Wain and Carts kept by, or belonging to, any Person or Persons, and for any Use or Purpose whatsoever, but also of Saddle Horses, Coaches, Chaises, and other Four wheeled Carriages usually fit to Hire, or kept for that Purpose; and also of Batts, Barges and other Vessels, and for the Carriage of Coals, Stones, Lime, Marrow or of Goods, Wares or Merchandises, or any other Articles or Commodities whatsoever, upon any Canal or navigable River, with able Men and Horses to draw, navigate and draw the same, as shall be mentioned in the said Warrants or Warrants, therein specifying the Place or Distance in which such Horses, Carriages, Batts, Barges, or other Vessels and Men shall go and be conveyed, and allowing such Constables sufficient time to make such Provision, that the neighbouring Parts may not always bear the Burthen; and in case such sufficient Carriages, Horses, Batts, Barges or other Vessels, and Men, cannot be provided within any such County, Riding, Division, Hundred, City, Liberty or Precinct, then the next Justice or Justices of the Peace of the next County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Precinct, shall, upon such Requisition in Writing as last aforesaid being brought or shown to any One or more of them, by any of the Officers aforesaid, also his or their Warrants or Warrants to the Constables, or Petty Constables, of such next County, Riding, City, Liberty, Division, Hundred or Precinct, for the Purposes last aforesaid, to make up such Deficiency; and the aforesaid Officer or Officers, when by virtue of the aforesaid Warrants or Warrants from the Justice or Justices of the Peace, are to demand the Carriages, Horses, Batts, Barges or other Vessels therein mentioned, of the Constable or Petty Constable to whom the said Warrant or Warrants shall be directed, and are hereby required at the same time to pay down in Hand to the said Constable or Petty Constable, for the Use of the Person or Persons who shall provide such Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges or other Vessels, and Men, such reasonable Sums and Banns of Money, as the said Justice or Justices shall see and by his or their said Warrant or Warrants order and direct, not exceeding the said Rate and Hire of such and the like Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges or other Vessels, and Men, according to the Length of the Journey or Voyage to such particular place, but making no Allowance for Post Horse Duty, or Turnpike, Canal, River or Lock Tolls (which Duty or Tolls are hereby declared not to be deductible or payable in such and the like cases, for any such Carriage, Horses, Boats, Barges and other Vessels, which employed in such Service, or returning therefrom); for which said respective Sums and Banns so received, the said Constable or Petty Constable is hereby required to give a Receipt in Writing, but without any Stamp, to the Person or Persons paying the same; and such Constable or Petty Constable shall order and appoint such Person or Persons having such Horses, Carriages, Boats, Barges or other Vessels, and Men, within their respective Liberties, as they shall think proper, to provide and furnish such Horses, Carriages, Boats, Barges or other Vessels and Men, according to the Warrant or Warrants aforesaid, who are hereby required to provide and furnish the same accordingly, and it shall and may be lawful in such cases, so and for all and every Military Officer and Officers, for the Use of whom or of whose Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company, such Horses, Carriages, Boats, Barges or other Vessels shall be provided in such case, to give and convey, and permit to be carried and conveyed, on the same respectively, not only the Arms, Cloaths, Accoutrements, Baggage, Tent and other Equipage of such Regiment, Detachment, Troop or Company, but also the Officers, Soldiers, Serjeants, Wagon, Chalkmen and all or Part of a Band belonging to the same; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: But if any such Officer or Officer shall force and constrain any Horse, Carriage, Boat, Barge or other Vessel, to travel or proceed beyond the Distance or Place to be allowed and specified in such Warrant or Warrants, without the special Licence or Order of One or more other such Justice or Justices of the Peace as that Default, and which Licence or Order One or more of such Justices is and are hereby authorized and required to give and make as his and their mutual Declaration, every such Officer, for every such Offence, shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, Proof thereof being made upon Oath before Two of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the same County or Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Precinct, who are to certify the Loss to the Secretary at War, who is hereby authorized and required to give Order for Payment of the aforesaid Sum of Five Pounds, according to the Order and Appointment under the Hands and Seals of the aforesaid Justices of the Peace of the same County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty or Precinct, and for deducting the same out of such Officer's Pay.

LXXXVIII. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve, when and as often as any Person or Persons shall be admitted a Soldier or Soldiers in His Majesty's Land Service, he or they shall, within Four Days, but not sooner than Twenty four Hours, after such admission respectively, be carried or go with some Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, or Private Soldier belonging to the Recruiting Party by which he shall be enlisted, or with the Person employed as the Recruiting Service with whom he shall have enlisted, before some Justice of the Peace of any County, Riding, City or Place, or Chief Magistrate of any City or Town Corporate, residing or being next to, or in the Vicinity of the Place and sitting for the Day in or District where such Person or Persons shall have been enlisted, and not being an Officer in the Army, and before such Justice or Chief Magistrate he or they shall be at Liberty to declare his or their Debt in so much as he or they shall be indebted to, and upon such Declaration and receiving the said Money, and also each Person so admitting paying the Sum of Twenty Shillings for the Charges expended or had out upon him, together with such full Rate allowed by Law for the Subsistence or Diet and Small Beer furnished to such Recruit respectively to the Period of his having been enlisted, such Person or Persons so admitting shall be forthwith discharged and set at Liberty, in the Presence of such Justice or Chief Magistrate; but if such Person or Person shall refuse or neglect, within the Space of Twenty four Hours, to return and pay such Money as aforesaid, he or they shall be deemed and taken to be indebted, as if he or they had given his or their Assent thereto before the said Justice or Chief Magistrate; and if such Person or Persons shall decline his or their name voluntarily to be enlisted or themselves, this such Justice or Chief Magistrate shall and he is hereby required voluntarily to read over, or in his own Presence to cause to be read over, to such Person or Persons the Third and Fourth Articles of the second Section, and the First Article of the Sixth Section, of the Articles of War against Money and Desertion, and to tender and administer to such Person or Persons respectively, not only the Oath of Fidelity mentioned in the said Articles of War, but also the Oath mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (A.); or if the Person shall be desirous of enlisting without any Limitation of Period of Service, the Oath is the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (B.); and if such Person or Persons shall take the said Oaths, then such Justice or Chief Magistrate shall, and he is hereby required forthwith to certify under his Hand the enlisting and bearing, together with the Place of the Birth, Age and Calling, if known, of such Person or Persons in the Form mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (C.); if the Oath is the Form marked (A.) shall have been taken, and in the Form marked (D.) if the Oath is the Form marked (B.) shall have been taken, except in the case of Recruits enlisted to serve either in His Majesty's Troops, or in the Forces of the East India Company, according as His Majesty shall think fit in pursuance of an Act passed in the Thirty sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty, entitled An Act for better carrying into Effect of the East India Company, in which said every such Recruit shall, instead of the said Oath of Fidelity, and of the Oath contained in the Schedule (A.) or (B.) to this Act annexed, take the Oath of Allegiance directed by the said Act of the Thirty sixth of His Majesty, and contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (E.); and the Justice or Chief Magistrate shall certify such enlistment and bearing accordingly in the Form mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (F.); and except also in the case of Recruits enlisted for the Special Purposes of serving in the East India, in the Yeares of the East India Company only, in pursuance of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His Majesty, entitled, An Act relating to the raising Men for the Service of the East India Company; and the governing and holding such Men &c. as Troops by Regiments, Companies, or other such Names, in which Act every such Recruit shall, instead of the said Oath of Fidelity, take the Oath desired to be taken by the said Act of the Fifth Year of His present Majesty aforesaid, and contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (G-), and instead of the Oath of Service annexed in the Schedule (A.) or (B.) in this Act annexed, shall take the Oath desired to be taken by the said recited Act of the Fifth Year aforesaid, and contained in the Schedule to the said Act annexed, marked (H.) and the Justice or Magistrate shall certify such Enlistment and Swearing accordingly, in the Form mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (I.); and if any such Person or Persons, to be enlisted, shall wilfully refuse to take the said Oath of Fidelity before the said Justice or Chief Magistrate, or shall and may be lawful for such Officer, from whom he has received such Money as aforesaid, to detain and confine such Person or Persons until he or they shall take the said Oath of Fidelity; and every Military Officer that shall not exactly here in, or offered herein, shall incur the like Penalty and Forfeiture as in by this Act to be enacted upon any Officer for making a false and untrue Muster; and the Penalty and Forfeiture shall be levied and recovered in the same manner as any Penalties or Forfeitures are by this Act to be levied or recovered: Provided always, that every Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Soldier who shall visit any Recruit, shall, at the Time of such visiting, require the Christian and Surname and Place of Abode of such Recruit, and either take the same down in Writing, or give the same to the Non-Commissioned Officer commanding the Recruiting Party to be taken down: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to discharge any Person who shall have lawfully enlisted, and who shall apply to him to declare his Dismissal within four Year Days as aforesaid, upon Payment of the Sum of Money required to be paid by any Recruit declaring his Dismissal under this Act, notwithstanding no Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, or Private Soldier belonging to the Recruiting Party shall be with the Recruit, if it shall appear to such Magistrate upon the Examination of such Recruit, or of any other Person, that the Recruiting Party has left the Place where such Recruit was enlisted, or that such Recruit could not procure any Non-Commissioned Officer belonging to such Party to go with such Recruit before the Justice of the Peace; and the Sum paid by such Recruit upon his Dismissal shall be kept by the Justice of the Peace, and paid when demanded to any Person belonging to the Recruiting Party entitled thereto demanding the same: Provided always, that in every case wherein any Person shall have received Enlisting Money, and shall have absconded or have absented himself from the Party as aforesaid, so that it shall not be possible immediately to apprehend him, and being his before a Magistrate, the Officer or Non-Commissioned Officer commanding the Party shall produce to the Magistrate before whom the Recruit would regularly have been brought for Attestation, a Certificate of the Name and Place of Residence of such Person, and the Magistrate to whom the Certificate shall be produced shall, after satisfying himself that the Person who had absconded cannot be found and apprehended, transmit a Duplicate thereof to His Majesty's Secretary at War, in order that in the Event of such Person being afterwards apprehended and reported as a Defector, the Facts of his having received Enlisting Money, and having absconded, may be ascertained before he be finally adjudged to be a Defector as having been duly enlisted.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall voluntarily surrender or deliver himself up as a Defector, from any Regiment or Corps of His Majesty's Regular or Militia Forces, or who, upon being apprehended for Desertion or any other Offence, shall in the Presence of the Magistrate confess himself to be a Defector from any such Regiment or Corps, shall be deemed to have been duly enlisted and to be a Soldier, and shall be liable to serve in any such Regiment or Battalion or Corps of His Majesty's Forces, as His Majesty shall think fit to appoint, whether such Person shall have been previously enlisted as a Soldier or not.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That an Master in England shall be entitled to claim any Apprentice who shall, after the passing of this Act, enlist as a Soldier in His Majesty's Land Service, unless such Apprentice shall have been bound to him in England for the full Term of Seven Years, or having been above the Age of Fourteen when he bound; and if in Ireland for the full Term of Five Years at the least, not having been above the Age of twelve when he bound, and unless such Master shall, within One Calendar Month after such Apprentice shall have absconded or left his Service, go to the same Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, and before such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate take the Oath mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (G.) and produce the Certificate of such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate of his having taken such Oath, which Certificate such Justice of the Peace or Magistrate is hereby required to give to the Party at the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (L.)

XCI. And be it further enacted, That every Gentle to whom any Notice shall have been given that any Person is his Debtor for any Offence as a Soldier liable to serve His Majesty as the Expence of his imprisonment, shall give One Month's Notice to the Secretary at War before the Day on which the imprisonment of such Person will expire, according to his Consent or Sentence of the Period of Expence of such Imprisonment.

XCV. And be it further enacted, That when and as often as any Regiment or Company shall be relieved at any Station or Place beyond the Sea, in order to their return as Great Britain or Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers, thereto authorized by the Officer commanding in Chief at such Station or Place respectively, to send as many of the Soldiers belonging to such Regiment or Company, returning to Great Britain or Ireland, as shall be willing, and who shall apply to be fit for Service, and to incorporate them in any Regiment or Company which shall be appointed to receive; and every Soldier so enlisted shall be and is hereby deemed to be discharged from the Regiment or Company in which he before served; and the Declaration of his quitting such former Corps shall be recited in the Enlisting Certificate; a Duplicate, as an attested XCVII. And whereas several Soldiers, being duly listed, do afterwards desert, and are often found wandering, or otherwise absconding themselves privately from His Majesty's Service; It is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Constable, Headborough, or Tythingmen, of the Town or Place where any Person, who may be reasonably suspected to be such a Defector, shall be found, or for any Officer or Soldier in His Majesty's Service to apprehend, or cause such suspected Person to be apprehended, and to bring or cause him to be brought before any Justice of the Peace, being at or near such Town or Place, who hath hereby Power to examine such suspected Person; and if by his Confession, or the Testimony of One or more Witnesses or Witnesses upon Oath, or by the Knowledge of such Justice of the Peace, it shall appear or be found that such suspected Person is a listed Soldier, and ought to be with the Troop or Company to which he belongs, such Justice of the Peace shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the Goal of the County or Place where he shall be found, or the House of Correction, or other publick Prison in such Town or Place where such Defector shall be apprehended; or to the Gaol, in case such Defector shall be apprehended within the City of London or Whitechapel, or Places adjacent; or to the Prison Martial in case such Defector shall be apprehended within the City or Liberties of Dublin, or Places adjacent, and transmit an Account thereof in the Form prefixed in the Schedule annexed to this Act marked (N), to the Secretary at War for the time being in London; or if the Defector be apprehended in Ireland, to the Chief Secretary to the Chief Governor or Government thereof, to the end that such Person may be removed by an Order from the Office of the said Secretary at War, or Chief Governor or Government, and proceeded against according to Law; and the Keeper of every Gaol, House of Correction, or Prison, in which such Defector shall at any time be confined, shall receive such Satisfaction for the Maintenance of such Defector during the time that he shall continue in his Custody, as by His Majesty's Regulations is or shall from time to time be directed in that behalf, and the Keeper of every Gaol, House of Correction, or other publick Prison of the City, Town or Place, at or to which the Party or Person conveying such Defector shall halt on the March, shall, and he is hereby required to receive and receive every such Defector, who shall be delivered into his Charge and Custody by any Non-Commissioned Officer or Soldier who shall be conveying such Defector under any lawful Order, Warrant or Authority, while on the Road from the Place where he was apprehended, to the Place to which he is to be conveyed, without any other Warrant or Authority for so doing than the Production of the Warrant of the Justice of the Peace, or which such Defector shall have been taken, or some Order from the Office of the Secretary at War, or of the Chief Governor or Government of Ireland, and shall be obliged to Due Striding for the safe Custody of the said Defector while the Party or Person conveying him shall halt on the March; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

XCVIII. And, for the better Encouragement of any Officer or Person to discover or apprehend such Defectors from His Majesty's Service, he is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Justice of the Peace shall, upon receiving an Authority from the Secretary at War in Great Britain, or an Order given under the Authority of the Chief Governor or Government of Ireland, also under his Warrant, in Writing, to the Collector or Collectors of the Land Tax Money of the Parish or Township in Great Britain, where any Defector shall be so committed, or being charged with being a Defector as aforesaid, or in Ireland, to the Collector or Collectors of His Majesty's Revenue in the District where any Defector shall be so committed, or being charged with being a Defector as aforesaid, for paying out of the Land Tax Money or Revenue money or to such, in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twelve, into the Hands of such Officer or Person as shall apprehend or cause to be apprehended, any Defector from His Majesty's Service, the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every such Defector as shall be apprehended and committed; which Sum of Twenty Shillings shall be satisfied by such Collector or Collectors when such Warrant shall be directed, and allowed upon his or their Account.

XCIX. Provided always, and he it enacted, That if any Person shall harbour, conceal or assist any Defector from His Majesty's Service, knowing him to be such, the Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and upon Conviction, by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, before any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, by the said Penalty of Twenty Pounds shall be levied, by Warrant under the Hand of such Justice of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender; One Month of the said Penalty to be paid to the Informer, and the other Ninety to be paid to the Colonel or other Officer commanding the Regiment or Corps to which any such Defector did belong; and in case any such Offender, who shall be convicted as aforesaid of harbouring, concealing or assisting any such Defector, shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels wherewith to satisfy the Value of the Penalty awarded against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalty within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such case such Justice of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, commit such Offender to the Common Gaol, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of Six Months: Provided also, that if any Person shall knowingly dress, buy or exchange, or otherwise receive from any Soldier or Defector, or any other Person upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, any Arms, Cloaths, Caps or other Furniture, belonging to the King, or any Mast, Desk, Box or other Provision, provided under any Regulations relating thereto, or any such Articles belonging to any Soldier or Defector, as are expressly directed, Regimental Negatives, according to the Customs of the Army, being provided for the Soldier, and paid for by Deductions out of his Pay, or cause the Colour of any such Classes to be changed, the Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds; or if any Person shall buy or receive any Oats, Hay, Straw or other Forage, provided for the Use of any Horse or Horses, belonging to His Majesty's Service, from any Dragoon, or other Soldier, knowing him to be such, or full more, private, or other Soldier, or other Soldier, knowing him to be such, to sell or otherwise dispose of any such Oats, Hay, Straw, or other Forage as aforesaid, the Person so offending shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of Five Pounds; and upon Conviction, by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses, before any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, the said respective Possesses of Five Pounds, and Five Pounds, shall be levied by Warrant under the Hand of each Justice of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender, One Mistry of the said first mentioned Penalty of Five Pounds to be paid to the Informer, and One Mistry of the said respective Penalties to be paid to the Colonel or other Officer commanding the Regiment or Corps to which any such Officer or Soldier did belong; and in case any such Offender who shall be convicted as aforesaid, of having knowingly received any Arms, Cloths, Caps or other Furniture, belonging to the King, or any such Mistr, Drunk, Beer or other Provision, or any such Articles generally deemed Regimentsal Necessaries, or of having caused the Colour of such Cloths to be changed, or of having bought or received any Oats, Hay, Straw or other Forage, provided for the Use of any Herds or Horses belonging to His Majesty's Service from any Dragoon or other Soldier, knowing him to be such, or of having received, possessed, concealed, falsified or embezzled, any Dragoon or other Soldier, knowing him to be such, to sell or otherwise dispose of any such Oats, Hay, Straw or other Forage, as aforesaid, contrary to the Intent of the said Act, shall not have his said Goods and Chattels wherewith Distress may be made to the Value of the Penalties recovered against him or her for such Offence, or shall not pay such Penalties within Four Days after such Conviction, then and in such case, each Justice of the Peace shall and may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, either commit such Offender to the Common Gaol, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for the Space of Three Months, or cause such Offender to be publicly whipped at the Discretion of each Justice.

¶ Cl. And whereas Soldiers, absent from their Regiments on Furlough granted to them by their Commanding Officers, are sometimes prevented by sickness or other unavoidable Calamity from returning to their Duty before the Expiration of the time limited by each Furlough, and Doubts have arisen whether, in such Cases, the Extension of a Soldier's Furlough by a Justice of the Peace be sanctioned by legal Authority, and what is the proper manner of proceeding upon such Occasions, His Majesty's Justices of the Peace have been pleased to give the following Directions, to wit: That every Justice of the Peace may, and he is hereby authorized to grant, in Writing under his Hand, an Extension of Furlough to any Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier applying for the same, on Account of Sickness or other Calamity, which shall, as the Enquiry appears to make such Extension necessary; and that every such Officer or Justice of the Peace, who shall grant to any Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier as aforesaid, an Extension of Furlough, shall immediately certify the same, with the Cause of its being so granted, to the Agent of the Regiment to which such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier shall belong; and that such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier, during the Period to which his Furlough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, shall not be liable to be apprehended or otherwise molested on the Ground of his having deserted the Regiment to which he shall appear by his Furlough to belong, or of criminally absconding himself from the same: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to exempt any Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier, whose Furlough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, from being proceeded against and punished according to the Provisions of the said Act, should it thereafter appear that such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier had obtained the Extension of his Furlough by false Representations made to such Officer or Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, or in applying for and obtaining the same had committed any Offence to the Prejudice of good Order and Military Discipline: Provided also, that no such Furlough shall be extended by any Justice of the Peace for any longer Period than One Month, unless with the Approbation of the General Officer commanding in the District where such Soldier shall be.

¶ Cl. Provided always, and he is further enacted, That in all cases in which any Extension of Furlough shall be granted as aforesaid in England, and upon the Request of any such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier to whom the same shall be granted, it shall be lawful to the Justice of the Peace granting the same, or where the same shall be granted by any such Officer as aforesaid, for any Justice of the Peace, upon the Production of a Certificate in Writing from such Officer, which he is hereby required to give, to make an Order in Writing as he is directed upon the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Parish, Township or Place, wherein such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier shall reside, requiring them to pay to such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier any Sum of Money directed in such Order, not exceeding what the Pay of such Non Commissioned Officer or Soldier would amount to for the Period to which such Furlough shall be extended as aforesaid; such Justice of the Peace taking particular Care to state upon the Furlough in Words the Amount he is directed by law to be paid, and the Periods from and to which the same has been ordered to be paid, both inclusive, corroborating the Statement of his Signatory, and further, specifying upon the Order to the Parish Officer the Date of the Furlough originally granted, and the Name of the Commanding Officer by whom signed; and the same is authorized that he be paid accordingly, upon Production and Delivery to him of such Order, by any such Parish Officer out of any Money upon Hands applicable to the Relief of the Poor; and the Sum so advanced by such Parish Officer shall, upon the Production and Delivery of such Order to the Collector of Excise of the District within which such Parish, Township or Place shall be situated, or any Person assisting for such Collector, be repaid to such Parish Officer, to be applied to the Relief of the Poor, by such Collector of Excise or other Person out of any publick Moneys in his Hands, and the same shall be allowed in his Accounts, and such Orders of Justices shall be taken as Cash in the Payment of Duties of Excise.

CVII. And be it further enacted, That all Chevralliers, upon making up their Accounts, and also upon returning home any Foreign Service, shall take the Oath defined in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked [J M], which Oath, if taken in any Part of the United Kingdom, shall be taken before some Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, and if taken on Foreign Service, before the Officer commanding in Chief, or the Second in Command, or the Quarter Master or Deputy Quarter Master General, or any Assistant Quarter Master General of the Army to which he shall be attached, who shall respectively have Power to administer the same.

CVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Commissioned Officer, Sergeant or Company, or Deputy or Assistant Company, or other Person employed in the Commissioned Department, or in any manner in the Care or Distribution of any Money, Provision, Forage or Stores, belonging to His Majesty's Forces, or for their Use, that shall knowingly or negligently or carelessly be entrusted or fraudulently misapplied, or shall knowingly or negligently permit or suffer any Money, Provision, Forage, Arms, Clothing, Ammunition or other Military Stores to be entrusted or fraudulently misapplied, or to be spoiled or damaged, may be tried for the same by and before a General Court Martial, and it shall be lawful for such Court Martial to adjudge any such Person to be transported as a Prisoner for Life, or for any certain Term of Years, or to suffer such Penalties of Pillory, Fine, Imprisonment, Detention from His Majesty's Service, and Incapacity of serving His Majesty in any Office Civil or Military, as any such Court shall think fit, according to the Nature and Degree of the Offence, or that such Person shall suffer Two hundred Pounds, and that such Person shall in Addition to any other Penalties, make good, at his own Expense, the Loss and Damage sustained, to be ascertained by such Court Martial; which shall have Power to seize the Goods and Chattels of the Person so offending, and sell them for the Payment of the said Two hundred Pounds, and such Loss and Damage: And if sufficient Goods and Chattels cannot be found and seized, then the Person so offending shall be committed to Prison or the Common Goal, there to remain (in Addition to any other Penalties or Imprisonment) for Six Months, without Bed or Maintenance, and will he shall pay such Duty; and after the said Term shall be recovered and levied, the same shall be applied and disposed of as His Majesty shall direct and appoint.

CX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve, no Paymaster General, or Paymaster of the Army, Paymaster of the Marines, or any other Paymaster, or any other Officer whatsoever, shall receive any Fee, or make any Deductions whatsoever, out of the Pay of any Officer or Soldier in His Majesty's Army, or from their Agents, which shall give due from and after the said Twenty fourth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve, other than the usual Deductions allowed by His Majesty's Regulations; and such other necessary Deductions as shall from time to time be required to be made upon any Act of Parliament now in force, or hereafter to be made or directed by His Majesty, under His Royal Sign Manual.

CXI. And, for the Encouragement of the due and well Clothing of the Troops, be it hereby further enacted, That the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, may, if he or they see convenient, at the End of every Six Months, issue the Money due for the Clothing of the several Regiments, ments, Troops and Companies: And the Paymaster General for the time being is hereby directed to notify the Receipt of the Money to the Secretary at War, who shall immediately grant his Warrant for the Payment of the proper Sums or Sums to each Person or Persons only who have a regular Allowance from the Colonel or Commandant or Person authorized by him so make such Allowance.

CXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Paymaster, Agent or Clerk of any Garrison, Regiment, Troop or Company, shall wilfully detain or withhold, for the Space of One Month, the Pay of any Officer or Soldier, (Clothes and all other such Allowances being deducted) after such Pay shall be by him or them received; or if any Officers having received their Soldier's Pay, shall refuse to pay each Non-Commissioned Officer and Soldier their respective Pay when it shall become due, according to the several Rates established by His Majesty's Orders, then upon Proof thereof before a Court Martial, as aforesaid, to be for that Purpose duly held and summoned, every such Paymaster, Agent, Clerk or Officer, so offending, shall be discharged from his Employment, and shall forfeit to the Informer, upon Conviction before the said Court, One hundred Pounds, to be levied as aforesaid, and the Informer, if a Soldier, (if he demands it) shall be and he is hereby discharged from any further Service; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CXIII. And for the better Execution hereof, and that a true and regular Account may be kept and rendered by the Agents of the several Garrisons, Regiments and Independent Troops and Companies, the said Agents are hereby required and directed to observe such Orders and Directions as shall from time to time be given by His Majesty, under His Sign Manual, or by the Secretary at War for the time being, by His Majesty's Council, or by His Majesty's Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or by the Lord Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being; and if any Agent shall refuse or neglect to observe and comply with such Orders and Directions, he shall, for the first Offence, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt or Information, for the Use of His Majesty; and for the Second Offence be discharged from his Employment as Agent of the Garrison, Regiment, Battalion, Independent Troop or Company, in relation to which he shall have been guilty of such Offence, and be utterly disabled to here or hold such Employment thereafter.

C A P. XXIII.

[10th March 1812.]

XIII. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That no General Court Martial which shall have Power to sit by virtue of this Act, shall consist of a less Number than Thirteen, whereof none to be under the Degree of a Commissioned Officer; except Courts Martial to be held on any Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers or Private Marines, who may be levied on Shore in any Place beyond the Seas and out of His Majesty's Dominions or out of the East Indies, in which case any General Court Martial may consist of any Number not less than Seven, and the President of such Court Martial shall not be under the Degree of a Field Officer.

General Court Martial may consist of less than 13, except in case where levied beyond Seas, &c.

of Royal Marines, unless where such Field Officer cannot be had; in which case the Marine Officer is, as Secretary to such Field Officers, not being under the Degree of a Captain, shall preside at such Court Martial; and that such Court Martial shall have Power and Authority, and are hereby required to administer Oath to every Witness, in order to the Examination or Trial of any of the Offences that shall come before them.

Oaths by Mrs. Jerns of General Courts Martial

XIV. And he it further enacted, That in all Trials of Offenders by General Courts Martial to be held by virtue of this Act, every Officer present at such Trial before any Proceedings be had thereupon, shall take the following Oath upon the Holy Evangelists, before the Court and Judge Advocate, or his Deputy; (whom we hereby authorize to administer the same) in these Words; that is to say,

Ch. 11.

YOU shall well and truly try and determine according to the Evidence which shall be given in the Matter now before you, between our Sovereign Lord the King's Majesty and the Prisoner to be tried
 * So help me GOD.'

I A. B. do swear, That I will duly administer Justice, according to an Act of Parliament now in force, for the Regulation of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, which as Shore, and according to the Rules and Articles made in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion, and other Crimes therein respectively mentioned, without Partiality, Favour or Affection; and if any Doubt shall arise (which is not explained by the said Act of Parliament, or the said Rules and Articles) according to my Conscience, the best of my Understanding, and the Custom of War in like cases; And I further swear that I will not divulge the Secrets of the Court until it shall be approved by the Lord High Admiral, or Three or more of the Commissioners for execution, the Officer of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; neither will I, upon any Account at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the Vote or Opinion of any particular Member of the Court Martial, unless required to give Evidence thereof as a Witness, by a Court of Justice, in a due Course of Law.

* So help me GOD.'

J. A. Advocate

And in Oath as the said Oaths shall have been administered to the respective Members, the President of the Court is hereby authorized and required to administer to the Judge Advocate, or the Person officiating as such, an Oath in the following Words:

Ch. 11.

I A. B. do swear, That I will not upon any Account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the Vote or Opinion of any particular Member of the Court Martial, unless required to give Evidence thereof, as a Witness, by a Court of Justice, in a due Course of Law.
 * So help me GOD.'

In 3 members of Court Martial, who are Members of Officers shall choose, for Honor of Trial.

And as Sentence of Death shall be given against any Offender by any General Court Martial as aforesaid, unless Nine Officers present, or where the Court Martial shall consist of Seven Members, unless Five Officers present, shall concur therein; and if there be more Officers present than Thirteen, or Seven respectively, then the Judges shall pass by the Concurrence of Two Thirds of the Officers present; and no Proceeding or Trial shall be had upon any Offence, but between the Hours of Eight of the Clock in the Morning and Three in the Afternoon, except in cases which require an immediate Example.

Courts Martial may, by Order of Imprisonment, &c.

XV. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any General or other Court Martial to sentence any Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Marine to Imprisonment in any House of Correction, Common Gaol or Public Prison; and all Gaolers and Keepers of such Houses of Correction or Prisons shall receive into their Custody and keep in Confinement, for such time as they shall be respectively required so to do, any Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Marine who may have been sentenced to Imprisonment by any General or other Court Martial, and shall provide a proper Place for the Confinement of any such Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Marine, according to the Sentence of such Court, during the Period of his Imprisonment, upon receiving an Order in Writing from the Commanding Officer of the Detachment at which such General or other Court Martial shall have been held; and every Gaoler and Keeper of a House of Correction or Prison who shall refuse to receive and to confine any such Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Marine in manner as aforesaid shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered by Actions of Debt or Information for the Use of His Majesty.

Penalty.

Pay to be made during Imprisonment.

XVI. And he it further enacted, That every Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Marine, to be imprisoned as aforesaid, shall forfeit all Right to any Pay, from the Day of his Commitment, during the time of such Imprisonment; and also that, during the Continuance of any such Imprisonment, the Gaoler or Keeper of such Prison or House of Correction shall receive the Sum of Nine pence per Diem out of the Subsistence of such Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Marine, during the time that such Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Marine shall continue in Custody, which said Sum the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are hereby authorized and required to cause to be paid by the Paymaster of Royal Marines to the said Gaoler or Keeper aforesaid, upon receiving an Application in Writing to that Effect, signed by any Justice of the Peace for the County or Riding in which such Gaol, Prison or House of Correction shall be locally situate, together with a Copy of the Order under which the said Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Marine was confined; Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being, or if they should think fit, to order the Issue and Payment of the Surplus of such Pay, or any Part thereof, or of any Arrears thereof, to or on account of such Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Marine during or after the Expiration of the Period of his Imprisonment.

Penalty.

The Pay to be made to the Officer or Soldier of Sentence and Proceedings of Court Martial.

XVII. And he it enacted, That the Pay tried by any General Court Martial to be held as aforesaid, shall be entitled to a Copy of the Sentence and Proceedings of such Courts Martial, upon Demand thereof made by himself, or by any other Person or Persons on his Behalf (he or they paying reasonably for the same) at any time shall not sooner than Three Months after such Sentence, whether such Sentence be approved or not; any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer or Private Man, in any of His Majesty's Dominions beyond the Seas, or elsewhere beyond the Seas, commit any of the Offences for which he may be liable to be tried by Court Martial by virtue of this Act, and shall escape and come or be brought into this Realm, before he be tried by a Court Martial for such Offence, and shall be apprehended for the same; such Officer or Private Man shall be tried for the same, as if the same Offence had been committed within this Realm.

XXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Marine Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Man, shall be accused of any capital Crime, or of any Violence or Offence against the Person, Estate or Property of any of His Majesty's Subjects, which is punishable by the known Laws of the Land; the Commanding Officer or Officers of every Company or Party in and are hereby required to sit his said soldier and soldier to the Officers of Justice in the trying and apprehending such Offender, in order to being him to Trial: And if any such Commanding Officer shall wilfully neglect or refuse, upon Application made to him for that Purpose, to deliver over any such accused Person to the Civil Magistrate; or to be aiding and assisting to the Officers of Justice in the apprehending such Offender; every such Officer so offending, and being thereof convicted, before any Two or more Justices of the Peace for the County where the Fact is committed, by the Oath of Two credible Witnesses, shall be deemed and taken to be a felon, and shall be strictly punished as such felon; and shall be strictly punished to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within this Kingdom, or in His Majesty's Service; provided the said Conviction be offered at the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County, and a Certificate thereof be transmitted to the Judge Advocate, who is hereby obliged to certify the same to the next Court Marshal.

LX. And be it further enacted, That every Gentleman, to whom any Notice shall have been given that any Person is to be Confined for any Offence; or a Marine, and liable to serve His Majesty, on the Expiration of his Imprisonment, shall give One Month's Notice to the Secretary of the Admiralty before the Day on which the Imprisonment of such Person will expire, according to his Commitment or Sentence, of the Period of Expiration of such Imprisonment.

LXIII. Provided nevertheless, and be it hereby declared, That from and after the Twenty fifth Day of March next ensuing, he and they shall, within Four Days, but not sooner than Twenty four Hours after such Indictment respectively, be carried or go with some Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer or Marine belonging to the Recruiting Party by which he shall be indicted, or with the Person employed on the Recruiting Service with whom he shall have enlisted, before some Justice of the Peace of any County, Riding, City or Village, or Civil Magistrate of any City or Town Corporate, residing in or being next to or in the Vicinity of the Place where such Person or Persons shall have been enlisted, and not being an Officer of Royal Marines, and before such Justice or Chief Magistrate here they shall be at Liberty to declare for or there to that such Indictment; and upon such Declaration, and returning the Indictment Money, and after such Person or Persons paying the Sum of Twenty Shillings for the Charges expended or laid out upon him, such Person or Persons so indicted shall be forthwith discharged and sit at Liberty in the Presence of such Justice or Chief Magistrate; but if such Person or Persons shall refuse to appear, within the Space of Twenty four Hours, to appear and pay such Money as aforesaid, he or they shall be deemed and taken to be indicted, and he or they had given in or that Affect thereon before the said Justice or Chief Magistrate; and if such Person or Persons so indicted do or their lawyer voluntarily submit himself or themselves, then such Justice or Chief Magistrate shall, and he is hereby required forthwith to certify under his Hand, that such Person or Persons is or are duly indicted; naming first the Place of the Birth, Age and Calling of him or them respectively (if known), and that the Second and Third Sections of the Act of War, for the better Government of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces while on Shore were read to him or them, and that he or they had taken the Oath of Fidelity mentioned in the Twelfth Section of the said Act of War, and also the Oath mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked [A.]; and if any such Person or Persons to be certified as duly indicted, shall refuse to take the said Oath of Fidelity before the said Justice or Chief Magistrate, it shall and may be lawful for such Officer, from whom he has received such Money as aforesaid, to detain or confine such Person or Persons until he or they shall take the Oath before required; and every Officer of Royal Marines that shall set contrary hereto, or offend herein, upon Proof thereof, upon Oath made by Two Witnesses, before a General Court Martial to be thenceforth called, shall for such Offence be forthwith cashiered and deprived from such his Office, and shall be strictly utterly disabled to have or hold any Civil or Military Office or Employment within this Kingdom, or in His Majesty's Service; Provided always, that every Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Man who shall with any Recruit, shall at the time of such Indictment engage the Churches and Services and Place of Abode of such Recruit, and either take the same down in Writing or give the same to the Non-Commissioned Officer commanding the Recruiting Party to be taken down: Provided also, that it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace to discharge any Person who shall have hitherto enlisted, and who shall apply to him to declare his Debt within such Four Days as aforesaid, upon Payment of the Sum of Money required to be paid by any Recruit declaring his Debt under this Act, notwithstanding an Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Man belonging to the Recruiting Party shall be with the Recruit, if it shall appear to such Magistrate upon the Examination of such Recruit, or of any other Person, that the Recruiting Party have left the Place where such Recruit was enlisted, or that such Recruit could not procure any Non-Commissioned Officer belonging to such Party, to go with such Recruit before the Justice of the Peace; and the Sum paid by such Recruit upon his Discharge

C A P. XXVII.

An Act for enabling the Wives and Families of Soldiers embarked in Ireland for Foreign Service to return to their Homes.

[10th April 1812.]

WHEREAS when any Part of His Majesty's Forces are embarked in Ireland for Foreign Service, the Wives and Children of the Soldiers so embarked for Foreign Service are frequently left to roam in their respective Homes, and it is expedient and just that Provisions should be made for enabling such Wives and Children to return: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commoners, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That upon any Regiment, Battalion, Corps or Detachment, being embarked in Ireland for Foreign Service, the Commanding Officer thereof shall cause a Return or Return to be made out of all the Wives and Children of the Soldiers belonging to such Regiment, Battalion, Corps or Detachment, who shall be left at the Place of Embarkation, and who are desirous of clearing the Allowance stipendially authorized by this Act before the Expire of sending them to return to their Homes; that such Return, either one Return for the Regiment, Battalion, Corps or Detachment, or separate Returns for each Company, Battaillon, or several Companies, shall be made, and whether in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, and shall be made by the Commanding Officer of such Regiment, Battalion, Corps or Detachment, and shall be sent to the Under Secretary for the Military Department in the War Office in Dublin, and shall also go to every such Wife or Duplicate of such Part of such Return as shall apply to such Wife or Child's Family of Children respectively, certifying thereon and to be returned to the Person to whom such Certificate is given, the Wife of a Soldier is his Regiment, Battalion, Corps or Detachment, and that such Regiment, Battalion, Corps or Detachment, in that behalf to certify at such Place of Embarkation for Foreign Service; and of the Home or Homes to which any of the said Wives or Children shall desire to return shall be in Great Britain, then such Commanding Officer shall cause a Return and a separate Return to be made out of all such Wives and Children as shall so desire to return to Great Britain, and shall transmit the same to the Secretary at War in London.

II. And be it further enacted, That such Wife to whom any such Duplicate shall have been delivered as aforesaid shall forthwith take the same to some neighboring Justice or Magistrate, who shall make out a Receipt for her, and all up and down and Allowance to her a Certificate specifying the Place to which such Wives or Women and Child or Children, if any are going, and the Receipt, that she may receive such Allowance as are authorized by this Act not exceeding Two pence per Mile.

III. And be it further enacted, That upon Production of such Certificate to the Person acting as Post Master in the City, Town or Place, at which such Embarkation shall happen, and afterwards in any Place so situated as such Receipt and through which such Women and Children shall pass, every such Person so acting shall, out of any Public Money in his Hands, pay her an Allowance not exceeding the Rate per Mile specified in such Certificate as aforesaid, for the Number of Miles to the next City, Town or Place, to which she may be going as mentioned in such Receipt, not exceeding Eighteen Miles, and he shall indorse on such Certificate the Money so paid, and likewise the Sum and take a Receipt from the Woman for the same without Stamp, subscribed with her Name or signed with her Mark, specifying the Regiment, Battalion, Corps or Detachment to which her Husband belongs, in that the Delinquent on the Receipt may correspond with the Delinquent in the Certificate so produced to him as aforesaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Sum so advanced by such Person so acting as Post Master shall be allowed in his Accounts by the Post Master or Post Masters General of Ireland, and all Sums of Money so advanced and allowed in Account shall be repaid by the Agents of the Regiments to which the Soldiers belong whose Wives and Families have been so advanced, or by any other Person to be appointed for that Purpose by the Chief Secretary, or by his Assistant the Under Secretary for the War Department, or the Receiver General of His Majesty's Post Office in Ireland.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in the City of Dublin every such Woman shall in every Instance apply to the Agent of the Regiment to which she shall belong, and not to the Post Master or Person acting as such, as aforesaid, and may pay and advance in any case such Money, and indorse and subscribe such Certificate as aforesaid, and shall be allowed such Sum to pay in her Account, and every such Indorsement shall be of the same Force, Validity and Effect, in all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been done by a Person acting as the Post Master in aforesaid.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every such Woman shall at the last Place of receiving any Allowance under this Act, in order to her Arrival at her Home, if such Home shall be in Ireland, deliver up the Certificate to her as aforesaid, to the Person so advancing such Allowance to her, who shall transmit the same to the Post Master or Post Masters General, and the same shall be by such Post Master or Post Masters General transmitted to the Under Secretary for the War Department at the War Office in Dublin Castle.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if the Home or Place to which any such Woman shall desire to proceed shall be in Great Britain, such Woman together with her Children, if any, shall be forthwith taken care of all Expence as a Provision for any emergency of Post in Great Britain, if the same can then conveniently be done, and if not, then that she and every child or child to and in the Calcutta or other Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to which such Woman shall belong, to agree for the Passage of every or any such Woman and her Children to any convenient Post or Place in Great Britain, in any Vessel that may then be in such Port of Embarkation, and also for her and their Maintenance during such Passage, at any Price not exceeding the Allowance that usually paid for the same Passage for a Soldier, and to be Proportioned for Children according to their respective Ages; and the Price so agreed on being certified by such Colonel or Command-

C A P. XXVIII.

An Act to amend an Act of the last Session of Parliament, making Provision for the Families of Militia Men in Ireland. [20th April 1812.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled, An Act to make Provision in certain Cases for the Wives and Families of Sergeants, Corporals, Drummers and Private Soldiers in the Militia of Ireland; it is, among other things, enacted, that every Sergeant, Corporal, Private or Drummer in the Irish Militia, desirous of obtaining for his Family the Allowances in the said Act mentioned, shall make and subscribe a written Declaration in the Form therein set forth before the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps for the time being to which he shall belong; And whereas it may happen, that when any Regiment of the said Militia is serving out of Ireland, certain Sergeants, Corporals, Drummers or Private Men of such Regiment may remain in Ireland, attached to and serving in some other Regiment of Militia than that to which they belong; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That as every such case it shall and may be lawful and legal for the Colonel or other Commanding Officer of the Regiment, to which any such Militia Man shall belong, when thereto required, to give and sign a Certificate in Writing, in the Form following;
that is to say,

I, A. B. Colonel or Commanding Officer [as the case may be] of the Militia, do hereby certify, that C. D. [a Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private ballotted Man, Substitute or Volunteer, as the case may be] in the said Militia, and now attached to the Regiment of Militia, was called out into actual Service, and did on the Day of search from the said County, Town, City or Place [as the case may be]. And I do certify that the said C. D. never deserted from the said Regiment of Militia while the same remained in Ireland, and that the said C. D. was recruited after his Enrolment with the Consent of his Commanding Officer, according to Law, or before Enrolment [as the case may be].

Provided always, That if such Militia Man shall have been married during the Absence from Ireland of the Regiment to which he belonged, the latter Clause relating to his Marriage shall be omitted, and such Certificate shall be forwarded by such Colonel or Commanding Officer to the Colonel or other Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps in Ireland, to which such Militia Man shall be then attached, and in which he shall be then serving.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man remaining in Ireland, desirous of obtaining any Allowance for his Family under the said revised Act, to make and subscribe the Declaration in the said recited Act mentioned, at the Foot of the Certificate to be made and subscribed before the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private shall be attached, or to which he shall be serving at the time of so making and subscribing such Declaration.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Commanding Officer before whom such Declaration shall be made and subscribed, shall at the Foot of the said Declaration give and sign a Certificate in Writing in the Form following; that is to say,

I, A. B. Colonel or Commanding Officer [as the case may be], of the Regiment of Militia, do hereby certify that C. D. a Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private, [as the case may be], is the Regiment now attached to, and serving in the said Regiment under my Command, both this Day made, and subscribed the above Declaration before me; and that the said C. D.
never deserted from his Regiment, and was recruited with the said Regiment to now under my Command.

And if such Militia Man shall be married after the Regiment to which he belonged had left Ireland, then there shall be added to such Certificate these Words following, to wit, 'And that the said C. D. married after ' he became attached to the Regiment under my Command, with the Consent of the Commanding Officer
' thereof for the time being;' or these Words, 'And that the said C. D. both produced to me the Certificate ' of the Commanding Officer of the Militia, dated the Day of
' in the Year and certifying that the said C. D. was then attached to the said Regiment,

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Militia of Ireland.

[20th April 1812.]

• WHEREAS it is expedient that the Laws relating to the Militia of Ireland should be amended in manner hereinafter contained; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Number of Parishes to be raised for the Militia of any County, County of a City, or County of a Town in Ireland, by whatsoever, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, or for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, for the time being, is to be directed that such Parishes as he or they shall think fit, not exceeding One Fourth Part of the whole Number of Parishes to be raised in each Year for each County, shall consist of Boys of the Age of Fourteen Years, and upwards, and of such Height as His Majesty or the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, for the time being, may direct, who shall be raised by Bots of Drums.

II. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Regiment, or Part of a Regiment of the Militia of Ireland shall be out of Ireland, then and in every such case, all and every the Rights, Powers and Authorities relating thereto, which then shall be Omission to exercise out of Ireland by the Commander of His Majesty's Forces, shall and may be used, exercised and enjoyed by the Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces in Great Britain, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as the same might or could they be exercised by the Officer commanding His Majesty's Forces in Ireland, if such Regiment or Part of a Regiment was then in Ireland.

An Act to provide for regulating the Warehousing of Spirits distilled from Corn in Ireland, for Exportation, without Payment of the Duty of Excise chargeable thereon; and to transfer the Custody of Spirits so warehoused, from the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, and their Officers, to the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, and their Officers.

• WHEREAS under and by virtue of the Laws now in force in Ireland, certain Acts, Matters and Things, relating to the Warehousing of Spirits distilled from Corn in Ireland, for Exportation, without Payment of the Duty of Excise payable thereon, are placed under the Care, Management and Direction of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, and of the Officers appointed by and acting under the said Commissioners; And whereas it is expedient that such Acts, Matters and Things should hereafter be transferred to and placed under the Care, Management and Direction of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, and of the Officers appointed by or acting under the said last mentioned Commissioners; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Expiration of Ten Years after the passing of this Act, any Summ or other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof or any wife notwithstanding, it shall and may be lawful for every Officer or Officer of such Spirits, who is or shall be licensed to keep any Still exceeding One Hundred Gallons Content, to warehouse his Spirits for Exportation, without Payment of the Duty of Excise chargeable in Ireland thereon, according to the Provisions of this Act, and subject to such Rules and Regulations as the said Commissioners of Excise shall from time to time direct, or order, in any Part of His Majesty's Warehouses or Store to be provided by the said Commissioners of Excise, at any Place in Ireland in which, or to the District in which such Port shall be situated, any Still exceeding One hundred Gallons Content for the distillation of Spirits shall be licensed by the said Commissioners of Excise; Provided always, that no Spirit of a Strength less than a Strength equal to One to Two over Hydrostatic Proof, by such Hydrostatic Proof as is approved of by the Commissioners for exercising the Office of the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland shall be so warehoused; and that all such Spirits shall be contained in Casks of not less than One hundred Gallons Content, and that these be marked on the Head of each Cask, in Letters or Figures con- taining the Number of Gallons of Spirits in such Cask, and the Strength of the Spirits contained therein, at the time of the Striving thereof.

II. And be it further enacted, That when and as often as any Distiller shall intend to warehouse Spirits for Exportation, he shall give Notice in Writing to the Officer or Officers of Excise who shall be placed over the Distillery of such Distiller, and also to the Excise Stewkeeper at the Port of Exportation, of such his Intention; in which Notice shall be set forth the Number and Content in Gallons of each Cask which such Distiller intends to warehouse, and the Day and Hour of the Day at which such Distiller intends to commence the Removal of such Spirits to the Warehouse or Stores, which Day shall not be more distant than Six Days, nor nearer than Three Days from the time of such Notice: Provided always, that an Removal of any Spirits for such Purpose shall be allowed without a Permit containing such Particulars as shall be directed by the said Commissioners of Excise, which Permit shall be a sufficient Prohibition for the Removal of such Spirits; and if any such Spirits shall be found to convey from the Stores of any Distiller to any of His Majesty's Warehouses or Stores, and if the Collector or Persons conveying such Spirits shall not, on Demand of any Officer of Customs or Excise, produce such Permit authorizing the Removal of such Spirits, the same shall be forfeited and may be seized by any such Officer; and so such Removal shall take place on any Excise Office Holiday, or on any Time of the Day before the Hour of Noon in the Forenoon, or after the Hour of Two in the Afternoon.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Officer of Excise to whom such Notice shall have been given in manner aforesaid, shall attend at the Stores of every such Distiller at the Time mentioned as aforesaid in such Notice, and such Officer shall continue there until the Whole of the Spirits for which such Notice has been given shall be removed out of the Stores of such Distiller under Permit as aforesaid; and that immediately after the Removal of such Spirits, such Officer shall take Stock on each Distiller, and set forth in the Book Book the Demerit contained by the Receipt of all such Spirits: And in case the Whole or any Part of the Spirits, for the Removal of which a Permit shall be granted as aforesaid, shall not be delivered into His Majesty's Warehouses or Stores within the time prescribed in the Permit or Permits for conveying the same, or in case such Spirits which so delivered shall not be of the true Strength and Quality in every respect of which they were at the time of the granting of such Permit or Permits (except in cases of unavoidable Necessity, proved to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners of Excise, or any Three of them), the Distiller of such Spirits, for the Removal of which out of the said Stores a Permit shall have been granted as aforesaid, shall for every Gallon of Spirits which shall be taken out of the Strength and Quality aforesaid, forfeit the Value of Ten Shillings, and shall also forfeit one Gallon of Spirits for every Gallon so deficient in Quantity; and it shall be lawful for the Officer of Excise to seize and take out of the Stores of such Distiller, one Gallon of Spirit for every Gallon which shall be so deficient; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, to withdraw and send any Allowance before that time granted to such Distiller, if they shall think it so to do.

IV. And be it further enacted, That immediately on the Arrival of such Spirits under proper Permit at His Majesty's Warehouses or Stores, the proper Officer shall gauge and take an Account of every Cask and the Strength of the Spirits contained therein, and shall enter an Account thereof in a Book to be by him kept for the Purpose; and thereafter the Stewkeeper shall receive the same without Delay into His Majesty's Warehouses or Stores, and shall deliver to the Distiller or Persons engaging the same for the Use of such Distiller, a Receipt for such Spirits, specifying the Number of the different Casks, with their Gauge, and the Quantity and Strength of the Spirits contained in them, with the Day of the Month and Year when such Spirits were stored, and any Marks which may be put on such Casks by such Distiller for distinguishing the Spirits to be his Property.

V. And be it further enacted, That such Receipt shall be delivered out within a reasonable Time, by every such Distiller, to the Officer in charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, and such Officer shall immediately return to such Distiller a Copy thereof, signed by himself; and upon the Delivery of such Receipt, and not before, it shall be lawful for such Officer to deduct from the Number of Gallons of Spirits with which such Distiller shall have been charged or chargeable with Duty, the Number of Gallons so warehouse, and to return the Charge of Duty upon the Distiller, to the Collector of Excise, for the remaining Number of Gallons, which shall be a Charge against such Distiller accordingly; and every such Officer shall answer to such Return the Stewkeeper's Receipt, as his Voucher for having made such Deductions as aforesaid.

VI. And be it further enacted, That such Spirits which shall be in warehoused shall not be taken or carried out of the Warehouse or Stores on any Account whatsoever, otherwise than in Manner and pursuant to the Provisions and Directions hereinafter mentioned and contained.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if often as any Distiller warehoused Spirits in Ireland, or any Proprietor of such Spirits be warehoused, shall be desirous of Shipping for Exportation any Quantity of such Spirits, such Distiller or Proprietor shall deliver to the Stewkeeper, Five Days at least before the time when he intends to ship such Spirits, a Note in Writing, requiring such Stewkeeper to deliver such Casks as such Proprietor may intend to export, specifying the Number of Casks, and the Quantity of Spirits intended to be shipped, and set forth in the Receipt given to such Distiller by the Stewkeeper at the time when such Spirits were admitted into the Warehouse or Stores, and mentioning the time when such Distiller or Proprietor proposes to ship such Spirits, and the Name and Destination of the Ship or Vessel in which such Spirits are intended to be exported; and it shall be lawful for the Officer attending the Warehouse or Stores from which such Spirits are to be taken, before the Delivery thereof from such Warehouse or Stores, to mark every Cask of such Spirits with such Mark as the said Commissioners of Excise shall direct: And if any Spirit is intended for Exportation shall, after having been so marked in His Majesty's Warehouse or Stores, and before that time aforesaid, be altered in Quality, Quantity, or Strength, except by Demand contained from Leakage, Waste or Accidents, all such Spirits, and the Casks containing the same, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs or Excise.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That before any such Spirits shall be delivered out of any such Warehouse or Stores for Exportation, the Distiller or Proprietor intending to export the same, shall, with One or more sufficient Surety or Sureties, give Bond to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in Double the Value of such Spirits and of the Excise Duty which would be due and payable thereon if such Spirits were taken out for Home Consumption (which Bond the Collector of Excise of the District is lawfully authorized and required so to take) conditioned that such Spirits shall (the Duties of the Sea or Excise excepted) be exported to and landed at such Port as shall be specified in such Bond, without Allowance in Quality or Quantity, except what may be consumed by Leakage, Waste or Accident, and shall not be landed in any other Place, nor relanded in Ireland; and each Collector of Excise shall sign and give to such Distiller or Proprietor a Certificate of such Distiller's having entered into such Bond.

IX. And be it further enacted, That upon the Distiller or Proprietor of such Spirits, or some Person on Behalf of such Distiller or Proprietor, producing to the Storekeeper of the Warehouse or Stores the Certificate from the Collector, that such Bond and Security hath been given, the Storekeeper of such Warehouse or Stores if he deliver such Spirits as shall be mentioned in such Certificate to be exported, and such Storekeeper shall cause the said Spirits to be sent under the Care of a proper Officer, at the Expense of the Distiller or Proprietor, to the Quay where the Ship or Vessel shall be fringed, there to be delivered into the Custody of the Shipping Officer of the Customs on such Quay, and shall at the same time grant a Permit for the Quantity so sent, in which Permit shall be also mentioned the Date when the Spirits were warehoused, and such other Particulars as the Commissioners of Excise shall direct and appoint (which Permit shall be a sufficient Protection for the Removal of such Spirits); and if any such Spirits shall be found conveying or carrying from any of His Majesty's Warehouses or Stores to the Quay, to be shipped for Exportation, and before their actual Shipment, and if the Carrier or Person conveying the same, or the Person in whose Custody the same shall be, shall not, on Demand of any Officer of Customs or Excise, produce such Permit authorizing the Removal of such Spirits, the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any such Officer; and all such Spirits shall remain in the Care and Custody of the Shipping Officer on the Quay until shipped or exported; and all such Spirits shall be shipped in the same Casks in which they were originally warehoused, with the Marks, Numbers and Notes of the Contents thereof, except in cases of damaged or leaky Casks, which may be changed with the Leave of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, or of the Chief Officer of the Port, and like Marks shall be cut on the Head of each new Cask as had been cut on the leaky or damaged Cask; and all such Spirits shall be shipped only in such Vessels as, by Law, Spirits of Irish Manufacture may be shipped for Exportation, subject to all Regulations, Proclamations and Penalties, in respect of relanding or conveying the same, so as not to be contrary to any Act or Acts respecting Spirits shipped from Ireland for Exportation to Great Britain or elsewhere, and as are not contrary to the Provisions of this Act.

And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller in warehousing Spirits for Exportation, or other Proprietor thereof, shall desire to take the same, or any Quantity thereof out less than Five hundred Gallons, out of His Majesty's Warehouse or Stores, for Home Consumption, it shall and may be lawful for such Distiller so to do, on paying to the Collector of Excise for the District, the full Amount of the Duty of Excise on Spirit, payable in respect of such Spirits, for the Quantity which such and every such Cask contained at the time of its being warehoused, together with a Sum, after the Rate of Ten Pounds for every One hundred Pounds by the Year, on the Amount of the said Duties, from the Expiration of Four Calendar Months after the Day of having such Spirits, till the time of taking the same out for Home Consumption; and upon the Production of the Collector's Receipt for such Duty to the Storekeeper, it shall be lawful for him to discharge the Casks mentioned in the Collector's Receipt, and to deliver a Permit for the Conveyance of the same to the Distiller or Proprietor thereof, or to such Place as such Distiller or Proprietor shall direct or require, which Permit shall be a sufficient Protection for the Removal of such Spirits; and if any such Spirits shall be found conveying or carrying, and if the Carrier or Person conveying the same, or the Person in whose Custody the same shall be, shall not, on Demand of any Officer of Customs or Excise, produce such Permit authorizing the Removal of such Spirits, the same shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any such Officer.

XI. And be it further enacted, That Spirits so warehoused may be removed, at the Desire of the Distiller or Proprietor thereof, from His Majesty's Warehouse or Stores at any one Port, to the like Warehouse or Stores at any other Port as aforementioned, under such Regulations as the said Commissioners of Excise shall order in respect thereof.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Distiller or Proprietor of any such Spirits so to be lodged in any Warehouse or Stores as aforesaid, in the Presence of the Storekeeper, who is lawfully required to attend at all reasonable times for that Purpose not oftener than once a Week, to view, examine and pass for Sale, such Spirits, or any Part thereof, and to ensure the State of the Casks, and to prevent Leakage or Damage thereof.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Spirits shall remain in His Majesty's Warehouses or Stores, after having been received therein under the Provisions of this Act, for more than Four Calendar Months, or such further time as the said Commissioners of Excise, or any Three of them shall appoint, on special Application made to them, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, to direct, that such Spirits shall be publicly sold, giving Seven Days public Notice thereof; and the Proceeds arising from such Sale shall be applied in the First Place to the Discharge of all the Duties then due, computing such Duties on the Number of Gallons which such and every Cask contained at the time of its being warehoused, without

XIV. And be it further enacted, That on the Expiration of any such Spirit which shall have been warehoused as aforesaid, no Drawback or Allowance whatever shall be given or paid, other than and except a Drawback of Ten pence British Currency upon every Gallon of such Spirit, as and in like of the Duty paid on the Malt used and consumed in the making of such Spirit, or other than and except such other Drawbacks which shall or may by Law from time to time hereafter, on Occasion may require, be granted, given or allowed; which Drawback is hereby required to be paid and satisfied on each Export, subject to all Rates and Regulations in force in Ireland respecting Drawbacks.

XV. And be it further enacted, That in each of an Act, made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to provide for the regulating and fixing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland, and the Warehousing of such Spirits for Exportation; and also in each of another Act, made in the Forty seventh Year of His said Majesty's Reign, for amending the said Act of the Forty sixth Year aforesaid, so relate to the warehousing of Spirits distilled in Ireland for Exportation, without Payment of the Duty of Excise chargeable in Ireland thereon, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Taxes, Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted by this Act, shall be paid and recovered in British Currency, and shall and may be paid for and recovered, levied and applied, in such Manner and Form, and by such Ways and Means, and with such Powers and Authorities, as are prescribed, directed and appointed in and by an Act of Parliament, made in Ireland in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty Charles the Second, intitled An Act for the settling the Excise or new Tax upon His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of Rates therein inserted; or in and by an Act, made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to provide for the better Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenue, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Ireland Excise and Taxes in Ireland; or in and by any other Act or Acts so far as in Ireland relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise, as fully and effectually, to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes, as if the same were particularly mentioned and specified and re-enacted in this Act; with like Remedy of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties who shall think just, for or themselves aggrieved or injured, as in and by the said Acts, or any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise is provided.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXXIV.

An Act for altering and amending an Act made in the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, for the Relief of Debtors, with respect to the Imprisonment of their Persons, and of an Act made in the Thirty ninth Year of His present Majesty, for making perpetual an Act made in the Thirty third Year of His present Majesty, for the further Relief of Debtors; and for other Purposes in the said Act expressed. [20th April 1812.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Thirty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for making perpetual an Act made in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the further Relief of Debtors with respect to the Imprisonment of their Persons; and in a like Debtors who shall continue in Execution in Prisons beyond a certain Time, and for some not exceeding what are mentioned in the Act, to make Discharge of and deliver upon such their Estates, for their Creditors Benefit. And whereas in the said Act made in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the Benefits of an Act passed in the Thirty second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the Relief of Debtors with respect to the Imprisonment of their Persons, and to oblige Debtors who shall continue in Execution in Prisons beyond a certain Time, and for some not exceeding what are mentioned in the Act, to make Discharge of and deliver upon such their Estates for their Creditors Benefit, were extended to diverse Persons not mentioned in the said Act made in the Thirty second Year of His late Majesty King George the Second; And whereas the Provisions of the said Acts made in the Thirty second Year of His late Majesty and in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty respectively require, that Debtors and others confined in any County or other Goal above the Space of Twenty Miles from Westminster Hall, or the Court or Courts under the Power whereof any such Debtors or others are confined, desirous to avail themselves of the Benefits of the said Acts, should apply by Petition to such Court or Courts, and authorize such Court or Courts, on being satisfied as aforesaid mentioned, to order or cause such Debtors or others to be brought to the Assize which shall be holden for the County or Place where he, she or they shall be imprisoned, and further require that the Matter of the said Petition should at the time of the Assize be for the County or Place where he, she or they shall be imprisoned, be heard by the Judge of Assize on the Crown Side: And whereas there are many Goals situate within local or particular Jurisdictions, for which no Assizes are ever or seldom or are held, or at which Assizes there may be no Judge of Assize on the Crown Side, and other Goals at considerable Distances from any Place where Assizes are usually held, by reason whereof such Debtors and others as are confined therein and would be entitled to the Benefits of the said Acts cannot avail themselves thereof in the manner intended by the said Acts: And whereas great Hardship arises to such Persons and others, and it is desirable to give them Relief in the Premises; and that such Court or Courts, on being satisfied as aforesaid, should be further authorized to order or cause all Debtors and others retained on the Benefit of the said Acts, or any of them, petitioning as aforesaid, to be brought up, and the Matter of

• All Acts whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty-second Year of the Reign of King George the Second, it is enacted As Act for the Relief of Debtors with respect to the Imprisonment of their Persons, and in what Manner it shall continue in Execution in Prison beyond a certain Time, and for Some not extending which are mentioned in the said Act, to make Discovery of and deliver upon Oath their Estates for their Creditors' Debts, it is, amongst other things, provided, that no Person or Persons who had been taken or should thereafter take the Benefit of any Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, should have or receive any Benefit or Advantage of or under this Act, or be deemed to be within the Meaning thereof, so as to gain any Discharge, unless compelled by any Court to discover and deliver up his or her Estate and Effects: And whereas it is expressed that the said recited Provisions in the said Act should be repealed; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the same shall be and is hereby repealed.

C A P. XXXV.

An Act to prohibit all Intercourse between the Island of Jamaica and certain Parts of the Island of Saint Domingo.

[17th April 1812.]

• WHEREAS it is expedient that all Intercourse between the Island of Jamaica and certain Parts and Places of the Island of Saint Domingo should cease and determine; Be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twelve, no British Ship or Vessel shall, for any Purpose or under any Privilege whatsoever, sail from any Port or Place in the Island of Jamaica to any Port or Place in the Island of Saint Domingo, nor from any Port or Place in the Island of Saint Domingo to any Port or Place in the Island of Jamaica, except as is hereinafter provided, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of any such Ship or Vessel, together with her Cargo, Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel.

• It. And be it further enacted, That no Foreign Ship or Vessel, whether laden or is ballast, shall come into any Port in the Island of Jamaica, if such Ship or Vessel shall have come from, or shall on the Course of her Voyage have touched at any Port or Place in the Island of Saint Domingo; and if any such Foreign Ship or Vessel shall land any Person from on board the same, or shall continue in any Port or Harbour of the said Island of Jamaica, for Forty-eight Hours after Notice shall be given by the principal Officer of the Customs resident at the Port to depart therefrom, such Foreign Ship or Vessel shall be detained, together with her Cargo, Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel.

• III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the prohibiting of any Intercourse which may be carried on by any Law or Laws now in force between the said Island of Jamaica and any Port or Place in the said Island of Saint Domingo, which case it shall be in the Possession of, and under the Dominion of the Spanish Government, while the same shall continue in and under such Possession and Dominion.

IV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War from taking from any Port or Place in the said Island of Jamaica to any Port or Place in the said Island of Saint Domingo, nor from any Port or Place in the said Island of Saint Domingo, to any Port or Place in the said Island of Jamaica.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Ships, Vessels and Goods, liable to Forfeiture under the Provisions of this Act, shall and may be seized by the Commander of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or any Commissioned, Warrant or Petty Officer by him specially authorized, or by any Officer of His Majesty's Customs, and shall and may be sold for and preferred, in such and the like manner, and by the same Ways and Means, and subject to the like Rules and Directions, as any Forfeitures incurred in the said Colonies or Plantations in America, by force of any Act of Parliament relating to the Trade and Revenue of the said Colonies or Plantations, may now be sold for and preferred in pursuance of an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the more effectual Recovery of Penalties and Forfeitures incurred in the British Colonies and Plantations in America; and such Ships, Vessels and Goods, shall be lodged and deposited in the Custody of the Officers mentioned in the said Act, and shall be subject to the other Provisions thereof, in like manner as if the same were herein repeated; and the Commanders or Officers of any Ships or Vessels of War, and the Officers of the Customs, in making and preferring any such Seizures, shall have the Benefit of all the Provisions made by any Act of Parliament for the Protection of Officers Seizing and preferring any Ships, Vessels or Goods, for any Offence against any Act of Parliament relating to the Trade and Revenue of the said Colonies or Plantations in America.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Forfeitures incurred by this Act shall go and belong to such Person or Persons, and in such Shares and Proportions as any Statutes enacted in the said Colonies or Plantations in America now go and belong to, and may now be distributed and applied under and by virtue of a certain Act of Parliament made in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for granting certain Duties in the said Colonies and Plantations in America, and for other Purposes.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Ship or Vessel, or any Goods laden thereon, shall be found under the Provisions of this Act, and any Dispute shall arise whether the said Ship or Vessel had sailed, or the Goods laden thereon had been brought from any Port or Place in the Island of Jamaica to any Port or Place in the Island of Saint Domingo, or from any Port or Place in the Island of Saint Domingo to any Port or Place in the Island of Jamaica, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, in such case the Proof thereof shall lie upon the Owner or Charter of such Ship or Vessel or Goods, and not upon the Officers who shall seize or Rap the same; and in case no sufficient Proof shall be given by the Owner or Char of such Ship or Vessel, or the Goods laden thereon, of the Port or Place from and to which such Goods had been brought and such Ship or Vessel did really and lawfully sail, then such Ship or Vessel shall, without any further Proceeding, be taken and held to have sailed, and the Goods laden thereon shall be taken and held to have been brought from one of the said Islands to the other, contrary to the Provisions of this Act; any Law, Custom or Usage, in any of the Colonies or Plantations to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Ships or Vessels, or any Goods whatsoever, shall be found as forfeited by virtue or in pursuance of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any Four or more of them, on Evidence being given to their Satisfaction that the Forfeiture arose without any fraudulent Proceeding, or Deceit or Intention of Fraud in the Proprietor or Proprietors of such Ships or Vessels or Goods, by any Writing signed by them, or any Four of them, to order the same to be referred to such Proprietor or Proprietors, in such manner and on such Terms and Conditions as under the circumstances of the case shall appear to the said Commissioners to be just and reasonable, and as they shall think fit to direct; and if the said Proprietor or Proprietors shall comply with the Terms and Conditions prescribed by the said Commissioners, the same shall be referred accordingly; and it shall not be lawful for the Officer or Officers who shall have seized such Ships, Vessels or Goods, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever on his or their Behalf, to proceed in any manner for the Condemnation thereof, but if such Proprietor or Proprietors shall not comply with the Terms and Conditions prescribed by the said Commissioners, such Officer or Officers shall be at Liberty, and he and they as and so lawfully authorized to proceed for the Condemnation of such Ships or Vessels, or Goods, as if this Law had not been made: Provided always, that if such Proprietor or Proprietors shall accept the Terms and Conditions prescribed by the said Commissioners, such Proprietor or Proprietors shall not have or be entitled to any Recompense or Damages on account of the Seizure or Detention of such Ships or Vessels or Goods, or have or maintain any Action whatever for the same; any Law, Custom or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act for settling and securing a certain Annuity on Earl Wellington and the Two next Persons to whom the Title of Earl Wellington shall descend, in Consideration of his eminent Services.

[enth. April 1812.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,
 WHEREAS Your Majesty, by Your said Gracious Message to the House of Commons, has been pleased to declare that Your Majesty, having taken into Your Royal Consideration the eminent and signal Services performed by General Lord Viscount Wellington in the Course of a long Successful Campaign, and being desirous to mark the Sense You entertain of the Services he has done to the British Arms, and in Consideration of his eminent Services, have conferred upon General Lord Viscount Wellington and the Heirs Male of his Body the Rank and Dignity of an Earl of the United Kingdom, by the Name, Style and Title of Earl Wellington; and Your Majesty being further desirous of granting to the Earl of Wellington a Net Annuity of Two thousand Pounds, in addition to the Annuity already granted by Parliament, and subject to the same Limitation imposed in that Grant, recommended it to your faithful Commons to enable His Majesty to grant and settle such Annuity, and to make such further Provision as should be, so may be thought most effectual for the Benefit of General the Earl of Wellington and his Family; We, Your Majesty's most devoted and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament assembled, duly considering Your Majesty's Most gracious Intention, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in Addition to the Annuity already granted to the said Earl, then Viscount Wellington, by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for settling and securing a certain Annuity on Viscount Wellington, and the Two next Persons to whom the Title of Viscount Wellington shall descend, in Consideration of his eminent Services, one other Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum of Two thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, shall be issue and payable out of and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, (after paying or satisfying Debts due to) all such Fees and Sums of Money as have been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the same) but with Preference to all other Payments which shall or may hereafter be charged upon or payable out of the said Fund, and the same shall from time to time be paid Quarterly, five and clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, in Manner and Form following; that is to say, to the said Earl Wellington, for and during the natural Life of the said Earl Wellington, and from and after his Death, unto the Two next succeeding Heirs Male of the Body of the said Earl Wellington, on whom the Title, Honour and Dignity of Earl Wellington shall descend, for and during their several Lives; which said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum shall commence and take Effect from the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve; the First Payment to be computed from the said Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, until the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twelve; and from thenceforth it shall be paid and payable at the Four said Days of Payment in the said Year, that is to say, the Fifth Day of July, the Tenth Day of October, the Fifth Day of January, and the Fifth Day of April, in each and every Year, by even and equal Portions.

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury now being, and the High Treasurer and Under Treasurer of the Exchequer, and Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, and they are hereby authorized and required by Warrant under their Hands, to direct the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer now and for the time being, to make such and such Debitations from time to time for paying the said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum of Two thousand Pounds, in manner as aforesaid; and as the same shall from time to time become due and payable, without any Fees or Charges to be demanded or taken for paying the same or any Part thereof; which said Warrant and Debitations to be made such and such Debitations shall be a sufficient Authority to the several and respective Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer, now and for the time being, for the Payment of the said Annuity or yearly Rent or Sum to the said Earl Wellington, and the Two next succeeding Heirs Male of the Body of the said Earl Wellington, at the respective Quarterly Feast Days as in this Act before appointed for Payment thereof, without any further or other Warrant to be had for, had or obtained in that Behalf.

III. And it is hereby further enacted, That after signing of such Warrant the same shall be good, valid and effectual in Law, according to the Tenor and true Meaning thereof and of this Act, and shall not be determined or voidable by or upon the Death or Removal of any of the said Commissioners of the Treasury or the Lord High Treasurer, or by or upon the Discontinuation of the Power, Office or Offices of them or any of them.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of the Treasury now being, and the High Treasurer of the Treasury for the time being, Chancellor and Under Treasurer, Chamberlain and Receiver of the Exchequer, and all other the Officers and Ministers of the Court of Exchequer, and of the Receipt thereof now and for the time being, shall and they are hereby authorized and strictly enjoined and required to do, without Fee or Reward, all such Acts, Matters and Things as are herebefore directed and required, or shall be according to be done and performed by them or any or either of them, in order to make this Act and the several Payments hereby directed, effectual.

VI. And he is further enacted, That the said Annuity, yearly Rent, or Sum of Two thousand Pounds, shall be and the same is by this Act settled on the said Earl Wellington, and the Two next succeeding Heirs Male of the Body of the said Earl Wellington on whom the said Title, Honour and Dignity of Earl Wellington shall descend; and the same or any Part thereof shall not at any time or times hereafter be aliened, or conveyed, disposed, charged or encumbered by the said Earl Wellington or by either of the Two next succeeding Heirs Male of the Body of the said Earl Wellington on whom the said Title shall descend, for any greater or larger Estate or Term than during the natural Life of the Person so aliening, conveying, disposing, charging or encumbering the same, so as to prevent the same from descending to the next or succeeding Heirs Male of the Body of the said Earl Wellington to whom the said Title of Earl Wellington shall descend, according to the Limitation aforesaid.

C A P. XXXVIII.

An Act for amending the Laws relating to the Local Militia in England. [20th April 1812.]

WHEREAS the Local Militia, as by Law established, has been found of the utmost Importance to the internal Defence of this Realm: And whereas it is necessary, in the present Circumstances of Europe, that the said Force should be permanently maintained; And whereas the Laws now in Force for regulating the said Militia require Amendment; and it is expedient that some of the Provisions contained in the several Acts relating to the same should be repealed, and others of them corrected and amended, and that new Provisions should be made; and it would greatly tend to the better Execution thereof if the Whole of the said Provisions were comprised in One Act of Parliament: And whereas it is necessary for the Purposes aforesaid, that certain Acts and Parts of Acts now in Force should be repealed: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act, passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for enabling His Majesty to establish a permanent Local Militia Force, under certain Regulations, for the Defence of the Realm; and also Three several Acts, passed in the Forty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, relating to the Local Militia, the one intituled An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, for enabling His Majesty to establish a permanent Local Militia Force, under certain Regulations, for the Defence of the Realm; the other intituled An Act to amend several Acts passed in the last and present Sessions of Parliaments, relating to the Local Militia; and the other intituled An Act to prevent the calling of Local Militia Men from the Regular Militia of any other County or Borough than the County or Borough in which they belong; and also five or more of another Act, passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend several Acts relating to the Local Militia of Great Britain, as relates to the Local Militia, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and that the Local Militia called by virtue of the said Act of the Forty eighth Year aforesaid, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be placed to all the Provisions and Regulations thereof: Provided always, that the repealing of the said several Acts hereby repealed, or any or either of them, shall not affect any Commission already granted under or by virtue of the said Acts, or any or either of them, but that all such Provisions to which any such Commissions shall have been granted, shall and may still be the Execution of this Act, in like manner as they might have stood in the Execution of the said former Acts, or any or either of them: Provided also, that in any of the Boroughs, Corporations, Towns and parishes Local Militia Men as aforesaid having for the several Counties, Boroughs and Places aforesaid, shall be liable and continue to serve in the said Militia; and for the same Length of time as they might have served if this Act had not been made, and shall be liable and subject to the same Provisions, Powers, Privileges and Penalties for any Offences, which they may have respectively committed previous to the passing of this Act, in the like manner as if the Offences had not been committed till after the passing of this Act; and from time to time, in every case where it shall be necessary to supply any Deficiency in the Number of regular Local Militia Men of any County, Riding or Place, the Men or Number of Men required to supply such Deficiency shall be raised, provided and

II. And be it further enacted, That the several Lieutenants of Counties, or, in the Absence of the Lieutenant, the Vice Lieutenant or any Three Deputy Lieutenants duly authorized by His Majesty, shall have full Power and Authority, and are hereby required from time to time to constitute and appoint such Persons as they shall think fit, being qualified as hereinafter is directed, and living within their respective Counties, Ridings and Pleas, or within four adjacent Counties, Ridings or Places, to be Colonels, Lieutenants Colonels, Majors and other Officers, qualified as hereinafter is directed, to train, discipline and command the Persons to be so armed and arrayed according to the Rules, Orders and Directions hereinafter mentioned, and—and—such—as—His—Majesty the Names and Ranks of all such Officers to be appointed; and in case his Majesty shall, within fourteen Days after such Certificate shall have been laid before His Majesty, signify His Disapprobation of any of the Persons so to be appointed, it shall not be lawful for the said Lieutenants to grant a Commission to any Person so disapproved, but Commissions shall be granted to all such Persons who shall not be disapproved by His Majesty; and the Officers so appointed for the Local Militia, or be armed and arrayed as hereinafter directed, shall rank with the Officers of His Majesty's Regular Militia as yeoman of their Rank: Provided always, that no higher Rank shall be given in any Regiment of Local Militia than that of Lieutenant Colonel Commandant, except in Cases where the Commandant shall have served with the Rank of Colonel in His Majesty's Regular Forces, or Regular or Supplementary Militia or Fencibles, or be the Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant of any County.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Officers of Local Militia holding the Rank of Lieutenant Colonel Commandant, shall take Rank of and command all other Lieutenant Colonels serving in the said Local Militia, notwithstanding the Commission of the said Lieutenant Colonels should be of a prior Date to the Commission of such Lieutenant Colonel Commandant; and that Officers of the Local Militia shall rank with the Officers of Yeomanry and Volunteer Corps, according to the Dates of their respective Commissions: Provided always, That every Officer of Local Militia, who shall have held any Commission in any Volunteer Corps at the time of his becoming an Officer of the Local Militia, shall be entitled to rank with the Officers of Yeomanry and Volunteer Corps, according to the Date of his Commission of the same Rank in the Volunteers.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Person who shall have held the Rank of Colonel of any Regiment or Battalion of Regular or Supplementary Militia, and who may be appointed to the Command of any Regiment or Battalion of Local Militia to be raised by virtue of this Act, shall rank as Colonel, according to the Date of his Commission, in the Local Militia; and every Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant of any County, as long as he shall continue to act as such, who shall be appointed to the Command of any Regiment or Battalion of Local Militia as aforesaid, shall rank as Colonel, according to the Date of his Commission in the Local Militia; and every Person who shall have served in the Regular or Supplementary Militia as a Commissioned Officer, and by reason of the Reduction of such Militia shall have ceased to hold such Rank, shall, if appointed to a like Commission in the Local Militia, rank according to the Date of his first Commission: Provided always, that no Officer holding the Rank of Colonel in the Local Militia, shall be entitled to or receive any greater Pay or Emolument, than that of Lieutenant Colonel Commandant.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Commission of any Officer in the Local Militia, already granted or to be granted by any Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants, shall be vacated by reason of the Revocation, Expiration or Dissolution of the Commission by which any such Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants is aforesaid was or were appointed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Lieutenants of every County, Riding or Place, shall have the Chief Command of the Local Militia unless the County, Riding or Place, to which he is appointed.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Persons to be appointed Officers of the Local Militia, in pursuance of this Act, shall be qualified as follows: that is to say, every Person to be appointed a Lieutenant Colonel shall be seized or possessed either in Law or Equity for his own Use and Benefit in Possession of a Freehold, Copyhold or Customary Estate for Life, or for the Life of his Wife, for having a Freehold, Copyhold or Customary Estate for her Life, or for some greater Estate, or of an Estate for some long Term of Years, determinable on One or more Life or Lives, in Messuages, Messuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, as English, Welsh or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, of the yearly Value of Six hundred Pounds, or shall be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall in like manner be seized or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of the yearly Value of One thousand two hundred Pounds; and every Person to be appointed a Major, shall in like manner be seized or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of the yearly Value of Four hundred Pounds, or shall be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall in like manner be seized or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of the yearly Value of Eight hundred Pounds; and every Person to be appointed a Captain, shall in like manner be seized or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of the yearly Value of One hundred and fifty Pounds, or shall be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall in like manner be seized or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of the yearly Value of Three hundred Pounds, or shall be a younger Son of some Person who shall be, or at the time of his Death was in like manner seized or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of the yearly Value of Five hundred Pounds, or shall himself be possessed of Real or Personal Property to the Amount in the Whole of Two thousand five hundred Pounds; and every Person to be appointed Lieutenant shall in like manner be seized or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of the yearly Value of Thirty Pounds, or shall be possessed of a Personal Estate above the Amount of Seven hundred and fifty Pounds, or seized or possessed of Real and Personal Estate together to the Amount or Value of One thousand five hundred Pounds, or shall be Son of some Person who shall be or at the time of his Death was in like manner seized or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of the yearly Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the summate Reversion or Remainder of and in Messuages, Messuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which are held for One Life, or for Two or Three Lives, or for any Term of Years determinable upon the Death of One Life, or of Two or Three Lives, or in several Parts, and which are to the Life, or Lives of the clear yearly Value of Three hundred Pounds, shall be deemed equal to an Estate in fee-simple required as a Qualification of the yearly Value of One hundred Pounds, and is in Proportion to the several other Qualifications required by this Act.

IX. And be it further enacted, That a Person possess'd in Law or Equity, for his own Use and Benefit in Possession, of an Estate for a certain Term originally granted for Twenty Years or more, of an annual Value (over and above all Rents and Charges payable out of or in respect of the same), equal to the Value of such an Estate as is required for the Qualification of a Commissioned Officer of the Local Militia respectively, and fructus as aforesaid, shall be, and is hereby deemed and declared to be sufficiently qualified to act as the Executor of this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall hereafter be appointed to a higher Rank in the Local Militia than that of Lieutenant, until he shall have delivered to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Riding and Place, for which he shall be appointed, or (in the Absence of the Clerk of the Peace) to his Deputy, a specific Declaration in Writing, signed by himself, of his Qualifications, stating the Feild or Possession in which the Estate or Estates which give his Qualification, is or are situate, if the same be a Real Estate; or if the same be a Personal Property, then of the Particulars of such Personal Property; or if the Qualification arise from Service in His Majesty's Regular Forces, Regular or Supplementory Militia or Volunteers, or Volunteers as aforesaid, then of the Particulars of such Service; and the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy shall transmit to the Lieutenant of the County, Riding or Place, a Copy of such Declaration; and so Commission granted after the passing of this Act, for a higher Rank in the Local Militia than that of Lieutenant, shall be void, unless it be declared in the Commission that the Officer to whom the Commission is given hath achieved such Qualification as above directed.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace of every County, Riding and Place, shall, and he is hereby required to enter the Qualifications transmitted to him, according to the Directions of this Act, upon a Roll to be provided and kept for that Purpose, and to cause to be entered in The London Gazette the Dates of the Commissions, and Names and Rank of the Officers, together with the Names of the Officers in whose Room they are appointed, in like manner as Commissions in the Army are published from the War Office; and he is hereby authorized to charge the Expence of such Insertion in the Gazette for each Commission to the Treasurer of the County, Riding or Place, who is hereby directed to pay the same; and the said Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy shall, in the Month of January in every Year, transmit to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State a Certificate in the Form in Schedule (A.) that the Qualifications have been so left with him; and every Commissioned Officer, not having already taken and subscribed the Oaths, and made, repeated and subscribed the Declaration, as required by this Act, shall, at some General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or in One of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, within Six Months after the passing of this Act, if he shall be or be appointed before the passing of this Act, or if not appointed till after the passing of this Act, then within Six Months after he shall have accepted his Commission, take the Oaths appointed to be taken by an Act, passed in the First Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First, intitled *An Act for the better Security of His Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Hours of the late Princess Sophia, being Protestants; and for establishing the Rights of the pretended Prince of Wales; and by open and secret Matters; and also by an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled *An Act for altering the Oaths of Allegiance, and the Affirmation; and for providing for making of an Act of the Seventh Year of late Majesty Queen Anne, intitled An Act for the better settling of the Union of the Two Kingdoms, as, after the Time therein limited, requires the Delivery of certain Lists and Copies therein mentioned to Persons intitled of High Treason or Misprision of Treason; and shall also make, repeat and subscribe the Declaration in the last Act of the First Year of King George the First, directed to be made, repeated and subscribed by all Officers, Civil and Military.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall execute any of the Power is hereby directed to be executed by Colonels, Lieutenant Colonels, or Majors, not being qualified as aforesaid, or without having delivered delivered in such specific Description of his Qualification as is hereinbefore required, every such Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds; and if any Person shall exercise any of the Powers hereby directed to be exercised by Captains, not being qualified as aforesaid, or without having delivered in such specific Description of his Qualification as is hereinbefore required, every such Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, one Moiety of which shall go to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same; and in every Advers, Suit or Information, brought against any Person for acting as Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, Major or Captain, not being qualified as hereinbefore directed, the Proof of his Qualification shall lie upon the Person against whom the same is brought: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall release or prevent any Peer of the Realm, or His Apparent of any such Peer, from being appointed or acting as a Commissioned Officer in the Local Militia, within the County, Riding or Place, where such Peer, or His Apparent of such Peer, shall have some Piece of Residence, although he may not have the Qualification hereby required; or to oblige any Peer of the Realm, or His Apparent of such Peer, who shall be appointed a Commissioned Officer, as aforesaid, to leave with the Clerk of the Peace for the County, Riding or Place, for which he shall be appointed, any Qualification in Writing as aforesaid.

There are directed in these Qualifications.

England.

for the County of Fife Eight hundred and four; for the County of Gloucester One thousand Six hundred and twelve; for the County of Massachusetts Four hundred and eighty four; for the County of Montgomery One thousand one hundred and sixteen; for the County of New York, the Town and County of the Town of New York Eight hundred and four; and for the County of Reading, five hundred and sixty.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where the Number of Local Militia Men fixed and settled for any County, Riding or Place as aforesaid, shall be less than the Number actually serving for such County, Riding or Place, at the time of passing this Act, the Quota now and above the Quota so fixed as aforesaid, shall continue to serve in the Local Militia of these respective Counties, until the Expirement of the Period for which they were originally enrolled, any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding; but that no Vacancies arising in the Local Militia of such County, Riding or Place, shall be supplied until the Number of Men serving in such County shall be reduced below the Number so fixed as aforesaid, as the Quota of such County, Riding or Place.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That when the Number of Local Militia Men so fixed as aforesaid for any County, shall be greater than the Number actually serving for such County, at the time of passing this Act, no further Enrolment of Men for the Local Militia of such County shall take place, beyond what may be necessary to keep the several Regiments complete to their Establishment, so long as the Number of Men serving in such County shall, in Addition to and together with and including the effective Yeomanry and Volunteers so serving in such County, (including of Sepoys, when above the Establishment of such Corps form without Pay), amount to Six Times the original Quota of the Militia of such County fixed under an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, relating to the Militia of England: Provided always, that when and if other as the Number of effective Yeomanry and Volunteers in any such County as aforesaid shall be reduced by the desertion or defaulting of the Members of any Corps of Yeomanry or Volunteers, or by reason of the effective Members of any such Corps being diminished, a Number of Local Militia Men not exceeding in Amount such Deficiency shall be forthwith called and enrolled under this Act, until the Number of the Local Militia of such County shall be equal to the Number fixed as aforesaid for the Quota of such County under this Act: Provided always, That no Vacancy arising in any Corps of Yeomanry or Volunteer County, by reason of the effective Number of such Corps being diminished, shall be supplied as aforesaid, by Billet for the Local Militia under this Act, unless such Vacancy shall not have been supplied by the entering of any Men into such Corps within six Months after such Vacancy occurring in such Corps.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which the Number of Local Militia Men so fixed by this Act as the Quota of any County shall be greater than the Number actually serving for such County, it shall be lawful for the Member or any Corps of Volunteers, within the Ages limited by this Act, and not having more than Two Children under the Age of Fourteen Years, as may be desired of some Part of the said Local Militia to be called under this Act, to transfer themselves, with the Approbation of His Majesty, under the Direction of the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants, to become and serve Part of the Local Militia under this Act of the County or Part or Division of the County to which such Corps &c. belong, upon such Terms and Conditions as His Majesty shall direct; and all Volunteers so permitted to transfer their Services, shall thereupon forthwith be enrolled without Billet in such Local Militia, and take the Oath hereafter required to be taken by Persons enlisted under this Act, and if actually serving as such as the Twentieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and nine, continuing constantly continued to serve as such until that Period, shall be entitled to a Bounty of Two Guineas, and to the same Allowance for Necessaries as other Local Militia Men so called under this Act, and shall be deemed and taken to be Local Militia Men in all Events and Purposes.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall profess himself as a Member of a Volunteer Corps into the Local Militia, and shall be also so enrolled in the Local Militia, shall be liable to be called upon to be enrolled to serve in the Regular Militia, by virtue of his having been enlisted and not out for the Regular Militia, during the Period of his having been a Member of a Volunteer Corps; any thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That where any such Bounty shall become payable to any Member of a Volunteer Corps for transferring himself as aforesaid, the Deputy Lieutenant or Justice attending the Enrolment and Issuing in of such Men, shall sign a Certificate of the Amount of the Bounty to be repaid, and to whom, and for what Periods or Places; and the Clerk of the Subdivision Meeting shall forthwith transmit such Certificate to the Secretary at War, and draw upon the Agent General for the Amount of Bounties specified to be so payable.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to permit any Volunteer Corps of Yeomanry or Artillery to transfer themselves into the Local Militia, upon such Terms and Conditions as to their Establishment, and as to Allowances for Horles or Accommodations, or other Things, and as to Pay, as His Majesty shall direct, and as to attached to the Local Militia of the County where such Corps shall live, in such manner as His Majesty shall direct: Provided always, that no Vacancies arising in any such Corps of Yeomanry, be transferred as aforesaid, shall be supplied by Billet under this Act; but all such Vacancies which shall not be supplied by the entering of any Men into such Corps, within six Months after such Vacancy occurring in such Yeomanry Corps, shall be supplied by Billet for the Local Militia of the County to which such Yeomanry Corps shall be attached.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That all such Powers, Privileges, Rules, Regulations, Orders, Matters and Things contained in the said Act of the Forty second of His Majesty, or in an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, or in 29; other Acts relating to the Militia, as relate to the appointing and holding General and Subdivision Meetings of Lieutenants, or to the making out Lists from which to ballot, or to the Mode of balloting, shall, as far as the same are applicable and can be applied to and for the Purposes of carrying this Act into Execution, and are not hereby altered, varied or repealed, but shall, nevertheless, be applied and put in force with respect to the Local Militia, in as full and ample a manner as if the said Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Orders, Statutes and Things were mentioned and repeated in this Act.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That the respective Clerks of the Subdivision Meetings shall, as soon as conveniently may be after any Subdivision Meeting shall have been appointed, give Notice in Writing of the Time and Place of Meeting to each of the Deputy Lieutenants who shall be resident within such Subdivision, and also to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, attached to such Subdivision, by Notice addressed to the Adjutant, and as Adjutant of the several Days before for receiving Lists, and for balloting and for balloting the Militia Men within such Subdivisions; and shall, as soon as the Militia Men are enrolled, likewise transmit to the Colonel or other Commandant, or to the Commanding Officer as aforesaid, in manner aforesaid, a List, specifying the Names, Trades, and usual Places of Abode, of all such Local Militia Men as are enrolled.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Men to be enlisted under this Act shall be balloted out of and from the Persons between the Ages of Eighteen and Thirty, returned in the Lists now existing, or which may hereafter be made under, termed or approved for the making of the Militia under any Acts relating to the Militia of England; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty, if He shall think fit, to order and direct the making up of any new Lists, and in such Cases as to Age or otherwise, and in such Form as may be deemed expedient for the Purpose of carrying this Act into Execution.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That on making out or amending of any Lists after the passing of this Act, of Persons fit to serve in the Local Militia, every Person who shall wilfully neglect to appear within the time appointed for that Purpose, shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, nor less than Twenty Shillings, at the Discretion of any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace or Magistrates, not on Oath; and thereof he is to be sworn, at the Discretion of any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace or Magistrates as aforesaid, for any time not exceeding Fourteen Days.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be appointed or act as a Special Constable for the Purpose of assisting in the making out of any new Lists, or otherwise in acting in the Execution of this Act, who shall not be above the Age of Thirty Years.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants within any Subdivision, or any Two or more of them, or for any One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace, from time to time to issue their Order or Warrant under their Hands and Seals, requiring the Attendance of the Constable, Tythingman, Headborough or other Officer of any Parish, Tything or Place within such Subdivision, for the Purpose of this Act, at such Time and Place as in such Order or Warrant shall be expressed; and if any such Constable, Tythingman, Headborough or other Officer, shall refuse or neglect to appear according to such Order or Warrant, or if any Chief Constable or other Officer of any Hundred, Rape, Lath, Wapentake or other Division, or any Constable, Tythingman, Headborough or other Officer of any Parish, Tything or Place, shall refuse or neglect to comply with such Orders and Directions as he shall from time to time receive from the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any Two or more of them, or from any One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace in pursuance of this Act, he shall be guilty of any Felony or wilful Contumacy or gross Neglect in his Duty, the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any Two or more of them, or such One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace, as he by engagement and request to consent the Person is offending to the Coronet Court, there to be kept without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of One Month, or, at their Discretion, to see such Person in any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, nor less than Forty Shillings.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Chief or other Constable, Headborough, Tythingman or Overseer, or any one of the People called Quakers, (and certified to be so by Two Persons of the People called Quakers) shall neglect or refuse to perform the Duties required by this Act, it shall be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace sitting for the Division within which such Quaker shall be such Officer as aforesaid, and they may be required, in all cases where the circumstances of the case shall so require, Judges or Justice of the Peace, to send and certify for the due Execution of the Provisions of this Act, by their Order and their Hands and Seals, to appoint a fit and proper Person to be Deputy to such Quaker, for the Purpose only of carrying this Act into Execution; and every Person so appointed Deputy as aforesaid shall have all exercise of the Powers, Authorities and Jurisdictions given by this Act to such Officer for whom he shall be sent, and shall do and perform all the like Duties and Offices, under the like Power, Provision and Forfeiture as he lawfully might do, if he were the said Officer; and in like manner in every respect as if he were the said Officer, in all cases where an Appointment of any Deputy shall be made, the person of such Constable, Headborough, Tythingman or Overseer (being One of the People called Quakers) shall be, and he is to be bound to discharge from the Performance of any Duty required of him by this Act, and he is to be deemed to be so, from the time of such Appointment.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants, at their Subdivision Meetings, to send to the Justice of the Peace who they shall think it necessary, any Two or more Parishes or Tythingman, or any one of the People called Quakers, or any two of them, or any one of the People called Quakers, for the Purpose of this Act, and also to add together the Lists of such Parishes, Tythingman or Overseer as aforesaid, in as to make the Choice of Local Militia Men by Ballot within every such Subdivision

General Meetings may also be held in such Places.

As before said, the Clerks of the several Meetings, Deputy Lieutenants, or such other Member of the several Meetings, or such other Persons, as shall be appointed, to be as equal and impartial as possible; and where any Parishes, Tythings and Places be added together shall be in different Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Divisions within the same County, Riding or Place, to direct in what Hundred, Rape, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Division, the same shall be considered for the Purposes of this Act; and the said Deputy Lieutenants shall proceed upon the Lists so added together, in like manner as if they had been originally returned for One Parish, or for the Parish to which any extra parochial Place shall have been added as aforesaid; and the Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs or other Officers of Parishes, Tythings and Places be added together, shall sit together in the Execution of this Act, as if they were respectively Officers of one and the same Parish or Tything; and all such Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs and Officers to be aforesaid sitting together by virtue of this Act, shall hold their Meetings under this Act in the Parish or Tything which shall be named first in each Order of Deputy Lieutenants; and if any Difference or Disagreement shall arise between the Officers of any Parish, Tything or Place, or between the Officers of different Parishes or Tythings, touching the Execution of this Act, the Deputy Lieutenants sitting in and for the Subdivision where such Difference or Disagreement shall happen, shall sit at any Subdivision Meeting, and they are hereby authorized to hear and determine the same, and make such Order therein for the better Execution of this Act, as to them shall seem meet; and such Orders shall be final and conclusive.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the several Clerks, Provisors, Regulations, Fees, Penalties, Fines, Sittings, Musters and Things, in this Act contained, shall be construed to extend to every extra parochial Place added to any Parish or Tything for the Purposes of this Act, as fully as if the said Clerks and Provisors had severally and respectively been expressly applied to extra parochial Places, and where there shall be any extra parochial Place or other Place where no Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs or Overseers of the Poor of the Parish or Parishes, or Tything or Tythings respectively, to which such extra parochial or other Place shall have been added by the Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, may and shall sit as Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs or Overseers of the Poor respectively for each extra parochial or other Place in the Execution of this Act, and may and shall do, perform and execute all such Acts, Matters and Things therein, relating to the Execution of this Act, as fully and amply, and with all such and the like Powers in every Respect, as if such extra parochial or other Place was within and made part of each Parish or Tything: Provided always, that if any Rate or Rates shall be to be made for any Parish or Parishes, or Tything or Tythings, and any such extra parochial or other Place jointly, each Rate or Rates shall be distinctly made for the Purposes of this Act, and for no other Purposes whatever: Provided also, that every such separate Rate shall and may be made, raised and levied, as well in such extra parochial or other Place, as in any such Parish or Tything aforesaid, in like manner as any Rate made for the Relief of the Poor.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That the Clerks of all Subdivision Meetings shall within Twenty Days after every Subdivision Meeting, transmit to the Clerk of the General Meetings of the County, Riding or Place, four true and true Copies of such Lists as shall be signed at each Subdivision Meeting; and if any such Clerk shall omit or neglect to make such Returns as aforesaid within such Period as aforesaid, or shall knowingly or wilfully make any false Returns, each Clerk shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant of any County, Riding or Place, together with any Three or more Deputy Lieutenants, or (on the Death or Removal, or in the Absence of any Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant) any Five or more Deputy Lieutenants may, at any General Meeting, after the appointed Subdivisions within such County, Riding or Place, if they shall see Occasion, and also may alter the established Allowance of the Number of Men in each respective Hundred, Rape, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Division, to serve in the Local Militia, towards raising the Number of Local Militia Men by this Act directed to be raised for such County, Riding or Place, according to the Number contained in the respective Certificates received from the several Subdivision Meetings; regard being had in such Allowances and Appointments to the Number of effective Yeomanry and Volunteers serving in each such Hundred, Rape, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Division.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Deputy Lieutenants aforesaid at their Second Meeting within any Subdivision shall appoint what Number of Men shall serve for each Parish, Tything and Place, within such Subdivision, regard being had in such Appointment to the Number of effective Yeomanry and Volunteers serving in each such Parish, Tything or Place, in Proportion to the Number last appointed, in the manner heretofore directed, at a General Meeting to serve for each Hundred, Rape, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Division; and shall appoint another Meeting to be holden within Three Weeks from the Day on which such Meeting was holden within the same Subdivision, and shall sit as an Order to the Chief Constable or other Officers of the respective Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Divisions, requiring them to give Notices to the Constable, Tythingman, Headborough or other Officer of every Parish, Tything or Place, within their respective Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Divisions, of the Number of Men is appointed to serve for each Parish, Tything or Place, and of the Time and Place of the next Subdivision Meeting; and the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any Two or more of them, or any One Deputy Lieutenant, and One Justice of the Peace, assembled in pursuance of such Appointments, shall cause the Number of Men appointed to serve as aforesaid to be chosen by Ballot out of the Parties between the Ages of Eighteen and Thirty, returned in the Lists now existing, or which may hereafter be made and returned, or assessed or certified, for the raising of the Militia under any Acts relating to the Militia of England, and shall appoint another Meeting to be holden within Three Weeks in the same Subdivision, and shall sit as an Order to the Chief Constable or other Officers of the respective Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Divisions, to direct direct the Constable, Tythingman, Headborough, or other Officer of every Parish, Tything or Place, to give Notice to every Man to choose to serve in the Local Militia, to appear at such Meeting, which Notice shall be given or left at his Place of Abode at least Seven Days before such Meeting; and such Constable, Tythingman, Headborough or other Officer, shall attend such Meeting, and make such Return upon Oath of the Days when such Notice was served; and every Person to choose by Ballot full, up to such Notice, appear at such Meeting, and if, on Examination, found able and fit for the Service, and approved of in manner hereinafter directed, shall then and there take the following Oath; that is to say,

“ I, A. B. do solemnly promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to His Majesty King George; and that I will faithfully serve in the Local Militia of Great Britain, for the Defence of the same, during the Term of Four Years, for which I am enrolled, unless I shall be sooner discharged.”

And every such Person shall be then and there enrolled (in a Roll to be then and there prepared for that Purpose) to serve in the Local Militia of such County, Riding or Place, as a private Local Militia Man, for the Space of Four Years.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Man enrolled to serve in the Local Militia, shall, before such Enrolment, be examined upon Oath before the Deputy Lieutenants, as to his Religion, Age and Family, and the Oath is administered to him shall be in the Words, and according to the Form and Effect in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (D); and if any Person shall refuse to be so examined, such Person may, at the Discretion of any One or more Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace, be imprisoned for any time not exceeding One Week, and shall notwithstanding be liable to be enrolled to serve in the said Local Militia, if he shall appear to the Deputy Lieutenants or Justices to be a fit and proper Person to be so enrolled.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Person whatsoever shall induce, or take or agree to take any Money for the Inducement of, or by any means concerned in any Company, Society, Partnership, Club or Office for the Inducement of any Person or Persons, or for the securing or indemnifying each other against or for the paying any Money for or towards the discharging of any Fine or Penalty, for any Person or Persons who may be balloted to serve in the Local Militia, or shall pay or engage to pay any Fine or Sum of Money, to any Volunteer to serve in Discharge of any County, Division or Parish, beyond the Sum of Two Guineas to be paid to such Volunteer as hereinafter directed, every such Person as aforesaid shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That no Person balloted to serve in the Local Militia shall be allowed to lend or providently substitute to serve in his Stead; or any thing in the or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of any Parish, Tything or Place, shall, with the Consent of the Inhabitants taken at a Vestry, or at any other Meeting to be holden for that Purpose, for the raising of which Vestry or Meeting Three Days public Notice shall be given, specifying the Cause of calling such Vestry or Meeting, provide and produce to the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any Two or more of them, at any Subordinate Meeting for choosing the Local Militia Men by Ballot, any Volunteer or Volunteers, being of the free County, Riding or Place, or of some adjoining Parish or Place, who shall be examined and approved, as hereinafter mentioned, such Volunteer or Volunteers so examined and approved shall be then and there sworn in and enrolled to serve for such Term, and on the same Conditions as is herebefore provided in case of Persons chosen by Ballot; and the said Deputy Lieutenants shall cause only such Number of Persons to be chosen by Ballot out of the List returned for such Parish, Tything or Place, as shall be then wanted to make up the whole Number so fixed for such Parish, Tything or Place; and if any such Churchwardens or Overseers shall give to such Volunteer or Volunteers any Sum or Sum of Money not exceeding Two Guineas each, to serve in the Local Militia for such Parish, Tything or Place, it shall be lawful for such Churchwardens or Overseers to make a Rate upon the Inhabitants of such Parish, Tything or Place, according to the Rate then made for the Relief of the Poor, which Rate (being approved by any Justice of the Peace) it shall be lawful for such Churchwardens or Overseers to collect, and to reimburse themselves such Sum or Sums of Money as they shall have paid to such Volunteer or Volunteers as aforesaid, and the Overplus (if any) shall be applied as Part of the Poor's Rate; and if any Person shall refuse to pay such Rate, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, upon Complaint thereof made by any such Churchwarden or Overseer, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, returning the Overplus (if any) after the said Rate and the Charges of such Distress and Sale shall be paid; but no Person who shall be then serving in the Local Militia, nor any Person serving with perfectivity or by substitute in the Local Militia, shall be liable to pay any such Rate: Provided always, that if any Person shall think himself aggrieved by any such Rate as aforesaid, such Person may appeal to the next General or Quarter Sessions, in like manner as is provided in the case of Appeals against Rates for the Relief of the Poor.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which a Ballot shall be directed under this Act for the Local Militia, and any Persons between the Ages of Eighteen and Thirty five Years, of the Height of Five Feet Two Inches and upwards, and fit for Military Service, and not having over their Two Children under the Age of Fourteen Years, shall voluntarily enrol themselves under this Act, to serve according to the Provision of it in an Act, if the Persons so voluntarily enrolling do not wish full assent to the Number to be enrolled by Ballot under any Appointment in any such Parish, then no Ballot shall take place in such Parish; and if the Persons so voluntarily enrolling themselves do consent, shall not amount to the Number required to be enrolled by Ballot in any such Parish, then the Number of Persons so voluntarily enrolling themselves shall be deducted from the Number required to be enrolled by Ballot, and the Remainder only shall be balloted for in such Parish; and all Persons so voluntarily enrolling themselves shall take the Oath required by this Act to be taken by Persons balloted, and shall serve in the same manner and under the same Regulations, and be subject to the same Provisions, as if they had been balloted for under this Act: Provided always, that no Seaman or Seafaring Man shall be enrolled in the Local Militia as a Volunteer.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Peer of this Realm, nor any Person being a Commissioned Officer in the Regular Militia, or in His Majesty's other Forces, or in any one of His Majesty's Colleges or Forts, nor any Officer of the Half Pay of the Navy, Army, or Marines, nor any Non-Commissioned Officer or private Man serving in the Regular Militia, or in any of His Majesty's other Forces, nor any Person being an effective Member of any Corps of Yeomanry or Volunteers, and duly sworn as such, nor any Person being a Resident Member of either of the Universities, nor any Clergyman, nor any Teacher or Preacher in Holy Orders or pretended Holy Orders, or pretending to Holy Orders, (not carrying on any Trade or exercising any other Occupation for his Livelihood, except that of a Schoolmaster,) having taken the Oath and made and subscribed the Declaration required by Law from the Teachers or Preachers of Congregations of dissenting Protestants, and being non sibi the Teacher of any Congregation whose Place of Meeting shall have been duly registered at half Twelve Months previous to the General Meeting appointed to meet in Order for the Purposes of this Act; nor any Constable or other Peace Officer not being a special Constable; nor any Seaman or Seafaring Man, nor any Person employed, engaged or doing Duty, or employed in any of His Majesty's Dock or Dock Yards for the Service thereof, or employed or stationed in His Majesty's Service in the Tower of London, Whitehall Palace, the Royal Gun Works at Portsmouth, or at the several Powder Mills, Powder Magazines, or other Storehouses belonging to His Majesty, under the Direction of the Board of Ordnance, nor any Person being free of the Company of Watermen of the River Thames, nor any poor Man who has more than Two Children here in Wedlock, nor any Person receiving his Education as an ecclesiastical Foundation, shall be liable to serve in the Local Militia; and no Person having served personally in the Regular Militia, or additional Force, or provided any Substitute, or for whom any Substitute has been provided, or paid any Fine for not serving or finding a Substitute in the Regular Militia, or such additional Force as aforesaid, shall be liable to serve in the Local Militia until Four Years after the Expiration of his Period of Service, if he shall have served in Person, or Six Years after the Period at which such Substitute shall have been enrolled, or Four Years after having paid any such Fine; and that no Person having paid any Fine or upon whom Duties have been levied for any Year for not serving in the Local Militia, shall be liable to serve until the Expiration of Two Years from the Period of having paid such Fine or suffered such Duties. [See page 616.]

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That every Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, Drummer and Private Man enrolled and actually serving in the Local Militia at the Time of passing this Act, shall be entitled to and have Exemption from serving in the Regular Militia, and shall not be liable to be balloted to serve in the Regular Militia for Two Years from the Expiration of their present Period of Service in the said Local Militia: Provided always, that all Persons who may hereafter be enrolled to serve in the Local Militia, shall only be entitled to and have Exemption from service in the Regular Militia, and shall not be liable to be balloted to serve in the Regular Militia for One Year from the Expiration of their Period of service in the said Local Militia: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to claim any such Exemption under this Act, who shall not produce a Certificate signed by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment of Local Militia to which he shall belong, or in case of his Removal from the County in which he may have been originally enrolled, then by the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps at which he may have been subsequently serving, that he attended at the last Period of annual Training and Exercise, or that he was prevented by illness or bodily Infirmary, or excused to his Commanding Officer at the last Period of Annual Training and Exercise, or that he was absent by Permission of his Commanding Officer.

XL. And be it further enacted, That any Person enrolled and serving in the Local Militia who shall have claimed Exemption from Service in the Regular Militia, shall nevertheless be compellible to serve in the Regular Militia, in case he shall not afterwards attend the Periods appointed for the Training and Exercise of the Local Militia during the time for which he may be enrolled to serve in such Local Militia (such as is provided by any Statute incorporating (or for Service); and the Commission of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia to which he may belong, shall certify such Absence from Training and Exercise to the Clerk of the Subdivision for which he shall have been before balloted to serve in the Regular Militia, who shall make the same known to the Deputy Lieutenant appointed at their next Subdivision Meeting, and such Man shall then and there be enrolled to serve in the Regular Militia; or if he shall not then appear, he shall be liable to any Penalties imposed upon balloted Persons not appearing to be enrolled in the Regular Militia.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That no Member of any Friendly Society, serving or entering to serve under this Act, shall by such Service be excluded from such Society, or be subject to the Forfeiture of any Benefit to which he may be otherwise entitled under any Rules of such Society; or to any Fine or Penalty imposed by such Society for Non-attendance; any thing in any such Rules to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Corps of Local Militia shall be assembled for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, or for the Suppression of Riots, or for the Suppression of Rebellion or Insurrections, all Persons enrolled therein who shall join in such assembling, and shall have Families unable to support themselves, shall, during the Period of their being so assembled as aforesaid, be entitled to such and the same Relief to their Wives and Families, and under such and the like circumstances, and subject to the same Regulations Families.

Regulations and Provisions, as the Wives and Families of Men balloted to serve in the Regular Militia of Great Britain are entitled to, under an Act passed in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for establishing and amending the several Laws for providing Relief for the Families of Militia Men of England, who called out into actual Service; and for other Acts relating to the Relief of the Wives and Families of Men serving in the Regular Militia of Great Britain; and for that Purpose to alter the Rates, Regulations, and Provisions, Powers, Authorities, Penalties and Forfeitures in the said mentioned Acts respectively contained, shall extend and be construed to extend to the giving such Relief as aforesaid as fully and effectually as if the same were herein enacted. Provided always, that all Sums of Money which shall be advanced and paid to the Wives and Families of such Men, shall, upon delivery of a quarterly Account of the Payment thereof, certified and signed by Two Justices of the Peace of the County in which such Relief shall be given, be repaid to the Overseer or Overseers, or Parish Officer or Officers who shall have advanced the same, by the Receiver General of such County, out of any public Money in his Hands, and shall be allowed in the Account of the said Receiver General: Provided always, that whenever any Corps of Local Militia shall be authorized for Training and Exercise, all Persons enrolled therein, being Families unable to support themselves as aforesaid, shall be entitled to Relief for their Wives and Families, notwithstanding such Families may be resident in the Place where the Regiment may be stationed.

XLIII. And he is further enacted, That if through the Neglect or Misdoings of any Chief Constable, Constable, or other Officers, or from any other Cause, the said Member of Men appointed by any Subdivision should not be duly mustered at the Meeting appointed for that Purpose as before directed, then the Deputy Lieutenants at their said Meeting, or any Two or more of them, or any One Deputy Lieutenant, and One Justice of the Peace, may and they are hereby required immediately to create the Lists to be executed, and to proceed to a fresh Ballot, and so adjourn their Meeting, or appoint other Meetings, and repeat the amending of the Lists as may be necessary and expedient for carrying the Purposes of this Act duly and fully into Execution; and it shall be lawful for any One Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace to administer the Oath beforehand required to be taken by Persons to serve in the Local Militia, to any Person ballotted, or to any Person offering as a Volunteer under the Directions of this Act, such ballotted Man or Volunteer having been duly examined and approved as a hereinafter mentioned; and such Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace is hereby authorized to direct and require the Clerk of the Subdivision for which every such Person by whom the said Oath has been before him taken is to serve, to enrol the Name of every such Person so having been duly examined and approved as aforesaid, together with the Date of the Day on which the said Oath was so administered to him, in the Roll of such Subdivision.

XLIV. And he is further enacted, That if any Person ballotted to serve in the Local Militia under this Act, shall, after Notice given to him, or left at his usual or last Place of Abode, of his having been so ballotted, refuse or neglect to appear within such Period and at such Place as shall be appointed for that Purpose within the Subdivision for which he shall have been so ballotted, (which Times and Places shall be appointed by the Deputy Lieutenants in their respective Subdivisions under any Order of the Lieutenant of the County, and Notice thereof given by the Constables of the several Parishes, by putting up the same on Churches, Chapels, or other conspicuous Places), and be enrolled under this Act, and take the Oath to serve under this Act, such Person shall forfeit the Sum of Thirty Pounds; or if a Person not having or receiving any annual Sum of Money, Profits, Gains, Allowances, or other Income whatsoever, amounting in the whole to Two hundred Pounds, clear of all Outgoings, Taxes or Reprises, the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and if not amounting in the whole to One hundred Pounds, clear of all Outgoings, Taxes or Reprises, the Sum of Ten Pounds; and every such Fine shall be paid to the Clerk of the Subdivision Meetings, who shall on Receipt thereof give a Certificate, without Fee or Reward, of the same being paid, which Certificate shall be attested by some Justice of the Peace or Deputy Lieutenant, and shall, within Twenty one Days after the Receipt thereof, pay the same into the Bank of England to a separate Account of the Agent General for the Local Militia, for the Purposes of the Local Militia of Great Britain, being furnished with a Receipt for the same, and the Payment of such Fine shall exempt such Person from being ballotted and enrolled under this Act for Two Years and no longer; and every Person shall be liable to be ballotted and enrolled in the Year next but one after that in which he shall have been so ballotted as aforesaid, and in like manner to serve or pay such Fine as aforesaid, and so in each Second succeeding Year. [Amended, Page 216.]

XLV. And he is further enacted, That any Person ballotted for the Nonpayment of any Fine for not appearing to be enrolled, or for refusing to take the Oath, or for refusing or neglecting to attend an annual Period of Training and Exercise, shall be compellible to serve for the full Period of Four Years after the Expiration of such Imprisonment.

XLVI. And he is further enacted, That every Person claiming to be exempted from Service under this Act, upon Payment of the Sum of Twenty Pounds, or Ten Pounds, instead of Thirty Pounds, shall give a Declaration that the Amount of his Income does not exceed Two hundred Pounds or One hundred Pounds as aforesaid, as the Case may be, and shall deliver the same to the Deputy Lieutenants before whom he shall appear to claim such Exemption, or produce a Certificate to the like Effect, allowed by any Commissioners under any Act relating to the Rates and Duties acting on Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, or to any Allowances made on any such Rates and Duties, within Twelve Months previous to the Production of such Certificate; and every Person who shall make any false Declaration in relation to any such Claim, shall forfeit and pay for each Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds in Addition to such Fine.

XLVII. Provided also, and he is further enacted, That every Person claiming to be exempted from Service under this Act upon Payment of Five as aforesaid, and every Person who shall be liable to the Payment of any Fine under this Act, for not appearing to be enrolled in the Local Militia, shall be summoned and XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants of any County in any case in which it shall appear to them to be necessary or proper, by writs of any Quotas of Local Militia of any Divisions of any County, or of any Parishes of any Division, being found by any Returns now made or which may hereafter be made, not to be in Proportion to the relative Numbers of Men liable to serve in the Local Militia in such respective Divisions or Parishes, or by writs of any Abatement which may have taken place in the Number of the effective Yeomanry and Volunteers serving for such Division or Parish, to make any new Appointments, and ascertain and settle any Quotas of Local Militia, as to any Division of any County, or as to any Parishes in any Divisions, by any new Appointments as to such Divisions, or as to the Parishes in any Divisions, according to the relative Numbers of Men liable to serve in the Local Militia; Provided always, that all Quotas of Local Militia which shall have been settled and ascertained for any Division, or for any Parishes of any Division, shall remain and be deemed to be the proper Quotas of such Divisions and Parishes respectively, unless and until the Deputy Lieutenants shall deem it necessary to alter and shall have altered the same, and settled any new Quotas under this Act.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That, if the List of any Parish, Tything or Place shall be lost or destroyed, it shall be lawful for the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any Two or more of them, to cause a new List in such Parish, Tything or Place to be made and returned to them, at their next Subdivision Meeting, in the same manner as the List lost or destroyed was made, and ought to have been returned to them by Direction of the General Meeting.

L. And be it further enacted, That if any Person being one of the People called Quakers, or of the People called United Presbyterians or United Brethren, who shall be indicted under this Act, shall produce before the Deputy Lieutenants of any Subdivision Meeting, or any Two Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace, a Certificate under the Hands of Two or more respectable Householders, being of the People called Quakers, or of the People called United Presbyterians or United Brethren, resident within the County or Place of Residence of such Person, and dated within Three Months immediately preceding the Day on which such Certificate shall be produced as aforesaid, acknowledging such Person to be one of their Persuasions, such Person shall not be certified; and it shall be lawful for any such Deputy Lieutenants or Justices to adjudge any such Person to pay such Proportion of such Taxes as are by this Act imposed on Persons bachelors and not appearing, as to such Deputy Lieutenants or Justices may appear to be proper, according to the Situation in Life and Property of such Person; and the Amount of Fine to be adjudged by such Deputy Lieutenants or Justices, may be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Person, if Warrant under their Hands and Seals (the Overplus, if any, after deducting of reasonable Charges, being rendered to the Party); and if no Goods or Chattels can be found whereby the Sum so imposed upon such Quaker or United Brother can be levied, and the Deputy Lieutenants or Justices shall nevertheless upon Inquiry be satisfied that such Quaker or United Brother is of sufficient Ability to pay such Fine of Ten Pounds, then it shall be lawful for any Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace, if he shall think fit, to commit such Quaker or United Brother to Prison, three to six Months for any Time not exceeding One Month, unless such Sum shall be sooner paid and satisfied: Provided always, that no Quaker or United Brother so committed as aforesaid shall be confined among Felons.

LI. And be it further enacted, That every Person liable to serve in the Local Militia, having more than One Place of Residence, shall serve for the County, Riding or Place, where his Name shall have been first inserted in such List as aforesaid; and the Clerk to the Subdivision Meeting to which such List shall be returned shall, if such Person requests the same, grant a Certificate given under his Hand, that such Person's Name was referred to such List, and specifying the time when such List was made and returned.

LII. And be it further enacted, That where any Parish shall be so Two or more Counties or Ridings, the Inhabitants of such Parish shall serve in the Local Militia of the County or Riding whereas the Church belonging to such Parish is situated; and that such Parish shall, for all the Purposes of this Act, be deemed Part of such County or Riding.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Rate shall have been made for the providing of Volunteers according to the Directions of this Act, and the Churchwardens and Overseers shall make Complaint to a Justice of the Peace, that any Quaker or Quakers has refused to pay the Same or Sums of Money he or they shall be rated at, such Justice shall order such Costs and Charges to be paid for keeping such District as he shall think reasonable, not exceeding Two Shillings on each of the said Quakers where there are not more than Two, and where there are a greater Number than Two, not exceeding Five Shillings on each of the said Quakers: Provided always, that no Man shall be deemed, taken or accepted to be a Quaker within the meaning of this Act, unless he shall produce, before the Deputy Lieutenants at one of their Subdivision Meetings, a Certificate under the Hands of Two or more reputable Heads of the People called Quakers, resident within the said County, Riding or Place, and dated within the Three Months immediately preceding the Day on which it shall be produced as aforesaid, acknowledging such Man to be One of their Partisans.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That no Man shall be approved or enrolled as one of the Local Militia under this Act, either as a balloted Man or Volunteer, until he shall have been carefully examined by some Surgeon of competent Skill, and shall have been declared and reported by such Surgeon to be neither maimed, lame, maimed nor afflicted with any Disorder that may render him unfit to serve, but to be in every respect able and fit for Service; and the Deputy Lieutenants assembled at their Subdivision Meetings, or any Two Deputy Lieutenants, or any One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace, shall in all cases before they proceed to enroll any Man for the Local Militia, cause such Examination to be carefully made; and it shall be lawful for the said Deputy Lieutenants, or the said Deputy Lieutenant and Justice of the Peace, and they are hereby empowered and directed to require the Attendance of any Surgeon of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of the Local Militia of the County, Riding or Place for which any Man is to be enrolled, if any such Surgeon is within a reasonable Distance, and can conveniently be had, or otherwise to require the Attendance of any other competent Surgeon for that Purpose; and a reasonable Allowance, not exceeding One Guinea shall be made to the Surgeon performing such Examination, for every Day he shall actually attend for that Purpose, and shall be paid to him in like Manner as other Allowances are directed to be made and paid to Subdivision Clerks under this Act.

LV. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall appear to any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants, or any One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace assembled at any Subdivision Meeting, that any Person chosen by Ballot to serve in the Local Militia is unable to serve from any permanent Infirmity, Debility or bodily Infirmary, or is not of the full Height of Five Feet two Inches, or is not approved upon Examination, by a Surgeon according to the Direction of this Act, such Deputy Lieutenants or such Deputy Lieutenant and Justice of the Peace shall and are hereby empowered and required to discharge such Person, and immediately to amend the List for the Place for which such Person shall have been balloted, and to cause another Person to be chosen in his Stead, by Ballot, according to the Direction of this Act.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That the Deputy Lieutenants at their several Subdivisions shall, so soon as they shall have enrolled the Number of Men required in their Subdivisions, divide the Men so enrolled into as many Classes of the Descriptions hereinafter mentioned, as shall be found among such Men; that is to say, in the First Class they shall put all the Men having no Child or Children living; and in the Second Class, all the Men not having any Child or Children living under the Age of Fourteen Years; and in the Third Class, all the Men having any Child or Children, One of whom only shall be under the Age of Fourteen Years; and in the last Class, all the Men not included in any of the former Descriptions; and shall forthwith make out a List of such Classes, according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (C), and within Three Days after the completing thereof, the Clerk of each Subdivision Meeting shall transmit to the Clerk to the General Meetings as a true and correct Copy of such List, made out in such Form as aforesaid, to be by him entered in a Book or to be kept for that Purpose.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Local Militia Man, after having been sworn and enrolled, shall become unfit for Service, it shall be lawful for the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Local Militia Man shall belong, together with any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants, or One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace of the County, Riding or Place to which such Regiment, Battalion or Corps belongs, or for the Colonel or other Commandant only, if the Regiment, Battalion or Corps shall be absent therefore, to discharge such Local Militia Man from his Regiment, Battalion or Corps; but another Man shall not be balloted for in the Room of such Local Militia Man so discharged, until such Discharge shall be confirmed under the Hands of Two or more Deputy Lieutenants or One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace of the County, Riding or Place to which such Regiment, Battalion or Corps belongs, assembled at any Meeting in the Subdivision for which such Local Militia Man was enrolled, or at any General Meeting for the County, Riding or Place as aforesaid.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That when any private Militia Man shall, before the Expire of the Term for which he was to serve, die, or be appointed a Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer in the Local Militia, or enter or enlist into His Majesty's Regular Forces, Navy or Marines, or as a Substantive or Volunteer in the Regular Militia, or be discharged in manner aforesaid, so as not to be for Service, or disabled in performance of the Duties of a Court Martial, the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such private Man shall belong, shall certify the Vacancy occasioned by such Death, Appointment, Entering, Enlisting, Discharge or Disabling, (as the case may be) to the Clerk to the General Meetings, who shall forthwith transmit the said Certificate to the Deputy Lieutenants of the Subdivision for which such private Man shall have been enrolled, and such Deputy Lieutenants shall immediately upon the Receipt of such Certificate, cause such Vacancy to be filled up by a fresh Ballot for a Local Militia Man to serve according to the Provision of this Act; except in such cases as are in this Act excepted.

LIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants at any General Meeting, and they are hereby required to ascertain and fix by Ballot the Order of Ballot for enrolling Volunteers. It is directed that Quakers.

No Man enrolled shall be examined and approved by Surgeon.

in which the respective Subdivisions, Hundreds and Parishes in their respective Counties shall stand as to the supplying any deficiencies or vacancies that may exist or arise therein by reason of the Appointment of any Persons serving in the Local Militia of any such County to be Sergeants or Corporals, and shall immediately after the same shall be so ascertained and fixed, cause such Subdivisions, Hundreds and Parishes respectively to be entered in such Order, in a List to be prepared for that Purpose; and such Vacancies shall be supplied by such Subdivisions, Hundreds and Parishes, in the Order in which they shall have been entered in such List as aforesaid, and not by the Parishes for which the Men in presented shall have served.

LX. And be it further enacted, That whenever any private Local Militia Man shall be appointed a Non-Commissioned Officer or Drummer in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, in the Room of any Non-Commissioned Officer or Drummer reduced to the Rank, or alike shall take place in the Rank or Place for which such private Man is appointed was then serving, in consequence of any Vacancy occasioned by such Appointment, so long as the Non-Commissioned Officer or Drummer so reduced shall continue to serve in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That any Two or more of the Deputy Lieutenants, or any One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace, at their several Subdivision Meetings, shall and they are hereby required to ballot for Local Militia Men, in the Room of all Local Militia Men actually serving, whose Terms of Service will expire before the Twentieth Day of November next ensuing the holding of such Subdivision Meetings, and shall at a following Meeting to be holden as soon as conveniently may be, proceed to enroll the said balloted Men as aforesaid; and the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps, is hereby empowered, from time to time, to discharge any Man of his Regiment, Battalion or Corps, whose Term of Service will expire before the Twentieth Day of November next ensuing, and to receive any other Local Militia Man in his Room, who shall have taken the Oath, and been enrolled according to the Direction of the Act; and every such Man so discharged shall be entitled to the same Liberty from further Service as if he had served his full Term.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Servant whatever, hired by the Year or otherwise, shall be enrolled as a Local Militia Man by virtue of this Act, such Enrolment shall not vacate or repeal the Contract or alter the Engagement between such Servant and his Master or Mistress, or Employer or Employers, unless the Local Militia of the County, Riding or Place for which such Servant shall be enrolled, shall be embodied or called out by His Majesty, or ordered to be so in pursuance of this Act, or unless such Person be enrolled shall leave the Service of his Master, Mistress, or Employer or Employers, for the Purpose of being trained and exercised in pursuance of this Act, and shall not return again to the same Service at the End of such Term of Training and Exercise, or as soon after as reasonably may be, allowing to his Master, Mistress or Employer or Employers, an Abatement from his Wages in Proportion to the Duration of his Absence from his said Service, to be settled by a Justice of the Peace in the manner hereinafter mentioned; and in every such case, where any Dispute shall arise between such Servant and his Master or Mistress, or Employer or Employers, touching any Sum or Sum of Money due to such Servant for or on Account of his Service performed before the time of his Departure from Service, under the Condition of the said Enrolment, or by being being called out to join the Local Militia in which he shall have been enrolled, or touching any Abatement to be made by such Servant by reason of his Absence, for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, it shall and may be lawful, on Complaint made thereof to any Justice of the Peace for the County, Riding, City, Liberty, Town Corporate or Place, where such Master or Mistress, or Employer or Employers shall inhabit, for such Justice to hear and determine every such Complaint, and to examine upon Oath every such Servant, or any other Witnesses or Witnesses, touching the same, and to make such Order for the Payment of so much Wages to such Servant in Proportion to the Service he has performed, or such Abatement from his Wages in Proportion to the Duration of his Absence from his Service, in cases where the Party shall demand, as the case may require, and as to such Justice shall seem just and reasonable, provided the Sum in question do not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and in case of Refusal or Non-payment of any Sum so ordered to be paid by the Space of Seven Days next after such Determination, such Justice may and shall issue forth his Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Master or Mistress, or Employer or Employers, rendering the Overplus to the Owner or Owners, after Payment of the Charges of such Distress and Sale.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor shall have engaged any Person to serve as a Volunteer as aforesaid, and such Churchwardens or Overseers shall have agreed to pay to the Person so engaged, a certain Sum for such Service, it shall be lawful for Two Deputy Lieutenants, or any One Justice of the Peace, and they are and it is hereby required, after such Volunteer has been examined by a Sergeant, and approved according to the Direction of this Act, and enrolled by the Deputy Lieutenants in pursuance thereof, to order such Sum of Money so shall appear to them or her to be due to the Volunteer so engaged, to be immediately paid to him on such Enrolment, in the Presence of such Deputy Lieutenants.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person balloted or enrolled to serve, or serving in the Local Militia under this Act, to enlist or enter into His Majesty's Army, Navy or Marines, or as a Substitute or Volunteer in the Regular Militia of the same or some adjoining County, at any time, except during such Part of the Period of being able to be for the Purpose of annual Training and Exercise under this Act, as His Majesty shall by any Order made in that behalf prescribe; and the Enlisting or Entry of every such Man shall be immediately certified by the Officer with whom such Man shall have enlisted or entered, to the Officer commanding the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, from which such Man shall have enlisted or entered; and all Vacancies arising by any such enlisting or enter-leg as aforesaid, shall be supplied like common as any other Vacancies in the said Local Militia: Provided always, that no Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer of any Regiment of Local Militia, as permanent Pay as such, shall be entitled to his Discharge, or be allowed to enlist into the Army, Navy or Marine, or Regular Militia, or to engage himself as a Substantive or Volunteer in the Regular Militia at any time, whether the Regiment to which such Non Commissioned Officer or Drummer shall belong, shall be substituted for the Purpose of annual Training and Exercise or not, unless with the Consent in Writing of the Commanding Officer of his Regiment given for that Purpose.

LXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to authorize any Appointee hereafter under this Act to enlist in the Army, Navy, Marine, or to enter as a Substantive or Volunteer in the Regular Militia, or to enter as a Volunteer in the Local Militia, or being a Member of a Volunteer Corps, to transfer himself to the Local Militia without the Consent of his Major; provided also, that no Barron, Enrolment and Service under this Act, shall extend to make void or in any manner to effect any Indenture of Apprenticeship or Contract of Service between any Master or Servant, notwithstanding any Covenant or Agreement in any such Indenture or Contract; and no Servant under this Act of any Apprentice or Servant shall be deemed or construed to be an Absence from Service, or a Breach of any Covenant or Agreement as to any Service or Absence from Service, in any Indenture of Apprenticeship or Contract of Service; any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or Law or Laws, or Deed or Indenture of Apprenticeship, or Contract of Service to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Vacancies arising in the Local Militia by such enlisting as aforesaid, or by Discharge, Absence, Desertion, Death or Expulsion of Service, shall be filled up according to the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that it shall be lawful at any time before the Local Militia of any County shall be completed to the full Amount specified in this Act as the Quota of such County, and also at any time thereafter when any Vacancies shall arise in such Local Militia, for any Person between the Ages of Eighteen and Thirty five, of the Height of Five Feet Two Inches, and not having more than Two Children under Fourteen Years of Age, who shall be approved of in the manner herebefore directed, (as well Members of Volunteer Corps as others) voluntarily to enrol themselves in the Local Militia of such County, according to the Provisions of this Act, until the full Number of Men required by virtue of this Act in such County shall be completed.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in the Execution of this Act, when any Matter or Thing is directed to be required or examined into, upon the Oath of any Witness or Witnesses, before any Lieutenant of any County, or any Deputy Lieutenant or Lieutenants, or Justice or Justices of the Peace, any such Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenant or Lieutenants, or Justice or Justices of the Peace, is or are hereby authorized to administer such Oath to any Witness or Witnesses; and that all other Oaths so be taken in pursuance of this Act, shall and may be respectively administered by any Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenant.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Local Militia of the several Counties, Ridings and Places aforesaid, shall be formed into Companies, which shall not consist of more than One hundred and twenty, nor of less than Sixty private Men, and that to each of such Companies there shall be One Captain, and One Lieutenant and One Ensign; and that where the Number of Men raised for any County, Riding or Place, is sufficient, the Local Militia thereof shall be formed into One or more Regiments, consisting of not more than Twelve or of less than Eight such Companies; and when the Number of Men raised in any County, Riding or Place, is not sufficient to form a Regiment, the Local Militia thereof shall be formed into a Battalion, consisting of not more than Seven or of less than Four such Companies; and when the Number of Men raised in any County, Riding or Place is not sufficient to form a Battalion of Four such Companies, the Local Militia thereof shall be formed into a Corps, consisting of not less than Three such Companies; and that the Field Officers of such Regiments, Battalions and Corps respectively, shall in no case exceed the respective Numbers and Ranks following; that is to say, in every Regiment consisting of not less than Eight hundred private Men, One Lieutenant Colonel Commandant, One Lieutenant Colonel and Two Majors; in every Regiment or Battalion consisting of not less than Four hundred and eighty private Men, One Lieutenant Colonel Commandant, One Lieutenant Colonel and One Major; and in every Battalion consisting of less than Four hundred and eighty private Men, One Lieutenant Colonel and One Major; and in every Corps consisting of Three Companies, One Lieutenant Colonel or Major, and no other Field Officer: Provided always, that no Colonel or Field Officer in the Local Militia shall be a Captain of a Company: Provided also, that every Battalion consisting of Five Companies or upwards, may have One Company of Grenadiers or Light Infantry, to which Two Lieutenants shall be appointed instead of One Lieutenant and One Ensign; and that every Regiment may have One Company of Grenadiers and One Company of Light Infantry, in each of which Companies Two Lieutenants shall be appointed instead of One Lieutenant and One Ensign: Provided also, that in every Company consisting of Ninety private Men or upwards, there may be Two Lieutenants and One Ensign, or Three Lieutenants, as the case may be.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order signed by His Majesty's Secretary of State, to direct any Number of Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Corporals, actually serving in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, at the time of passing this Act, to be retained during the Continuance of the present War, or for so long a time during the Continuance thereof as His Majesty shall think fit, as Officers, Non Commissioned Officers, or Corporals respectively of such Regiments, Battalions or Corps, although by reason thereof the Number of Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Corporals respectively of any such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall exceed the Proportion of Officers Non Commissioned Officers and Corporals respectively prescribed for any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of

And be it further enacted, That when any Colonel or other Commandant of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, shall be absent from Great Britain, and until he shall return to Great Britain, and shall have notified his Arrival to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Riding or Place to which such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall belong, and to the Commanding Officer and Adjutant thereof, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Warrant under His Sign Manual, to direct and order that the Officer next in Command, who shall be residing in Great Britain, shall in all cases act and serve as the Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps; and all Powers and Authorities which might have been exercised by such Colonel or other Commandant, so absent as aforesaid, while resident in Great Britain, shall be vested in and exercised by the Officer next in Command as such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, who shall be resident in Great Britain, and from and after issuing the said Warrant as aforesaid, all Matters and Things which ought to be transacted and done by any other Person or Persons with such Colonel or other Commandant while resident in Great Britain, shall be transacted and done during the time aforesaid, with such Officer so next in Command as aforesaid, who shall be residing in Great Britain; and all Money directed to be issued or paid to or to the Order of such Colonel or other Commandant for the Use of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall be issued and paid to or to the Order of such Officer next in Command as aforesaid; and all Acts, Matters and Things, done by and with such Officer so next in Command as aforesaid, during the

the same aforesaid, which are or shall be authorized or required to be done by or with such Colonel or other Commandant where in Great Britain, shall be as good and valid as if done by or with such Colonel or other Commandant; and during the Absence from Great Britain of the Colonel or other Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, and until he shall return to Great Britain, and until he is Arrived as aforesaid, the Officer next in Command in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, who shall be residing in Great Britain, shall appoint the Quarter Master to such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, in the same manner as such Colonel or other Commandant might have done: Provided always, that such Officer so next in Command as aforesaid, who shall assume the Powers is given to him as aforesaid, in consequence of the Absence from Great Britain of his Colonel or other Commandant, shall, within Seven Days after he shall assume say such Powers, notify the Absence from Great Britain of such Colonel or other Commandant to the Lieutenant of the County, Riding or Place, and also to the Secretary at War: Provided also, that if any such Colonel or other Commandant as aforesaid, shall have given any Orders for Clothing or other Necessaries, or for Accoutrements, which ought to be provided for the Use of his Regiment, Battalion or Corps, in due Course, or in pursuance of any Order by proper Authority, and if before such Orders shall be completed, or after the same shall be completed, and before the Money shall be issued for the same, such Colonel or other Commandant shall have Great Britain, the Orders so given by such Colonel or other Commandant shall nevertheless be completed, and the Money to be issued in respect thereof shall be paid to the Order of such Colonel or other Commandant, notwithstanding his Absence from Great Britain as aforesaid; and in like manner if any Officer so next in Command as aforesaid, shall, in consequence of the Absence from Great Britain of his Colonel or other Commandant, and under the Authority given to him as aforesaid, give any Orders for Clothing or other Necessaries, or for Accoutrements, which ought to be provided for the Use of his Regiment, Battalion or Corps, in due Course, or in pursuance of any Order by proper Authority, and before such Orders shall be completed, or after the same shall be completed, and before the Money which ought to be issued shall be issued for the same, the Colonel or other Commandant shall return to Great Britain, and notify his Arrival as aforesaid, the Orders so given by such Officer so next in Command as aforesaid shall be completed, and the Money to be issued in respect thereof shall be paid to the Order of such Officer, notwithstanding the Return of such Colonel or other Commandant as aforesaid.

LXXVII. And he is further enacted, That His Majesty may and shall appoint One proper Person, who shall have served in force of His Majesty's other Forces, or in the Militia while embodied, for the Term of Five Years at the least, to be an Adjutant to such Regiment, Battalion and Corps of Local Militia; and such Adjutant, if appointed out of His Majesty's other Forces, shall, during his Service in the Local Militia, perform his Rank in the Army in the best Manner as if he had continued in that Service; and it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of any County, Riding or Place, on the Recommendation of the Colonel or other Commandant of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, raised within such County, Riding or Place, to appoint the Adjutant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to serve with the Rank of Captain, provided such Adjutant shall have served Five Years as a Commissioned Officer in the Regular or Local Militia while embodied, or in His Majesty's other Forces, or in the Volunteers, although such Adjutant may not have the Qualifications required by the Act in this behalf expressed: Provided always, that no such Appointment to the Rank of Captain shall be valid, unless in the Instrument granting the same it be specified in what Regiment, Battalion or Corps of the Militia, while embodied, or of His Majesty's other Forces, such Adjutant hath served, and what was or were the Date or Dates of his Commission or Commissions: Provided also, that no Adjutant so appointed to serve with the Rank of Captain, shall, by virtue of the Date of such Appointment as aforesaid, or otherwise, be entitled to rank above, or to command any Captain of a Company in the Local Militia: Provided also, that no such Adjutant shall, by reason of any such Appointment as aforesaid, be entitled to receive any greater or other Pay or Allowance than those of Adjutants.

LXXVIII. And he is further enacted, That, in every Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, consisting of not less than Two Companies, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of such County, Riding or Place, with the Approbation of His Majesty, to appoint One fit and proper Person, who shall have passed an Examination at Sergeant Hall, or at the College of Surgeons in Edinburgh, and received his Certificate accordingly, to be Sergeant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps; and every such Appointment shall receive the Certificate of the Person so appointed, and an attested Copy thereof shall be transmitted to and filed with the Clerk of the General Meetings; and every such Sergeant shall, while the Local Militia to which he shall belong are disembodied, receive Fifteen Shillings per Day for every Day of his Attendance during any Exercise of such Local Militia under this Act, and One Guinea for every Day that he shall attend the Exercises at the Subdivision Meetings; such last mentioned Allowances being certified by any Deputy Lieutenant or Lieutenants of such Subdivision Meeting to the Receiver General of the County, Riding or Place, to which such Local Militia shall belong; and every such Sergeant is appointed as aforesaid shall, during the time of the Local Militia to which he shall belong being embodied, receive the Pay and Allowance of a Sergeant of Infantry in His Majesty's other Forces, and be subject to the like Rules, Restrictions and Directions, in every respect, as far as the same may be applicable; and it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of the County, Riding or Place, to which such Regiment or Battalion shall belong, on the Recommendation of the Colonel or other Commandant thereof, to give to such Sergeant a Commission as Lieutenant or Ensign in such Regiment or Battalion; but no such Sergeant shall be capable of receiving any Pay in respect of any such Commission in such Local Militia, during the time of his being such Sergeant as aforesaid.

LXXIX. And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Colonel or other Commandant of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, with the Approbation of His Majesty, to appoint One fit and proper Person to be the Quarter Master of any such Regiment, Battalion or Corps respectively; and it shall Officer next in Command shall return to Great Britain, and notify his Arrival as aforesaid, the Orders so given by such Officer so next in Command as aforesaid shall be completed, and the Money to be issued in respect thereof shall be paid to the Order of such Officer, notwithstanding the Return of such Colonel or other Commandant as aforesaid.

In what case he may, in receive Pay and Allowance of his County, and hold Commissions in Subdivisions.

Quarter Master appointed, &c.

shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of the County, Riding or Place, for which such Regiment, Battalion or Corps shall belong, on the Recommendation of the Colonel thereof, to appoint such Quarter Master to serve with the Rank of Lieutenant or Ensign, ~~although such Quarter Master may not have the Qualification required by this Act for Lieutenants or Ensigns respectively.~~ Provided always, that such Quarter Master shall not be capable of holding any Commission or receiving any Pay in respect of any Commission in any Company in the Local Militia, during the time of his being such Quarter Master as aforesaid.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That no Adjutant, Surgeon or Quarter Master in the Local Militia, shall be capable of being appointed Captain of a Company, nor shall any Person holding the Commission of Captain of a Company be capable of being appointed Adjutant, Surgeon or Quarter Master of Local Militia.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That no Officer who is entitled to Half Pay shall be deemed or taken to forfeit or quit such Half Pay, during the time he shall serve as Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, Major, Captain, Lieutenant, Ensign, Adjutant, Quarter Master or Surgeon in the Local Militia, but that the same shall nevertheless continue; and in case of the Oath usually required of Half Pay Officers to entitle them to the Receipt of their Half Pay, every such Officer so entitled to Half Pay, and serving as aforesaid, shall take the following Oath:

‘ I, A. B. do swear, That I had not, between the _____ and the _____ any Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under His Majesty, besides my Allowance of Half Pay as a Colonel _____ in _____ Regiment of _____ line and except my Pay as [Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, Major, Captain, Lieutenant, Ensign, Adjutant, or Quarter Master or Surgeon, as the case may be], for serving in the Local Militia.’

And the taking of the said Oath shall, without taking any other Oath, be sufficient to entitle such Person to receive his Half Pay.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, shall be appointed to the Local Militia, in the following Proportions; that is to say, there shall be One Sergeant and One Corporal to every Twenty private Men; and there shall be Two Drummers to every Company, with an Addition of One Drummer for each Flank Company of Regiments or Battalions consisting of Five or more Companies as aforesaid; and all Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, not being retained on permanent Pay at Head Quarters in the manner hereinafter directed, shall take the Oath heretofore directed to be taken by Persons chosen by Ballot to serve in the Local Militia; and that all Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, who may have contracted or been engaged to receive on permanent Pay at Head Quarters as hereinafter directed, shall take the following Oath; that is to say,

‘ I, A. B. do solemnly promise and swear, That I will be true and faithful and bear true Allegiance to His Majesty King George, and that I will faithfully serve in the Local Militia within Great Britain, for the Defence of the same, until I shall be legally discharged.’

And all such Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers receiving permanent Pay as such from any Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall be deemed to be engaged, and shall be compellable to serve in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, until they shall be legally discharged, and when not in actual Service shall be new clothed once in Two Years: And the Colonel or other Commandant of every Regiment, Battalion or Corps, consisting of Two or more Companies, may appoint a Sergeant Major, and the Colonel or other Commandant of every Regiment, Battalion or Corps, consisting of Three or more Companies, may appoint a Drums Major: Provided always, that no Person who shall keep any House of public Entertainment, or who shall sell any Ale or Wine, or any Brandy or other Spirituous Liquors by Retail, shall be capable of being appointed, or of serving or receiving permanent Pay as an Adjutant, Quarter Master, Sergeant Major, Sergeant, Corporal, Drums Major or Drummer in the Local Militia.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That any Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, whether upon permanent Pay or otherwise, may be discharged by the Colonel or other Commandant, and the said Colonel or other Commandant may appoint any proper Person in the Room of every Sergeant, Corporal and Drummer, who shall die, desert, be dismissed or discharged, all which Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, so appointed, shall take the like Oath as a heretofore required to be taken by Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers respectively.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That in case His Majesty's Lieutenant for any County, Riding or Place, or the Colonel or other Commandant of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, shall be desirous of keeping up a greater Number of Drummers than is herein directed to be employed as Fifers or Musicians for the use of any such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, and shall be willing to defray the Expence of such additional Drummers, it shall and may be lawful for such Lieutenant or Colonel, or other Commandant, so near to their respective Regiments, Battalions or Corps, as any Number of the Drummers employed or to be employed as Fifers or Musicians therein, over and above the Number established by this Act, or at any time hereafter to engage any additional Number of Drummers to act as Fifers or Musicians in their respective Regiments, Battalions or Corps; and all such Drummers so retained or in future engaged to serve in any such Corps as Fifers or Musicians, shall be deemed Drummers of Local Militia within the Meaning of this Act, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and shall be subject to the same Orders, Regulations, Penalties and Punishments, as other Drummers of Local Militia are by this Act subject, and shall continue to serve as Drummers so long as they shall receive the same Pay and Clothing as other Drummers have, or better Clothing in lieu thereof.

LXXXV. And

No Adjutant, the appointed Captain of Company, or any other Officer of Company or Regiment, shall be capable of holding any Commission or receiving any Pay in respect of any Commission in any Company in the Local Militia, during the time of his being such Quarter Master as aforesaid.

Adjutant, the appointed Captain of Company, or any other Officer of Company or Regiment, shall be deemed to be engaged, and shall be compellable to serve in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, until they shall be legally discharged, and when not in actual Service shall be new clothed once in Two Years.

Drummers may be appointed to the Local Militia, in the following Proportions; that is to say, there shall be One Drummer to every Twenty private Men; and there shall be Two Drummers to every Company, with an Addition of One Drummer for each Flank Company of Regiments or Battalions consisting of Five or more Companies as aforesaid.

Sergeant Major and Drums Major may be appointed to the Local Militia, and the Colonel or other Commandant of every Regiment, Battalion or Corps, consisting of Two or more Companies, may appoint a Sergeant Major, and the Colonel or other Commandant of every Regiment, Battalion or Corps, consisting of Three or more Companies, may appoint a Drums Major.

Commandant may appoint any proper Person in the Room of every Sergeant, Corporal and Drummer, who shall die, desert, be dismissed or discharged, all which Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, so appointed, shall take the like Oath as a heretofore required to be taken by Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers respectively.

Drummers may be employed as Fifers or Musicians for the use of any such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, and shall be subject to the same Orders, Regulations, Penalties and Punishments, as other Drummers of Local Militia are by this Act subject, and shall continue to serve as Drummers so long as they shall receive the same Pay and Clothing as other Drummers have, or better Clothing in lieu thereof.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That the said Local Militia when drawn out and embodied shall be entitled to the same Pay and Allowances, for themselves and Families, according to their respective Ranks, as His Majesty's other Militia Forces when drawn out and embodied.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Person entitled to serve in the Local Militia under this Act shall, upon being assembled for Training and Exercise under this Act, be entitled to a Sum not exceeding Ten Shillings and Six pence for the First Year of his Service, and Five Shillings and Three pence for each succeeding Year of Service, to be paid to the Captain commanding the Company to which such Man shall belong, for the Purpose of providing and keeping up such Necessaries for each Person as may be specified in any Order from His Majesty's Secretary of State to that Effect; and all such Sums of Money shall, at the Conclusion of each Period of Exercise or Service as aforesaid, be accounted for, by the Captain commanding such Company, to the Quarter Master of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to which such Captain shall belong; and the Refidue, if any, paid to such Quarter Master, who shall account for the same, to the Secretary at War: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive any Allowance for Necessaries, who shall not have been present during the whole of the Period of Annual Exercise.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to put the Local Militia enrolled under this Act, when assembled for Training or Exercise in time of War, or when embodied as Instructor mentioned in like manner as the Regular Militia when embodied, under the Command of such General Officer of His Majesty's Forces, as His Majesty shall please so appoint; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to order and direct that the Local Militia to be enrolled under this Act, shall be called out with their respective Companies in each Year, at such times, in such manner, and in such Proportions, and under such Regulations as His Majesty shall direct in that behalf for the Purpose of being trained and exercised. Regard being had to the local Circumstances of each County, and to the Season and importance to the Cause of Industry and Cultivation within the same; and the Periods and Places for such Exercise shall be appointed by the Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants of the several Counties, with the Approbation of His Majesty: Provided always, that no Local Militia Man under this Act shall be trained or exercised any greater Number of Days in the whole in each Year than Twenty eight entire Days, exclusive of Days of arming and Departure from and marching to and from the Place appointed for Exercise (for which entire Days the Pay and Subsistence allowed to His Majesty's Forces on March shall be allowed); and no such Local Militia shall be ordered to march for his Training and Exercise out of the County within which any such Local Militia shall have been enrolled, unless as hereafter directed.

LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order notified by His Secretary of State, upon the Application of the Lieutenant of any County in which the principal Town or Towns of such County shall set off a different Accommodation for the Quartering of the Local Militia of the County, during the Training and Exercising of such Local Militia, or in any case in which it may be more convenient with respect to the Residence of the Persons enrolled in such Local Militia, and to the Distance which such Persons may have to march for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, to authorize and allow, and to order the Local Militia of such County, or any Regiment or Regiment thereof, or any Detachment or Company of any such Regiment, to be marched into any adjoining County for the Purpose of training and exercising; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XC. And be it further enacted, That when the Local Militia of any County shall have been so called out for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, it shall be lawful for His Majesty by any Order of His Privy Council Secretary of State at any time that He may think fit, to order and direct any Part or Proportions of such Local Militia to be dismissed, and no Exercise to be discontinued, and from time to time again to direct the assembling of any such Local Militia, or any Part or Proportions thereof, for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, as to His Majesty may seem necessary, according to the Rules and Provisions in this Act contained.

XCI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person enrolled to serve in a Private in the Local Militia under this Act, shall be desirous of removing from One County to another County, at any time or times during the Period of his Service, it shall be lawful for him to do so upon giving Notice in Writing to his Commanding Officer, who shall certify the Name to the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenant, or the Clerk of the Lieutenancy, of the County to which such Local Militia Man intends to remove; and every such Local Militia Man so removing, shall be received into the Local Militia of the County, if there be any Local Militia enrolled in such County; and if not, into the Local Militia of some adjoining County to that to which he shall have removed, and shall continue to serve therein for the Remainder of the Term for which he shall have been enrolled; and every such Local Militia Man who shall not transfer to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, from which he shall have removed, within One Month after the Expiration of such Annual Training, a Certificate of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he may have been removed, of his having been duly trained and exercised in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall forfeit double the Sum which such Person would have forfeited if he had not been so trained and exercised in the Local Militia in which he was balloted under this Act; and every Person who shall again remove, or who shall proceed to any other County, than that of which he shall have first given Notice, shall in like manner give Notice, and transfer Certificates as aforesaid: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any Person enrolled to serve as a Local Militia Man to remove from One County to another County, during the time that the Reg-

ment to which he belongs shall be assembled, without having first obtained the Consent of his Commanding Officer expressed in Writing

XCIII. Provided always and he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or for the Vice Lord Lieutenant of any County, or for the Sheriff of any County, or, in the Absence of the Lord Lieutenant or Vice Lord Lieutenant and Sheriff of any County, for any Two Justices of the Peace, and One Deputy Lieutenant, to call out and assemble the Local Militia, or any Part of the Local Militia, of such County, for the Suppression of any Riot or Tumult in such County, or in any adjoining County; and every Person thus assembled in the Local Militia to be called out as aforesaid, who shall not appear and join his Regiment within such Time and at such Place as shall be specified in any Notice or Notice put upon Church-bells, Chapels or other conspicuous Places, or otherwise publicly given, shall be subject to the same Penalties and Forfeitures as are contained in this Act, for not appearing when the Local Militia shall be assembled for Training and Exercise: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Justice or Deputy Lieutenant to remit the Whole or any Part of any Fine or Penalty reserved for not appearing, upon Proof that the Person not appearing was prevented by Absence, or any unavoidable cause from receiving such Notice, or appearing as aforesaid; and all such Local Militia, when so called out and assembled on such Service as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be assembled for Training and Exercise under this Act; and all Provisions relating to the Local Militia when assembled for Training and Exercise shall apply to the Local Militia called out upon such Service as aforesaid, and all Days of such Service shall be deemed Part of the Days of Training and Exercise under this Act: Provided always, that when any Local Militia shall be called out as aforesaid, the same shall be immediately notified to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for His Majesty's Approbation thereof: Provided also, that no such Local Militia shall be liable to be kept assembled upon any such Service for any longer Period than Twenty eight Days in any one Year; and if any such Service shall arise after any such Local Militia shall have been trained and exercised for the full Period of Twenty eight Days in such Year, then and in such case the Days of such Service shall be deemed Part of the Days of Training and Exercising of the succeeding Year.

XCIII. And by it further enacted, That any Person able and fit to serve, being a Sergeant on the Establishment of a Field Hospital, or being an Out Professor on the Establishment of the said Field Hospital, and being appointed to serve as a Sergeant in the Local Militia, may and shall receive the Allowance to which he is entitled on the Establishment of the said Hospital, together with his Pay from the said Local Militia; and any Person who shall have faithfully served on permanent Pay as a Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, in the Local Militia for Twenty Years, or any Person who shall having previously served as a Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man in the Regular Army, or as a Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer in the Regular Militia, shall by Service in the Local Militia make up as the whole full Period of Twenty Years Service in the Army, Militia and Local Militia taken together, and who shall be distinguished on account of Age or Intermity, shall, on the Recommendation of the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs, and the Lieutenant, or Two or more Deputy Lieutenants of the County, Riding or Place to which the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps belongs, or (in the Death or Absence, or in the Absence of the said Lieutenant) on the Recommendation of the Colonel or other Commandant, and Three or more Deputy Lieutenants of such County, Riding or Place, be entitled to Enactment as the Chief Band, and be capable of being placed on the Establishment of the said Hospital at the Penion of Five pence per Diem, if the said Board should judge him deserving thereof.

XCIV. And by it further enacted, That, during such Time as any Local Militia shall be assembled for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, or for the Suppression of any Riot or Tumult as aforesaid, all the Charges, Provisions, Matters and Things contained in any Act of Parliament which shall then be in force for the peace in Money and Defection, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and in the Articles of War made in pursuance of such Act, shall be in force with respect to such Local Militia, and to all the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, Drummers and private Men of the same, as in all such Acts, Acts, but in that in such Act, shall extend to Life or Limb; and that it shall be lawful for the Officer commanding a Troop in such Detachment or Division of Local Militia called out in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act, not being under the Rank of Captain, to order, when he shall think it necessary, a Regimental Court Martial to be held for the Trial of any Officers contained by any Sentence, Oath, or Drummer or private Man under and during his Command; and if a sufficient Number of Officers shall not be present to constitute such Court Martial, it shall be lawful for the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of such Local Militia, to which any such Detachment or Division of Local Militia shall belong, and he is hereby required upon Application made to him by the Officer commanding such Detachment or Division for that Purpose, to order a sufficient Number of Officers of proper Rank to attend for the Purpose of sitting as Judges in such Court Martial, who shall forthwith attend the same, and assist as Members thereof; and the business of any such Court Martial shall in every case be submitted to the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Detachment or Division shall belong, or (in his Absence from the County, Riding or Place) to the Senior Field Officer within the same, for his Approbation thereof, who shall cause such sentence to be put in Execution, signed or returned as he shall see fit in Defence thereof for the Service: Provided always, that every such Court Martial may lawfully be assembled for the Trial of any Officers as aforesaid during the Period of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps, being assembled for Training and Exercise, or for the Suppression of Riots or Tumults, may continue to sit notwithstanding the Disbanding of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to which the Members composing the Court Martial may belong.

XCIV. And by it further enacted, That every Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, or Private Man of the Local Militia, who shall during the Period of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he shall belong, being embodied or assembled for Training and Exercise, or for the Suppression of Riots and Tumults, have been party of any Officer against any Act of Parliament in force for the Parliament of Majesty and Deference, or any Article of War made in pursuance of any such Act, and shall have been put under Arrest, or shall have been reported to any Officer of his Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to have committed such Offence below the Discipline or Discipline of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, may be tried by any General or Regimental Court Martial consisting of Officers of the Militia or Local Militia, and if found guilty may be punished for such Offence, although the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer or Private Man shall belong, shall not then be embodied or assembled, in like manner as any Officer, Sergeant, Corporal or Drumsman, or Private Man of the Local Militia may be tried during the Period of the Local Militia being embodied.

XCVI. And be it further enacted, That Notices of the Times and Places of Exercise of the Local Militia Men to be raised by virtue of this Act shall, by Order of the Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant, or (in the Absence of the Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant) of any Three Deputy Lieutenants, be sent by the Clerk of the General Meetings to the Clerks of the several Subdivision Meetings in the respective Counties, Ridings and Places; and shall be advertised by the Clerk of the General Meetings Three Times in the County Papers, or if any County shall have no Paper, then in the Paper of some adjoining County, and the Deputy Lieutenants, at those Subdivision Meetings to be held for carrying this Act into Execution, after the Receipt of the said Notices, shall cause the Mes serving for such Purposes to be called out in such Order and Cause as shall have been notified by the Clerk of the General Meetings as aforesaid, and for that Purpose shall give Orders to the Chief Constables and other Officers of the several Hundreds, Ropes, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Divisions respectively, with Directions to forward the same to the Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs and other Officers within their respective Hundreds, Ropes, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Divisions, which Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs and other Officers, shall cause such Notice as aforesaid to be affixed on the Door of the Churches or Chapels belonging to their respective Parishes, Tythings or Places, or (if any Place shall have no Church or Chapel belonging thereto) on the Door of the Church or Chapel of some Parish, Tything or Place thereto adjoining, which Notice as aforesaid or affixed as aforesaid, shall be deemed a sufficient Notice to every Person enrolled by virtue of this Act, notwithstanding any Quizzes in the Delivery of written Notices in manner hereafter directed; and such Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs and other Officers, are hereby required also to give Notice in Writing to the several Local Militia Men who shall be called out to be trained and exercised at such Times and Places respectively, by serving them personally, or by leaving the same at their usual Places of Abode, to attend at the Time and Place contained in such Order; and all such Local Militia Men shall duly attend at the Time and Place of Exercise according to such Notices respectively.

XCVII. And be it further enacted, That the Clerks of the several Subdivision Meetings in every County, Riding or Place, shall, within the Space of Ten Days after the Receipt of such Notices as aforesaid, from the Clerk of the General Meetings, cause a roll and true List, specifying the Name and Date of the Enrollment of all the Persons enrolled (within each Subdivision respectively) to serve in such Local Militia, and the Time and Place of Exercise to be transmitted to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, for which such Periods have been enrolled by virtue of this Act, or to such Person as shall be appointed by such Commanding Officer to receive the same, and shall in like manner cause a Duplicate of such List to be transmitted to the Adjutant of the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps.

XCVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Pay of every Person enrolled to serve in the Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place, when not embodied and called out into actual Service, and who shall be called out for the Purpose of being trained and exercised as aforesaid, shall commence upon the Day on which such Person shall join the Regiment, Battalion, Corps, Detachment or Division to which he shall belong, and not before.

XCIX. And be it further enacted, That, in case any Local Militia Man shall on his March to the Place where he shall be ordered to attend for the annual Exercise, be detained by Sickness or otherwise, it shall be lawful for any One Justice of the Peace of the County, Riding or Place, or any Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any City, Town or Place where such Man shall then be, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to order him such Relief, as such Justice, Mayor or Chief Magistrate, shall think reasonable, and the same shall be given by the Officers of the Parish, Tything or Place where such Local Militia Man shall then be; and the Officers giving such Relief shall, upon producing an Account of the Expenses thereof to the Quarter Master of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Local Militia Man shall belong (such Account being first allowed under the Hand of a Justice of the Peace), be reimbursed such Expenses by such Quarter Master, who shall be allowed the same in such Account.

C. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Mayors, Bishops and other Chief Magistrates, and for all Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs and other Peace Officers of Cities, Towns, Parishes, Tythings and Places, and (in their Death or Absence) for any One Justice of the Peace residing within or near any City, Town, Parish, Tything or Place, but for no other, and they and he are and is respectively hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, Drumsman, and Private Men serving in the Local Militia at the Times when they shall be called out to annual Exercise, to have, Mica Station, Ale Houses, Victualling Houses, and all Houses of Persons fitting Broody, Strong Water, Cypres, Wine or M-Drinks, by Retail, upon Application made to any such Mayors, Bishops or other Chief Magistrates, or to any Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs or other Peace Officers, by His Majesty's Lieutenants, or by the Colonel or other Commanding Officer of the Local Militia, of the County, Riding or Place where they shall be called out to Exercise as aforesaid; and when the Local Militia is not embodied, one called out to Exercise as aforesaid, all Mayors and other Chief Magistrates and Officers aforesaid, or (in their Death or Absence) any One Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, may, and they and he are and is hereby respectively required

Notices of Times and Places of Exercise first to be published in the County Papers, and if any County shall have no Paper, then in the Paper of some adjoining County, and the Deputy Lieutenants, at those Subdivision Meetings to be held for carrying this Act into Execution, after the Receipt of the said Notices, shall cause the Mes serving for such Purposes to be called out in such Order and Cause as shall have been notified by the Clerk of the General Meetings as aforesaid, and for that Purpose shall give Orders to the Chief Constables and other Officers of the several Hundreds, Ropes, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Divisions respectively, with Directions to forward the same to the Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs and other Officers within their respective Hundreds, Ropes, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Divisions, which Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs and other Officers, shall cause such Notice as aforesaid to be affixed on the Door of the Churches or Chapels belonging to their respective Parishes, Tythings or Places, or (if any Place shall have no Church or Chapel belonging thereto) on the Door of the Church or Chapel of some Parish, Tything or Place thereto adjoining, which Notice as aforesaid or affixed as aforesaid, shall be deemed a sufficient Notice to every Person enrolled by virtue of this Act, notwithstanding any Quizzes in the Delivery of written Notices in manner hereafter directed; and such Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs and other Officers, are hereby required also to give Notice in Writing to the several Local Militia Men who shall be called out to be trained and exercised at such Times and Places respectively, by serving them personally, or by leaving the same at their usual Places of Abode, to attend at the Time and Place contained in such Order; and all such Local Militia Men shall duly attend at the Time and Place of Exercise according to such Notices respectively.

Such Lists to be given to the several Local Militia Men to attend.

Clerks of Subdivisions to send Lists of Men enrolled, and Time and Place of Exercise, to Commanding Officers, &c.

When Pay of Men called out to Exercise to commence.

Local Militia Men to be taken on their March to be exercised.

How Persons may billet Local Militia when called out to be trained and exercised, and where any embodied may billet Lodgings, &c. by the Joint Commission of Officers and Drumsman.

to order and provide convenient Lodging, with Fire and Candle in each House as aforesaid, for the Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers of the Local Militia on permanent Duty.

CII. And he is further enacted, That when the Local Militia shall be called out to be trained and exercised, or for the Suppression of Riots or Tumults, any Justice of the Peace of any County, Riding or Place being thereto required by an Order from the Lieutenant or from any Deputy Lieutenant of such County, Riding or Place, or from the Colonel or other Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, Corps, Detachment or Division of Local Militia, being within such County, Riding or Place, may and shall give his Warrant to the Chief Constables of Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes or Divisions, or to the Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs or other Officers of the several Parishes, Tythings or Places, from, through, over, or to which any such Regiment, Battalion, Corps, Detachment or Division of Local Militia, shall be ordered to march, requiring them to provide such following Carriages to convey the Arms, Cloaths, Accoutrements, Ammunition, and other Stores, with able Men to drive such Carriages, as shall be nominated in the said Order; and in case such sufficient Carriages and Men cannot be provided within any such County, Riding, Hundred, Rape, Lath, Wapentake, Division, Parish, Tything or Place, then any Justice of the Peace for any adjoining County, Riding or Place, may and shall, upon such Order as aforesaid being thereunto lawfully given, give his Warrant to the Chief Constables, Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs or other Officers of any Hundred, Rape, Lath, Wapentake, Division, Parish, Tything or Place within such adjoining County, Riding or Place, for the Purposes aforesaid, to make up such Deficiency of Carriages and Men; and such Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenant or Colonel, or other Commanding Officer, requiring such Carriages and Men to be provided as aforesaid, shall at the same time pay to every such Chief Constable, Tythingman, Headborough or other Officer, for the Use of the Person or Persons who shall provide such Carriages and Men, the Sum of One Shilling for every Mile any Wagon with Four Horses, and any Wain with Six Oxen, or with Four Oxen and Two Horses, shall respectively travel; and the Sum of Nine pence for every Mile any such Cart with Four Horses shall travel, and so in Proportion for any Carriages drawn by any less Number of Horses or Oxen; for which respective Sums every Chief Constable, Constable, Tythingman, Headborough or other Officer receiving the same, is hereby required to give a Receipt to the Person paying the same; and every such Chief Constable, Constable, Tythingman, Headborough or other Officer, shall order and appoint such Person or Persons having Carriages, within their respective Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes, Divisions, Parishes, Tythings or Places, as they shall think proper, to provide and furnish such Carriages and Men, according to the Warrant aforesaid; and every Person so ordered, is hereby required to provide and furnish the same accordingly for One Day's Journey, and so many, and in case any such Chief Constables, Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs or other Officers, shall be at any Charge for such Carriages, over and above the Money which shall be received by them as aforesaid, such Overplus shall be borne by every County, Riding or Place, where such additional Expence shall be incurred, and be repaid to them without Fee or Reward by the Treasurer of every such County, Riding or Place out of the public Stock.

CIII. And he is further enacted, That, when any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, or any Detachment or Division thereof as aforesaid, shall be assembled for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, it shall be lawful for the Captain or Commanding Officer of every Company, to get the Local Militia Men of his Company under Stoppage, not exceeding Four pence per Day, for the Purpose of providing them with Linnens, and also with such other Necessaries, as shall be specified in any Order from the Secretary of State to that Effect, and for defraying the Expence of repairing any Arms which shall have been broken or damaged by any such Local Militia Men's Neglect: Provided always, that every such Captain or Commanding Officer shall account with each Local Militia Man for such Stoppage, and after having deducted what shall have been laid out and paid for Necessaries, and for repairing the Arms as aforesaid, shall pay the Sum remaining (if any there shall be) into the Hands of the Local Militia Man to whose the same belongs, before such Local Militia Man shall be dismissed from such Tything and Exercise.

CIV. And he is further enacted, That the Colonel or other Commanding Officer of every Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, or when at his Regiment, Battalion or Corps shall be called out to Exercise as before directed, not within Fourteen Days from the time of assembling, shall and he is hereby required to return to the Lieutenant of the County, Riding or Place to which the same belongs, a true State of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, and a Duplicate thereof to the Clerk of the General Meetings, to be filed; and all such Lists shall likewise be returned to the Clerk of the Peace, adding thereto the Name of those that have been taken without Leave of the Commission, or without returning Certificates of their Health; and where the Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place, shall be so ordered to be trained and exercised in Parts or Proportions successively in manner directed by this Act, the Officer commanding every such Part or Proportion for the Time being shall, within seven Days after the assembling of such Part or Proportion, make a Return of the State of the Local Militia exercised by him or under his Command to the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to which the Local Militia so exercised shall belong, as Part of such said Twenty Pounds for every such Division; and the Colonel or Commanding Officer receiving such Returns shall, within Fourteen Days after all the Returns of Men belonging to his Regiment, Battalion or Corps, who shall have been so assembled, shall have been received by law, transmit a General Return to the Lieutenant of the County, Riding or Place, to which such Local Militia shall belong, and a Duplicate thereof to the Clerk of the General Meetings, to be filed; and in case any Officer shall refuse or neglect, for Three Months, after the time herein appointed for making such Returns, to do so, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

CIV. And he is further enacted, That the Captain or Commanding Officer of every Company of Local Militia shall and he is hereby required, during the time of such Exercise, make out a correct and accurate Return of the State of the Clarks of the Men belonging to his Company, arranged according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (D.), specifying the several Particulars therein mentioned, and the Subdivision to which every such Man shall belong, and shall deliver and transmit the same to the Adjutant of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or, where there shall be no Adjutant to the Commanding Officer of the Local Militia of the County, Riding or Place, to which such Company shall belong; and such Adjutant or Commanding Officer (as the case may be) shall, within One Month after every such Exercise as aforesaid, prepare and make out a general and accurate Return of all such Clarks, according to such Form, and with such Specifications as aforesaid, and shall transmit the same to the Clerk of the General Meetings, and shall also transmit to the Clerks of the Subdivision Meetings, within the County, Riding or Place, so the Local Militia of which he shall belong, Extracts of such Returns, containing the State of the Clarks of Men belonging to their respective Subdivisions, and such Subdivision Clerks shall forthwith correct the Books of Enrolment of their respective Subdivisions, in so far as may be necessary, with such Returns; and the Clerk to the General Meetings shall forthwith, upon Receipt of such Returns as aforesaid, and within Two Months after the Expired of such Exercise as aforesaid, make out and transmit to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, correct Abstracts of all such Returns as aforesaid made out in the Form in the Schedule marked (E.), to this Act annexed; and every Person is required as aforesaid to make up such Returns, who shall wilfully refuse or neglect to make the same as aforesaid, at the Period lawfully required for that Purpose, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

CV. And be it further enacted, That every Local Militia Man (not labouring under any Infirmary incapacitating him) who shall not appear at the Time and Place appointed for his being exercised according to the Direction of this Act, (Notice having been published and given as by this Act required) shall be deemed a Deserter, and if not taken until after the time of any such Exercise, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and also every Local Militia Man, who, having joined the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs, or any Company or Companies, or Detachment or Division thereof, shall desert or absent himself during the time of any such Exercise, and shall not be taken until after the time of such Exercise, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and if such Person shall not be immediately tried, the Justice of the Peace before whom any Local Militia Man shall be convicted of any such Offence, shall commit such Local Militia Man to the House of Correction in hard Labour, or to the Common Goal, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Space not exceeding Three Months, and not less than Fourteen Days, or until he shall have paid the said Penalty.

CVI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Local Militia Man shall desert or absent himself from his Duty, and shall not return and voluntarily surrender himself to the Adjutant or other Officer, Commanded or Not Commanded, commanding at the City, Town or Place where the Arms of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he shall belong, shall be deposited, or shall not be taken within the Space of Three Months from the time of his deserting or absconding himself, then upon Certificate thereof from the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs, to the Deputy Lieutenant, at any of their Meetings for the Subdivision for which such Local Militia Man was enrolled, such Deputy Lieutenant, or any Two or more of them, or any One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace, are lawfully required to hold a Subdivision Meeting, and to proceed to ballot for another Person to serve and be returned to such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, in the Room of such Local Militia Man; and in case such Local Militia Man shall at any time thereafter return or be taken, he shall, notwithstanding any Pardon that have been taken as his Room, be compelled to serve in the same manner and for the same Term, as if no Pardon had been taken in his Room.

CVII. And be it further enacted, That all Masters delivered for the Service of the Local Militia shall be marked distinctly in some visible Place with the Letters (L.M.), and the Name of the County, Riding or Place to which they belong; and in case any Local Militia Man shall sell, give, or lose or wilfully damage any of his Arms, Cloaths, Accoutrements or Ammunition, or neglect or refuse to return when required so to do in the same in great Order, his Captain, or to the Person appointed to receive the same, every such Local Militia Man shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Three Pounds; and if such Local Militia Man shall not immediately pay such Penalty, the Justice of the Peace before whom he shall be convicted shall commit him to the House of Correction, to be kept to hard Labour for any time not exceeding Three Months, or until he shall have paid such Penalty.

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly and wilfully buy, take in Exchange, conceal or otherwise improperly receive any Local Militia Arms, Cloaths or Accoutrements, or any such Articles belonging to any Local Militia Man as are generally &c. and Regimental Non-commissioned, or may have been specified in such as any Order from His Majesty's Secretary of State to that Effect, being provided for the Soldier, and paid for by the Money allowed under this Act for providing Non-commissioned, or by Detachments out of his Pay, or any publick Stores or Ammunition as aforesaid delivered for the Local Militia, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, the Person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds; and if such Offender shall not immediately pay such Penalty, and shall not have sufficient Goods and Chattels wherewith to pay such Penalty, the Justice before whom he or she shall be convicted shall commit him or her to the Common Goal, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of Six Months, or until he or she shall have paid the said Fine, or shall cause such Offender to be publicly or privately whipped, at the Discretion of such Justice; and it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom any such Offender shall be convicted, to order him to be detained in Custody until a Return shall be made to the Warrant of Distress.

CXIV. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, Corps or Detachment of Local Militia shall deem it necessary to confine any Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man of the Regiment under his Command, in order to his being brought to Trial before a Court

2. Court Martial, it shall be lawful for such Commanding Officer, by Warrant under his Hand, to commit such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man to the Custody of the Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison, Goal, or House of Correction, who shall receive into his Custody and confine such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man accordingly, such Gaoler receiving the full Pay of such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man, for his Maintenance during the time he may continue in such Confinement: Provided always, that no such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man shall continue in Confinement, in order to his Trial by Court Martial more than Eight Days, or until a Court Martial can lawfully be assembled.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That the Arms, Accoutrements, Cloathing, and other Stores, belonging to every Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, when not embodied, shall be kept in such convenient Place as the Colonel or other Commanding Officer, with the Approbation of the Lieutenant of the County, Riding or Place; and that the Quarter Master of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, shall have the Charge and Care of such Arms, Accoutrements, Cloathing and other Stores, under the Superintendance of the Colonel or other Commanding Officer; and it shall be lawful for the General Meeting of Lieutenancy for any County, Riding or Place, to order and direct a convenient and proper Place for the Purpose of keeping such Arms, Accoutrements, Cloathing and other Stores to be provided or built, if no such convenient and proper Place can be found, the Hire or Coll of which Place shall be paid for by the Treasurer of such County, Riding or Place, out of the County Rates.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to order and direct that such Proportion of Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, not exceeding One Half of each Rank, together with the Adjutant, Quarter Master, and Staff Sergeant, of each Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall remain on permanent Pay, at the Head Quarters of each Regiment, Battalion or Corps, &c. His Majesty shall order and direct.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That in every case in which His Majesty, by His Secretary of State or otherwise, shall have ordered or directed, or shall hereafter order and direct, that the Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers of the Local Militia allowed to remain on permanent Pay, shall be reduced in any Proportion below One Half of each Rank as hereafter specified respectively, it shall be lawful for the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps, with the Approbation of the Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant, or Deputy Lieutenant acting for the Lieutenant, in case the Lieutenant shall be absent, and of His Majesty's Secretary of State, to agree with the Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers of his Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or any of them, or with any other Persons willing to engage to wit, as hath, notwithstanding the Number in willing to engage may exceed the Half of each Rank, to serve as Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers upon any reduced Pay, during the Periods of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps not being embodied or assembled for Exercise, in such manner as to the Number of Days' Pay to be allowed, or the Reduction of any Proportion of the Pay per Diem, as shall be authorized by the Secretary of State in that behalf; and every Sergeant, Corporal and Drummer, agreeing to serve as such upon any such reduced Pay as aforesaid, shall take the following Oath before some Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace of the County, or Magistrate of the Place as the Local Militia of which he shall belong; which Oath every such Deputy Lieutenant, Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, is hereby authorized to administer, that he do say,

I, A. B. do engage to serve as a Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, as the oath may be in the Local Militia of such such I shall be daily discharged, upon the Terms of receiving such such during such Periods as such Local Militia shall not be embodied or assembled for Exercise.

And every such Oath shall be reduced to Writing, and signed and attested by the Deputy Lieutenant, Justice of the Peace, or Magistrate administering the same, and delivered to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, in which the Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer shall belong, and a Duplicate thereof shall, if required, be given to the said Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer; and every Sergeant, Corporal and Drummer so engaging to serve on such reduced Pay as aforesaid, shall be compellible to serve in the Local Militia for the full Period of his Service, in the same manner as if he had received the full Pay of his Rank, shewing, and shall be subject to the Provisions contained in any Act of Parliament which shall be then in force for the Payment of Money and Discharge; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and the Article of War made in performance thereof; and it shall be lawful for any Commanding Officer of Local Militia who shall engage as in Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers to serve upon such reduced Pay, to retain such Number of Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers as shall be allowed by His Majesty's Secretary of State in that behalf; so that the whole Amount of such reduced Pay shall not exceed the Amount of the full Pay of the Number allowed in any such Order of Reduction as aforesaid; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Quarter Master, and all the Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, on permanent Pay in every Regiment, Battalion and Corps of Local Militia, shall continue to be resident within the City, Town or Place, where the Arms belonging to such Regiment, Battalion or Corps are kept, or within One Mile thereof, excepting when on Furlough as hereafter directed, or when ordered to be absent on Militia Duty, under the Act, or on the Furlough of either or making Min for the Militia or His Majesty's Regular Forces, (which Officers shall in no case be for more than Three Months in any One Year, or in Three Successive Years, than One Fourth Part of his Regiment, Corporals and Drummers be absent at any one Time) and that Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers shall be under the Command of the Adjutant, who shall be continually resident within the said City, Town or Place, or within Two Miles thereof, (unless as hereafter provided) and shall act as such Commanding Officer of the Colonel or other Commanding Officer of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps; and that the Adjutant, who, in his occasional and as aforesaid Absence, the Sergeant Major, or (where there is no Sergeant Major) the Senior Sergeant, shall make Monthly Returns of the true State of the Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps severally, to His Majesty's Secretary of State, to the Lieutenant of the County, and to the Colonel or other Commandant of the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps, in Default of which, on each such Neglect, such Adjutant or Sergeant Major shall be subject to such Penalties as a Court Martial shall adjudge; and that no Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, shall be absent from such City, Town or Place, without a Regular Forfeiture or Licence in Writing, signed by his Colonel or other Commandant; and every Sergeant, Corporal and Drummer, who shall absent himself without such Forfeiture or Licence, shall forfeit all Pay during the time of such Absence, and be liable to be apprehended and punished as a Delinquent; and each Adjutant shall severally absent himself from such City, Town or Place, without Leave of the Colonel or other Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, nor for more than Three Calendar Months in One Year, except in cases of Sickness: Provided nevertheless, that whenever such Adjutant shall be absent with such Leave as aforesaid, such Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, shall be under the Command of the Quarter Master or Sergeant Major, or of some Sergeant who shall be appointed by the said Adjutant, with the Approbation of the said Colonel or other Commandant, to act as Sergeant Major during the Absence of such Adjutant or of the Senior Sergeant, when the Corps has not any Adjutant or Sergeant Major.

CCIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty at any time to order and direct that the Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers of the Local Militia retained on permanent Pay at Head Quarters as aforesaid, should be employ'd or writes their respective Counties under the Command of the Adjutant in such Volunteering for His Majesty's Regular Forces or for the Militia: Provided always, that no such Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, who shall have continued to receive any ordered Rate of Pay during the Period of the Regiment to which he belongs not being embodied or furnished for Exercise, shall be compellible to be employ'd on such Service in any other Town or Place than that in which the Arms belonging to such Regiment are kept, without his Consent specified in Writing.

CCX. And be it further enacted, That if any Local Militia Man shall not join the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, Detachment or Division to which he belongs, at the time of annual Exercise, or shall desert during the time of annual Exercise, and shall not be apprehended before the Expedition of the time appointed for such Exercise, and if the Commanding Officer, or the Adjutant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or the Commanding Officer of the Company, Detachment or Division to which such Offender belongs, shall receive Information of the Place where he shall be or reside, any such Commanding Officer or Adjutant may, by Writing under his Hand, deliver the Parties of such Offender, and also certify that he did not join the Regiment, Battalion, Corps, Detachment or Division, at the Time of annual Exercise, or that he deserted during the time of annual Exercise (as the case may be), and send the same by a Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to the Adjutant or Sergeant Major of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or to the Senior Sergeant when there is no Adjutant or Sergeant Major of the Corps, of the County, Riding or Place whereof such Offender is supposed to be or reside; and the Adjutant, Sergeant Major, or Senior Sergeant, to whom such Certificate shall be sent, shall forthwith search a Party of the Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs, to assist in apprehending such Offender, and in conveying him before some Justice of the Peace of the County, Riding or Division, wherein such Offender shall be apprehended; and if by his Confession, or the Testimony of any Witnesses or Witnesses upon Oath, or the Knowledge of such Justice, it shall appear or be found that such Person is guilty of such Offence, such Adjutant, Sergeant Major or Senior Sergeant as aforesaid, shall order a Party of the Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers under his Command, to convey such Offender to the Head Quarters of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia of the next County, Riding or Place in the Way to the County, Riding or Place, to which such Offender belongs, and deliver him into the Custody of the Adjutant or Sergeant Major of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or Senior Sergeant as aforesaid, who shall cause him to be conveyed in like manner to the Adjutant or Sergeant Major of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or Senior Sergeant of the County of the next County, Riding or Place, and to in like manner send such Offender to be delivered into the Custody of the Adjutant or Sergeant Major of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or Senior Sergeant as aforesaid, of the Corps to which he belongs, who shall take him before a Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with therein Act directed in cases of Local Militia Men deserting or absenting themselves from their Duty when not embodied or called out into actual Service; and from the time of his being so apprehended as aforesaid, until he is brought before such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, such Offender shall be furnished at the Rate of Six pence per Day from the Stock of the County, Riding or Place to which such Regiment, Battalion or Corps belongs, for which Substancer such Justice is hereby required to make such Order upon the Treasurer of the County, Riding or Place; and if any Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, retained upon permanent Pay, shall desert from the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs, it shall be lawful for any Headborough, Constable or other Officer of the Town or Place where any Person who may be reasonably suspected to be such Defector shall be found, to cause such Person to be apprehended and taken before any Justice of the Peace living in or near to such Town or Place, who is hereby empowered to examine such suspected Person, and if by his Confession, or the Testimony of any Witnesses or Witnesses upon Oath, or by the Knowledge of such Justice, it shall appear or be found that such suspected Person is such Defector, such Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the Common Gaol of the County or Place where he shall be found, or the House of Correction or other publick Prison in the Town or Place in or near to which such Defector shall be apprehended, there to remain until he shall be demanded by some Person or Persons authorized to receive him as hereinafter directed, and shall continue as Accused thereof to the Clerk of the General Meetings of the County, Riding or Place, to which such Defector belongs; and the Keeper of such Gaol, House of Correction or Prison, shall receive the full Substancer of such Defector at the Rate above specified for his Maintenance, Measures, during the time he shall continue to be Captain, but shall not be entitled to any Fee or Reward on account of his Employment; and each Clerk of the General Meetings, receiving such Account, shall immediately transmit a Copy thereof to the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of his County, Riding or Place; and also to the Adjutant or other Officer commanding the Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers of each Regiment, Battalion or Corps retained as a Garrison: Pay at the Head Quarters; and where there are more than One Regiment, Battalion or Corps in any County, Riding or Place, each Clerk shall send such Copy to each of the Colonels or other Commandants or Commanding Officers of such Regiments, Battalions and Corps, and also to each of the Adjutants or Officers commanding Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, retained as a Garrison: Pay at their respective Head Quarters, within his County, Riding or Place; and the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which each Defaulter shall be found to belong, or the Adjutant or Officer commanding such Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall and he is hereby required, immediately on receiving such Copy as aforesaid, to send any Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, or any Party of the Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers of his Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to the Place where such Defaulter shall be so confined, and shall also send by such Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, or the Sergeant commanding such Party of Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers, an Order, under his Hand, to the Keeper of the said Goal, House of Correction or Prison, requiring him to deliver such Defaulter to the Person or Persons therein named, which he is hereby required to do; and the Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer to whom such Defaulter shall be so ordered to be delivered, or who only shall be sent on such Duty, shall apply to the Adjutant or Sergeant Major of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or to the Senior Sergeant of the Corps of the County, Riding or Place where such Defaulter shall be so confined as aforesaid, and such Adjutant, Sergeant Major or Sergeant, shall order a sufficient Party of the Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers under his Command, to assist in conveying such Defaulter, and he shall be conveyed to the Adjutant, or Sergeant Major of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or Senior Sergeant of the Corps to which he belongs, in the same manner as before directed with respect to the conveying of private Local Militia Men to the Adjutant or Sergeant Major of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or Senior Sergeant of the Corps to which they belong; and such Adjutant, or Sergeant Major or Sergeant, shall take such Defaulter before a Justice of the Peace of the County, Riding or Place to which he belongs, who shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the Common Goal, House of Correction or other publick Prison of such County, Riding or Place, where he shall remain, without Bail or Mainprize, until a Court Martial can and shall be summoned, and held for the Trial of such Defaulter, according to the Provisions of this Act, which he shall be delivered to the Person or Persons named in any Order to be issued for that Purpose, with the Hand and Seal of the Officer by whose Authority such Court Martial shall be summoned, regarding the Delivery of such Defaulter; and all Goals and Keepers of Prisons shall (if required to do so by any Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, employed in conveying any such Local Militia Men or Sergeants, Corporal or Drummer for offending to the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs) receive into their Custody, and confine such Offender for such time as they shall be respectively so required as aforesaid, not exceeding Forty eight Hours; and every such Goal or Keeper of any Prison who shall refuse so to do, shall forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings; and all such Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, while they are employed in executing such Duty as aforesaid, and all other Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers of the Local Militia while on any March, or employed on any Duty upon which they may be commanded by any legal Authority, shall be entitled in like manner, as Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers belonging to His Majesty's other Forces, employed in apprehending and conveying Defaulters, are to be entitled.

Order.

CXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person of the said Local Militia, ordered to be drawn out and embodied as aforesaid, not bearing under any Indemnity incorporating him to serve as a Local Militia Man, shall not appear and march in pursuance of such Order, every such Local Militia Man shall be liable to be apprehended and punished as a Desertor, according to the Provision of any Act which shall be then in force for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and its Quarters, and of the Ammunition of War, made in pursuance of the same; and if any Person shall harbour and conceal any such Local Militia Man, when ordered to be drawn out and embodied as aforesaid, knowing him to be such Local Militia Man, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

CXXIX. And be it further enacted, That, from the Date of His Majesty's Order in Council or Proclamation as aforesaid, for drawing out the Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place, into actual Service, the Officers and Men of the Local Militia of such County, Riding or Place, shall be entitled to the same Pay as the Officers and Men of His Majesty's Regular Militia, and so other; and if any Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer or private Man of the Local Militia shall be enlisted or warranted in such actual Service, he shall be equally entitled to the Benefit of Charles's Statute with any Non Commissioned Officer, Drummer or private Man belonging to any of His Majesty's other Forces.

CXXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Pay of every Officer, Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer and private Man, who shall not join his Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, on the Day appointed for that Purpose, shall commence only from the Day of his joining such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, unless such Officer, Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or private Man, shall have been prevented from joining on the Day appointed as aforesaid by sickness or any other inevitable Necessity, to be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps in which such Officer, Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, or private Man was, by Order of his Commanding Officer, to be accounted with for his Pay from the Date of His Majesty's Order in Council or Proclamation as aforesaid.

CXXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Pay of every Person entitled to serve in the Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place, after such Local Militia shall have been embodied and called out into actual Service, shall commence upon the Day on which such Person shall join the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he shall belong, and not before: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace by whom any such Person shall have been so enrolled, to order and direct as Allowance to be made to such Person, for the Purpose of enabling him as aforesaid to join the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he may belong, not exceeding the Rate of the Pay of six many Days as would enable him to march from the Place where he was enrolled to the Place where the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps may be stationed, to be calculated at the Rate of six pence half penny per Day, with the usual Number of halving Days; and the said Allowance of Pay shall be advanced to such Person at the Time of his Enlistment by the Clerk of the Substituted Meeting, under the Order of the Deputy Lieutenants or Justices aforesaid, or One of them, and shall be repaid to the said Substituted Clerk by the Receiver General of the Land Tax, on the Production of a Certificate to that Effect, signed by the said Deputy Lieutenants or Justices, or One of them; and the said Receiver General shall be allowed for the same in his Accounts accordingly.

CCXXXII. And be it further enacted, That when the Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place, shall be ordered out into actual Service, the Receiver General of the Rates and Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes for such County, Riding or Place, shall and is hereby required forthwith to pay to the Captain or other Commanding Officer of every Company of Local Militia as ordered out, the Sum of One Guinea for the Use of every private Local Militia Man belonging to his Company; and the said Receiver General shall also pay to every Captain or other Commanding Officer of a Company as aforesaid, the Sum of One Guinea for every Recruit as early as may be after such Recruit shall have joined his Company, while out in actual Service as aforesaid (all which Money he paid by the said Receiver General shall be allowed him as his Account); and the Money so received by any Captain or other Commanding Officer, or to each thereof as such Captain or Commanding Officer shall think proper, shall be laid out by him, agreeably to the Orders which he may receive from the Colonel or other Commandant, in the manner best Calculated or other Commandant shall think most advantageous for the respective Local Militia Men; and such Captain or Commanding Officer shall, on or before the Twentieth day of the Month next ensuing that in which he shall have received such One Guinea as aforesaid, present to each Local Militia Man how the said Sum of One Guinea hath been applied and disposed of, and shall, at the time of settling such Account, pay the Remainder of the Money (if any) to the said Local Militia Man.

CCXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That, whenever any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, shall be embodied, and absent from the County, Riding or Place to which it belongs, the Commanding Officer of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, shall apply to every Man whose name shall be written Four Months of engaging, and who in his Judgment, and after an Examination by the Surgeon of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall fit to serve as a Local Militia Man, and inquire if he is willing to continue in the Service for such Term as any Man who should be then ballotted to serve would be subject to, and for what Price or Sum, not in any case exceeding Two Guineas, he will so continue; and such Commanding Officer shall, on the Fifth Day of the Month of January, March, May, July, September and November respectively, or as soon after as conveniently may be, transmit to the Clerk of the General Meetings of the County, Riding or Place to which his Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia belongs, a List of all such Men in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia as he shall find willing to continue in the Service, on such Terms as aforesaid, and which List shall be signed by every such Local Militia Man as aforesaid, and shall be made in the Form in the Schedule marked (F.); and that the signing of the said List shall be binding upon the Persons signing the same, to all Intent and Purposes whatsoever.

CCXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia shall be embodied for the Purpose of Annual Training and Exercise, the Commanding Officer of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall apply to every Man serving in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, whose name will appear in the Course of the ensuing Year, who may be of the Height specified in this Act, and between the Ages of Eighteen and Thirty, and who in his Judgment, and after an Examination by the Surgeon of the Regiment, shall be fit to serve as a Local Militia Man, and who shall not have more than Two Children under Fourteen Years, and enquire if he is willing to continue his Service for such Term, as any Man who should be then ballotted to serve would be subject to, and for what Price or Sum, not in any case exceeding Two Guineas, he will so continue; and such Commanding Officer shall as soon after as conveniently may be, transmit to the Clerk of the General Meetings of the County, Riding or Place, to which his Regiment, Battalion or Corps belongs, a List of all such Men in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps; which List shall be signed by every such Local Militia Man as aforesaid, and shall be made in the Form in the Schedule marked (F.); and the signing of such List shall be binding on the Persons signing the same, to all Intent and Purposes whatsoever.

CCXXXV. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the General Meetings of every County, Riding or Place aforesaid, shall as soon after the Receipt of such Notices as the same may be done, transmit to the respective Clerks of the Subdivision Meetings, for the Use of the Deputy Lieutenants sitting in such Subdivisions, certified Extracts of such Returns, specifying in every such Extract the Men that shall have been enrolled for the Subdivisions to which the Clerk, to whom any such Extract is sent, shall belong; and thereupon in case the Regiment, Battalion or Corps shall not be embodied, it shall be lawful for such Deputy Lieutenants, if they shall think fit, to cause the Men willing to continue to serve as aforesaid, to be enrolled as Volunteers for the particular and respective Parishes or Places for which they shall have been originally enrolled to serve, and in every such case to direct and require the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of such Parish or Place, to pay such Bounty or Bounties to be given to such Men if engaged, immediately upon their Enrolment; and in case such Regiment, Battalion or Corps should then be embodied, then to cause such Men to be enrolled as Volunteers in such manner as aforesaid, and to order and direct the Churchwardens or Overseers as aforesaid to remit such Bounty or Bounties to be given to such Men to the Paymaster of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, in which such Men shall be then serving, who shall forthwith pay or account to the said Men respectively for the same.

CCXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall have been enrolled to serve in the Local Militia, and whose Term of Service shall be prolonged in the manner herein directed here and the Term of Four Years, shall be entitled to the same Allowance for Next Relief, and all other Allowances which are by this Act directed to be allowed during the First Year of their Service to Persons enrolled in the Local Militia, and shall in like manner be entitled to such Allowances, so often as the Term of Service of any Person is enrolled to serve in the Local Militia shall be prolonged as aforesaid.

When Local Militia enrolled men, &c. shall be ordered out into actual Service, the Receiver General of the Rates and Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes for such County, Riding or Place, shall and is hereby required forthwith to pay to the Captain or other Commanding Officer of every Company of Local Militia as ordered out, the Sum of One Guinea for the Use of every private Local Militia Man belonging to his Company; and the said Receiver General shall also pay to every Captain or other Commanding Officer of a Company as aforesaid, the Sum of One Guinea for every Recruit as early as may be after such Recruit shall have joined his Company, while out in actual Service as aforesaid (all which Money he paid by the said Receiver General shall be allowed him as his Account); and the Money so received by any Captain or other Commanding Officer, or to each thereof as such Captain or Commanding Officer shall think proper, shall be laid out by him, agreeably to the Orders which he may receive from the Colonel or other Commandant, in the manner best Calculated or other Commandant shall think most advantageous for the respective Local Militia Men; and such Captain or Commanding Officer shall, on or before the Twentieth day of the Month next ensuing that in which he shall have received such One Guinea as aforesaid, present to each Local Militia Man how the said Sum of One Guinea hath been applied and disposed of, and shall, at the time of settling such Account, pay the Remainder of the Money (if any) to the said Local Militia Man.

Local Militia shall be embodied, and absent from the County, Riding or Place to which it belongs, the Commanding Officer of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, shall apply to every Man whose name shall be written Four Months of engaging, and who in his Judgment, and after an Examination by the Surgeon of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall fit to serve as a Local Militia Man, and inquire if he is willing to continue in the Service for such Term as any Man who should be then ballotted to serve would be subject to, and for what Price or Sum, not in any case exceeding Two Guineas, he will so continue; and such Commanding Officer shall, on the Fifth Day of the Month of January, March, May, July, September and November respectively, or as soon after as conveniently may be, transmit to the Clerk of the General Meetings of the County, Riding or Place to which his Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia belongs, a List of all such Men in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia as he shall find willing to continue in the Service, on such Terms as aforesaid, and which List shall be signed by every such Local Militia Man as aforesaid, and shall be made in the Form in the Schedule marked (F.); and that the signing of the said List shall be binding upon the Persons signing the same, to all Intent and Purposes whatsoever.

When whenever any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia shall be embodied for the Purpose of Annual Training and Exercise, the Commanding Officer of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall apply to every Man serving in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, whose name will appear in the Course of the ensuing Year, who may be of the Height specified in this Act, and between the Ages of Eighteen and Thirty, and who in his Judgment, and after an Examination by the Surgeon of the Regiment, shall be fit to serve as a Local Militia Man, and who shall not have more than Two Children under Fourteen Years, and enquire if he is willing to continue his Service for such Term, as any Man who should be then ballotted to serve would be subject to, and for what Price or Sum, not in any case exceeding Two Guineas, he will so continue; and such Commanding Officer shall as soon after as conveniently may be, transmit to the Clerk of the General Meetings of the County, Riding or Place, to which his Regiment, Battalion or Corps belongs, a List of all such Men in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps; which List shall be signed by every such Local Militia Man as aforesaid, and shall be made in the Form in the Schedule marked (F.); and the signing of such List shall be binding on the Persons signing the same, to all Intent and Purposes whatsoever.

Clerk of General Meetings shall as soon after the Receipt of such Notices as the same may be done, transmit to the respective Clerks of the Subdivision Meetings, for the Use of the Deputy Lieutenants sitting in such Subdivisions, certified Extracts of such Returns, specifying in every such Extract the Men that shall have been enrolled for the Subdivisions to which the Clerk, to whom any such Extract is sent, shall belong; and thereupon in case the Regiment, Battalion or Corps shall not be embodied, it shall be lawful for such Deputy Lieutenants, if they shall think fit, to cause the Men willing to continue to serve as aforesaid, to be enrolled as Volunteers for the particular and respective Parishes or Places for which they shall have been originally enrolled to serve, and in every such case to direct and require the Churchwardens or Overseers of the Poor of such Parish or Place, to pay such Bounty or Bounties to be given to such Men if engaged, immediately upon their Enrolment; and in case such Regiment, Battalion or Corps should then be embodied, then to cause such Men to be enrolled as Volunteers in such manner as aforesaid, and to order and direct the Churchwardens or Overseers as aforesaid to remit such Bounty or Bounties to be given to such Men to the Paymaster of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, in which such Men shall be then serving, who shall forthwith pay or account to the said Men respectively for the same.

Any Person who shall have been enrolled to serve in the Local Militia, and whose Term of Service shall be prolonged in the manner herein directed here and the Term of Four Years, shall be entitled to the same Allowance for Next Relief, and all other Allowances which are by this Act directed to be allowed during the First Year of their Service to Persons enrolled in the Local Militia, and shall in like manner be entitled to such Allowances, so often as the Term of Service of any Person is enrolled to serve in the Local Militia shall be prolonged as aforesaid.

Every Man resented before John, or if any of them, or any Interests, shall arrive at a full

CXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person serves and enrolls in the said Local Militia, (not abating under any Indemnity, excepting him to serve as a Local Militia Man) shall not with due Diligence join the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia of the County, Riding or Place, for which he shall be so sworn and enrolled, (so call each Regiment, Battalion or Company shall then be embodied) accord- ing to such Order, or shall be given him in that respect by the Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants, or any of them, or by any Officer of the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or by any other Person authorized to give such Order; or if any Person serving in any embodied Local Militia, or any Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, shall desert or absent himself from his Duty; every such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or private Local Militia Man shall be liable to be apprehended and punished, according to the Provisions of any Act which shall be then in force for the punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and of the Articles of War made in pursuance of the same, and may by a General Court Martial be adjudged to further Service in the Local or Regular Militia for some Period to be limited, or to serve as His Majesty's other Forces, without Limitation as to the Period or Place of such Service according as the Court Martial before whom he shall be tried, shall think it to stand; and in case the said Court shall adjudge such Local Militia Man to serve in His Majesty's other Forces, and such Sentence shall be approved by His Majesty, it shall be lawful by Order under the Hand of the Secretary at War, or his Deputy, to cause such Man, if found fit for General Service, or Examined by a Surgeon of His Majesty's other Forces, to be entered as a private Soldier, to serve in such Regiment or Corps of His Majesty's other Forces as shall be directed in such Order, and to be forthwith removed other to the Head Quarters of the Regiment or Corps in which he shall be to enter, or to such other Place as shall be directed in such Order; and shall, from the time of his being delivered over to be conveyed as aforesaid, be subject and liable to all the like Penalties and Punishments contained in any Act then in force for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, as if he had been originally enlisted for general Service, or for the Regiment or Corps in which he shall be so ordered to be served as aforesaid.

CXXXVIII. And whereas it may be expedient that only such a Proportion of the Local Militia, and in such of the Counties, Ridings and Places as shall be specified in any Order of His Majesty, should be drawn out and embodied in the Field as before, and that the Appointment of the proper Men necessary to constitute such Proportions, should be made or decided by Ballot or otherwise as it hereinafter mentioned in each Subdi- vision or District, without assembling them personally out of the Subdivision or District to which they shall be so therefore directed, That the Lieutenants of every County, Riding or Place, or (in case of Vacancy, or in the Absence of the Lieutenants from his County, Riding or Place) any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, to whom any Order of His Majesty for the Purpose of embodying the said Local Militia, or such Part or Proportion thereof as His Majesty shall have judged necessary and ordered to be embodied, shall have been directed, shall, as soon after the Receipt thereof as conveniently may be, give his or their Order to the Clerks of the several Subdivisions in such County, Riding or Place, to prepare and make out a full and true List, containing the Names of all Persons entitled to serve in the said Local Militia by virtue of this Act, within each Subdivision respectively, and arranged according to their Classes as heretofore mentioned, before a Day to be specified in the said Order of the Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, and which Day shall not be later than Three Days after the Date of such Order; and the said Clerks shall, within the time fixed by such Order, prepare and make out such Lists accordingly, and also Two Duplicate thereof, One of which Duplicates shall be for the Use of the Deputy Lieutenants at their respec- tive Subdivision Meetings, and the other Duplicate thereof shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the General Meetings, for the Use of the Lieutenants of the County, Riding or Place, or the Deputy Lieutenants who shall have issued such Order as aforesaid.

CXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the said Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid as well as His Majesty's Order shall be directed, shall at the time of issuing his or their Order heretofore men- tioned, direct the Clerk of the General Meetings to advertise the Time and Place of assembling the Local Militia in the County Paper, or if any County had here no Paper, then in the Paper of some adjoining County, and shall also give his or their Order for assembling all the Men of the said Local Militia within their respective Subdivisions, or at such Place or Places within their respective Counties, Ridings or Places, and in such Proportions as to the said Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, shall appear most expedient, on the Day or Days to be specified in such his or their Order, to the Chief Constable or other Officers of the several Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Divisions within such County, Riding or Place, with Directions immediately to their respective Constables thereto to the Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs or other Officers of the several Parishes, Tythings and Places within the said Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapen- takes and Divisions respectively; and such Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs or other Officers, are hereby required upon Receipt thereof forthwith to cause Notice in Writing to be given to the several Men of the said Local Militia, or list at their several Places of Abode, within their respective Parishes, Tythings or Places, as aforesaid within their respective Subdivisions or Districts, at the Time and Place mentioned in such Order, and shall also cause such Notice as aforesaid to be affixed on the Doors of the Churches or Chapels be- longing to their respective Parishes, Tythings or Places, or (if any Place shall have no Church or Chapel be- longing thereto) on the Door of the Church or Chapel of some Parish, Tything or Place thereto adjoining, which Notice is aforesaid or affixed as aforesaid, shall be deemed a sufficient Notice to every Person entitled by virtue of this Act, notwithstanding any Objection in the Delivery of written Notices in manner herein directed; and all such Local Militia Men shall duly attend at the Time and Place appointed in such Notices respectively.

CXL. And be it further enacted, That if any Person of the said Local Militia not appearing under any Indemnity obligating him to serve as a Local Militia Man, shall not appear in pursuance of such Order, or, appearing, shall not abide the Order of the Deputy Lieutenants attending in pursuance of this Act, every such Person shall be deemed a Defeater, and if not taken previously to the Completion of the Roll at which such Person ought to attend in pursuance of this Act, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, and shall be deemed and taken to be a Person liable to be embodied within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, and to be sworn according to the Directions herein contained, ever and above the Number to be chosen by Ballot as aforesaid.

CXLI. And be it further enacted, That the said Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid of every County, Riding or Place, or any Three or more of them, shall appoint the First Meeting to be holden by the several Deputy Lieutenants of the same County, Riding or Place within their respective Subdivisions, or at such other Place or Places as shall have been appointed as aforesaid, on the Day mentioned in such Order as aforesaid, for assembling the Men of the said Local Militia, in order to their being chosen or balloted to serve according to the Direction of this Act, and shall also appoint the Time and Place of assembling each of the said Men as shall be so chosen or balloted within their respective Counties, Ridings or Places, in order to their being embodied; of which several Appointments the respective Deputy Lieutenants shall have Notice; and all the Men enrolled on the List of every such Subdivision or District, and appearing in pursuance of such Order on the Day to be appointed, shall be then ordered by the said Deputy Lieutenants, and the said Deputy Lieutenants shall at each Meeting proceed in the manner, by this Act directed, to cause a Number of the Men so appearing to be chosen or balloted for, according to the Direction of this Act, equal to such Proportions of the complete Number that had been or ought to be enrolled by virtue of this Act, on the List of each Subdivision or District, as shall or may be specified in His Majesty's Order for drawing out and embodying any Part or Proportion of the Local Militia as aforesaid, and to cause the Names of all the Men so chosen and balloted to be marked on the List of each Subdivision or District; and when the Choice and Ballot shall be concluded, the said Deputy Lieutenants shall cause the List of each Subdivision or District to be publicly called; and as the Name of each Person contained therein shall be read, shall then and there declare whether such Person is or is not (as the case may be) chosen or balloted out of such List in the manner herebefore provided; and the Names of all the Persons so chosen and balloted, shall be returned to the Lieutenants of the County, Riding or Place for which such Persons are enrolled, or to the Deputy Lieutenants who shall have given such Order as aforesaid; and the Persons so chosen and balloted shall be embodied to serve according to the true Intent of this Act; and the said Deputy Lieutenants shall openly declare to the Men, who have been so chosen or balloted, the Time and Place of their assembling, in order to their being embodied; and all and every such Persons or Persons who shall have been declared to be so chosen or balloted, shall immediately proceed and repair to, and shall duly attend at the Time and Place so to be appointed and declared, as order to their or his being embodied accordingly; and all and every such Persons or Persons as shall be so declared not to have been so chosen or balloted as aforesaid, shall be discharged from further Attendance to the performance of such Order as aforesaid.

CXLII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Deputy Lieutenants, in their several Subdivisions Meetings, and before they proceed to choose or ballot, as herebefore directed, to revise and correct the Names of the Men contained in such Lists or Classes, according to the several Changes or Alterations that may have taken place since the last Revision or Correction thereof.

CXLIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever His Majesty shall think fit to draw out and embody a Part or Proportion only of the Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place, the Deputy Lieutenants in those several Subdivisions shall, before they proceed to choose or ballot for the private Men who are in form for such Part or Proportion, examine the Classes of the Descriptions herebefore mentioned, entered according to the Provisions of this Act, and in every Case in which the Part or Proportion of the Militia required to be called out in such Subdivision shall equal the Number of Men contained in such First, or First and Second, or other succeeding Classes in their Order, then and in such Case the Men contained in such Class or Classes, as the Case may be, shall be forthwith chosen without any Ballot; and when the Proportions of Men so required as aforesaid, shall be less than the Number of Men contained in such First Class, then such Proportions shall be balloted for out of such Class only, and no others; and when the Proportion so required as aforesaid, shall exceed the Number of Men contained in the First, or First and second, or any succeeding Class or Classes in the Order in which they shall be read as aforesaid, the Deputy Lieutenants shall first choose all the Men in such First Class, or First and second (according to Class or Classes, and such Proportion shall be as near as may be completed, and shall then proceed to ballot in manner directed by this Act for the Remainder of the Proportion so required as aforesaid, out of the Class immediately following the last Class that shall have been wholly taken towards making up such Proportion as aforesaid; and the Deputy Lieutenants shall proceed in the manner for supplying of any further Part or Proportion of Local Militia, as if any further Part should be afterwards ordered by His Majesty to be embodied; and shall, during the whole of the time that a Part or Proportion only of the Local Militia shall remain embodied, supply all Vacancies, as they shall arise, in such Part or Proportion, out of the Class, as they shall be Successors, and shall in as Cafe proceed to ballot for the supplying of any Vacancy out of any Class, and all the Men contained in the preceding Class or Classes, who shall be able and fit to join such Local Militia, shall have been chosen for that Purpose.

CXLIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Local Militia, or any Part or Proportion of the Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place, shall have been ordered to be drawn out and embodied in pursuance of this Act, in case any of the Persons enrolled in any Subdivision of such County, Riding or Place, the Local Militia whereof shall be so ordered to be drawn out and embodied as aforesaid, shall make Default either by not appearing in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, or by Defection or Absence from Duty, Men not appearing at the Order of the Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid.

County Lieutenants, and shall not be called out of the List of such Men, unless they shall be so chosen or balloted as aforesaid.

Deputy Lieutenants may correct Lists.

When His Majesty shall think fit to draw out and embody a Part of any Militia to be embodied, Deputy Lieutenants shall examine the Classes, and if the Number of Men in any Class or Classes shall be equal to the Proportion of Men so required, they shall be forthwith chosen without any Ballot; and if the Number of Men in any Class or Classes shall be less than the Proportion of Men so required, they shall be balloted for out of such Class or Classes only, and no others; and if the Number of Men in any Class or Classes shall exceed the Proportion of Men so required, they shall first choose all the Men in such Class or Classes, and shall then proceed to ballot for the Remainder of the Proportion so required, out of the Class immediately following the last Class that shall have been wholly taken towards making up such Proportion as aforesaid.

Vocacy shall be made, and shall not be taken within Three Months, Vacancy shall be

And when the Vocacy shall be made within the Space of Three Months from the time of such Default, then a Vacancy shall be declared by the Deputy Lieutenants, at their First Meeting to be holden for the Subdivision for which the Person so making Default was enrolled, and after the Receipt of the Certificate of such Default, Detachment or Absence, under the Hands of the Officer commanding the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to which such Person belonged, and the Vacancy thus occasioned shall be forthwith filled up by a fresh Ballot under the Subdivision aforesaid.

CXLV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person enrolled by virtue of this Act, and not chosen or balloted as aforesaid, who shall not have any Child or Children living under the Age of Fourteen Years, shall offer himself as a Volunteer, take Arms out and embodied in the Room of any Person so chosen or balloted, it shall be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants at any Meeting, to accept such Volunteer in the Room of such Person so chosen or balloted as aforesaid, and such Person so accepted shall serve as if he had been if here so chosen or balloted in manner aforesaid.

CXLVI. And be it further enacted, That every Man of the said Local Militia who shall appear and attend at the Ballot to be taken as aforesaid directed, and who shall not be chosen or balloted as aforesaid, shall be entitled to an Allowance, after the Rate of One Shilling per Diem, during the time he shall be actually employed in or Home, in going to, and continuing at, and returning from the Place to be appointed for such Ballot, not to exceed Three Days, to be paid by the Clerk of the Subdivision or other Meeting in which such Man shall be enrolled; and on the Certificate of the Number of Men so paid, under the Hands of such Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace respectively, or where no Deputy Lieutenant shall there attend, then of any One such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, the Receiver General of such County, Riding or Place, shall re-imburse to the said Clerk the Sums so paid, out of any Monies in his Hands of any Aid granted by Parliament by way of Land Tax.

CXLVII. And be it further enacted, That the respective Clerks of the Subdivisions or other Meetings shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to draw on the Receiver General of the Land Tax for the County, Riding or Place, for such Sums or Sums of Money as such Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace respectively, or where no Deputy Lieutenant shall attend, then on One Justice of the Peace shall, by any Order under their or his respective Hands or Hand, direct in a warrant, which Sums or Sums of Money shall be applied by such respective Clerks for paying the Allowance aforesaid directed to be made; and the Receipt of any such Clerk, together with such Order, shall be to the said Receiver General of the Land Tax a sufficient Discharge for the Payment of such Sums or Sums of Money, and be allowed as in his Account.

CXLVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of each Subdivision or other Meeting shall, when required by such Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace, or where no Deputy Lieutenant shall attend, then by One Justice of the Peace, make out an Account of the respective Sums of Money by him received and paid, as aforesaid of this Act, to be by them assessed, allowed and signed; and the Account so received, allowed and signed, shall be and is hereby directed to be the proper Voucher and Acquittal of such Clerk for the Application and Disposal of such Money.

CXLIX. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to deprive His Majesty from ordering the Receiver of the said Local Militia, or in any of the Receiver of the said Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place, or His Majesty shall be his Warden think proper, to be drawn out and embodied whenever the Occasion shall require, according to the Provisions prescribed by this Act.

CL. And be it further enacted, That whenever His Majesty shall think it to draw out and embody any further Proportion of the Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenants of such County, Riding or Place, or Three or more Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, and he and they in and as hereby respectively required to make such further Proportion to be drawn out and embodied as His Majesty shall order, and so to draw such Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants respectively, and also all and every the Deputy Lieutenants, and all other Officers aforesaid respectively. Shall pursue the Rules and Directions hereinbefore prescribed for drawing out and embodying the First Proportion thereof.

CLI. And be it further enacted, That, if during each time as any Part of the Local Militia which shall have been drawn out and embodied for Service, shall continue embodied, His Majesty shall deem it expedient that the Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place, or any Part thereof, which shall not at such time be actually embodied for Service, should be drawn out in order to be mustered, trained and reviewed, for a limited time, instead of being so embodied for Service, according to the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to direct the Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants of all or any of the said Counties, Ridings or Places, to raise the said Local Militia not actually embodied, or any Part thereof, to be drawn out, in order to be mustered, trained and reviewed, in such Proportion, and for such time, and at such Place or Places, as shall be appointed, with the Approbation of His Majesty, by the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants, in manner as is hereinbefore directed for training and reviewing the disembodied Local Militia; and the same shall be mustered, trained and reviewed accordingly.

CLII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Whole of the Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place, is ordered to be embodied, all the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Drummers of every Regiment, Battalion or Corps of the Local Militia of such County, Riding or Place, shall immediately join the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which they respectively belong, at the Time and Place appointed for the embodying such Local Militia; and whenever the Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place, is called out and embodied by Detachments or Divisions, under any Order of His Majesty for that Purpose, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to order and direct the Proportion and Distribution of Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Drummers, who shall accompany such Detachments or Divisions of Men, and the respective Establishments of such Detachments or Divisions, and also to regulate the Numbers and Duties of all such Officers, Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, as shall remain within any such County, Riding or Place, for the working, training and exercising of the Remainder of the private Local Militia Men thereof, as the Service may require, and to His Majesty may seem most fit and convenient.

CLIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, as He shall think fit, to disband any Part or Proportion of any Local Militia of any County, Riding or Place, embodied under this Act, and from time to time again to draw out and embody any such Local Militia so disbanded as aforesaid, or any Proportion thereof, as to His Majesty shall seem expedient, according to the Rules and Provisions of this Act.

CLIV. And be it further enacted, That when the Local Militia, or any Part thereof, having been drawn out into actual Service as aforesaid, shall be again daily disbanded, and the Officers and Men thereof directed so return to their several Places of Abode, the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, Drummers and private Men, shall be subject to the same Orders, Discipline and Engagements only, as they were subject to under the Provisions of this Act, before they were so drawn out into actual Service as aforesaid.

CLV. And whereas it may be expedient that, in all cases of actual Invasion, or of imminent Danger thereof, and in case of Rebellion, His Majesty should be empowered to execute, without Delay, the Number of Local Militia Forces, for the more effectual Protection and Defence of this Realm: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty (the Oathes being first administered to Parliament, if the Parliament shall be then sitting, or decreed in Council and assented by Proclamations, if no Parliament shall be then sitting or sitting), by His Royal Proclamations, that in Addition to the Number of Men required by or under the foregoing Provisions of this Act, to be raised by the several Counties, Ridings and Places hereto mentioned, there shall be forthwith raised and enrolled in the said several Counties, Ridings and Places, any Number of Men as well, in Addition to and together with and including the effective Yeomanry and Volunteers serving in such County as such Division, or Part of such County, together with the Local Militia raised for such County under the Provisions of this Act, make the whole Force of such County equal to Six Times the original Quota of such County, under an Act passed in the Forty second Year of His said Majesty: Provided always, that such effective Yeomanry and Volunteers shall be exclusive of Superannuated serving without Pay above the Establishment of such Corps who shall have been enrolled after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eight; and the Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants respectively of the said Counties, Ridings and Places shall, immediately on the issuing of any such Proclamations, assemble and forthwith proceed to appoint the Number of Men required to be raised in their respective Counties, Ridings and Places, among the several Hundreds, Twpes, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Divisions, and also among the several Parishes, Tythings or Places therein respectively; and that thereafter pointed to raise and enrol such Men, at such time or times as shall be specified for that Purpose in such Proclamations; and if the Powers, Privileges, Regulations, Rules, Penalties, Performances, Exercises, Allowances, Classes, Matters and Things in this Act contained, relating to the Local Militia, shall be applied, practised, suffered and put in Execution, for the raising, training and exercising, and for the embodying and calling out into actual Service, such additional Number of Local Militia as aforesaid in ordered and directed to be raised and enrolled, in as full and ample a manner in every respect, as far as the same can be applied and put in force, as if the said Number of Men to be added to the Local Militia had been included in the Number of Men required and directed to be raised by virtue of this Act.

CLVI. And be it further enacted, That whenever His Majesty shall raise such additional Number of Local Militia as aforesaid to be raised and enrolled, or drawn out and embodied as aforesaid, if the Parliament shall then be separated by such Adjournment or Prorogation as will not expire within Fourteen Days, His Majesty may and He shall issue a Proclamation for the Meeting of the Parliament within Fourteen Days, and the Parliament shall accordingly meet and sit upon each Day as shall be appointed by such Proclamations, and continue to sit and sit in like manner to all Intents and Purposes as if it had stood adjourned or prorogued to the same Day.

CLVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time (whenever He shall deem it expedient to reduce the Whole or any Part of such additional Number of Local Militia as aforesaid, by His Royal Proclamations to declare such Reduction accordingly; and in case such additional Number of Local Militia as aforesaid or any Part thereof, shall be then embodied) to disband the same, or any Number of private Local Militia Men equal thereto, without regard to whether such Men were raised and enrolled in pursuance of any Proclamations for raising such additional Number of Local Militia as aforesaid, or were enrolled before, and were serving at the time of the issuing thereof; and the private Militia Men so disbanded as aforesaid, or so many of them as may have been enrolled and not embodied at the time of issuing such Proclamations, shall nevertheless remain liable to serve for the respective Periods for which they shall have been respectively enrolled to serve, and shall, during such Periods, supply all the Vacancies that may arise in the respective Parishes or Places, or United Parishes or Places, for which they shall have been so enrolled, whenever called upon to do so; and the Deputy Lieutenants of the respective Subdivisions shall, from time to time, cause any Men or Men, as the case may be, that may be required for supplying any Vacancy or Vacancies in the established Local Militia that may arise for any Parish or Place, or United Parishes or Places, in their respective Subdivisions, to be taken from their respective Classes as aforesaid, or belonged to the same may require, according to the Provisions in this Act contained, relating to the taking Men for the Local Militia from Classes, until all the Men so remaining liable, and that shall be fit to serve, shall have supplied such Vacancies: Provided always, that no Ballot shall take place for the raising and enrolling any Man to supply any Vacancy that may arise from any Parish or Place, so long as the same can be supplied from any

His Majesty may disband any Local Militia and embody them.

Local Militia which shall be drawn out to serve Overseas shall be subject to the same Orders and Discipline as when being drawn out.

In case of Invasion or Rebellion, His Majesty may, by His Proclamations, increase the Local Militia, and may also raise the same in Ridings and Counties respectively and may also call out any Number, and may also raise and call out Men, at such time or times as shall be specified in such Proclamations.

47 U. J. 290.

When such additional Number of Local Militia as aforesaid, His Majesty shall issue a Proclamation for the Meeting of Parliament.

His Majesty, by Proclamations, may reduce and disband any such additional Number of Local Militia and private Local Militia Men equal thereto, without regard to whether such Men were raised and enrolled in pursuance of any Proclamations for raising such additional Number of Local Militia as aforesaid, or were enrolled before, and were serving at the time of the issuing thereof; and the private Militia Men so disbanded as aforesaid, or so many of them as may have been enrolled and not embodied at the time of issuing such Proclamations, shall nevertheless remain liable to serve for the respective Periods for which they shall have been respectively enrolled to serve, and shall, during such Periods, supply all the Vacancies that may arise for any Parish or Place, or United Parishes or Places, for which called, and shall supply Vacancies and no Ballot shall take place while such Vacancies can be supplied from them, but they shall not be

CLVIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers given and Provisions made by this Act, with respect to the County of Westchester and the Local Militia thereof, shall extend to the Town of Arundel upon Tynes and the Liberties thereof (except only in such Cases where by this Act it is otherwise expressly provided for); and that out of the Persons returned in the Lists for the said Town of Arundel upon Tynes, a Number of private Local Militia Men shall be chosen by Ballot to serve for the said Town, in the same Proportion with the private Local Militia Men appointed to serve for the other Hundreds, Wards and other Divisions within the said County of Westchester; and if Persons can be found within the said Town and Liberties thereof with such Qualifications as are required for Officers, the Chief Magistrate of the said Town of Arundel upon Tynes shall appoint such Number of Officers of the Local Militia as shall be proportional to the Number of Local Militia Men which the said Town shall raise as their Quota towards the Local Militia of the County of Westchester; and the Lieutenant of the said County, and Deputy Lieutenants, and all other Officers and Persons sitting in the Execution of this Act, for raising and training the Local Militia within the said County, are hereby authorized and required to put this Act into Execution within the said Town and the Liberties thereof, but subject nevertheless to such Provisions as are inserted upon Deputy Lieutenants and other Officers of the Local Militia for acting not being duly qualified; and that the Local Militia Men to be raised for the said Town shall join the Local Militia of the County of Westchester, and be exercised together, and shall train, and also in time of actual Service, be deemed Part of the Local Militia of the County of Westchester.

CLIX. And whereas the ordering the Militia of the Isle of Wight has always been in the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of the said Island: Be it therefore enacted, That after the Number of Persons who the said Island is to furnish to the Local Militia of the County of Southampton shall have been appointed, as by this Act is directed, by His Majesty's Lieutenant and the Deputy Lieutenants, or by the Deputy Lieutenants of the said County as aforesaid, the Governor of the said Island shall appoint the Officers of the Local Militia to be raised in the said Island, which Officers of the Local Militia shall be qualified in the same manner, and are hereby empowered and required to act as the Lieutenants of this Act, in the same manner and under the same Directions, Provisions and Powers, as Officers of the Local Militia in the several Counties are by this Act directed to; and the Local Militia of the said Island shall be raised in the same manner as the Local Militia of the County of Southampton, and shall be deemed a Part of the Local Militia of the said County.

CLX. And be it further enacted, That for the several Parishes of this Act, the Castles of the County of York, which are Parcel of the County of Durham, surrendered by Part of the North Riding of the County of York, shall be deemed to be situate within and Part of the said North Riding; and that Part of the Parish of Masor, which lies in the County of Gloucester, shall be deemed to be situate within and Part of the County of Gloucester; and that the Town and Parish of Walsingham shall be deemed to be situate within and Part of the County of Bedford; and that the Hamlet of Calphill shall be deemed to be situate within and Part of the County of Bedford; and that the Township of Fiby shall be deemed to be situate within and Part of the East Riding of the County of York; and that Thorpwood shall be deemed to be situate within and Part of the Parish of Wetherbury, in the County of Nottingham; and that the Parish of Stour Martin, called Stourford Parish, in the Borough and Town of Stourbridge, on the South Side of the Waters called Stour, shall be deemed to be situate within and Part of the County of Leicestershire.

CLXI. And be it further enacted, That the several Towns and Places heretofore mentioned, and deemed to be situate within and Part of the several Counties, Ridings and Places aforesaid, for the Purposes of this Act, shall be subject to the Jurisdiction and Authority of the Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and other Officers of the respective Counties, Ridings and Places, unless which such Towns and Places are hereby deemed to be situate; any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

CLXII. And be it further enacted, That the Number of private Men to be balloted and enrolled for the Local Militia under this Act, within the Cragge Parishes, Two ancient Towns and their Members, shall not exceed One thousand Men.

CLXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Wardens of the Cragge Parishes, Two ancient Towns and their Members, and in his Absence his Lieutenant or Lieutenants, shall within their respective Jurisdictions put into Execution this Act, and see and execute all the Powers and Authorities contained in this Act, for the Purposes of raising the same into Execution, and raising the Men to be provided and raised within their respective Jurisdictions under this Act, and all the Powers, Provisions, Authorities, Powers and Performances contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, and hereby made applicable to the raising the said Local Militia, or in this Act, shall be in full Force for the Purposes of raising the Local Militia within the Cragge Parishes; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CLXIV. Provided also, That it shall be lawful for the said Wardens, and the said Mayors, Justices, Magistrates or Deputy Lieutenants, at a General Meeting to be holden as soon as may be after any Ballot shall have been directed for the raising of any Local Militia within the Cragge Parishes, and Lists shall have been returned for that Purpose, to appoint the Number of Men to be raised in pursuance of this Act for each of the said Parishes, Two ancient Towns and their Liberties, and the several Members thereof respectively; and the Number of Men so appointed shall be raised, balloted for and sworn to, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act.

CLXV. And

CLXV. And be it further enacted, That the Mayors, Jurats or other Magistrates for the Time being, of each of the Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns and their Liberties, and the several Members thereof, shall and may act as Deputy Lieutenants for the Purposes of this Act; and that it shall be lawful for the Warden of the said Cinque Ports, Two ancient Towns and their Members, to appoint any other Persons qualified in the manner directed by an Act made in the Forty second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for amending the Laws relating to the Militia in England, and for extending the Militia, so as to act in like manner as Deputy Lieutenants within the same: Provided always, that the said Warden may, with the Concurrence of any Meeting of Deputy Lieutenants, authorize the said Mayors, Jurats and Magistrates or Deputy Lieutenants, within each Part, Town, Liberty and Members, to issue their Orders to the respective Constables within the same, to return within a limited time Lists of all Persons liable to serve in the Local Militia for each Part, Town, Liberty and Member respectively, in the manner required by this Act, and by the said Act of the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or any Act relating to the Militia in England, and may appoint such times as may appear to him to be necessary and proper for the Returns and Notices to be made and given, conformably to the Directions of the said second Act and this Act; and for the holding other Meetings, and doing all Acts, Matters and Things, which may be necessary for carrying this Act into Execution within the Cinque Ports.

CLXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to order and direct a Local Militia to be ballotted and enrolled from among the Tenants or Minors of the Counties of Devon and Cornwall, not exceeding Eight hundred and twenty five private Men.

CLXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Warden of the Stannaries in Great Britain shall respectively, in Obedience to His Majesty's Orders to be issued for that Purpose, which His Majesty is hereby empowered to issue, procure all Matters to be done touching the Tenants of the Counties of Devon and Cornwall, according to the Customs of the Stannaries and Privileges of the Working Tenants, as are hereby or by any Act or Acts relating to the Tenants or Minors of Cornwall, or to the Militia, required to be done by the Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants aforesaid, touching other Persons residing in the said Counties of Devon and Cornwall not settled to the Benefit of such Privileges; and such Warden, Special Deputy Warden, and other Officers of the Stannaries, shall have such and the like Powers and Authorities to do and execute all and every the Matters and Things which shall be so required to be done as aforesaid, as the Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants of the several Counties have for doing the several Matters and Things hereby required to be done by them respectively.

CLXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Classes, Professions, Powers, Authorities, Matters and Things contained in an Act passed in the Forty second Year of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act for raising a Body of Minors in the Counties of Cornwall and Devon, for the Defence of the Kingdom, during the present War; and for the more effectually raising and regulating a Body of Minors for the Defence of Great Britain, relative to raising and regulating a Body of Minors within the Stannaries, in the Counties of Devon and Cornwall shall in all cases in which other Provisions are not made by this Act, be applied, practised, and put in force, in all respects, for raising the Local Militia Men to be raised out of the Tenants and Minors within the said Stannaries under this Act, as fully and effectually as if the said Act and this Act were consolidated into one Act.

CLXIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to order and direct a permanent Local Militia to be ballotted and enrolled under this Act in the Tower Hamlets and Liberties of the Tower, not exceeding Four thousand four hundred and eighty private Men, and such Local Militia shall be ballotted and enrolled at such Period as His Majesty shall by any such Warrant as aforesaid, direct; and all and every the Classes, Professions, Powers, Authorities, Matters and Things, contained in Two Acts made in the Thirty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, or in any other Act or Acts relating to raising the Militia of the Tower Hamlets and Liberty of the Tower, together with all Classes, Powers, Privileges and Authorities contained in an Act made in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, intitled, An Act to enable His Majesty more effectually to raise and settle in England an additional Military Force for the better Defence and Security of the United Kingdom, and for the more express Prosecution of the War, for raising the Men to be raised therein under that Act, shall be applied, practised and put in force in all respects, for raising the Men to be raised thereon under this Act, as fully and effectually as if the said Acts and this Act were consolidated into one Act.

CLXX. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to repeal any of the Provisions of the said Two several Acts of the Thirty seventh Year aforesaid, other than as any new and additional Fees, Penalties and Powers in this Act contained may be applicable and necessary for the raising the Men by this Act directed to be raised in the Tower Hamlets.

CLXXI. And whereas for the different Ranges in the Counties of Sussex and East Kent, there are no Peace Officers who can act officially for such Ranges: And whereas the Ranges in the said Counties are the most important Districts to be appointed to the Subdivisions for the Deputy Lieutenants to execute the several Purposes directed by this Act, and do contain within their Boundaries several Hundreds, to each of which there is a Peace Officer belonging: And whereas the Barons and Tythings over which there are Headboroughs, Tythings or other Peace Officers, are certain in their Boundaries, and often include Parts of several Parishes, from which great Inconveniences arise both in hallooing for the Men to be drawn by Lot for the Service of the said Militia, and also in the Payment of the Money directed to be paid by the Parishes to those who may be allotted to serve: And whereas it would be more expedient that the hallooing for Men to serve in the said Militia for the Counties of Sussex and Kent should be by the Division of Parishes, to which Mayors, &c. of Cinque Ports, &c. may act as Deputy Lieutenants, and Warden may appoint other qualified Persons to do, &c. 43 G. 2. c. 30.

A Lord High Steward, or Chief Justice of the Bench, or any other Person, by Order of His Majesty, in process of Law, may be done touching the Militia.

43 G. 2. c. 30. in regard to this Act.

Magistrates and Overseers of the Peace of each County or Borough or Town or City or Village or Hamlet or Place shall be sworn before the Justice of the Peace of the County or Borough or Town or City or Village or
Hamlet or Place.

* Besides the several Peace Officers, Be it then further enacted, That the Constables and Overseers of the Poor of the several Parishes in the said County or Shire, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed the Officers of such Parishes, and shall be treated with the same Powers and Authorities, and be liable to the same Penalties, Fines and Imprisonments, as the Constable, Tythingmen, Headborough or other Officer of any Parish, Tything or Place is treated with, or is liable to, by virtue of this Act.

CLXXII. And be it further enacted, That every County, Hundred or Parish for which the full Number of Men required by any Order of His Majesty under this Act shall not have been allowed and enrolled before the Fourteenth Day of February succeeding such Order, if given Three Months before such Fourteenth Day of February, or in which any Indictments or Warrants arising on such Local Militia shall not be filed up before the Fourteenth Day of February after the same shall have notice, if the same shall have notice Three Months before such Fourteenth Day of February, shall be subject to a Fine of Fifteen Pounds for every Man remaining deficient.

CLXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Parish or Place in which such Fine shall have notice, and in which such Deficiency shall be thereafter supplied, shall be entitled to demand or have a Return of Two third Parts of any such Fine of Fifteen Pounds for every Man enrolled before the Fourteenth Day of March, and One third Part of every such Fine of Fifteen Pounds for every Man enrolled before the First Day of April, after any such Fine shall have been as aforesaid.

CLXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Constables and other Officers of all Parishes and Places for which any Local Militia Men shall be levied, shall make diligent Enquiry as to all Men enrolled as the Local Militia, for the Parishes or Places for which they shall respectively be Constables, and shall, before the Fourteenth Day of November in each Year, return to the Clerk of the Subdivision within which such Parishes or Places shall be, a true Account of all Persons living for such Parish or Place in the Local Militia, specifying such as shall have died or left their residence, and whether the Persons not then residing in such Parish or Place shall have dwelt, left such Parish or Place, or shall still remain any House, Residence or Lodgings, in such Parish or Place, and also the Place to which such Persons shall have gone as have changed their Residences, if the same can be ascertained; and every Constable who shall neglect or refuse to make any such Return, or shall wilfully make any false Return, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds.

CLXXV. And be it further enacted, That the respective Commandants of the Regiments of Local Militia in England shall, within Fourteen Days after the Fourteenth Day of February in each Year, transmit to the Clerk of the Peace to be had before Justices of the Peace or Magistrates assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace and after the First Day of March in each Year, Certificates of the Number of Men then remaining deficient in their respective Regiments, designating the Period for which such Deficiencies as aforesaid have existed, by what Causes occasioned, and for what District, Division or Parish.

CLXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Justices of the Peace and Magistrates of every such County, Riding and Place, assembled at the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held next after the First Day of March in each Year doth, upon the Receipt of the aforesaid Certificates of the Commandant, which Certificates be hereby required to transmit to the Clerk of the Peace for such County, Riding or Place, in order to be laid before the said Justices and Magistrates respectively at such Sessions, view and assess the said Sum of Fifteen Pounds per Man as aforesaid upon every such County, Riding or Place.

CLXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Justices and Magistrates assembled in making any such Rate and Assessment upon the Whole of any County, Riding or Place, shall apportion the same to be assessed as aforesaid, and rate and assess the same upon the several Parishes and Tythings in such County, Riding or Place, in the same Proportions as which the Men for the Local Militia are required to be raised by such Parishes and Tythings respectively, according to such Apportionment as may have been made thereof in pursuance of this Act, or to the last Apportionment that shall have been made of Men to be raised by such Parish and Tything.

CLXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That when in any County, Riding or Place, such Deficiency of Men shall arise from the Death of any particular Parish or Tything, or Parishes or Tythings, in such County, Riding or Place, in not rating the Proportions or respective Proportions of Men required to be raised by any such Parish or Tything, or Parishes or Tythings, then and in such cases the said Justices and Magistrates, in making such Rate and Assessment as aforesaid, shall rate and assess all and every such Sum and Sums of Money upon such Parish or Tything, or Parishes or Tythings, (but shall have no made Defects as aforesaid, in Proportion to the Number of Men by which each of such Parishes or Tythings shall fall short of the Number of Men required to be raised therein.

CLXXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Justices and Magistrates of the several Counties, Ridings and Places, where any such Rate and Assessment shall be made as aforesaid, shall, immediately after the First Day of April in or following the making of any such Rate and Assessment as aforesaid, transmit or cause to be transmitted the several Amounts of the Sums so assessed upon the several Parishes and Tythings, to the respective Clerks of the Subdivision to which Parishes or Tythings respectively belong, and also a Duplicate thereof to the Secretary at War; and such Clerks of Subdivisions shall within Ten Days after the Receipt thereof, make Notice thereof to be given to the respective Officers of the Poor of the several Parishes and Tythings upon which any such Rate and Assessment shall have been made as aforesaid; and such Officers shall, within Fourteen Days after such Notice as aforesaid of such Rate or Assessment, pay the Amount of the Rate or Assessment made upon their respective Parishes or Tythings, out of any Money in their or any of their Hands, of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor; and if they or any of them shall not have sufficient of such Money for that Purpose, then such Officers shall and they are hereby required to make a Rate sufficient to satisfy such Rate and Assessment: and it shall be lawful for the said Officers to levy and collect the same in such manner as Rates made for the Relief of the Poor, or any other Rates made for the Purpose of this Act, may be levied and collected.

CLXXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever any Sum shall have been so levied upon any Parish or Place for Money certified to be deficient upon the Fourteenth Day of February, it shall nevertheless be lawful for any Deputy Lieutenant acting for the Subdivision in which such Parish may be situated, in all cases in which any Man shall have been subsequently certified to supply such Deficiency, to certify to the Clerk of such Subdivision the Date of such Enrolments respectively; and if it shall appear from that Certificate that such Man were enrolled before the Fourteenth Day of March or the Full Day of April, it shall be lawful for the Clerk of such Subdivision and he is hereby required to remit to every such Parish such Two third or One third Part of such Fine respectively as is respectively directed as to be returned to such Parish for every Man enrolled before the Fourteenth Day of March or the Full Day of April respectively; and the Overseers of the Poor of such Parish are hereby authorized to make a Deduction of Two thirds or One third Part of such Fine (in the same way) from the Amount of the Assessment made upon such Parish for every Man so enrolled to have been made before the Fourteenth Day of March or the Full Day of April respectively.

CLXXXI. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk or Clerks of such Subdivisions receiving any such Sum or Sums of Money, shall within Ten Days after the Receipt thereof, remit the Amount thereof to the Bank of England, to be placed to the Account of the Agent General for the Local Militia; and during the Period of Three Months from such Full Day of April next succeeding the raising of any such Rate and Assessment as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any Deputy Lieutenant of the Subdivision of the said County, Riding or Place, within which such Parish, Township or Place shall be situate, to call any Volunteer or Volunteers for such Local Militia, in lieu of such Man or Men as shall be so deficient as aforesaid, and to agree with every such Volunteer for a Bonus not exceeding the Sum of Two Guineas, and the Deputy Lieutenant before whom any such Volunteer shall be duly examined, approved, sworn and enrolled to give in the Local Militia, shall transmit a Certificate of such Enrolment to the Agent General, and upon the Production to the said Agent General of such a Certificate under the Hands of such Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, of any such Volunteer having been duly examined, approved, sworn and enrolled to serve in the Local Militia, and of a Certificate under the Hands of the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia of such County, Riding or Place, of such Man having joined his Regiment, Battalion or Corps, the said Agent General shall, and he is hereby required under the Direction of the Secretary at War to pay out of such Money he has in Hand as aforesaid, any Sum of Money not exceeding the full Sum of Two Guineas for each of such Volunteers as aforesaid.

CLXXXII. And whereas there are several Cities, Towns and Places which do not contribute to the Payment of the said Rate called The County Rate, and Districts may arise whether such Cities, Towns and Places, can be legally used or applied towards the Payment of the Rate or Assessment to be had as provided in this Act: Be it therefore enacted, That in all cases where the Local Militia shall not be raised within any City, Town or Place, not rated to the County Rate, the Proprietors of the said Sum of Fifteen Pounds per Man, to be borne by such City, Town or Place, shall be called, levied and collected within such City, Town or Place, by a separate Rate or Assessment, in like manner, by the Overseers of the Poor, and by such and the like ways and means as the Rates for the Relief of the Poor are or may be raised, levied and collected; and such Overseers of the Poor shall from time to time pay over the same to the Clerk of the Subdivision in which such City, Town or Place shall be joined or rated, for the Purpose of raising the said Local Militia.

CLXXXIII. And whereas there are some Towns which lie in Two Counties or Ridings, and Districts may arise whether such Towns are obliged to pay to both Counties or Ridings towards raising the said Money: Be it therefore further enacted, That where any Town lies in Two Counties or Ridings, or Part thereof in a County, and Part in a Riding, the Proprietors of the said Money to be paid for such Town, in lieu of raising the Local Militia as aforesaid, shall be paid to the Clerk of the Subdivision of the County or Riding wherein the Church of such Town is situate.

CLXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Sum of Money which ought to be paid by any City, Town or Place, not rated to the County Rate as aforesaid, shall not be paid to the Clerk of the Subdivision as aforesaid, before the Full Day of June in every Year, the Justices of the Peace for such County, Riding or Place, shall, at their next Magistrate Quarter Sessions, and there are hereby required (by their Warrants, directed to any Constable or Tythingman of every such Parish and Division) to cause the Sum due from such Parish under this Act, by notice of such Man not being rated as aforesaid, to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the respective Overseers of the Poor of every such Parish and Division, including the Overseers (if any) to the Owners of such Goods and Chattels, after such Money, and the reasonable Charges attending such Distress and Sale, shall be fully paid and satisfied; and all such Overseers of the Poor shall be reimbursed the Money so levied on them respectively, by the same ways and means as Overseers of the Poor are reimbursed the Money by them expended for the Relief of the Poor by the Laws now in being, and may make a Rate for that Purpose if necessary.

CLXXXV. And be it further enacted, That the Agent General into whose Hands or to whose Account any such Money shall be paid, shall give a Receipt for such Money to the Parish or Parishes paying the same, which Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge for such Payment; and that when the whole Sum directed to be raised in any County, Riding or Place as aforesaid, shall be paid into the Hands of the Agent General, or to his Account at the Bank, in pursuance of this Act, such Payment shall be a full Discharge and Indemnification to such County, Riding or Place, for the Failure or Neglect in raising and raising the Number of Men in the Local Militia for the Year in respect whereof such Payment shall be made; and the Money so paid

CLXXXVI. Provided always, and he it farther enacted, That every Clerk of Subsidies to whom any such Money shall be paid as aforesaid, shall be allowed for his Pains and Trouble the Sum of One Penny in the Pound, upon the whole Sum as by him received and paid; which Allowance every such Clerk of Subsidies is hereby authorized to detain in his Hands out of the Money so received by him, before Payment made to the Agent General as aforesaid; and every High Constable, Petty Constable, Churchwarden and Overseer of the Poor, who shall sit in the raising and collecting of the said Money, shall respectively be allowed and paid by such Clerk of Subsidies, as a Recompence for their Trouble therein, the Sum of One Penny in the Pound of all such Money, in the raising and collecting whereof they shall respectively sit as aforesaid; and such Clerk of Subsidies is hereby authorized and required to deduct the same out of the Money so received by him as aforesaid, and to pay the respective Proportions thereof to such High Constables or other Officers aforesaid.

CLXXXVII. And he it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace for every County, Riding or Place, shall and he is hereby required, within Fourteen Days next after the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held next after the Twenty fifth Day of December, yearly, to transmit to the Secretary at War a Copy signed by such Clerk of the Peace, of every Certificate which he shall have received from the Commandants of the several Regiments of Local Militia in such County, Riding or Place as aforesaid; and where such Certificates shall be omitted to be delivered, the Clerk of the Peace shall certify such Omissions to the Secretary at War, and that such Clerk of the Peace hath certified the same to the Justices at such General Quarter Sessions, and required such Justices to proceed according to the Directions of this Act, and such Clerk of the Peace shall also certify when Proceedings have been had at such General Quarter Sessions, in relation to the raising and raising of the said Money, where the Local Militia shall not have been raised; and in case such Justices shall omit, neglect or refuse to proceed to raise the said Money, according to the Directions of this Act, then the Clerk of the Peace of such County, Riding or Place, shall and is hereby required within Fourteen Days next after such General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to certify to the Secretary at War, such Omission, Neglect or Refusal of such Justices, and the Names of the Justices who shall be present at such Sessions; and the Secretary at War is hereby empowered and required, on Receipt of such Certificates, forthwith to give Directions to the Solicitor of the Treasury to proceed by all such legal ways and means as shall be most effectual and expedient, to compel such Justices to pay due Obedience to this Act, and to cause the said Money to be raised, collected and paid.

CLXXXVIII. And he it further enacted, That if the said Sum of Fifteen Pence per Man, to be raised and paid as in any such County, Riding or Place as aforesaid, shall not be levied, collected and paid into the Hands of the Agent General, or to his Account at the Bank, in manner herebefore directed, the Solicitor of the Treasury is hereby required, forthwith upon Knowledge or Information thereof, to proceed, by all such legal ways and means as shall be most effectual and expedient, to compel the levying and collecting of such Money and the Payment thereof into the Hands of the Agent General, or to his Account at the Bank, as aforesaid.

CLXXXIX. And he it further enacted, That if any Clerk of the Peace shall refuse or wilfully neglect to receive, deliver, file, make, send or transmit any such Certificates as aforesaid, according to the Directions and true Meaning of this Act, every such Clerk of the Peace so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and shall also forfeit his Office, and be rendered incapable of having, receiving or holding any Office of Trust, Civil or Military, under the Crown; and if any Clerk of Subsidies, Chief Constable, Petty Constable or other Officer who ought to sit and sit in the raising and collecting of the said Money, shall wilfully omit or neglect or refuse to sit or sit therein, according to the Directions and true Meaning of this Act, every such Clerk of Subsidies so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and every such Chief Constable so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and every such Petty Constable and other Officer so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and the Solicitor of the Treasury shall and he is hereby required, when directed so to do by the Secretary at War as aforesaid, with all due Diligence, to prosecute with Effect all such Justices of the Peace, Clerks of Subsidies, and other Officers, who shall omit, neglect or refuse to perform the Duty required of them respectively by this Act, touching the raising, collecting and paying of the said Money; and in case the Solicitor of the Treasury shall wilfully omit or delay to proceed against any such Justices of the Peace, Clerks of Subsidies or other Officers aforesaid, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

CXC. And he it further enacted, That every Person who shall give under this Act, whose Assent is any Rate to be made or levied for the Purpose of the Payment of any Taxes under this Act, shall be made on any Property not exceeding in annual Value, according to the Valuation on which such Rate shall be made, the Sum of Twenty Pounds, shall be wholly exempt from such Rate; and every such Person whose Assent shall be made on any such Property, exceeding in annual Value as aforesaid such Sum of Twenty Pounds, shall by reason of such Service be exempt as to such Property to the Amount of such Sum of Twenty Pounds, and be rated in such Rate only on the Amount by which such Property shall exceed such several Sum of Twenty Pounds as aforesaid; and if any Person shall cheat himself or herself aggrieved by any such Rate as aforesaid, such Person may appeal to the next General or Quarter Sessions, in such manner as is provided in writ of Appeal against Rates for the Relief of the Poor.

CICL. And

CKCL. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of Subdivision Meetings shall, if required so to do by the Deputy Lieutenants assembled at any General or Subdivision Meeting, give Security by Bond to His Majesty, with Two sufficient Sureties, in such Form as the Deputy Lieutenants shall see, for duly accounting for and receiving all Moneys paid into his Hands under the Provisions of this Act.

CKCLII. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of Subdivision Meetings shall keep an Account, in the Form to this Act annexed, marked (H) or in such other Form as may from time to time be directed for that Purpose by the Secretary at War, of all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures from time to time received by him, and also of all Sums allowed to any Individuals, Companies, Hundreds or Parishes, by virtue of any Fine or Penalty, or Pardon of any Fine or Penalty, being received under the Provisions of this Act; and the Deputy Lieutenants or Justice attending at the time of any such Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture being imposed or remitted, or any Two of them, shall and they are hereby required to certify the same to be correct, and the Clerk of Subdivision Meetings shall verify the same upon Oath, which Oath any One Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace is authorized to administer, and shall transmit to the Secretary at War such Account made up to the Twenty fourth Day of December in each Year, or to such other Period as the Secretary at War shall direct.

CKCLIII. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of Subdivision Meetings shall and is hereby required within Seven Days after the Twenty fourth Day of March, June, September and December, respectively in each Year, or otherwise if required, to transmit an Account to the Secretary at War for the time being, of all Sums received by him and remitted to the Bank of England, to the Account of the said Agent General, for the Purpose of this Act, verified upon Oath before One Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace, which Oath any such Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace is hereby authorized to administer, and made in the Form of the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (I.) or such other Form as may from time to time be prescribed in that behalf by the Secretary at War.

CKCLIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in all cases in which it is in this Act directed and required that any Return or List should be made, or any Notice given, or any Fine, Penalty, Forfeiture or other Money remitted by any Clerk of the Peace, or by any Clerk of General or Subdivision Meetings, or by any Overseer, or by any Colonel-Commandant or other Officer of Local Militia, every such Clerk of the Peace or other Person as aforesaid, who shall omit, neglect or refuse, or willfully do any wrong, any such Return or List, or giving any such Notice, or receiving any such Fine, Penalty, Forfeiture or other Money as aforesaid, in the manner directed by this Act, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds: Provided always, that nothing herein shall be construed to extend to any case in which any Fine, Penalty or Forfeiture may already be exacted for any such Offence by the Provisions of this Act.

CKCV. And be it further enacted, That the Acceptance of a Commission in the Local Militia shall not vacate the Seat of any Member returned to serve in Parliament.

CKCXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, Drummer, or private Man of the Local Militia, shall be liable to any Penalty or Punishment for or on Account of his Absence during the time he shall be going to vote at any Election of a Member to serve in Parliament, or during the time he shall be returning from such Election.

CKCXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Sergeant, Corporal or Drumsman of the Local Militia, or any private Man, from the time of his Enrolment until he shall be regularly discharged from the Local Militia, shall be compelled to serve as a Peace Officer or Parish Officer.

CKCXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person having served in the Local Militia when drawn out into actual Service, being a married Man, may set up and exercise any Trade in any Town or Place within Great Britain, without any Let, Suit or Molestation of or from any Person or Persons whatsoever, for or by reason of his serving or exercising such Trade, so long and so far as the same Provisions, and under the same Regulations, and with the like Exceptions in respect to the Two Universities, as any Munner or Soldier can or may do by virtue of an Act passed in the Twenty fourth Year of His present Majesty's reign, entitled An Act to enable such Officers, Mariners, and Soldiers, as have been in the Land or Sea Service, or in the Armies, or in the Militia, or any Corps of Frontiers Men, since the second Year of His present Majesty's reign, to exercise Trades; and no such Local Militia Man shall be liable to be removed out of any such Town or Place, until he is become chargeable to the Parish.

CKCXIX. And be it further enacted, That no Commission granted before the passing of this Act, or which shall be granted after the passing of this Act, to any Officer of the Local Militia, shall be subject to any Stamp Duty.

CC. And be it further enacted, That all Bills, Drafts and Orders drawn for the Pay or Allowance of the Local Militia, and also all Bills, Drafts and Orders, by which any Sums of Money or Fines are remitted to the Bank of England, or the Agent General, or any Person or Persons authorized by the Secretary at War to receive Money on Account of the Local Militia, may and shall be drawn upon unstamped Paper; and no such Bill, Draft or Order, shall be void by reason of not being so drawn or written on stamped Paper; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

CCI. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, which shall exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, shall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plea or Information, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or the Courts of Great Sessions in the Principality of Wales, or the Courts of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster and Durham (in the case last aforesaid) whereas in Elections, Privileges, Protection, Wager of Law or more than One Impoundment shall be allowed; and that all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, by this Act imposed, which shall not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds, shall, as Proof of the Offence either by voluntary Confession of the Party, or by the Oath of One or more credible

CCVI. And be it further enacted, That no Order of Conviction made by any Lieutenant of any County, Riding or Place, or by any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants, or by any One Deputy Lieutenant together with any One Justice of the Peace, or by any Justice or Justices of the Peace, by virtue of this Act, shall be removed by Certiorari out of the County, Riding, Division, City, Town or Place where such Order or Conviction shall have been made, into any Court whatsoever; and that no Writ of Certiorari shall supersede Execution or other Proceedings upon any such Order or Conviction so made in performance of this Act; but that Execution and other Proceedings shall be had and made thereupon, any such Writ or Writs, or Allocations thereof notwithstanding.

CCVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action shall be brought against any Person or Persons for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suits shall be commenced within Six Months next after the Fact committed and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County, Riding or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit, may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be non-suited, or discontinue his, her or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if, upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the full Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath in other cases to recover Costs by Law.

CCVIII. And be it further enacted, That all Provisions, Directions, Clauses, Matters and Things whatsoever in this Act contained, relating to Counties, shall extend and be construed to extend to all Ridings, Shires, Divisions, Cities and Places; and all Provisions, Directions, Clauses, Matters and Things in this Act contained, relating to Hundreds, shall extend and be construed to extend to all Hundreds, Lathes, Wapentakes and other Divisions in or of any such County, Riding, Division, Shire, City or Place; and all Provisions, Directions, Clauses, Matters and Things in this Act contained, relating to Parishes, shall extend and be construed to extend to all Townships, Tythings and Places, and to all Extra-parochial Places named therein, for the Purpose of any Act relating to the Militia; and all Powers by this Act given to any Constable shall extend to all Tythingmen, Headboroughs, Peace Officers and other Persons acting as Constables in any Counties, Hundreds, Parishes and Places in which there shall be no Constable, as fully and amply as if they were severally and respectively appointed to every such Provision, Direction and Clause, and with relation to every such Matter or Thing.

CCVIII. A. 6d

CCVIII. And be it further enacted, That any Person taking a false Oath in any case when an Oath is required to be taken by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of wilful and corrupt Perjury, and being thereof duly convicted, he shall be liable to such Pains and Penalties as by any Law now in force any Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are liable to.

CCIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in the next Session of Parliament.

C A P. XXXIX.

An Act for the more effectual Regulation of Pilots, and of the Pilotage of Ships and Vessels on the Coast of England.

[To be April 1811.]

WHEREAS Ships and Vessels have frequently been wrecked, and many Lives and much Property have been lost, from the Ignorance or Misconduct of Persons taking charge of such Ships or Vessels as Pilots; And whereas the Corporation of Trinity House of Dorset Strand have, as well by Writs for more than Three Centuries, as by Grants from the Crown, and under the Authority of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, been empowered to appoint Pilots, Leadmen or Guides, to conduct Ships or Vessels into and out of and upon the River of Thames, through the North Channel or by Oysterburgh, and round the Long Sand Head, through the Queen's Channel or other Channels into the Downs, and from and by Oysterburgh, and up the North Channel, and up the River Thames and Medway, and the several Creeks and Channels belonging or adjoining into the same; and to make such Orders and Constitutions as should be useful for the wholesome Government of Seafaring Men, and Maintenance and Increase of Navigation, and of all Seafaring Men within the said River of Thames; in pursuance of which Powers the said Corporation have from time to time appointed a sufficient Number of Pilots for the Purposes before mentioned: And whereas these last have, time out of Mind, and now as a Society or Fellowship of Pilots of the Trinity House of Dover, Deal and the Isle of Thanet, who have had the Pilots and Leadsmen of all Ships from the said Places up the River Thames and Medway, which said Society or Fellowship have been confirmed by various Acts of Parliament for regulating the Pilots of the Society or Fellowship of Pilots of Dover, Deal and the Isle of Thanet, commonly called Coast Port Pilots; notwithstanding which, many Persons not having License or Authority, or competent Knowledge or Experience, have taken upon themselves to act as Pilots for conducting Ships or Vessels to and from and upon the said Rivers, to the great Hazard of such Ships or Vessels, and the Lives of their Crews: And whereas the Provisions of the said Acts have been found inadequate to the Regulation of Pilotage, and the Prevention of such Mischiefs, and it is therefore necessary that further and more effectual Regulations should be made for that Purpose, and that all the Provisions and Regulations relating to the several Duties of Pilots should be repealed: And whereas Acts of Parliament have been passed for establishing separate and peculiar Jurisdictions in relation to Pilotage in certain Ports, and on different Parts of the Coast of England, which, by reason of the same being limited, have been found insufficient to answer the good Purposes intended thereby; and it is therefore necessary that more effectual Regulations should be made in relation to Pilotage on the Coast of England: And whereas an Act was passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for the better Regulation of Pilots, and of the Pilotage of Ships and Vessels navigating the British Seas, which is now now expiring; and it is expedient that the same should be continued, with Alterations and Amendments, as is hereinafter enacted: And whereas it is necessary for duly enforcing the Laws respecting Government, or which the Health of His Majesty's Subjects essentially depends, that the Names and Places of Residence of all Pilots in England should be known by their whole Duty it is to convey Information respecting these Laws from time to time to them: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, so far as the same relates to any Rates of Pilotage due or to become due, or to any Penalty or Forfeiture incurred or to be incurred, or any other Act, Matter or Thing done or to be done before the Commencement of the Operation of any of the Provisions of that Act, in relation to any such Matters as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby continued; and that all and every the Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters and Things relating as well to Pilots appointed by the said Corporation of Trinity House of Dorset Strand, as to Pilots of Dover, Deal and the Isle of Thanet, and to the Pilotage by and Regulation of all such Pilots as aforesaid, and also to the Control of all Persons in Matters of Pilotage within the Jurisdiction of the said Corporation of the Trinity House of Dorset Strand, and the Liberty of the Coast Ports, which was contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, heretofore made, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Master Warden and Assistants of the Guild, Fellowship or Brotherhood of the Most Excellent and Unobdurate Trinity, and of Saint Clement in the Parish of Dorset Strand in the County of Kent, (commonly called The Corporation of Trinity House of Dorset Strand) and they or he by request in opposition and in itself, under their Common Seal, fit and competent Persons, duly sworn as Pilots, for the Purpose of conducting all Ships and Vessels sailing, navigating and plying up and down, or upon the River of Thames and Medway, and all and every the several Channels, Creeks and Docks thereof or thereto, or landing or adjoining thereto, as well between Oysterburgh and London Bridge, as from London Bridge to the Danish, and from the Danish Wharfed as far as the Isle of Wight, and in the English Channel from the Isle of Wight up to London Bridge: And, that from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, and Constable of Dover Castle, or his Lieutenant for the time being, and they are hereby required to appoint and in itself fit and competent Persons, duly sworn as Pilots, for the Purpose of conducting all Ships and Vessels sailing, navigating and plying from the Westward up the River Thames and Medway; that is to say, from Dungeness up to London Bridge and Reynolds Bridge, and from the Bury of the Brick to the Westward; that is to say, from the said Bury to the West End of the Owers; all which Vessels shall be appointed and piloted by such Pilots as appointed and licensed, and by no other Pilots or Persons whomsoever; and also save and except as well all Colliers as also all Ships and Vessels trading to Norway, and to the Catagay and Sable, and likewise round the North Cape, and into the White Sea; and save and except all constant Tenders towards from the Ports between Amoy inclusive and the Siberia, such Ships and Vessels having British Registers, and coming up the North Channel by Ostend, but not otherwise; and likewise save and except all coasting Vessels, and all British Tenders using the Navigation of the River Thames as Coasters; Provided always, that it shall be lawful after the passing of this Act, for any Pilot or Pilots heretofore appointed by the said Corporation of Trinity House of Dorsetshire Strand, or by the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports and Countable of Dover Castle for the time being, or his Lieutenant for the time being, to pilot or conduct any Ship or Vessel within such Limits as such Pilot or Pilots might lawfully have conducted and piloted the same before the passing of this Act, under and by virtue of the Licenses or Authorities granted to such Pilots respectively as aforesaid; which respective Licenses shall continue in force notwithstanding this Act, so that such Pilots respectively do in all things conform themselves to the Provisions of this Act, and the Rules and Regulations to be established under the same.

Foreign.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the respective Rates or Prices hereinafter enumerated in the Table marked (A.) in the Schedule to this Act annexed, may be lawfully demanded and received by any Pilot licensed by the said Corporation of Trinity House of Dorsetshire Strand, for the piloting or conducting of any Ship or Vessel from Pier to Place, as expressed in the said Table, and that no greater Rates or Prices, or other Reward or Emolument shall, under any Pretence whatsoever, be demanded, solicited or received, than such Rates or Prices.

Rates demanded by Pilots.

IV. And be it further enacted, That each and every Pilot already appointed, or to be appointed by the said Corporation of Trinity House of Dorsetshire Strand, under the Authority of this Act (except only such Pilots as shall be appointed by the said Corporation upon their receiving Certificates of Examination, by any Sub-Commissioners of Pilotage as hereby directed) shall from time to time, and at all times hereafter, pay or cause to be paid to the said Corporation of Trinity House of Dorsetshire Strand, or to such Person or Persons as they shall appoint to receive the same on their behalf, the Sum of Three Guineas in the Month of January yearly, which Payment shall be accepted by the said Corporation in Lien and Satisfaction of and for all the ancient and accustomed Duties payable by such Pilots to the said Corporation, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, or any other Statute or Charter whatsoever, and shall be applied for the Use and Benefit of the Poor of the said Corporation, (after first defraying thereout the Expenses incurred by the said Corporation from time to time in carrying this Act into Execution); and in case such annual Payment shall not be duly made by the said Pilots respectively, it shall be lawful for the said Corporation to compel the Persons so making Default from adding as Penalties, until due Payment shall be made of such annual Sums.

Pilots to pay yearly Three Guineas to Corporation of Trinity House.

Penalty.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be licensed by the said Corporation of Trinity House of Dorsetshire Strand, as a Pilot for the Rivers of Thames or Medway, or the Channel leading thereto and thitherward, under the Provisions of this Act, who shall not have served as Mate for Three Years on board a square rigged Vessel, or shall not have been in the actual Command of a square rigged Vessel for One Year, or who shall not have been employed in the Pilot Service of the Corporation of Trinity House of Dorsetshire Strand for Seven Years, or who shall not have served as Apprenticeship of Five Years in some Pilot Vessel licensed under this Act; and that no Person shall be so licensed, or be allowed until after Three Years License and Service, to take charge as a Pilot of any Ship or Vessel drawing more than Fourteen Feet Water, in the River Thames or Medway, or any of the Channels thereof, and such Person shall have been licensed, and shall have acted as a Pilot for Three Years under lawful Authority, or Paid of Licencing Fees for every such Office, as well by the Persons acting as such Pilot, as also by the Master or Commanders, or other Persons having charge of such Ship or Vessel, who shall permit any such Person to take charge as a Pilot of the same, contrary to the Provisions aforesaid.

No Person licensed as Pilot by Trinity House, except he have been four full, or taken charge of a Ship drawing more than 14 feet Water.

Penalty.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall, from and after the passing of this Act, take Charge of any Ship or Vessel, as a Pilot belonging to the Society or Fellowship of Pilots of Dover, Deal and the Isle of Thanet, commonly called Cinque Port Pilots, before he shall be examined by the Master and Two Wardens, or by Four Wardens of the said Society or Fellowship for the time being, touching his Abilities, and shall be approved and admitted into the Society or Fellowship of the Trinity House of Dover, Deal and the Isle of Thanet, by the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports and Countable of Dover Castle for the time being, or his Lieutenant for the time being; and if any Person shall presume to act as a Pilot belonging to the said Society or Fellowship, without having been so examined, approved and admitted as aforesaid, every such Person shall for the First Offence forfeit Ten Pounds; for the Second, Twenty Pounds; and for every other Offence, Forty Pounds.

No Charge (over Pilot) shall take charge of Ship till he has been examined.

Penalty.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Person belonging as a Pilot to the Society or Fellowship of Pilots of Dover, Deal and the Isle of Thanet, commonly called Cinque Port Pilots, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be allowed to take Charge as a Pilot of any Ship or Vessel drawing more than Eleven Feet Six Inches Water, until he shall have been licensed and acted as a Pilot for Three Years, or of any Ship or Vessel drawing more than Fourteen Feet Water, until he shall have been licensed and acted as a Pilot for Two Years more, making Five Years in the Whole, or of any Ship or Vessel drawing more than Seventeen Feet Water, until he shall have been licensed and acted as a Pilot Two Years more, making Seven Years in the Whole; and at the Expiration of each Period of Seven Years, each Pilot shall be again examined as to his Fitness and Competency, and if he shall be approved of in such Examination and licensed, shall be permitted and allowed and entitled to take Charge of any Ships or Vessels of any Draft of Water: Provided Pilot of lower Class allowed to take charge of Ships of greater Draught than Licencing at Office of Pilots of higher Class.

always, that in case of the Absence of Pilots who have been licensed and have acted as such for the Term of Three Years and upwards, Five Years and upwards, and Seven Years and upwards respectively, the Pilots in the lower Clauses may take Charge of Ships drawing more Water than herebefore specified for their respective Years of Service, and shall not in such case be liable to any Penalties for so doing; nor shall the Masters of the Ships who may take any such Pilot on board in the Absence of the Pilots of the upper Clauses, nor the Owners of such Ships, be answerable for any Loss or Damage, nor shall any Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel, or Consignee of Goods, be prevented from recovering any Loss or Damage upon any Contract of Insurances of the same, or upon any other Contract relating to any such Ship or Vessel, or any Cargo on board the same, by reason of such Pilots being so employed in their Ships in the Absence of the others: Provided always, that in any such Case the proper Flag shall be kept flying, unless the Letters and Distances hereinafter mentioned, and for the Period of One Month after the Vessel shall have been at Anchor, as in this Act provided for Congee Port Pilots coming on board of any Vessel within such Letters; and the Master or Person commanding any such Ship or Vessel shall be subject to the Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act enacted for neglecting to keep a Pilot Signal flying accordingly, although he shall have agreed to take any such Pilot of a lower Class, in case of no other Pilot coming on board; and any Pilot having such Licence as shall qualify him to take Charge of any such Ship or Vessel on board of which any such Pilot of a lower Class shall be, shall be equall with such First, Letters and Distances as aforesaid, to supersede such Pilot of a lower Class.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Master, and each Warden of the said Society or Fellowship of Pilots of the Trinity Hoop of Devon, Deal and the City of Thames, as shall be appointed from time to time to examine into the Skill and Ability of any Person as his being set admitted as a Pilot into the said Society or Fellowship, or after he shall have been licensed and practised seven Years, shall take the Oath marked (C.) in the Schedule hereunto annexed, to be administered unto him by the Register of the Court of Admiralty, who is hereby authorized to administer such Oath.

IX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the respective Rates or Prices hereinafter enumerated as the Table marked (B.) in the Schedule in this Act annexed, may be lawfully demanded and received by any Pilot licensed by the Lord Warden of the Congee Ports and Counties of Devon and the City of London, or his Lieutenant for the time being, for the conducting of any Ship or Vessel from Place to Place, as expressed in the said Table; and that no greater Rates or Prices, or other Reward or Emolument, shall, under any Pretence whatsoever, be received, than such Rates or Prices.

X. And be it further enacted, That a proper and sufficient Number of Pilots of the Congee Ports, not less than Eighteen at any one time, and in Succession, from one to one, without Interruption or any unnecessary Delay, shall, at all convenient times, by Day and Night, constantly ply at Sea, or be absent, between the South Foreland and Dungeness, to take Charge of Ships and Vessels coming from the Westward; and proper Signals shall be established, to be made at and from Signal Houses now erected, or which may be erected on commanding Situations near to Dungeness, to give Notice of Fleets of Vessels coming from the Westward; and upon the making of any Signals, giving Notice of the Approach of any Fleet from the Westward, all Congee Port Pilots not on Duty at the time shall, according to such Rules and Regulations, as to Number, Rotation or otherwise, as herebefore or shall be made in that Behalf, forthwith prepare to go aboard, and shall go off in fullness of time to fall in with such Ships and Vessels, on pain of forfeiting, in case of Neglect herein, for the first Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and for the third Offence shall forfeit his Licence to act as such Pilot, and shall be rendered thereby incapable of acting thereafter as a Pilot.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the Master or other Person having the Command of any Ship or Vessel coming from the Westward, and bound to any Place in the River of Thames or Medway, not being a daily qualified Congee Port Pilot on board, shall, on the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel off Dungeness, and until he shall have passed the Buoy of the Brink, or a Line to be drawn from Sandness Castle to the said Buoy, (unless in the mean time he shall have received a proper Congee Port Pilot on board) display and keep flying the usual Signal for a Pilot to come on board; and if any duly qualified Congee Port Pilot shall be within hail, or approaching, and within Half a Mile, with the proper distinguishing Flag or Vane flying as his Vessel or Boat, the Master or other Person having the Command of such Ship or Vessel shall, by hoisting to in proper time, or shortening sail, or by all practicable means consistently with the Safety of the Ship or Vessel, facilitate such Pilot getting on board, and shall give the Charge of piloting his Ship or Vessel to such Congee Port Pilot; and every Person commanding any such Ship or Vessel, who shall not display and keep flying the usual Signal for a Pilot to come on board, from the time such Ship or Vessel shall have arrived off Dungeness, and until the Vessel shall have passed the Buoy of the Brink, or a Line to be drawn from Sandness Castle to the said Buoy (unless in the mean time a duly qualified Pilot shall have come on board) or who shall decline to take any such Congee Port Pilot on board, or to give such Charge of his Ship or Vessel to such Pilot, or who shall not hoist his proper sail or otherwise facilitate such Pilot coming on board as aforesaid, consistently with the Safety of the Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit and pay double the Amount of the Sum which would have been demanded for the Pilotage of such Ship or Vessel, and shall forfeit the further Sum or Two Pounds for every Fifty Tons Burthen of such Ship or Vessel: Provided always, that such additional Penalty of Five Pounds for every Fifty Tons, shall not in any case be paid for or recovered, until the Corporation of the Trinity Hoop, as in all cases in which Pilots licensed by or under the said Corporation shall be concerned, or until the said Lord Warden for the time being, or his Lieutenant for the time being, shall think fit so to authorize by written Certificate the Proceeding for such additional Penalty, as in all Cases in which Pilots by or under the said Lord Warden shall be concerned: Provided always, that if any Ship or Vessel bound to the River

Cinque Port Pilot may appear on board Ships or Vessels, with a License.

XII. And whereas great Convenience to Trade will arise by putting an End to the Usage of Cinque Port Pilots quitting Ships or Vessels at Greenwich, or elsewhere in the Thames or Medway, at their Discretion: Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, if any Cinque Port Pilot, taking Charge of any Ship or Vessel into the Thames or Medway, shall quit each Ship or Vessel at Greenwich, or in any other Part of the Thames, or in any Part of the Medway, before each Ship or Vessel shall have arrived at the Place to which each Ship or Vessel is bound in the said Rivers Thames or Medway respectively, without the Consent of the Captain or other Person having the Command thereof, unless some other duly qualified Pilot shall with such Consent come on board, and shall take the Charge and Conduct of each Ship or Vessel for the Residue of the Voyage to be performed, every such Pilot shall forfeit for every such Offence, all Pay or Reward to which he might be entitled for having conducted or piloted each Ship or Vessel into the Rivers Thames or Medway, and shall also be subject to each other Penalty or Punishment so, by virtue of any of the Provisions of this Act, or of the Rules and Regulations to be established in pursuance hereof, any Pilot shall be liable to for quitting a Ship or Vessel before the Ship arrives at her Place of Destination.

Cinque Port Pilot to quit Ship or Vessel before Arrival, without Consent of Master.

Penalty.

XIII. And whereas the Pilots of the Cinque Ports are divided into Two Classes, called the Upper and Lower Book Pilots: And whereas the proportion Cinque Port Pilots of the Lower Book to take Charge of Ships which heretofore would only be taken by Pilots of the Upper Book, will diminish the Profits of the Upper Book Pilots, and thereby the Profits of the Lower Book Pilots; and it is therefore reasonable that Compensation should be made by the Lower Book Pilots to the Profits who are at the same time Upper Book Pilots: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Consent of Landowners from time to time to settle the Amount of the Deductions to be made from the Rates received by Low or Book Pilots for taking Charge of Vessels of greater Depth of Water than they could heretofore by Law take, and at what Proportions, and in what manner, and to whom the same are to be paid, and how the same shall be applied in making Compensation to the proportion Upper Book Pilots for the Losses they may sustain by each Lower Book Pilot taking Charge of each Vessel as aforesaid; provided that such Deductions do to be fixed as aforesaid, shall from time to time be diminished and decreased as the proportion Sixty four Upper Book Pilots shall do, be superseded, or discontinued to all Pilots; and that such Deductions shall be taken and accepted in lieu of all other Allowances or Contributions whatsoever from the said Lower Book Pilots, except Tidney Money, Chicks Fees, and for Widows.

Grant of Land Compensation to Upper Book Pilots, by the Lower Book Pilots.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all Persons heretofore to all as Cinque Port Pilots shall from time to time, and at all times hereafter, be subject to the Regulation and Government of the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports and Coastable of Dover Castle for the time being; and the Master and Wardens of the said Society or Fellowship of Pilots of Dover Castle and the Use of Thames, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, Coastable of Dover Castle for the time being, his Lieutenant for the time being, and the Deputy Lieutenant for the time being, or either of them, with the Assent of the Commissioners of Land Revenue or the major Part of them present at an Assembly commonly called a Court of Land Revenue, to be hold by the said Lord Warden or his Deputy, shall, within Four Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, proceed to make and shall make sufficient Rules and Orders for enforcing the due Observance of the Provisions of this Act by all Cinque Port Pilots, and for providing for the good Government, orderly Attendance, and Regulation of all such Pilots, as well relating to the services of the said Pilots in going off to and taking Charge of and conducting and managing His Majesty's Ships and Vessels, and the Ships and Vessels in His Majesty's Employ, and also all Ships and Vessels whatever and whatsoever within the ports and adjacent Limits of each Place, or wherein they shall for the time being sit or lay, and for effectually securing the Performance of all the Duties and Services of such Pilots at all times; and from time to time to amend, alter or repeal all and every of each or any such Rules or Orders, or Bye-Laws, and to make such other Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations, as they shall deem fit and proper; and all such Rules and Regulations hereafter to be made shall, before the same are allowed to take Effect or become binding on any Person or Persons whatsoever, be forthwith printed and transmitted to the Custom House in London, and there hung up in some conspicuous Place in the Long Road of the said Custom House; and Notices shall be published in the Gazette, and also put up at the Custom House with the Cinque Ports, of each Bye-Law, Rule and Regulation, or any Alterations thereof, for Eighteen Months, in each Year, as any Person conceived thereof, whether as Owners or Masters of Ships, or Pilots or otherwise, may transmit to the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports or his Lieutenants, any Objections which they may have therein, for the Paraphrase of the same being shewed or explained; and if no Objections to the Rules and Regulations to made or altered shall be proposed by or on the Behalf of any Person or Persons within the Space of Thirty Days after the Notice shall have been given and made public in the manner herebefore provided, they shall have the same Force and Effect, in all Interests and Particulars, as all other Rules and Regulations in the Government of Pilots within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports have; but if any Objections shall be made, to the L. of Warden or his Lieutenant, by or on Behalf of any Person or Persons, to any Rule or Regulation, or any Alteration in any Rule or Regulation, of which Notice shall be given as aforesaid, within Thirty Days after the Publication thereof, then and in such case the Operation thereof shall be suspended until Further Order shall be had in His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, who are hereby summoned and required to hear, as well any Person who shall be deposed by the Court of Land Revenue, as by the Person or Persons objecting, and finally to decide as to the confirming, altering or repealing of such Rules.

Privy Council.

Division of
Act.

Rules or Regulations, which Decisions of the Privy Council shall be final and be binding on all Parties; and Copies thereof shall be delivered to every Member of the said Society, and also to every new Member of the said Society as his Election; and a Copy or Extract thereof shall be at all times in the Possession of every Pilot belonging to the Company Ports, as well those already admitted and licensed as all others hereafter to be licensed as such Pilots; and it shall be lawful for such Rules and Regulations to establish Rates of Payment out of such Surplus Earnings of the Lower Book Pilots, as may arise from their being allowed to take the higher Classes of Ships in the Address of Pilots of the Upper Book, under the Provisions of this Act, for the better Support and Maintenance of the Upper Book Pilots, and also Penalties and Forfeitures for the violating such Rules and Regulations, and better ordering of the said Pilots, and for imposing or depriving any of the said Pilots of their Licences for breaking such Rules or Orders, or omitting to do any thing required by the same to be done, or for acting in any way contrary to such Rules or Orders.

Such Rules not daily made and transmitted as directed, Privy

distributed.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if such Rules and Regulations in relation to Company Port Pilots shall not be made and transmitted as aforesaid within Four Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, or if such Rules and Regulations, when made and transmitted, shall appear to be in any material Point erroneous, defective or defective, it shall be lawful for any Owner of Ships, or other Person interested in the Matter of such Rules or Regulations, to apply to His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, who shall thereupon cause proper and sufficient Rules and Regulations to be drawn up for the Purposes aforesaid, in case no such Rules and Regulations shall have been made and transmitted as aforesaid, or shall amend, correct or change any such Rules and Regulations as shall have been made and transmitted; which Rules and Regulations so made or so amended, collected and enlarged, shall be distributed, published and made use of, in such manner as His Majesty's said Privy Council shall in that Behalf appoint and direct; and the same shall take Effect from such time as is in the said Rules or Regulations shall be expressed in regard to the Commencement thereof.

3 G. 3. c. 82
4 G. 3. c. 104
5 G. 3.

Number of
increased.

XVI. And whereas, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Third Year of His late Majesty King George the First, the Number of Pilots of the Company Ports was to be One hundred and twenty at the least, and it has been found by Experience that the said Number is inadequate to the increased Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom; and by an Act passed in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, the Number of such Pilots was increased to One hundred and forty: Be it therefore enacted, That Twenty Company Port Pilots more shall be added whenever such further Addition shall be directed to be made by an Order of His Majesty's Privy Council, upon Application made to His Majesty in Council for that Purpose by the Corporation of Trinity House of Dorchester; and also a further Addition of Twenty Company Port Pilots shall be made to the Number above mentioned, increasing the whole Number to One hundred and eighty, by the like Authority, whenever such last mentioned Addition shall be applied for, by the Corporation of the Trinity House of Dorchester, to His Majesty in Council.

After Deficiency of Trinity of Ports, Vacancies filled up by Purchase of Privy Council.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the increased Numbers of the said Pilots shall respectively take place as aforesaid provided, the Numbers so increased shall from thenceforth be kept up from time to time by the Appointment of Pilots in Succession or other as any Vacancy or Vacancies shall happen by Death, Incapacity or Dismission; provided, that after the Conclusion of a Definitive Treaty of Peace with France, no Vacancy shall be filled up as aforesaid, without a special Formative in that Behalf given by His Majesty's Privy Council, upon the Recommendation of the said Corporation of Trinity House: unless the Number of Pilots shall at any time, by Death or otherwise, be reduced below One hundred and forty, in which case the Vacancies shall be filled up from thenceforth from time to time so as not to exceed One hundred and forty in the whole.

Pilots to qualify
command, and to conduct Ships into and out of Company Ports,
Proviso.

XVIII. And whereas certain Harbours near The Downs have become much frequented as Places of Safety, and Ships and Vessels lying in or passing through The Downs are sometimes compelled to run to these Harbours, and it is therefore necessary to make Provisions for the Pilotage of such Harbours: Be it therefore enacted, That all Pilots whose Licences or Warrants shall authorize them to pilot Ships or Vessels from any Place to the Wealdway, up to London Bridge, shall qualify themselves, and shall be examined as to their Qualifications and Ability to conduct any Ship or Vessel into and out of Ramsgate Harbour, and the Harbours of Dover, Sandwich and Margate, and shall be obliged to pilot any Ships or Vessels into and out of the said Harbours; and if any such Pilot shall refuse to take charge of or conduct any Ship or Vessel into or out of any of the said Harbours, such Pilot shall forfeit all Pay and Reward to which he might otherwise be entitled for the Pilotage of any such Ship or Vessel, and shall be subject to such Fine or other Punishment as shall be established in that Behalf by the Rules and Regulations of the Corporation or Society to which such Pilot shall belong.

Rate for such Pilotage.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every licensed Pilot who shall take Charge of and conduct any Ship or Vessel into or out of Ramsgate Harbour, or into or out of Dover, Sandwich or Margate, shall be entitled to and shall receive for such Pilotage as and after the Rate of Five Shillings for every Foot of the Length of Water of the Ship or Vessel so piloted and conducted by him into or out of any such Harbour, if such Ship or Vessel shall have been so piloted and conducted into or out of the same in ordinary Weather, but if under any Circumstances of Distress, then such Pilot shall be entitled to such further Sum of Money, to be calculated according to the Extent and Circumstances of such Distress, as the Commissioners of Sandwich, established under the Lord Wardens of the Company Ports, shall, upon Application either of the Pilot, or Owner or Master of any such Ship or Vessel, upon swearing that all such circumstances, death, and such Command, forces shall, and they are hereby required, upon any such Application made, to recover into all such circumstances, Rates, and to determine the Amount of the Sum to be paid for the Pilotage of any such Ship or Vessel into the said Harbours respectively: Provided always, that on the Arrival of any Ship or Vessel, and as soon as the

scribed as fore-
in this Act,

shall be allowed to be) (limited Harbour, it shall be lawful for the Pilot to demand the Pilots due to him as aforesaid, and so upon like Ship's Deckwork.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford (and) and they are lawfully required to appoint from time to time (as often) and for each Period as they in their Discretion shall think fit) proper and competent Persons at each Port or Place in England as they may think requisite (except within the Liberty of the Cinque Ports, and all such other Ports and Places whither or for which Provisions shall have been made by any Act or Acts of Parliament, or by any Charter or Charters for the Appointment of Pilots), not to exceed Five nor less than three Persons at each Port or Place for which any such Appointment shall be made, which Person or Persons so appointed shall be called Sub-Commissioners of Pilots; and shall take the Oath in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked (B.) for the faithful Discharge of their Duty; and such Persons do to be appointed full and they are lawfully authorized (so long as their respective Appointments shall not be revoked or suspended, by the Appointment of other Persons in those Places) to exercise into the Qualifications of Persons as well as Pilots for each respective Port and Place, and the adjoining Coasts, specified in their respective Appointments as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the said Corporation, upon their receiving a satisfactory Certificate, under the Hand of any Three of the Persons to be appointed, where the whole Number of any Port or Place shall consist of Four or Five, and by any Two where the whole Number shall consist of Three, that the Person examined as aforesaid is duly qualified to act for such Port or Place, and the adjoining Coasts, to give a License to each Person to act as a Pilot within the particular Limits (defining the same) for which he shall have passed such Examination; which License shall be granted in the Full Influence for One Year, and shall afterwards, from Year to Year, be subject to Renewal and Confirmation, or otherwise, at the Discretion of the said Corporation of Trinity House: Provided always, that such Sub-Commissioners as have been already appointed under the Authority of the said Act of the twenty eighth Year of His present Majesty, shall continue to act in the same manner as if they were appointed under this Act.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Corporation of the Trinity House of the Ports of Hull and Newcastle respectively, to appoint such Commissioners of Pilots to exercise Pilots and give Licenses for Pilots for piloting Ships and Vessels into or out of any Ports, Harbours or Places, within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions, any thing in this or any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to prevent any Ship or Vessel which shall be brought into any Port or Ports in England by any Pilot duly licensed, from being afterwards removed to such Port or Ports by the Master or Mate, or with a Person belonging to such Ship or Vessel, and leaving the Command thereof, or if in Ballast, by any other Person or Persons appointed by any Owner, or the Master, or any Agent of the Owner, for the Purpose of entering into or going out of any Dock, or for change of the Mooming of such Ship or Vessel.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That when and as often as the said Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford should have licensed Pilots for any particular Port or Ports, and the respective Coasts near the same as aforesaid, they shall cause Notice of such Appointment to be published, by fixing up such Notice in Writing at the Trinity House, and at the Custom House in London, and also at the respective Custom Houses of the Ports for which, and the Coasts near the same, such Appointment shall be made; and shall also, if convenient, cause such Notice to be published in the London Gazette, and in One or more Newspapers printed in that Part of the Country where the Ports shall respectively be situated, which Publication in the London Gazette shall be good and sufficient Evidence of the Notice having been given, and from and after a year or more to be limited in the said Notice, which shall not in any case, or in relation to any Ships or Vessels whatever, be less than six Weeks from the Publication thereof as aforesaid, and shall be proportionably more, at the Discretion of the said Corporation, in relation to Ships and Vessels engaged in Foreign Voyages at the time of such Publication, all Ships and Vessels sailing, navigating or plying into or out of the said respective Ports, or upon the Coasts thereof, shall be considered and piloted by such Pilots only as shall be so licensed as aforesaid, and by no other Pilots whatsoever.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person suspended, or adjudged to have forfeited his License as a Pilot, shall, during the Term of such Suspension, or after such Adjudication, take upon himself to conduct any Ship or Vessel, except in cases of Distress, and in cases when no licensed Pilots can be found, such Person shall be liable to all such Penalties to be recovered and applied in like Manner and Form as are provided by this Act against any Person who shall conduct or pilot any Ship or Vessel without ever having been licensed as a Pilot.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Pilot who shall be suspended, or adjudged to have forfeited his License, and every Person who, having complained of any such Pilot, shall be dissatisfied with the Adjudication made upon the Matter of such Complaint by the Corporation, Society or Person who shall have Cognizance of such Complaint, may appeal to His Majesty's Privy Council, who shall thereupon have the Appeal, and consider or cause any former Determination or Adjudication in the Premises, or at their Discretion make any particular and special Order relating thereto, and in the Matter of such Appeal, as the said Council may require.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Owner or Master of any Ship or Vessel shall be answerable for any Loss or Damage, nor shall any Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel, or Consignee of Goods, be prevented from recovering any Loss or Damage upon any Contract of Indemnity of the Case, or upon any other Contract relating to any Ship or Vessel, or any Cargo on board the same, by reason of no Pilot being on board of any such Ship or Vessel, unless it shall be proved that the Want of a Pilot shall have Trinity House of Deptford shall appoint Sub-Commissioners of Pilots for the same Ports as well as Pilots.

On Certificates or being examined, may grant Licenses.

Sub-Commissioners already appointed by the Statute.

shall from any Refusal to take a Pilot on board, or from the Willing Neglect of the Master of the Ship or Vessel, in not heaving to or using all practicable means to assist the Safety of the Vessel, for the Purpose of taking on board any Pilot who shall be ready and offer to take Charge of such Ship or Vessel.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Owner of any such Ship or Vessel shall be liable, in any such case, for any Loss or Damage beyond the Value of such Ship or Vessel and her Appurtenances, and the Freight due or to grow due for and during such Voyage, unless such Loss or Damage may happen or arise.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, shall extend or be construed to extend to any Ships or Vessels belonging to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as to their being compelled to take Pilots on board.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That none of the Clauses, Provisions, Penalties or Reprehensions of this Act, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Vessel not exceeding the Burthen of Forty Tons, having British Registers, nor to any Master or Owner of any such Vessel in respect thereof, or of the issuing of the same in any Channel, River, Port or Place whatever.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Owner or Master of any Ship or Vessel shall be liable for any Loss or Damage, nor shall any Owner or Owners of any Ship or Vessel, or Consignee or Goods, be prevented from entering any Lett or Demurrage upon any Contract of Insurance of the same, or upon any other Contract relating to any Ship or Vessel, or any Cargo on board the same, for or by reason or means of any Neglect, Default, Incompetency or Incapacity of any Pilot taken on board of any such Ship or Vessel, under or in performance of any of the Provisions of this Act.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to deprive any Person of any Remedy, by Civil Action against Pilots or other Persons, which they might have had if this Act had not been passed.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the taking away, abridging, defeating, impeding or interrupting of any Grants, Liberties, Privileges, Franchises or Privileges heretofore granted by any Charters or Acts of Parliament to the Pilots of the Trinity Hoops of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, or the Trinity Hoops of Newcastle upon Tyne, or to give any Authority to the Corporation of the Trinity Hoops of Deptford Strand, unless any Power or Direction having separate Jurisdiction in Matters of Pilotsage, under any Act of Parliament or Charter, or to alter or repeal any Provisions contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Pilots of any Ports or Harbours in relation to which Provisions shall have been made in any Act or Acts of Parliament, as to Pilots or Pilotsage, or the Pilotsage within the Limits prescribed by any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Pilotsage for such Ports, or to the Burthen of Vessels navigating to or from such Ports.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prevent or hinder the Master or Mate of any Ship or Vessel, or Owner or Part Owner, residing at Down, Deal or the Isle of Thanet, from commanding or piloting his own Ship or Vessel up or down the River Thames or Medway, or into or out of any Port or Place within the Jurisdiction of the Cinque Ports.

XXXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any licensed Pilot to supersede any Person not licensed as a Pilot in the Charge of any Ship or Vessel within the Limits of his Licence: And every Master of any Ship or Vessel who shall continue to act himself as a Pilot, or who shall continue any unlicensed Person, or any licensed Person sitting out of the Limits for which he is qualified as a Pilot, after any Pilot licensed to act within the Limits in which such Ship or Vessel shall then actually be shall have offered to take Charge of the Ship or Vessel; and every Person assuming or continuing in the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel without being duly licensed to act within the Limits in which such Ship or Vessel shall actually be, after any Pilot duly licensed and qualified to act in the Premises shall have offered to take Charge of such Ship or Vessel; shall respectively forfeit for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds, nor less than Twenty Pounds.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Corporation of Trinity Hoops of Deptford Strand, and they are hereby authorized and required to establish, vary and alter, from time to time as circumstances shall render the same necessary, regular Rates of Pilotsage in relation to all Pilotsage performed in any River, Port or Place, or upon any Coast whatsoever, by any Pilot or Pilots who shall be hired by the said Corporation, upon their receiving Certificates of Examination from any Sub-Commissioners of Pilotsage hereby directed to be appointed; which Rates shall be regulated by and proportional as well to the Size and Draught of Water of the Vessels, as to the Distance piloted, the Detraction and Responsibility of the Pilot, and such other circumstances as the said Corporation may think fit to take into Consideration in fixing and establishing such Rates; of which Establishment or Alterations of Rates of Pilotsage, Notice shall be given by hanging up printed Tables thereof, corrected from time to time as Variations therein shall be made, at the several Custom Houses at the Ports to which the said Rates shall apply.

XXXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the major Part in Number of the Pilots who shall be licensed by the said Corporation of Trinity Hoops of Deptford Strand, for any particular Port or Place, as a consequence of their receiving Certificates of Examination is shewed, shall be satisfied with the Rates so established or altered, or to rate any Owners of Ships or Vessels, interested in any such Rates, shall be dissatisfied with such respective Rates, it shall be lawful for such Parties respectively to appeal to the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council; and it shall be lawful for any Complainant of such Privy Council, calling to their Assistance any such Person as they may think fit, to hear and determine the Matter of such Appeal or Appeals, and to settle, alter and regulate such Rates as to them shall appear to be expedient, them, in case the Matter of such Appeal shall be the Defect of the said Committee of Privy Council appear to require the making any Orders therein.

XXXVII. And further enacted, That all Persons hereafter to act as Pilots, or as Pilot Vessels, by the said Corporation of Trinity House, by virtue of this Act, shall from time to time and at all times hereafter be subject to the Regulation and Government of the Master, Wardens and Assistants of the said Corporation, who are hereby authorized and empowered, as well for insuring the good Conduct and constant Attendance of such Pilots upon their Duty, as for enforcing the general Purposes of this Act, from time to time to make and frame all such Bye-Laws, Rules, Orders, Regulations and Ordinances, as they shall think fit, always specifying and directing also what annual or other Sums shall be paid by any such Pilots to the Sub-Commissioners of Pilots, for the Execution of such Pilots, and for granting and receiving or continuing their Licences from time to time; and it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens and Assistants of the said Corporation respectively, to accept such reasonable Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach of such Bye-Laws, Rules, Orders and Ordinances, when made, as to three full term expedient in that behalf, and from time to time to amend, alter and amend, all or any of the existing Bye-Laws, and to make such other and new Bye-Laws, Rules, Orders and Ordinances, as they shall think proper, so as such Bye-Laws, Rules, Regulations and Ordinances, be made conformable to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and shall not be repugnant to the Laws of this Realm: Provided always, that no Bye-Laws hereafter shall have Force or Effect before they shall have been assented, sanctioned and approved by the Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, or by the Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, the Sessions and Application of either of which Chief Justices shall be void if under his Hand and Seal; and all and every such Bye-Laws, Rules, Orders and Ordinances, when so made and confirmed as aforesaid, shall be observed and kept, and put in Execution, and have the same Force and Effect and Operation, to all Intents and Purposes, as if they were respectively enacted by this Act.

XXXVIII. And, in order that all such Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations, may be previously examined by the Parties interested therein, be it further enacted, That Copies of all such proposed Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations, shall be transmitted to His Majesty's Privy Council, and to the Commissioners of Customs in London, Three Calendar Months before the same shall be submitted to such Chief Justice as aforesaid; and the Commissioners of the Customs are hereby required upon the Receipt of such Copies, to cause the same to be printed and hung up, as soon as the same may be done, in the several Custom Houses of the principal Ports in Great Britain, to be open to the Inspection of all Persons interested therein at all reasonable times; and Notice shall be given to the Governor, of such Bye-Laws being so hung up for Inspection as aforesaid.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Copies of such Bye-Laws, Rules, Orders and Ordinances, as shall be so made and confirmed as aforesaid, shall be printed, and shall be hung up in some public or conspicuous Place in the several Custom Houses of the Ports in England within the Limits for which the Pilots respectively shall be licensed; and also at the Trinity House in London.

XL. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall apply for a Licence to act as a Pilot by virtue of this Act, shall, before any Licence shall be granted to him, execute a Bond in a penal Sum, at the Discretion of the said Corporation of Trinity House of Distinguished Goods, or the Society or Fellowship of Pilots of Devon, Dorset and the Isle of Thanet, in an Amount not exceeding One hundred Pounds, to be paid to the said Corporation or Society, their Successors and Assigns, with a Condition subjoined thereto for better securing the due Obedience of such Pilot to the Bye-Laws, Rules, Orders, Regulations and Ordinances made in pursuance of the said Act, or which shall be made and framed pursuant to this Act; which Bond shall be capable of being given in Evidence in any Court of Law or Equity, without being stamped according to the Laws relating to the Stamp Duties: Provided always, that all Bonds given by Pilots under any former Act, shall continue in force and be deemed to be given under this Act, unless new Bonds shall in any case be required by the said Corporation or Society aforesaid, in which case new Bonds shall be given.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That all Bye-Laws, Rules, Regulations and Orders made under the said recited Act of the Tenth year of His Majesty King George the Third, and in force under the same at the time of the passing of this Act, shall remain and continue in full Force until the same shall be amended or altered under this Act, or other Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations shall be made under this Act in lieu thereof; and shall be and are hereby declared to be good and valid Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations and Orders, under this Act, as fully as if they had been made under the Authority of the same; any thing heretofore or in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That the Master or Pilot commanding any Ship or Vessel bound to the River Thames, and which shall repair to Swanagee Creek for the Performance of Quarantine, shall pay the said Charges of Pilotage up to Swanagee Creek or Swanagee Creek or other Place appointed for the Performance of Quarantine; and every Pilot commanding any such Vessel at Swanagee Creek, shall be entitled to Eight Shillings per Day, for the Days he shall be obliged to remain as Quarantine.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Pilot taking Charge of any Ship or Vessel into the River Thames or Medway, shall quit such Ship or Vessel at Swanagee Creek before such Ship or Vessel shall have arrived at the Place to which such Ship or Vessel is bound to the River Thames or Medway respectively, without the Consent of the Captain or other Person having the Command thereof, unless some other duly qualified Pilot shall come on board, and shall take the Charge and Conduct of such Ship or Vessel for the Remainder of the Passage to be performed, every such Pilot shall forfeit, for every such Offence, all Pay or Reward to which he might be entitled for having conducted or piloted such Ship or Vessel to Swanagee Creek, and shall also be subject to such other Penalty or Punishment as by virtue of any of the Provisions of this Act, or of the Rules and Regulations established in pursuance hereof, any Pilot shall be liable to be punished as if he were a common Pilot for getting a Ship or Vessel into or out of any Harbour, or into or out of any Place of Destination.

Discretion of
in all such Cases.

XLIV. And he it further enacted, That a particular Description of the Persons who shall be liable to be taken on board, or taken on the Deck, or on the Looce, and every Captain or Master, or other Person having the Command of a Ship or Vessel, who shall employ a Pilot on board, shall respect his Licence, and he shall have Reason to think that such Pilot possesseth the Qualifications of a Pilot, or of other Person having the Command of such Ship or Vessel, as hereby required; and he shall not employ a Pilot, or other Person, who shall have kept or been concerned or interested in the Share before the Port Day of His Majesty's One thousand eight hundred and eight, and shall be duly authorised, by the Corporation or Authority under which such Pilot shall have licence to exercise his Office (whether or Employment); or if any Pilot licensed as aforesaid shall be convicted of any Offence against any Law or Laws relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, or shall be convicted as or shall wilfully connive at any indirect Practice or Contrivance for the Revenue of Customs or Excise, or shall procure, abet, connive at, or participate in any Deliberation, Spoil, Corruption, Fraud, Embezzlement or corrupt Practice, relating to Ships or Vessels or Persons liable to be taken on board, or relating to the Tackle, Apparel or Furniture, or the Cargo of such Ships or Vessels, or relating to the Crew or Passengers belonging thereto, or the Money, Goods or Chattels of any of them, then and in every such case every Pilot shall (as well as above all other Professions, Offices and Positions, and such Offences) be deemed from being a Pilot, and shall be punishable from acting as such, at the Discretion of the Corporation or other Authority from which such Pilot's Licence was derived.

Pilot having Licence shall not be taken on board any Ship or Vessel, or employed as such Pilot.

XLV. And he it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, if any Pilot licensed by virtue of this Act, or otherwise duly licensed, shall keep or be concerned in keeping, either by himself or any Agent or Servant or other Person, or shall in any way be interested in the keeping of any Public House or Tavern, or Place of public Entertainment, or in the Selling of any Wine or Spirituous Liquors, or Tobacco or Tea, (unless such Pilot shall have kept or been concerned or interested in the Share before the Port Day of His Majesty's One thousand eight hundred and eight, and shall be duly authorised, by the Corporation or Authority under which such Pilot shall have licence to exercise his Office (whether or Employment); or if any Pilot licensed as aforesaid shall be convicted of any Offence against any Law or Laws relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise, or shall be convicted as or shall wilfully connive at any indirect Practice or Contrivance for the Revenue of Customs or Excise, or shall procure, abet, connive at, or participate in any Deliberation, Spoil, Corruption, Fraud, Embezzlement or corrupt Practice, relating to Ships or Vessels or Persons liable to be taken on board, or relating to the Tackle, Apparel or Furniture, or the Cargo of such Ships or Vessels, or relating to the Crew or Passengers belonging thereto, or the Money, Goods or Chattels of any of them, then and in every such case every Pilot shall (as well as above all other Professions, Offices and Positions, and such Offences) be deemed from being a Pilot, and shall be punishable from acting as such, at the Discretion of the Corporation or other Authority from which such Pilot's Licence was derived.

in all such Cases.

XLVI. And he it further enacted, That no Person shall take Charge of any Vessel, or in any manner act as a Pilot, or receive any Compensation for acting as a Pilot, unless he shall be authorized therein by some lawful Licence, nor shall Licence for any such Office be granted by the principal Officers of the Customs in this or the Place at or towards which such Pilot shall sail in, (unless Officers are hereby required to sign for the same without Fee or Reward), nor without having his Licence at the time of his sailing in his Poole, ready to be produced, and which he shall actually produce to the Master of any Ship or Vessel, or other Person who shall be desirous of employing him as a Pilot, nor shall any Person, who shall be duly licensed to act as a Pilot, act in that Capacity on or beyond the Limits specified in his Licence, or beyond the Limit of his Qualifications therein expressed, which in the Case of the Master of a Ship or of a lower Class sailing in the Absence of Pilots of higher Class, or in Case of enforcing a Bore not exceeding Thirty Pounds, nor less than Ten Pounds for the first Offence, and for any second or subsequent Offence, any Bore not exceeding Fifty Pounds, nor less than Thirty Pounds.

Penalty.

Offence herein expressed, shall be liable to the
expressed.

XLVII. And he it further enacted, That on the Death of any Pilot, his Executors and Administrators, or One of them, or the Person or Persons to whose Hands the Licence of such deceased Pilot shall come, shall, without unjust Delay, transmit such Licence to the Corporation, Company, or Person by whom such Licence was granted, on Pain of forfeiting for every Neglect thereof, or for default to deliver the same when lawfully demanded, a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, nor less than Forty Shillings.

Discretion of
in all such Cases.

XLVIII. And he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Corporation of Trinity House of Dunstons Quay, and also for the said Society of Fellowship of Pilots of His Majesty's One thousand eight hundred and eight, and also for all other Corporate Bodies or other Persons having lawful Authority to appoint Pilots within the Limits of these respective Jurisdictions, to hire or Vessel of such Size and Description as shall appear to them to be proper for the Purpose of having Pilots occasionally in Attendance, on such Vessels as shall be the better Subject of such Pilot Vessels, it shall be lawful for any Number of Pilots licensed by virtue of this Act, or otherwise lawfully licensed, with the Consent of the said Corporate Bodies, or Person or Persons respectively such Pilots have been or shall be appointed or employed, to negotiate a Joint Stock Company or Company, for the providing and maintaining of such Pilot Vessels which Company, and the said Vessels, shall in all cases be subject to such Rules and Regulations as shall from time to time be by the said Corporation approved in that Behalf by the said Corporate Bodies, or Person or Persons by whom respectively such Pilots shall respectively have been licensed.

Discretion of
in all such Cases.

XLIX. And he it further enacted, That every Pilot Boat or Vessel or other Boat or Vessel in the Pilot Service of any Corporation or Society established by Law or otherwise as Pilotage, or of any Pilot as authorized as a Pilot by such Corporation or Society, shall in all times and on every Seal day, be fitted with black and white and the proper Stripes next the Gunwale painted White, and shall, while afloat, carry a Vane at the Mast Head, or in a Mast on a Spout or Staff, or on some other high or conspicuous Situation, which Vane or Mast Head shall be of bright Dimensions, proportioned as the Size of the Boat or Vessel carrying the same, and shall be of the Colour of a Light White, or horizontal Division, of which the uppermost shall be White, and the same shall at all times be kept and preserved in a clean and shining Condition, so as to be easily distinguished at a proper and sufficient Distance; and every such Boat or Vessel shall also have the Name of the said Pilot thereof for the time being painted on board White Letters, of Those Inches in Length, as aforesaid, Green or on her Stern, or on each Side such Number as shall be expressed in the Licence of such respective Pilot, which Name and Number shall not be hid or covered by any Device, at any time, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Penalty.

• LVI. And whereas it is expedient that the Several Rates of Pilots, imposed by this Act on Ships not being British Register, should be applied for creating a Fund for such Pilots belonging to the Trinity House of Doggerd Street, and of the Fellowship of the Croque Ports, as shall be hereinafter mentioned: Be it enacted, That all such Excess of Rates as aforesaid, which shall pertain to the Establishment of the Trinity House, shall be paid to a Receiver or Receivers, to be appointed in that Behalf by the said Corporation, at some Place or Places convenient for the making of such Payment, within the Port of London, and shall be applied by the said Corporation in the manner hereinafter directed; and if such extra Rates of Pilots shall pertain to the Establishment of the Croque Ports, then the same shall be paid to a Receiver or Receivers, to be in that Behalf appointed by the Lord Warden and the Court of Loadurange, at some convenient Place or Places for the Payment thereof, within the said Port of London, and shall be applied by the said Court in the manner hereinafter in that Behalf directed: that in any, in both cases to create a Fund for the better Support and Maintenance of such Pilots as shall be once incapable of discharging their Duty, from advanced Age, or from any Accident or permanent Infirmary; to be applied and distributed in such manner, and under such Rules and Regulations as the Corporation of the Trinity House of Doggerd Street, and the Lord Warden and the Court of Loadurange of the Croque Ports, shall respectively order and provide; of which Receipts and Appropriations the said Corporations and Courts respectively shall assently by an Account before Parliament, within Twenty Days after the Commencement of each Session.

• LVII. And be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money which shall become due to any licenced Pilot, for Pilotsage, shall and may be recovered from the Owners or Masters of Ships or Vessels, or from the Consignees or Agents thereof, not being Foreign Ships or Vessels, who shall have paid or made themselves liable to pay any other Charge for the Ship or Vessel in the Port of her Delivery, and shall and may be levied on such and the like manner, according to the Amount of any such Sums of Money respectively, as any Penalty or Penalties may be recovered and levied under and by virtue of this Act; Demand thereof being made in Writing at least Fourteen Days before such Levy.

• LVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Consignees or Agents of all Foreign Ships and Vessels, who shall have paid or engaged to pay any Charge whatever in relation to such Ship or Vessel, shall be liable to the Payment of, and shall pay all Sums for Pilotsage due to the Pilot or Pilots who shall have piloted such Ship or Vessel, on Proof being made within Fourteen Days after such Pilotsage shall have been performed, as the Oath of such Pilot before any Justice of the Peace, that the same has not been paid by the Captain of such Ship or Vessel, if Payment thereof shall be demanded from any such Consignee or Consignees within Twenty one Days thereafter; and if any such Sums or Sums which shall be become due, and shall be so demanded as aforesaid, shall not thereupon be paid, then and in such case the Sums of Money in due for Pilotsage, shall be recoverable in like manner as any Penalty under the Statute of Twenty Penns may be recovered by virtue of this Act; and such Consignees or Agents of Foreign Ships or Vessels are hereby authorized and empowered to enter to their Hands respectively, out of any Monies which they may have received or shall thereafter receive for or on account of such Foreign Ship or Vessel, or the Owner or Owners thereof, so far as is shall be sufficient to pay and discharge such Pilotsage, and any Expenses attending the same.

• LIX. And be it further enacted, That the Master of every Ship or Vessel which shall be piloted or conducted by any other Person than a duly licenced Pilot, within any Limits for which Pilots have been or shall be appointed by any lawful Authority, shall forfeit Double the Amount of the Sums which would have been demandable for the Pilotsage of such Ship or Vessel, and shall likewise forfeit an additional Penalty of Five Pounds for every Fifty Tons Burthen of such Ship or Vessel, if the Corporation of Trinity House of Doggerd Street, as to cases in which Pilots licenced by or under the said Corporation shall be concerned, or the said Lord Warden for the time being, or his Lieutenant for the time being, as to all cases in which the Croque Ports Pilots shall be concerned, shall think it proper that the Person prosecuting should be at Liberty to proceed for the Recovery of such additional Penalty, and certify the same in Writing: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall extend to subject to Penalties any Master of any Ship or Vessel (not anchoring within the Limits of any Port or Place for which Pilots are or shall be appointed) who shall act himself as Pilot in passing up and down the English Channel or elsewhere, in passing by any Part of the Coast of England in the Course of any Voyage, or within the Limits of the Port or Place to which his Ship belongs, not being a Port or Place in relation to which Provision hath heretofore been made by any Act or Acts of Parliament, or by any Charter or Charters for the Appointment of Pilots, or who shall employ any Person as a Pilot, or who shall act himself as such for the Conduct of his Ship or Vessel, in any case where and so long as a duly qualified Pilot shall not offer Assistance or make a signal for that Purpose: Provided also, that this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to render any Person from assisting any Ship or Vessel in Distress as any Time or Place, nor shall subject such Person, or any Master of any Ship or Vessel employing such Person, to the Penalty of this Act, in respect of such Assistance given during the Distress of such Ship or Vessel, or in consequence thereof, or under any Circumstances which shall have rendered it necessary for such Master to assist himself or the said Assistance which at the time could be procured; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any Act notwithstanding.

• LX. And be it further enacted, That every Person having the Command or Charge for the time being of any Ship or Vessel, who shall report or by proxy or conferring to any other Person's reporting to any Pilot taking the Charge of such Ship or Vessel, a false Account of the Draught of Water of such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence, in addition to the Payment of the full Rate of Pilotsage to the Pilot not used thereto, double the Amount of such Pilotsage; and any Person having the Command or Charge for the time being of any Ship or Vessel, or having any Interest, Share or Property therein, who shall fraudulently alter any Marks on the Stern or Sternpost thereof, covering the Draught of Water, or shall be proxy to and assist therein, shall for any such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

• LXI. And

LXI. And

LXI. And, in order to prevent or settle Controversies concerning the Draught of Water of Ships and Vessels which shall be sent from time to time on the River Thames (not having British Registers) he is further enacted, That whenever any Difference about the Draught of Water of any Ship or Vessel shall arise between the Master or other Person having the Command of any such Ship or Vessel, and any Person who shall have piloted the same into the said River, or who shall be required to pilot the same thenceforth pursuant to the Directions of this Act, the said Corporation of Trinity House, or some proper Officer or Person appointed by them, shall determine the Draught of Water of such Ship or Vessel, and shall settle and determine the same between the Parties, upon Applications made by either of them to the said Corporation within Twelve Hours after such Ship or Vessel shall have arrived at her Moorings in the River, or before the Cargo thereof shall be begun to be unladen, or before such Ship or Vessel shall quit her Moorings on any outward Voyage; for which Admeasurement the Officer or Person making the same shall be paid One Guinea if the Ship or Vessel shall be below or in the Pool, and Half a Guinea if above the Pool, by the Person requiring such Admeasurement, or making Application for the same to the said Corporation.

LXII. And he it further enacted, That every Master or other Person having the Command for the time being of any Ship or Vessel required to be piloted according to the Directions of this Act, shall, on coming into the Port of London, and on making the Entry or Report of his Ship or Vessel towards, inland or outwards to be entered in such Entry or Report, the Name of the Pilot or Pilots employed or engaged by him or by the Owner of such Ship or Vessel to pilot the same into the said Port of London; and which Information shall be made (without Fee or Reward) by the proper Officer of the Customs in the said Entry or Report, who shall also report the same to the Corporation of the Trinity House meeting; and also that the Principal Searcher or Clearing Officer of the Customs at Greenwich shall demand and take the Name or Names of the Pilot or Pilots of all Ships or Vessels clearing outwards from the Port of London, and shall transmit Monthly Lists of such Names to the said Corporation of the Trinity House, on Pain of forfeiting a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, nor less than Five Pounds, to be paid by every Person who shall neglect to comply with the foregoing Regulations respectively.

LXIII. And he it further enacted, That the Master of every Ship or Vessel, not having a British Register, who shall not furnish or give the Name of the Pilot or Pilots who shall have been employed to pilot his Ship or Vessel into the Port of London, shall be deemed to have failed and been assigned into the said Port without a Pilot, and shall be liable to pay the same or the like Pilotsage for such his Ship or Vessel, for and in respect of the Distance which he shall or may have navigated and sailed up the River Thames, or the Channels leading thence without a Pilot, as he would have been liable to pay if a Pilot had been employed by him; and the same shall be paid to the Collector appointed by the Corporation of Trinity House, and shall go towards the Fee of by this Act established in relation to the Surplus Rates of Pilotsage: Provided nevertheless, that in all cases where such Payment shall be made to the Corporation of the Trinity House, at any time within Three Months after such Payment, that a Pilot was in any such case regularly and duly employed and paid, then and in any such case the Sum or Sums of Money which shall have been so paid, shall be returned to the Person or Persons who shall have paid the same, or any other Person or Persons by him or them duly authorized and empowered to receive the same.

LXIV. And he it further enacted, That Lists of the Names and Surnames, Ages and Places of Residence, of all Pilots in England, shall, with the Dates of their Appointments, on or before the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve, be transmitted to the Corporation of Trinity House of Dockyard Street, at their Court House in London, distinguishing the Limits within which such Pilots are appointed to act respectively, and thereforward from time to time as each Appointment of a Pilot shall take place, and also Duplicate of such Lists to the Commissioners of the Customs in England, amounting to the Lists to be transmitted to the Trinity House, the Rates of Pilotsage, and also Rating the Rules and Regulations made and established in relation to such Pilots, in case such Rules and Regulations shall have been made by any other Authority than by Act of Parliament, or by the said Corporation of Trinity House of Dockyard Street; and the Lists, when so completed, shall be transmitted as aforesaid by the respective Bodies Public and Corporate, and other Persons authorized to appoint Pilots in any of the Ports, Harbours or Rivers, or on any of the Coasts of England, by whom such Pilots shall have been appointed respectively; and the said Bodies Public and Corporate, and other Persons authorized to appoint Pilots as aforesaid, shall and they are hereby required to transmit to the said Corporation of Trinity House, at their said Court House in London, annually, on the Thirty first Day of December, or within One Calendar Month afterwards, a List corrected up to the said Thirty first Day of December, namely, of the Names and Residences of the Pilots within their several Residences, and Rating such Allowances any have been made (if any) in the Rules and Regulations for governing Pilots within their respective Districts.

LXV. And whereas by the Acts passed in the Forty fifth and Forty sixth Years of His present Majesty's, for the more effectual Performance of Quantities, Pilots are required, as soon as board Ships arriving from Foreign Ports, in cases when, to give Information to the Commissioners thereof respecting Quantities, and to send Orders in Council relative to the Performance of Quantities, which renders it necessary that Notice of such Provisions, and such Orders which may have been issued subsequent to the Departure from England of such Ships, should be previously communicated to all Pilots throughout England: Be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners of the Customs shall, within One Month, from the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve, transmit to the principal Officers of the Revenue under their Management at the several Ports in England, the Names and Places of Residence of such Pilots, or the Lists so transmitted to them, as aforesaid, within six Months of each Port respectively, and in from thenceforward the Name of each Pilot of which Notice they shall receive Notice from the proper Authority, in order that the said

How Causes, within six Months of the Draught of Water at Vessels sailed.

Names of Pilots entered in Reports of Ships coming into Port of London, and returned to Trinity House. Lists Reports of Vessels clearing outwards.

Penalty.

Master of Foreign Ships not giving Names of Pilots, deemed as he has failed without a Pilot.

An Act to make Provision for a limited Time respecting certain Grants of Offices.

[20th April 1812.]

• WHEREAS, on account of certain Proceedings depending in Parliament, it is expedient to establish the Provision hereinafter mentioned respecting certain Grants of Offices for a limited time: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, His Majesty's Privy Council, and the Commons, in this present Session, That, from and after the passing of this Act, and eight calendar months, no Public Office, Place, or Joint Lives with Benefit of Survivorship, or for Two or more Lives in Succession, or for Two or more Lives in Succession, or by any Bead or Department of Government, or in any of His Majesty's Courts of Law or Equity, shall be so granted here as hereinafter is expressed.

• If. And be it further enacted, That every Grant of Appointment which may hereafter be made contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act shall be to all Intents and Purposes void; and that all Salary and Emoluments received under any such Grant or Appointment shall and may be recovered by Information at the Suit of His Majesty's Attorney General in the Court of Exchequer, to the Use of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to make void any Grant of any Office, Place or Employment, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Law, which shall be made by any Chief Judge, Officers or Officer of any such Court, being such Chief Judge, Officers or Officer at the time of passing this Act; or to make void any Grant of any Office, Place or Employment, in any such Courts which shall hereafter be made by any other Person or Persons having at the time of passing this Act the Right of granting any such Office, Place or Employment, if such Office, Place or Employment was vacant at the time of passing this Act, or which shall be made by any other Officer or Officers of the said Courts not being such at the time of passing this Act, but becoming such by virtue of Appointments hereafter made by the Persons respectively who at the time of passing this Act are the Chief Judges, Officers or Officers of such Courts: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to leave or render valid and effectual any Grants hereafter to be made by any such Chief Judges, Officers or other Persons as aforesaid, of Offices in Reverend, or for joint Lives with Benefit of Survivorship, or for Two or more Lives in Succession, which Offices had not before been granted in Reverend or for joint Lives with Benefit of Survivorship, or for Two or more Lives in Succession, or to make good any Grants which such Judges, Officers or Officers, or other Persons respectively would not have been entitled by Law to make if this Act had not passed: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to make void any Grants of any Offices, Places or Employments, in any of His Majesty's Courts of Law, which shall be granted by His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, in Reverend, or for joint Lives with Benefit of Survivorship, or for Two or more Lives in Succession, upon the Request or Recommendation of the Chief Judges or Officers of His Majesty's said Courts being such at the time of passing this Act, and which Offices, Places or Employments have been heretofore so granted upon such Request or Recommendation: Provided also, that this Act shall not be taken to prohibit the Appointment of Assistants and Successors to the Parochial Clergy of Scotland.

An Act to amend and continue until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, an Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for appointing Commissioners to enquire into the Public Expenditure and the Conduct of the Public Business, in the Military Departments therein mentioned; and another Act, of the Fifty first Year of His present Majesty, for continuing and extending the same to Public Works executed by the Office of Works and others.

• WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act to appoint Commissioners to enquire and enquire into the Public Expenditure, and the Conduct of Public Business, in the Military Departments therein mentioned, and to report such Informations as shall occur to them for correcting or preventing any Abuse and Irregularities, and for the better conducting and managing the Business of the said Departments; to continue in force for Two Years, and from thence until the Expire of the Week after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament; which said Act was continued by subsequent Acts until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and eleven: And whereas by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intitled "An Act to continue, until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve, an Act of the Forty fifth Year of His present Majesty, for appointing Commissioners to enquire into the Public Expenditure, and the Conduct of the Public Business, in the Military Departments therein mentioned, and to extend the same to Public Works executed by the Office of Works and others," the said second Act was continued until the Twenty fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and extended in an Enquiry into the Expenditure and Conduct of the Business in the Office of Works, and into the Execution of other Public Works therein mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that the said second Act, and all the Powers therein contained, in so far only as the same were extended by the last mentioned Act, and relate to an Enquiry into the Public Expenditure and Conduct of Business in the Office of Works, and into the Execution of other Public Works in the said shall receive all particularly mentioned, shall be revived and further continued; and that the same should be carried into Execution by other Commissioners named or referred to by the said recited Acts: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Acts, and all the Powers and Provisions therein contained, be for ever as the same have been exercised by the said last recited Act, and relate to an Enquiry into the Publick Expence and Conduct of Officers in the Office of Works, and into the Execution of other Publick Works in the said last recited Act mentioned, shall be and the same are hereby revived and further continued in full force from the Twelfth fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve, to the Twentieth fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and the same shall be put in force and carried into Execution by the Commissioners appointed by this Act, instead of the Commissioners named or referred to in the said recited Acts.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Yngloman, Henry Peters, Charles Boleyn, Benjamin C. Stephens and L. Swafflow, Esquires, shall be and they are hereby constituted Commissioners for carrying into Execution the Purposes of the said recited Acts, in the same are revived and continued by this Act; and shall have, use and exercise all the same Powers, Privileges and Authorities, in conducting the Enquiry into the Office of Works and into the Execution of such other Works as aforesaid, as the Commissioners named or referred to in the said recited Acts had used or exercised by the Purposes aforesaid under the Provisions of the said recited Acts or either of them.

appointed.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Powers, Privileges, Penalties and Means of recovering the same, Clauses, Matters and Things contained in the said recited Acts relating to the Enquiry into the Office and Departments therein mentioned, shall relate to the Commissioners appointed under this Act, and shall be and be put in force and be applied by them, as far as the same are applicable, to the conducting the Enquiry authorized to be made into the Office of Works, and into the Execution of such other Works as aforesaid, in the same manner and as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as the same related to, and be put in force and applied by the Commissioners named or referred to in the said recited Acts.

An Act for increasing the Rates of Subsistence to be paid to Inkeepers and others on quartering Soldiers. [20th April 1812.]

C A P. XLIV.

An Act for the Erection of a Penitentiary House for the Confinement of Offenders convicted within the City of London and County of Middlesex; and for making Compensation to Jeremy Bentham Esquire, for the Non-performance of an Agreement between the said Jeremy Bentham and the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, respecting the Culture and Maintenance of Convicts. [20th April 1812.]

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to explain and amend the Laws relating to the Transportation, Imprisonment, and other Punishment of certain Offenders: And whereas another Act passed in the Thirty fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for erecting a Penitentiary or Prisonary House, for confining and employing Convicts: And whereas Penitentiary Houses have not yet been erected; but certain Lands and Premises have been purchased of the Most Honourable the Marquis of Salisbury, at Middlesex, near Thames Field, and a Conveyance thereof made to Jeremy Bentham Esquire, under the Authority of the said last recited Act; and the same thereby became vested in the said Jeremy Bentham, as Trustee, for the Purpose of the said Act: And whereas it is expedient that a separate Penitentiary House should be built, for the Purpose of confining Offenders convicted of treasonable Offences within the City of London and the County of Middlesex only, or capitally convicted within the said City and the said County, and sentenced as a Condition of being confined under this Act, upon the said Ground and Premises to be purchased and vested in the said Jeremy Bentham as aforesaid: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and he it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty to appoint Three Persons to carry into Execution the Purpose of this Act, and to be Supervisors of the House and Buildings to be erected in pursuance thereof, and from time to time to remove them or any of them, and appoint others in the Room of such as shall be so removed, or shall do or neglect their Trust; and to allow such Supervisors such Compensation for their Expenses, occasioned by the Discharge of their Duty, as His Majesty shall deem reasonable, to be paid from time to time by Warrants from the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury or the High Treasurer for the time being.

19 G. 3. c. 14.

24 G. 3. c. 26.

Appointments of Supervisors.

Supervisors to erect Penitentiary House.

II. And be it further enacted, That as soon as such Supervisors shall be so appointed as aforesaid, all the Lands, Houses, Buildings, Tenements and Premises to be purchased by the said Jeremy Bentham, or now vested in him for the Purpose of the said Act of the Thirty fourth Year aforesaid, shall with absoluteity, and without any Conveyance or Assignment thereof, in His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for the Use of the Public and the Purpose of this Act, free from all Incumbrances created by the said Jeremy Bentham or any Person claiming under him.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Supervisors, by the Direction and with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer for the time being, or any Three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, to erect or cause to be erected, or construct or agree with any Person or Persons for the erecting such House and other Buildings as shall be expedient and necessary for the Purpose aforesaid, and to do all such other Matters and Things as may be necessary for carrying this Act into Execution.

IV. And whereas a Proposal was made in the Year One thousand seven hundred and sixty two, by the aforesaid Jeremy Bentham, to contract with the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the Management of One thousand Male Convicts in a National Penitentiary House to be erected by the said Jeremy Bentham for that Purpose; and Articles of Agreement, founded on such Proposal, were prepared and approved on Behalf

• Behalf of the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, in whose Powers were vested by the Act of the • Thirty fourth Year of His present Majesty above recited, to conclude such Contracts and Agreements for
 • the Erection of National Penitentiary Houses under the said Act, as they should deem necessary and expedient;
 • and in such Articles of Agreement have never been executed; And whereas the said Jersey Bank,
 • was appointed Proprietor of the Lands above mentioned under the said Act, with a View to the Erection of a • National Penitentiary House under the said Contract, and has been authorized and encouraged to take Mea• sures for carrying such intended Agreement into Effect, and received an Advance of Two thousand Pounds
 • in the Year One thousand seven hundred and ninety four for that Purpose; and the said Jersey Bank
 • states himself to have expended large Sums of Money over and above the said Sum of Two thousand Pounds,
 • in making Preparations for the Performance of the said Agreement on his Part, with respect to the Plan of
 • the said intended Building, the Employment to be therein given to Convicts, and the System of Manage• ment thence to be adapted, and to have transferred, and with Engagements adapted to the Object of
 • such Preparations, an extensive System of Mechanical Works, of the Invention of his Brother, Brigadier • General Samuel Boulton, in whom the same were vested by divers Patents, and a certain Capital to a con• siderable Amount, produced by the Sale of divers Estates, had been expended, from which, by means of
 • such Transfers, so Advantage therefor could not be reaped; and it is also stated by the said
 • Jersey Bank, that the said Brigadier General Boulton has relinquished in his Favour such Competition as
 • the said Jersey Bank might be entitled to in respect of the Matters aforesaid: And whereas it is not now
 • deemed expedient that such Contract with the said Jersey Bank should be carried into Effect, but it is
 • just and reasonable that the said Jersey Bank should be paid the Sums so by him expended, and should
 • moreover receive liberal Compensation for all Loss and Damage by him and the said Samuel Boulton sus• tained by means of the Non fulfilment thereof, deducting from such Claims any Profits which he may have
 • derived from the Lands of which he has been in Possession as Tenant under the Appointment mentioned • above: Be it therefore enacted, That Two Parties shall be chosen Arbitrators on the Purpose of settling
 • all Questions between the Public and the said Jersey Bank, arising out of the said Agreement or intended • Agreement, one of whom shall be chosen by the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, and the other by
 • the said Jersey Bank; and if the Arbitrators so chosen should not be able to agree to their Award upon
 • the Points referred to them, within the Month after the said Arbitration on the Part of the said Lords
 • Commissioners of the Treasury shall be decided and notified to the said Jersey Bank, that they and in such case
 • the said Arbitrators shall name a Third Person, whose Decision thereupon shall be final; and that the said
 • Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are hereby empowered and required to draw out of the Con• sidered Fund, by Warrant signed by any Three or more of them, the Net Sum so awarded to the said *Jersey
 Bank*, within One Month after the said Award shall have been made; and in the mean Time the said Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, are hereby authorized and directed to issue and pay Net such Annual Sums as may appear to them to be equal to the Net Annual Profit of the said Lands in the Hands of the said Jersey Bank: Provided always, that in case the making of such Award shall be delayed beyond Twelve Months after the passing of this Act, owing to any Neglect or Default on the Part of the said Jersey Bank, no further Payment shall be made to the said Jersey Bank and such Award shall be made.

V. And be it further enacted, That the said Supervisors, or any Two of them, shall contract with proper Persons for erecting such Penitentiary House, together with the several Buildings and Inclosures thereto belonging, and shall superintend the Erection of such House and Buildings, and the due Performance of such Contracts as shall be entered in to touching the same; and the said Penitentiary House shall be made sufficiently large to contain a full Number of Convicts as the Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department shall approve, not exceeding Three hundred Male Convicts, and the like Number of Female Convicts; and such House, or the Buildings and Inclosures thereto belonging, shall contain proper Stoves, Washhouses, Workhouses, Work Rooms and Lodging Rooms, an Infirmary, a Chapel and Buriall Ground, a Chapel divided into any Apartments, a Kitchen Garden, and also proper Arms Grounds, Yards, Offices, and other necessary Appar-tments for the several Officers and Servants hereinafter described to be appointed: Provided always, that before any such Contracts shall be made or entered into by the said Supervisors, the Plan of such House and Buildings, with the Estimate of the Expence of erecting the same, shall be laid before and approved of by the Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

VI. And be it further enacted, That when the said Penitentiary House shall be ready, or partly ready for the Reception of Offenders, it shall and may be laid for His Majesty, or His Privy Council, to nominate and appoint by writ and direct Writings, not being less than Two nor more than Twenty in Number, as and for a Committee to superintend the said House for the Term of One Year then next ending, or until a fresh Nomination or Appointment shall take place; and from time to time to remove all or any of the Persons consisting the said Committee, and appoint others in their stead, or in the stead of such as shall die or resign.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for such Committee, or any Three of them, to hold Meetings, and to make Bye-Laws, Rules, Orders and Regulations, for the governing of the said Penitentiary House, and for all Matters relating to the Meetings of the same, as well as for the Government of the said Penitentiary House, and for receiving, expending, stuffing, dresting, clothing, mending, employing, releasing, manning, treating and watching all Offenders during their respective Confinement therein, as to the said Committee shall seem just and proper: Provided however, that such Bye-Laws, Rules and Orders shall not begin to have Force until they have been submitted to the Judges of the Court of King's Bench, and such Judges shall have subscribed a Declaration that they do not see any thing contrary to Law in the said Bye-Laws, Rules and Orders to be made as aforesaid; and all such Bye-Laws, Rules and any Oath or Oaths, or any thing relative thereto; and in case there shall appear in any such Accounts any false Entry, knowingly or wilfully made, or any fraudulent Omission thereof, or any other Fraud whatsoever, or any Collusion between any Officer or Officers, or Servants belonging to such House, or between any such Officer or Officers, Servant or Servants, and any other Person or Persons, in any Matter relative thereto, then, besides the private Satisfaction in Damages which the Parties or Party injured may be entitled to recover by Law, the said Committee may direct any such Officer or Officers who shall so seem appear to have been guilty of any such false Entry, Omission, Fraud or Collusion, and appoint another or others in his, her or their stead; and if the said Committee shall see fit, they shall cause an Indictment or Indictments to be preferred against the Officer or Officers, Servant or Servants so offending, at the next Quarter or other General Session of the Peace to be holden for the County, Riding, Liberty, Division, City, Corporation or Place where such Penitentiary House shall be situated, or for any other adjoining County; and in case such Person or Persons so indicted shall be found guilty of such Offence or Offences, he, she or they shall be punished by Fine and Imprisonment, or either of them, at the Discretion of the Court.

XV. And be it further enacted, That when the Penitentiary House heretofore directed to be built, or a sufficient Part thereof, shall be finished and completed for the Reception of Offenders, and proper Officers shall be appointed for the Care and Management thereof, the said Committee shall certify, under the Great Seal and Great Seal, to His Majesty, through the said Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, that such House is so fitted and completed, and that such Officers have been appointed; and after the making of such Certificate it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order that any Person who shall be in His Majesty's Goal of Newgate, committed to Transportation for any Offence committed within the City of London or the County of Middlesex, or actually confined for any Crime committed within the said City or County, and pardoned by His Majesty upon the Condition of being confined under the Act, to be removed and imprisoned within the said Penitentiary House for and during any Term not exceeding Five Years, in case such Offender shall have been sentenced to be transported for Seven Years only; for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, in case he or she shall have been so sentenced for Fourteen Years; and for a Term not exceeding Ten Years, in case such Offender shall have received Sentence of Transportation for Life, or shall have been actually committed.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That all Fees on the delivering out of Custody of any such Offender to be removed, as have already been paid and would have been due to the Keeper of the said Goal of Newgate in case such Offender had been removed in order to have been transported, and all reasonable Expences which the said Keeper shall incur in every such Removal, shall be paid by the said City of London or County of Middlesex, for which the Court in which the Offender was committed shall have been held; and the Keeper shall receive the Money due for such Fees and Expences from the Treasurer of the said City or County, such Fees and Expences being first allowed by the Order of the Justices of the Peace at their Quarter or other General Sessions of the Peace, who are hereby required to make such Order as shall be just in this behalf.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That after Delivery of any such Offender as aforesaid into the Custody to which he or she shall be so ordered as aforesaid, such Governor or other Person having the Custody of Offenders under his Direction shall, during the Term for which such Offender shall be ordered to remain in his Custody, have the same Powers over such Offender as are incident to the Office of a Sheriff or Gaoler; and in case of any Abuse of such Custody, or other Misbehaviour or Negligence in the Discharge of his Office, shall be liable to the same Punishment as a Gaoler is now liable to by Law.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That when any Offender who shall be ordered to be confined in such Penitentiary House shall be brought thither in pursuance of the Powers contained in this Act, he or she shall be separately lodged and washed, cleaned and purified, and shall then be examined by the Surgeon or Apothecary, and shall continue in such separate Lodging until it be certified by such Surgeon or Apothecary that he or she is fit to be mixed among the other Convicts; and the Clothes in which he or she shall then be clothed shall be having if necessary, or otherwise if it be found and disposed of at the Discretion of the Governor, and the Produce thereof shall be accounted for to the Committee aforesaid; and such Offender shall not be allowed at the End or other Determination of his Term, unless at his own Request, if he shall then labour under any acute or dangerous Distemper, not until he can be safely discharged; and when such Offender shall be safely discharged, such other decent Clothing as shall be judged necessary and proper by the Committee aforesaid, shall be delivered to such Offender, and also such sum of Money for his or her moderate Subsistence, as the said Committee shall think proper, so as such sum shall not exceed Three Pounds; and if such Offender at the End or other Determination of his or her Term, shall procure any reputable Master of a Ship, or Tradesman, or other substantial Headkeeper, to take him or her into his or her service, or provide him or her with proper Employment, for One Year then next ensuing, the same to be approved by the Committee aforesaid, he or she, having sworn accordingly, shall be entitled at the End of the Year to such other sum of Money, not exceeding the like sum of Three Pounds, as the said Committee shall think fit.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every such Governor of the said Penitentiary House shall during the Term for which such Offender shall remain in such Custody, keep him or her to Labour, of such Kind as the Committee before mentioned shall direct and appoint; and if the Work to be performed by any such Offenders shall be of such a Nature as may require previous Instructions, proper Persons shall be provided to give the same by Order of the said Committee, or whom a suitable Allowance shall be made.

XX. And be it further enacted, That such Offender, as shall be sent to the said Penitentiary House shall, during the Hours of Labour, be separated from each other, or shall work together in Companies composed of seven or fewer Persons in Number, in such manner as the Bye-Laws established as aforesaid by the Committee

Committee to certify, to Secretary of State, under the Great Seal, to His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order that any Person who shall be in His Majesty's Goal of Newgate, committed to Transportation for any Offence committed within the City of London or the County of Middlesex, or actually confined for any Crime committed within the said City or County, and pardoned by His Majesty upon the Condition of being confined under the Act, to be removed and imprisoned within the said Penitentiary House for and during any Term not exceeding Five Years, in case such Offender shall have been sentenced to be transported for Seven Years only; for any Term not exceeding Seven Years, in case he or she shall have been so sentenced for Fourteen Years; and for a Term not exceeding Ten Years, in case such Offender shall have received Sentence of Transportation for Life, or shall have been actually committed.

shall perform; and that all Offenders not confined in the Infirmary Hall, during their Hours of Rest, be kept entirely separate and apart from each other, and be lodged in separate Rooms or Cells.

Hours of Work. XXXI. And be it further enacted, That such Offenders shall be employed in Work at the said Penitentiary House every Day in the Year, except Sundays, Christmas Day and Good Fridays, and also except such Days when ill Health will not allow of their working; and the Hours of Work in each Day shall be as many as the Season of the Year, with an Interval of Half an Hour for Breakfast and an Hour for Dinner well spent, but not exceeding Eight Hours in the Months of November, December and January; Nine Hours in the Months of February and October, and Ten Hours in the rest of the Year: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Committee, by a written Order, to permit any Prisoner to labour voluntarily for a longer time than is herein mentioned, upon such Conditions as shall in the said Order be specified.

Rewards. XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Committee to allow to any of the Offenders confined in the said Penitentiary House, as a Reward and Encouragement, any Part or Portion of the Points arising from their Labour not exceeding such Proportion thereof as shall be approved of and allowed by the said Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department; to be expended in such manner, and subject to such Regulations as the said Committee shall direct and appoint.

Working Offenders and the Classification. XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the several Offenders to be first in the said Penitentiary House shall be divided into Two Classes, which shall be called the First and Second Class; for which Purpose the Time for which such Offenders shall be generally ordered to be confined shall be divided into Two equal Parts, and during the First Part of the Time of the Imprisonment, he or she shall be ranked in the First Class; and during the Second Part of such time, he or she shall be ranked in the Second Class; and the Confinement of such Offenders as shall from time to time be ranked in the First Class shall be more strict, and the Confinement of the Offenders in the Second Class shall be more moderate; by which several Degrees of Confinement to be assigned to each Class shall be settled by the said Committee; by Orders of Regulation to be approved of in manner aforesaid, but not in so as to defeat or elude the special Rules or Provisions made and appointed by this Act: Provided always, that if the said Committee shall at any time observe or be satisfactorily informed of any extraordinary Diligence or Merit in any of the said Offenders who are ranked in the said First Class, it shall be lawful for the said Committee to order such Offender to be transferred to the Second Class, although such Offender may not have completed the Period of his or her Imprisonment in the said First Class.

Exemption to receive Offenders who are not confined in the Penitentiary House. XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if the said Committee shall at any time observe or be satisfactorily informed of any extraordinary Diligence or Merit in any of the Offenders under their Inspection, who shall be ranked in the said Second Class of Offenders, the Committee shall report the same in Writing to the Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may recommend such Offender to His Majesty as an Object of the Royal Mercy, in such Degree and on such Conditions as to Him shall seem meet.

Hours of Offenders and their Clothing. XXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Offender who shall be ordered to work in the said Penitentiary House shall, during the time of his or her Confinement therein, be fed and furnished with a sufficient Quantity of coarse but wholesome Food; and also be clothed with a coarse and uniform Apparel, with any distinguishing Marks which may be deemed useful to facilitate Discovery in case of Escape; the Whole to be ordered in such manner as the Committee aforesaid shall from time to time appoint for those Purposes: And no such Offender shall, during the time of his or her Confinement, be permitted to have any other Food, Drink or Clothing, than such as shall be so appointed; and if any Person or Persons shall wilfully supply any such Offender, at any time during the Term of his or her Confinement, with any Food, Drink or Clothing, other than such as shall be so appointed, or with any Money, he or she so supplying such Offender, shall, for every such Offender, forfeit a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds, nor less than Forty Shillings.

Hours of Offenders and their Clothing. XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Person, except the Officers, Assistants or Servants of the House, or such Person or Persons as shall be authorized according to the Regulations established by the said Committee, shall be permitted any time to enter any of the Apartments or Court Yards allotted to the Prisoners, or to hold Conversation or Communication with any such Offenders.

Committee may employ Offenders as Servants. XXXVII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Governor of the said House to employ, with the Consent of the said Committee, any of the Offenders aforesaid, who shall be ranked in the Second Class as Servants, Overseers or Assistants, in the Management of the Works and the Care of their Fellow Prisoners, instead of being confined to such their Duty Labour as aforesaid.

Officers or Servants supplying Offenders with Money, Clothing, Provisions or Diet. XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Officer or Servant of such Penitentiary House shall supply any of the Offenders therein with any Money, Clothing, Provisions or Diet, or with any Spirituous or other Liquors whatsoever, except such Money, Clothing, Provisions or Diet, or such Water and Milk, as the Governor of the House shall from time to time permit or direct, and except such Diet and Liquors as the Surgeon or Apothecary attending such House shall think proper to order for any such Offenders in case of Illness; and in case any such Officer or Servant shall be found guilty of carrying in any such Offender, or of knowingly procuring to be carried to any such Offender, any Money, Clothing, Provisions or Diet, or Liquors whatsoever contrary to the Intent of this Act, such Officer or Servant shall immediately be suspended by the said Governor, who shall report the same to the Committee at their next Meeting; and such Committee shall enquire thereof upon Oath, and shall punish such Officer or Servant by Forfeiture of Office, by any Fine not exceeding Ten Pounds, and by Imprisonment for any Term not exceeding Six Months, or by any one or more of such Punishments as the said Committee shall in their Discretion think proper.

Chapel to read Prayers in. XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That a Chapel shall and may be erected and Reading Prayers in the Chapel of such Penitentiary House, and preach a Sermon each Morning and Evening, on every Sunday in the Year, and also on every Christmas Day and Good Friday; and all the Offenders confined in such House, who shall or be disabled by Illness, shall attend the said Prayers and Sermons, which shall also be attended by the said Officers and by the Servants of such House, or such of them as can be spared from their several Employments, and shall not be prevented by Illness; and the said Chaplains shall visit such Officers, under such Regulations as may hereafter be prescribed by the said Committee, for their moral and religious Education, as well as for their Instruction in Reading and Writing.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That the Officers, ordered to be confined in such Penitentiary House shall be permitted to walk and air themselves in the Airing Yards or Grounds belonging thereto, for such stated time as their Health may require, and the Governor, under the Direction of the Committee, shall permit.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That in case any such Officer shall appear to be sick, he or she shall be visited by the Surgeon or Apothecary attending such House, and if the Sickens be found to be real, the said Surgeon or Apothecary shall report the same to the Governor, who shall, if the Sickens be of such a Nature as to require it, order such Officer to be sent to the Infirmary belonging to such House, and to be entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose as a sick; and when such Officer shall have been recovered by or for Health, as that the said Surgeon or Apothecary shall judge him or her to be in proper Condition to quit the Infirmary, and to return to his or her Employment, and the said Apothecary shall so report, the said Governor shall order such Officer to be brought back to his or her Lodging Rooms, and to be again employed in Labour as far as shall be consistent with the Health of such Officer.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the said Committee, at every Meeting, in which Three of them at the least shall be present, shall inquire into the State of such House, and shall enquire at least in every Month, for every Officer confined there and not disabled by Sickens; and shall inspect the Accounts of the Governor and Storekeepers, and also examine the Conduct and Management of such House, and the Behaviour of the Officers thereof, and of the Officers confined therein.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Governor of such Penitentiary House shall have Power to hear all Complaints touching any of the following Offences; that is to say, Disobedience of any of the Orders of the House; Assaults by one Person confined in such House upon another, when no dangerous Wound or Bruise is given; profane Cursing and Swearing, or indecent Behaviour; Absence from Chapel, or irreverent Behaviour there; and Idleness or Negligence in Work, or wilful Mismanagement of it; all which are declared to be Offences by this Act; and the said Governor may examine any Person touching such Offences, and may detinue thereupon, and may punish such Offenders by entering the Offenders in close Confinement in a dark Cell, or by keeping them upon Bread and Water only, for any Term not exceeding Three Days.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer who shall be confined in any such Penitentiary House, shall, during the Term for which he shall be so confined, be guilty of any Offence which the Governor of such House is not hereby authorized to punish, or for which the Punishment which such Governor is hereby authorized to inflict shall by such Governor be deemed not sufficient, by reason of the Evidency of the Offence or the Repetition thereof, such Governor may, and he is hereby required to examine such Officer, either in his or her own Lodging Rooms, or in a dark Cell belonging to such House, till the next Meeting of the said Committee, and shall then report such Offence, with the time and particular Circumstances thereof, and the Name of the Offender, to the said Committee; and such Committee shall have Power to enquire of, upon Oath, and detinue concerning all such Offences so reported to them as aforesaid, and shall order such Offenders to be punished by close Confinement in a dark Cell, with Bread and Water only, for Satisfaction, for any Term not exceeding One Month, or by removing such Offenders, if ranked in the Second Class into the First Class, or by any or all of such Punishments; and in case of Removal into the First Class, the Offender shall from the time of making such Order of Removal, go through such First Class, unless he or she be returned to the Second Class by Order of the Committee, or unless the Term of his or her Confinement shall be previously completed.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That whenever by this Act the said Committee or any Three of them, are empowered or directed to make any Enquiry, or receive any Proof upon Oath, any One of the said Committee is hereby authorized to tender and administer such Oath; and any Three of the said Committee may summon or cause to be summoned such Witnesses as they shall think meet to appear and give Evidence before them; and if any Person, being duly summoned, shall refuse or neglect to appear, or being present and competent to be a Witness, shall refuse to be sworn, or, being sworn, shall refuse to give Evidence, such Person shall forfeit any Sum not less than Twenty Shillings nor more than Ten Pounds, at the Discretion of the said Committee.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Governor of the said Penitentiary House shall keep a regular Book or Books, in which shall be entered the Names of all and every the Persons or Persons who shall be in their Custody, the Offences of which they shall have been guilty, the Court before which such Person was convicted, the Sentence of the Court, the Age, bodily Estate and Behaviour of every such Person while in Custody; and also the Name of all and every the Person or Persons who shall have died under such Custody, or shall have escaped from such Place of Confinement, or shall have been discharged from thence by Order from One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or otherwise; from which Books Returns shall be made of the Particulars aforesaid here, on the First Day of every Term, to His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, and shall be written on the Oath of the Person making the same.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the said Committee shall, at the Beginning of every Session, make a faithful Report to the King in Council, and to both Houses of Parliament, specifying the State of the Buildings, the Behaviour and Conduct of the respective Officers, the Treatment and Condition of the Prisoners, the Amount of the several Earnings, and the Expenses attending every such Place of Confinement; and also in Matters of extreme or pressing Necessity, shall and may make a special Report thereof to the Justices of XIII. And, to the intent that the Proceedings for Escapes, Breaches of Prison and Releases, may be carried on with as little Trouble and Expence as is possible, be it further enacted, That any Offender escaping, breaking Prison, or being released in manner aforesaid, may and shall be tried before the Justices of Oyer and Terminer or Grand Delivery, or at the Great Sessions either for the County where he or she shall be apprehended and retaken, or for the County in which the said Offence shall have been committed; and in case of any Proceedings for any such Escape, Attempt to Escape, Breach of Prison or Release, either against the Offender escaping or attempting to escape, or having broken Prison, or being released, or against any other Person or Persons concerned therein, or aiding, abetting or assisting the same, a Copy, properly attested of the Order of Commitment to such Penitentiary House, shall, after Proof made that the Person then in question before the Court is the same that was delivered with such Order, be sufficient Evidence to the Court and Jury that the Person then in question was so ordered to such Confinement.

Prison.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That any necessary Fees and costs created by this Act, for the Recovery of which no Mode is herein before prescribed, shall be recoverable before Two or more Justices of the Peace in the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Borough, Town or Place in which the Offence shall be committed, on Proof of the Offence by the Oath or Oaths of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, or on Confession of the Offender; and One Moiety thereof shall be paid to the Use of the Penitentiary House, and the other Moiety to the Informer or Informers prosecuting for the same; and in case of Nonpayment, shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice; and the Overplus of the Money raised, after deducting the Fees and the Expence of the Distress and Sale, shall be ordered to the Owner; and for Want of sufficient Distress, the Offender shall be first by such Justices to the Prison of such County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, Town or Place, for such Term not exceeding Six Months, nor less than Six Months, as such Justices shall think most proper.

General Off.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Suit or Action shall be prosecuted against any Person or Persons for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and give the Act or the special Matter, in Evidence, as any Treatise, to be had thereupon, and that the same may also be by the Authority of this Act; and if a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuit, or discontinue his, her or their Action or Actions after Issue joined, or if, on Demurrer, or otherwise, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant has by Law in any cause; and though a Verdict shall be given for any Plaintiff in any such Action or Suit as aforesaid, such Plaintiff shall not have Costs against the Defendant, unless the Judge before whom the Trial shall be, shall certify his Approbation of the Verdict.

Treble Costs.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That all Affairs, Suits and Proceedings, to be commenced against any Person or Persons for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, shall be laid and tried in the County or Place where the Fact was committed, and shall be commenced within Six Months after the Fact committed, and not otherwise.

Penalty.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland at any time after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twelve, shall in his or their Discretion judge it to be for the Benefit and Advantage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, to permit the Exportation of such Spirits to Parts beyond the Seas, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, and he and they it and are hereby authorized, with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council of Ireland, by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued by and with the Advice of the said Privy Council, or by Order in Council to be published in the British Gazette, to permit and suffer all and every Person or Persons (but not any particular Person or Persons) of any time or times not less than Thirty Days from the Date of such Proclamation or Order in Council, to export any such Spirits to Parts beyond the Seas; or in case the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland at any time after the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twelve, shall in his or their Discretion judge it to be for the Benefit and Advantage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, further to continue the Prohibition of the Exportation of such Spirits from the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, and he and they it and are hereby authorized, with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council of Ireland, by any Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued by and with the Advice of the said Privy Council, or by Order in Council to be published in the British Gazette, to continue throughout Ireland from the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament the Prohibition heretofore mentioned; that it is to be, that it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons to export, or to enter, or ship for Exportation from any Port or Place in Ireland to any Parts beyond the Seas, any Spirits made or distilled in Ireland from Corn or Grain made or fermented.

Lord Lieutenant may permit the exportation of

left to the Judgment of them the said Commissions), that such Spirits were actually shipped for such Exportation on or before the Twelfth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and without any Knowledge of the Provisions of this Act, by the Purser or Purvers by whom such Spirits were shipped.

IV. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That in case any Purser shall at any time before the passing of this Act have sold or contracted to sell any such Spirits to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, such Purser in having sold or contracted to sell such Spirits shall not be compelled or compelled to perform or fulfil any such Sale or Contract, nor shall such Purser be liable to any Damages for Breach of such Contract, or for neglecting or refusing to sell or deliver such Spirits; and in case any Action shall be brought against any Purser or Purvers for any Breach of such Contract, or for neglecting or refusing to sell or deliver such Spirits, the Defendant or Defendants may plead the General Issue, and in any Trial to be had thereupon may give in Evidence this Act and the special Matter, and that such Sale and Delivery were procured and prohibited by the Authority of this Act; and if the same shall appear accordingly, then the Jury shall and in case of a Discontinuance of the Action, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Double Costs, and shall have such Remedy for recovering the same as any Defendant or Defendants law or hath for Costs of Suits in any other cases by Law.

V. And he it further enacted, That the Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted by this Act shall and may be used for and recovered, levied and applied, in like Manner and Form, and by such ways and means, and with such Powers and Authorities, as are prescribed, directed and appointed to and by an Act of Parliament made in Ireland, in the Tenthenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second; intitled An Act for the settling the Excise or other Taxes upon His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of Rates therein provided, or by any other Law or Laws relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise or Customs in force in Ireland, as fully and effectually, as if the same were particularly mentioned and expressed and recited in this Act, with like Extent of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties who shall stand law, by or on themselves aggrieved or injured, as is and by the said recited Act or any Law or Laws relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise or Customs in force in Ireland is provided.

VI. And he it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XLVI.

An Act to grant to His Majesty Duties upon Spirits made or distilled in Ireland, and on other certain Drawbacks on the Exportation thereof; and to repeal certain Bounties given to Purvers licensed to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer and Ale by Retail in Ireland. [5th May 1812.]

• Most Gracious Sovereigns,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, sheweth, that the necessary Supplies, here freely and voluntarily offered to give and grant unto Your Majesty the Duties hereafter mentioned; and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and he it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That within and through that Part of the said United Kingdom called Ireland, there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected, paid and satisfied, to and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the several Duties hereafter mentioned; that it so be:

For and upon every Gallon of Spice Wine, Strong Waters or Spirits which, at any time from and after the Eighth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twelve, shall be made or distilled in Ireland from Corn or Grains mixed or unmixed, or for which any Distiller shall be chargeable by Law, or additional Duty of Two Shillings and Six pence Strong Currency, over and above all other Duties payable thereon, and under and by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland, or in any time before the said Eighth Day of April, and after the same Rate for any greater or less Quantity; and which shall additional Duty shall be paid by the said Maker or Distiller of such Spirit.

II. And he it further enacted, That there shall also be granted, raised, levied, collected, paid and satisfied, to and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the several Duties hereafter mentioned; that it so be:

For and upon every Gallon of Spice Wine, Strong Waters or Spirits made or distilled in Ireland from Corn or Grains mixed or unmixed, which shall have been in the Stock, Custody or Possession of any Distiller in Ireland, or of any Purser for the Use of such Distiller on the said Eighth Day of April, the additional Duty or Sum of Two Shillings and Six pence Strong Currency, over and above all other Duties which shall have been charged or paid on such Spice Wine, Strong Waters or Spirits, and after the same Rate for any greater or less Quantity;

And also for and upon every Gallon of Spice Wine, Strong Waters or Spirits made in Great Britain or Ireland from Corn or Grains mixed or unmixed, which shall have been in the Stock, Custody or Possession of any Importer of Duty in, Seller or Retailer of Spirits in Ireland, or of any Refiner, or of any Compounder of Spirits, on the said Eighth Day of April, an additional Duty or Sum of Two Shillings and Six pence Strong Currency, over and above all other Duties which shall have been paid on such Spice Wine, Strong Waters or Spirits, and after the same Rate for any greater or less Quantity;

Provided always, That no such Charge of Two Shillings and Six pence per Gallon, upon any Spirits in the Stock, Cellary or Possession of any Person, shall take place upon or affect any Person who shall own in the Whole or have the Quantity of Thirty Gallons in Stock, Cellary or Possession, on the said Eighth Day of April, and that no such Charge shall take place on any Spirits in the Stock of any Compositor of Spirits, which shall have been actually compounded before the said Eighth Day of April.

III. And be it further enacted, That there shall also be granted, raised, levied, collected, paid and satisfied, to and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon every Gallon of Acqua Fava, Straw Water or Spirits, made or distilled from Corn or Grass, washed or un-washed, in Ireland, and which having been warehoused in any of His Majesty's Warehouses or Stores in Ireland pursuant to Law, shall at any time on or after the said Eighth Day of April, be taken out for Home Consumption in Ireland, the Sum of Two Shillings and Six pence or Sex Pence, and after the same Rate for any greater or less Quantity over and above the Duties of Excise on such Spirits payable thereon, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland on or immediately before the said Eighth Day of April.

IV. And whereas it is expedient, pursuant to the Provisions of the Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, that in respect of the additional Duties by this Act imposed on Spirits made in Ireland, additional Comensuring Duties should be charged upon the like Spirits made in Great Britain, and so respectively imported from thence into Ireland, fullness to answer the said Duties on Spirits made in Ireland under this Act: Be it therefore enacted, That there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected, paid and satisfied, to and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, on all such Spirits the Comensuring Duties following, over and above all Comensuring Duties whatsoever payable upon such Spirits under or by virtue of any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland at the time of such Importations: Ence to say:

For and upon every Gallon of Spirits made or distilled in Great Britain from Corn or Grass, washed or un-washed, and which shall be imported from thence into Ireland at any time after the said Eighth Day of April: One thousand eight hundred and twelve, the Sum of Two Shillings and Six pence Sex Pence, and after the same Rate for any greater or less Quantity.

V. And be it further enacted, That for and upon every Gallon of Spirits made or distilled in Ireland from Corn, washed or un-washed, and on which the Duties by Law payable thereon shall have been fully paid and satisfied, and which shall be exported from Ireland to Great Britain, there shall be allowed and given a Drawback, equal in Amount to the Comensuring Duties imposed by this Act upon Spirits made or distilled in Great Britain from Corn or Grass, washed or un-washed, and imported from thence into Ireland.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall export to any other Place than Great Britain Spirits distilled in Ireland from Corn or Grass, washed or un-washed, on which the additional Duties imposed by this Act shall have been fully paid and satisfied, shall be entitled to and shall receive for every Gallon of such Spirits a Drawback equal to the Duty by this Act imposed on such Spirits made or distilled in Ireland, provided that all such Spirits shall be of a Strength not less than One to Ten, or Hydrostatic Proof; and which said Drawback shall be over and above all Drawbacks payable under or by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland on or immediately before the said Eighth Day of April, in respect of such Spirits exported from Ireland to foreign Parts.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Moneys arising from the Duties granted by this Act (the necessary Charges of making and paying the same being deducted) shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Duty of Two Shillings and Six pence per Gallon on Spirits made or distilled in Ireland from Corn, washed or un-washed, imposed by this Act, shall be charged on every Distiller in respect of the Quantity of Spirits which shall be made or distilled by such Distiller, or for which any Distiller shall be chargeable by Law to be computed, ascertained and charged, in such manner and under such Regulations, Directions and Provisions as are contained in an Act made in the Tenth sixth Year of His present Majesty's Majesty, intituled An Act to provide for the regulating and fixing of the Collection of the Duties on Spirits sold in Ireland, and the Warehousing of such Spirits for Exportation, or in this or any other Act or Acts for the same purpose, regulating or levying the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland, or for warehousing the same, and that of and every the Clerks, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Penalties, Forfeitures and Modes of enforcing the same, provided, maintained and continued as if the said recited Act of the Tenth sixth Year be continued, or in this or any other Act or Acts for granting, regulating or levying the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland, or for the warehousing of any such Spirits, shall be applied and put in Execution in relation to the said Duty and other Charges on such Distiller in respect of the said Duties of Spirits under this Act, and with respect to the Warehousing of any Spirits charged with Duty under this Act, as well as if the same, or all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if all the said Clauses, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Penalties and Forfeitures had been expressly repeated and enacted in this Act.

IX. And, in order to have the said respective Duties of Two Shillings and Six pence by this Act imposed to and for the Use of His Majesty, as well as Eighteen Pence, in the Stock, Cellary or Possession of any Distiller or Importer, or Dealer, Seller, Retailer and Wholesaler of Spirits in Ireland, be it further enacted, That any Officer or Officers of Excise in Ireland shall and may by gauging or otherwise, take a Account of the Quantity of all such Spirits in the Stock, Cellary or Possession of any Distiller or Importer, or Dealer, Seller, or Retailer of Spirits in Ireland, or of any Person for the Use of any such Distiller, Importer, Dealer, Seller, Retailer or Wholesaler respectively, on the said Eighth Day of April, and also of all such Spirits not compounded, which on the said Eighth Day of April shall be in the Stock, Cellary

the said recited Act made in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, or any other Act or Acts as aforesaid, is provided

XIX. And whereas an Act was made in the Fiftieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for excusing the Consumption of Malt Liquor in Ireland, the Provisions of which Act have not proved beneficial, and it is expedient to repeal the same: Be it therefore enacted, That the said recited Act of the Fiftieth Year aforesaid, and all and every Statute by the said Act granted, and all and every the Clauses, Articles, Matters and Things in the said Act contained, shall, from and after the Twentieth fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve, cease and determine, and shall be and the same are hereby repealed, save and except so far as relates to the Payment and Allowance of any Beersay to which any Partes licensed to sell Spirituous Liquors, Wine, Beer, Ale and Cyder by Retail, shall, under the Provisions of the said Act, be or shall have been entitled for the Quarter of the Year ending on the said Twentieth fifth Day of March, or for any preceding Quarter of a Year, and the obtaining of the proper and necessary Licences, Returns and Certificates for the sending or receiving any such Payments, and also save as to any Offence which shall have been or may be committed against the said Act, and any Proceedings to be taken for the Prosecution of any Partes or Persons offending against the said Act.

XX. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XLVII.

An Act to revive and continue until the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve, inasmuch as an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty to prohibit the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain in the United Kingdom, as relates to Ireland.

[5th May 1812.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act to prohibit the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain in the United Kingdom for a limited Time, should be revived and continued for a time to be limited, as far as the same regards Ireland: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twelve, the said Act shall be and the same is hereby, as far as the same regards that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and as far as the same is not altered by this Act, revived, and shall remain and continue in force from thenceforth until and upon the Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, at any time after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twelve, shall in his or their Discretion judge it to be for the Benefit of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, to permit the Distillation of Spirits from Oats, Barley or any other Corn or Grain (Wheat excepted), or from Malt, Flour or Bran, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, by Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, or by Order in Council to be published from time to time in The Dublin Gazette, to permit and suffer all and every Partes and Persons (but not any particular Partes or Persons) in Ireland, at any time or times not less than Thirty Days from the Date of such Proclamation or Order in Council, to make Worts or Wash for Distillation, and to distil Spirits from Oats, Barley, or any other Corn or Grain, (Wheat excepted) or from any Malt, Flour or Bran; or in case the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, at any time after the said First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twelve, shall in his or their Discretion judge it to be for the Benefit and Advantage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, to continue the Prohibition of the Distillation of Spirits from Corn or Grain, from the said Twenty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve, until Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, by Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, or by Order in Council to be published from time to time in The Dublin Gazette, to continue throughout that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, from the said Thirty first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and Forty Days after the next Meeting of Parliament, the Prohibition heretofore mentioned; that it is to be, that throughout that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, during the Continuance of such Prohibition, no Worts or Wash for Distillation shall be made, and no Spirits shall be distilled from Oats, Barley or any other Corn or Grain, or from Malt, Flour or Bran, or any Mixture with the same.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every Distiller and Distillers, and Maker and Makers of Spirits in Ireland, at any time on or before the Eighteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twelve, to distil such Spirits as the Worts, Wash and Singsings brewed or made from Malt, Corn or Grain which shall on the said Fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twelve, be in his, her or their Custody or Possession, and to make Worts or Wash or Singsings, which shall after the said Eighteenth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twelve, be found by any Officer or Officers of Excise, or be in the Custody or Possession of any such Distiller or Distillers, or Maker or Makers of Spirits in Ireland, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and no Distiller or Distillers, or Maker or Makers of Spirits in Ireland, shall distill, mix or brew any Sugar for the making of Worts or with the excise-duty made, until the Expire of Ten Days after the first Twentieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twelve, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of Ten hundred Pounds.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Fine, Penalty and Forfeiture inflicted by this Act shall and may be levied for and recovered, levied and applied as such Messors and Taxes, and by such ways and means and with such Power and Authorities as are prescribed, directed and appointed, or may be by an Act of Parliament made in Ireland, in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second, intitled An Act for the better the Excise or other Duty upon the Malt, Beer and Brewings, according to the Statute therein before recited, or by any other Law or Laws in that behalf made; His Majesty's Revenue of Excise or Customs in force in Ireland, as fully and effectually to all Licenses and Purposes as if the same were particularly mentioned and expressed and contained in this Act, with the Limits of Appeal, as if the same were particularly mentioned and expressed and contained in any Act or Acts in that behalf made in Great Britain, or any Law or Laws relating to His Majesty's Revenue of Excise or Customs in force in Ireland, is provided.

V. And whereas there may have been Contracts made by Distillers in Ireland with other Persons for such Spirits to be delivered at future times after the said Fourth Day of May; Be it therefore enacted, That all Contracts or Bargains made by any Distiller with any Person or Persons whatsoever, for any such Spirits to be delivered at any time during the Operation of this Act, shall be and are hereby declared null and void as to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

VI. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XLVIII.

An Act to provide for the regulating and securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland from Corn, malted or unmalted, in Stills of and under One hundred Gallons Content.

[15th May 1812.]

WHEREAS it is expedient, for the more effectual Suppression of the Distillation of Spirits, to make Regulations for the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland from Corn malted or unmalted, in Stills of and under One hundred Gallons Content; and for the Encouragement of Improved Distilleries, having and using such Stills, to exempt such Distillers of and from all and every the Regulations in any Act or Acts of Parliament whatsoever, relating to the Trade of a Distiller, save only as are herein contained; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the Expire of Ten Days after the passing of this Act, nothing contained in any Act made in the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for the regulating and securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland, and the Warehousing of such Spirits for Exportation; or in any Act made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend an Act made in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for the regulating and securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland; or in Two several Acts made in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, the one intitled An Act to grant to His Majesty's Duties upon Spirit made or distilled in Ireland, and to allow certain Drawbacks on the Exportation thereof; and the other, intitled An Act to amend the several Acts for the regulating and securing the Collection of the Duty on Spirits distilled in Ireland; or in an Act made in the Forty ninth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to amend the several Acts for the regulating and securing the Collection of the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland, and for the regulating the Sale of such Liquors by Retail; or in Two several Acts made in the Fiftieth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, the one intitled An Act to grant to His Majesty's Duties upon Spirit made or distilled in Ireland from Corn, to allow certain Drawbacks on the Exportation thereof, to make further Regulations for the Encouragement of Improved Distilleries, and for amending the Laws relating to the Distillery in Ireland; and the other intitled An Act to amend the several Acts relating to the making of Malt, and the granting of Permits and Certificates, and the Regulation of Breweries, and of Persons employing more than one Still in Ireland; shall extend or be construed as extended, (as in both or either mentioned, to any Distiller who shall be licensed to have or keep a Still of or under One hundred Gallons Content, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That so much of the said first recited Act, passed in the Fiftieth Year aforesaid, in respect or grants Duties on Spirits to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall be and remain in full force to all Distillers licensed under this Act, as full force to all Licenses and Purposes, as if this Act had not been made.

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That if any Distiller, having at the time of the passing of this Act a Licence in force to keep any Still of or under One hundred Gallons Content, shall be desirous of continuing to work the same, or to have thereof a Still of the like Content in the same Distillery, it shall and may be lawful for such Distiller to grant or to work such Still, and for the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, or any Four of them, from time to time to grant to such Person a Licence to keep any Still of the like Content in the same Distillery, specifying as every such Licence that the same is granted to a Distiller, who, at the time of the passing of this Act, a Licence in force to keep a Still of or under One hundred Gallons Content, and the Place where the same had been so licensed to be kept; and every such Distiller shall be charged with the chargeable work Duty, and shall be under and subject to all and every the Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland.

refused, as or immediately before the passing of this Act to all Intests and Purposes whatsoever, as if this Act had not been made.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Expiration of Ten Days after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, or any Four of them, to grant a License to any Person or Persons in Ireland, to keep and sell any one Still, the Body whereof, without the Head or any other Appendage thereto, shall be capable of containing any Number of Gallons not less than Forty four Gallons, and which, with the Head or any other Appendage thereto, shall not exceed One hundred Gallons Content, in any Place in Ireland where the said Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes, or any Four of them, shall from to time expedient, towards educating the Purpoise of this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons shall here, keep or make use of any such Still for distilling Spirits as aforesaid, without having first obtained a License for keeping, and using the same, from and signed by Four of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, and every such License shall continue in force until the Twenty sixth Day of September next after the Date thereof, or until the Twenty sixth Day of September Two Years next after the Date of such License, as if the Person requiring such License shall desire the same: Provided always, that Persons in Partnership carrying on the Business of distilling, shall not be obliged to take out more than One such License.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons licensed under this Act, shall be licensed to keep or sell at the same time any Still exceeding One hundred Gallons Content.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and all Regulations therein contained, shall extend and be construed to extend to any Person under the Age of Twenty one Years, in whose Name, or for whose Use and Benefit any Distillery shall be erected, managed or carried on; and such Person shall be liable to all Duties of Excise on account of such Distillery, and to all Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, as fully to all Intests and Purposes, as if such Person were adult and of full Age.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, for the Purpose of charging the Duty on Spirits, the Content of any Still licensed under this Act shall be estimated according to the Quantity of Liquor which such Still, including the Head thereof, and every Appendage to such Still or Head of any Kind or Sort whatsoever, whereby such Still or the Head thereof, or any Part thereof, shall be contained, or shall any way communicate with the Worn as high as the Stearn can stand, and until the Top of the Head, or any Appendage to such Still or Head, shall turn downwards, and form an Angle of Forty five Degrees, shall be actually capable of containing; and if any Still of the Content specified in the License of or under Sixty five Gallons, shall exceed by Two Gallons the Content specified in such License as being the Content of such Still, or if any Still of the Content specified in the License of or under One hundred Gallons and exceeding Sixty five Gallons, shall exceed by Four Gallons the Content specified in such License as being the Content of such Still, the Distiller or Distillers shall forfeit a Sum of Twenty Pounds for every Gallon which the Content of such Still shall exceed the Content specified in the License of such Still, and such Still shall be forfeited and may be seized.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Still shall be of the Proportions following; the Diameter of such Still, to be taken in the widest Part of such Still, and in that Place of such widest Part as shall be most remote from the Bottom of such Still, shall be to the Altitude of such Still measured in a perpendicular Line from the Centre of the Diameter so taken to the Bottom of such Still, in the Proportion of not more than Three to One; that is to say, for every Inch of such Altitude, such Diameter shall not exceed Three Inches, and so in Proportion; and that the Diameter of the Bottom of such Still to be taken in an horizontal Line, shall not be equal to the greatest Diameter thereof taken as aforesaid, and shall not be less than Three Sixths of such greatest Diameter, nor shall the Bottom of any such Still be otherwise curved than inwards or towards the Body of such Still; and if any Distiller shall here, keep or make use of any Still, the Proportion of the Diameter and Altitude whereof shall be contrary to this Act, every such Still shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized, and the Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

X. And be it further enacted, That every Person requiring such License, shall sign and deliver to the Collector or other Chief Officer in charge of the Collection of the Duties, an Account in Writing to be entered and registered in the Office of Excise in which such Still is to be kept, containing his, her or their Name or Names, and Place or Places of Abode, and the Place where the Distillery containing such Still is or shall be situated, and of the Still, Still-head and Worn, intended to be kept there, and the Number of Gallons which the Body of such Still is capable of containing, and also the Number of Gallons which such Still is capable of containing, together with the Head thereof, and every other Appendage thereto included, separately in Form; and shall also in like manner sign and deliver an Account in Writing to be so entered and registered as aforesaid, of all Coppers, Vats, Kettles, Backs, Coolers, Vessels, Pipes, Stoves, Trunks and other Utensils whatsoever to be used in such Distillery, and also of the several Stores, Apartments and Places whereon any Part of the Business of such Distillery is to be carried on, or wherein any Materials for distilling of Spirits are to be kept or stored; and in every such written Account, the Person making the same shall distinguish the Still, Still-head and Worn, and also every Copper, Vat, Kettle, Back, Cooler, Vessel, Pipe, Stove, Trunk and other Utensil whatever, and also every such Store, Apartment and Place, by separate Numbers relating to each Article in alphabetical Progression, beginning with Number One; and upon such Still, Still-head and Worn, and upon every such Copper, Vat, Kettle, Back, Cooler, Vessel, Pipe, Stove, Trunk and Utensil, and also upon the outside of the Door of every such Store, Apartment and Place, shall cause to be painted with an Oil Colour in Black upon a White Ground, or in White upon a Black Ground, and shall keep them so painted the Number thereof respectively, in Conformity with such Account; and that the Surveyor of Excise, within whose Survey such Distillery shall be situate, shall, at the Bottom of every such

Account,

Access, before the same shall be delivered to or received by the Collector or other Person in Charge of the Collection of the District, certify the Truth of such Account by Signing his Name thereto; and thereupon the Collector of Excise or other Person in Charge as aforesaid, shall file such Account in the Office of Excise of the District, and enter and register the same in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, and shall grant a Certificate of such Account and Registry, by giving a Copy thereof signed by him; and before any such License shall be granted to any Person to keep any Still, such Person shall produce to the said Commissioners of Excise the said Certificate of the Collector or other Person in Charge of the Collection; and such Person applying for such License, shall also with Two sufficient Sureties, to be previously approved of by the Collector of Excise, or other Person in Charge of the Collection of the District within which such Distillery is to be erected (such Approbation of the said Sureties to be certified by such Collector or Person in Charge as aforesaid) enter into a Bond to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in a Penalty after the Rate of Ten Pounds for each Gallon of the Content of the Still to be licensed, the Body and Head inclusive, conditioned for the Payment of all such Sums and Sums of Money as shall be chargeable by Law on such Person for the Duties on Spirits or Strong Waters distilled by such Person, or with which such Person shall be charged under and by virtue of this Act, or any other Act or Acts in force or to be in force in Ireland, relating to the Duties on Spirits distilled in Ireland.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise and Taxes, or any Four of them, to refuse to grant a License to any Person or Persons whatever to keep any such Still, or to withdraw the License granted for any such Still: Provided always, that the Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, be first had and obtained for every such Refusal or withdrawing of any such License.

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Person licensed as a Distiller under this Act shall rectify or compound any Spirits, and that it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise to grant any License to rectify or compound Spirits to any such Distiller so licensed under this Act, or to any Person in Trust for or on the Account of such Distiller; and if such Distiller shall rectify or compound any Spirits, or shall be directly or indirectly concerned or engaged in the rectifying or compounding of Spirits, the License of such Distiller under this Act shall be and is hereby declared to be void, and the Still, Still Head and Worm, and every Copper, Vat, Cooler, Back or other Vessel or Utensil whatever for distilling, and all Spirits, Low Wines, Stagings, Wash, Pot Ale, Mash or Corn, and all Materials for making Spirits issued in the Possession of any such Distiller, shall be forfeited, and may be seized.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller licensed under this Act shall sell or deal in any Spirits not distilled by such Distiller, or be entitled to obtain any License to sell or deal in the same; and if any such Distiller shall receive or sell, or deal in any Home-made or Foreign Spirits, by Commission or otherwise contrary to this Act, such Distiller shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no such Distiller shall have any Share in, or be in any manner concerned in the Sale of Spirituous Liquors by Retail; and if any Distiller shall, contrary hereto, have any Share in, or be in any manner concerned in such Sale, every such Distiller shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

XV. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller licensed under this Act, shall brew or make any Liquor from Corn, malted or unmaltd, other than Pot Ale, to be distilled by him; and it shall be lawful for any Officer of Excise to charge all Liquor made or brewed from Corn, malted or unmaltd, in the Possession of any such Distiller, in the same manner as Pot Ale or Wash for the Purpose of distilling is by this Act chargeable; and in case any Pot Ale or Liquor brewed or made from Corn, malted or unmaltd, shall be found in the Possession of such Distiller not duly declared by him, such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, together with the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every Ten Gallons of such Pot Ale or other Liquor: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for every such Distiller to have in his Dwelling House, a reasonable Quantity of Beer and Ale for the Use of himself and his Family, such Ale or Beer not having been brewed by such Distiller.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller licensed under this Act shall make, extract or distil, any Low Wines or Spirits from Molasses or Sugar, or from any Molasses Wash or Sugar Wash or Sweet Water or any Mixture with the same; and if any such Distiller shall make, extract or distil, or cause to be made, extracted or distilled, any Low Wines or Spirits from Molasses or Sugar, or from any Molasses Wash or Sugar Wash or Sweet Water or any Mixture with the same, or shall make or prepare any Wort or Wash from Molasses or Sugar, or any Mixture with the same, every such Distiller shall forfeit One hundred Pounds; and all Molasses Wash or Sugar Wash prepared from any of the aforesaid Materials, or from any Mixture with the same, and all Low Wines and Spirits made, extracted or distilled therefrom, shall be forfeited and may be seized; and upon the Trial of any Information for the said Penalty or for any of the said Forfeitures, such Distiller shall be convicted, unless due Proof shall be made by such Distiller that the Wash, Low Wines or Spirits, in respect of which such Information shall be brought, was not made, extracted or distilled, from any Molasses or Sugar, or Molasses Wash or Sugar Wash or Sweet Water.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Distiller, licensed under this Act, shall have or keep, or make use of any Still, Still Head, Worm, Copper, Kettle, Vat, Cooler, Back, Pipe, Shute, Truck or other Vessel or Utensil whatever, or any Appurtenance or Apparatus whatever, communicating or connected, directly or indirectly, with any Still, Still Head, Worm or Copper, or any Part thereof respectively, such

And be it further enacted, That if any such Distiller shall use any Distillery make use of any Cooler which shall not be covered down or otherwise followed to Bottom, or any such at both Ends at the Walls of the Building, or in some other firm and substantial manner, or shall other the Level or Dipping Place of any Cooler or Back in such Distillery, or the Beam that supports the same, after it shall have been first used as aforesaid, or find after the time to be stated without having previously given Four Days Notice thereof to the Surveyor or Gauger in charge of such Distillery; or if such Distiller shall use any Cooler through or across the Course of which there shall not be erected and evidently kept fixed Lengthways, from one End to the other, a firm Truss or Stage of Wood at least Eight or Nine in Breadth, and of Thickness sufficient to prevent the same from bending, wherefrom the Officer of Excise may gauge the same in such Cooler; or if there shall be a firm Head-end of length of such Stage, crosswise placed in respect therein, every Distiller shall also forfeit in any of the cases aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Distiller shall keep all Spirits distilled, and all Wash, Pot Ale, Singlets and Low Worts in the Distillery of such Distiller, or in some house or Room in or adjoining to such Distillery, registered in manner hereinafter mentioned; and all Spoons, Wash, Pot Ale, Singlets or Low Worts, which shall be found in any House or Room so registered, shall be forfeited and may be seized, as like Distiller or Distillers, or other Persons or Persons to whom the same shall belong, shall for every Gallon of such Spirits, and for every Two Gallons of Wash or Pot Ale, and for every Three Gallons of Singlets and Low Worts, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings.

XXIV. And

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Spirits sold in the Store or Distillery of any Distiller, shall be kept in Casks of the Size or Content of not less than Sixty Gallons each; and if any Cask shall be found in any such Store or Distillery containing Spirits which shall be of any less Size or Content, such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Cask.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer of Excise, at all Times, as well by Night as by Day, to enter into every House, Distillery, Still-house, Cask-house, Store and Place whatsoever, or belonging to or made use of by any such Distiller as aforesaid, and to require, make, and take an Account of every Still, Still-house, Copper, Kettle, Vat, Cask, Back, Pipe, Still, Truck or other Vessel or Utensil of any Kind, or belonging to or kept by any such Distiller, and to gauge and take an Account of all Spirits which shall be from time to time made or distilled, and of all Malt and Corn, and of all Wares, Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, Low Wines and Materials, whatsoever, for making or distilling Spirits which shall be from time to time made use of by such Distiller, and of all such Spirits which shall be from time to time made use of by such Distiller, and of all such Wares and Materials for making or distilling of such Spirits as shall be in any House, Distillery, Store or Place belonging to such Distiller, and make Returns thereof in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer of Excise or his Assistant, shall be hindered, obstructed or prevented by any Distiller, or by any Servant or Person acting in Employment of such Distiller, both relating unto any such Distillery, or any House, Out-house, Store or other Place whatsoever of such Distiller, or if any such Officer or his Assistant having entered, shall be hindered, obstructed or prevented by such Distiller, or by any Servant or Person acting in the Employment of such Distiller, or in or upon the Premises of such Distiller, from gauging any Vessel, or taking any Account of the Stock of Malt, Corn or Spirituous such Distiller, or of any Liquors or Ingredients preparing for or used or ready to be used in distilling in such Distillery, or from forcing the whole Process in distilling completely finished, or from taking an Account of the Liquors distilled or to be distilled, or in Proceeding distilling, or from doing any Part of his Duty, every such Distiller shall, for every such Offence, respectively forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That every such Distiller shall place and keep all Casks and Vessels in which any Spirits shall be found or kept, or which shall be made use of in distilling, in convenient Situations, with their tapping Place apparent and easy of Access, to such Officer of Excise in Charge of the Distillery, and voluntarily do it, for the more readily and effectually taking the Gauge thereof; or in default thereof, every such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for each Cask or Vessel not so placed.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Distiller or Deceased or any Officer of Excise, made as in the Distillery of such Distiller, shall not furnish, or cause to be furnished, a strong and safe Locker with Keys Past locked upon it, or shall not have provided a Hand Rail, or a Raps or Notice of a Hand Rail, conveniently placed with respect to such Locker, of Length sufficient to enable such Officer to ascend to and examine any Cask, Back, Worm, Tub or other Vessel or Utensil in such Distillery, or shall not fix such Locker at the dipping Place of any such Cask, Back, Worm, Tub or other Vessel or Utensil, whose such Officer shall require; or shall, on any Visit made by any Officer of Excise, neglect or refuse to supply every such Officer, on Demand, with sufficient Lights for the Purpose of searching and gauging all the Stock on hand belonging to such Distillery, as well by Day as by Night, every Distiller for offending in any of the parts aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer of Excise shall at any Time, when Singlings or Spirits shall not be running off from a Still, require that the Water contained in the Worm Tub belonging to such Still shall be drawn or run off, the same shall be drawn or run off accordingly; and if the same shall not be drawn or run off by some Person in the Distillery, it shall be lawful for any such Officer to draw or run off such Water, or so much thereof as he shall think necessary; and if the Water shall not be drawn or run off at the Request of such Officer, the Distiller is whose Distillery such Worm-tub shall be found shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Officer of Excise shall not be admitted into any Distillery, after having obtained Admittance into the same, and declared his Name and Rank, and after having waited for the Space of One Quarter of an Hour after such Admittance made, at the House of the Distiller, or the Gate or Entrance, Door, or any Window of the Distillery of such Distiller, such Distiller shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXXI. And whereas Distillers have frequently made use of Places adjoining their own Houses or Distilleries, for the Purpose of clandestinely making, by evading, distilling or concealing their Malt, Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, Low Wines or Spirits for Her Majesty's Service, Be it further enacted, That if the Owner or Occupier of any House, Store or other Place adjoining to or in the Neighborhood of the Dwelling House or Distillery of any Distiller, or of any Servant of the Owner or Occupier of any such House or Place, shall not, on Demand of any Officer of Excise, made in the Day-time, admit such Officer of Excise, or shall not allow him to enter and search such House, Store or Place, for Malt, Wares, Wash, Pot Ale, Singlings, Low Wines or Spirits, such Occupier of such House, Store or other Place, shall in every such case forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if the House, Store or Place aforesaid, shall commencing with the Distiller, or any Part of the Premises thereto belonging, and if such Distiller, or some Person on his Behalf, shall not on Demand, give Evidence unto such Distiller or any Officer requiring the same, every such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any such Distiller shall intend to brew or wash any Cereals, such Distiller shall, four Hours at least before he shall brew or wash any Cereals, give Notice to the Officer in Charge of the Distillery of such Distiller (by an Entry to be made in a Book to be provided by such Officer for such Distiller, and to be kept in such Distillery) of the particular Hour and Time when such Distiller intends to brew or wash any Cereals, and the Number of Bushels of Cereals, designating whether malted or unmalted, or Malt intended to be used in every such Brewing or Malting, and also the time when such Brewing will be completed and the Worts be off; and if such Distiller shall intend to make any brewed Malting of the same Materials, with any Addition thereto of any further Quantity of Cereals malted or unmalted, such Distiller shall give a like Notice; and such Book shall be carefully kept by such Distiller, and the said Entries being made therein, the said Book shall, within Forty eight Hours after the Expiration of every Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, be delivered by such Distiller to such Officer; and in case any Cereals, malted or unmalted, shall be stored or brewed in the Distillery of any Distiller without such Notice being given by Entry to be made in such Book, every such Distiller shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That every brewing of Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, shall be lawfully run off into or placed on Cooles, and shall be thence gauged by the proper Officer within a reasonable time before the same shall be let into any fermenting Back; and all Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, shall be distilled in the Order in which the same was brewed; and that no newer Worts, Wash or Pot Ale shall be distilled with those; nor shall Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, as brewed and not distilled; and that if any such Worts, Wash or Pot Ale shall be brewed in the Distillery of any Distiller, which shall not have been in use off into and placed on Cooles, and mixed thereto for a reasonable time, in order that the same may be gauged accordingly, or which shall have been brewed longer than any such Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, as shall have been then actually distilled or distilled, every such Distiller shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller licensed under this Act, shall put into or keep in any Back, Cooler or other Vessel, which shall be capable of containing the full Charge of the Still of such Distiller, at any one time, a smaller Quantity of Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, than the full Charge of such Still; nor shall any in any One such Back Two or more different Brewings of Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, or any Part thereof; nor shall put any Low Wines or Singlings into any Vessel, until every other Vessel in such Distillery in which any Low Wines or Singlings shall have been previously put, shall be completely filled with Low Wines or Singlings; and if any such Cooler or other Vessel, in the Distillery of any Distiller, shall be found empty more any Worts, Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singlings, contrary to the Regulations of this Act, such Distiller, for every such Offence, shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Allowance shall be made in the gauging or taking Account of the Contents of any Back, Vat or other Vessel, for so in respect of any Gearing or Ground Corn, or Malt or other Composition, Mixture or Thing added to the Worts, Wash or Pot Ale in such Back, Vat or other Vessel, until such Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, are in the Course of Preparation for being distilled.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Officer of Excise keeping an Account of Worts, Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singlings, shall charge the Distiller upon any Decant of Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, for a Quantity of Spirits calculated after the Rate of One Gallon of Spirits for every Two Gallons of such Worts, Wash or Pot Ale if decreas'd; and upon any Decant of any Low Wines or Singlings, such Officer shall charge the Distiller for a Quantity of Spirits after the Rate of Two Gallons of Spirits for every Two Gallons of such Low Wines or Singlings if decreas'd, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity of Worts, Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singlings respectively; and when and as often as any Still shall be charged with any Wash or Pot Ale, the Officer shall charge the Distiller for a Quantity of Spirits calculated as the Rate of One Gallon of Spirits for every Two Gallons of such Wash or Pot Ale, according to the Content of such Still, estimated as in this Act is mentioned; and when and as often as any Still shall be charged with any Low Wines or Singlings, the Officer shall charge the Distiller for a Quantity of Spirits calculated after the Rate of Two Gallons of Spirits for every Five Gallons of such Low Wines or Singlings, according to the Content of such Still estimated as aforesaid, deducting in both cases from the Content of such Still One eighth Part thereof for Liberty for such Still to work, and the Officer shall make a Return of the Quantities of Spirits and of the Duties thence accordingly, and such Distiller shall pay the Duty so charged and returned; and every such Distiller shall, over and above the Quantities aforesaid, be charged with and pay Duty for so much more Spirits as he shall actually distil.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Wash or Pot Ale which shall not be distilled in the Expired of six Days, including the Day of brewing and the Day of distilling the same, shall be considered as Wash or Pot Ale, not included in any former Charge against the Distiller, and such Distiller shall be charged with Duty in respect of such Wash or Pot Ale, according to the Direction of this Act.

XL. And be it further enacted, That no Distiller shall boil, heat or prepare, by means of Fire, any Worts, Wash, Pot Ale or other Liquor, in any Copper, Vessel or other Utensil whatsoever, other than a brewed Still, after such Worts, Wash, Pot Ale or other Liquor has been fermented; but that all Worts, Wash, Pot Ale, Liquor or other Materials shall, after Presentation, be fairly put into a limbed Still without being undergone boiling, heating, or any Preparation by means of Fire, whereby the Purities of Distillation may be increased or accelerated, or attempted to be hastened or accelerated, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of Fifty Pounds for every such Offence.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer of Excise shall find any Still at work, and the Distiller or any Person employed by such Distiller, shall refuse to declare what such Still then contains, it shall be lawful for such Officer of Excise to charge the Distiller as if such Still contained Singlets or Low Wines, and such Distiller shall pay the Duty by this Act chargeable accordingly.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That no Liquor shall be declared as Pot or taken as such in any Distillery, which shall be of a greater Strength than Eighty five per Centum under Proof; and that in case any Liquor declared as Pot shall be found of a greater Strength, the same shall be charged as Singlets or Low Wines; and that no Liquor called Pot, shall be distilled or otherwise disposed of than by being, in the Opinion of the Distiller, mixed with Pot Ale or Wash, in the Presence of an Officer of Excise; and that if any Denial shall at any time be found in the Quinary of such Pot, more than is justified by the Quinary to mixed with Wash or Pot Ale, or is justified as aforesaid, in the Presence of an Officer, such Distiller shall be charged for a Quantity of Spirits in Proportion of One Gallon of Spirits to every Three Gallons of such Denial of Quinary in such Pot.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That as often as any Officer of Excise shall have entered into the Distillery, Warehouse, Store or any other Place belonging to any Distiller licensed under this Act, such Officer or some Person employed on behalf of such Distiller, shall on demand of any such Officer, show or cause to be shown to such Officer, all the Stock on hand of Wash, Pot Ale, Singlets or Low Wines and Spirits, belonging to such Distiller, and shall give or cause to be given to such Officer a Declaration of the same; that as to by, that the Stock so shown is all the Stock of Wash, Pot Ale, Singlets or Low Wines and Spirits, or of belonging to such Distiller; and if such Distiller, or some Person on his behalf, shall not so demand made by any such Officer, forthwith show or cause to be shown such Stock, or make such Declaration as aforesaid, or if such Distiller or any Person having such Stock or making such Declaration shall make any false or untrue Declaration of such Stock, such Distiller shall, for every such Offence, forfeit One hundred Pounds; and if any Officer or Officers of Excise shall upon Search discover any Wash, Pot Ale, Singlets or Low Wines or Spirits, belonging to such Distiller, which shall not have been duly shown or declared, or which shall be in any Place or Room belonging to such Distiller as aforesaid under this Act, then all such Wash, Pot Ale, Singlets, or Low Wines or Spirits shall be forfeited, and such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Shillings for every Gallon of Spirits, and for every Ten Gallons of Wash or Pot Ale, and for every Three Gallons of Singlets or Low Wines, if found as aforesaid.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That every such Distiller or Servant, or Person in the Employment of such Distiller, who shall show the Stock of such Distiller to any Officer of Excise, shall cause all the Casks of Spirits and declare the Number thereof, and the Quantity of Spirits contained in each Cask, to such Officer taking an Account of the same; and in case such Distiller, Servant or other Person, shall refuse or neglect to do so, such Distiller shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and if after such Declaration as aforesaid, any of the Casks which shall have been declared to contain Spirits, shall be found to be empty or to contain any other Liquor or Thing save only Spirits, or a greater or less Quantity of Spirits than is declared as aforesaid, or if more Casks than One shall be found not to be full, or if a greater Number of Casks shall be found thus to have been declared, every such Cask and the Contents thereof shall be forfeit, and any Person shall be fined.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That every such Distiller shall before commencing to brew any Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, and also before commencing to work any Still in any Year, and is in like manner before he or she shall commence to brew any Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, or to work any Still after any Discontinuance thereof in such Year, give Six Days Notice in Writing, of which the Day of Service of such Notice to be reckoned one, to the Collector or other Chief Officer in Charge of the Collection of the Distill in which the Distillery of such Distiller shall be situate, and to the Surveyor and Gauger in Charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, setting forth the Day and Hour when such Distiller intends to commence to be brew or to work any Still respectively, or to recommence to be brew any Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, or to work any Still after any Discontinuance thereof; and any Distiller who shall brew any Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, or who shall work any Still without having given such respective Notices, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XLVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no other Day than Monday shall be mentioned in any such Notice for commencing or recommencing to work a Still, and that no such Distiller shall commence or recommence to work any Still in pursuance of any such Notice, except on a Monday, and every such Still shall be prepared to be kept regularly at work from the Day mentioned in such Notice for commencing or recommencing to work such Still, until the working thereof shall be discontinued in manner hereafter mentioned; that it is to be, every such Distiller may from time to time discontinue the working of any such Still on giving a Notice in Writing of such his Intention to discontinue such working to the Collector or other Chief Officer in Charge of the Collection of the Distill, and to the Surveyor and Gauger in Charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, Six Days at the least previous to the Day mentioned therein for discontinuance to work, requiring by such Notice that the Still may be locked on the Day expressed in such Notice, and specifying the Day and Hour of the Day at which such working is intended to be discontinued: Provided always, that as often as any Day shall be mentioned in any such Notice for discontinuance to work, and that such Monday shall be the day of a Period of Weeks in the Year whereof the common Order or custom Past shall be kept, and shall not be less than Four Weeks distant from the time of commencing to work such Still in any being of the several Contents following; that is to say, from Ninety Charges of Low Wines or Singleings for every Still not exceeding Sixty five Gallons Content, and from Sixty such Charges of Low Wines or Singleings for every Still exceeding Sixty five Gallons Content, and not exceeding One hundred Gallons Content; and that every such Distiller shall, over and above the respective Quantities aforesaid, be chargeable and charged with and pay Duty for as much more Spirits as ought to be produced (according to the Rates in this Act mentioned) from all Worts, Wash, Pot, Ale, Low Wines or Singleings, which such Distiller shall actually distil within every such Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days; and every such Distiller shall also be chargeable and charged with and pay Duty for such Quantity of Spirits as shall be actually distilled in such Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days exceeding the respective Quantities aforesaid; and the Surveyor and Gauger in Charge of the Stillery of such Distiller, shall, in his Return for every such Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days which any such Still shall continue to be preferred to continue working, or shall be chargeable as working, make a Return and Charge upon such Distiller of such Quantities of Spirits for which such Distiller is hereby to be charged with Duty for such Period of Four Weeks or Twenty eight Days, and every such Distiller shall pay the Duty appearing by such Return and Charge to have become due and payable.

Discontinuance of Duty of weekly Charge.

LI. And be it further enacted, That in case the Quantity of Spirits charged upon any Distiller in any Year exceeding on the Twenty sixth Day of September shall not amount to the full Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller is by this Act chargeable with Duty within such Year, being for a Period of Twenty four Weeks or One hundred and sixty eight Days, according to the Rates aforesaid, the Surveyor or Gauger in Charge of the Stillery of such Distiller, shall, within Twenty Days after such Twenty sixth Day of September, make a Return to the Collector or other Chief Officer in Charge of the Collection of the Excise in which such Distiller shall be stated, of such Quantities of Spirits, and of the Duties thereon, as with the Quantity computed in any former Return or Returns of Spirits against such Distiller, makes the Year ending such Twenty sixth Day of September, shall amount to the full Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller is by this Act made chargeable with Duty, for the Period of Twenty four Weeks, or One hundred and sixty eight Days in such Year, according to the Rates aforesaid; and such Return shall be a Charge on such Distiller, who shall pay the Duty appearing by such Return to have become due and payable, within Ten Days after such Return shall have been made, or shall for every Default forfeit Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to Double the Duty to be returned and charged.

Penalty.

LII. Pro-

LII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That if any Distiller shall be desirous of obtaining a Licence for any Still or Stills, at any time between the First Day of November in any Year, and the Twenty sixth Day of September in the succeeding Year, or in case any Distiller being licensed for a Term longer than One Year, shall commence working for the Year at any time between the First Day of November in any Year, and the Twenty sixth Day of September in the succeeding Year, then and in either of the said cases it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise to reduce the Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller or by the Act chargeable with Duty for and in respect of such Still or Stills, during any such Year, is such Quantity of Spirits as may reasonably be distilled on such Still or Stills between the time that such Licence shall be granted, or the time when such Distiller shall commence working for the Year, and the Twenty sixth Day of September then next ensuing; provided that such Reduction shall be in the Proportion to the Part of the Year which shall have elapsed from the Twenty sixth Day of September preceding the taking out of such Licence, or providing the corresponding work for each Year to the time of the taking out of the same, as Twenty four Weeks is to Fifty two Weeks, and that the Person taking out any Licence for such Still or Stills shall in all such respects be subject and liable to all the Rules and Regulations in this Act contained.

LIII. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That if any Distiller who shall have worked Eight Weeks or more in any One Year shall be desirous to discontinue working for the Remainder of such Year, it shall and may be lawful for such Distiller to discontinue working accordingly, on giving a Notice in Writing of his Intention first to discontinue working for the Remainder of the Year to the Commissioners of Excise, and also to the Collector or other Chief Officer in Charge of the Collection of the Duties, and to the Surveyor or Gauger in Charge of the Distillery of such Distiller, Ten Days at the least previous to the Day mentioned for his discontinuing to work for the Remainder of the Year; and in such cases it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise, or any Three of them, to declare the Licence granted to such Distiller to be void and determined for the Year ending on the Twenty sixth Day of September then next ensuing; and it shall also be lawful for the said Commissioners to reduce the Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller shall by this Act be chargeable with Duty during the Year, so that the Quantity as such Distiller shall be chargeable with Duty in any Period of Four Weeks as such Distiller shall have actually continued working, or shall have been chargeable as continuing to work, together with such further Quantity of Spirits as shall have been actually distilled, or as might be produced from all Wast, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singsings, which such Distiller shall have sold during such Period, according to the Rates in this Act specified; and if at any time after the Day mentioned in any such Notice of any such Distiller for discontinuing to work for the Remainder of the Year, any such Distiller shall brew any Worts, Wash or Pot Ale, or shall distil any Wash, Pot Ale, Singsings or Low Wines, or shall work any Still or Stills in such Distillery, or do after the Day mentioned for discontinuing to work, any Worts, Wash, Pot Ale, Low Wines or Singsings, shall be found, or any Still shall be discovered working in the Distillery of such Distiller, or shall be discovered to have worked after such Notice, such Distiller shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds; and it shall not be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise to revoke any Permits to brew, keep or make sale of, nor for any Person to brew, keep or make sale of any Still in the said Distillery for the Remainder of such Year, nor during the Term of One Year next ensuing the Twenty sixth Day of September after such Offence shall have been committed, any Licence previously granted to such Person notwithstanding.

LIV. And he it further enacted, That in all cases where any Person shall, at the Expiration of any Licence granted under this Act, discontinue the Trade and Business of a Distiller, or shall at any time during the Continuance of his Licence, discontinue working for the Remainder of the Year, in manner herein mentioned, such Person shall, within Seven Days after the Expiration of such Licence, or after his discontinuing to work, cause the Works in which any Still in the Distillery of such Distiller was set, to be taken down, and shall displace and remove such Still, and shall also displace and remove out of the Works such Worts belonging to such Still, and shall, within Seven Days then next following, send or convey such Still, and the Head and Worts to some public place, to the Chief Officer of the District in which such Distillery shall be situate, there to be kept for Twelve Calendar Months, unless the same shall, within the said Twelve Calendar Months, be re-delivered to the Proprietor thereof, or be being licensed under this Act, or shall be disposed of by such Person to some licensed Distiller, which it shall be lawful for such Proprietor to do; and in case any such Twelve Calendar Month or Months in which a Still shall remain at said Chief Officer for the Space of more than Twelve Calendar Months, it shall be lawful for the Collector, or other Chief Officer in Charge of the Collection of the Duties, or any other Person, or any three of them, under their Acts any such Still, Still Head or Worts, and to cause the Materials thereof to be sold, and the Proceeds thereof, after deducting all Expenses of such Sale, and a reasonable Sum for the War Waste Rates for the same, during the said Twelve Calendar Months, shall be paid by such Collector or other Person to the Proprietor; and in case any Still, Still Head or Worts, shall be found in the Distillery, or in any other Place in the Occupation of any Person who shall have been discontinued the Business of a Distiller, at any time after the said Twelve Days after the Expiration or Determination of any Licence to such Distiller, such Still, Still Head or Worts, shall be forfeited, and may be treated, and the Person in whose Possession or in whose Premises the same shall be found, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

LV. And he it further enacted, That the Surveyor, Gauger or other Officer of Excise in Charge of the Distillery of any Distiller who shall be licensed under this Act, shall, within Five Days next after the End of every Period of Four Weeks during which any such Distiller shall work, or be considered as working under this Act, make a Return in Writing to the Collector of the said District, or other Officer in Charge of the Collection of the same, of the Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller is by this Act made chargeable with Duty, and the Duty thereon for such Period of Four Weeks; and such Returns shall be a Charge upon every such Distiller for each Period of Four Weeks; and every such Officer shall, and he is hereby required to

LVI. And be it further enacted, That every such Distiller shall also under his proper Hand, or under the Hand of some Person for whom such Distiller shall be responsible, within Five Days next after the End of every Period of Four Weeks during which such Distiller shall work or be considered as working under this Act, at the Excise Office of the District in which the Distillery of such Distiller shall be situated, make or cause to be made a just and true Entry of the Quantity of Spirits for which such Distiller is, under this Act, chargeable with Duty, in such Period of Four Weeks; and every Distiller who shall neglect to make or cause to be made such Entry, within the time aforesaid, shall for every Default forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to Double the Duty returned by the Officer against such Distiller for such Month.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller shall be chargeable and charged with Duty upon each and every Return and Entry to be made by the Officer of Excise, or by such Distiller respectively as aforesaid, according to such of the said Returns or Entries respectively, as shall produce the highest Amount of Duty; and that every Distiller so charged, shall, within Ten Days from the Month which shall conclude every Period of Four Weeks during which such Distiller shall work or be considered as working under this Act, pay and clear off, or cause to be paid and cleared off, the Whole of the Duty chargeable for such Period of Four Weeks, or shall for every Default forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, together with a Sum equal to Double the Duty which shall be so chargeable as aforesaid.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any such Dispute shall arise between any Officer of Excise and any such Distiller touching the Amount of Duty charged by the Return of such Officer upon such Distiller, he or she in respect of any Quantity of Spirits returned to this Act, such Officer shall write by Affidavit made before the Collector or other Chief Officer in Charge of the Collection of the Duty, or before some Justice of the Peace, that the Return made by him is true and fair, according to the best of his Skill and Knowledge, and thereupon such Return shall bear a Charge upon the Distiller (upon the same) and if such Distiller shall not pay the Difference between the Amount of the Duty so returned by such Officer, and the Sum so paid by such Distiller, within Ten Days next after such Return of such Officer shall be so verified by Affidavit as aforesaid, such Distiller shall, for every such Default, forfeit to any Person, together with a Sum equal to Double the Difference between the Amount of Duty returned by such Officer and the Sum so paid by such Distiller; Provided always, that no Distiller shall be allowed to contest or dispute any Return or Charge of Duty made by any Officer, unless such Distiller shall have made a regular Entry of the Quantity of Spirits by him distilled, in manner required by this Act, and paid the duty chargeable on the same, and shall in such his Entry make his Oath-Sum to the Return or Charge of such Officer.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Officer of Excise shall at any time neglect or omit to make a Return pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, against any Distiller, or shall at any time have committed any Error in any Return as aforesaid, by omitting or charging in such Return a greater or less Quantity of Spirits, or a greater or less Amount of Duty than ought to have been returned or charged by him against any such Distiller, according to the Directions of this Act, he shall and may be lawfully and for such Officer, or for any other Officer of Excise, and they are hereby respectively required to make a Return in case no Return shall have been made, or to rectify such erroneous Return as may have been made, as speedily as may be convenient, and to report the same to the said Commissioners of Excise, and in case of a Return made by reason of an Omission in the Officer in Charge of a Distillery, or make a Return pursuant to the Provisions of this Act; or if it shall appear that the Quantity of Spirits and the Amount of Duty charged in any erroneous Return as aforesaid, against any Distiller, was greater than the same ought to have been, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise, and they are hereby required to make an Allowance forthwith to such Distiller of the Amount of Duty so overcharged; and if it shall appear that the Quantity of Spirits or the Amount of Duty charged in any Return against any Distiller was less than the same ought to have been, or in case of a Return made as aforesaid, by reason of the Omission of the Officer to make a Return pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, and they are hereby required to give Notice to such Distiller of the Amount of the Duty contained in such Return so made as aforesaid, by reason of the Omission of a Return in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act, or of the Deficiency of the Duty in consequence of such erroneous Return; and if such Distiller shall not, within One Calendar Month after such Notice, have sufficient Cause to such Commissioners of Excise, why he should not be charged with and pay the Sum contained in such Return or such Delinquency, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Excise to order a Return to be made to the Collector of the District within which such Distillery is situated, of the Amount of such Duty or Delinquency, and the Duty specified in such Return shall be a Burden on such Distiller; and if such Distiller shall not upon Demand or within Ten Days next after, pay the full Amount of such Duty so aforesaid, such Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds and a Sum equal to Double the Amount of Duty which shall be so returned and aforesaid; Provided that no such Return shall be a Burden on any Distiller, unless he shall have been made, and the Amount thereof demanded, within Nine Calendar Months after the Date of the original Return, or after the Expulsion of the Ten Days within which the same ought to have been made.

LX. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Distiller hereof under this Act shall by any Fatality or unavoidable Accident have been prevented from distilling any Whisky or Pot Ale within the time prescribed by this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and Taxes as aforesaid, on Proof made to their Satisfaction, that the Fatality or Accident was unavoidable, and not owing to any Default or Negligence, to abate any Charge of Double Duty which may have been made as such Distiller is in respect of such Whisky or Pot Ale not having been distilled within the time aforesaid; and also to make any proportionate Allowance Allowance to any Distiller, in Consequence of any Loss by any Fatality or unavoidable Accident, proved as aforesaid, by which any Whisky, Pot Ale, Low Wines, Singlets, or Spirits, shall have been destroyed; and also to abate the Quantity of Spirits whereunto any Distiller shall be chargeable by virtue of this Act in any Period of Four Weeks, in Consequence of any Fatality or unavoidable Accident, proved as aforesaid, by which such Distiller shall have been prevented working such Period of Four Weeks: Provided always, that every such Abatement and Allowance be first approved of by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, and that no such Abatement or Allowance shall be made to any Distiller who shall have made any Intemperate or great Loss to be intimated by any such Fatality or Accident, without regard being had to the Amount reasonable under such Intemperance.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That in every cask where the Stock of Spirits in the Stores of any such Distiller shall be less than the Quantity of Spirits which, by the Stock Account kept by the Officer of Excise, ought to be in such Store, every such Distiller for every time such Deficiency shall appear, shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Shillings for every Gallon of spirits which shall be so deficient.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That in the Distillery, of every such Distiller there shall be safely kept Two Minute Books as shall be delivered to such Distiller by the Gauger or Surveyor in Charge of such Distillery, in which Book, every Officer or Officers shall from time to time make true Entries of the times when they shall respectively visit such Distillery, and of all such other Particulars relative to the State and Condition of such Distillery as such Officers shall find expedient and necessary; or as shall be directed by any Justice of Peace; and such Distiller shall within Three Days after the Twenty fifth Day of December, the Twenty fifth Day of March, the Twenty fourth Day of June and Twenty sixth Day of September respectively in every Year, deliver up such Books to the Surveyor or Excise then in Charge of such Distillery; and in case any Distiller to whom such Book shall be tendered by any Officer of Excise shall refuse to receive the same, or having received the same, shall wilfully tear, deface, obliterate or alter such Book or any Entry therein, or cause the same to be torn, defaced, obliterated or altered, or shall make or cause to be made any Entry therein, or in case any Distiller or any Person employed in the Distillery of such Distiller, shall at any time when required by any Officer of Excise, neglect or refuse to produce such Book, or shall neglect to deliver such Book at the time appointed to the Surveyor or Excise, such Distiller shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of Fifty Pounds.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any such Distiller shall send out any Spirits in any less Quantity than Five Gallons, or without being accompanied by a legal Permit, every such Distiller shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds, and all such Spirits and the Casks or Vessels containing the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where any Duties payable under this Act by any such Distiller, shall be unpaid at the Time when such Duties are by this Act made due and payable, it shall be lawful for the Collector of Excise, or other Chief Officer in Charge of the Collection of the Duties in which the Distiller, of such Distillery shall be seized, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to empower any Justice or Justices to take and distress all spirits, and all Stills, Still Heads and Worms, and all Coppers, and other Vessels and Utensils for distilling, used in any such Distillery, and all Malt, Corn and other Materials for distilling, and to cause the same to be sold by publick Auction; and after Payment of all Duties and Arrears of Duties due from such Distiller, together with the Costs and Expences of such taking, distressing and sale, there shall be any Surplus of the Produce arising from the Sale thereof, such Surplus shall be forthwith returned and paid to such Distiller or his Representatives: Provided always, that when any Spirits shall be so taken and distressed, it shall and may be lawful for such Distiller or his Representatives, at any time or times before the Day appointed for the Sale thereof, to obtain Permits for conveying all or any Part of such Spirits, upon his or their paying to the Collector or other Chief Officer, towards discharging the Duties due and payable, the real Value of such Spirits as he or they shall desire to remove, and the same may be removed accordingly, and a proper Permit or proper Permits, shall on due Application be given for the same, in like manner as if no Distills had been made.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That all Stills, Still Heads and Worms, and all Coppers, and all other Vessels and Utensils for distilling, having been used in any Distillery, by what Title or Conveyance known the same shall be claimed, or into whose Hands the same shall afterwards come, shall be liable and subject to, and be hereby charged with all Duties due to the Crown, and Duties of Excise which shall be in Arrear and owing by any Person, for any Spirits distilled or made within such Distillery, and shall also be subject to the Payment of all such Penalties as shall have been incurred by any Person who shall have occupied or used such Distillery, for any Offence against this Act; and it shall be lawful in all cases to levy such Duties, Duties, Penalties and Forfeitures, by Distress and Sale of such Utensils, as it would be lawful to do in case the Person owing such Duties and Duties, or incurring such Penalties and Forfeitures, was at the time the real Proprietor of such Utensils.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person in Ireland shall make use of any Still, Still Head or Worm, for Distilling, or still maker or stiller any Low Wines, Singlets or Spirits, or had been, made or become any Wines, Whisky or Pot Ale whereunto, and with the Intent to distil Low Wines, Singlets or Spirits without having a Licence in force pursuant to Law for distilling, every such Person shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a Misdemeanor; and it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace residing near to the Place where such Offence shall be committed, or Information on Oath of any such Offence, to issue his Warrant for the Apprehension of such Person, and an Examination into the Complaint, to commit such Person to Goal, there to remain until delivered by due Course of Law; and in case any Inhabitant shall be fined against such Person, he or she shall plead thereto, without having time to traverse the same; and it shall be lawful for the Court by and before whom such Petition shall be tried and certified, to inflict such Penalties on such Persons for the first Offence, as may by Law be inflicted on Persons guilty of Misdemeanors, and for the second Offence to enforce such Petition to be executed to be transported for the Term of Seven Years.

LXVII And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, used for, recovered and applied, in the same manner, and under such Power, and Authorities, and by such ways and methods, and according to such Rules and Directions as are appointed, directed and expressed for the raising, collecting, paying, levying and managing any Duties, or for the Recovery of any Penalties or Forfeitures due and by any Act made in relation to the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of His late Majesty King George the Third, extended de Jure for the sitting the Eighth or next Session upon His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of Rates therein contained, or as and by an Act made in the Tenth sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled de Jure for the latter Part of the same Session, and relating to the Revenue, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Excise, and of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and Tolls, and in relation to any other Act or Acts in force in relation to the Revenue of Customs and Excise, or either or thereof, or fully and effectually, to all Intent and Purposes, as if the same were before, applied and executed, with the like Remedy of Application and for the Party or Parties aggrieved, as in and by the said intitled Act made in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of His late Majesty King George the Third, or any other Act or Acts in relation to the same, is provided.

LXVIII And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

C A P. XLIX.

AN ACT to continue the Period for purchasing the Legal Quay in the Port of London, and to enable the Lords of the Treasury to purchase Building, in Flower Street, for the Purpose of erecting a new Custom House. [31st May 1812.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Period within which the Lord High Treasurer or Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, were required by an Act passed in the Tenth seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled de Jure for further time for purchasing the legal Quay and Wharf site in the Port of London, to purchase the legal Quay and Wharf sites, Buildings and other Works annexed thereto, and Dwelling Houses, Premises or other Works, as particularly mentioned and described in an Act passed in the Tenth third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled de Jure to authorize the Advancement of further sums of Money out of the Consolidated Fund, to be applied in the Improvement of the Port of London, by the Mayor, Aldermen and Commoners of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, and to empower the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to purchase the legal Quay between Ludlow Street and St Vincent's London, and also the wharf adjacent to the same, and to extend to the King's Mill Excise and Wharf, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Common, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Period within which the Lord High Treasurer or Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, are required to purchase the said legal Quay, Wharf sites, Buildings and other Works, or any Dwelling Houses, Warehouses, Buildings or Premises situate adjoining thereto, shall be further extended to Two Years from and after the Expiration of the Period to which the same was extended by the said Act of the Tenth seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign.

II. And whereas the Custom House and Buildings and Premises forming a Part thereof, in the Port of London, have been for some time in a languid and neglected state, the Accommodation of the Trade thereof, and also in general in a State so ruinous and dilapidated, that the necessary Engagement and Repair thereof could not be made without causing a Charge to the Discharge of Common Burthens, which would be destructive to the Merchants of Great Britain, nor yet without incurring an Expence which could not be justified by the probable Duration of the Building when repaired: And whereas it is therefore expedient to erect a new Custom House in the City of London, and for that Purpose the Purchase of certain Premises situate in Lane and Throgmorton in the Parish of S. Andrew Undershaft in the City of London, and for that Purpose that it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, and they are hereby required, within the Period of Two Years next after the passing of this Act, to purchase of the several Owners, Lessees and Comptees of all or any of the said Dwelling Houses, Warehouses, Buildings or Premises, the best which shall be required for the said new Custom House, or any Part or Parts thereof, their Grounds and respective Estates and Intereests of and in the same Premises respectively; and for that Purpose shall have all necessary and expedient Powers to contract with any Person or Persons whatsoever, by such Price or Prices as may be agreed upon; and in case of Differences, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and he and they in and for the better regard to be paid in all respects as to establishing a Jury, receiving Comptees, paying Purches, Money into the Bank, in case of defective Tolls, a Refusal to create Conveyances, and in appropriate Purposes Money received by the Vendor of a Jury or Juries to Corporation and incorporated Persons, and in settling being Order or Orders to be made by the Court of Chancery, in case of such Inequity, as in and by any Act passed in the Tenth sixth Year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled de Jure for consolidating and reducing more of the several Acts for the Purchase of Buildings and further Improvement of the Trade and Affairs near St Andrew Undershaft and the Two Sheds of Parliament, as provided in relation to any matter respecting the same, appointed by the said Act; provided that the Acquisition, Warrant or Passage for the

the repossessing of a Jury full be under the Hands of the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, and directed to the Sheriffs of the City of London, in Head of the Sheriffs of Middlesex; and the said Sheriffs are hereby authorized, directed and required to respond, answer and return a competent Number of Substantial and disinterested Persons qualified to serve on Juries not less than Forty eight, nor more than Seventy two, to come and appear before the next next Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to be holden in and for the said City of London, or at some Adjourned or adjourned as to such Warrant or Warrants, Precept or Precepts shall be directed and appointed, and to attend such Court of General or Quarter Sessions from Day to Day until discharged by the said Court; and out of such Persons to be so imposed, summoned and returned, a Jury of Twelve Men shall be drawn by the proper Officer of the said Court, in such manner as Terms for the Trial of Issues joined in His Majesty's Courts at Westminster are by an Act made in the Third Year of His late Majesty King George the Second, intitled An Act for the better Regulation of Juries, directed to be drawn, and the said Jury in finding such Trial or Trials shall consider as well the good Will and Improvement as any Injury or Damage that may affect any such Person or Persons, either as Owner, Lessee or Occupier, and when and so far as such Particular Money as may have been agreed on or may have been settled by the Verdict of a Jury or Juries shall have been paid to the Parties interested, or into the Bank, as the case may be, the Profits or Benefit of which such Money shall have been so paid, shall immediately vest in His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the said Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury, shall be and are hereby empowered and directed to pay such Particular Money or Moneys out of all or any of the Duties, Revenues and Income, composing the Fund called The Consolidated Fund.

Particular Money paid out of a Consolidated Fund

III. And whereas the Sum of Two hundred and twenty Pounds Twelve Shillings and Ten pence Halfpenny is annually paid by the Direction of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in respect of the several Custom House, and other Premises contiguous to or connected therewith, which by Law are not extendible, and another Sum amounting to Two hundred and twenty Pounds Twelve Shillings and Ten pence Halfpenny, is legally payable and paid as Rates in respect of the Legal Quays in Front of the said Custom House and Premises aforesaid, to the respective Collectors of the Parochial and Ward Rates and Assessments in the said Ward of St. Pauls, and in the Parish of St. Andrew's, within the said Ward, and it is expedient, that the Payment of the same respective Annual Sums should be continued; Be it therefore further enacted, That the respective Annual Sums now paid as aforesaid, shall yearly and every Year for ever hereafter be paid out of Consolidated Customs to the respective Collectors, for the use being of the Rates and Assessments to whom the same respectively are now paid, without any Deduction or Abatement whatsoever, in the same Parts, Shares and Proportions, on or at the same Days or Times, and in the same manner as the other Rates or Assessments of the said Ward and Parish respectively shall for the time being be paid, and shall be considered as Part of the Produce thereof.

Custom Payments for Rates and Rates of several Customs House Collectors

IV. And whereas by reason of the Houses and other Buildings in Lower Thames Street aforesaid being erected within the said Majesty, for the public Purposes aforesaid, Deficiencies will be occasioned in the Produce of the Parochial and Ward Assessments and Rates in the Parish of St. Dunstons in the East, and the Parish of St. Mary-at-Hill, and the Wards of Tower and Milbroke, whereas the same are limited; and it is not consistent with Equity that an additional Burden should be imposed on the said Wards and Parishes, in consequence of the Application of Premises situated therein, to Purposes of general public Utility; Be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the Completion of the Purchase of the said Premises, according to the Provisions of this Act, the Sum of Eight hundred and fifteen Pounds Seven Shillings and Five pence, being the Amount of what was assessed as the Parochial and Ward Assessments and Rates on the said Houses and Buildings, according to the last Assessments or Rates thereof, made before the passing of this Act, shall be paid, and the said Commissioners of the Customs are hereby authorized and directed yearly and every Year for ever hereafter, to pay the respective Collector or Collectors for the time being of the same Rates or Assessments respectively, out of Consolidated Customs without any Deduction or Abatement whatsoever, in the same Parts, Shares and Proportions, on or at the same Days or Times, in the same manner and for the same Purposes as the same or the like respective Assessments and Rates shall for the time being be paid, and shall be considered as Part of the Produce thereof.

Eight hundred and fifteen Pounds Seven Shillings and Five pence being the Amount of what was assessed as the Parochial and Ward Assessments and Rates on the said Houses and Buildings, according to the last Assessments or Rates thereof, made before the passing of this Act, shall be paid, and the said Commissioners of the Customs are hereby authorized and directed yearly and every Year for ever hereafter, to pay the respective Collector or Collectors for the time being of the same Rates or Assessments respectively, out of Consolidated Customs without any Deduction or Abatement whatsoever, in the same Parts, Shares and Proportions, on or at the same Days or Times, in the same manner and for the same Purposes as the same or the like respective Assessments and Rates shall for the time being be paid, and shall be considered as Part of the Produce thereof.

V. And whereas the former Custom House being public Property, is by Law exempt from the Payment of all Rates and Assessments, and the said Premises in Lower Thames Street about to be purchased under and by virtue of this Act, will be when the same shall become public Property also exempt from the Payment of all Rates and Assessments; Be it further enacted, That, from and after the said Fifth Day of April the said former Custom House, and after the Completion of the Purchase thereof, the said Premises in Lower Thames Street, shall be and be deemed and considered to be, as all Houses and Premises, free and exempt from the Payment of all and all manner of Rates and Assessments, although the same and each and every of the said Premises may become private Property by the Sale or Assignment thereof to Individuals, any Law, Usage or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall be convicted of receiving or paying any such Gold Coin, contrary to the said recited Act or this Act, and shall afterwards be guilty of the like Offence, the Clerk of the Assize, or Clerk of the Peace for the County, City or Place where such Conviction was made, shall, at the Request of the Prosecutor, or any other Person named in the Majesty's Warrant, certify such Conviction; for which Certificate Two Shillings and Six pence, and no more, shall be paid; and such Certificate being produced in Court, shall be sufficient Proof of such former Conviction.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Person against whom any Bill of Indictment shall be found, at any Assize or Sessions of the Peace, for any Offence against the said recited Act or this Act, shall be allowed to tender the same to any subsequent Assize or Session; but the Court at which such Bill of Indictment shall be found, shall forthwith proceed to try the Person or Persons against whom the same shall be found, unless he or they shall show good Cause to be allowed by the Court, why he, her or their Trial should be postponed.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That on any Prosecution or Trial of any Offender or Offenders hereafter to be prosecuted or tried for any Offence against the said recited Act or this Act, it shall not be necessary to prove that the Money, Notes, Bills, Tokens, Securities, Warrants or Orders for Payment of Money, or any or either of them, received or paid for any such Gold Coin, are respectively good, lawful and current Money of this Realm, or good, valid and effectual Notes, Bills, Tokens, Securities, Warrants or Orders for Payment of Money, or that the same Money, Notes, Bills, Tokens, Securities, Warrants or Orders for Payment of Money, are respectively of the Value they on the Face of them import; but that such Money, Notes, Bills, Tokens, Securities, Warrants or Orders for Payment of Money, shall be deemed and taken to be good, valid and effectual respectively, and of the respective Values which on the Face of them they import, until the contrary shall be proved, to the Satisfaction of the Judge, Justice or Court before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be prosecuted or tried respectively; nor shall it be necessary as any such Prosecution or Trial of any Offender or Offenders hereafter to be prosecuted or tried for any Offence against the said recited Act or this Act, to prove that the Gold Coin, received or purchased contrary to the said recited Act or this Act, is the current Gold Coin of the Realm, but the same shall be deemed and taken to be so, if paid or received as such, until the contrary thereof shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Judge, Justice or Court before whom any such Offender or Offenders shall be prosecuted or tried.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall, by any Means, Device, Shift or Contrivance whatsoever, receive or pay in Great Britain, any Note or Note, Bill or Bills of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or receive or pay in Ireland any Note or Note, Bill or Bills of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, for less than the Amount of lawful Money specified therein, and to be thereby made payable; except only lawful Interest on such Note or Bill as shall not be expected to be payable on Demand; and every Person who shall offend herein shall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being thereof convicted by due Course of Law shall be liable to a Fine of Double the Amount of the Sum of Money specified in such Bill or Note, and made payable thereby, and shall suffer Imprisonment for a term not exceeding Two Months.

VI. And be it enacted, That in case any Person shall proceed by Distress or Pounding to recover from any Tenant or other Person liable to such Distress or Pounding, or by Bill or Sum of Money due from such Tenant or other Person, it shall be lawful for such Tenant or other Person, in every such case, in Great Britain, or

treasurer Notes of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or in Ireland to tender Notes of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, expressed to be payable on Demand, to the Amount of such Rent or Sum for due, together with the Amount of such Costs as shall have been incurred by such Debtor, either alone or together, with a sufficient Sum of lawful Money, to the Person on whose Behalf such Debtor or Pleading is made, or to the Officer or Persons making such Debtor or Pleading on his Behalf; and in case such Tender shall be accepted, or in case such Tender shall be made and refused, the Goods taken in such Debtor or Pleading shall be forthwith returned to the Party distrained upon as aforesaid, when such Pleading shall have been filed, unless the Party distraining or pleading, and refusing to accept such Tender, shall wish that a greater Sum be due than the Sum so tendered, and in such case the Parties shall proceed as aforesaid in such case; but if it shall appear that no more was due than the Sum so tendered, then the Party who tendered such Sum shall be entitled to the Costs of all subsequent Proceedings: Provided always, that the Person to whom such Rent or Sum of Money shall be due shall have and be entitled to all such other Remedies for the Recovery thereof, exclusive of Debtor or Pleading, and exclusive of Execution for any Forfeiture which shall have been incurred by Non-payment of such Rent, as such Person had or was entitled to at the time of making such Debtor or Pleading, if such Person shall not think proper to accept such Tender as aforesaid: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall affect the Right of any Tenant or other such Person as aforesaid having Right, to employ or recover the Goods taken in Debtor or Pleading, in case without making such Tender as aforesaid he shall so think fit.

VII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which any Sum or Sums of Money be or are required, ordered, directed, decreed or adjudged to be paid, either or by virtue of any Rule, Order, Process, Judgment, Decree or other Proceeding of or in any Court of Law or Equity or other Court, in any Part of the United Kingdom, or by any Law, Usage or Practice of any Court, in or are allowed to be paid for the Giving of Proceedings, or by any Party or Parties, Officer or Officers, to any other Party or Parties, Person or Persons, or into any Court, or into the Hands of any Officer or Officers of any Court as aforesaid, such Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money as aforesaid, in Notes of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, if the same shall be made in Great Britain, or in Notes of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, if the same shall be made in Ireland, the same respectively being payable on Demand, to the Amount therein expressed, shall be deemed, directed, decreed or adjudged to be paid; and in all cases in which any Money shall be payable out of any such Court or Courts, or by any Officer or Officers thereof, or of any of them, in the Discharge of his or their Duty as such Officer or Officers, Payment of the same be payable out of such Court or Courts, or by such Officer or Officers, in Notes of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, if in Great Britain, or in Notes of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, if in Ireland, (such Notes respectively being payable on Demand, to the Amount in such Notes expressed,) shall be taken and deemed to be good and sufficient Payments in the Law.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which any Sum or Sums of Money be or are required to be raised or levied in Execution of any Judgment or Decree, or by virtue of any Process or Proceeding whatsoever of any Court of Law or Equity, or other Court, in any Part of the United Kingdom, or under any Debtor or Pleading for the Recovery of any Rent, or of any Penalty or Forfeiture to be raised or levied by Debtor and Sale of any Goods or Chattels, it shall be lawful for the Officer or Officers, whose Duty it shall be to raise or levy such Sum or Sums of Money, to accept Notes of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, if such Money is to be raised or levied in Great Britain, or Notes of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, if such Money is to be raised or levied in Ireland, (such Notes respectively being payable on Demand to the Amount in such Notes expressed, in Payment and Satisfaction of the same to be raised and levied; and such Officer or Officers shall not be compelled or compellable to pay the Amount of the same to be raised or levied, or any Part thereof, to any Person or Persons, or into any Court, otherwise than in Notes of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, if in Great Britain, or of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, if in Ireland; and after such raising and levying as aforesaid, it shall not be competent by any further Proceeding against the Party or Persons from whom such Sum or Sums were due, or his Executors or Heirs, to compel the raising or levying such Sum or Sums, or so much thereof as shall have been raised and levied and paid in such Notes as aforesaid.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all such cases as aforesaid, every Person paying any such Notes into any Court, or into the Hands of any Officer of any Court, in manner aforesaid, or to any Person raising or levying any Money under any Debtor, or under the Authority of any Court as aforesaid, shall, if required, indicate the Notes to be paid, and also specify the Causes, Proceedings or Debtor, in or under which the same shall be paid, and shall also, if required, verify the same to be Notes of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, if in England, or to be Notes of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, if in Ireland, by Affidavit, Swearing, that the Notes to be paid are to be paid out, to the full of the Knowledge and Belief of the Person paying the same, Notes of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or of the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, as the case may be; and every Person so indicating any such Notes shall be liable to pay to the Parties to whom the same are paid out of any Court, or by any Officer aforesaid, or under any Debtor, the full Amount of the same expressed in any of such Notes which may prove to be forged, if any such Note or Notes shall be forged Notes.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That every Person who shall commit in Scotland any Offence against this Act, which, by the Statutes thereof, is constituted a Misdemeanour, shall be liable to the same Fine, Penalty and Punishment, as are prescribed for the like Offence in England.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue and be in force to and until Three Months after the Commencement of the next Sessions of Parliament, and no longer.

An Act to provide for the more speedy Examination, controlling and finally auditing the Military Accounts of Ireland.

[5th May 1812.]

• WHEREAS the Means hitherto used for the auditing of Military Accounts in Ireland, have proved insufficient; and it is necessary to make other Provisions for that Purpose; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, to nominate and appoint from time to time, such Persons as he or they shall think proper, not exceeding Three Persons at any one time, to be Commissioners of Military Accounts in Ireland.

II. And be it further enacted, That His Majesty may by such Letters Patent as aforesaid, grant to the several Persons chosen in and to the following Salaries and Allowances; that is to say: To the Senior of the said Commissioners for the time being, who shall be styled the First Commissioner, a Salary of One thousand Pounds per Annum; and to the other Two Commissioners a Salary of Eight hundred Pounds per Annum each; which Salaries respectively shall be clear of all Taxes and Deductions, and shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland, by the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or any Three of them, without any other Warrant or Authority for the same: Provided always, that in case the Person at present holding the Office of Comptroller of Army Accounts in Ireland shall be appointed to the said Office of First Commissioner, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Person to continue to have, receive and enjoy the Salary, and Emoluments attached to the said Office of Comptroller of Army Accounts, in lieu of the said Salary of One thousand Pounds per Annum, to be paid and payable in like manner and under the like Authority as such Salary is hereby made payable.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared, That no Commissioner appointed or to be appointed by virtue of this Act, shall, during his Continuance in such Office, be capable of being elected or of sitting as a Member in the House of Commons.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to appoint a Secretary, and such Officers, Assistants, Clerks and Attendants, with such Salaries as he or they shall think proper, to aid, assist and attend on the said Commissioners in the Discharge of their said Office, and to follow the Directions of the said Commissioners in all things relating to the Business of the said Office.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, may allow such Sums as to him or them shall seem fit, from time to time for the Salaries of the several Officers, Clerks and other Persons to be from time to time employed under the said Commissioners, and for the incidental Expenses to be incurred in their Office for auditing the Military Accounts, to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland, by the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or any Three of them, under the Direction of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners to be appointed as aforesaid, and all Persons employed by and acting under them, before they shall enter upon the Execution of their respective Offices, shall take an Oath, the Words whereof shall be as followeth; that is to say:

• I A. B. (saying the Name of his Office) do swear, That according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, I will faithfully, impartially and truly execute the several Powers and Trusts vested in me by virtue of the said Office.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners respectively shall and may take the said Oath before any of the Judges of the Exchequer in Ireland, and that the said several Officers and Persons respectively shall and may take the same before the said Commissioners, or any of them, and that the said Seniors and Commissioners respectively may be lawfully authorized to administer the same.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases not otherwise expressly directed or provided, all and every Authority vested or to be vested in, and all and every Act and Acts directed or authorized to be done by the said Commissioners, shall and may be exercised and done by any Two of them.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in any Trial or in any Proceeding whatsoever, Civil or Criminal, Legal or Equitable, any Question shall arise concerning the Appointment or Qualification of any of the said Commissioners, or of any Officer or Person under them, or his or their Right to hold, exercise or enjoy such Office, it shall be sufficient to all Intents and Purposes, to prove that at the time in Question such Person was reputed to be such Commissioner or other Officer, and it shall not be necessary to prove or produce any Appointment or Qualification.

X. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall examine, control, audit and settle all Army, Barrack, Commissariat, and other Military Accounts of every Description, in Ireland, save and except Ordnance Accounts, and also save and except the Baggage, Lodging and Passage Accounts.

XI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful at any time, or from time to time, to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, by Warrant under Hand and Seal, so order that the said Baggage, Lodging and Passage Accounts, or any of them, shall from time to time be audited and settled by the said Commissioners; and that from and after the Date of every such Warrant the Account or Accounts therein mentioned respectively shall be examined, controlled, audited and settled by the said Commissioners of Military Accounts, and not otherwise.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, for the time being, whenever he or they shall judge the same expedient, and in such manner and under such Rules, Orders and Directions, as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall from time to time direct and establish, to order any Person concerned in the Receipt or Expenditure of Public Money, for or on account of any Service or Matter of any Military Nature, to furnish due and proper Accounts of the same to be laid before the said Commissioners, to be by them examined and finally adjusted and settled.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners under this Act shall and may from and after the Commencement of this Act proceed on and enquire into any such Accounts as aforesaid, which shall be depending and undischarged by and before the Comptroller of Army Accounts, or the Commissioners of Imprest Accounts, in the same manner: as if the said Accounts and the Examination thereof respectively had proceeded to or before themselves; and that all Vouchers, Accounts and Payments the Petitioner or Officer of the Comptroller of Army Accounts, shall and may be handed over and delivered to the said Commissioners, and shall remain in their Office.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Accounts aforesaid shall from time to time be examined and audited as aforesaid, as often as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland shall think fit to direct the same.

XV. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Auditor General or other proper Officer shall pay, issue or deliver to any Person or Persons whatsoever, Money for Public Services of a Military Nature by way of Imprest, or as account, or in any such safe such Officer shall, within Three Calendar Months after the Twenty fourth Day of December in every Year, and also whenever he shall be thereto required by Notice in Writing from the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, transmit to the said Commissioners a Certificate of all and every such and several sums paid, issued and delivered, or charged by him within the preceding Year, or for such Period as shall be mentioned in such Notice, together with the Name and Description of the Person or Persons to whom the same shall have been respectively paid, issued, delivered or charged, and the said Commissioners shall thereupon without any Delay take the same into Consideration.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners of Military Accounts shall be subject to such Regulations not contrary to Law as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being shall from time to time direct and establish; and that it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to make and establish Rules, Orders and Directions for the Purposes aforesaid.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all Persons liable to account before the said Commissioners, shall within Three Calendar Months after the date when they shall be required so to do by Notice in Writing furnished by the said Commissioners or any Two of them, deliver unto and transmit to the Office of the said Commissioners as Account Current of all Sums of Money received and paid by them for the Period mentioned in such Notice, together with the Vouchers for such Receipts or Payments, accompanied by a Schedule of the same, signed by the Accountant or Accountants.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall and may as often as they shall think fit, call upon all Accountants or other Persons to whom or to whose Order or Care any Public Money for which such Person shall be accountable to the said Commissioners, shall be or shall have been issued or disbursed, to account to them the said Commissioners for the Receipt, Expenditure or Issue thereof within a time to be by them limited; and as the Failure of the Accounts being delivered accordingly within the time so limited, the said Commissioners shall, in every case where they shall see Cause, give Notice thereof to His Majesty's Attorney General in England or Ireland, His Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, or His Majesty's Attorney General in any of the Colonies or Plantations belonging to the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, as the case may require, in order that such Matters, Sums, Issues or Proceeds may be made, enforced, paid or issued by the said Officer against any such Defaulter as may be necessary to compel him to deliver in his Accounts as directed by the said Commissioners, unless upon Application of the Parties, sitting in any special and sufficient Court of Equity, the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, shall grant him or their Warrant to stay the Proceedings for such reasonable time or times as he or they shall think fit.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any such Accountant or Accountants shall fail to deliver such Accounts pursuant to such Requisition, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, if they shall think proper so to do, to cause a Notice, signed by any Two of the said Commissioners for the time being, to be served on such Accountant or Accountants that the said Commissioners will proceed accordingly to audit the Accounts of such Accountant or Accountants, or any Part thereof, that may be or shall be such Notice, on a Day to be therein mentioned, not less than One Calendar Month from the Service of such Notice, and thereupon the said Commissioners shall proceed to audit such Account or Accounts accordingly, whether any Accounts shall have been then furnished or not, or whether such Accountant or Accountants shall attend or not, and the said Commissioners shall charge such Accountant or Accountants with all Payments made from or under His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland, in his, her or them, as to his, her or their Order, and if such Accountant or Accountants shall not produce and prove to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners any Discharge, such Commissioners shall thereupon allow the Whole of the Sums so charged as a Balance against such Accountant or Accountants: Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners to postpone from time to time, as often as they shall for good Cause for so doing, the final auditing of any such Account.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners or any Two of them shall and they are hereby expressed to require into all Receipts and Issueds or improper Payments or other Misdoings in the Expenditures, Applications, or ordering or accounting for, raising or receiving all and singular or any of the said Monies, and they shall not include or suffer to remain or be included in the Deficit or Part of any Account which shall be or any time filed by them, any Article of Expenditure which shall not appear to them to be agreeable to the Intention or Import of the Trust reposed or legal Powers vested in the Parties so accounting.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall without any further Request as soon as possible after their Determination and proceeding as any Matter committed to their Examination, give an Account thereof in Writing under the Hands and Seals of them or any Two of them to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, and also to either House of Parliament, and they shall report therewith, what Deficits, Frauds or Illegality hath been observed during their Proceedings in the Made of Account or Expenditure, and likewise such Regulations as they shall in those Judgments deem expedient to be observed and adopted for the better ordering, improving and securing the said, and all other Expenditure of future Issues of Money for the said several or Single Purposes, or any of them.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases, where upon the Examination of the Accounts of any Comptroller, Master, or other Person for the Receipt, Expenditure or Delivery of any Public Money, or any Proceeds or Issues of the Property of His Majesty, the said Commissioners shall be of Opinion that any Articles have been extracted, withheld, lost, damaged or defrauded by the said Comptroller or Neglect of any such Comptroller, Master, or other Person, they shall, after the Examination of such Evidence as they may think necessary to shew the Value of such Articles, shew to the said Person with such Sum as is in their Judgment shall be the Amount of the Loss which shall have thereby accrued to the Publick.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Military Accounts, or any Two of them for the time being, and they are hereby required to call before them the several Persons who have at any time received from His Majesty's Treasury any Public Money for any of the several Issues of His Majesty, or all the several Persons to whom any Money has been granted or appropriated for any of the said Purposes, and the Successors, Executors and Administrators of such Person respectively, and to require them to give an Account of the Expenditure of the said Money, and to exhibit to the said Commissioners all such Accounts, Certificates, Warrants or Expenditures, Books, Memoranda or Bills whatsoever, as shall touch or concern the Receipt or Expenditure of such Money, or the Charge or Discharge of the Accounts thereof, and to call and examine in their Hands or Custody, and to examine upon Oath (which Oath any One of them is hereby empowered to administer) the said several Persons touching the several forms thereof, or any Entries therein, and touching any Matters relative to the Receipt, Expenditure or Non-Expenditure of the said Money.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, shall also have full Power and Authority, and they are hereby authorized and required to call before them, and examine upon Oath all Persons who have, or who they shall have reason to believe have any Knowledge of the receipts, expending, disbursing or in any wise accounting for, carrying, paying or managing any of the Monies of which they are or shall at any time be duly authorized to take or settle Accounts; and likewise to call before them and examine upon Oath all Persons whom they shall think proper, for the Purpose of enquiring into the Honesty of the Expenditure of all such Monies, whereas any of such Monies have been or ought to have been applied, and to send for and require to them as often as they shall think proper, all Accounts, Certificates, Books, Memoranda, Bills, Plans, Papers and Writings of what Nature soever, and in whatsoever Custody they may be, which in any wise touch or concern the Receipt, Expenditure, Disposal or Management of the said Monies, and to examine upon Oath (which Oath any One of the said Commissioners is hereby empowered to administer) all Persons whom they shall think proper, touching the same, Custody, Entries or Items in such Accounts, Certificates, Books, Memoranda, Bills, Plans, Papers or Writings.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any of the Justices of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench and Common Pleas, or of the Bench of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland at their Discretion to grant a Writ of Habeas Corpus to bring up any Person or Persons committed to any Goal, Prison or Place of Confinement in Ireland, to be examined before the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, touching any Matter of Account which shall be then depending before the said Commissioners, and every such Person shall be so brought up accordingly, the Sum required by him in any such case being first duly tendered, and shall be brought and detained before the said Commissioners, or any Two of them from Day to Day, and from Hour to Hour, as often and as long as they shall find necessary for the Purpose of such Examination, and at the Close thereof shall be carried back to the same Prison or Place of Confinement, or to such other place of Confinement as shall be directed according to Law, and none of the said Matters shall be deemed or taken to be an Excuse; and it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners to enquire into, ascertain, and allow the necessary Expence of so bringing and keeping every such Person in such Attendance, and of taking him or her back to such Prison or Place of Confinement; and that such Expence being allowed and certified by the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, shall be paid as Part of the Expence of the said Office.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to allow to the Credit of any Account, any Sum or any Account of Expenditure that hath been or shall be made in, although no Certificate or Receipt of the said Person of such Sum is or is not produced to them in case where upon Satisfaction of the Accounts rendered on Oath, and after sufficient Enquiry the said Commissioners shall be satisfied that such Sum hath been actually and properly disbursed by the Public Servant; and that all due Diligence shall have been used by the Accountant to procure such Voucher; and whenever a Voucher is produced doed or to be produced in any Account for any Accounts, shall be defective from the Want of any Certificate or other Document which might be necessary for such Voucher, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners upon Proof to their Satisfaction that the Accountant did not wilfully neglect to procure such Certificate or Document; and that the Sum specified in the Voucher shall have been actually and properly debited for the Public Service to some such Voucher as a full and true Discharge of the said Accountant, and to allow the Amount of the same to his Credit: Provided always, that in all cases where any Sum exceeding Thirty Pounds shall be allowed to the Credit of any Accountant, either without any written Voucher, or upon an imperfect Voucher, the Particulars and Amount of such Allowances shall be specified to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, in the Statement of the Account in which such Allowances may be made, in order that the same may be considered and confirmed or disallowed by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the same being, previous to the Declaration of any such Account.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That after the Examination of all such Perform, Books, Papers and other Matters as they shall think proper, the said Commissioners shall make full, perfect and true Accounts or Declarations of the Accounts of all Persons who are or shall be at any time accountable to them, which Accounts shall contain the Sum and Substance thereof in Charge and Discharge, or by Way of Debt or Credit, and they shall cause, to be made a Copy thereof to be given to the Party or Parties accountable.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That after any such Account shall have been fully examined and audited by the said Commissioners, and that any Sum or Item in the Discharge thereof shall have been disallowed, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, at any time within Three Calendar Months after the Date of such auditing, to order the said Commissioners for the time being to raise, for the Information of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, the Grounds and Cause of such Disallowances, whereupon the said Commissioners for the time being, or any Two of them, shall forthwith make a Report under their Hands in Obedience to such Order; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, at any time within Six Calendar Months after the Date of such Report, to order by Warrant under Hand and Seal that every or any such Item or Item or any Part thereof respectively shall be allowed, and thereupon the same shall be allowed, and shall be brought forward by and allowed to such Person accordingly to his or her next Account.

XXIX. And it is further enacted, That where any Account shall have been so audited by the said Commissioners, the same shall be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, save only in far as the same may be altered in manner aforesaid by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being in manner aforesaid.

XXX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if at the time of auditing any such Account by the said Commissioners, any such Accountant therein shall be absent from Ireland, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, at any time within Three Calendar Months after the Return of such Person to Ireland, to order the said Commissioners to raise the Cause of any such Disallowance as aforesaid, and thereupon such Report shall and may be made by the said Commissioners, and such subsequent Proceedings had, as if such Order had been issued within the time aforesaid.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners to deliver or cause to be delivered any Voucher or Vouchers which shall remain in their Office at any time after Fifteen Years from the Date thereof, and also that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners on receiving an Order in Writing for the Purpose from the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to send over and deliver up to the Person or Persons mentioned for that Purpose in such Order, any Voucher or Vouchers whatsoever that may be in their said Office, and which shall be required or directed in such Order.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person duly summoned by Precept under the Hand and Seal of the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, to appear before the said Commissioners touching any of the Matters aforesaid, to give Evidence or otherwise, or to exhibit any Account, Certificate, Book, Manuscript, Bill, Plan, Paper or Writing as his or her Copyhold, Power or Possession, according to the Tenor of such Summons, or to answer any Questions or Oath, which shall be lawfully proposed to him or her by any of the said Commissioners, making any matter or thing which they shall then be empowered to examine into, every such Person shall (save the Name of Twenty Pounds for every such Neglect or Default, to be recovered by Civil Bill in the Court of proper Jurisdiction by any Person who shall sue for the same; and if any of the said Matter or any Part thereof shall have been omitted by or paid to such Person, or to any Over to whom such Person is Successor, Executor or Administrator, such Person neglecting or refusing shall not only forfeit the like Sum for every Neglect or Default, as he is mentioned in like manner, but such Person shall likewise forfeit out of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer against him or her, upon Complaint made before the said Court, as in and against Debtors to His Majesty, who refuse or neglect to account.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which an Oath shall be required, or directed or authorized to be taken before the said Commissioners, or any One or more of them, the Affirmations of a Quaker shall be received as and be valid in lieu of such Oath, and shall be of the same Force, Validity and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes as such Oath.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall by oath or any Act or Acts of Perjury, false or make any Oath or Affirmation before the said Commissioners, or any of them, shall wilfully falsify take any such Oath or Affirmation, he thereof lawfully examined, he or she so offending shall,

C A P. LII.

An Act to provide for the speedy and regular Examination and Audit of the Public Accounts of Ireland; and to repeal certain former Acts relating thereto. [10th May 1812.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that divers Acts relating to the Commissions of Deposition Accounts in Ireland should be repealed, and that more effectual Provisions should be made for the regular Examination and Audit of the Public Accounts in Ireland; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act passed in the Parliament of Ireland, in the Twenty third and Twenty fourth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the settling a regular Account in favour of all His Majesty's Subjects in the Corporation for carrying on the Island Navigation, the Trade of the Linn Manufacturing, the Dublin Society, the Corporation for paving the Streets of Dublin, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; another Act passed in the said Parliament of Ireland, in the Twenty fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, to carry into further Effect the said former Act, in the Twenty third and Twenty fourth Years; a certain other Act passed in the said Parliament of Ireland, in the Thirty eighth Year of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for the better Regulation and Examination of Public Accounts; and in each of an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act for the more effectually regulating and providing for the Relief of the Poor, and the Management of Infirmeries and Hospitals in Ireland; as provides that the Commissions of Deposition Accounts shall annually audit and settle the Accounts of the County Infirmeries, and other Infirmeries and Hospitals of Royal and Public Foundation in Ireland, from and after the Expiration of Two Calendar Months next after the passing of this Act, stand and be repealed, in so far as the same respectively may apply any former Office or Authority, or grant any Compensation or Benefit for or in Consideration thereof, and in so far as any Proceeding for or towards the Recovery of any Penalty, or the Forfeiture of any Office, which shall have been incurred or committed under or against any of the said Acts.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Ireland, to nominate and appoint, from time to time, such Persons as he or they shall think proper, not exceeding Five Persons in any one time, to be Commissioners for auditing the Public Accounts in Ireland.

III. And be it further enacted, That His Majesty may, by such Letters Patent as aforesaid, grant to the several Persons therein named respectively, the following Salaries and Allowances: that is to say, To the Senior of the said Commissioners for the time being, who shall be styled the First Commissioner, a Salary of One thousand Pounds per Annum, and to the other Commissioners a Salary of Eight hundred Pounds per Annum each, which Salaries respectively shall be clear of all Fees and Deductions, to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland by the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or any Three of them, unless further Warrant in that respect.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted and declared, That no Commissioner appointed or to be appointed by virtue of this Act, shall, during his Continuance in such Office, be capable of being elected or of being a Member of the House of Commons.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to appoint a Secretary, and such Officers, Agents, Clerks and Attendants, with such Salaries as he or they shall think proper, to and, attend and attend on the said Commissioners in the Execution of their said Office, and to follow the Directions of the said Commissioners in all Things relating to the Business of the said Office, such Salaries to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, may allow such Fees as to him or them shall seem fit, from time to time, for the Salaries of the several Officers, Clerks and other Persons to be from time to time employed under the said Commissioners, and for the incidental Expenses to be incurred in their Office in auditing the Public Accounts, to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland by the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or any Three of them, under the Direction of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners be to be appointed as aforesaid, and all Persons employed by and under them, before they shall enter upon the Execution of their several Offices, shall take an Oath, the Tenor whereof shall be as followeth; that is to say,

‘ I, A. B. (calling by Name of Office) do swear, That, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, I will faithfully, impartially and truly execute the several Powers and Trusts vested in me by virtue of the said Office.’

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners respectively shall and may take the said Oath before any of the Barons of the Exchequer in Ireland, and that the said inferior Officers and Persons respectively shall and may take the same before the said Commissioners, or any One of them; and the said Barons and Commissioners respectively are hereby authorized to administer the same.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in all cases not otherwise expressly directed or provided, all and every Authority vested, or to be vested in, and all and every Act and Acts directed or authorized to be done by the said Commissioners, shall and may be cancelled and done by any Three of them.

X. And be it further enacted, That if on any Trial, or in any Proceeding whatsoever, Civil or Criminal, Legal or Equitable, any Question shall arise concerning the Appointment or Qualification of any of the said Commissioners, or of any Officer or Person under them, or his or her Right to hold, exercise or enjoy such Office, it shall be sufficient, in all Issues and Pleas, to prove, that at the time in question such Person was reputed to be such Commissioner or other Officer; and it shall not be necessary to prove or produce any Appointment or Qualification.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money which shall have been or shall at any time or times hereafter be granted by Parliament, or issued out of His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland, for the Improvement of any Part of Ireland, by erecting Fern, forming Canals, making Rivers navigable, building Churches, Colleges, Schools, Gaols, or any other public Works or Edifices, maintaining Charities, Hospitals or Infirmarys, widening or forming new Streets, Roads or Bridges, rendering Harbours more commodious, or establishing Coal Yards in any Part of Ireland, or building, erecting, making or promoting any other Works of public Utility, or of a public Nature, shall be duly and regularly accounted for before the said Commissioners under this Act.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall from time to time enquire into the Receipt and Expenditure of all Money heretofore granted or hereafter to be granted to the Corporation for governing and carrying on the Island Navigation in Ireland, and shall also from time to time examine, audit and settle the Accounts of the Corporation for governing and improving the Port of Dublin.

XIII. And whereas the Foundling Hospital of the City of Dublin, the Hibernian and Marine Hospitals, Saint Patrick's Hospital, and House of Industry in the said City, and the Protestant Charter Schools, are maintained principally by Public Grants and Appropriations; Be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall also from time to time examine, audit and settle the Accounts of the respective Governors, Guardians or Trustees thereof respectively.

XIV. And whereas various Sums have been granted from time to time, and annual Resolves appropriated to the Trustees of the Linnen Manufacture and to the Dublin Society; Be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall examine, audit and settle from time to time the Accounts of the said Trustees and of the said Society: Provided always, that such Examination of the Accounts of the said Society shall be made only so long as the same shall receive any Parliamentary Grants of Public Money, and until the bill of such Grants shall be fully accounted for and no longer.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners under this Act shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered to examine, audit and settle the Accounts of the several County Infirmarys in Ireland, and of the several other Infirmarys and Hospitals of Royal or Publick Foundation in Ireland, and of the Receipt and Expenditure, and of the Debts and Credits of all such Infirmarys and Hospitals from time to time respectively, as and when the same shall be respectively given in Charge to the said Commissioners by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or when they shall think proper to examine the same, and not otherwise or oftener; but all Returns required by any Act of Parliament are hereby repealed, to be made to the Commissioners of Accounts from or relating to any such Infirmary or Hospital, shall be duly and regularly made to the Commissioners under this Act accordingly, and shall remain in the Office of the said Commissioners, to be used and examined when they shall be so required to examine the same, or when they shall think proper so to do.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That any Thing which is by or under the Authority of any Act not hereby repealed, directed to be done by or to the Commissioners of Inspect Accounts, or any Number of them, shall and may be done by or to the said Commissioners under this Act, or by or to the like Number of them respectively.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners under this Act shall and may proceed in all and every Account which shall be depending before and undischarged by their Predecessors, the Commissioners of Inspect Accounts, in the same manner in all respects as if the said Accounts and the Examination thereof respectively had proceeded so far before themselves; and the said Commissioners under this Act shall as to all Matters decided by or before their said Predecessors, consider themselves bound and concluded in the Account given by the Officer or Officer of the Treasury.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the said Comptroller under this Act shall be obliged to such Regulations not contrary to Law, touching and concerning the due Execution of this said Office, as the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being shall from time to time direct and establish; and that it shall be lawful for the said Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland to make and establish Rules, Orders and Directions for the Purposes aforesaid.

When General Accounts shall be presented to the Comptroller of the Treasury.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Auditor General of His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland shall, within Two Months after the passing of this Act, and within Two Months after the fifth Day of January in every future Year, make a Return in Writing to the said Comptroller of all Sums drawn from the said Treasury on any of the Accounts aforesaid, at the Year ending on the fifth Day of January next preceding such Return.

Accountants & Receivers Account to Comptroller.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That all Persons who are or from time to time shall be liable to account before the said Comptroller, shall respectively, within Three Calendar Months at the latest after the passing of this Act, with respect to any Accounts in Arrear up to the fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and within Three Calendar Months at the latest after the fifth Day of January in every future Year, deliver unto or transmit to the Office of the said Comptroller as Account Current of all Sums of Money received and paid by them for the Public Service within the Year ending on the fifth Day of January next preceding the foregoing such Account, whether the said Sums of Money or any of them were received or paid for the Service of such Year or otherwise, together with the Voucher for such Receipts or Payments, accompanied by a Schedule of the same, which Account and Schedule shall be signed by the Accountant or Accountants, or by some Person fully authorized as his Behalf, or if such Accountant or Accountants be a Body Politic or Corporation, or a Society, or the Trustees of any Public Institution, then the same shall be authenticated by the Seal of such Corporation, or by the Signatures of Five of the said Trustees, or of Five of the Individuals composing such Society.

Not to produce any transcribing or other Accounts required.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Delivery or Transmission of such Account and Vouchers, by any such Accountant or Accountants, shall not constitute the Parties from making up and delivering or transmitting such other Accounts as may be required of them, by any Discussion or Order of the said Comptroller under this Act, whether upon or in consequence of the Return in any Account to them as aforesaid, by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, or by the Lord High Treasurer, or Comptroller for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, or otherwise; but that all such Accounts shall be made up and submitted according to the Manner and Form aforesaid, and from and to such Person as shall be required by the Order of the said Comptroller under this Act for that Purpose, and shall be delivered unto, or transmitted to the Office of the said Comptroller, within such time as shall be so required by such Order of the said Comptroller.

Comptroller may call on any Accountant or Receiver to produce to him any Voucher or Receipts necessary to be produced, &c.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That the said Comptroller under this Act shall and may, so often as they shall think fit, call upon all Accountants or other Persons, or Bodies Politic, or Companies, or Societies, or Trustees, or Trustees or to whose Order or Care any Publick Money, for which such Persons, Bodies, Societies or Trustees respectively shall be accountable to the said Comptroller, shall be or shall have been issued or impaid, to account to them the said Comptroller for the Receipt, Expender or Issue thereof, within a time to be by them limited; and on Failure of the Accounts being delivered accordingly within the time so limited, the said Comptroller shall, in every such case where they shall see Cause, give Notice thereof to His Majesty's Attorney General in England or Ireland, His Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, or His Majesty's Attorney General in any of the Colonies or Plantations belonging to the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, as the case may require, in order that such Notices, writs, Bills or Process may be made, returned, filed or issued by the said Officers against any such Defaulters, as may be necessary to compel him to deliver in his Accounts as directed by the said Comptroller, which upon Application of the Parties being found special and sufficient Cause of Delay, the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, shall grant him or them Warrant to lay the Proceedings for such reasonable time or times as he or they shall think fit.

Not to call on any Accountant.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That if any such Accountant or Accountants shall fail to deliver such Accounts, pursuant to such Requisition, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Comptroller, if they shall think proper to do, to cause a Notice, signed by any Three of the said Commissioners for the time being, to be served on such Accountant or Accountants, or on the said Commissioners, or on any Part thereof, that may be mentioned in such Notice, on a Day to be therein expressed, not less than One Calendar Month from the Service of such Notice; and thereupon such Commissioners shall proceed to audit such Account or Accounts accordingly, whether any Accountants shall have been then furnished as aforesaid or not, or whether such Accountant or Accountants shall attend or not; and the said Commissioners shall charge such Accountant or Accountants with all Payments made from or under His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland, in Wales, or in them, or in his, her or their Order; and if such Accountant or Accountants shall not produce and prove, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, any Discharge, such Commissioners shall thereupon allow the Whole of the Sums so charged as a Balance ag. said such Accountant or Accountants; Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful so and for the said Commissioners to postpone from time to time, as often as they shall see good Cause for so doing, the final auditing of any such Account.

XXVI. And, in order that it may more fully appear whether it is fit that any Body Public or Corporate, or any Society or Trustees, should receive Money out of His Majesty's Treasury, or from His Majesty's Treasury, be it as aforesaid, that all and every Body and Bodies Public and Corporate, and all Societies and Trustees, who have received, or who shall at any time hereafter receive, by virtue of any Grant or Grants from Parliament or otherwise, any Sums or Parts of Money out of His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland, which shall not be appropriated by the several Terms of the Grant thereof to for a special Purpose or Purposes wholly distinct from the use or Uses of such Body, Society or Trustees, shall, as aforesaid, in auditing and rendering their Accounts as aforesaid, by such and date to the said Commissioners under this Act, show the true use of the said Grant or Grants for any such Money, or any Part thereof, a full and exact Account of all the Funds, Moneys, Debts and Credits whatsoever of such Body, Society or Trustees, howsoever derived, or whosoever be the Nature, Amount or Particulars thereof; and the said Commissioners shall make and make said Account, including such Part thereof.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That as Money shall be issued from His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland by virtue of any Parliamentary Grant, or otherwise to any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Public or Corporate, Society or Trustees, who shall ever have received any former Money therefrom at any time after the Expirence of the Period within which he, she or they shall be liable to render an Account to the said Commissioners under this Act, such such Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Public or Corporate, Society or Trustees, shall have and produce, or caused to be produced to the proper Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Treasury a Certificate signed by the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, that he, she or they hath or have furnished to the said Commissioners a full Account of the last preceding Sums so issued, and of all Sums for which he, she or they are or are accountable by virtue thereof.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall oblige the Commissioners to enquire into the Expediture of any Money granted for any of the Purposes aforesaid, previous to the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and ten, except where such any Grant or Payment made does the said time for any of the said Purposes shall in their Judgments make such Enquiry necessary or useful, or except where they shall otherwise find it necessary for the Public Service.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That as Money shall be paid out of any Sums which has been or shall be granted by Parliament, and which is to be accounted for before the said Commissioners on account of Interest or Dividend, or of any Deduction from the gross Sums granted, other than the Deduction of Poles and Payments, which when a special Power has been or shall be given to the Grantors authorizing them to pay Interest or Dividend, or to make such Deductions, or where it shall be otherwise directed or allowed by Parliament, nor shall any Money be paid out of any such Grant for any Expenses attending the Application for the same, or in preparing Memorials, Parliamentary Attendants, or accounting for the Expediture thereof; and all Sums so paid shall be discharged and struck out of the Accountants' Discharge by the said Commissioners.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners under this Act, or any Three of them for the time being, and they are hereby required to call before them the several Persons, Bodies Public and Corporate, Societies and Trustees, who have at any time received from His Majesty's Treasury any Public Money for any of the Purposes aforesaid, or for any other Purpose which the said Commissioners see or shall be authorized to inquire into; and any Member, or Governor, or other Officers of any such Body Public or Corporate, or Society, or any the several Persons, Bodies Public or Corporate, Societies and Trustees, to whom any Money has been granted or appropriated for any of the said Purposes; and any Member, or Governor, or other Officers of any such Body Public or Corporate, or Society, and the Clerks, Treasurers and Administrators of such Persons respectively, and to require them to give an Account of the Expediture of the said Money, and to exhibit to the said Commissioners all such Accounts, Certificates, Warrants of Expediture, Books, Memorials or Bills whatsoever, as shall touch or concern the Receipt or Expediture of such Money, or the Charge or Discharge of the Accounts thereof, and as shall be and as shall be in their Hands or Custody, and to examine upon Oath (which Oath any One of the said Commissioners is hereby empowered to administer) the said several Persons touching the several Items thereof, or any Part thereof, and touching any Matters relative to the Receipt, Expediture or Non Expediture of the said Money.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, shall also have full Power and Authority, and they are hereby authorized and required to call before them, and examine upon Oath, all Persons who have, or who they shall have Reason to believe have, any Knowledge of the receiving, expending, differing or in any wise accounting for, entering, paying or managing any of the Means of which they are or shall at any time be duly authorized to take or receive Accounts, and likewise to call before them, and examine upon Oath each Particular whom they shall think proper for the Purpose of enquiring into the Honesty, Efficiency and Legality of the Expenditure of all such Means, and into the State and Condition of the several Works; which any of such Means have been or ought to have been applied, and to send for and require to be called before them, as often as they shall think proper, all Accounts, Certificates, Books, Manuscripts, Bills, Plans, Papers and Writings, of what Nature soever, and in whatsoever Custody they may be, which in any wise touch or concern the Receipt, Expenditure, Disposal or Management of the said Means, and to examine upon Oath (which Oath any of the said Commissioners is hereby empowered to administer) all Persons whom they shall think proper, touching the State, Custody, Entries or Issues in such Accounts, Certificates, Books, Manuscripts, Bills, Plans, Papers or Writings.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby empowered and required to require into all corrupt and fraudulent and improper Practices or other Misconducts in the Expenditure, Application of, entering or accounting for Money or receiving, all and singular to any of the said Matters, and into the Efficacy and due Execution of the Works for which any Part thereof have been or shall be granted or appropriated, and they shall not include, or refer to any Part or be included in the Discharge Part of any Account which shall be at any time filed by them, any Article of Expenditure which shall not appear to them to be agreeable to the Intention or Import of the Grant to, or Trust reposed, or legal Powers vested in the Parties in whom such Grant has been or shall have been made.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall without any further Requisition, as soon as possible after their Determination and Proceeding in any Matter committed to their Examination, give an Account thereof in Writing, under the Hands and Seals of any Three or more of them to the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, and also to each House of Parliament, and also to the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer of Ireland, with respect to such Accounts as shall have been referred to the Commissioners under this Act, by the said Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners for executing the said Office; and the said Commissioners under this Act shall report therewith what Defects, Frauds or Illegality shall have been observed during their Proceedings in the Mode of Account or Expenditure, or in the Execution of the several Works aforesaid, and likewise such Regulations or other Matters as they shall in their Judgment deem expedient to be observed and adopted for the better dressing, enforcing and securing the benefit, just and efficient Expenditure of future Grants of Money, for the said several or similar Purposes, or any of them.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any One of the Justices of His Majesty's Courts of King's Bench or Common Pleas, or any One of the Barons of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, at their Discretion, to grant a Writ of Habeas Corpus, or bring up any Petition or Petitions to be heard in any Court, Prison or Place of Confinement in Ireland, to be examined before the said Commissioners under this Act, or any Three of them, touching any Matter of Account which shall be then depending before them, and every such Petition shall be so brought up accordingly; the Sum required by Law in every such case being first duly tendered, and shall be brought and returned before the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, four Day to Day, and from Hour to Hour, and as often and as long as they shall find necessary for the Purpose of such Examination, and at the Close thereof, shall be carried back to the same Prison or Place of Confinement, or otherwise disposed of according to Law, and none of the said Matters shall be deemed or taken to be an Obstacle; and it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners to enquire into, ascertain and show the necessary Expenses of bringing and keeping every such Petition in such Attendance, and of taking less or more back to such Prison or Place of Confinement; and that such Expenses being so allowed and being certified by the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, shall be paid as Part of the incidental Expenses of said Office.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to allow to the Credit of any Accountant any Sum on any Account of Expenditure that hath been or shall be incurred, although no written Voucher of the actual Payment of such Sum shall be produced to them, in cases where, upon Statements of the Accountants rendered on Oath, and after full and free Enquiry, the said Commissioners shall be satisfied that such Sums have been actually and properly disbursed, and that all due Discharge shall have been given by the Accountant to procure such Voucher; and whenever a Voucher produced or to be produced by any Accountant for any Account shall be defective, from the Want of any Certificate or other Document which ought to accompany such Voucher, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, upon Proof to their Satisfaction that the Accountant did not wilfully neglect to procure such Certificate or Document, and that the Sum specified in the Voucher shall have been actually and properly disbursed, to admit such Voucher as a sufficient Discharge of the said Accountant, and to allow the Amount of the same to his Credit: Provided always, that in all cases where any Sum exceeding Thirty Pounds shall be allowed to the Credit of any Accountant, either without any written Voucher, or upon an imperfect Voucher, the Particulars and Amount of every such Allowance shall be specified to the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland in the Statement of the Accountant in which such Allowance may be made, in order that the same may be considered and confirmed, or disallowed, by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, previous to the Discharge of any such Account.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Orders of the Commissioners of Irish Treasuries in Ireland for the Appropriation of any Money which has been heretofore or shall be hereafter granted to them by Parliament for the building of Churches, together with the Consents of the Bishops of the respective Dioceses, setting forth that the Churches for which such Orders shall have been made have been properly and sufficiently built, shall be allowed as Vouchers for the same contained in such Orders; and that upon any such Certificate and Order of Appropriation being laid before the Commissioners under this Act, for any One or more Church or Churches, and on either at the site first so happens, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners under this Act to pay the Account for the same, without waiting for the Accounts of any remaining Part of the Sum granted to the said Commissioners of Public Funds.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That after the Examinations of all such Permits, Books, Papers, and other Matters, as they shall think proper, the said Commissioners under this Act shall make full, perfect and just Accounts or Declarations of the Accounts of all Persons, Bodies Public or Corporate, Secretaries or Trustees, who are or shall be at any Time accountable to them, which Account shall contain the Sum and Substance thereof in Charge and Discharge, or by way of Debit and Credit; and they shall cause a Copy thereof to be given to the Party or Parties accountable.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That after any such Account shall have been fully examined and audited by the said Commissioners under this Act, and that any Sum or Item in the Discharge thereof shall have been disallowed, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, at any time within Three Calendar Months after the Date of such auditing, to order the said Commissioners for the time being to state, for the Information of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, the Grounds and Cause of such Disallowances, whereupon the said Commissioners for the time being, at any Three of them, shall forthwith make a Report under their Hands, in Obedience to such Order; and thereupon it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, within Six Calendar Months after the Date of such Report, to order, by Warrant under Hand and Seal, that every or any such Item or Item, or any Part thereof respectively, shall be allowed, and thereupon the same shall be so allowed, and the same shall be brought forward and allowed in the next Account of such Accountant.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That when any Account shall have been audited by the said Commissioners, the same shall be final and conclusive, so all Inquests and Perpetua whatsoever, save only so far as the same may be altered in manner aforesaid, by the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, in manner aforesaid; and that if in any Account of any Body Public or Corporate, Society or Trustees, any Discharge or Sum shall have been disallowed as aforesaid by the said Commissioners, and not afterwards allowed by Order of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being as aforesaid, the same shall not be paid or allowed out of the Funds of such Body, Society or Trustees; but the Person or Persons who ordered such Expenditure shall be respectively liable to make good the same, and shall and may be sued for the same, or any Part thereof, by an Action of Indebitatus Assumpsit, either jointly or severally, by the Secretary of the said Commissioners; and in such Suit it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff to prove the Order of the Defendant or Defendants, and the Disallowance of the Sum in question, or any Part thereof as aforesaid.

XL. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if at the time of sending any such Account by the said Commissioners, any such Accountant therein shall be absent from Ireland, then and in every such case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, at any time within Three Calendar Months after the Return of such Person to Ireland, to order the said Commissioners to state the Cause of any such Disallowance as aforesaid; and thereupon such Report shall and may be made by the said Commissioners, and such subsequent Proceedings had, as if such Order had been issued within the time aforesaid.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners from time to time to defray any Voucher or Vouchers, which shall remain in their Office at any time after Fifteen Years from the Date thereof; and also that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, on receiving an Order in Writing for the Purpose from the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to send over and deliver up to the Person or Persons mentioned for that Purpose in such Order, any Voucher or Vouchers whatsoever that may be in their said Office, and which shall be specified or directed as a Voucher.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person duly summoned by Process under the Hand and Seal of the said Commissioners, or any Three of them, to appear before the said Commissioners touching any of the Matters aforesaid, to give Evidence or otherwise, or to exhibit any Account, Certificate, Book, Manuscript, Bill, Plan, Paper or Writing, pursuant to this Act, shall refuse or neglect to appear, or to exhibit any of the aforesaid Articles in his or her Custody, Power or Possession, according to the Tenor of such Summons, or to answer any Question or Oath, which shall be lawfully propounded to him or her by any of the said Commissioners, touching any Matter or Thing which they shall therein be empowered to examine into, every such Person shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds for every such Neglect or Refusal, to be recovered by Civil Bill in the Court of proper Jurisdiction by any Person who shall sue for the same; and if any of the said Persons, or any Part thereof, shall have been made to be received by or paid to such Person who shall so refuse or neglect as aforesaid, or to any one to whom such Person is the Successor, Executor or Administrator, such Person in accepting or refusing shall not only forfeit the like Sum for every Neglect or Refusal, to be recovered in like manner, but such Person shall likewise stand out of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer against him or her, upon Complaint made before the said Court, as a usual agent Debtor to His Majesty who refuse or neglect to account.

• Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS an Act passed in the Eighteenth Year of Your Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act for enabling His Majesty to feule on their Royal Highnesses the Princess Frederick Biting of Oldenburg, William Henry, Edward, Erich Augustus, Augustus Frederick and Adolphus Ferdinand, as Duchess of Saxe-Gotha Pounds per Annum; and also to feule on their Royal Highnesses the Princess Charlotte Augusta Matilda, Augusta Sophia, Elizabeth, Mary and Sophia, as other Annuity of Thirty thousand Pounds per Annum; and also to feule on the Highness Prince William Frederick, as other Annuity of Eight thousand Pounds per Annum; and as the Highness the Princess Sophia Matilda, as other Annuity of Four thousand Pounds per Annum; And whereas Your Majesty has been graciously pleased in express Your Desire to Your faithful Commons, to be empowered to provide for the Establishment of their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Augusta Sophia, Elizabeth, Mary and Sophia, by an immediate Grant; Therefore We Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful to and for the King's Most Excellent Majesty, instead of the said Annuity as the said Act mentioned, by any Letters Patent, or by several Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain hereafter to be made, to give and grant to their Royal Highnesses Princesses Augusta Sophia, Princess Elizabeth, Princess Mary and Princess Sophia, and to the Survivors and Successors of them, or to such other Person or Persons as His Majesty shall think fit to be named in such Letters Patent, and he or she or they, during the Lives of their said Royal Highnesses, and the Life of the Survivor of them, in Trust for their said Royal Highnesses, or the Survivor or Survivor of them, One Annuity or Yearly Sum of Money not exceeding the Sum of Thirty six thousand Pounds lawful Money of Great Britain, by the Year, to commence and take Effect from the Eighteenth Day of February One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and to be paid and payable by even and equal Portions on the Year most aforesaid Days of Payment in the Year, that is to say, the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July and the Tenth Day of October; the First Payment thereof to be made as soon as may be after the passing of this Act, for the proportionate Part of the Quarter between the said Eighteenth Day of February and the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twelve; and that such Annuity or Yearly Sum of Money shall be, by such Letters Patent as aforesaid, be given and granted to issue, and shall accordingly issue and be payable out of, and be charged and chargeable upon, the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, since paying or relieving sufficient to pay all such Sum or Sums of Money so hath or have been directed to be paid out of the same by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, but with Preference to all other Payments which shall and may be hereafter charged upon and payable out of the said Fund.

11. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted, That upon the Death of any of their said Royal Highnesses the Princesses, or upon the Marriage of any one of them, and the Payment of a Portion to or in Consideration of such Marriage, not less than Forty thousand Pounds Sterling, the Right, Title, Share and Interest of such Princess to dying or being married, is and to the said Yearly Rent or Annuity of Thirty six thousand Pounds, or any Part thereof, shall cease and determine, and the said whole Annuity shall from thenceforth accrue and remain to the Three other Princesses; and upon the Death or Marriage of any other of the said Princesses, and the Payment of a Portion, not less than Forty thousand Pounds Sterling, or in Consideration of such Marriage, the Right, Share and Interest of such Princess, or of, and to the said Annuity of Thirty six thousand Pounds, shall cease and determine, and Two Third Parts of the said Annuity of Thirty six thousand Pounds, amounting to Twenty four thousand Pounds per Annum, and so more, shall accrue and belong to the other Two Princesses then remaining; and upon the Death or Marriage of either of the said Two last mentioned Princesses, and Payment of a Portion, not less than Forty thousand Pounds Sterling, or in Consideration of such Marriage, the Right, Share and Interest of such Princess, of, and to the said Annuity of Twenty four thousand Pounds, shall cease and determine; and the other of the said Princesses then living shall be entitled to Twelve thousand Pounds per Annum, Part of the said Rent or Annuity of Twenty four thousand Pounds, and so more, to cease and to determine on her Death or Marriage, and the Payment of a Portion, not less than Forty thousand Pounds Sterling, or in Consideration of such Marriage.

His Majesty empowered to feule on the Four Princesses, instead of Annuity granted by 18 C. 2 c. 21, an Annuity of 16000*l*.

Relief given for dividing the said Annuity upon the Marriage or Death of any of the Princesses.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said respective Annuities shall be paid and payable at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer, out of the said Fund, and the Auditor of the said Receipt shall and he is hereby required, by virtue of such Warrant or Warrants, to make forth and pay Debentures, from time to time, for paying the said respective Annuities as the same shall become due and payable, without any Fees or Charges to be demanded or taken for paying the same, or any Part thereof; and the respective Acquittance or Acquittances, Receipt or Receipts, of their said Royal Highnesses, or of such other Person or Persons as shall be by them respectively authorized and appointed to receive such respective Annuities, or any Part thereof, shall be a good and sufficient Discharge for the Payment thereof; and the said Debentures to be made forth and paid upon the said Warrant or Warrants shall have full power and Authority to the several and respective Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer, now and for the time being, for the Payment of the said respective Annuities to their said Royal Highnesses, during the Continuance of the same, without any further or other Warrant to be had for, had or obtained in that behalf; and that the said respective Annuities to be given and granted, shall be free and clear from all Taxes, Rates and Assessments, and all other Charges whatsoever.

C A P. LVIII.

An Act to grant to His Majesty certain Duties of Excise on Tobacco to be manufactured in Ireland; and to allow certain Drawbacks in respect thereof, in lieu of former Duties of Excise and Drawbacks; and to provide for the regulating and securing the Collection of the said Duties.

[both May 1812.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, having taking the necessary Supplies, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the Duties hereinafter mentioned; and do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That within and through that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, there shall be granted, raised, levied, collected, paid and lawfully, unto and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, an Excise Duty of One Shilling and Seven pence Pro et Contra per lb. and upon every Pound Weight of Tobacco which shall at any time or times, from and after the Commencement of this Act, be delivered out of any of His Majesty's Warehouses, or out of the Custody of any Officer or Officers of the Customs, for Manufacture in Ireland, and in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity, and to be charged on and paid by the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be delivered for Manufacture; which said Duty of Excise shall be in lieu and full Satisfaction of all Duties of Ireland Excise granted by any former Act or Acts of Parliament on Tobacco manufactured in Ireland, or taken out of the original Package for Manufacture in Ireland.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, all Duties of Ireland Excise imposed on Tobacco manufactured in Ireland by Two several Acts, the one made in the Forty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to grant to His Majesty certain Duties of Excise and Taxes in Ireland, and to allow certain Drawbacks in respect thereof, in lieu of former Duties of Excise, Taxes and Drawbacks; and the other in the Fifty-fourth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to grant an additional Duty of Excise on Tobacco manufactured in Ireland, shall cease and determine, and be no longer paid and payable, save as hereinafter provided.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend to enact or take away any of the Regulations or Provisions, Powers or Authorities, contained in any Act or Acts in force on or before the Commencement of this Act for the levying or recovering of all Excise Duties payable on Tobacco, and Arrears of such Duties, which shall have been incurred or become due on or before the Commencement of this Act; and that all and every such Regulations and Provisions, Powers and Authorities, shall be and remain in full force for the levying and recovering the said Duties, and Arrears of the said Duties.

IV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That all Tobacco which, having been delivered out of the Custody of any Officer or Officers of the Customs, or out of any of His Majesty's Warehouses, on or before the Commencement of this Act, shall be in the Custody or Possession of any Manufacturer or Manufacturers of Tobacco, or other Person or Persons in Ireland, at any time on or after the Commencement of this Act, shall be chargeable and charged with the said Excise Duty payable on Tobacco, unless and by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland on or before the Commencement of this Act; and the said Duty shall be charged as such and payable and paid by such Person or Persons, at such time, and in such manner, and under and subject to all the Rules and Regulations, Penalties and Forfeitures, mentioned, expressed and contained in any Act or Acts in force in Ireland, on or before the Commencement of this Act, for the charging, paying, levying and collecting of the said Excise Duties on Tobacco; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

V. And whereas it is expedient, pursuant to the Provisions of the Acts for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, that in respect of the Duties on Tobacco imported into and manufactured in Ireland, Counter-acting Duties should be charged upon Tobacco and Sack, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, and imported from thence into Ireland, sufficient to counteract the Duties charged on Tobacco imported into and manufactured in Ireland; Be it therefore enacted, That for and upon all Tobacco and Sack, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, of the several Descriptions hereinafter mentioned, which shall be imported from thence into Ireland at any time or times from and after the Commencement of this Act, there shall be charged, levied, collected and paid the several Conserving Duties following, in lieu and full Satisfaction of all Conserving Duties whatsoever, payable upon the Importation of such Tobacco and Snuff, under and by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland on or immediately before the Commencement of this Act; that is to say,

For and upon every Pound Weight Avoidupois of unmanufactured Tobacco, of the Growth or Produce of Great Britain, the Sum of Seven pence Three Farthings;

For and upon every Pound Weight Avoidupois of British manufactured Sheet Cut Tobacco, or Tobacco manufactured into what is commonly known or called by the Name of Spanish, the Sum of Two Shillings and Four pence;

For and upon every Pound Weight Avoidupois of Tobacco or Snuff, being British-manufactured Sheet Tobacco cut, the Sum of Two Shillings and One Penny Three Farthings; British-manufactured Roll Tobacco, the Sum of Two Shillings and Four pence; British-manufactured Carrot Tobacco, the Sum of Two Shillings and One Penny Halfpenny; every other Sort of British-manufactured Tobacco not herebefore enumerated or defined, the Sum of Two Shillings and Four pence; British-manufactured Rappee Snuff, the Sum of One Shilling and Eleven pence Three Farthings; British manufactured Snuff called Swiss Snuff, the Sum of Two Shillings and Nine pence; British-manufactured Snuff called Breton Snuff, the Sum of One Shilling and Eleven pence; British-manufactured Stalk Flour, the Sum of Two Shillings and Six pence Three Farthings;

For and upon every Pound Weight Avoidupois of every other Sort or Kind of British-manufactured Snuff or Snuff-work, not herebefore enumerated or defined, the Sum of Two Shillings and Nine pence;

All which last-mentioned Duties shall be paid and payable in British Currency;

And that upon the Exportation from Ireland to Great Britain of Tobacco and Snuff manufactured in Ireland of the like Descriptions, and exported at any time from and after the Commencement of this Act, and for which the Duties payable thereon shall have been fully paid and satisfied, there shall be allowed and given a Drawback equal in Amount to the Conserving Duties by this Act granted on Tobacco and Snuff, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain, and imported from thence into Ireland, in lieu of all Drawbacks payable under and by virtue of any Act or Acts in force in Ireland on or immediately before the Commencement of this Act, in respect of any such Tobacco or Snuff exported from Ireland to Great Britain.

VI. And be it further enacted, That upon all Tobacco and Snuff manufactured in Ireland from Tobacco, which shall have paid all Duties of Customs and Excise payable on the same according to Law, from and after the Commencement of this Act, which shall be exported from Ireland to any Place except Great Britain, there shall be paid and allowed by way of Drawback or Compensation for the Duty charged and paid on the Import of the Leaf Tobacco whereof a half here manufactured, and for the Excise Duty charged thereon by Law, the like Sums of Money as are by this Act allowed and made payable on all such manufactured Tobacco and Snuff exported to Great Britain, according to the Descriptions and Descriptions herebefore mentioned and contained: Provided always, that Proof shall be made on Oath or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, that all such manufactured Tobacco or Snuff so exported had been manufactured from Tobacco, which had theretofore paid all Import and Excise Duties payable by Law thereon.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Money arising from the Duties by this Act granted, the necessary Charges for collecting and paying the same being deducted, shall be earned to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund of Ireland.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Commencement of this Act, in each of an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to make perpetual and to amend several Acts for the better regulating the selling and granting of Permits and Certificates, for the Conveyance and Privileges of certain Excisable Goods in Ireland, in relation to the Removal of any Tobacco out of the Custody of any Officer or Officers of the Customs, or from any Warehouse in which the same shall have been lodged and secured, into the Stock of any Manufacturer of Tobacco; or in the granting of any Permit for the Removal of Tobacco into the Stock of any Manufacturer of Tobacco, full Oath and Testimony, and shall be and the same is hereby required.

IX. And, for the better enforcing the Intend Excise Duties on Tobacco in Ireland granted by this Act, be it enacted, That no Tobacco shall at any time after the Commencement of this Act, be removed out of the Custody of any Officer or Officers of the Customs, or from any Warehouse in which the same shall have been lodged and secured, except for Exportation, or into the Stock of a lawful Manufacturer of Tobacco; and that whenever such Tobacco shall be intended to be removed into the Stock of such Manufacturer, the Permit which shall be granted for the same to the Importer or Wholesale Merchant to whom such Tobacco shall belong, by the proper Officer of the Customs, shall be lodged with the Excise Inward Officer, who shall, under the Privileges hereafter mentioned, grant in lieu of such Customs Permit, an Excise Permit for the Removal of such Tobacco into the Stock of the Manufacturer mentioned in such Customs Permit; and such Tobacco shall not be removed out of the Custody of the Officer or Officers of the Customs, or out of any Warehouse in which the same shall be lodged or secured, until the Manufacturer, or some Person on his Behalf, shall have obtained and produced the said Excise Permit to the proper Officer of the Customs.

X. And be it further enacted, That no such Excise Permit for the Removal of any such Tobacco shall be granted, until the Duties of Excise imposed by this Act shall have been fully paid thereon; nor until the Manufacturer to whom such Tobacco shall be intended to be delivered, or some Person on his Behalf, shall produce to the Inland Office any following Conserving Duties.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Tobacco shall be removed out of any of His Majesty's Warehouses or Stores, or out of the Custody of any Officer or Officers of the Customs (except for Exportation) before such Excise Permit shall be granted for the Removal of the same, all such Tobacco is removed without such Excise Permit shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

XII. And be it further enacted, That before any License be granted to manufacture Tobacco, any Person requiring the same shall, with the Entry which he is by Law required to make of the several Places and Utensils to be used by him for keeping or manufacturing Tobacco, deliver to the proper Officer for granting such License, a Certificate from the Surveyor of Excise of the Survey within which the Manufacture of such Tobacco shall be done, signing forth that he has inspected the several Places and Utensils mentioned and described in such Entry.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Stock of Leaf Tobacco in the Possession of any Manufacturer of Tobacco shall be less than the Quantity of such Tobacco which, by the Stock Account kept by any Officer of Excise, ought to be in the Possession of such Manufacturer, every such Manufacturer shall, for every time such Defect shall appear, forfeit the Sum of Five Shillings for every Pound Weight of such Tobacco which shall appear to be deficient.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer of Excise, from time to time when he shall think it expedient so to do, to weigh any Tobacco in Cask, declared to be intended for Street; provided that such Tobacco shall have remained in such Cask for the Space of Six Weeks or upwards any thing in an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Kings, intituled An Act for regulating and extending the Tobacco Trade, and for favouring the Duties payable upon the Import and Manufacture of Tobacco, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XV. And be it further enacted, That all Commissions, Provisions, Bonds, Judgments or other Securities given or executed by any Person, where the Whole or any Part of the Consideration of any such Commissions, Provisions or Security, shall be for any Tobacco in Leaf or manufactured, which shall have been sold for a less Price by the Pound Weight than the Import and Excise Duties payable thereon, together with a Sum of Two pence added thereto, shall amount to, or for any Tobacco with which such Permits or by the said Act required shall not have been granted, shall be utterly void; and no Suit shall be maintained thereon in any Court of Law or Equity.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any such Tobacco shall be sold for ready Money at any lower Price than as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for the Person or Persons buying or purchasing such Tobacco, to recover from the Seller or Sellers thereof a Sum equal to the full Amount of such Tobacco so sold as aforesaid, to be sued for and recovered by Action in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Dublin, or by Civil Bill in a Court of proper Jurisdiction, where the Amount of the Sum to be recovered shall be within the Jurisdiction of such Civil Bill Court.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend, to make void or defeat any Contract for or Sale of Tobacco made bona fide under any Execution or Commission of Bankruptcy against the Order of such Tobacco.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That every License to sell manufactured Tobacco or Staff by Retail, which shall have been granted before the Commencement of this Act, shall expire on, and be no longer in force than until the Twenty fifth Day of March next after the Commencement of this Act; and every such License which shall be granted after the Commencement of this Act shall be in force until the Twenty fifth Day of March next after the Day of such License, and so longes.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That no Tobacco Stalks, whether manufactured or unmanufactured, or Tobacco Stalk Flour or Staff-work, shall be imported or brought into Ireland from any other Place than America, at any time after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the Commencement of this Act, nor from any Port or Place in America at any time after the Expiration of Three Calendar Months next after the Commencement of this Act, in any Ship, Vessel or Boat whatever, on Pain of forfeiting all such Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour and Staff-work respectively, with the Hogheads, Casks, Chests, Casks, Cases and other Packages respectively containing the same; and also the Ship, Vessel or Boat, in or on board which the same shall be so imported or brought, with her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel; and such Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour, Staff-work, Hogheads, Casks, Chests, Casks and other Packages respectively, and also each Ship, Vessel or Boat, Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise: Provided always, that in case any Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour or Staff-work, shall at any time after the Expiration of the first One Calendar Month or Three Calendar Months respectively, and before the Fifth Day of October One thousand eight hundred and twelve, be imported into Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for the Importer thereof to land and warehouse the same for Exportation only, subject to such Rules and Regulations as the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland may think fit to make, order and direct in that behalf.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the several Rates and Duties, and Drawbacks, by this Act granted and allowed, and made payable, and all and every the Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act, shall be paid, levied, collected, paid, sued for, recovered, and applied and allowed, in the same manner, and order

An Act to enable Coadjutors to Archbishops and Bishops in Ireland to execute the Powers of Archbishops and Bishops respectively. [34th Jan 1812.]

WHEREAS in cases of the Illness or other Disability of Archbishops and Bishops in Ireland, it has been and may be necessary that Coadjutors to such Archbishops or Bishops respectively should be appointed: And whereas several Authorities, Jurisdictions and Powers, are by several Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland, and otherwise vested, settled and placed in the several Archbishops and Bishops of Ireland respectively for the time being, and by the Charter of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, the Archbishop of Dublin for the time being is appointed One of the Visitors of the said College: Now, for the preventing of all Doubts and Questions that may arise whether all or any of these Authorities, Jurisdictions and Powers may be executed by such Coadjutors, he is enacted and declared, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Person appointed or who shall or may be appointed Coadjutor for the time being, to any Archbishop or Bishop in Ireland, may sit and exercise at all times according to the Commission of such Coadjutor as of right belonging to the Bishop or Archbishop for the time being to whom he shall be Coadjutor, all and every the same and like Office, Authority, Jurisdiction and Execution of Law, and Sentence, and all other Customs and Privileges, and shall and may do and perform all such Matters and Things whatsoever, which the Archbishop or Bishop for the time being to whom he shall be Coadjutor of right might law, use or exercise, do or perform as belonging to his Office or Dignity, or is empowered or required to do or perform by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in Ireland, or by the said Charter and the Statutes of the said College, or otherwise howsoever, to all Intents and Purposes, as if such Coadjutor for the time being were Archbishop or Bishop; and all Office, Authority and Jurisdiction exercised by such Coadjutor, and all Matters and Things done and performed by such Coadjutor in the Exercise thereof, shall be as good, valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same had been exercised, done or performed by the Archbishop or Bishop for the time being to whom he shall be Coadjutor as aforesaid.

Coadjutors may exercise Powers of Archbishops and Bishops for whom they are appointed.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to entitle, authorize or empower any such Coadjutor to collate or prefer to any Benefice or Ecclesiastical Professorship or Patronage, in Right of the Archbishop or Bishop to whom he shall be such Coadjutor; and that nothing in this Act contained shall extend nor be construed to extend to affect any Rights, Authorities, Privileges or Powers, which by Law devolve to or become vested in His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or in any other Person or Persons in case of the Illness or other Disability of any Archbishop or Bishop respectively; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

An Act for more effectually preventing the Embezzlement of Securities for Money and other Effects, left or deposited for safe Custody, or other special Purpose, in the Hands of Bankers, Merchants, Brokers, Auctioneers or other Agents. [34th Jan 1812.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that due Provision should be made to prevent the Embezzlement of Government and other Securities for Money, Plate, Jewels and other Personal Effects, deposited for Persons (whom) in Parliament, for Enforcement of any Deed, or other Security for Money entrusted to their Care.

* For safe Custody, or for any special Purpose, with Bankers, Merchants, Brokers, Attorneys and other Agents, entrusted by their Customers and Employers; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons with whom (as Banker or Bankers, Merchant or Merchants, Broker or Brokers, Attorney or Attorneys, or Agent or Agents, or any Description whatsoever) any Debenture, Debiture, Endorser, Bill, Note, Voucher, or Transport Bill, or other Bill, Warrant or Order for the Payment of Money, State Lottery Ticket or Certificate, Scamman's Ticket, Bank Receipt for Payment of any Loan, India Bond or other Bond, or any Deed, Note or other Security for Money, or for any Share or Interest in any National Stock or Fund of this or any other Country, or in the Stock or Fund of any Corporation, Company or Society established by Act of Parliament or Royal Charter, or any Power of Attorney for the Sale or Transfer of any such Stock or Fund, or any Share or Interest therein, or any Plate, Jewels or other Personal Effects, shall have been deposited, or shall be or remain for safe Custody, or upon or for any special Purpose, without any Authority, either general, special, conditional or discretionary, to sell or pledge such Debenture, Bill, Warrant, Order, State Lottery Ticket or Certificate, Scamman's Ticket, Bank Receipt, Bond, Deed, Note or other Security, Plate, Jewels or other Personal Effects, or to sell, transfer or pledge the Stock or Fund, or Share or Interest in the Stock or Fund to which such Security or Power of Attorney shall relate, shall sell, assign, use, assign, pledge, embargo, forfeit or in any manner apply to his or their own Use or Benefit, any such Debenture, Bill, Warrant, Order, State Lottery Ticket or Certificate, Scamman's Ticket, Bank Receipt, Bond, Deed, Note or other Security, as aforesaid mentioned, Plate, Jewels or other Personal Effects, or the Stock or Fund, or Share or Interest in the Stock or Fund to which such Security or Power of Attorney shall relate, in violation of good Faith, and contrary to the special Purpose, for which the Things aforesaid mentioned, or any or other of them, shall have been deposited, or shall have been or remained with or in the Hands of such Person or Persons, with Intent to defraud the Owner or Owners of any such Instrument or Security, or the Person or Persons depositing the same, or the Owner or Owners of the Stock or Fund, Share or Interest, to which such Security or Power of Attorney shall relate, every Person so offending in any Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and, being thereof convicted according to Law, shall be sentenced to Transportation for any Term not exceeding Fourteen Years, or to receive such other Punishment as may by Law be inflicted on a Person or Persons guilty of a Misdemeanor, and as the Court before which such Offender or Offenders may be tried and convicted shall adjudge.

II. And whereas it is usual for Persons having Dealings with Bankers, Merchants, Brokers, Attorneys and other Agents, to deposit or place in the Hands of such Bankers, Merchants, Brokers, Attorneys and other Agents, Sums of Money, Bills, Notes, Drafts, Cheques or Orders for the Payment of Money, with Directions or Orders to invest the Money so paid, or to which such Bills, Notes, Drafts, Cheques or Orders relate, or Part thereof, in the Purchase of Stocks or Funds, or in or upon Government or other Securities for Money, or to apply and dispose thereof in other ways or for other Purposes; and it is expedient to prevent Embezzlement and Misapplication in such Cases also: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any such Banker, Merchant, Broker, Attorney or other Agent, in whole Hands any Sum or Sums of Money, Bill, Note, Draft, Cheque or Order for the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money shall be placed, with any Order or Orders in Writing, and signed by the Party or Parties who shall be deposit or place the same, to invest such Sum or Sums of Money or the Money to which such Bill, Note, Draft, Cheque or Order as aforesaid shall relate, in the Purchase of any Stock or Fund, or in or upon Government or other Securities, or in any other way or for any other Purpose specified in such Order or Orders, shall in any manner apply to his or their own Use and Benefit, any such Sum or Sums of Money, or any such Bill, Note, Draft, Cheque or Order for the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money as aforesaid mentioned, in Violation of good Faith and contrary to the special Purpose specified in the Direction or Order in Writing aforesaid mentioned, with Intent to defraud the Owner or Owners of any such Sum or Sums of Money, or Order for the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money; every Person so offending in any Part of the United Kingdom, shall in like manner be deemed and taken to be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof according to Law, shall wear and suffer such Punishment as is aforesaid mentioned.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any of the Persons aforesaid mentioned from receiving any Money which shall be or become actually due and payable upon or by virtue of any of the Instruments or Securities aforesaid mentioned, according to the Tenor and Effect thereof, in such manner as he or they might have done, if this Act had not been made.

IV. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Penalty by this Act assigned to the Commission of any Offence intended to be guarded against by this Act, shall not extend or be construed to extend in any Part or Parts, or other Person or Persons, or belonging to any Partnership, Society or Firm, except only such Partner or Partners, Person or Persons, as shall actually commit or be accessory or privy to the Commission of such Offence; any thing herein contained to the contrary is any way notwithstanding.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained, nor any Proceeding, Conviction or Judgment to be had or taken thereupon, shall hinder, prevent, lessen or impede any Remedy at Law or in Equity, which any Party or Parties aggrieved by any Offence against this Act might or would have had, or have been entitled to if this Act had not been made, nor any Proceeding,

An Act to allow the Use of Sugar in Brewing Beer in Great Britain.

WHITHERAS by several Acts now in force Certain Brewers or Retailers of Beer or Ale are prohibited from using Sugar in the brewing or making of Beer or Ale, and it is expedient to allow the Use of Sugar in the brewing or making of Beer or Ale for a limited time: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for any such Common Brewer or Retailer of Beer or Ale in Great Britain, until the First Day of November next thousand eight hundred and twelve, to make use of Sugar in the brewing or making of any Gales or Brewings of Beer, Ale or Worts; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: Provided always, nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to allow any Common Brewer or Retailer of Beer or Ale to make use of any Molasses in the brewing or making of Beer or Ale, or any Sugar, except in the State in which the same shall have been imposed into that Kingdom, and without the same having been previously diluted with Water or other Liquors, or undergone any Process or Manufacture to alter the same: Provided also, that no such Brewer or Retailer, or Brewer or Retailer, shall be at Liberty or be allowed or permitted to make use of any Sugar in the brewing or making of Beer, Ale or Worts, unless he, she or they shall have given to the Officer of Excise, under whose Survey he, she or they shall be then, Twenty four Hours previous Notice of his or their Intention to make use of such Sugar, and specifying in such Notice the exact Hour and Time of day, her or their beginning to brew or make such Gales or Brewings of Beer, Ale or Worts, and the Weight of the Sugar to be made use of in the brewing or making of such Gals.

II. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That on the first Day, at any time after the First Day of October in the Year One thousand eight hundred and twelve, shall in His Royal Majesty's judge it to be for the Benefit and Advantage of His Kingdom to permit Common Brewers or Retailers of Beer or Ale to make use of Brown or Molasses Sugar in the brewing or making of Beer, Ale or Worts, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful to and for His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be directed by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and to allow all Common Brewers and Retailers of Beer, Ale or Worts in Great Britain (but not any particular Common Brewer or Retailer of Beer, Ale or Worts), at any time or times, not less than Thirty Days from the Date of such Proclamation or Order in Council, to make use of Brown or Molasses Sugar in the brewing or making of Beer, Ale or Worts, until Forty Days after the then next Meeting of Parliament, unless, before and according to the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Provisions, Fees, Penalties and Forfeitures contained and provided as and by this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Common Brewer or Retailer of Beer or Ale shall, during the time that this Act shall remain in force, make use of any Molasses, sugar, Honey, Syrup, Composition or Extract of Sugar, except Brown or Molasses Sugar, made use of in the manner herebefore allowed; or if any Common Brewer shall receive or take into his, her or their Custody or Possession, any Quantity of Molasses, Honey, Syrup, Composition or Extract of Sugar, exceeding Ten Pound Weight, every such Brewer and Retailer shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence respectively the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Fees, Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, shall be paid for, recovered, levied or satisfied by such Ways, Means or Methods, as any Fees, Penalty or Forfeiture can or may be lawfully, recovered, levied or satisfied by any Law or Laws of Great Britain, or by Admors of Debt, Bill, Pleas or Informations in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in England respectively; and that One Moiety of every such Fee, Penalty or Forfeiture, shall be to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall inform, discover or lay for the same.

C A P. LXVI.

An Act to explain and amend an Act of the Fifth Year of His present Majesty, to regulate the taking of Securities in all Offices in respect of which Security ought to be given, and for avoiding the Grant of all such Offices in the Event of such Security not being given within a Time to be limited after the Grant of such Offices.

[25th June 1812.]

WHITHERAS an Act was passed in the Fifth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intitled An Act to regulate the taking of Securities in all Offices in respect of which Security ought to be given, and for avoiding the Grant of all such Offices in the Event of such Security not being given within a Time to be limited after the Grant of such Offices: And whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of the said intitled Act to Scotland, and some of the Enactments of the said Act require to be amended: And whereas considerable Expense and Inconvenience has been found to attend the registering Memorials of Securities to the Register Office of Scotland, and such Expense and Inconvenience will be avoided, and the Purposes of the said Act more effectually carried into Execution, if the Register and Account of the Securities given in the several public Offices or Departments of Government now kept by Persons employed for that Purpose in each respective Office or Department, and the State thereof from time to time reported to the respective Heads of Departments, and to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury; Be it therefore granted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the Same, That all the Provisions contained in the said recited Act relating to registering Securities, except in so far as the same are repealed or altered by this Act, and also the Provisions of this Act, shall extend and be construed to extend to Scotland, and to all Officers, Clerks and Persons of the like Nature and Description belonging to the Government of Scotland, as are subject thereto in England.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in the said recited Act or this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to any Offices or Departments belonging to the Government of Ireland, nor to any Persons holding or employed in such Offices or Departments, for or in respect of such Offices or Departments, any thing in the said recited Act or this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Person who before the passing of this Act shall have been appointed to, and shall hold any Office or Employment, or Commission Civil or Military, in any Public Department belonging to that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, or any such Office or Employment of Public Trust under the Crown, or, whosoever he shall be concerned in the Collection, Receipt, Disbursement or Expediture of Public Money, and who by means thereof shall have been, or shall be required to give Security with Surety or Sureties, or otherwise, and who shall not before have given such Security, shall, within One Month after the passing of this Act, if such Person shall then be in Scotland, within Two Months if he shall then be in England or Wales, or within Three Months if he shall then be in Ireland, or within Six Months if he shall then be in any other Part of Europe, or in the West Indies or America, or within Nine Months if he shall then be in Africa, or within Eighteen Months if he shall then be in the East Indies, or in any other Part of Asia, or within Ten Months if he shall then be on the High Seas (unless he shall sooner arrive in England, Wales, or Scotland or Ireland, and then within Three Months after such Arrival) give and execute and enter into a Bond or Bonds, or other Security or Securities in such Sum of Money and with such sufficient Surety or Sureties, as shall be approved by the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or by the principal Officer or Officers of the Office or Department to which he belongs, for the due Performance of the Trust reposed in him, and for the duly accounting for all the Public Money entrusted to him or placed under his Control.

IV. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as requires Memorials of Securities given by any Public Officers to be made out and registered with the Register of the County of Middlesex, shall be and be taken to be hereby repealed.

V. And be it further enacted, That in every Public Office or Department, the Officers or Persons belonging to which are required to give Security in manner directed by the said recited Act or by this Act, some Person or Persons belonging to such Office or Department shall be appointed and authorised and required by the Person or Persons having the Power, Direction and Control over such Office or Department, to keep and register the Securities relating to the Office or Department to which he shall belong, and from time to time to report the State thereof in manner directed by this Act, and all such Securities as aforesaid shall be delivered to such Person or Persons, to be registered under this Act, within such Periods (except where otherwise provided by this Act) and under and subject to the same Penalties and Forfeitures in case of Neglect or Default to deliver such Securities, as are prescribed in the said recited Act with respect to registering Memorials with the said Register of Middlesex.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Person to be appointed or to be employed to keep and register the Securities given or required to be given by Persons employed in or belonging to each respective Public Office or Department, shall immediately after the passing of this Act keep a Book of Entry of all Securities given in such Office, and shall in the First Place enter therein all Securities of Persons belonging to such Office which have been already registered in the Office of the Register of the County of Middlesex, and shall thereafter from time to time enter therein all such Securities, and also all Deaths of Sureties, and all Ommissions or Neglects in giving Securities or in supplying the Places of any Sureties, and all other Particulars necessary to show the actual State of the Securities in such respective Office or Department, and shall within Three Months after the passing of this Act, and thenceforward once in each Year between the Fifth Day of January and the Twenty fifth Day of March lay an Account of the State of the Securities in such Department at the time of the making out such Account, together with an Abstract thereof, before the Commissioners or other Head Officer or Officers of the Office or Department to which the Securities shall relate, or in which the same are taken; and such Abstract shall within One Month after the said Twenty fifth Day of March in each Year be transmitted to the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, of Great Britain, with a Minute in each case of any Orders which may have been given by the respective Commissioners or other Head Officer or Officers aforesaid, in relation to any Ommissions or Neglects in such Securities, or the keeping the Account thereof, and of what may have been done upon any such Order.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall have already registered a Memorial of any Security with the Register of Middlesex, under the Provisions of the said recited Act, shall be required to register the same Security with the Officer or Person appointed or employed to keep Securities under the Provisions of this Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Person as aforesaid, who shall have given any Bond or Bonds or other Security or Securities, with Surety or Sureties, for the due Execution of the Trust reposed in him, or for the duly accounting for Public Money coming to his Hands, shall give Notice in Writing to the Head of the Office or Department to which he shall belong, of the Death or Bankruptcy of any Surety or Sureties or Person or Persons bound for or with him in any such Security or Securities, within Four Calendar Months after the same shall have come to his Knowledge, if he shall reside or be in Great Britain or Ireland, and

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Neglect, Omission or Irregularity, in giving or receiving the Bonds or other Securities, or registering the same within the Periods, or in the manner prescribed by the said recited Act or this Act, shall be considered to have rendered or made void, or to waste or make void any such Bond or other Security, or to have discharged or to discharge any Surety from the Obligations of any such Bond or Security.

XV. Provided also, and he it further enacted, That all Deeds, Bonds or other Securities required to be registered shall be registered by the proper Officers, notwithstanding the Pains prescribed for registering the same shall have expired; but no such registering of any such Deed, Bond or other Instrument, shall be deemed or construed to waive any Forfeiture or Penalty, or to exempt the Parties so whole Behalf the same shall have been registered from any Forfeiture or Penalty under any of the Provisions of the said recited Act or this Act.

XVI. And whereas divers Persons, who by reason of their Appointments to or holding certain Offices or Employments, or Commissions Civil or Military, in any Public Department or of Public Trust, or who by reason of being concerned in the Collection, Receipt, Disbursement or Expediture of any Public Money or otherwise, or who may be required or bound under the Provisions of the said recited Act or the Statute therein recited, to give any such Security, or to register any such Memorial as is mentioned in that Act, or to give Notice of the Death of any Person, or to give the Death of any such Person to give Security or to enter Bonds and to register Memos of the same, or of such new Surety, have, through Ignorance of the Law, Advice, or from any other Accident, omitted or may omit to give such Security, and to cause the same to be duly registered, or to give Notice of the Death of any Person as aforesaid, and to enter the same in any such manner, and by the said Act is required; whereby they have incurred or may be in Danger of incurring divers Penalties and Disabilities: And whereas an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, entitled An Act to amend the said Statute in the United Kingdom as hereinafter is expressed, and to register Memorials thereof, under an Act of the last Session of Parliament, and for extending the Time limited for such Purposes respectively until Six Months after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament; and the said last recited Act has expired, and it is necessary that further Indemnity should be given to Persons who shall comply with the Provisions of the said Act and this Act within limited Periods, as it further enacted, That if and every Person or Persons who, at or before the passing of this Act, hath or have omitted to give such Security, and to cause such Memorial thereof to be duly registered in such manner as is required by the said recited Act is required, or to give Notice of the Death of any Person as aforesaid, and who after being appointed to, and accepting any such Office, Place or Employment, or undertaking any thing on account of which such Security ought to have been or ought to be given, and such Memorial if void or null, and at any time before the passing of this Act, or who at any time before the Expiration of Two Months from the passing of this Act shall give such Security and deliver the same as required by this Act, or to give such Notice as aforesaid in such manner as is appointed by this Act, shall be, and are hereby declared to be, freed and discharged from and against all Penalties, Forfeitures, Incapacities and Disabilities incurred or to be incurred, for or by reason of any Neglect or Omission of giving any such Security, or registering any such Memorial, or giving any such Notice, according to the above mentioned Act; and such Person and Person as are and are and shall be fully released to the same State and Condition as he, she or they were in before such Neglect or Omission; and that all Acts done or to be done by any such Person or Persons, or by Authority derived from him, her or them, and all shall be of the same Force and Validity as the same or any of them would have been if such Person or Persons respectively had given such Security and registered such Memorial, or given such Notice, according to the Direction of the said Act.

XVII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That all such Securities shall and may be given and delivered to and registered by the same Officers and Persons, in the same manner and under the like Rules, Regulations and Provisions, and within the appointed Period allowed by this Act for the giving or registering Securities, and shall in such case be as valid and effectual as if such Securities had been given and registered within the respective Periods limited for those Purposes in the said recited Act.

XVIII. And he it further enacted, That in case of any Act, Suit, Bill of Indictment or Information, had done and after the passing of this Act be made, moved or prosecuted against any Person or Persons hereby exempt or released, to be answered, contested or resisted, for or on account of any Forfeiture, Penalty, Incapacity or Disability whatsoever incurred or to be incurred by any such Neglect or Omission, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and upon their Demurrer, give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence upon any Trial to be had thereupon.

Spoken and Temporal, and Common, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That One Assize or Yearly Sum of Two thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, and One other Assize or Yearly Sum of One thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, shall be respectively raised and payable out of and charged and chargeable upon the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain, after paying or satisfying in full all such Sums and Sums of Money as have been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the same, but with Preference to all other Payments which shall or may hereafter be charged upon or payable out of the said Fund, and the same Assizes or yearly Sums shall from time to time be paid free and clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatsoever, except the Property Tax, as manner and form following; that is to say, the said Assize or yearly Sum of Two thousand Pounds to the Honourable Jane Percival, the Widow of the said late Right Honourable Spencer Percival, for and during the natural Life of the said Jane Percival, and from and after her Deaths unto or for the Benefit of such Son or Grandson of the said late Right Honourable Spencer Percival, as shall be the Her Male of the Body of the said late Right Honourable Spencer Percival at the time of the Death of the said Honourable Jane Percival, for and during the Term of the natural Life of such Son or Grandson, and until the same Assize shall be by the Decease of the said Honourable Jane Percival devolve upon such Son or Grandson, the said Assize of One thousand Pounds shall be paid and applied to or for the Benefit of the Son or Grandson of the said late Right Honourable Spencer Percival, who shall be for the time being the Her Male of the Body of the said late Right Honourable Spencer Percival, for and during the joint natural Life or Lives of such Son or Grandson, as the case may be, and of the said Honourable Jane Percival, which said Assizes or yearly Sums shall respectively commence and take Effect from the Eleventh Day of May in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twelve; the First quarterly Payment of each of the said Assizes or yearly Sums to be computed and made respectively from the said Eleventh Day of May to the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and from thence the same Assizes or yearly Sums shall be payable quarterly on the Fourth day of Payment in the Year; that is to say, the Fourth Day of October, the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April and the Fifth Day of July in every Year, together with a rateable Payment of each of the said Assizes or yearly Sums respectively, to be computed from the last quarterly Payment before the Death until the Day of the Death of, and so each Death to be paid to the Executor, Administrators or Assigns of the Person to whom or for whose Benefit the said Assizes or yearly Sums shall be respectively payable.

II. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That until the Son or Grandson who shall be entitled as aforesaid, for the time being to such Assize of One thousand Pounds, or Two thousand Pounds as aforesaid, as the case may be, shall attain the Age of Twenty one Years, the said Assize or yearly Sum of One thousand Pounds, so long as the same shall be payable, and the said Assize or yearly Sum of Two thousand Pounds in case the said Honourable Jane Percival shall be before the Son or Grandson entitled at the time of her Death shall attain the Age of Twenty one Years, shall be paid to and received by the Trustees appointed by or under the Act, in relation to the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds heretofore mentioned; and the Acquisitions or Receipts of such Trustees, or any Three or more of them, of whom the Speaker of the House of Commons, or the Lord Commissioner of the Treasury, or Chancellor of the Exchequer, shall be One, shall be a sufficient Discharge for the Payment of either of such Assizes or yearly Sums, as the case may be, and such Son or Grandson shall attain the Age of Twenty one Years, and the same Trustees shall apply such Part or Proportion of the Assize or yearly Sum which shall from time to time be payable for the Benefit of the Son or Grandson entitled to such Assize as aforesaid, as they may deem proper, in and for towards the Maintenance and Education or Advancement in Life of the Son or Grandson entitled to such Assize as aforesaid, and shall lay out and expend the Surplus of such Assize or yearly Sum in Government Stocks or Public Funds in the Names of such Trustees, or any Three or more of them, for the Use and Benefit of the Son or Grandson entitled to such Assize, and shall, upon such Son or Grandson attaining the Age of Twenty one Years, transfer the Stocks or Funds so purchased, and all Accruals which shall hereafter arise from the Investment of the Income thereof in like Securities unto the Son or Grandson entitled to such Assize under this Act; and in case of his dying under the Age of Twenty one Years, then do and shall stand possessed of the same Stocks or Funds and Accruals as in Trust for the Person or Persons, who according to the Statutes for the Distribution of Intestates's Effects, would have been entitled to the clear Residue of the Personal Estate of such Son or Grandson in case he had died unmarried.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain shall be paid out of any of the Aidors Supplies granted for the Service of the Year One thousand eight hundred and twelve, five and clear of all Taxes and other Deductions whatsoever, to the Speaker of the House of Commons, the Lord High Treasurer of the Exchequer, or the First Lord Commissioner of the Treasury, the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, the said Jane Percival, Charles Grey Lord Arden, John Lord Rothschild and Andrew Birkbeck Esquires, in Trust for the Use of the Children of the said late Right Honourable Spencer Percival, and to apply the same in the manner hereafter directed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That until such Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds shall be so paid to such Trustees as aforesaid, there shall be paid to the said Trustees from time to time out of the said Consolidated Fund, after paying or satisfying in full as to pay any Sum directed to be paid by former Acts, but with Preference to other Payments, interest for such Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum clear of all Deductions except the Property Tax, and such Interest shall commence and take Effect from the said Eleventh Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twelve; the First Payment of Interest to be computed and made respectively from the said Eleventh Day of May, to the said Fifth Day of July One thousand cheated eight hundred and twelve, and from thence forth Interest shall be payable Quarterly on the Twelfth Day of October, the Fifth Day of January, the Fifth Day of April and the Fifth Day of June in each Year, and the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds shall be so paid as aforesaid, and any Profits of any (thirty-seventy Percent) of such Interest shall be computed and paid on the Day of such Payment of the Principal. Provided always, that it shall be lawful from time to time to advance and pay any Part or Parts of such Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds according to and for the Purposes of this Act, without Payment of the Whole thereof; and in any such case all Interest for so much of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds as shall be so paid shall cease and be no longer payable from the Day or Days of such Payment; and the Interest which shall afterwards be paid shall be computed only on so much of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds as shall then remain unpaid, and such Interest shall be paid accordingly.

Fines.

V. And it is hereby further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners, of His Majesty's Treasury now and for the time being, or any Three or more of them, and the Lord High Treasurer and Under Treasurer of the Exchequer for the time being, and they are hereby authorized and required by Warrant under their Hands to direct the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer now and for the time being, to make faith and full Discharges for paying the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds or any Part or Parts thereof, and also from time to time for paying the said Annuities or yearly Sums of Two thousand Pounds and One thousand Pounds respectively, and Interest as aforesaid on the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, as the same respectively shall from time to time become due and payable, without any Fees or Charges to be demanded or taken for paying the same or any Part thereof, which said Warrant and the Discharges to be made faith and full Discharges shall be a sufficient Authority to the several and respective Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer, now and for the time being, for the Payment of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or any Part or Parts thereof, to such Treasurers respectively as aforesaid, and also for Payment of the said Annuities or yearly Sums of Two thousand Pounds and One thousand Pounds respectively, and also such Interest as aforesaid to the said Jew Purveyor, or such Son or Grandson of the said late Right Honourable Spencer Perceval as aforesaid, or such Trustee as aforesaid, as the case may be, at the respective Days, and in manner as this Act before appointed for Payment thereof respectively, without any further or other Warrant to be had for, had or obtained in that Behalf.

Treasury to pay Warrants for Payment without Fees.

VI. And it is hereby further enacted, That after signing of such Warrant the same shall be good, valid and effectual in Law, according to the Purport and true Meaning thereof and of this Act, and shall not be determined or revocable by or upon the Death of His Majesty, (whom God long preserve,) or any of his Heirs or Successors, or by or upon the Death or Removal of the said Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer, or the Under Treasurer of the Exchequer, or by or upon the Determination of the Power, Office or Office of them or any of them.

Warrants not revocable.

VII. And it is further enacted, That the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, now and for the time being, and the Lord High Treasurer of the Exchequer for the time being, Chancellor and Under Treasurer, Comptroller and Treasurer of the Exchequer, and also the Officers and Members of the Court of Exchequer, and of the Receipt thereof, now and for the time being, shall and they are hereby authorized and boundly enjoined and required to do without Fee or Reward all such Acts, Matters and Things as are hereinbefore directed and required, or shall be necessary to be done and performed by them or any one or more of them, in order to render this Act and the several Provisions hereby directed effectual.

Treasury and Exchequer required to do what is necessary without Fee.

VIII. And it is further enacted, That the Acquittance or Acquittance, Receipt or Receipts of the said Treasurers respectively, for the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds and the Interest thereof, is directed to be paid to them, and of the said Jew Purveyor for the said Annuity or yearly Sum of Two thousand Pounds, and of such Son or Grandson of the said late Right Honourable Spencer Perceval as aforesaid, or the said Trustee as aforesaid, as the case may require, shall be good and sufficient Discharge for the Payment of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds and Interest, and Annuities or yearly Sums respectively, without any further or other Warrant to be had for or obtained in that Behalf, and that the said several Annuities or yearly Sums, and the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds and the Interest thereof respectively and every Part thereof, shall be free and clear from all Taxes, Imposts and other public Charges whatsoever (except the Property Tax), in respect of the said Annuities and Interest; and in case any of the Officers of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer shall refuse or neglect to pay the said Annuities or yearly Sums of Money or other of them, or any Part thereof, or the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or Interest for the same, or any Part thereof, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or to do any Act necessary to enable the said Trustee respectively, and the said Jew Purveyor, and such Son or Grandson of the said late Right Honourable Spencer Perceval as aforesaid, or any of them, to receive the same, then the said Trustee respectively, and the said Jew Purveyor, and such Son or Grandson of the said late Right Honourable Spencer Perceval as aforesaid, may from time to time sue, prosecute and employ such Officers or any of them in refusing or neglecting, and their Executors and Administrators respectively, by Bill, Plaint or Action of Debt, and shall and may receive Judgment and Satisfaction thereupon against such Officers respectively, and their respective Heirs, Executors or Administrators, for so much of such Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds and for so much of such Sum or Sums of Money then due and owing upon the said Annuities or yearly Sums respectively, or any Parts or Part thereof respectively, or for any such Interest as aforesaid as shall have been in the Hands of the Officer or Officers of the Receipt of the Exchequer, at the time or times when Demands shall have been legally made of the Payment of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or of the said Annuities or yearly Sums or Interest respectively, or any Part thereof respectively as aforesaid, or for the Refusal or Neglect to do any Act necessary to be done by such Officer or Officers respectively as aforesaid.

Acquittance of Treasurers, Jew Purveyor, &c.

IX. And

The deed is to be signed by Trustees for Parents hereinafter
mentioned.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or the Stocks, Funds and Securities wherein the same shall from time to time be invested according to the Directions in this Act contained, shall be paid to the said Trustees upon the Trusts and for the Purposes following; that is to say, Upon Trust, for and in every the Children and Child or each One or more of the Children of the said Right Honourable Jane Princess, in such Shares and Proportions, and in such Manors and Ferns, and with such Licences as may be necessary for the Benefit of either or either of such Children, as the said Jane Princess shall from time to time by any Instrument or Instruments in Writing sealed and delivered by her, in the Presence of, and attested by Two or more credible Witnesses, with or without Power of Revocation as by her last Will and Testament or Writing, or any Codicil signed by her, and published in the Presence of and attested by the like Number of Witnesses, direct or appoint; and in Default of such Direct or Appointment, and in the mean time until any such shall be made and signed to any such Dominion or Appointment, which shall not be a complete and absolute Disposition of the Whole of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or of the Stocks, Funds or Securities wherein the same shall be invested, as of the said Jane Princess therein, upon Trust for all and every the Children and Child of the said Right Honourable Jane Princess, in equal Shares and Proportions, and to be called in Trust in themselves only, as if their respective ages at the Age of Twenty one Year, or marrying, which shall first happen, and whichever the first shall happen in the Lifetime of the said Jane Princess or after her Death, but before the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, is or are paid; and if any of the said Children shall die under the Age of Twenty one Year, without issue, then the Parts and Shares of such of them as shall be dead, shall go over and be paid and transferred to, as if the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, with like Benefit of Accrued, and all accruing Interest shall also go over, as if paid in like manner and be vested in Trust in such Children respectively, as the same stands in their original Shares respectively; and if all of such Children shall die under the Age of Twenty one Year and remain dead, then the Whole shall be paid and transferred to such only Child or Children as shall survive, but if all the said Children shall die under the Age of Twenty one Year and remain dead, then the Whole of the said Trust's Income and any unexpended shall go and be paid to the Survivors of such Children, and in or her Last will and Testament or in any Appointment, provided always, that in case any such Child shall by virtue of any Appointment or will be made by the said Jane Princess as aforesaid, have received or become entitled to any Part of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or of the Stocks, Funds or Securities wherein the same or any Part thereof had been invested, such Child shall not receive any Part of the said remaining unexpended, until the Share of it or other Children shall be made up equal with the Child in whose Favour any such Appointment shall now be made, unless the said Jane Princess shall by some Instrument in Writing be contented and satisfied as aforesaid, or by her last Will and Testament or any Codicil thereto be so contented and satisfied as aforesaid, in the contrary.

XI. Provided always, that be it further enacted, That from and after the Death of the said Jane Princess the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds or of the said Stocks, Funds and Securities shall be paid and applied as aforesaid, and the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, or of the said Stocks, Funds and Securities shall be paid and applied by virtue of the said Statute in that behalf made, the said Trustees, Interest and annual Produce thereof, or of do or to direct as the said Honourable Jane Princess shall direct and determine in or towards the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds or of the said Stocks, Funds and Securities wherein the same shall be invested, or to do or to direct as the said Honourable Jane Princess shall direct and determine in or towards the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds or of the said Stocks, Funds and Securities wherein the same shall be invested, or to do or to direct as the said Honourable Jane Princess shall direct and determine in or towards the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds or of the said Stocks, Funds and Securities wherein the same shall be invested, or to do or to direct as the said Honourable Jane Princess shall direct and determine in or towards the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds or of the said Stocks, Funds and Securities wherein the same shall be invested, or to do or to direct as the said Honourable Jane Princess shall direct and determine in or towards the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds or of the said Stocks, Funds and Securities wherein the same shall be invested.

of the said late Right Honourable Speaker Parson, whole Share or respective Shares of and in the said Principal Sum, or Stocks, Funded Securities, shall not thereupon become payable or assignable and transferable under the Trusts aforesaid, according and in Conformity to their several respective Rights and Shares in the said Principal Sum, Stocks, Funds, or Securities, and the Remainder [if any] of such Dividends, Interest and annual Produce shall accordingly be due to or for the said Children according to their respective Shares in the Principal from whose said Accruals they shall be due.

XII. Provided also, and he is further enacted, That after the Death of the said Honourable John Parson, in Default of any Direction or Appointment as aforesaid by the said Honourable John Parson to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the said Trustees for the time being to apply all or any Part of the Share or Shares of any such Child or Children being a Son or Sons, of and in the said Trust Funds, for paying out such Son or Sons in any Profession or Employment, or for his or their Education thereon, or for purchasing him or them a Commission or Rank in the Army or Navy, or for any other Use or their Advancement or Benefit.

XIII. And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees with the Consent and Approbation in Writing of the said Honourable John Parson during his Life, and also after his Death in their own Discretion, to hire and dispose of all or any Part of the said Trust Lands, and also to sell, lease, and to let and to sell the Manors, Farms, Messuages, or any other such Government or Real Securities, and also to sell, lease, and to let, and to sell, and to change, and other Government Securities, Funds and Real Securities for others of the same or the like Nature, and to have Power to time to time as shall be deemed expedient, subject always nevertheless to their said Power before declared.

XIV. Provided also, and he is hereby further enacted, That upon the Death of any of them the said Charles George Lord Viscount John Lord Rochford and Andrew King Esquire, or of any Person or Persons who shall hereafter be Trustees or Trusts under the Power of Appointment herein contained, and also in case they the said Charles George Lord Viscount John Lord Rochford and Andrew Berkeley Esquire or either of them, or such new Trustees or Trusts who shall be appointed as herein mentioned, or any or either of them, shall desire to be discharged from or decline to act in the Trusts in and by this Act declared; then and in every such Case, and with all Power and Speed after the happening of any such Case, the said John Parson, and in case of his Death the said Trustees or Trusts, shall with the Consent in Writing of the Speaker of the House of Commons, or the said Lord Commissioner of the Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer for the time being, by their Oath or Oaths in Writing under the Hand and Seal of the said John Parson, or in case of his Death under the Hand and Seal or Seal or Seal of each of them, having or retaining Trusts or Trusts, nominate any other Person or Persons to be a Trustee or Trustees in the Room of the Trustee or Trustees who being or desiring to be discharged or declining to act as aforesaid; and such new Trustee and Trustees shall have and be supplied with such and the same Powers in all respects as if he or they had been originally nominated a Trustee or Trustees in and by this Act, and after every such Appointment of a new Trustee or Trusts in such Cases, and after every such Discharge and Death, as shall be requisite for settling the Estate and Interest of and in all and singular the Trusts and in the continuing Trusts or Trustees (of any such Trusts he), and such new Trustee or Trustees respectively, or in such new Trusts, or such new Trusts only, according to the Nature of the said Trusts, but upon the Trusts and for the Interest and Purpose aforesaid, and in all and singular the Trusts and in all and singular the continuing Trusts thereof for the time being, or the Successors or Successors of them, or the Executors or Administrators of such Successors or Successors, according to the Nature of the Trusts aforesaid.

XV. And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Three of the Trustees for the Purpose of this Act for the time being, to do and execute all such Acts, Matters and Things in Extension of the Trusts aforesaid, as all the said Trustees respectively are hereby authorized and empowered to do, and the same shall be as valid and effectual as if the same had been done and executed by all the said Trustees respectively; Provided always, that in every such Act, Matter or Thing done by Three Trustees, the said Speaker of the House of Commons, or Lord High Treasurer, or said Lord Commissioner of the Treasury, or Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, shall be wroth.

XVI. And he is further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Speaker of the House of Commons, the Lord High Treasurer of the Exchequer, or said Lord Commissioner of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, from time to time, by Writing under Hand and Seal, to appoint a Person to act for each of the said respectively, in all or any of the Trusts of this Act, and either in or for such Exceptions and Respects as a Trustee or Trusts of the House of Commons, the Lord High Treasurer of the Exchequer, or said Lord Commissioner of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being respectively, shall from time to time by such Writings or Resolutions, and also from time to time to remove such Substitute and to appoint any other Person for the same Purpose; and all such Writings shall be as valid and effectual as if they were made and done by the Speaker of the House of Commons, the Lord High Treasurer of the Exchequer, or said Lord Commissioner of the Treasury, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer, who shall respectively make such Appointment.

XVII. And he is further enacted, That the said Trustees for the time being, of this Act, or any of them, shall not be charged or accountable in any or several Manner, in any Manner, at the Trusts and in the Trusts; that they shall respectively actually receive, or shall cause to be actually received, all or any of the Trusts aforesaid, and with or for any such Child or Children as shall or may be appointed by this Act, and provided, or of any Part thereof, so as such Child happens without their own Neglect or Default; and that it shall be lawful

C A P. LXVIII.

An Act for amending the Laws relating to the Local Militia in Scotland. [enth June 1812.]

WHEREAS the Local Militia, as by Law established, has been found of the utmost Importance to the actual Defence of this Realm: And whereas it is necessary, in the perfect Constitution of a Country, that the said Force should be permanently maintained: And whereas the Laws now in force for regulating the Local Militia require Amendment; and it is expedient that some of the Provisions contained in the several Acts relating to the same should be repealed, and others of them continued and amended, and that new Provisions should be made; and it would greatly tend to the better Execution thereof, if the Whole of the said Provisions were comprised in One Act of Parliament: And whereas it is necessary for the Purposes aforesaid, that certain Acts and Part of Acts now in force should be repealed: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That an Act, passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for making His Majesty's Regulations for a permanent Local Militia Force in Scotland, under various Restrictions, for the Defence of the Realm; and also Three several Acts, passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, relating to the Local Militia, the One intitled An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the first Session of Parliament, for enabling His Majesty to establish a permanent Local Militia Force in Scotland, under various Restrictions, for the Defence of the Realm; the other intitled An Act to amend several Acts passed in the last and present Sessions of Parliament, relating to the Local Militia; and the other intitled An Act to prevent the calling up Local Militia Men into the Regular Militia of any other County or Stewartry than that of County of Argyllshire; and also so much of another Act, passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act to amend several Acts relating to the Local Militia of Great Britain, as relates to the Local Militia, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and that the Local Militia called by virtue of the said Act of the Forty eighth Year aforesaid, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be subject in all the Provisions and Regulations thereof: Provided always, that the repeal of the said several Acts hereby repealed, as any or either of them, shall not affect any Commission already granted or to be granted by virtue of the said Act, as any or either of them, but that all such Persons to whom any such Commissions shall be or have been granted, shall and may all in the Execution of this Act, in like manner as they might have acted in the Execution of the said several Acts, as any or either of them: Provided also, that so many of the Sergeants, Corporals, Drummers and private Local Militia Men as are now serving for the Local Companies, Squadrons and Regiments in Scotland, shall be liable and continue to serve in the same manner and for the same Length of time as they ought to have served if this Act had not been made, and shall be liable and subject to the same Penalties, Fines and Forfeitures for any Offence which they may have respectively committed previous to the passing of this Act, in the same manner as if the Offence had not been committed till after the passing of this Act; and from time to time, in every case, where it shall be necessary to supply any Deficiency, in the Number of private Local Militia Men of any County, Stewartry or Place, the Master or Number of Men required to supply such Deficiency shall be raised, provided and enrolled, and shall serve in the manner and for the time directed by and under and according to the Provisions, Rules and Regulations of this Act.

It And be it further enacted, That the several Lieutenants of Counties and Stewartries, or, in the Absence of the Lieutenants, the Vice Lieutenants or any Three Deputy Lieutenants duly authorized by His Majesty, shall have full Power and Authority, and are hereby required from time to time to continue and appoint such Persons as they shall think fit, being qualified as hereinafter is directed, and being within their respective Counties, Stewartries and Places, within some adjacent Counties, Stewartries or Places, to be Colonels, Lieutenant Colonels, Major and other Officers, qualified as hereinafter is directed, to train, discipline and command the Persons to be so raised and arrayed according to the Rules, Orders and Directions hereinafter mentioned, and to attend to the same by the Names and Ranks of such Officers to be appointed; and to cause His Majesty's full, within Fourteen Days after such Commissions shall have been had before Him, signify his Disposition as to any of the Persons to be appointed, if that notice has not been had before Him, signify his Disposition as to any Person so appointed, but Commissions shall be granted to all such Persons who shall not be disappointed by the aforesaid notice: And the Officers so appointed by the Local Militia, to be raised and arrayed as hereinafter directed, shall rank with the Officers of His Majesty's Regular Militia as persons of their Rank: Provided always, that no higher Rank shall be given to any Regiment of Local Militia than that of Lieutenant Colonel Commandant, and that no Commission shall have effect with the Rank of Colonel in His Majesty's Regular Militia, or Regular or Supplementary Militia or Yeomanry, or be the Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant of any County or Stewartry.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Officers of Local Militia holding the Rank of Lieutenant Colonel Commandant, shall take Rank, and be reckoned as other Lieutenant Colonels serving in the said Local Militia, notwithstanding the Commissions of the said Lieutenant Colonels should be of a prior Date to the Commissions of

of each Lieutenant Colonel Commandant; and that Officers of the Local Militia shall rank with the Officers of Yeomanry and Volunteer Corps, according to the Date of their respective Commissions: Provided always, that every Officer of Local Militia, who shall have held any Commission in any Volunteer Corps at the time of his becoming an Officer of the Local Militia, shall be entitled to rank with the Officers of Yeomanry and Volunteer Corps, according to the Date of his Commission of the same Rank in the Volunteer—

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Person who shall have held the Rank of Colonel of any Regiment or Battalion of Regular or Supplementary Militia, and who may be appointed to the Command of any Regiment or Battalion of Local Militia to be raised by virtue of this Act, shall rank as Colonel, according to the Date of his Commission, in the Local Militia; and every Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant of any Company or Squadron, as long as he shall continue to act as such, who shall be appointed to the Command of any Regiment or Battalion of Local Militia as aforesaid, shall rank as Colonel, according to the Date of his Commission in the Local Militia; and every Person who shall have served in the Regular or Supplementary Militia as a Commissioned Officer, and by reason of the Reduction of such Militia shall have ceased to hold such Rank, shall, if appointed to a like Commission in the Local Militia, rank according to the Date of his first Commission: Provided always, that an Officer holding the Rank of Colonel in the Local Militia shall be entitled to or receive any greater Pay or Emolument than that of Lieutenant Colonel Commandant.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Commission of any Officer in the Local Militia already granted or to be granted by any Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants, shall be vacated by reason of the Revocation, Extension or Discontinuance of the Commission by which any such Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid was or were appointed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Persons to be appointed Officers of the Local Militia, in pursuance of this Act, (except within the City of Edinburgh and its Liberties) shall be qualified as follows; that is to say, every Person to be appointed a Lieutenant Colonel shall be feoffed or possessed of an Estate in Fee Simple, either in his own Right or in Right of his Wife, of Three hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent in Scotland, or shall be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall in like manner be feoffed or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of Three hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent; and every Person to be appointed a Major, shall in like manner be feoffed or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of Two hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent, or shall be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall in like manner be feoffed or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of Two hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent; and every Person to be appointed a Captain, shall in like manner be feoffed or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of One hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent, or shall be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall in like manner be feoffed or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of One hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent, or shall be a younger Son of some Person who shall be, or at the time of his Death was in like manner feoffed or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of Two hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent, or shall himself be feoffed of Real or Personal Property to the Amount in the Whole of One thousand Pounds Sterling; and every Person to be appointed Lieutenant shall in like manner be feoffed or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of Twenty Pounds Scots of valued Rent, or shall be feoffed of a Personal Estate alone, or feoffed or possessed of Real and Personal Estate together to the Amount or Value of Five hundred Pounds, or shall be Son of some Person who shall be or at the time of his Death was in like manner feoffed or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of Fifty Pounds Scots of valued Rent, or who shall be or who at the time of his Death was possessed of a Personal Estate alone, or feoffed or possessed of Real and Personal Estate together to the Amount or Value of One thousand Pounds Sterling; and that every Person to be appointed an Ensign shall in like manner be feoffed or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of Ten Pounds Scots of valued Rent, or shall be feoffed of a Personal Estate alone, or feoffed or possessed of Real and Personal Estate together to the Amount or Value of Three hundred Pounds, or shall be Son of some Person who shall be or at the time of his Death was in like manner feoffed or possessed of a like Estate as aforesaid of Twenty Pounds Scots of valued Rent, or who shall be or who at the time of his Death was possessed of a Personal Estate alone, or feoffed or possessed of Real and Personal Estate together to the Amount or Value of Six hundred Pounds Sterling; Provided always, that any Officer who shall have held any Commission in His Majesty's Regular Army, or in the Regular or Supplementary Militia, or in any Feudal Regiment, or who shall have transferred himself together with his Corps or any Part thereof, from the Volunteers into the Local Militia with His Majesty's Approbation, shall be eligible and duly qualified to hold the same Rank in the Local Militia, although not qualified as heretofore aforesaid; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Persons to be appointed Officers of the Local Militia in and for the City of Edinburgh and Liberties thereof, shall be qualified as follows; that is to say, every Person to be appointed a Lieutenant Colonel shall be feoffed or possessed of a Real Estate as Houses or other Property within the said City or Liberties of the yearly Value of Two hundred Pounds Sterling, or shall be feoffed of a Personal Estate alone, or feoffed or possessed of Real and Personal Estate together to the Amount or Value of Three thousand Pounds Sterling; and every Person to be appointed a Major shall be feoffed or possessed of a like Real Estate as Houses or other Property within the said City or Liberties of the yearly Value of One hundred Pounds Sterling, or be feoffed of a Personal Estate alone, or feoffed or possessed of Real and Personal Estate together to the Amount or Value of One thousand five hundred Pounds; and every Person to be appointed a Captain shall be feoffed or possessed of a like Real Estate as Houses or other Property within the said City or Liberties of the yearly Value of Fifty Pounds Sterling, or be feoffed of Personal Estate alone, or Real and Personal Estate together, to the Amount or Value of Seven hundred and fifty Pounds Sterling; and every Person to be appointed a Lieutenant shall be feoffed or possessed of a like Real Estate as Houses or other Property within the said City or Liberties of the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds Sterling, or be feoffed of XIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall hereafter be appointed to a higher Rank in the Local Militia than that of Lieut. or Capt. and he shall be delivered up to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Stewartry or Place, for which he shall be appointed, or to the Sheriff of the County, or the Clerk of the Peace to his Deputy, a specific Description in Writing, signed by himself, if he be a Gentleman, being the Proof or Purport in which the Officer or Officers which he is his Qualification is or are stated, if the same be a Real Estate; or if the same be Personal Property, then of the Particulars of such Personal Property; or if the Qualification arise from Service in His Majesty's Regular Forces, Regular or Supplemental Militia or Fencibles, or Volunteers as aforesaid, then of the Particulars of such Service; and the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy shall transmit to the Lieutenant, the Colonel, Stewartry or Place, a Copy of such Description; and no Commission granted after the passing of this Act, to any higher Rank in the Local Militia than that of Lieutenant, shall be valid, unless it be declared in the Oath which is taken by the Officer to whom the Commission is given that he is duly qualified in the above directed.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace of every County, Stewartry and Place, shall, and he is hereby required to enter the Qualifications transmitted to him, according to the Directions of this Act, upon a Roll to be provided and kept for that Purpose, and to cause to be entered in The London Gazette the Dates of the Commissions, and Names and Rank of the Officers, together with the Names of the Officers in whose Names they are appointed, or in his absence as Commissions in the Army are published from the War Office; and he is hereby authorized to charge the Expense of such Entries in the Gazette for each Commission to the Cell-ster of the County, Stewartry or Place, who is hereby directed to pay the same; and the said Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy shall, in the Month of January in every Year, transmit to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State a Certificate in the Form in schedule [A.] that the Qualifications have been so left with him; and every Commissioned Officer, not having already taken and subscribed the Oath, and made, repeated and subscribed the Declaration, as required by this Act, shall, as soon General Quarter Sessions of the Peace in some Sheriff Court in England within six Months after the passing of this Act, if he shall have been appointed before the passing of this Act, or if not appointed till after the passing of this Act, then within six Months after he shall have accepted his Commission, take the Oath appointed to be taken by an Ad. as well as the First Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First, inserted in the said Act for the further Security of His Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Words of the said Prolegomena, and Prolegomena; and also by an Act passed in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled an Act for altering the Oath of Allegiance, and the Affirmation; and for amending so much of an Act of the seventh Year of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, entitled an Act for the Improvement of the Union of the Two Kingdoms, as, after the Transmission aforesaid, requires the Delivery of certain Lists and Copies therein mentioned to Persons entitled to High Treason or High Treason of Treason; and also make, repeat and subscribe the Declaration in the said Act of the First Year of King George the First, directed to be made, repeated and subscribed by all Officers, Civil and Military.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall execute any of the Powers hereby directed to be executed by Lieutenant Colonel or Major, not being qualified as aforesaid, or without having delivered in such specific Description of his Qualification as is heretofore required, every such Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if any Person shall execute any of the Powers here directed to be executed by Captain, not being qualified as aforesaid, or without having delivered in such specific Description of his Qualification as is heretofore required, every such Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, One Shilling thereof shall go to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same; and in every Action, suit or Information, brought against any Person for acting as Lieutenant Colonel, Major or Captain, not being qualified as heretofore directed, the Proof of his Qualification shall be upon the Person against whom the same is brought: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall release or prevent any Peer of the Realm, or His Agent of any such Peer, from being appointed or acting as a Commissioned Officer in the Local Militia, within the County, Stewartry or Place, whereas such Peer, or His Agent of any such Peer, shall have some Place of Residence, although he may not have the Qualification heretofore required, or to charge any Peer of this Realm, or His Agent of any such Peer, who shall be appointed a Commissioned Officer as aforesaid, to leave with the Clerk of the Peace for the County, Stewartry or Place, for which he shall be appointed, any Qualification in Writing as aforesaid.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, may from time to time, as He and they shall think fit, signify his and their Pleasure to his and their Lieut. or Capt. of any County, Stewartry or Place, to displace all or any Officers, Lieut. and Major, and to create His Majesty's Lieut. or Capt. in any County, Stewartry or Place, who shall have some Place of Residence, although he may not have the Qualification heretofore required, or to charge any Peer of this Realm, or His Agent of any such Peer, who shall be appointed a Commissioned Officer as aforesaid, to leave with the Clerk of the Peace for the County, Stewartry or Place, for which he shall be appointed, any Qualification in Writing as aforesaid.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to order and direct, that a Number of y. or more Men not exceeding y. or more Men, be appointed for each County respectively, shall be enrolled to serve in the Local Militia in such Counties and in such Counties, and in such Proportions as any such Counties, Division or Parts thereof, as His Majesty by any Warrant or Warrants under His Royal Sign Manual shall specify, order and direct, in that Behalf, according to the Purposes of this Act; that it is hereby, For the ment and forwarding in of such Men full sign a Certificate of the Amount of the Bounty to be paid, and to whom, and for what Particulars there; and the Clerk of the said Division Meeting shall forthwith transmit such Certificates to the Secretary at War, and draw upon the Agent General for the Amount of Bounties specified to be paid.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to permit any Volunteer Corps of Yeomanry or Artillery to transfer themselves into the Local Militia, upon such Terms and Conditions as to their Establishment, and as to Allowances for Horses or Accoutrements, or other Things, and as to Pay, as His Majesty shall direct, and so to be attached to the Local Militia of the County, Striway or Place, wherein such Corps shall serve, as such Member as His Majesty shall direct: Provided always, that no Vacancies arising in any such Corps of Yeomanry, is transferred as aforesaid, shall be supplied by Ballot under this Act; but all such Vacancies which shall not be supplied by the entering of any Men into such Corps within Six Months after such Vacancy occurring in such Yeomanry Corps shall be supplied by Ballot for the Local Militia of the County, Striway or Place to which such Yeomanry Corps shall be attached.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That all such Powers, Privileges, Rights, Regulations, Clauses, Matters and Things contained in the first Act of the Forty second of His Majesty, or in an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty, or in any other Act relating to the Militia, as relate to the appointing to a holding General and Subdivision Meetings of Lieutenant, or to the making out Lists from which to raise, or to the Mode of balloting, shall, as far as the Case be applicable and can be applied to and for the Purpose of carrying this Act into Execution, and are not hereby altered, varied or repealed, be used, executed, applied and put in force with respect to the Local Militia, as so full and single a Member as of the said Powers, Privileges, Rights, Regulations, Clauses, Matters and Things were mentioned and repeated in this Act.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the respective Clerks of the Subdivision Meetings shall, as soon as conveniently may be after any Subdivision Meeting shall have been appointed, give Notice in Writing of the Time and Place of Meeting in such of the Deputy Lieutenants who shall be resident within such Subdivision, and also to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, attached to such Subdivision, by Notice, addressed to the Adjutant, and an Account of the several Days fixed for making Lists, and for balloting and for sending the Militia Men within such Subdivision; and shall, as soon as the Militia Men are issued, likewise transmit to the Colonel or other Commandant, or to the Commanding Officer as aforesaid, in manner aforesaid, a List, specifying the Names, Trades and usual Places of Abode, of all such Local Militia Men as so raised.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Men to be raised under this Act shall be ballotted out of and from the Persons between the Age of Eighteen and Thirty, returned in the Lists now existing, or which may hereafter be made and returned or amended and corrected for the raising of the Militia under any Act relating to the Militia of Sweden; and it shall be lawful for His Majesty, if He shall think fit, to order and direct the making out any new Lists, and in such Cases as to Age or otherwise, and in such Form as may be deemed expedient for the Purpose of carrying this Act into Execution.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That on making out or amending of any Lists after the passing of this Act, of Persons fit to serve in the Local Militia, every Person who shall wilfully neglect to appear within the time appointed for that Purpose, shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, nor less than Twenty Shillings, at the Discretion of any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace or Magistrates, and on Non-payment thereof be imprisoned, at the Discretion of any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace or Magistrates as aforesaid, for any time not exceeding Fourteen Days.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be appointed or act as a Special Constable for the Purpose of assisting in the making out any new Lists, or otherwise in doing so the Execution of this Act, who shall not be above the Age of Thirty Years.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants within any Subdivision, or any Two or more of them, or for any One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace, from time to time to issue their Order or Warrant under their Hands, requiring the Attendance of the Schoolmaster, Constable or other Officer of any Parish or Place within such Subdivision, for the Purpose of this Act, at such Time and Place as in such Order or Warrant shall be expressed; and if any such Schoolmaster, Constable or other Officer, shall refuse or neglect to appear according to such Order or Warrant, or if any Constable or other Officer of any Division, or any Schoolmaster, Constable or other Officer of any Parish or Place, shall refuse or neglect to supply with such Orders and Licenses as he shall from time to time receive from the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any Two or more of them, or from any One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace in possession of this Act, or shall be guilty of any Fraud or wilful Falsity or gross Neglect in his Duty, the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any Two or more of them, or such One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace, are hereby empowered and required to commit the Person so refusing to obey the Command of the said Order, there to be kept without Bail for the Space of One Month, or, at their Discretion, to fine such Person in any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds, nor less than Forty Shillings.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Constable or other shall be of the People called Quakers, (and provided to be so by Two Persons of the People called Quakers) and shall neglect or refuse to perform the Duty required by this Act, it shall be lawful for any Two Justices of the Peace sitting for the Division within which such Quaker shall be such Officer as aforesaid, and they are hereby required, in all Cases where the circumstances of the Case shall so their Judgment render it expedient and necessary for the due Execution of the Provisions of this Act, by their Order under their Hands to appoint a fit and proper Person

Deputy Lieutenants to be of the Age of Twenty-one Years, and to be of the Rank of Captain or Major, and to be of the County of the Militia.

LIV. And he it further enacted, That the Deputy Lieutenants in their several Subdivisions shall, in free as they shall have enrolled the Number of Men required in their Subdivisions, divide the Men so enrolled into as many Classes as the Description (whichever mentioned, as shall be found among such Men; that is to say, in the First Class they shall put all the Men having an Child or Children living; and in the Second Class, all the Men not having any Child or Children living under the Age of Fourteen Years; and in the Third Class, all the Men having any Child or Children, One of whom only shall be under the Age of Fourteen Years; and in the last Class, all the Men not included in any of the former Descriptions; and shall forthwith make out a List of such Classes, according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (C.), and within Three Days after the completing thereof, the Clerk of such Subdivision Meeting shall transmit to the Clerk to the General Meetings an exact and true Copy of such List, made out in such Form as aforesaid, to be by him entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose.

Men belonging to the Army or Navy, or to the Militia, shall be exempted from being enrolled, unless they are of the Rank of Captain or Major, and to be of the County of the Militia.

LV. And he it further enacted, That whenever any Local Militia Man, after having been sworn and enrolled, shall become unfit for Service, it shall be lawful for the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Local Militia Man shall belong, together with any Two or more Deputy Lieutenants, or One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace of the County, Stewartry or Place to which such Regiment, Battalion or Corps belongs, if the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps shall then be within the said County, Stewartry or Place, or for the Colonel or other Commandant only, if the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps shall be absent therefrom, to discharge such Local Militia Man from his Regiment, Battalion or Corps; but another Man shall not be ballotted for in the Room of such Local Militia Man so discharged, until such Discharge shall be confirmed under the Hands of Two or more Deputy Lieutenants or One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace of the County, Stewartry or Place to which such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps belongs, assembled at any Meeting in the Subdivision for which such Local Militia Man was enrolled, or at any General Meeting for the County, Stewartry or Place as aforesaid.

Vacancies to be filled up by Ballot.

LVI. And he it further enacted, That when any private Militia Man shall, before the Expiration of the Term for which he was to serve, die, or be appointed a Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer in the Local Militia, or enter or join into His Majesty's Regular Forces, Navy or Marines, or as a Substitute or Volunteer in the Regular Militia, or be discharged in Manner aforesaid, as unfit for Service, or disabled in pursuance of the Sentence of a Court Martial, the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such private Man shall belong, shall certify the Vacancy occasioned by such Death, Appointment, Entering, Enlisting, Discharge or Dismissal, (as the case may be) to the Clerk to the General Meetings, who shall forthwith transmit the said Certificate to the Deputy Lieutenants of the Subdivision for which such Private Man shall have been enrolled, and such Deputy Lieutenants shall immediately upon the Receipt of such Certificate, cause such Vacancy to be filled up by a fresh Ballot for a Local Militia Man to serve according to the Provisions of this Act; except in such cases as are in this Act excepted.

Officers to be of the Rank of Captain or Major, and to be of the County of the Militia.

LVII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants at any General Meeting, and they are hereby required to advertise and fix by Ballot the Order in which the respective Subdivisions, and Parishes in their respective Counties, Stewartries and Places shall stand as to the supplying any Deficiencies or Vacancies that may exist or arise therein by reason of the Appointment of any Person serving in the Local Militia of any such County, Stewartry or Place, to be Sergeant or Corporal, and shall immediately after the time shall be so advertised and fixed, cause such Subdivisions and Parishes respectively, to be entered in such Order, in a List to be prepared for that Purpose; and such Vacancies shall be supplied by such Subdivisions and Parishes, in the Order in which they shall have been entered in such List as aforesaid, and not by the Parishes for which the Men so promoted shall have served.

At Subdivision Meetings Men ballotted for in cases of death shall have Terms of LVIII. And he it further enacted, That whenever any private Local Militia Man shall be appointed a Non-Commissioned Officer or Drummer in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, in the Room of any Non-Commissioned Officer or Drummer reduced to the Rank, no Ballot shall take place in the Parish or Place for which such private Man is appointed as then serving, in consequence of any Vacancy occasioned by such Appointment, in long as the Non-Commissioned Officer or Drummer so reduced shall continue to serve in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia.

LIX. And he it further enacted, That any Two or more of the Deputy Lieutenants, or any One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace, at their several Subdivision Meetings, shall and they are hereby required to ballot for Local Militia Men, in the room of all Local Militia Men actually serving, whose Terms of Service will expire before the Twentieth Day of November next ensuing the holding of such Subdivision Meetings, and shall, at a following Meeting to be holden as soon as conveniently may be, proceed to send the said ballotted Men as aforesaid; and the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps, is hereby em-powerd, from this time, hereinafter any Man of his Regiment, Battalion or Corps, who's time of Service shall expire before the Feast of St. Michael's Day of November next ensuing, and to receive any other Local Militia Man in his Room who he shall nominate by Oath, and have enrolled according to the Directions of this Act; and every such Man so discharged shall be entitled to the same Immunity from further Service as if he had served his full Term.

LX. And be it further enacted, That if any Servant whatever, hired by the Year or otherwise, shall be enrolled as a Local Militia Man by virtue of this Act, such Enrolment shall not vacate or relinqui the Contract or other the Engagement between such Servant and his Master or Mistress, or Employer or Employers, unless the Local Militia of the County, Stewartry or Place for which such Servant shall be enrolled, shall be embodied or called out by His Majesty, or ordered to be in his performance of this Act, or unless such Person so enrolled, shall leave the Service of his Master, Mistress or Employer or Employers, for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, in pursuance of this Act, and shall not return again to the same Service at the End of such Period of Training and Exercise, or so soon after as reasonably may be, allowing to his Master, Mistress or Employer or Employers, an Abatement from his Wages in Proportion to the Duration of his Absence from his said Service, to be fixed by a Justice of the Peace in the manner hereinafter mentioned; and in every such case, where any Dispute shall arise between such Servant and his Master or Mistress, or Employer or Employers, touching any Part or Sum of Money due to such Servant for or on Account of his Service performed before the time of his Departure from Service, under the Conditions of the said Enrolment, or by being called out to join the Local Militia in which he shall have been so enrolled, or touching any Abatement to be made by such Servant by reason of his Absence, for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, it shall and may be lawful, on Complaint made thereof to any Justice of the Peace for the County, Stewartry or Place, where such Master or Mistress, or Employer or Employers shall inhabit, for such Justice to hear and determine every such Complaint, and to enforce upon Oath every such Sentence, or any other Writs or Writs, touching the same, and to make such Order for the Payment of so much Wages to such Servant as Proportion to the Service he has performed, or such Abatement from his Wages as Proportion to the Duration of his Absence from his Service, in case where the Party shall desire, as the case may require, and as to such Justice shall seem just and reasonable, provided the Sum in question do not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and in case of Refusal or Non-payment of any Sums so ordered to be paid by the Space of Seven Days next after such Determination, such Justice may and shall give forth his Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Effects of such Master or Mistress, or Employer or Employers, rendering the Overplus to the Owner or Owners, after Payment of the Charges of such Distress and Sale.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Heritor of any Parish shall have engaged any Person to serve as a Volunteer as aforesaid, and such Heritor shall have agreed to pay to the Person so engaged, a certain Sum for such Service, it shall be lawful for the Two Deputy Lieutenants or any One Justice of the Peace, and they and he are and is hereby required, after such Volunteer has been examined by a Surgeon, and approved according to the Directions of this Act, and enrolled by the Deputy Lieutenants in pursuance thereof, to order such Sum of Money as shall appear to them or him to be due to the Volunteer so engaged, to be immediately paid to him on such Enrolment, in the Presence of such Deputy Lieutenants.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person ballotted or enrolled to serve, or being in the Local Militia under this Act, to enroll or enter into His Majesty's Army, Navy or Marines, or as a Subaltern or Volunteer in the Regular Militia of the Line or some adjoining County, Stewartry or Place at any time except during such Portion of the Period of being ballotted for the Purpose of annual Training and Exercise under this Act, as His Majesty shall by any Order made in that behalf particular; and the Enrolling and Entry of every such Man shall be immediately certified by the Officer with whom such Man shall have enrolled or entered, to the Officer commanding the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, from which such Man shall have enrolled or entered; and all Vacancies arising by any such enrolling or entering as aforesaid, shall be supplied in like manner as any other Vacancies in the said Local Militia: Provided always, that no Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer of any Regiment of Local Militia on permanent Pay as such, shall be entitled to his Discharge, or be allowed to enlist into the Army, Navy or Marines or Regular Militia, or to engage himself as a Subaltern or Volunteer in the Regular Militia at any time, whether the Regiment to which he has been Commissioned Officer or Drummer shall belong, shall be ballotted for the Purpose of annual Training and Exercise or not, unless with the Consent in Writing of the Commanding Officer of his Regiment given for that Purpose.

LXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize any Apprentice ballotted under this Act to enlist in the Army, Navy, Marines, or to enter as a Subaltern or Volunteer in the Regular Militia, or to enter as a Volunteer in the Local Militia, or being a Member of a Volunteer Corps to transfer himself into the Local Militia without the Consent of his Master, provided also, that no Ballot, Enrolment and Service under this Act, shall extend to make void or be in any manner to affect any Indenture of Apprenticeship, notwithstanding any Covenant or Agreement as any such Apprentice; and no Service under this Act of any Apprentice shall be deemed or construed to be an Absence from Service, or a Breach of any Covenant or Agreement as to any Service or Absence from Service, or any Indenture of Apprenticeship, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or Law or Laws, or Decree or Indenture of Apprenticeship to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Vacancies arising in the Local Militia by such enrolling as aforesaid, or by Discharge, Absence, Disobedience, Death or Expulsion of Service, shall be filled up according to the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that it shall be lawful at any time before the Local Militia of any County, Stewartry or Place, shall be completed to the full Amount specified in this Act

Enrollments shall not vacate Contract or other Engagement unless Local Militia called out by His Majesty, or ordered to be in his performance of this Act, or unless such Person so enrolled, shall leave the Service of his Master, Mistress or Employer or Employers, for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, in pursuance of this Act, and shall not return again to the same Service at the End of such Period of Training and Exercise, or so soon after as reasonably may be, allowing to his Master, Mistress or Employer or Employers, an Abatement from his Wages in Proportion to the Duration of his Absence from his said Service, to be fixed by a Justice of the Peace in the manner hereinafter mentioned; and in every such case, where any Dispute shall arise between such Servant and his Master or Mistress, or Employer or Employers, touching any Part or Sum of Money due to such Servant for or on Account of his Service performed before the time of his Departure from Service, under the Conditions of the said Enrolment, or by being called out to join the Local Militia in which he shall have been so enrolled, or touching any Abatement to be made by such Servant by reason of his Absence, for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, it shall and may be lawful, on Complaint made thereof to any Justice of the Peace for the County, Stewartry or Place, where such Master or Mistress, or Employer or Employers shall inhabit, for such Justice to hear and determine every such Complaint, and to enforce upon Oath every such Sentence, or any other Writs or Writs, touching the same, and to make such Order for the Payment of so much Wages to such Servant as Proportion to the Service he has performed, or such Abatement from his Wages as Proportion to the Duration of his Absence from his Service, in case where the Party shall desire, as the case may require, and as to such Justice shall seem just and reasonable, provided the Sum in question do not exceed the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and in case of Refusal or Non-payment of any Sums so ordered to be paid by the Space of Seven Days next after such Determination, such Justice may and shall give forth his Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Effects of such Master or Mistress, or Employer or Employers, rendering the Overplus to the Owner or Owners, after Payment of the Charges of such Distress and Sale.

Two Deputy Lieutenants or any One Justice of the Peace, and they and he are and is hereby required, after such Volunteer has been examined by a Surgeon, and approved according to the Directions of this Act, and enrolled by the Deputy Lieutenants in pursuance thereof, to order such Sum of Money as shall appear to them or him to be due to the Volunteer so engaged, to be immediately paid to him on such Enrolment, in the Presence of such Deputy Lieutenants.

Nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize any Apprentice ballotted under this Act to enlist in the Army, Navy, Marines, or to enter as a Subaltern or Volunteer in the Regular Militia, or to enter as a Volunteer in the Local Militia, or being a Member of a Volunteer Corps to transfer himself into the Local Militia without the Consent of his Master, provided also, that no Ballot, Enrolment and Service under this Act, shall extend to make void or be in any manner to affect any Indenture of Apprenticeship, notwithstanding any Covenant or Agreement as any such Apprentice; and no Service under this Act of any Apprentice shall be deemed or construed to be an Absence from Service, or a Breach of any Covenant or Agreement as to any Service or Absence from Service, or any Indenture of Apprenticeship, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or Law or Laws, or Decree or Indenture of Apprenticeship to the contrary notwithstanding.

Nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize any Apprentice ballotted under this Act to enlist in the Army, Navy, Marines, or to enter as a Subaltern or Volunteer in the Regular Militia, or to enter as a Volunteer in the Local Militia, or being a Member of a Volunteer Corps to transfer himself into the Local Militia without the Consent of his Master, provided also, that no Ballot, Enrolment and Service under this Act, shall extend to make void or be in any manner to affect any Indenture of Apprenticeship, notwithstanding any Covenant or Agreement as any such Apprentice; and no Service under this Act of any Apprentice shall be deemed or construed to be an Absence from Service, or a Breach of any Covenant or Agreement as to any Service or Absence from Service, or any Indenture of Apprenticeship, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or Law or Laws, or Decree or Indenture of Apprenticeship to the contrary notwithstanding.

Nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize any Apprentice ballotted under this Act to enlist in the Army, Navy, Marines, or to enter as a Subaltern or Volunteer in the Regular Militia, or to enter as a Volunteer in the Local Militia, or being a Member of a Volunteer Corps to transfer himself into the Local Militia without the Consent of his Master, provided also, that no Ballot, Enrolment and Service under this Act, shall extend to make void or be in any manner to affect any Indenture of Apprenticeship, notwithstanding any Covenant or Agreement as any such Apprentice; and no Service under this Act of any Apprentice shall be deemed or construed to be an Absence from Service, or a Breach of any Covenant or Agreement as to any Service or Absence from Service, or any Indenture of Apprenticeship, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or Law or Laws, or Decree or Indenture of Apprenticeship to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Militia shall not be liable to be called out of the County, Stewartry or Place, or to be raised, although the Number may exceed the Proportion prescribed for any Regiment, &c.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order signed by His Majesty's Secretary of State, to direct any Number of Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Corporals, actually serving in any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, at the time of passing this Act, to be retained during the Continuance of the present War, or for so long a time during the Continuance thereof as His Majesty shall think fit, as Officers, Non Commissioned Officers or Corporals respectively in such Regiments, Battalions or Corps, although by virtue thereof the Number of Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Corporals respectively of any such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall exceed the Proportion of Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Corporals respectively prescribed for any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, by this Act; and all such Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Corporals so retained as aforesaid, shall be entitled to such Pay, Emoluments and Advantages as other Non Commissioned Officers and Corporals respectively are by Law entitled unto; any thing in any Law or Act to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Officers retained beyond Proportion prescribed, as directed by the Secretary of State.

LXVIII. Provided nevertheless, and be it enacted, That the Officers so retained who shall exceed the Proportion of Officers respectively prescribed for any Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall succeed to Vacancies which may occur in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps respectively, according to their respective Ranks, and beginning with the eldest Officer of such Rank respectively.

In case of Regiments being reduced, Officers appointed to other Regiments.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That where the Local Militia of any County, Stewartry or Place, shall, previously to the passing of this Act, have consisted of Two or more Regiments, Battalions or Corps, and any One or more of such Regiments, Battalions or Corps, shall in consequence of the Reduction of the Quota of Local Militia for such County, Stewartry or Place under this Act, be reduced, it shall in every such case be lawful for His Majesty by Order and direct that any Number of Field Officers and Officers, together with the Adjutant and Quarter Master, who were serving at the time of passing this Act, shall and may be appointed by the Lieutenant of such County, Stewartry or Place, to act as Field Officers, Officers, Adjutant or Quarter Master respectively, in any other Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia within the said County, Stewartry or Place, and shall continue to serve in any such Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which they may be so appointed, although by virtue thereof the Number of Officers in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps may exceed the Proportion of Officers prescribed for any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia under this Act; and all such Officers so appointed and retained as aforesaid shall be entitled to such Pay, Rank, Emoluments and Advantages, as other Officers of the Local Militia are entitled to, and shall succeed to Vacancies panies which may occur in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, according to their respective Ranks, beginning with the eldest Officer of each Rank respectively; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, in any case in which more than One Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia is ordered to be raised in any County or Stewartry, to direct the Lieutenant, Vice Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants of such County or Stewartry, to divide each County or Stewartry for the Purposes of this Act, into such Number of Divisions as there are Regiments, Battalions or Corps to be raised in such County, regard being had to the Number of Persons liable to serve and the Establishment of each Regiment, and all other Circumstances of local Convenience; and from and after such Division, each of such Divisions of such County or Stewartry shall supply all Vacancies arising in the Regiments, Battalions or Corps respectively belonging to such Divisions: Provided always, that such Divisions and all Appointments made in pursuance thereof may be from time to time varied or altered, as Occasions may require.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That where the Local Militia of any County or Stewartry shall not be sufficient to form Four Companies, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty to direct the Local Militia of such County or Stewartry to be joined to the Local Militia of any other County or Stewartry, in order to form a Battalion, and to be trained and exercised in any one of such Counties or Stewartries as His Majesty shall be pleased to direct; and the different Field Officers to be hereafter appointed to any such Battalion shall be appointed as follows: Where Three or more Counties, Stewartries, Cities or Places shall be joined together to form a Battalion, the Lieutenant Colonel Commandant shall be appointed by the Lieutenant of the County, Stewartry, City or Place, furnishing the greatest Number of private Men; the Lieutenant Colonel shall be appointed by the Lieutenant of the County, Stewartry, City or Place, furnishing the next greatest Number; and the Major shall be appointed by the Lieutenant of the County, Stewartry, City or Place, furnishing the Third greatest Number; and where Two Counties, Stewartries, Cities or Places only shall be joined together to form a Battalion, then and in such case the Lieutenant Colonel Commandant and the Major shall be appointed by the Lieutenant of the County, Stewartry, City or Place furnishing the greatest Number, and the Lieutenant Colonel shall be appointed by the Lieutenant of the County, Stewartry, City or Place, furnishing the least Number: Provided always, that where any County, Stewartry, City or Place, shall not furnish Men sufficient to form a Company, the Lieutenant of such County, Stewartry, City or Place shall not appoint any of the Field Officers.

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty in every case for which no special Provision is made by this Act, to cause the Local Militia of any County, Stewartry or Place, to be formed and regulated in such manner as to His Majesty shall seem meet, in regard to the Number of Regiments, Battalions or Corps, conforming to every case, as near as the Proportions of Men will admit, to the Establishment with respect to Regiments, Battalions, Corps and Companies, in this Act particularly directed.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of any County, Stewartry or Place, as well as Commandant of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia for such County, Stewartry or Place, for and during such time as there shall not be any Commandant appointed to such Regiment, Battalion or Corps; and where the Lieutenant of any County, Stewartry or Place, shall take the Command of any Local Militia of the said County, Stewartry or Place, such Lieutenant shall be entitled to the Rank of Colonel, but shall not receive any higher Pay than that of Lieutenant Colonel Commandant: Provided always, that no Lieutenant of any County, Stewartry or Place, shall act as Commandant of more than One Regiment, Battalion or Corps, at One time, excepting in those cases in which such Lieutenant may have transferred his Services to the Local Militia as Commandant of more than One Corps of Yeomanry or Volunteers.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Officer of any Local Militia Regiment, Battalion or Corps, being duly qualified, who may have accepted or shall accept a Commission or Appointment of the same Rank in any other Local Militia Regiment, Battalion or Corps, and shall thereby vacate his former Commission, shall thenceforth rank in the general Service according to the Date of his Commission or Appointment of the same Rank in the Local Militia, he vacated as aforesaid.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That when any Colonel or other Commandant of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, shall be absent from Great Britain, and shall be absent from Great Britain, and shall have notified his Arrival to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Stewartry or Place to which such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall belong, and to the Commanding Officer and Adjutant thereof, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Warrant under his Sign Manual, so directed and order that the Officer next in Command, who shall be residing in Great Britain, shall so act in all respects and have as the Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps; and all Powers and Authorities which might have been exercised by such Colonel or other Commandant, he absent as aforesaid, while resident in Great Britain, shall be vested in and exercised by the Officer next in Command in such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, who shall be resident in Great Britain, and from and after issuing the said Warrant as aforesaid, all Matters and Things which ought to be transacted and done by any other Person or Persons with such Colonel or other Commandant, while resident in Great Britain, shall be transacted and done during the time aforesaid, with such Officer so next in Command as aforesaid, who shall be residing in Great Britain; and all Money directed to be issued or paid to or to the Order of such Colonel or other Commandant for the Use of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall be issued and paid to or to the Order of such Officer so next in Command as aforesaid; and all Acts, Matters and Things, done by and with such Officer so next in Command as aforesaid, during the time aforesaid, which are or shall be authorized or required to be done by or with such Colonel or other Commandant while in Great Britain, shall be as good and valid as if done by or with such Colonel or other Commandant; and during the Absence from Great

His Majesty may order Commissions to be granted.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant or for the Vice Lieutenant of any County, Stewartry or Place, or for the Sheriff of any County, or Steward of any Stewartry, or, in the Absence of the Lord Lieutenant and Vice Lieutenant and Sheriff of any County, Stewartry or Place, for any Two Justices of the Peace, and One Deputy Lieutenant, to call out and address the Local Militia, or any Part of the Local Militia of such County, Stewartry or Place, for the Suppression of any Riot or Tumult in such County, Stewartry or Place, or in any adjoining County, Stewartry or Place; and every Person then enrolled in the Local Militia shall be called out as aforesaid, who shall not appear and join his Regiment, within such time and at such Place as shall be specified in any Notice or Notices put upon the Door of his Parish Church, or otherwise publicly given, shall be subject to the same Penalties and Forfeitures as are contained in this Act, for not appearing when the Local Militia shall be assembled for Training and Exercise: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any Justice or Deputy Lieutenant to exempt the Whole or any Part of any Place or Parish, situated or to be situated upon any Part of the Coast, from being called out and assembled on such Service as aforesaid, and all such Local Militia, when so called out and assembled on such Service as aforesaid, shall be decreed to be assembled for Training and Exercise under this Act; and all Provisions relating to the Local Militia when assembled for Training and Exercise shall apply to the Local Militia called out upon such Service as aforesaid, and all Days of such Service shall be deemed Part of the Days of Training and Exercise under this Act: Provided always, that when any Local Militia shall be so called out as aforesaid, the same shall be immediately notified to One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, for His Majesty's Approbation thereof: Provided also, That no such Local Militia shall be liable to be kept assembled upon any such Service for any longer Period than Twenty eight Days in any One Year; and if any such Service shall arise after any such Local Militia shall have been trained and exercised for the full Period of Twenty eight Days in such Year, then and in such case the Days of such Service shall be deemed Part of the Days of Training and Exercising of the succeeding Year.

XCII. And be it further enacted, That any Person able and fit to serve, being a Sergeant on the Establishment of His Majesty's Regular Militia, or being an Out Pensioner on the Establishment of the said Militia, and being appointed to serve as a Sergeant in the Local Militia, may and shall receive the Allowance to which he is entitled on the Establishment of the said Militia, together with his Pay from the said Local Militia; and any Person who shall have lawfully served on Foot as a Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, in the Regular Militia, or as a Private Man in the Regular Militia, or as a Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer in the Regular Militia, shall by Service in the Local Militia make up on the whole such Period of Twenty Years Service in the Army, Militia, and Local Militia taken together, and who shall be discharged on Account of Age or Infirmary, shall, on the Recommendation of the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs, and the Lieutenant, or Two or more Deputy Lieutenants of the County, Stewartry or Place to which the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps belongs, or for the Death or Removal, or in the Absence of the said Lieutenant, or the Recommendation of the Colonel or other Commandant, and Three or more Deputy Lieutenants of such County, Stewartry or Place, be entitled to Gratification at the His Majesty's Board, and be capable of being placed on the Establishment of the said Militia at the Pension of Five pence per Day, if the said Board should judge him deserving thereof.

XCV. And be it further enacted, That, during such time as any Local Militia shall be assembled for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, or for the Suppression of any Riot or Tumult as aforesaid, all the Clubs, Taverns, Messes and Things contained in any Act of Parliament which shall then be in force for the punishing Misdemeanors and Offences; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and in the Articles of War made in pursuance of such Act, shall be so long with respect to such Local Militia, and to all Officers, Non Commissioned Officers, Drummers and private Men of the same, in all cases whatsoever, but in that no Punishment shall extend to Life or Limb; and that it shall be lawful for the Officer commanding and acting with any Detachment or Division of Local Militia called out to Exercise under any of the Provisions of this Act, not being under the Rank of Captain, to order, when he shall think it necessary, a Regimental Court Martial to be held for the Trial of any Offender committed by any Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or private Man, under and during his Command; and if a sufficient Number of Officers shall not be present to constitute such Court Martial, it shall be lawful for the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, to which any such Detachment or Division of Local Militia shall belong, and he is hereby required, upon Application made to him by the Officer commanding such Detachment or Division for that Purpose, to order a sufficient Number of Officers of proper Rank to attend for the Purpose of sitting at such Court Martial, who shall forthwith attend the same, and assist as Members thereof; and the Sentence of every such Court Martial shall in every case be submitted to the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Detachment or Division shall belong, or (in his Absence) from the County, Stewartry or Place) to the Senior Field Officer within the same, for his Approval thereof, who shall send such Sentence to be put in Execution, attested or countersigned, as he shall in his Discretion think best by the Sentence: Provided always, that every such Court Martial which may have been sitting at the Trial of any Offender as aforesaid, during the Period of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps, being at any time in Training and Exercise, or for the Suppression of Riots or Tumults, may continue to sit, notwithstanding the Dissolution of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to which the Members composing the Court Martial were being.

XCVI. And be it further enacted, That every Officer, Non Commissioned Officer and private Man of the Local Militia, who shall during the Period of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he shall belong Lord Lieutenant, or may act on Local Militia for Suppression of Riots, and shall not appear in his Parish.

When so called out, as aforesaid, shall be liable to be kept assembled for more than 14 Days in One Year.

Such Person as shall be appointed to receive the Allowance to which he is entitled on the Establishment of the said Militia, may receive the same from the said Local Militia.

During such time as any Local Militia shall be assembled for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, or for the Suppression of any Riot or Tumult as aforesaid, all the Clubs, Taverns, Messes and Things contained in any Act of Parliament which shall then be in force for the punishing Misdemeanors and Offences; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and in the Articles of War made in pursuance of such Act, shall be so long with respect to such Local Militia, and to all Officers, Non Commissioned Officers, Drummers and private Men of the same, in all cases whatsoever, but in that no Punishment shall extend to Life or Limb; and that it shall be lawful for the Officer commanding and acting with any Detachment or Division of Local Militia called out to Exercise under any of the Provisions of this Act, not being under the Rank of Captain, to order, when he shall think it necessary, a Regimental Court Martial to be held for the Trial of any Offender committed by any Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or private Man, under and during his Command; and if a sufficient Number of Officers shall not be present to constitute such Court Martial, it shall be lawful for the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, to which any such Detachment or Division of Local Militia shall belong, and he is hereby required, upon Application made to him by the Officer commanding such Detachment or Division for that Purpose, to order a sufficient Number of Officers of proper Rank to attend for the Purpose of sitting at such Court Martial, who shall forthwith attend the same, and assist as Members thereof; and the Sentence of every such Court Martial shall in every case be submitted to the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Detachment or Division shall belong, or (in his Absence) from the County, Stewartry or Place) to the Senior Field Officer within the same, for his Approval thereof, who shall send such Sentence to be put in Execution, attested or countersigned, as he shall in his Discretion think best by the Sentence: Provided always, that every such Court Martial which may have been sitting at the Trial of any Offender as aforesaid, during the Period of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps, being at any time in Training and Exercise, or for the Suppression of Riots or Tumults, may continue to sit, notwithstanding the Dissolution of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to which the Members composing the Court Martial were being.

Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and private Men of the Local Militia, who shall during the Period of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he shall belong

being embodied or assembled for Training and Exercise, or for the Suppression of Riots and Tumults, have been guilty of any Offence against any Act of Parliament in force for the Punishment of Mutiny and Desertion, or any Articles of War made in pursuance of any such Act, and shall have been put under Arrest here, or shall have been reported to any Officer of his Regiment, Battalion or Corps, and shall have committed such Offence before the Disbanding or Dismissal of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, may be tried by any General or Regimental Court Martial consisting of Officers of the Militia or Local Militia, and if found guilty may be punished for such Offence, although the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Officer, Non Commissioned Officer or private Man shall belong, shall not then be embodied or assembled, in like manner as any Officer, Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, or private Man of the Local Militia may be tried during the Period of the Local Militia being embodied.

XCV. And be it further enacted, That Notices of the Times and Places of Exercise of the Local Militia Men to be made by virtue of this Act shall, by Order of the Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant, or (in the Absence of the Lieutenant or Vice Lieutenant) of any Three Deputy Lieutenants, be sent by the Clerk of the General Meetings to the Clerks of the several Subdivision Meetings in the respective Counties, Stewarries and Places; and shall be advertised Three times in the County or Stewartry Paper, or if any County or Stewartry shall have no Paper, then in some Newspaper published in such County; and the said Deputy Lieutenants, at every Subdivision Meeting to be held for carrying this Act into Execution, after the Receipt of the said Notices, shall cause the Men living for such Subdivision to be called out in such Order and Conformity as shall be notified by the Clerk of the General Meetings as aforesaid, and for that Purpose shall issue Orders directing the Schoolmasters, Constables and other Officers within their respective Divisions and Parishes, which Schoolmasters, Constables and other Officers shall cause such Notice as aforesaid to be affixed on the Door of the Churches or Chapels belonging to three respective Parishes or Places, or (if any Place shall have no Church or Chapel belonging thereto) on the Door of the Church or Chapel of some Parish or Place three times adjoining, which Notice so advertised or affixed as aforesaid, shall be deemed a sufficient Notice to every Parish included by virtue of this Act, notwithstanding any Objection in the Delivery of written Notices to a more beneficially directed; and such Schoolmasters, Constables and other Officers, so hereby required shall give Notice in Writing to the several Local Militia Men who shall be called out to be trained and exercised at such Times and Places respectively, by serving them personally, or by leaving the same at their usual Places of Abode, to be read at the Time and Place appointed in such Order; and all such Local Militia Men shall duly attend at the Time and Place of Exercise according to such Notices respectively.

XCVI. And be it further enacted, That the Clerks of the several Subdivision Meetings in every County, Stewartry or Place shall, within the Space of Ten Days after the Receipt of such Notices as aforesaid, from the Clerk of the General Meetings, cause a full and true List, specifying the Name and Date of the Enrollment of all the Persons enrolled (within each Subdivision respectively) in force in such Local Militia, and the Times and Place of Exercise to be transmitted to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, to which such Persons have been enrolled by virtue of this Act, or to such Person as shall be appointed by such Commanding Officer to receive the same, and shall in like manner cause a Duplicate of such List to be transmitted to the Adjutant of the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps.

XCVII. CIV. And be it further enacted, That every Local Militia Man (not labouring under any Infirmary incapacitating him) who shall not appear at the Time and Place appointed for his being exercised according to the Direction of this Act (Notice having been published and given as by this Act required), shall be deemed a Deserter, and if not taken until after the time of any such Exercise, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and also every Local Militia Man, who, having joined the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs, or any Company or Companies, or Detachment or Division thereof, shall desert or absent himself during the time of any such Exercise, and shall not be taken until after the time of such Exercise, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and if such Penalty shall not be immediately paid, the Justice of the Peace before whom any Local Militia Man shall be convicted of any such Offence, shall commit such Local Militia Man to the House of Correction to hard Labour, or to the Common Gaol, there to remain, without Bail, for any Space not exceeding Three Months, and not less than Fourteen Days, or until he shall have paid the said Penalty.

CV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Local Militia Man shall desert or absent himself from his Duty, and shall not return and voluntarily surrender himself to the Adjutant or other Officer, Colonel, Lieutenant or Non-Commissioned, commanding at the City or Place where the Arms of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he shall belong, shall be deposited, or shall not be taken within the Space of Three Months from the time of his so deserting or absents himself, then upon Certificates thereof from the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belonged, to the Deputy Lieutenant, at any of their Meetings for the Subdivision for which such Local Militia Man was enrolled, such Deputy Lieutenant, or any Two or more of them, or any One Deputy Lieutenant and One Justice of the Peace or hereby required to hold a Subdivision Meeting, and to proceed to ballot for another Person to be received in return to such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to the Rooms of such Local Militia Man; and in case such Local Militia Man shall at any time thereafter return or be taken, he shall, notwithstanding any Person shall have been chosen in his Room, be compelled to serve in the same manner and for the same Term as if no Person had been chosen in his Room.

CVI. And be it further enacted, That all Markers delivered for the Service of the Local Militia shall be marked distinctly in some visible Place with the Letters (L. M.), and the Name of the County, Stewards or Place to which they belong; and in case any Local Militia Man shall sell, pawn, or lose or wilfully damage any of his Arms, Cloths, Accoutrements or Ammunition, or neglect or refuse to return when required to do so the same in good Order to his Captain, or to the Person appointed to receive the same, every such Local Militia Man shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Three Pounds; and if such Local Militia Man shall not immediately pay such Penalty, the Justice of the Peace before whom he shall be convicted shall commit him to the House of Correction, to be kept to hard Labour, with the Common Gaol for any time not exceeding Three Months, or until he shall have paid such Penalty.

CVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly and wilfully buy, take in Exchange, conceal or otherwise improperly receive any Local Militia Arms, Cloths or Accoutrements, or any such Articles belonging to any Local Militia Man as are generally deemed Regimental Necessaries, or may have been specified as such in any Order from His Majesty's Secretary of State in that behalf, being provided for the Soldier, and paid for by the Money allowed under this Act for providing Necessaries, or by Deductions out of his Pay, or any public Stores or Ammunition whatsoever delivered for the Local Militia, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, the Person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds; and if such Offender shall not immediately pay such Penalty, and shall not have sufficient Goods and Effects wherewith to levy such Penalty, the Justice before whom he or she shall be convicted shall commit him or her to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bail for the Space of Six Months, or until he or she shall have paid the said Fine, or shall cause such Offender to be publicly or privately whipped, at the Discretion of such Justice; and it shall be lawful for the Justice before whom any such Offender shall be convicted, to order him to be detained in Custody until a Return shall be made to the Warrant of Detention.

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Adjutant, Quarter Master, Serjeant Major, Sergeant, Corporal, Drum Major and Drummer of the Local Militia raised on permanent Pay at Half Quarters as hereinafter directed, shall be in all things subject to any Act which shall be in force for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and to the Army in War, under the Command of the Colonel or other Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs; and it shall be lawful for the Colonel or other Commandant of any Regiment, Battalion or Corp of Local Militia, to direct the holding of Courts Martial as hereinafter directed, for the Trial of any such Serjeant Major, Sergeant, Corporal, Drum Major or Drummer of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps; by either a General or Regimental Court Martial, for any Offence against the said Act or Articles of War, committed during the time such Regiment, Battalion or Corps shall not be embodied or admitted for the Purpose of Training and Exercise; and for the Trial of any Serjeant, Corporal, Drummer or private Man of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, who shall have deserted while the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps was embodied, and shall not have been apprehended till after it shall have been disembodied, but so that no Punishment shall extend to the Loss of Life or Limb.

CIX. And be it further enacted, That, if a sufficient Number of Officers as hereinafter directed, shall be found, it shall be lawful for the Colonel or other Commandant, and in his Absence for the Senior Field Officer Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which the Person on whom such Court Martial is to be held, shall belong, to order any Officers of the Local Militia of the County, Stewartry or Place to which such Regiment, Battalion or Corps shall belong, actually resident within the Town where such Sergeant Major, Sergeant, Corporal, Drums Major or Drummer is to be tried, or within Fifteen Miles thereof, to attend and assist as Members of such Court Martial, who shall throughout attend at the time required, and assist accordingly; but no Officer shall be entitled to receive Pay for any such Attendance: Provided always, that no Sentence of any Court Martial held as aforesaid on any Sergeant Major, Sergeant, Corporal, Drums Major or Drummer, or private Man as aforesaid, shall be put in Execution, until it shall have been confirmed by the Colonel or other Commandant, or by the Field Officer by whose Order such Court Martial was assembled.

CX. And be it further enacted, That any Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer of the Local Militia, may, by Sentence of a Court Martial, be reduced to the Condition of a private Local Militia Man, so long as such during any time not exceeding Fifteen Months, is in the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs, shall not be there embodied or called out into actual Service; and in case the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs shall be then embodied or called out into actual Service to serve as aforesaid, until the disbanding of the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps, after which time or at the End of the said Fifteen Months, as the case may be, if not regularly re-appointed to the Rank of a Non-Commissioned Officer or Drummer, he shall be discharged from the Service: Provided always, that in case any Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer serving on Permanent Pay, shall have been reduced by Sentence of a Court Martial to serve as a Private Man, for any Period not exceeding Fifteen Months, such Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer shall not by such Reduction be relieved from his Engagement as a Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, but shall at the Expiration of the Period of such Reduction, be again liable to serve as such until legally discharged; nor shall any such Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, during the Period of such Reduction, be at Liberty to enlist or enter into His Majesty's Regular Forces, Navy, Marines or Regular Militia, unless with the Consent of his Commanding Officer (specified in Writing.

CXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any General Court Martial assembled for the Trial of any Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man of the Local Militia, to sentence any such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man to serve as the Local Militia, for any Period not exceeding Four Years, or to serve the Period for which he may be already enrolled; or to sentence any such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man to serve for any Period not exceeding Three Years, in the Regular Militia of the County, Stewartry and Place; and such Man shall throughout be entitled to serve for any such Period, and shall be, to all Intents and Purposes, considered a Militia Man during such Period; and it shall also be lawful for any General or Regimental Court Martial, by whom any such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man may have been sentenced to Imprisonment, to adjudge any such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man, to be imprisoned in any House of Correction, Common Goal, or public Prison of the County, Stewartry and Place, for any Period not exceeding Twelve Months.

CXII. And be it further enacted, That all Gaolers and Keepers of Prisons shall, if required so to do by any Provision of a General or Regimental Court Martial assembled for the Trial of any Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man of the Local Militia, receive into their Custody, and confine for such time as they shall be respectively required so to do, any such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man who may have been sentenced to Imprisonment by any such General or Regimental Court Martial; and every Gaoler and Keeper of a Prison who shall refuse to receive and to confine any such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds: Provided always, that during the Continuance of any such Imprisonment, the Gaoler or Keeper of such Goal shall receive the full Satisfaction of such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man, at the Rate of Six pence per Day for his Maintenance, during the time that such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man shall continue in Custody; which Sum of Six pence per Day shall be paid by the Quarter Master of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which any such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man may belong, and shall be charged and allowed to his Account.

CXIII. And be it further enacted, That in all cases in which the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion or Detachment of Local Militia shall deem it necessary to confine any Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man of the Regiment under his Command, in order to be brought to Trial before a Court Martial, it shall be lawful for such Commanding Officer, by Writing under his Hand, to commit such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man to the Custody of the Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison, Goal or House of Correction, who shall receive into his Custody and confine such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man accordingly, such Gaoler receiving the full Pay of such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man, for his Maintenance during the time he may continue in such Confinement: Provided always, that no such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or Private Man shall continue in Confinement, in order to his Trial by a Court Martial, more than Eight Days, or until a Court Martial can conveniently be assembled.

CXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing and other Stores, belonging to every Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia, when assembled, shall be kept in other convenient Place at the Colonel or other Commandant's Hall or City, with the Approbation of the Lieutenant of the County, Stewartry or Place; and that the Quarter Master of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, shall have the Charge and Care of such Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing and other Stores, under the Superintendency of the Colonel or other Commandant; and it shall be lawful for the Clerk of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy, at the Desire of the Colonel or other Commandant, to draw upon the Custody of the Clerk of such County, Stewartry and Place respectively, for any Sum necessary for the Purpose of providing a proper Place for keeping such Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing and Stores, not exceeding the Proportion of Ten Pounds after provided) and shall act in such Command under the Orders of the Colonel or other Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps; and that the Adjutant, and, in his occasional and unaccountable Absence, the Sergeant Major, or (where there is no Sergeant Major) the Senior Sergeant shall make Monthly Returns of the one State of the Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps severally, to His Majesty's Secretary of State, to the Lieutenant of the County or Stewartry, and to the Colonel or other Commandant of the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps, in Duplicate of which, on each such Neglect, such Adjutant or Sergeant Major shall be subject to such Punishment as a Court Martial shall adjudge; and that no Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, shall be absent from such City, Town or Place, without a regular Furlough or Licence in Writing, signed by his Colonel or other Commandant; and every Sergeant, Corporal and Drummer, who shall absent himself without such Furlough or Licence, shall forfeit all Pay during the time of such Absence, and be liable to be apprehended and punished as a Desertor; and such Adjutant shall never absent himself from such City, Town or Place, without Leave of the Colonel or other Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or for more than Three Calendar Months in One Year, except as aforesaid, when such Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, shall be under the Command of the Quarter Master, Sergeant Major, or of some Sergeant who shall be appointed by the said Adjutant, with the Approbation of the said Colonel or other Commandant, to act as Sergeant Major during the Absence of such Adjutant or of the Senior Sergeant, when the Corps has no other Adjutant or Sergeant Major.

CVIII. And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty at any time to order and direct that the Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers of the Local Militia retained on permanent Pay at Head Quarters as aforesaid, should be employed with their respective Companies or Squadrons under the Command of the Adjutant, in raising Volunteers for His Majesty's Regular Forces or for the Militia: Provided always, that no such Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, who shall have contracted to receive any reduced Rate of Pay during the Period of the Regiment to which he belongs not being embodied or aforesaid for Exercise, shall be compellable to be employed on such Service in any other Town or Place than that in which the Arms belonging to such Regiment are kept, without his Consent specified in Writing.

CXIX. And he is further enacted, That if any Local Militia Man shall not join the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, Detachment or Division to which he belongs, at the time of annual Exercise, or shall desert during the time of annual Exercise, and shall not be apprehended before the Expiration of the time appointed for such Exercise, and if the Commanding Officer, or the Adjutant of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or the Commanding Officer of the Company, Detachment or Division to which such Officer belongs, shall receive Information of the Place where he shall be or reside, any such Commanding Officer or Adjutant may, by Writing under his Hand, describe the Person of such Offender, and also certify that he did not join the Regiment, Battalion, Corps, Detachment or Division, at the time of annual Exercise, or that he deserted during the time of annual Exercise, (as the case may be) and send the same by a Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to the Adjutant or Sergeant Major of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or to the Senior Sergeant when there is no Adjutant or Sergeant Major of the Corps, of the County, Stewartry or Place wherein such Offender is supposed to be or reside; and the Adjutant, Sergeant Major or Senior Sergeant, to whom such Certificates shall be sent, shall forthwith direct a Party of the Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs, to assist in apprehending such Offender, and conveying him before some Justice of the Peace of the County, Stewartry or Place, wherein such Off. afo. shall be apprehended; and if by his Confession, or the Testimony of any Witnesses or Witnesses upon Oath, or the Knowledge of such Justice, it shall appear or be found that such Person is guilty of such Offence, such Adjutant, Sergeant Major or Senior Sergeant as aforesaid, shall order a Party of the Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers under his Command, to convey such Offender to the Head Quarters of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia of the next County, Stewartry or Place in the way to the County, Stewartry or Place to which such Offender belongs, and deliver him into the Custody of the Adjutant or Sergeant Major of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or Senior Sergeant as aforesaid, who shall cause him to be conveyed in like manner to the Adjutant or Sergeant Major of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or Senior Sergeant of the Corps of the next County, Stewartry or Place, and in the like manner until such Offender shall be delivered into the Custody of the Adjutant or Senior Major of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or Senior Sergeant as aforesaid, of the Corps to which he belongs, who shall take him before a Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with as the Act directs in case of Local Militia Men deserting or absconding themselves from their Duty who are not embodied or called out into actual service; and from the time of his being so apprehended as aforesaid, until he is brought before such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, such Offender shall be subjected at the Rate of Six pence per Day, to be paid by the Collector of the County, Riding or Place to which such Regiment, Battalion or Corps belongs, for which Satisfaction such Justice is hereby required to make such Order upon such Collector, which, with the Receipt taken upon Payment, shall be received as Cash by the Receiver General of Scotland from such Collector; and if any Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, retained upon permanent Pay, shall desert from the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs, it shall be lawful for any Headborough, Constable or other Officer of the Town or Place where any Person who may be lawfully suspected to be such Desertor shall be found, to cause such Person to be apprehended and taken before any Justice of the Peace being in or near to such Town or Place, who is lawfully empowered to cause such Person to be apprehended, and if by his Confession, or the Testimony of any Witnesses or Witnesses upon Oath, or by the Knowledge of such Justice, it shall appear or be found that such suspected Person is such Desertor, such Justice shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the Common Goal of the County, Stewartry or Place where he shall be found, or the House of Correction or other public Prison in the Town or Place in or

That the Rate above specified for such Detachment, during the time he shall continue in the same, shall not be applied to any Part or Part of the Account of his Employment; and that the following Officers of His Majesty's Command, receiving such Account, shall severally transmit a Copy thereof to the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs, to wit, the Adjutant or other Officer commanding the Regiment, Company and Detachment of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps stationed on permanent Duty at the Local Militia; and where there is no such Officer at the Local Militia, to the Adjutant or other Officer commanding the Regiment, Battalion or Corps in any County, Stewards or Place, each Clerk shall send such Copy to the Clerk or other Commandant or Commanding Officer of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, and the Clerk of the Adjutant or Officer commanding Regiments, Companies and Detachments, shall send a Copy of the same to the respective Head Quarters, within the County, Stewards or Place, and the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Detachment shall be found to belong, or the Adjutant or Officer commanding such Regiment, Company and Detachment of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall and he is hereby required, immediately on receiving such Copy as aforesaid, to send any Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, or any Party of the Regiment, Company or Detachment of his Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to the Place where such Detachment shall be confined, and shall also send by such Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, or the Sergeant commanding such Party of Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers, an Order, under his Hand, to the Keeper of the said Gaol, House of Correction or Prison, requiring him to deliver such Detachment to the Prison or Prisons therein named, which he is hereby required to do; and the Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer to whom such Detachment shall be so ordered to be delivered, in case One only shall be sent on such Duty, shall apply to the Adjutant or Sergeant Major of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or to the Senior Sergeant of the Corps of the County, Stewards or Place where such Detachment shall be confined as aforesaid, and such Adjutant, Sergeant Major or Sergeant, shall order a sufficient Party of the Regiment, Company or Detachment under his Command, to assist in conveying such Detachment, and he shall be conveyed to the Adjutant or Sergeant Major of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps or Senior Sergeant of the Corps to which he belongs, in the same manner as before specified with respect to the conveying of Private Local Militia Men to the Adjutant or Sergeant Major of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or Senior Sergeant of the Corps to which they belong; and such Adjutant or Sergeant Major or Sergeant, shall take such Detachment before a Justice of the Peace of the County, Stewards or Place to which he belongs, who shall forthwith cause him to be conveyed to the Common Gaol, House of Correction or other public Prison of such County, Stewards or Place, where he shall remain, without Bail, until a Court Martial can and shall be summoned, and hold for the Term of such Detachment, according to the Provisions of the Act, when he shall be delivered to the Prison or Prisons named in any Order to be issued for that Purpose, and the Head of the Office to which such Detachment shall be conveyed shall be summoned, requiring the Delivery of such Detachment; and all Gaolers and Keepers of Prisons shall (if required so to do by any Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, employed in conveying any such Local Militia Men or Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers belonging to the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he belongs) receive into their Custody, and confine such Offender for such time as they shall be respectively so required to do; and every such Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison who shall refuse so to do, shall forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings; and all such Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, while they are employed in conveying such Duty as aforesaid, and all other Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers of the Local Militia while on any March, or employed on any Duty upon which they may be commanded by any legal Authority, shall be billeted in the manner, as Sergeants, Corporals or Drummers belonging to His Majesty's other Forces, employed in apprehending and conveying Detachments, are to be billeted.

CXX. And he is further enacted, That the Justice of the Peace before whom any Detachment shall be brought, shall and may, upon Proof of the Conviction of any such Detachment, either before a Justice of the Peace, or by Sentence of a Court Martial, issue his Warrant to the Quarter Master of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which such Detachment shall belong, or to the Commanding Officer, requiring such Quarter Master or such Commanding Officer to pay out of the Contingent Fund of such Regiment, Battalion or Corps the Sum of Twenty Shillings to the Prisoner who shall have apprehended such Detachment; and such Quarter Master or Commanding Officer is hereby authorized and required to pay the same accordingly as Demanded.

CXXI. And he is further enacted, That if any Prisoner shall harbour, conceal or assist any Detachment, knowing him to be such, the Prisoner so offending shall forfeit the every such Offender the Sum of Five Pounds.

CXXII. And he is further enacted, That in all cases of actual Invasion of any Part of the United Kingdom, or of the Appointment of an Enemy in force upon the Coast of any Part of the United Kingdom, and in all cases of Rebellion and Insurrection, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council or Proclamation, to draw out and employ such Local Militia, or any Part or Proportion thereof, and to draft all or any of such Local Militia Men to be marched to any Part of Great Britain for the Prevention and repelling of any such Invasion, or for the Suppression of any Rebellion or Insurrection, and to keep and employ such Local Militia as aforesaid for any Period His Majesty may deem requisite, not exceeding Six Weeks after the Enemy shall have been prevented or expelled, or driven from the Coast, or after such Rebellion or Insurrection shall have been suppressed; and from the time of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia being called out and embodied as aforesaid, until the time shall be returned again to its own County,

Stewards

Secretary or Place, and embodied by His Majesty's Order, the Officers and Commissioned Officers, Drummers and private Men of every such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall be subject to all the Provisions contained in any Act of Parliament which shall be then in force, for the passing Writ and Detachment; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and the Articles of War made in pursuance thereof; and all the Provisions contained in every such Act, and Articles of War, shall be in force with respect to the Local Militia, and shall extend to all the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, Drummers and private Men of the Local Militia, which embodied as aforesaid, in all cases whatsoever.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That neither the Whole, nor any Part of the Local Militia directed by this Act to be raised and maintained, shall on any Account be carried or ordered to go out of Great Britain.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever His Majesty shall cause the Local Militia to be drawn out and embodied as aforesaid, if the Parliament shall then be separated by such Adjournment or Prorogation as will not expire within Fourteen Days, His Majesty may and shall give a Proclamation for the Meeting of the Parliament within Fourteen Days, and the Parliament shall accordingly meet and sit upon each Day as shall be appointed by such Proclamation, and continue to sit and act in like manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if it had been adjourned or prorogued to the same Day.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That the Lieutenants of every County, Stewartry and Place, or (on the Death or Removal of any such Lieutenant, or on his Absence from his County, Stewartry or Place) any Three or more Deputy Lieutenants, to whom any Order from His Majesty for drawing out and embodying the Whole of the Local Militia of such County, Stewartry or Place, shall be directed, shall forthwith (upon his or their Order to the Constables, Schoolmasters or other Officers of the several Parishes and Places within their respective Counties, Stewardries or Places) and such Constables, Schoolmasters or other Officers, are hereby required, upon Receipt thereof, forthwith to cause Notice in Writing to be given to the several Local Militia Men, or left at their usual Places of Abode, within their respective Parishes, Tithings or Places, to attend at the Time and Place mentioned in such Order.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Officer serving in the Local Militia shall sit in any Court Martial upon the Trial of any Officer or Soldier serving in any of His Majesty's other Forces, or in the Regular Militia; nor shall any Officer, serving in any of His Majesty's other Forces, sit in any Court Martial upon the Trial of any Officer or Soldier serving in the Local Militia: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent any Officer of the Regular Militia from sitting in a Court Martial upon the Trial of any Officer or Soldier serving in the Local Militia.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person of the said Local Militia, ordered to be drawn out and embodied as aforesaid (not labouring under any Infirmary incapacitating him to serve as a Local Militia Man) shall not appear and march in pursuance of such Order, every such Local Militia Man shall be liable to be apprehended and punished as a Delinquent, according to the Provisions of any Act which shall be then in force for passing Writ and Detachment; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and of the Articles of War, made in pursuance of the same; and if any Person shall harbour and conceal any such Local Militia Man, when ordered to be drawn out and embodied as aforesaid, knowing him to be such Local Militia Man, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That, from the Date of His Majesty's Order in Council or Proclamation as aforesaid, for drawing out the Local Militia of any County, Stewartry or Place, into actual Service, the Officers and Men of the Local Militia of such County, Stewartry or Place, shall be entitled to the same Pay as the Officers and Men of His Majesty's Regular Militia, and no other; and if any Non-Commissioned Officer, Drummer or private Man of the Local Militia, that be named or wounded in such actual Service, he shall be equally entitled to the Benefit of Chirurgery Hospital with any Non-Commissioned Officer, Drummer or private Man belonging to any of His Majesty's other Forces.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Pay of every Officer, Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer and private Man, who shall not join his Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Local Militia, on the Day appointed for that Purpose, shall commence only from the Day of his joining such Regiment, Battalion or Corps, unless such Officer, Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or private Man, shall have been prevented from joining on the Day appointed as aforesaid by Sickness or any other reasonable Necessity; or he proved to the Satisfaction of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he shall first Officer, Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer or private Man may by Order of his Commanding Officer, be accounted with for his Pay from the Date of His Majesty's Order in Council or Proclamation as aforesaid.

XL. And be it further enacted, That the Pay of every Person entitled to serve in the Local Militia of any County, Stewartry or Place, when such Local Militia shall have been embodied and called out into actual Service, shall commence upon the Day in which such Person shall join the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he shall belong, and not before: Provided always, that he shall be liable for the Deputy Lieutenants or Officers of the Place by whom any such Person shall have been so entitled, to order and direct or Allowance to be made to such Person, for the Purpose of enabling him to proceed to and join the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which he may belong, not exceeding the Rate of the Pay of twenty Days in each calendar month from the Place where he was called to the Place where the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps may be stationed, to be calculated at the Rate of one shilling ten Pence per Day, with the usual Number of halving Days; and the said Allowance of Pay shall be advanced to such Person at the time of his Discharge by the Clerk of the Subsidies Meeting under the Order of the Deputy Lieutenants as embodied, subject to His Majesty's Order in Council of the 17th of May 1794.

CCXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the General Meetings of every County, Stewartry or Place aforesaid, shall, as soon after the Receipt of such Returns as the same can be done, transmit to the respective Clerks of the Substitutes Meetings, for the Use of the Deputy Lieutenants sitting in such Substitutes, general Returns of such Returns, specifying in every such Return a Man as a Ball has been entered for the Substitution to which the Clerk, to whom any such Return is sent, shall take; and thereupon in each the Regiment, Battalion or Corps shall not be embodied, if it shall be found for such Deputy Lieutenants, if they shall think fit, to cause the Men willing to continue to serve as aforesaid, to be balloted as Volunteers for the particular and respective Parishes or Places for which they shall have been originally balloted to serve, and in every such case to do it and require the Heir of such Parish or Place, to pay such Bounty or Bounties to be given to such Men so engaged, immediately upon their Enrolment; and in each such Regiment, Battalion or Corps should then be embodied, then to cause such Men to be enrolled as Volunteers in such Manner as aforesaid, and to tender and deposit the Heir of an aforesaid to every such Bounty or Bounties to be given to such Men to the Paymaster of the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, in which such Men shall be then serving, who shall forthwith pay or account to the said Men respectively for the same; and a Ball and may be levied for the Heir of such Parish to make an Affidavit for the Amount of all such Bounties paid or wanted for Bounties, in the manner in which an Affidavit is herein directed to be made by such Heir for Bounties to Volunteers, provided and produced to Deputy Lieutenants by Heir of Parishes or Places.

CCXXXV. And

CXXXV. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall have been enrolled to serve in the Local Militia, and whose Term of Service shall be prolonged in the manner herein directed beyond the Term of Four Years, shall be entitled to the same Allowance for Mobilization, and all other Allowances which are by this Act directed to be allowed during the First Year of their Service to Persons enrolled in the Local Militia, and shall in like manner be entitled to such Allowances, in like manner as the Term of Service of any Person so enrolled to serve in the Local Militia shall be prolonged as aforesaid.

CXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person sworn and enrolled in the said Local Militia, just before or under any Infantry encamping him to serve as a Local Militia Man shall not with due Diligence join the Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia of the County, Stewartry or Place, for which he shall be so sworn and enrolled, (in case such Regiment, Battalion or Company shall then be embodied) according to such Order as shall be given him in that respect by the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants, or any of them, or by any Officer of the said Regiment, Battalion or Corps, or by any other Person authorized to give such Order, or if any Person serving in any embodied Local Militia, or any Sergeant, Corporal or Drummer, shall be lost or absent himself from his Duty; every such Sergeant, Corporal, Drummer or private Local Militia Man shall be liable to be apprehended and punished, according to the Provisions of any Act which shall be then in force for the punishing Misdemeanors and Delinquency; and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, and of the Articles of War made in pursuance of the same, and may by a General Court Martial be adjudged to further Service in the Local or Regular Militia for some Term to be limited, or to Service in His Majesty's other Forces, without Limitation as to the Period or Place of such Service, according to the Cases Martial before whom he shall be tried, that shall think it to do so; and in case the said Court shall adjudge such Local Militia Man to serve in His Majesty's other Forces, and such Sentence shall be approved by His Majesty, it shall be lawful by Order under the Hand of the Secretary at War, or his Deputy, to cause such Man, if found fit for general Service, on Examination by a Surgeon of His Majesty's other Forces, to be entered as a private Soldier, to serve in such Regiment or Corps of His Majesty's other Forces as shall be directed in such Order, and to be forthwith conveyed either to the Head Quarters of the Regiment or Corps in which he shall be so entered, or to such other Place as shall be directed in such Order; and shall, from the time of his being delivered over to be so conveyed as aforesaid, be subject and liable to all the Orders and Paragraphs contained in any Act then in force for punishing Misdemeanors and Delinquency, as if he had been originally enlisted for general Service, or for the Regiment or Corps in which he shall be so ordered to be entered as aforesaid.

CXXXVII. And whereas it may be expedient that only such a Proportion of the Local Militia, and in each of the Counties, Stewartries and Places as shall be specified in any Order of His Majesty, should be drawn out and embodied as the said Act enacts, and that the Appointment of the private Men necessary to constitute such Proportions, should be made or decided by Ballot or otherwise as is hereinafter mentioned in each Subdivision or District, without assembling them previously out of the Subdivisions or Districts to which they belong; Be it therefore enacted, That the Lieutenant of every County, Stewartry or Place, or (in case of Vacancy or in the Absence of the Lieutenant from his County, Stewartry or Place) any Three or more Deputy Lieutenants, to whom any Order of His Majesty for the Purpose of embodying the said Local Militia, or such Part or Proportion thereof as His Majesty shall have judged necessary and advised to be embodied, shall have been directed, shall, as soon after the Receipt thereof as conveniently may be, after his or their Order to the Clerks of the several Subdivisions Meetings in each County, Stewartry or Place, to go upon a make out a roll and true List, containing the Names of all Persons enrolled to serve in the said Local Militia by virtue of the said Act, within each Subdivision respectively, and arranged according to their Orders as hereinafter mentioned, before a Day to be specified in the said Order of the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, and which Day shall not be more than Three Days after the Date of such Order; and the said Clerks shall, within the time fixed by such Order, prepare and make out such Lists accordingly, and also Two Duplicate thereof, one of which Duplicates shall be for the Use of the Deputy Lieutenants at their respective Subdivisions Meetings, and the other Duplicate thereof shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the General Meetings, for the Use of the Lieutenant of the County, Stewartry or Place, or the Deputy Lieutenants who shall have issued such Order as aforesaid.

CXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid to whom His Majesty's Order shall be directed, shall at the time of issuing his or their Order hereinafter mentioned, direct the Clerk of the General Meetings to advertise the Place and Time of assembling the Local Militia in the County or Stewartry Paper, or if any County or Stewartry shall have no Paper, then in some Newspaper published in the City of Edinburgh, and also also his or their Order for assembling all the Men of the said Local Militia within their respective Subdivisions, or in each Place or Places within their respective Counties, Stewartries or Places, and in each Proportion as to the said Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, shall appear well expedient, on the Day or Days to be specified in such his or their Order, to the Constables, Schoolmasters or other Officers of the several Parishes and Places within the said Counties and Stewartries respectively; and such Constables, Schoolmasters or other Officers, are hereby required upon Receipt thereof forthwith to cause Notice to be given to the several Men of the said Local Militia, or left at their usual Places of Abode, within their respective Parishes or Places, to attend within their respective Subdivisions or Districts, at the Time and Place mentioned in such Order, and shall also cause such Notice to be affixed on the Doors of the Churches or Chapels belonging to their respective Parishes or Places, or (if any Parish shall have no Church or Chapel belonging thereto) on the Doors of the Church or Chapel of some Parish or Place therein adjoining, which Notice so advertised or affixed as aforesaid, shall be deemed a sufficient Notice to every Person enrolled by virtue of this Act, notwithstanding

And be it further enacted, That whenever the Local Militia, or any Part or Preparation of the Local Militia of any County, Stewartry or Place, shall have been ordered to be drawn out and embodied in pursuance of this Act, or any any of the Provisions enacted in any Subdivision of such County, Stewartry or Place, the Local Militia whereof shall be ordered to be drawn out and embodied as aforesaid, shall make itself ready by not appearing in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, or by Delinquency or Absence from Duty; and such Person shall not be taken within the Space of Three Months from the time of such Delinquency, than a Voucher shall be cleared by the Deputy Lieutenant, at their First Meeting to be holden for the Subdivision for which the Person so making Default was summoned, next after the Receipt of the Certificate of such Default, Delinquency or Absence, under the Hands of the Officer commanding the Regiment, Battalion or Corps, to which such Person belonged, and the Voucher thus cleared shall be forthwith filled up by a Justs Ballot within the Subdivi^on as aforesaid.

CXLIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person enrolled by virtue of this Act, and not called or balloted as aforesaid, who shall not have any Child or Children being under the Age of Fourteen Years, shall after himself as a Volunteer, to be drawn out and embodied in the Rank of any Person so called or balloted, a Ball be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenant at any Meeting, to accept such Volunteer in the Rank of such Person so called or balloted as aforesaid, and such Person so accepted shall serve as if he had himself been so called or balloted in manner aforesaid.

CXLV. And be it further enacted, That every Man of the said Local Militia who shall appear and attend at the Ballot to be taken as herebefore directed, and who shall not be called or balloted as aforesaid, shall be entitled to an Allowance, after the Rate of One Shilling per Diem, during the time he shall be necessarily employed from Home, in going to and returning at, and returning from the Place to be appointed for such Ballot, not to exceed Three Days, to be paid by the Clerk of the Subdivision or other Meeting in which such Man shall be enrolled; and on the Certificate of the Number of Men so paid, under the Hands of such Deputy Lieutenant and Justice of the Peace respectively, or where no Deputy Lieutenant shall there attend, then of any One such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, the Collector of such County, Stewartry or Place, shall reimburse to the said Clerk the Sums so paid, out of any Money in his Hands of any Aid granted by Parliament by way of Land Tax.

CXLVI. And be it further enacted, That the respective Clerks of the Subdivisions or other Meetings shall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to draw on the Collector of the Land Tax for the County, Stewartry or Place, for such Sum or Sums of Money as such Deputy Lieutenant and Justice of the Peace respectively, or where no Deputy Lieutenant shall attend, then as our Justice of the Peace shall, by any Order under their or his respective Hands or Hand, direct and appoint, which Sum or Sums of Money shall be applied by such respective Clerks for paying the Allowances herebefore directed to be made; and the Receipt of any such Clerk, together with such Order, shall be to the said Collector of the Land Tax a sufficient Discharge for the Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money, and be allowed in his Account.

CXLVII. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of each Subdivision or other Meeting shall, when required by such Deputy Lieutenant and Justice of the Peace, or where no Deputy Lieutenant shall attend, then by One Justice of the Peace, make out an Account of the respective Sums of Money by him received and paid, in pursuance of this Act, to be by them examined, allowed and signed; and the Account so examined, allowed and signed, shall be and is hereby directed to be the proper Voucher and Acquittal of such Clerk for the Application and Disposal of such Money.

CXLVIII. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to deliver His Majesty from ordering the Remainder of the said Local Militia, or so many of the Remainder of the said Local Militia of any County, Stewartry or Place, as His Majesty shall in his Wisdom think proper, to be drawn out and embodied whenever the Occasions shall require, according to the Provisions prescribed by this Act.

CXLIX. And be it further enacted, That whenever His Majesty shall think fit to draw out and embody any further Preparation of the Local Militia of any County, Stewartry or Place, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of such County, Stewartry or Place, or Three or more Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, and he and they are and are hereby respectively required to cause such further Preparation to be drawn out and embodied as His Majesty shall direct; and in so doing such Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants respectively, and all and every the Deputy Lieutenants, and all other Officers aforesaid respectively, shall perform the Rules and Directions herebefore prescribed for drawing out and embodying the First Preparation aforesaid.

CL. And be it further enacted, That, if during such time as any Part of the Local Militia which shall have been drawn out and embodied for Service, shall continue embodied, His Majesty shall deem it expedient that the Local Militia of any County, Stewartry or Place, or any Part thereof, which shall not at such time be actually embodied for Service, should be drawn out in order to be marched, trained and exercised, for a limited time, instead of being so embodied for Service, according to the Provision of this Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to direct the Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants of all or any of the said Counties, Stewartries or Places, to recall the said Local Militia not actually embodied, or any Part thereof, to be drawn out, in order to be marched, trained and exercised, in such Proportion, and for such time, and at such Place or Places, as shall be appointed, with the Approbation of His Majesty, by the Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants, in manner in a herebefore directed for training and exercising the distributed Local Militia; and the same shall be marched, trained and exercised accordingly.

CLI. And be it further enacted, That, whenever the Whole of the Local Militia of any County, Stewartry or Place, is ordered to be embodied, all the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Drummers of every Regiment, Battalion or Corps of the Local Militia of such County, Stewartry or Place, shall immediately join the Regiment, Battalion or Corps to which they respectively belong, at the Time and Place appointed for the embodying embodiment such Local Militia; and whenever the Local Militia of any County, Stewartry or Place is called out and embodied by Detachments or Divisions, under any Order of His Majesty for that Purpose, pursuant to the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty to order and direct the Preparation and Distribution of Officers, Non Commissioned Officers and Drummers, who shall accompany such Detachments or Divisions of Men, and the respective Establishments of such Detachments or Divisions, and also to regulate the Numbers and Dates of all such Officers, Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers, as shall remain within any such County, Stewartry or Place, for the making, training and exercising of the Remainder of the private Local Militia Men thereof, as the Service may require, and to His Majesty may from time to time and occasionally.

CLII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, as he shall think fit, to distribute any Part or Proportion of any Local Militia of any County, Stewartry or Place, embodied under this Act, and from time to time again to draw out and embody any such Local Militia as distributed as aforesaid, or any Proportion thereof, as to His Majesty shall from time to time, according to the Rules and Provisions of this Act.

Local Militia when called out shall be subject to the same Orders only as before being drawn out.

CLIII. And be it further enacted, That when the Local Militia, or any Part thereof, having been in service out into actual Service as aforesaid, shall be again duly disbanded, and the Officers and Men thereof defiled to return to their several Places of Abode, the Officers, Non Commissioned Officers, Drummers and private Men, shall be subject to the same Orders, Directions and Engagements only, as they were subject to under the Provisions of this Act, before they were so drawn out into actual Service as aforesaid.

His Majesty may, by Proclamation, increase or diminish the number of Regular Militia, and County Levies, and shall appoint a Number, not exceeding the same Quota of Regular Militia, and County Levies, and shall appoint a Number, not exceeding the same Quota of Militia, and shall be subject to the same Orders as aforesaid.

CLIV. And whereas it may be expedient that, in all cases of actual Invasion, or of imminent Danger thereof, and in case of Rebellion, His Majesty should be empowered to increase, without Delay, the Number of Local Militia Forces, for the more effectual Protection and Defence of this Realm; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty (the Oathes being first administered to Parliament, if the Parliament shall be then sitting, or declared in Council and notified by Proclamation, if no Parliament shall be then sitting or being) in order and thereby by His Royal Proclamations, that in Addition to the Number of Men required by or under the foregoing Provisions of this Act, to be raised by the several Counties, Stewartries and Places herein mentioned, there shall be forthwith raised and enrolled in the said several Counties, Stewartries and Places, any Number of Men as well, in Addition to and together with and including the effective Yeomanry and Volunteers serving in such County, Stewartry or Place, or Part of such County, Stewartry or Place, together with the Local Militia raised for such County, Stewartry or Place, under the Provisions of this Act, make the whole Force of such County, Stewartry or Place equal to Six times the original Quota of such County, Stewartry or Place, under an Act passed in the Tenth Year of His present Majesty: Provided always, that such effective Yeomanry and Volunteers shall be exclusive of Superannuated Men without Pay above the Establishment of such Corps: who shall have been enrolled after the First Day of April One thousand eight hundred and eight; and the Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants respectively of the said Counties, Stewartries and Places shall, immediately on the Making of any such Proclamations, assemble and forthwith proceed to apportion the Number of Men required to be raised in their respective Counties, Stewartries and Places, among the several Parishes or Places therein respectively; and shall thereafter proceed to raise and enrol such Men, as in such time or times as shall be specified for that Purpose in such Proclamations; and of the Powers, Privileges, Regulations, Rules, Penalties, Forfeitures, Rewards, Allowances, Cloaths, Musters and Things in this Act contained, relative to the Local Militia, shall be applied, modified, referred and put in Execution, for the raising, training and exercising, and for the embodying and calling out into actual Service, such additional Number of Local Militia as aforesaid in order and directed to be raised and enrolled, in as full and ample a manner as every subject as far as the same can be applied and put in force, as if the said Number of Men to be added to the Local Militia had been included in the Number of Men required and directed to be raised by virtue of this Act.

48 G. 3. c. 64.

Where such additional Number of Local Militia shall be raised, His Majesty may, by Proclamation, direct the Manner of Raising of such Proclamations.

CLV. And be it further enacted, That whenever His Majesty shall raise such additional Number of Local Militia as aforesaid to be raised and enrolled, or drawn out and embodied as aforesaid, if the Parliament shall then be separated by such Adjournment or Prorogation as will not expire within Fourteen Days, His Majesty may and shall issue a Proclamation for the Meeting of the Parliament within Fourteen Days, and the Parliament shall accordingly meet and sit upon each Day as shall be appointed by such Proclamations, and continue to sit and sit in like manner to all Intents and Purposes as if it had been adjourned or prorogated to the same Day.

His Majesty, by Proclamation, may reduce and embody such additional Number of Local Militia as aforesaid, and may direct the Manner of Raising of such Proclamations.

CLVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time (whenever he shall deem it expedient to reduce the Whole or any Part of such additional Number of Local Militia as aforesaid, by his Royal Proclamations to declare such Reductions accordingly; and in such such additional Number of Local Militia as aforesaid, or any Part thereof, shall be then embodied) to distribute the Same, or any Number of private Local Militia Men equal thereto, without regard to whether such Men were embodied or enrolled in pursuance of any Proclamations for raising such additional Number of Local Militia as aforesaid, or were enrolled before, and were serving at the time of the issuing thereof; and the private Militia Men so disembodied as aforesaid, or so many of them as may have been enrolled and not embodied at the time of issuing such Proclamations, shall nevertheless remain liable to serve for the respective Periods for which they shall have been respectively enrolled to serve, and shall, during such Periods, supply all the Vacancies that may arise in the respective Parishes or Places, or United Parishes or Places, for which they shall have been so enrolled, whenever called upon to do so; and the Deputy Lieutenants of the respective Subdivisions shall, from time to time, make any Man or Men, as the case may be, that may be required for supplying any Vacancy or Vacancies in the established Local Militia that may arise for any Parish or Place, or United Parishes or Places in their respective Subdivisions, to be taken from their respective Classes as aforesaid, or ballotted as the same may require, according to the Provisions in this Act contained, relating to the taking Men for the Local Militia from Classes, and all the Men so remaining liable, and that Ballot be to be taken, and that Ballot shall have supplied such Vacancies: Provided always, that no Ballot shall take place for the raising and enrolling any Man to supply any Vacancy that may arise from any Parish or Place, so long as the same can be supplied from any Men, or by any Man, then enrolled for such Parish or Place that shall remain liable and be fit to serve: Provided also, that no Man so remaining liable to serve as aforesaid for any Parish or Place shall be called upon or be liable to supply any Vacancy arising for any other Parish or Place, than that for which he shall be originally enrolled to serve under the Provisions of this Act.

CLVII. And be it further enacted, That every County, Stewartry, Place or Parish for which the full Number of Men required by any Order of His Majesty under this Act shall not have been ballotted and enrolled before the Fourteenth Day of February according to such Order, if given Three Months before such Fourteenth Day of February, or in which any Delinquencies or Vacancies arising in such Local Militia shall not be filled up before the Fourteenth Day of February after the same shall have notice, if the same shall have notice Three Months before such Fourteenth Day of February, shall be subject to a Fine of Fifteen Pounds for every Man so wanting delinquent.

CLVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Parish or Place in which such Fine shall here arise, and in which such Delinquency shall be thereafter supplied, shall be entitled to demand or have a Return of Two Third Parts of any such Fine of Fifteen Pounds for every Man enrolled before the Fourteenth Day of March, and One Third Part of every such Fine of Fifteen Pounds for every Man enrolled before the First Day of April, after any such Fine shall have been so notified.

CLIX. And be it further enacted, That the Constables and other Officers of all Parishes and Places for which any Local Militia Man shall be serving shall make diligent Enquiry as to all Men enrolled in the Local Militia, for the Parishes or Places for which they shall respectively be Constables or Officers, and shall before the Fourteenth Day of November in each Year, return to the Clerk of the Subdivision within which such Parishes or Places shall be, and also to the Colonel or other Commandant of any Regiment of Local Militia in which Men shall be serving for such Parishes or Places, a true Account of all Persons serving for such Parish or Place in the Local Militia, specifying such as shall have died or left those Parishes, and whether the Persons then residing in such Parish or Place shall have wholly left such Parish or Place, or shall still retain any House, Residence or Lodging, in such Parish or Place, and also the Place to which such Persons if it have gone as here changed their Residences, if the same can be ascertained; and every Constable or other Officer who shall neglect or refuse to make any such Return, or shall wilfully make any false Return, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Five Pounds.

CLX. And be it further enacted, That the respective Commandants of the Regiments of Local Militia in England shall within Fourteen Days after the Fourteenth Day of February in each Year, transmit to the Clerk of Supply, to be laid before the Commissioners aforesaid at the several Meetings to which the Land Tax, next after the First Day of March in each Year, Certificates of the Number of Men then remaining delinquent in their respective Regiments, comprehending the Period for which such Delinquencies or Vacancies have existed, by what Cause occasioned, and for what District, Division or Parish.

CLXI. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Supply of every such County, Stewartry and Place, assembled at the Meetings for assessing the Land Tax, to be held next after the First Day of March in each Year, shall upon the Receipt of the aforesaid Certificates of the Commandant, which Certificates he is hereby required to transmit to the Clerk of Supply of such County, Stewartry or Place, in order to be laid before the said Commissioners of Supply respectively at such Meetings, raise and settle the said Sum of Fifteen Pounds per Man as aforesaid upon every such County, Stewartry or Place, in the manner directed by the aforesaid Act, passed in the Fifth year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled As to the providing Relief for the Widows and Families of the Militia Men in Scotland, who are called into actual Service; and the Clerk of Supply of every such County, Stewartry or Place shall, within Fourteen Days after every such Assessment shall have been made, transmit to the Receiver General of Scotland an Account, specifying the Amount of the Assessment in each Parish, and the Subdivision to which such Parish belongs.

CLXII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Supply aforesaid, in making any such Rate and Assessment upon the Wicks of any County, Stewartry or Place, shall apportion the same to be assessed as aforesaid, and also to be settled the same upon the several Parishes in such County, Stewartry or Place, in the same Proportions in which the Men for the Local Militia are required to be raised by such Parishes respectively, according to such Apportionment as may have been made thereof in pursuance of this Act, or to the last Apportionment that shall have been made of Men to be raised by such Parish or Place.

CLXIII. And be it further enacted, That where in any County, Stewartry or Place, such Delinquency of Men shall arise from the Default of any particular Parish or Parishes in such County, Stewartry or Place, in the making the Proportion or respective Proportions of Men required to be raised by any such Parish or Parishes, then and in such case the said Commissioners of Supply, in making such Rate and Assessment as aforesaid, shall raise and settle all and every such Rate and Sum of Money upon such Parish or Parishes that shall have to make Default as aforesaid, in Proportion to the Number of Men by which each of such Parishes shall fall short of the Number of Men required to be raised thereon.

CLXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Supply of the several Counties, Stewartries and Places, where any such Rate and Assessment shall be made as aforesaid, shall, immediately after the making of any such Rate and Assessment as aforesaid, transmit or cause to be transmitted the several Amounts of the same to be assessed upon the several Parishes to the respective Clerks of the Subdivision to which such Parishes respectively belong, and also a Duplicate thereof to the Secretary at War; and such Clerks of Subdivision shall, and no Ballot shall take place while such Vacancies can be supplied from them, but they shall not be liable to supply Vacancies for any other Parish or Place than that in which originally enrolled. Likewise, neither such Men shall be liable to provide Money.

shall, within Ten Days after the Receipt thereof, make Notice thereof to be given to the respective Collectors of the Cols of the County, Stewartry, City or Place, wherein the several Partishes upon which any such Rate or Assessment shall have been made as aforesaid, shall be situated; and such Collectors shall proceed to levy the same within Fourteen Days after such Notice as aforesaid of such Rate or Assessment.

CLXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever any such Rate shall have been so notified upon any Parish or Place for Also notified to be collected upon the Fourteenth Day of February, it shall nevertheless be lawful for any Deputy Lieutenant acting for the Subdivision in which such Parish may be situated, in all cases in which any such Rate shall have been subsequently applied to supply such Deficiency, to certify to the Clerk of such Subdivision the Date of such Enactments respectively; and if it shall appear from the Certificate that such Men were enrolled before the Fourteenth Day of March or the First Day of April, it shall be lawful for the Clerk of such Subdivision, and he is hereby required to remit to every such Parish such Two Thirds or One Third Part of such Rate respectively as it respectively directed to be remitted to such Parish for every Man enrolled before the Fourteenth Day of March or the First Day of April respectively; and the Collectors of such Parish are hereby authorized to make a Deduction of Two Thirds or One Third Part of such Rate (as the case may be) from the Amount of the Assessment made upon such Parish for every Man so notified to have been enrolled before the Fourteenth Day of March or the First Day of April respectively.

CLXVI. And be it further enacted, That the said Collectors levying any such Sum or Sums of Money, shall within Ten Days after the Receipt thereof, remit the Amount thereof to the Receiver General of Army and, who shall within Ten Days after the Receipt thereof, remit the same to the Bank of England, to be placed to the Account of the Agent General for the Local Militia; and during the Period of Twelve Months from such First Day of April next succeeding the making any such Rate and Assessment as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for any Deputy Lieutenant of the Subdivision of the said County, Stewartry or Place, within which such Parish or Place shall be situate, to call any Volunteer or Volunteers for such Local Militia, in lieu of such Man or Men as shall be in default as aforesaid, and to agree with every such Volunteer for a Bonus not exceeding the Sum of Two Guineas; and the Deputy Lieutenant before whom any such Volunteer shall be duly examined, approved, sworn and enrolled to serve in the Local Militia, shall transmit a Certificate of such Enrolment to the Agent General, and upon the Production to the said Agent General of such a Certificate under the Hands of such Deputy Lieutenant as aforesaid, of any such Volunteer having been duly examined, approved, sworn and enrolled to serve in the Local Militia, and of a Certificate under the Hands of the Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia of such County, Stewartry or Place, of such Man having joined his Regiment, Battalion or Corps, the said Agent General shall, and he is hereby required under the Direction of the Secretary at War to pay out of such Money in his Hands as aforesaid, any Sum of Money not exceeding the said Sum of Two Guineas for each of such Volunteers as aforesaid.

CLXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Agent General into whose Hands or to whose Account any such Money shall be paid, shall give a Receipt for such Money to the Payee or Payees paying the same, which Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge for such Payment; and that when the whole Sum directed to be paid to any Company, Stewartry or Place as aforesaid, shall be paid into the Hands of the Agent General, or to his Account at the Bank, in pursuance of this Act, such Payment shall be a full Discharge and Indemnification to such County, Stewartry or Place, for the Failure or Neglect in raising and training the Number of Men in the Local Militia for the Year in respect whereof such Payment shall be made; and the Money so paid into the Hands of the said Agent General, or to his Account at the Bank, shall be applied to the Purposes of the Local Militia, and shall be accounted for yearly to Parliament.

CLXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Clerk of Subdivision to whom any such Money shall be paid as aforesaid, shall be allowed for his Print and Trouble the Sum of One Penny in the Pound, upon the whole Sum to be by him received and paid, which Allowance every such Clerk of Subdivision is hereby authorized to detain in his Hands out of the Money so received by him, before Payment made to the Receiver General as aforesaid, and every Collector, who shall act in the raising and collecting of the said Money, shall respectively be allowed and paid by such Clerk of Subdivision, as a Remuneration for their Trouble therein, the Sum of One Penny in the Pound of all such Money, in the raising and collecting whereof they shall respectively act as aforesaid; and such Clerk of Subdivision is hereby authorized and required to deduct the same out of the Money so received by him as aforesaid, and to pay the respective Proportions thereof to such Collectors as aforesaid.

CLXIX. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of Supply for every County, Stewartry or Place, shall and he is hereby required, within Fourteen Days next after the Meeting to be held for assessing the Land Tax, yearly, to transmit to the Secretary at War a Copy signed by such Clerk of Supply, of every Certificate which he shall have received from the Commandants of the several Regiments of Local Militia in such County, Stewartry or Place as aforesaid; and when such Certificate shall be emitted to be delivered, the Clerk of Supply shall certify such Certificate to the Secretary at War, and that such Clerk of Supply hath certified the same to the Commissioners of Supply assembled at their Annual Meeting to assess the Land Tax, and required such Commissioners of Supply to proceed according to the Direction of this Act, and such Clerk of Supply shall also certify what Proceedings have been had at such Annual Meetings, in relation to the raising and selling of the said Money, where the Local Militia shall not have been raised; and in case such Commissioners of Supply shall consent, signify or refuse so proceed to raise the said Money, according to the Direction of the Act, then the Clerk of Supply of such County, Stewartry or Place, shall and is hereby required, within Fourteen Days next after such Annual Meeting, to certify to the Secretary at War such Certificate, Neglect or Refusal of such Commissioners of Supply, and the Names of the Commissioners of Supply who shall be present at each Meeting; and the Secretary at War is hereby empowered and required, on Receipt of such Certificates, forthwith to give Directions to the Solicitor for Taxes in Scotland, to proceed by all such legal ways and means as shall be most effectual and expeditious, to compel such Commissioners of Supply to pay due Obedience to this Act, and so cause the said Money to be raised, collected and paid.

CLXXI. And be it further enacted, That if the said Sum of Fifteen Pounds per Man, so to be raised and paid in any such County, Stewartry or Place as aforesaid, shall not be levied, collected and paid into the Hands of the Agent General, or to his depositee at the Bank, in money hereinafter specified, the Solicitor for Taxes in Scotland is hereby required forthwith, upon Knowledge or Information thereof, to proceed, by all such legal ways and means as shall be most effectual and expeditious, to compel the levying and collecting of such Money and the Payment thereof into the Hands of the Agent General, or to his depositee at the Bank, as aforesaid.

CLXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Clerk of Supply shall wilfully neglect or refuse to receive, deliver, preserve, make, repair or transmit any such Certificate as aforesaid, or any Account of Arreduements hereby directed to be transmitted to the Receiver General of Scotland, according to the Directions and true Meaning of this Act, every such Clerk of Supply so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds, and shall also forfeit his Office, and be rendered incapable of bearing, receiving or holding any Office of Trust, Civil or Military, under the Crown; and if any Clerk of Subdivision, Collector or other Officer who ought to send and settle in the raising and collecting of the said Money, shall wilfully omit or neglect so to do or assist therein, according to the Direction and true Meaning of this Act, every such Clerk of Subdivision so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and every such Collector or other Officer so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds; and the Solicitor for Taxes in Scotland shall, and he is hereby required, when directed in so do by the Secretary at War as aforesaid, with all due Diligence, so far as possible with Effect all such Commissioners of Supply, Clerks of Subdivision and other Officers, who shall omit, neglect or refuse to perform the Duty required of them respectively by this Act, touching the raising, collecting and paying of the said Money; and to cite the Solicitor for Taxes in Scotland shall wilfully omit or delay to proceed against any such Commissioners of Supply, Clerks of Subdivision or other Officers aforesaid, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

CLXXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of Subdivision Meetings shall, if required so to do by the Deputy Lieutenant assembled at any General or Subdivision Meeting, give Security by Bond to His Majesty, with two sufficient Sureties, in such Sum as the Deputy Lieutenant shall see, for duly accounting for and settling all Moneys paid into his Hands under the Provisions of this Act.

CLXXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of Subdivision Meetings shall keep an Account, in the Form to this Act annexed, marked (L.) or in such other Form as may from time to time be directed for that Purpose by the Secretary at War, of all Fees, Penalties and Forfeitures hereunto to come assessed by law, and also of all Sums allowed to any Individuals, Companies, Stewartries or Parishes, by reason of any Fees or Penalties, or Parts of any Fees or Penalties, being remitted under the Provisions of this Act; and the Deputy Lieutenant or Justice-assembling at the time of any such Fee, Penalty or Forfeiture being imposed or remitted, or any Two of them, shall and they are hereby required to certify the same as he or each, and the Clerk of Subdivision Meetings shall verify the same upon Oath, which Oath any One Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace is authorized to administer, and shall transmit to the Secretary at War such Account made up to the Twenty fourth Day of December in each Year, or to such other Period as the Secretary at War shall direct.

CLXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk of Subdivision Meetings shall and is hereby required within Seven Days after the Twenty fourth Day of March, June, September and December, respectively in each Year, or otherwise if required, to transmit an Account to the Secretary at War for the time being, of all Sums received by him and paid to the Collector of the Cuts, verified upon Oath before One Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace, which Oath any such Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace is hereby authorized to administer and make as the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (K.) or such other Form as may from time to time be prescribed in that behalf by the Secretary at War.

CLXXVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in all cases in which it is in this Act directed or required that any Returns or Lists should be made, or any Moneys given, or any Fee, Penalty, Forfeiture or other Money received by any Clerk of Supply, or by any Clerk of General or Subdivision Meetings, or by any Collector or by any Colliery Comptroller or other Officer of Local Militia, every such Clerk of Supply or other Officer as aforesaid, who shall omit, neglect or refuse, or wilfully delay making any such Return or List, or giving any such Notice, or receiving any such Fee, Penalty, Forfeiture or other Money as aforesaid, in the manner directed by this Act, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds: Provided always, that nothing herein shall be construed to extend to any case in which any Fee, Penalty or Forfeiture may already be imposed for any such Offence by the Provisions of this Act.

CLXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Acceptance of a Commission in the Local Militia shall not vacate the Seat of any Member returned to serve in Parliament.

CLXXVIII. C A P. LXX.

An Act for raising the Sum of One million five hundred thousand Pounds by way of Annuities and Treasury Bills for the Service of Ireland. [20th June 1812.]

C A P. LXXI.

An Act for the better Cultivation of Navy Timber in the Forest of Wexford, in the County of Southampton. [20th June 1812.]

WHEREAS the King's Most Excellent Majesty, in Right of His Crown, is seized to Himself, His Heirs and Successors, of the Ground and Soil of the Forest of Wexford, in the County of Southampton, comprised to contain Five thousand two hundred and twenty six Acres, or thereabouts, exclusive of certain enclosed Lands therein belonging to His Majesty in Sovereignty, subject to such Claims of Rights and Interests of the Right Honourable Henry Lord Stowell, and other Persons as and over the same, as hereinafter mentioned: And whereas the said Henry Lord Stowell, under and by virtue of a certain Grant of His late Majesty King James the First, bearing Date on or about the Ninth Day of November in the Fifteenth Year of His Majesty, or in claim to be found of or inferred as or entitled to the Right of Free Warren and Free Chase, and other Highes, Liberties and Privileges as, upon and over the said Forest; and the said Henry Lord Stowell also claims to have and receive, in Fee as the same may be made out, a Grant or Letters Patent of and to hold and enjoy the Office of Ranger of and over the said Forest, and, as assessed or appointed to the said Office, the Liberty of Hunting, Shooting and Sporting, as and over the said Forest, for and during the Term of his natural Life; and the said Henry Lord Stowell, as aforesaid, or his several Heirs which adjain to or are issue or are in the said Forest, himself or his claim to be entitled to other Rights and Interests in, upon and over the said Forest, or some Part or Parts thereof; And whereas, subject to the Rights of His Majesty, certain Persons are or claim to be entitled to certain Rights in, over and upon the said Forest; And whereas from the great and increasing Difficulty of procuring a Supply of Timber from Foreign Countries and from the Expense of private Individuals in the United Kingdom, it has become necessary to adopt Measures for securing a more adequate Supply of Timber in this Kingdom; and if His Majesty was empowered to enclose certain Parts of the said Forest, and such Parts were appropriated for the Growth and Preservation of Wood and Timber, the same would be of great Benefit and Advantage to His Majesty and the Public in general; Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, from time to time to enclose, Ewe and improve, make and out of the Waste Lands of the said Forest, any Quantity of the said Lands not exceeding to the Whole Two thousand Acres, to be enclosed and held as Sovereignty as one and as the same time; and such Enclosure shall be made under and by virtue of Commissions to be granted and issued by His Majesty for that Purpose, and each of such Commission shall be directed to Three or more such Persons as His Majesty shall think fit, and such Inclosures shall be set out and made from and out of such Parts or Places in the said Forest as shall be found to be most convenient to be inclosed, and to be best adapted to the Growth and Profits of Timber, which said Inclosures shall be administered by a Justice Surveyor, and set out and inclosed, hedged and bounded, and the Quantities, Bounds and Boundaries thereof returned into His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, there to remain of Record for ever; and the said Inclosures to made and set out as aforesaid shall remain in Severalty to the said Possession of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, freed and discharged of and from all manner of Rights, Tolls, Privileges and Privileges or Claims whatsoever, (other than and except such as the said Henry Lord Somers is or may be entitled to as aforesaid) during the Period of the time remaining to be inclosed for the Growth and Performance of Timber, and until the same or any Part thereof shall be laid open under the Provisions of this Act, according to the Purport and true Intent of the Act, and shall be made and inclosed a Nursery or Nurseries for Timber only.

Grant 2 Nov 17 Jan. 11.

When Words are set down from Stat. 57 Inclosure Act 1774.

II. And be it further enacted, That at all times hereafter, whenever the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being shall be satisfied, and such Lord High Treasurer, or any Three, or more of the said Commissioners, shall determine that the Woods and Trees that shall be growing within any Inclosure to be made under and by virtue of this Act are become good Timber of breeding of Cattle, or other Profits, and shall think fit to lay the same or any Part thereof open in Common, and shall cause the same to be laid open, that then and in such it shall be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, from time to time to inclose, or less of so much of the Inclosure as shall be to be laid open, the like Quantity, out of any other Part of the Residue of the said Forest, to be set out in the same manner as aforesaid, and to be hedged, inclosed, freed and discharged of and from all manner of Customs and other Rights as aforesaid (other than and except as aforesaid) for so long time as the same shall continue inclosed, according to the Direction, Purport and Intent of the Act, to be a Nursery for Timber as aforesaid, instead of so much as shall be laid open according to the Direction aforesaid.

Meaning of Inclosure, Trees, &c. rest.

III. And, to the End that the said Inclosure may be preferred to the Crown for public Use as aforesaid, be it further enacted, That in case any Person whatever shall propose to take or obtain any Gift, Grant, Estate or Interest in or to the said Inclosure, or any Wood or Trees growing thereon, every such Gift, Grant, Estate or Interest shall give Advs be null and void, and the Person in taking the same shall be utterly disabled to have, hold and enjoy any such Gift, Grant, Estate or Interest, and also shall forfeit Treble the Value of any such Gift or Grant to him who shall first sue for the same in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster by Action of Debt, wherein an Edigna or Wager at Law shall be allowed to the Defendant.

Penalty.

IV. And be it further enacted, That after the passing of this Act, no Deer whatsoever shall be kept in any Part of the said Forest, or within the Limits thereof.

No Deer kept in Forest. Penalties and Forfeits.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Rabbits shall be kept in any Part of the said Forest, or any Acres or Province whatsoever.

Destroying Trees in Forest.

VI. And, for the better Preservation of the Trees, Woods, Underwoods, Harbours and Standards growing, and which may hereafter be planted and sown, or to grow or be growing in or upon any Parts of the said Inclosures to be made in pursuance of this Act, as well before as after the time shall be inclosed, be it further enacted, That all Persons whatsoever who shall, from and after the passing of this Act, unlawfully cut down, split, hack, peel, damage, deface or destroy or carry away any Timber Tree, or other Tree, Wood or Coveys, Green Sticks, or any Hedge or Stand within the said Forest, (except such as shall be set out by Persons duly authorized for the Purpose of making the Fences of such Inclosures as aforesaid) shall be subject or liable to all such Fines, Penalties and Punishments, as are provided by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, to be given, imposed or inflicted, upon any Person or Persons committing the like Offence or Offences, in the Lands, Grounds, Woods or Coppices, being inclosed, and the private Property of any of His Majesty's Subjects.

Penalties given Inclosures P. 274.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall wilfully destroy or take away or shall break down any Fences or Inclosures or any Part thereof made for the Protection of any Nursery of Wood and Timber as aforesaid, shall for the First Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, and for the Second Offence, the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and for the Third Offence shall be accounted guilty of Felony, and may be transported for any Part beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or be subject to such other Punishment by Fine, Imprisonment or otherwise, as the Court before which such Person shall be convicted may direct; and such Penalties shall and may be recovered, and on Non payment thereof, the Person who shall forfeit the same may be committed to Prison in the manner and for the same Periods as are specified in an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled an Act for the better Preservation of Timber Trees and of Woods and Underwoods, and for the further Improvement of Rivers, Streams and Floods, in relation to the Fines and Twenty Pounds and Thirty Pounds respectively for wilfully cutting or breaking down any Timber under the said Act.

An Act for the better Cultivation of Navy Timber in the Forest of Abbe Hall, in the County of Southampton.

WH^{EREAS} the King's Most Excellent Majesty, in Right of his Crown, is intitled to Himself, his Heirs and Successors, of the Ground and Soil of the Forest of Abbe Hall, in the County of Southampton, supposed to contain about Two thousand four hundred and twenty five Acres, exclusive of certain inclosed Lands therein belonging to His Majesty in Sovereignty, (subject to such Claims of Rights and Interests of the Right Honourable Henry Lord Stowell, and other Persons, as and over the same as hereinafter mentioned): And whereas the said Henry Lord Stowell, under and by virtue of a certain Grant of His late Majesty King James the First, bearing Date on or about the Ninth Day of November, in the Fifteenth Year of His Majesty, is or claims to be intitled or interested in and entitled to the Rights of Free Warden and Free Chafe, and other Rights, Liberties and Privileges, as, over and upon the said Forest; and by the said Henry Lord Stowell's Allowance to have and receive, in fees as the same can be made out, a Grant or Letters Patent, of and to hold and enjoy the Office of Ranger of and over the said Forest, and, as assessed or appraised to the said Office, the Liberty of Hunting, Shooting and Sporting, in and over the same Forest, during the Term of his natural Life; and the said Henry Lord Stowell, in respect of his several Missions, which he claims to be or claims to be to the said Forest, he claims to be entitled to other Rights and Interests, in, upon and over the said Forest, or some Part or Parts thereof: And whereas, subject to His Majesty's Rights as the said Forest, certain Persons are or claim to be entitled to certain Rights of Common in, over and upon the said Forest: And whereas from the great and increasing Difficulty of procuring a Supply of Timber from Foreign Countries, and from the Illness of private Individuals in the United Kingdom, it has become necessary to adopt Measures for procuring a more adequate Supply of Timber in this Kingdom; and if His Majesty was empowered to inclose certain Parts of the said Forest, and such Parts were appropriated for the Growth and Preservation of Wood and Timber, the same would be of great Benefit and Advantage to His Majesty and the Public in general: And whereas in order to remedy the Harbours and Common of Pasture, in such Parts of the said Forest as shall not be inclosed, of much greater Value, and more beneficial to the Persons entitled thereto, His Majesty has considered and agreed, that all the Trees now kept and maintained in the said Forest shall, previous to any Inclosure being made of any Part thereof, be wholly removed from the said Forest: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to inclose, fence and improve, within and out of the Open Waste Lands of the said Forest, in separate Inclosures, such Quantity of Lands as shall in the Whole not exceed One thousand five hundred Acres of the Open and Waste Parts of the said Forest; and such Inclosures shall be made under and by virtue of a Commission to be granted and signed by His Majesty for that Purpose, and such Commission shall be directed to Three or more such Persons as His Majesty shall think fit, and such Inclosures shall be set out and made from and out of such Parts or Places of the said Forest as shall be found to be most convenient to be inclosed, and to be best adapted to the Growth and Produce of Timber, which said Inclosures shall be advertised by a Surveyor, and let out and inclosed, fenced and bounded, and the Quantities, Batts and Boundaries thereof returned into His Majesty's Court of Chancery, there to remain on Record for ever; and the said Inclosure so let out and made as aforesaid shall remain in Sovereignty in the actual Possession of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, freed and discharged of and from all manner of Rights, Titles, Pensions, Privileges and Claims whatsoever, (other than and except such as the said Henry Lord Stowell is or may be entitled to as aforesaid) and shall be made and regarded a Nuisance or Nuisance for Timber only, and the said Quantity of One thousand five hundred Acres to be inclosed as aforesaid shall be accepted by and on Behalf of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, as an adequate Compensation for all Right of Soil, or other Right or Claim in or over the remaining Eight hundred and twenty five Acres of the said Waste Lands of the said Forest; which said remaining Quantity of Eight hundred and twenty five Acres shall become the Property of the several Persons entitled as aforesaid to certain Rights of Common in and over the said Forest freed and discharged of and from all Right of Soil, or other Right or Claim of the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; saving nevertheless, the Liberties and Privileges intended to be granted to the said Henry Lord Stowell as hereinafter mentioned; and saving also to His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, all Timber and other Trees, Underwood, Batts, Hedges and Thorns, Herbage and Stacks, Sandrags and being in or upon the said remaining Quantity of Eight hundred and twenty five Acres, or any Part thereof, with full Power to cut down and carry away the same, or otherwise to dispose thereof, and to enter on the said Lands for that Purpose from time to time as Occasion may require, for the Space of Three Years from the passing of this Act.

II. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That all Inclosures to be made in the said Forest by virtue of this Act shall be made and taken in such manner as not to interrupt or impede the usual and necessary Com- munication, in, over and upon the said Forest.

III. And he it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Returns shall be kept in any Part of the said Forest, on any Account or Pretence whatsoever.

IV. And to the End that the said Inclosures may be preferred in the Crown for Public Use as aforesaid, he it further enacted, That in case any Person whatsoever shall presume to take or abate any Off, Growth, Kill or Interact or in the said Inclosures, or any Wood or Trees growing thereon, every such Off, Growth, Kill or Interact, shall (upon proof to be made and said Person is taking the same) be strictly deemed to have, hold or enjoy any such Off, Growth, Kill or Interact, and shall be liable to the Value of any such Off, Growth or Kill to him who shall sue for the same in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt, whereon no Fine or Wage of Law shall be allowed to the Defendant.

V. And he it further enacted, That the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Parks and Land Revenue, or the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Woods and Forests for the Time being, any one or more by an Authority and required, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, to make all the Dues in the said Forest to be delivered, or removed from and out of the said Forest; and that after the said Day shall be made, no Deer whatsoever shall be kept in any Part of the said Forest, or within the Limits thereof.

VI. And, for the better Preservation of the Trees, Woods, Underwoods, Herbage and Grasses, growing, or which may hereafter be planted and sown to grow or be growing in or upon any Part of the said Forest, he it enacted, That all Persons whatsoever who shall, from and after the passing of this Act, unlawfully cut down, gird, split, bark, peel, damage, destroy, or carry away any Timber Tree or other Tree, Wood or Growth, Green Stick, or any Branch or Stand within the said Forest as aforesaid, shall be liable to and shall be adjudged to pay, to such Person, Proved and Proved, as are provided by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm to be given, imposed or inflicted upon any Person or Persons committing the like Offence or Offences in the Woods, Grasses, Woods or Coppices, being enclosed, and the private Property, of any of His Majesty's Subjects.

VII. And he it further enacted, That every Person who shall wilfully destroy or take away, or shall break down any Fence or Inclosure, or any Part thereof, made for the Protection of any Nursery, of Wood and Timber as aforesaid, shall for the said Offence forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds; and for the second Offence the Sum of Twenty Pounds; and for the Third Offence shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and may be transported to any Part beyond the Seas for the Term of Seven Years, or be liable to such other Punishment by Fine, Imprisonment or otherwise, as the Court before which such Person shall be convicted may direct; and such Person shall and may be recovered, and on View appearing thereof the Person who shall sue for the same may be committed to Prison, in the manner and for the like Term as is provided in an Act passed in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled An Act for the better Preservation of Timber Trees, and of Woods and Underwoods, and for the further Preservation of Bones, Shells and Plants, in relation to a Penalties of Twenty Pounds and Thirty Pounds respectively, for wilfully cutting or breaking down any Timber under the said Act.

VIII. Provided always, and he it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Person or Persons shall, by Refidence in any House, Lodge or other Building erected or to be erected within the said Forest, or by Hunting and Service either for the Pasturage of the said Woods or Plantations, or the Game in the said Forest, gain thereby any Settlement in the Parish of England in the said County in which the said Forest is situated.

IX. Saving always to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to the said Howe Lord Stenell, and to all Justice Palatine, Corporate or Collegiate, and their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, all such Rights, Privileges, Liberties, Claims and Demands whatsoever (other than except such as are and are hereby expressly granted and intended to be leased, destroyed or extinguished) as they, every or any of them now have or had, or could have had or enjoy therein in the said Act had not been made.

Abraham Goldfeld paying and allowing as and after the Rate of Five Penns per Annum for so much of the said Refiduo as he should in like, keeper or for his said Bedwell, nevertheless that he should be at Liberty to pay off the same sooner to his Estate if he should so think fit, and to discharge the said Telator declared it to be paid, in case of the previous Death of the said Abraham Goldfeld, as soon as conveniently could be after his Deaths; and the said Telator further declared his Will and Mining to be, that as his said Brother Abraham and himself had for many Years carried on Business together in Partnership with the greatest Confidance and mutual Confidance, and never had any Difference in their Accounts, and as it was his Intention that his said Brother Abraham should not be called upon or harassed relationally by any of his other Executors, or any other Parties or Persons whatsoever claiming or to claim either as Executors, Trustees, Legators, or otherwise, under or by virtue of that his Will, therefore it was his express Will and Direction that all and every such Accounts and Accounts of his said Co partnership Concerns, and of all Mortgages and Securities therein belonging to his Estate and Effects, which his said Brother Abraham should after his Deaths deliver in to his said other Executors or Legators, as a full or true Account of the same respectively, and all and every such Accounts and Accounts of the same, should be binding and conclusive to his said Estate, and to all Persons claiming under that his Will, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and his said Brother should not be liable to give or to be called upon for any other Account or Accounts whatsoever, in any manner otherwise howsoever, any Clause, Bequest, Article or Thing in his said Will contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding; and the said Telator appointed his Brothers George Goldfeld, After Goldfeld, and the said Abraham Goldfeld, Executors of his said Will, and soon after the Deaths of the said Benjamin Goldfeld, and his said Executors duly proved his said Will in the Probate Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury; and whereas the said Abraham Goldfeld duly signed and published his said Will and Testament in Writing, bearing Date the Twenty seventh Day of November One thousand eight hundred and six, and thence after directing his Debts and Funeral Expenses to be paid, and after several Bequests in favour of his Wife and of his Children, Jane Leaside Nathaniel Goldfeld, Eliza Goldfeld and Mary Goldfeld, and after giving several procurators and other Legacies, to the said Abraham Goldfeld gave and bequeathed all the Real and Refiduo of his Movables, Securities, Stock in the Public Funds, Shares in Public Companies and Undertakings or Institutions, Goods, Chattels and Effects, and all other his Personal Estate and Effects which he might in any manner hold or possessed of, or entitled unto at the time of his Deaths, in any manner howsoever, and not by his Will otherwise disposed of, or which might happen to be or to become or to remain undispensed of by that his Will, subject to the Payment of all his said Debts and Funeral and Testamentary Expenses and Legacies, and to the several Payments and Appropriations therebefore given and directed and appointed, and also subject to all reasonable Expenses to be incurred in the Execution of that his Will, or the Trusts thereof, unto his Executors upon the Trusts and for the Uses and Purposes therein after mentioned, declared and appointed, concerning the same; and the said Telator gave and devised and bequeathed all the his Real Estate as Mortgage, with the Out Buildings, Yards, Gardens, Leads and Appurtenances thereto belonging, and all other his Freehold, Copyhold and Leasehold Estates, Tenants in the Parishes of Marston, Morris, Middlesh and Marston, or any or either of them, or elsewhere in the County of Surrey, and all his Mortgages, Buildings, Leads, Tenements and Inclosures, of every Kind, and all his Real Estates whatsoever and wherefore, as otherwise by his said Will given, devised or disposed of, and all his Estate, Right, Title and Interest whatsoever therein respectively, unto and to the Use of his Executors thereafter named, their Heirs, Executors and Administrators, according to the Nature and Quality thereof respectively, upon Trust to sell and convert into Money all the same Freehold, Copyhold and Leasehold and Real Estates, at such time or times as they should deem most expedient; and the said Abraham Goldfeld did by his said Will declare, direct and appoint, that the Purchase Money to arise from all and every such Sales or Rales respectively, and also the Rents, Issues and Profits accruing in the mean time, and from such Sales or Rales respectively, for or in respect of such Part or Parts thereof as might be let to any Tenant or Tenants, (subject to all Charges and Expenses to be incurred in respect thereof) should be added to, and be deemed, considered and taken as and for and to be Part of the general Refiduo of his Personal Estate, and be paid, applied and disposed of therewith, in the manner and for the Uses and Purposes directed and appointed in respect to his said Personal Estate, and the Interest or Dividends accruing from the Produce thereof, to all Intents and Purposes; and vesting that, from the nature of his Contract, and the Situation of his Property in various respects, particular Circumstances attending the same might render a particular Court or Management thereof, or particular Members as to the same respectively, necessary or expedient, and as to which it might be inconvenient or hazardous to prescribe any particular Rule or Direction, he the said Abraham Goldfeld, for obviating all Difficulty in that respect, gave by his said Will to his Executors and Trustees for the time being a full, general and absolute Power and Direction in the Management, Arrangement and Disposition of his said Property and Concerns, in all respects whatsoever, and in the calling in, collecting, receiving, filing, converting and disposing of the same and every or any Part or Parts thereof, from time to time, as they should deem most expedient, not being contrary to any inconsistent with the general Provisions and Dispositions of that his Will, or any of them; and the said Abraham Goldfeld also authorized his said Executors and Trustees to compound or release any Debt or Debts, or Mortgage due or belonging to him or his Estate, as Circumstances might make expedient, and to compromise or refer to Arbitration any Dispute touching his said Property or Concerns or any of them, in such manner and upon such Terms and Conditions respectively as his said Executors or Trustees should think expedient; and for obviating the Effect of any Difference of Opinion between his said Executors and Trustees or any of them in respect of any Sale or Sales of the said Freehold, Copyhold or Leasehold Estates, or of his Personal Estate and Effects, or any Part thereof respectively, or the Management, Arrangement and Disposition thereof

*deceased respectively, or the better the same, or otherwise relating thereto or to his said Concern, by the said Abraham Goldfield did by his said last Will and Testament, will, declare and direct that the Directions, Appointments, Acts and Deeds, from time to time of a Majority of them his said Executors and Trustees for the time being, touching his said Property and Affairs or any of them, signified in Writing under the respective Hands of the Persons composing such Majority, and attested by Two or more credible Witnesses, should be binding and conclusive upon all of them his said Executors and Trustees, and upon all Parties concerned or interested in the Subject or Matter thereof respectively, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and to be carried into Effect accordingly, not being contrary to, or inconsistent with the general Provisions of this his said Will: And after taking Notice of the said Will of the said Benjamin Goldfield, and that it was his the Testator's Intention, as soon as Circumstances would permit, to make out an Account and Statement respecting the Partnership, Property and Concerns of him the said Abraham Goldfield and of the said Benjamin Goldfield, but that he should not happen to do so during his Life, and in order to effect as far as might be the same Object, and to obviate as much as in him lay, all Accounts and Reckonings between the respective Estates and Families of the said Abraham and Benjamin Goldfield respecting the said Transactions, and towards Supplying the same, he the said Abraham Goldfield did, as well as to his own Share, Concern and Interest therein, as also in Parliaments and Execution of the Vice and Interest of his said Brother in that respect expressed by his said last Will and Testament, will, declare and direct that the actual State of the Partnership Property of him the said Abraham Goldfield and his said Brother, at the time of his said Brother's Death, and the clear Amount which should appear upon a proper Statement thereof to have been then remaining due and belonging to them the said Abraham Goldfield and Benjamin Goldfield as Partners, including all Stocks, Shares, Securities and Interests whatsoever then standing or being in both or either of their Names, but belonging to the said Partnership, after deducting all Debts and Demands then due and owing by them on account thereof, should be considered and taken as and for the Rule and Criterion of Division between them respecting their said Partnership Property and Concerns, to all Intents and Purposes, without reference to any Account as between him the said Abraham Goldfield and the said Benjamin Goldfield, or to any Balance which might happen to be due thereon on either Side, and that each of them and their respective Estates should be considered as entitled to one equal Moiety or Half Part of such clear Amount accordingly, subject to a like equal Moiety or Half Part of the said Debts or Demands due by them on account of their said Partnership Concerns: And by the said Abraham Goldfield, after taking Notice that since his Brother's Death by the said Abraham Goldfield had made various Payments and Appropriations to the Credit and for the Use of the Estate of the said Benjamin Goldfield upon account of his said Moiety or Half Part or Share of the said Partnership Property and Concerns, by the said Abraham Goldfield did further will, that after taking Credit for or deducting the Amount of all such Payments and Appropriations last mentioned, and such further or other Payments or Appropriations as he might thereafter make on the same Accounts, by the said Abraham Goldfield, or his Estate, should be considered as indebted and accountable in his said Brother's Estate for so much of the said Moiety or Half Part or Share of the said Partnership Property, to be estimated and taken in manner aforesaid, as should from time to time remain not paid or appropriated to the general Use of his Estate as aforesaid, until the Whole thereof should be fully so paid or appropriated; and for the End and Purpose aforesaid, he the said Abraham Goldfield did by his said Will declare, execute and discharge his said Brother's Representatives and Estate from all Claims and Demands which he the said Abraham Goldfield or his Estate could or might have or claim thereon in respect of any Balance due by the said Benjamin Goldfield to him the said Abraham Goldfield, at the time of his Death, upon any Account then subsisting between him the said Benjamin Goldfield and the said Abraham Goldfield, in respect of their said Partnership or other Transactions or Concerns with each other in any manner whatsoever, subject only so far as such Debts as aforesaid were divided and apportioned in respect thereof; and he the said Abraham Goldfield did further will, declare and direct, that except as far as might be necessary for settling such Debts as aforesaid, and as arising out of the same, no other Account or Reckoning whatsoever should be taken or entered into between their respective Estates in any manner whatsoever: And the said Abraham Goldfield appointed his Brother the said Abner Goldfield, and his Sons James Goldfield and Myles Goldfield, and the said Thomas Meece and Daniel Elphinstone, to be Executors of his said Will, and in case any of his Executors themselves ceased should happen to do, or should refuse or decline to act in the Execution of that his Will, or the Trusts or Purposes thereof, or should desire to withdraw from being such Executor or Trustee, in every such case respectively he authorized his said Wife, and his said Two Sons James and Myles Goldfield, or the Survivors or Survivor of them, and the other Executors and Trustees of his Will for the time being, or the major Part of them, to appoint by Writing under the Hands of the Persons composing such Majority, One other competent Person to be such Trustee, instead of any of them his said Executors or Trustees who should so do, or refuse or decline to act, or desire to withdraw as aforesaid, and that upon every such Occasion respectively the proper and suitable Acts, Deeds, Matters and Things to be executed and effected, for transmitting and settling all his then surviving Monies, Property, Estate and Effects, (to and in such new Trustee, together with the other or remaining of the said Executors or Trustees for the time being, upon the same Trusts and for the same Uses and Purposes, and with the same Powers, Privileges and Authorities as were therein provided and appointed in respect thereof, or such of them as for the time being should remain to be performed, and to deliver quietus as often as the case should happen or require: And whereas the said Abraham Goldfield departed this Life in the Month of September One thousand eight hundred and ten; and the said James Goldfield, Myles Goldfield, Thomas Meece and Daniel Elphinstone, only proved the said Will in the Prerogative Court of the Archbishop of Canterbury, Power being referred to the said Abner Goldfield to prove the same; and the said Abner Goldfield hath since in due Form of Law*

renewed the Probate of the said Will, And whereas by a Dead Poll or Instrument in Writing, bearing Date the 1st of the said 12th Day of December One thousand eight hundred and ten, under the Hand and Seal of the said King, the said Abraham Goldfield, and Collyer acted in His Majesty's Court of Common Pleas in St. Paul's Church, after reading and discussing other things, that the said Abraham Goldfield had renewed the Probate of the said Will of the said Abraham Goldfield, and had not in any respect acted in the several Testes by the said Will required to be, or executed any of the Powers or Authorities thereby delegated to him, and was defrauded of defrauding the same in the manner the said other instrument, It was intended, that by the said Abraham Goldfield did thereby for himself, his Heirs, Executors and Administrators, fully, absolutely and irrevocably, assign all and every Title, Estate, Trust, Power and Authority given or delegated to him the said Abraham Goldfield, jointly with the said James Goldfield, Wm Goldfield, Thomas Moore and Nathan Solomon, in and by the said Will of the said Abraham Goldfield, of, in, by, upon or over the Messuages, Tenements, Hereditaments and Good Estate, and also of, in, in, upon or over the Sums of Money, annual or in gross, Stocks, Securities, and other the Personal Estate, and all and singular other the Powers given, devised, bequeathed and bequeathed in and by the said Will of the said Abraham Goldfield, and all and singular the Estate, Shares, Property, Rights, Titles, Interests, Use, Trust, Poll-Rates, Freehold Property, Possibility, Challenge, Claims and Demands whatsoever of him the said Abraham Goldfield, of, in, to or out of the said Real and Personal Estate, and every or any Part and Parcel thereof, as Devisee or Trustee, or as one of the Devisees or Trustees of the Will of the said Abraham Goldfield: And whereas at the time of the Decree of the said Abraham Goldfield and there were James Securities and other Partnership Estates of the said late Copartnership between the said Abraham Goldfield and Abraham Goldfield remaining in Specie in the Hands of the said Abraham Goldfield, as aforesaid incorporated by the said Abraham Goldfield in the time of his Death, and such Securities and other Partnership Estates, upon the Decree of the said Abraham Goldfield, vested in Law in his Executors, but subject in Equity to be applied in the first Place to the Payment of such Part (if any) of the said late Copartnership between the said Abraham Goldfield and Abraham Goldfield, as seems, intended, and there to be divided between the respective Estates of the said Abraham Goldfield and Abraham Goldfield, according to the Shares and Proportions which it should appear, upon the Settlement of the said Copartnership Accounts, that the said respective Estates, were beneficially interested in and entitled to the Copartnership Stock and Property: And whereas in the Time of the Decree of the said Abraham Goldfield, each of the said Partnership of Abraham Goldfield, James Goldfield and Thomas Moore, and Abraham Goldfield, James Goldfield, Thomas Moore and Nathan Solomon, was possessed of great Property, and was liable to great Debts and Demands, and was engaged in extensive and complicated Concerns; and particularly there was due to the King's Mail Execution Money from the said Copartnerships of Abraham Goldfield, James Goldfield and Thomas Moore, and of Abraham Goldfield, James Goldfield and Thomas Moore, and Nathan Solomon, the Sums of four hundred and forty six thousand seven hundred Pounds or thereabouts; and the said Abraham Goldfield and each of the said Partners had a separate Estate, and owed Money on his separate Accounts: And whereas upon the Decree of the said Abraham Goldfield, the Probability that a profuse and regular Administration of their Property might make the same produce in real and full Value, and thereby raise a Sum sufficient to satisfy all the Claims and Demands on the same, but that if the same were unnecessarily and summarily attached or disposed of, the Value thereof would be prodigiously lessened, and the Money produced by it would certainly fall very short of answering even the Demand of the Crown upon the same, and leave nothing for the other Creditors, was thought expedient to the Chancellor of His Majesty's Exchequer, that Lord Commissioner of the Treasury, who thereupon agreed, that in lieu of the Adjustment of the Affairs of the said Abraham Goldfield and his late surviving Partners should be conducted to the Satisfaction of Thomas Sandbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Denjins and George Ward, all of the City of London aforesaid, Merchants, the Prerogative Rights and Remedies of the Crown should not be enforced for recovering the Debt of Four hundred and forty six thousand seven hundred Pounds from the said Partnership Estate, or the separate Estate of the said Abraham Goldfield or his Partners, and that the said Sum of Four hundred and forty six thousand seven hundred Pounds, should stand upon an equal Funding with the other Partnership Debts of the said Abraham Goldfield, James Goldfield, Thomas Moore, and Nathan Solomon, and of the Partnership Estates of the said Abraham Goldfield, James Goldfield and Thomas Moore, and of the said Abraham Goldfield, James Goldfield, Thomas Moore and Nathan Solomon, and should be paid in pari passu with the said Partnership Debts; but upon the express Understanding, that if the said Thomas Sandbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Denjins and George Ward, or any Two of them, or such Persons as should be showeth consented Inspection of the said Affairs, or any Two of them, should disapprove of the Administration of the said Affairs, or from any other Cause should deem it advisable that any Course should be taken against the Estate and Effects of the said Abraham Goldfield, Thomas Moore and Nathan Solomon, and the Estate and Effects late of the said Abraham Goldfield, the proposed Arrangement should not prejudice the Right of His Majesty to the said Proceeds in His Majesty should be advised to have Recourse to in order to enforce the Payment of the said Debt of Four hundred and forty six thousand seven hundred Pounds, or to reach thereof or should from time to time remain satisfied: And whereas for the Purpose of effecting the Arrangement aforesaid, and affording the means of the Indemnity offered on Behalf of His Majesty being granted, which was deemed highly beneficial and necessary to the most advantageous Management of the Crown; the said Thomas Sandbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Denjins and George Ward were nominated by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, Inspectors for the Surmountance, Direction and Control of the said Concerns; and it was agreed that a Deed should be forthwith prepared for carrying the Objects of the Partnership aforesaid Execution: And whereas the said Thomas Sandbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Denjins and George Ward, accepted the said Inspection: And whereas by an Indenture bearing Date the Twenty seventh Day of November One thousand eight hundred and ten, and made or expressed to be made between the said Abram Goldfield, Thomas Moore and Nathan Salomon, of the First Part; the said Abram Goldfield, Moses Goldfield, Thomas Moore and David Elgin, as such acting Executors of the last Will and Testament of the said Abram Goldfield, of the Second Part; the said Thomas Salendridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, as such Intestates as aforesaid, of the Third Part; the said George Goldfield and Aler Goldfield, as the surviving Executors of the last Will and Testament of the said Freeman Goldfield, of the Fourth Part; and the several Persons other than the Parties thereto of the First, Second, Third and Fourth Parts, who by themselves or their respective Agents or Attorneys had severally subscribed their Names and affixed their Seals, or should subscribe their Names and affix their Seals thereto of the Fifth Part; it was witnessed, that all the Parties who were Parties thereto of the First, Second, Fourth and Fifth Parts, did thereby fully and irrevocably approve of the Nominations and Appointments of the said Thomas Salendridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, to be Intestates for the Superintendance, Direction and Control of the said Partnership Concerns of the said Abram Goldfield and his said respective surviving Partners, and of the said separate Concerns of the said Abram Goldfield and his said respective surviving Partners, in manner thereafter mentioned; and they the said Parties thereto of the First, Second and Fifth Parts, did thereby further statutorily and irrevocably give full Power and Authority to the said Thomas Salendridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, as Intestates, Agents and Control of the Management of the said Partnership Concerns of the said Abram Goldfield and his said respective surviving Partners, and of the said separate Concerns of the said Abram Goldfield and his said respective surviving Partners, as they should in their Discretion think proper, subject to the Regulations thereafter contained; and for that Purpose to employ and employ the best such Attorneys, Agents or other Persons, and to give them full Salaries or Emoluments as they should think proper: And the said Parties thereto of the Fourth and Fifth Parts did thereby directly, require and enjoin the Parties who were Parties thereto of the First and Second Parts to obey, and to their utmost Power and Ability execute, or cause to be executed, the Directions which the said Thomas Salendridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, should give in respect to the said Partnership Concerns, or any of them, or the separate Concerns of the said Abram Goldfield, or of the Parties thereto of the First Part, for the Purposes thereafter mentioned, or any of them: And it was thereby provided, agreed and declared, between and by the Parties thereto, that it should and might be lawful to and for the said Thomas Salendridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, or any Three of them, at any time whatsoever, by Writing under their respective Hands, to be indorsed to the said Indenture, or a Duplicate thereof, but subject, and without Prejudice, to what should have been then already done under the same, to declare the said Indenture, and every Clause, Matter and Thing therein contained, to be at an End: And it was thereby also witnessed, that the said several Parties who were Parties thereto of the Fourth and Fifth Parts, did give and grant unto each of them the several Parties who were Parties thereto of the First and Second Parts, then-forth and unto the said Thomas Salendridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, or any Three of them, should, by Writing under their respective Hands, to be indorsed to the said Indenture or a Duplicate thereof, to grant the said License to be determined and at an End, full and free Liberty, Licence and Self-control, Power and Authority to go about, follow, negotiate and manage, under the immediate and absolute Inspection, Superintendance, Direction and Control of the said Thomas Salendridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, the Affairs, Business, Matters and Things whatsoever, of the said Partnership Estates and separate Estates at any Place or Places whatsoever in England or elsewhere, without any Let, Suit, Trouble, Arrest, Attachment or other Impediment, to be offered or done unto them the said Parties thereto of the First and Second Parts, or any of them, by the said several Parties thereto of the Fifth Part, or any of them, or their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Partners, or by their or any of their Means or Procurement; and each and every of the Parties who were Parties thereto of the Fourth and Fifth Parts did thereby for himself, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Partners, grant to the said several Parties who were Parties thereto of the First and Second Parts, and to their respective Executors and Administrators, that if any of the said Parties who were Parties thereto of the Fifth Part, or any other Person or Persons, by the Means or Procurement of any of them, should, during the Continuance of the License thereafter granted, modify, impede or arrest any of the said Parties who were Parties thereto of the First and Second Parts, or should attach or take in Execution the Person or Persons, or the Goods and Chattels, Lands and Tenements of them or any of them, or of the said Abram Goldfield, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Indenture, then each of them the said Parties thereto of the First and Second Parts as should be so modified, impeded or arrested, or whose Estate and Effects should be so attached or taken in Execution, and their or his Heirs, Executors and Administrators, and the Estate and Effects of the said Abram Goldfield, if the same or any Part thereof should be so attached or taken in Execution contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Indenture, should throughout be, and be so and they and the same Estate and Effects was and were thereby clearly and for ever acquitted, exonerated and discharged of and from all Actions, Suits, Debts, Damages, Securities, Claims and Demands whatsoever, at Law and in Equity, of the Parties or Persons by whom, or by whose Means or Procurement such Impediment, Modification, Arrest, Attachment or Execution should have been occasioned, and that the said Letter of License should in any or either of said cases operate as a Release, and should or might be pleaded in Bar to such respective Debts, and to any Prosecutions, Suits, Actions, Attachments, Arrests or Process, which should in the same Time be brought, commenced, sued or prosecuted concerning the same Debts against any of the said Parties Parties thereto of the First and Second Parts, or the Effects and Effects of any of the said Parties of the First and Second Parts, or against the Estate and Effects of the said Abraham Goldfield; And it was thereby agreed and declared, and between and by the Parties thereto, that in respect of the Parties who were Parties thereto of the Fifth Part, the Two Parties-Parts of the said Abraham Goldfield, Aaron Goldfield and Thomas Moore, and Abraham Goldfield, for a Goldfield, Thomas Moore and Nathan Robinson, Bank,, as to all the Purposes of the said Indenture, be considered as forming together One Co-partnership, and each of them be considered as equally liable to the Claims and Demands upon each of them; And it was thereby further witnessed, that in Consideration of the aforesaid Grants and Concessions on the Part of the said Several Parties thereto of the Fourth and Fifth Parts, the several Parties thereto of the First Part did jointly for themselves, their Heirs, Executors and Administrators, and each of them did separately for himself, his Heirs, Executors and Administrators, assent, promise and agree with and to the said Thomas Bankbridge, Alexander Baring, Willm Joseph Douglas and George Ward, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, in manner following: that it is to be, that they the said Parties thereto of the First Part should and would forthwith, or by such Time as should be fixed by the said Thomas Bankbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, if they should think proper for the same, make to be made up a true and exact Account in Writing of all the Partnership and separate Effects, Estates and Concessions of the said Abraham Goldfield, and his said respective foregoing Partners, of what Nature or Kind soever, as well Real as Personal, and of the said Parties thereto of the First Part, and of the several Charges, Outgoings and Incumbrances then affecting the same, as if the said and would sign the same with their respective Names, in their own Hand-writing, and deliver the said Account so signed by them, unto the said Thomas Bankbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, and that they the said Parties thereto of the First Part should and would during the Continuance of the said Letter of Licence, manage and transact the Affairs and Business of the said Co-partnership and separate Concessions of the said Abraham Goldfield and his said foregoing Partners, for the Benefit of these Co-partners, as the best manner they respectively were able to do, and from time to time advance, purchase, sell and receive all the several Profits, Dividends, Returns and Profits of the said Thomas Bankbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, and use their best and utmost Wits and Endeavours to convert the same into Money the said Partnership Estate and Effects, and to collect and get in the Debts owing to the same, and to discharge all and every the Debts owing by them in the most and shortest manner, as soon as might be; And further, that the said Parties thereto of the First Part should and would from time to time pay all the Monies which should be received by them or any of them from the Produce of the Partnership and separate Effects and Effects of them the said Parties thereto of the First Part into the Bank of England, in the joint Names of the said Parties thereto of the First Part, and should and would deposit in the Bank of England all Divs, Writings, Bonds, Obligations, Bills, Notes or other Securities, which were then in their Possession, or which should come to their respective Hands; And that the Monies arising from the Estate and Effects of the said Parties thereto of the First Part, and to be paid into the Bank as therein and hereinafter is mentioned, should and be drawn out otherwise than by Draft signed by Two or half of the said Parties thereto of the First Part; And that all Securities for Money which should be so deposited in the Bank should be deposited from time to time at the said Thomas Bankbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, or any Three of them, should direct: And the several Parties thereto of the Second Part did enter into Covenants with the said Thomas Bankbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, similar to the Covenants entered into by the said Parties thereto of the First Part with the said Thomas Bankbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward; and it was thereby provided that nothing therein contained should extend or be considered to extend to authorize or permit the said Parties thereto of the Second Part, or any of them, to pay, apply, dispose of or appropriate the specific Monies, Property, Effects or Securities, or the Produce thereof belonging to the late Partnership between the said Benjamin Goldfield and Abraham Goldfield, as the Payment of the separate Debts or to the Use of the said separate Estate of the said Abraham Goldfield, farther or beyond the Amount or Proportion to which the Estate of the said Abraham Goldfield should appear to have a beneficial Interest in the Partnership Stock upon the Settlement of the said Partnership Accounts of the said Benjamin Goldfield and Abraham Goldfield; And the several Parties who were Parties thereto of the First and Second Parts did thereby covenant with the said Thomas Bankbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, in manner following: that it is to be, that the said Parties thereto of the First and Second Parts should and would from time to time keep proper Books of Account of the Partnership and separate Effects and Effects of the said Parties thereto of the First Part, and of the Partnership and separate Estate and Effects of the said Abraham Goldfield, and the Management and Disposition of the same respectively, and of all the Concessions of the same respectively, and make or cause to be made in the said Books true and proper Entries of all Receipts, Payments and Disbursements, and of all such other Transactions, Matters and Things, as were agreeable to the Custom of Merchants, or which ought to be entered in the same, for giving to the said Inspectors a clear and full Knowledge of the said several Concessions and of all Things relating thereto, and obliging such Parties of their said Receipts, Payments and Transactions [if any] as relate to the Property or Affairs of the late Copartnership between the said Benjamin Goldfield and Abraham Goldfield, from the general and separate Effects or Affairs of the said Abraham Goldfield, and of all Acts, Deeds, Transactions, Matters or Things done in the time by the Parties thereto of the First and Second Parts; or by their Procurement; and professes in a proper and regular manner all Letters, Writings and other Documents respecting the Concessions of the said Copartnership or separate Estates, or any of them, which then were in their Possession or Power, or which should thereafter come to their Possession or

Power, and care and keep Copies of all Letters written by them; and should and would permit the said Thomas Sandbridge, Alexander Baring, William Jayke Douglas and George Ward, or any of them, from time to time and at all times to examine and inspect the said Books of Accounts, and all other Papers, Letters and Writings relating to the Management of the said Estates and Effects respectively, and also insert the same to be entered by the said Parties thereto of the Fourth Part, in so far as the same related to the said Account of the Affairs or Concerns of the said late Partnership of the said James and Abraham Goldsmith; and should and would upon their or any of their Requests make and give Copies and Extracts of the same to them or any of them, or to any Person or Persons appointed by them or any of them; and also should and would if thereto required by the said Thomas Sandbridge, Alexander Baring, William Jayke Douglas and George Ward, verify the Truth of such Accounts and Statements upon Oath before One of the Justices of the Court of Chancery; and forth with by the said Parties thereto of the First and Second Parts, should not, in the Administration of the aforesaid Estates and Effects under the said Deed, give any Preference or Priority of Payment to any Creditors upon the said Estates or Effects, nor any part of the said Estate, nor do or suffer to be done, say Ask, Do, or Matter or Thing whatsoever, whereby any of the Partnership or separate Creditors of the said Part or thereto of the First Part, or of the said Abraham Goldsmith, should or might obtain any Security or Satisfaction for his or their Debt or Debts, or any Preference or Priority in the Payment thereof, or any Part thereof, before the others of the said Creditors, save and except that any One or more such of the said Creditors which respectively shall not one of the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and who should be willing to accept the Sum of Two hundred Pounds for the Debt, might be paid out of the separate Estate of the said Abraham Goldsmith, or his Proprietors of the separate Partnership Estate of the said James Goldsmith and Abraham Goldsmith, the whole of such their said Debt, in accepted Satisfaction for the same, if the said Thomas Sandbridge, Alexander Baring, William Jayke Douglas and George Ward, should consent thereto, but not otherwise; and that none of them the said Parties thereto of the First and Second Parts, should release any Debt or Debts owing to the said Partnerships, or either of them, or to any of the Parties thereto, or to his separate Account, or to the Estate of the said Abraham Goldsmith, or bring any Action or Suit for recovery of any such Debt or Debts, or compound the same, without the Advice and Approbation of the said Thomas Sandbridge, Alexander Baring, William Jayke Douglas and George Ward; but notwithstanding it was thereby agreed and declared between and by the Parties thereto, that it should be lawful for the Parties thereto of the First Part, (that subject to the Right of Redemption thereunto respectively, if the same should be called upon,) to admit any Person or Persons a Creditor or Creditors, under or by virtue of the said Indenture, for any Debt or Debts claimed by him or them from the said Partnership Estate and Effects, or their said separate Estate and Effects, upon such Evidence as the said Parties thereto of the First Part should deem reasonable; and also that it should be lawful for the said Parties thereto of the First Part, with the Approbation in Writing of the said Thomas Sandbridge, Alexander Baring, William Jayke Douglas and George Ward, but not otherwise, to compromise the Amount of any Debt claimed by any of the Creditors on the said Trust; and in like manner that it should be lawful for the said Parties thereto of the Second Part, to admit any Person or Persons a Creditor or Creditors, under or by virtue of the said Indenture, for any Debt or Debts claimed by him or them from the separate Estate and Effects of the said Abraham Goldsmith, as to those the said Parties thereto of the Second Part should seem reasonable; and with the Approbation in Writing of the said Thomas Sandbridge, Alexander Baring, William Jayke Douglas and George Ward, but not otherwise, to compromise the Amount of any Debt claimed by any Creditor or Creditors on the said Trust; And it was provided and agreed between and by the said Parties thereto, that in case of any Difference or Dispute it should be lawful for the said Thomas Sandbridge, Alexander Baring, William Jayke Douglas and George Ward, or any Three of them, to ascertain and appoint the Trust on which any Claim or Claims ought to be deemed Creditor or Creditors, and also to separate, distinguish, and also the separate from the Partnership Property, and to ascertain, adjust and settle the State of the said Account between the said
Two Partnerships of the said Abraham Goldsmith, James Goldsmith and Thomas Moore and Abraham Goldsmith, Aaron Goldsmith, Thomas Moore and Nathan Robinson, for the Purpose of dividing the said between them, or their Representatives; And it was thereby also agreed and declared in record and by the Parties thereto, that any Creditor or Creditors who had any Security or Pledge for any Debt or Debts or any Part thereof, should or might execute the said Indenture, without Prejudice to the said Security or Satisfactions, and convert the same Security or Satisfactions into Money, and use the said Dividend exactly with the other Creditors as in and to the said Debt or Debts as should not be released or paid out of the Product of the said Security or Satisfactions; And the said Parties the one of the First and Second Parts did thoroughly consent with the said Thomas Sandbridge, Alexander Baring, William Jayke Douglas and George Ward, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, in manner following; that it is to be, that when and in case as the Money which should with from the Partnership Estate of the said Parties thereto of the First Part, and the separate Estate and Effects here of the said Abraham Goldsmith, should be allowed to pay Twelve Pounds Ten Shillings for each One hundred Pounds of the Debt, payable out of the said Trust, the said Parties thereto of the First and Second Parts should and would make a reasonable Dividend to that Amount on the said Debt or Sum of Four hundred and fifty six thousand two hundred Pounds, and on all the Partnership Debt of the several Persons who were Parties thereto of the First Part, without Preference or Priority one to the other, and a further Dividend from time to time, in case as the Money is found applicable to the Payment of the said Partnership Debts from the Proceeds of Twelve Pounds Ten Shillings per Centum to the said Capital of the said Partnership Debt, and a full Dividend of Twenty Shillings in the Pound should be made on the Whole of the said Debt of Four hundred and any six thousand seven hundred Pounds, and as all the Partnership Debts, to the Parties thereto, or until the Whole of the said Partnership Fund should be exhausted; and it was thereby provided and agreed, that it should be lawful for the said Thomas Baskbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, or two or more of them to be made of the said Partnership Estate and Effects, and the same should be paid accordingly; and it was thereby also provided and agreed, that when and so often as any such Dividend as aforesaid should be made of the said Partnership Fund, the said Parties thereto of the First Part should, as soon as conveniently might be, make a Dividend of all Moneys which should have been received by them the said Parties thereto of the First Part, from their separate Estates and Effects, unto and amongst all the separate Creditors of them the said Parties thereto of the First Part who should execute the said Indenture, after the same Rate as that of the Dividend which should have been then last made of the said Partnership Effects, or as near to the same as circumstances would admit; and that they and to others as any such Dividend as therein and herebefore is mentioned should be made of the said Partnership Fund, then and so often as the Parties thereto of the Second Part should make a Dividend of all Moneys which should have come to the Hands of them the said Parties thereto of the Second Part, or account of the separate Estates and Effects of the said Abraham Goldfield, unto and amongst all the separate Creditors of the same Estates and Effects of the said Abraham Goldfield, who should execute the said Indenture, after the same Rate as that of the Dividend which should have been then last made of the said Partnership Effects, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case would admit; But it was thereby expressly agreed and declared, that no Dividend should be made of the Fund arising from the separate Estates and Effects of the Parties thereto of the First Part, or from the separate Estates and Effects of the said Abraham Goldfield, without the Consent and Approbation of the said Thomas Baskbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, or any Three of them; and it was thereby provided and agreed, that if the Funds applicable to the Payment of the Debts of the said Partnership, and immediately available to the same, should be exhausted and prove insufficient to pay Twenty Shillings in the Pound on the whole Amount of the said Debts, and the Funds applicable to the Payment of the separate Debts of the said Parties thereto of the First Part, and of the said Abraham Gold- field, should be more than adequate for that Purpose, then the Overplus or Excess of the Fund applicable to the Payment of the said separate Debts should, in so far as the same should be wanted to make up the Payment of Twenty Shillings in the Pound of the Debts of the said Partnership, be applied in Aid of the Funds applicable towards the said Debts of the said Partnership; And it was thereby agreed and declared between and by the Parties thereto, that if the Funds applicable to the Payment of the separate Debts of the said Parties thereto of the First Part, and of the said Abraham Goldfield, should be adequate to pay a larger Dividend on the said separate Debts of the Parties thereto of the First Part, and of the said

Abraham Goldfield, than the said Partnership Fund immediately available would be sufficient to pay on the said Partnership Debts of the said Parties thereto of the First Part, and of the said Abraham Goldfield, then the Funds applicable to the Payment of the said separate Debts should, in so far as the same would extend, to be brought in Aid of the Funds applicable to the Payment of the Debts of the said Partnership, and immediately available for that Purpose, less to make the Dividends on the Debts of the said Partnership equal to the Dividends on the said separate Debts, but it should be wholly left to the said Thomas Baskbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, to decide on the Availability or Adequacy of the said Funds, and the Application of said separate Funds, in manner therein and respectively mentioned; And it was thereby further agreed and declared between and by the Parties thereto, that if any Part of the Fund applicable for the Payment of the Debts of the said Partnership should remain after satisfying and satisfying the Debts of the said Partnership, then the Surplus or Excess of the said Funds, if wanted for that Purpose, should, in so far as the same would extend, be brought in Aid of the Funds applicable for the Payment of the separate Debts of the said Parties and the separate Debts of the said Abraham Goldfield, according to the respective Interests of the said Partnership and of the said Abraham Goldfield therein, and it was thereby agreed and declared between and by the Parties thereto, that all Debts owing from the said Parties thereto of the First Part, as well as the said Partnership as on their said separate Accounts, and all the Debts owing from the Estates and Effects of the said Abraham Goldfield, to the several Persons Parties thereto of the First Part, or any of the said Debts, should be submitted to the Executions of the said Thomas Baskbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, or any Three of them, if they respectively should think proper and require; and for that Purpose it was thereby agreed and declared that the said Thomas Baskbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, or any Three of them, should and ought to execute the same Debts to be verified by the Affidavits of the same several Creditors, being the Amount and Consideration of the same, and other circumstances relating thereto, which Affidavits should be sworn before a Magistrate Extraordinary or Clerks of the District in which the Party from whom the same should be required should reside, and should and ought call for such Documents, Vouchers and Papers from the Parties whose Debts should be so verified, as the said Thomas Baskbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, should think fit, and that the Determination of the said Indenture, or any Three of them, should be final, binding and conclusive on all Parties related to any Interest or Benefit under the said Indenture; And it was thereby further agreed and declared, that the Amount of the respective Debts of the said several Creditors, Parties thereto, after the same should have been determined by the said Indenture, or any Three of them, should be written opposite to the Signatures of such respective Creditors, under several Heads, distinguishing the Funds or Fund out of which the same should be payable;
 And the said several Persons who were Parties thereto of the First Part, did thereby consent with the said
Thomas Baskbridge, Alexander Baring, William Joseph Dunlop and George Ward, their Executors and Administrators, that they the said Parties thereto of the First Part should and would at any time thereafter dec-

ing the Continuance of the said Letter of Licence, upon the Request of the said Thomas Bainsbridge, Alexander Barley, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, or any Three of them, convey, surrender, assign or otherwise alienate all or any Part or Parts of the Real and Personal Estate and Effects whatsoever and whosoever, of, in, or to which the said Parsonages of the said Part, or any of them, were or was held, possessed, enjoyed, or to be enjoyed, and the Decreted Produce of the same, either unto any Person or Persons who should purchase the same, and to whom or to the Use of whom the said Thomas Bainsbridge, Alexander Barley, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, or any Three of them, should direct the same to be conveyed, assigned, surrendered, or otherwise alienated, or unto such Person or Persons as the said Thomas Bainsbridge, Alexander Barley, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, or any Three of them, should direct the same to be conveyed, assigned, surrendered or otherwise alienated, for the Purpose of selling or otherwise disposing of the same and making the Value and Produce thereof available for the Objects of the said Indenture; and the said several Persons who are Parties thereto of the Second Part did consent with the said Thomas Bainsbridge, Alexander Barley, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, that they the said Parties thereto of the Second Part should and would at any time thereafter during the Continuance of the said Letter of Licence, upon the Request of the said Thomas Bainsbridge, Alexander Barley, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, or any Three of them, convey, surrender or assign, or otherwise alienate all the Real and Personal Estate and Effects whatsoever and whosoever, of, in, or to which the Parsonages of the Second Part, or any of them, were or was held, possessed, enjoyed or to be enjoyed, and the Decreted and Execution of the said Abraham Goldfield, and the Income or Produce of the same, to any Person or Persons who should purchase the same, and to or to the Use of whom the said Thomas Bainsbridge, Alexander Barley, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, or any Three of them, should direct the same to be conveyed, assigned, surrendered or otherwise alienated, or unto such Person or Persons as the said Thomas Bainsbridge, Alexander Barley, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, or any Three of them, should direct the same to be conveyed, assigned, surrendered or otherwise alienated, for the Purpose of selling or otherwise disposing of the same, and making the Value or Produce of the same available for the Objects of the said Indenture: And it was thereby agreed and declared between and by the Parties thereto, that the Money payable for the Purchase of any Real or Personal Estate or Effects which should be sold under any of the Provisions of said Indenture, should be paid into the Bank of England, and that if the Estate or Effects to be sold should be the Partnership Property, or the Separate Property of the Parties thereto of the First Part, the same should be paid to the Account of the Parties thereto of the First Part; and if the Estate or Effects to be sold should be the Property of the Parties thereto of the Second Part, as Executors or Beneficiaries of the said Abraham Goldfield, the same should be paid to the Account of the Parties thereto of the Second Part; and the Receipt of any of the Cashiers of the Bank of England, for any of the said Summs of Money, should effectually discharge the Person or Persons to whom the same should be given, from being obliged to see to the Application, or from being answerable for the Misapplication thereof: And it was thereby provided and declared, that both in respect to the Securities to be deposited, and the same to be paid into the Bank of England, as therein and hereinafter is mentioned, Care should be taken to distinguish those in which the Executors of the said Abraham Goldfield are concerned from the others, and particularly the joint Property of the said late Partnership of the said Abraham and Abraham Goldfield, remaining in Specie at the Death of the said Abraham Goldfield, and to have separate Accounts opened and kept for the same, and that the Debts which should be executed by the Parties thereto of the First Part, or the Parties thereto of the Second Part, or any of them, for the Purpose left therein and hereinafter mentioned, or any of them, should contain such Covenants and Agreements by the Parties, or any of them, for the Title to the Property thereby conveyed, assigned or otherwise alienated, and for the quiet Possession, free from Incumbrances, and further Assurance of the same, and all such other Covenants, Clauses, Powers, Provisions, Declarations and Agreements, as the said Thomas Bainsbridge, Alexander Barley, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, or any Three of them, should direct: And it was thereby agreed and declared between and by the Parties thereto, that in consequence of any Direction as therein and hereinafter is mentioned, the Real and Personal Estate therein and hereinafter mentioned, or any Part thereof, should be conveyed and assigned by the said Parties thereto of the First and Second Part, or any of them, to Trustees upon Trust for Sale, then the same Trustees should stand and be possessed of and invested in the Manner aforesaid by Sale of the said Estate and Effects, or any Part thereof, upon and for the Title, Intents and Purposes which the same Moneys would have been applicable unto in the Hands of the said Parties thereto of the First and Second Part of such Sale had been effected by them the said Parties thereto of the First and Second Part, but the said Thomas Bainsbridge, Alexander Barley, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, or any of them, should have full Power and Authority to remove the said Trustees or any of them, and to substitute One or more Persons or Persons in their or any of their Stead, or to act in Cooperation with them: And it was thereby provided and agreed, that as between the said Parties thereto of the First Part, and the Estate and Effects of the said Abraham, assigned, and the Estate and Effects of the said Abraham Goldfield, nothing therein expressed and contained should be construed to alter or vary the Intents of the said several Parties thereto of the First Part, and the Intents of the said Parties thereto of the Second Part, as Executors and Beneficiaries of the said Abraham Goldfield, and of the Parties thereto of the Fourth Part, as Executors of the said Abraham Goldfield, except that the Management of the Estate of the said Abraham and Abraham Goldfield was to be carried on under the Title and Powers of the said Indenture; and that if any of the several Funds thereinbefore mentioned should be related to one of its Courts, for any of the Purposes therein and hereinafter mentioned, the Assent of what should be substituted from it should be made good to it out of the Fund in Aid of which such Substitutions should have been made: And it was thereby agreed and declared between and by the Parties thereto, that in case of Difference or Dissent, all selected Accounts, Receipts and Transfers whatsoever between the Estates of the said Benjamin Goldfield and the said Abraham Goldfield, should, when and so often, and so far as the circumstances of the case would admit, be referred to the Adjustment and Determination of Three Persons, One of whom should be chosen by the said Insolvent or Insolvents for the time being, and another by the Executors or Administrators of the said Benjamin Goldfield, and the Third by the Two Parties who should be in full Power and Effect, and that the said A. B. C. D. E. F. G. H. I. J. K. L. M. N. O. P. Q. R. S. T. U. V. W. X. Y. Z. should certify, by Writing under their Hands, whether any and what Balance was in their Judgment, due from the Estate and Effects of the said Abraham Goldfield to the Estate and Effects of the said Benjamin Goldfield, or from the Estate and Effects of the said Benjamin Goldfield to the Estate and Effects of the said Abraham Goldfield, and such Certificate should be binding, still and otherwise upon the Parties thereto; and that if it should be found that a Balance was due from the Estate and Effects of the said Abraham Goldfield to the Estate and Effects of the said Benjamin Goldfield, then the said Parties thereto of the Fourth Part, as such Executors of the said Benjamin Goldfield, should be 4. equal as to the separate Estate and Effects of the said Abraham Goldfield for the Amount of the said Balance, and should be paid equally and proportionally with the said Creditors on the said Fund: And it was then by further agreed and declared between and by the Parties thereto, that in case the said Parties thereto of the Fourth Part, should find it necessary or expedient to sit under the Seal of a Court of Equity in any case whatsoever, the proposed Arrangement for the Adjustment of the said selected Accounts, each of the Parties thereto who should be a necessary or proper Party to a Suit to be instituted in the said Court for the Purpose aforesaid, should concur therein, and prosecute the Suit thereof, and that nothing therein contained should interfere with or in any manner operate against any Directions respecting the Liens of the said Benjamin Goldfield, which in such a Suit or suits should be given or made by any of His Majesty's Courts of Equity, and it was thereby agreed and declared between and by the Parties thereto, that if any of the Parties thereto of the First Part should to the Judgment of the said Thomas Baskerville, Alexander Searcy, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, or any Three of them, make Default in performing any any of the Contracts, Obligations and Agreements therein and herebefore mentioned, which it was intended to be made, or should in any manner fail to perform, and the said Thomas Baskerville, Alexander Searcy, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, or any Three of them, should certify such Default by Writing under their Hands subscribed on the said Indenture, or a Duplicate thereof, such Certificate should be conclusive Evidence of the said Fact, and then immediately thereupon every Article, Claim, Matter and Thing theretofore mentioned, which within the said Creditors, or any of them, from suing or recovering Payment of their respective Debts from the Parties making Default, should cease, determine and be utterly void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, but nevertheless if the Contracts and Agreements theretofore entered into by the Parties making Default aforesaid, should in respect to him and all Parties claiming under him, be in full Force and Effect, but so far as to disturb the Arrangement thereby made or intended to be made of the Partnership or separate Property of such Parties: And it was thereby agreed and declared between and by the Parties thereto, that the Insolvents named therein and to be appointed hereafter as mentioned, should keep or cause to be kept Minutes of all their Proceedings and Transfers in and about the Matters aforesaid, which should be accessible to all reasonable times to the said Creditors or any of them: And it was thereby further agreed and declared between and by the Parties thereto, that it should be lawful for the said Thomas Baskerville, Alexander Searcy, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, to do, by what Name and by what Use or name of their any of the Powers and Authorities theretofore given to them might be exercised, except only in respect to the Powers and Authorities to the Extent of a both the Consent of Three or Two of them as aforesaid before made necessary; and further, that it should be lawful for the said Insolvents for the time being, or any Three of them, to direct the Costs, Charges and Expenses incurred previously to and attending the Execution thereof, and the Arrangement intended to be made thereby, and the Costs, Charges and Expenses which should be incurred to the Execution of the Trust and Purposes aforesaid, and out of which Fund the same should be paid; and so make such Allowance to the Parties thereto of the First Part, or to such respective Families, and to the Family of the said Abraham Goldfield, for their respective Marriages and Support, as to the said Thomas Baskerville, Alexander Searcy, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, or any Three of them, should seem reasonable, so far that the Money to be allowed for Maintenance to each of the Families and to the Family of the said Abraham Goldfield, should be paid in as far as might be practicable out of the separate Estate and Effects of the Party to whom, or to whose Family such Allowance should be made; And it was thereby agreed and declared between and by the Parties thereto, that if any of the said Thomas Baskerville, Alexander Searcy, William Joseph Douglas and George Ward, or any of them, or any Parties to be chosen as Insolvent or Insolvents in any of the Cases or Cases, as therein and hereafter is mentioned, should depart the Life, or die, or be or become incapable of sitting in the said Indenture, or deliver any Petition or Petitions to be allowed with them or him in the same, then and in such case, and in such case as the same should happen, it should be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, to nominate and appoint any Person or Persons to be an Insolvent or Insolvents in the Place or Places of the said Person or Persons who should be or become incapable to act as aforesaid, or to act in Conspectu with the Insolvent or Insolvents for the time being; and that every Insolvent or Insolvents so appointed as aforesaid should have full and the like Powers and Authorities as every Insolvent or Insolvent in what Cases he should have been appointed, or in Conspectu with whom he should have been appointed: And it was thereby provided and agreed that the Insolvents mentioned thereby, and so be thereby appointed as therein and herebefore is mentioned, should not incur any Responsibility by their Default or Management of the Affairs intended to be put under their Inspection, or be answerable or

* accessible

• accessible for the Acts, Negatives or Defects of any Parties employed by them; And that it should be
 • lawful for the said Inspectors, out of the Monies which under the Provisions of the said Indenture should be • placed under their Direction and Control, to return to themselves a bill above to the other or others of them,
 • all Costs, Charges and Expenses which they should suffer or be put to by action or in consequence of the
 • said Inspectors or Management of the Affairs of the said Partnerships of the said and beyond Parts: And
 • it was further agreed and declared, that in case any Question, Matter or Thing should arise in the Management,
 • Liquidation or Dissolution of the Partnership or separate Estate and Effects of the said Parties, Partners of the said
 • Part, or of the said Abraham Goldgold, which was not expressly mentioned or provided for thereby, or in case the • Inspectors for the time being and the said Indenture should be able to determine and agree upon the
 • Points of Controversy to be pursued by them, or by the said Parties thereto, or any of them, in the Matters and
 • Things in or relative thereto, or any of them, then and in every such case, and in such case the same should
 • remain to be decided by the said Inspectors for the time being to call a Meeting of the Parties
 • Partners of the said Part, or their respective Representatives, by Posters Day-Notice to The London Ga• zette, and to submit such Questions, Matters or Things, to the Consideration of the Parties who might be pre• sent at such Meeting, and that the Determination of the major Part or Number and Value of the Creditors
 • present at such Meeting should be binding and conclusive on all Parties entitled to any Benefit under the
 • said Indenture and further, that if any Question should arise on the true Construction of the said Indenture,
 • or any Clause or Provision therein contained, which, in the Opinion of the Inspectors for the time being,
 • should appear doubtful, it should be lawful to call the said Inspectors to submit the same Question to His Majesty's
 • Attorney and Solicitor General for the time being, and in case of a Difference of Opinion between • them, then, in the Opinion of some one Person appointed by the said Attorney and Solicitor General, and
 • the Decision so obtained should be binding and conclusive on all Parties entitled to any Benefit under the
 • said Indenture: And lastly, the said Parties thereto of the said and beyond Parts did thereby declare and
 • direct, that all and every Parties and Persons in whom any Real or Personal Estate, whatsoever of the Names

 • Benjamin and George Ward, or any Three of them, should direct or appoint; and in Default of such Direc-
 • tion or Appointment, upon such Trusts as would be most beneficial to the Trusts, Interests and Purposes
 • thereinbefore expressed and contained of and concerning the same, and facilitate the Execution of the same;
 • And whereas the Arrangement intended or agreed to be made by the said Indenture of the Twenty seventh
 • Day of November One thousand eight hundred and ten, will greatly facilitate the Payment of the said
 • Crown Debt of Four hundred and fifty, or thousand seven hundred Pounds, and by making thereof it is ex-
 • pedient and necessary that the said Arrangement should be carried into Execution: May it therefore please
 • Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and it is enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with
 • the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament as-

11 And it is hereby further enacted, That the said sum of Four hundred and fifty six thousand seven hundred Pounds, and every Clause and Demand of the Crown upon the Estate and Effects of the said Abraham Gold-gold, or of his said respective surviving Partners or assigns of the same, shall be paid, discharged and liquidated upon the Terms and Conditions, and in the manner and by the Power of Deeds and other Regulations, accented to and stipulated for by the said Right Honourable John Percival, and mentioned and received in the said Indenture, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the same, as if such Terms, Conditions, Powers, Authorities, Deeds and Regulations were herein particularly and severally and separately each of them set out as they are in the said Indenture recited and set forth.

12 And it is further enacted, That the Purchaser or Possessor of any of the Estate or Effects of the said
Abraham Goldgold, or of the said Abraham Goldgold, or of the said Thomas Sandford, or of the said Benjamin Sandford, or of the Trusts or Derivatives of the said Indenture of the Twenty seventh Day of November One thousand eight hundred and ten, paying his, her or their Probable Taxes, and all other Parties whatsoever present, absent, or transacting or claiming any Stocks, Funds or Securities, or other Effects whatsoever under the said Trusts or Provisions, and in the manner prescribed by the same, shall not in any way be liable to the Responsibility or other Right or Liabilities of the Crown, for, or on account of the said sum of Four hundred and fifty six thousand seven hundred Pounds, or any Part thereof; and that all and every the Parties or Person who are to whom any Estate or Effects of the said Abraham Goldgold, Sandford hereby give or being Parties, or who are charged or obliged to pay the Trusts or Derivatives of the said Indenture of the Twenty seventh Day of November One thousand eight hundred and ten, and in the manner prescribed by the same, and their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, shall hold and pay the said Estate and Effects, and every of them, and, requested and absolutely discharged of and from the said sum of Four hundred and fifty six thousand seven hundred Pounds, and all Actions, Suits, Claims and Demands whatsoever, which of this Act had

had not been made, His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, might or could have in or upon the said Estate and Effects or any of them, on account of the said Sum of Four hundred and sixty six thousand seven hundred Pounds, under any Statute, Law or Usage whatsoever.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three of them, among them hereafter to investigate the Conduct of the said Juan Galzifid, Thomas Amiss and Nathan Schemm, and of the Personal Representatives of the said Abraham Gold, Joid, deceased, by such means as they shall deem proper, as to the Management and Appropriation of the joint and separate Property of the said late Partnerships, and of the Individuals composing the same; and if upon such investigating they shall approve and be satisfied with such Conduct, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lords Commissioners, or any Three of them, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, to declare and pronounce the said Juan Galzifid, Thomas Amiss and Nathan Schemm, as to their Persons and future Property, and also the said Personal Representatives as such Representatives, acquitted and discharged of and from any future Claim on the Part of His Majesty or any of his Successors, on account or in respect of the said Debt or Sum of Four hundred and sixty six thousand seven hundred Pounds, or so much thereof as shall then remain due and undischarged; and it is hereby declared, that from and after such Declaration to be signed and sealed by the said Lords Commissioners, or any Three of them, the said Juan Galzifid, Thomas Amiss, and Nathan Schemm, as to their Persons and future Property, and also the said Personal Representatives as such Representatives, shall be as fully and effectually discharged, to all Intents and Purposes, from the said Debt or Sum of Four hundred and sixty six thousand seven hundred Pounds, as if the same had been fully paid and satisfied; any Statute or Law to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding; Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be construed, deemed or taken to limit or affect the Right of His Majesty as to the Property, Estate and Effects conveyed and assigned by the said Indenture of the Twenty fourth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and ten, or mentioned or intended in it to be.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed, adjudged and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices and others, without specially pleading the same.

C A P. LXXVI.

An Act to amend several Acts relating to the Revenue of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland.

[18 July 1812.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Regs, intitled An Act to make further Provision for the Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenue, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and Taxes in Ireland, it is enacted, that no Surcharge shall be made on account of any short Charge of Duty payable on the Importation of any Goods, Wares or Merchandises imported into or exported out of Ireland, at any time after the passing of the said Act, upon the Purcell or Persons who shall have imported the same, at any time after the Expiration of Four Calendar Months next after the Entry made thereof, on which any Duty shall have been computed and paid, whether the same shall be an Entry either inwards or outwards, or a Free or Port Entry, or an Entry of Goods in Warehouse, but that all Surcharges of Duty in respect of such Goods, Wares and Merchandises so imported or exported shall be made within Four Calendar Months next after such Entry, Computation and Payment as aforesaid: And whereas it is expedient that the said several Provisions should be repealed, and other Provisions made in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said several Provisions shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case any Error shall at any time have been committed in any Entry of Goods, Wares or Merchandises imported into or exported out of Ireland, by the including or charging therein a greater or less Quantity of such Goods, Wares or Merchandises, or a greater or lesser Amount of Duty than ought to have been included or charged, it shall and may be lawful for the Examiners of Customs, and he is hereby required to rectify the same as he may be convenient after such Entry shall have been made, and to report the same to the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, and if it shall appear that the Amount of Duty charged in any such Entry against any Importer or Exporter was greater than the same ought to have been, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and they are hereby required to make as Allowance forthwith to such Importer or Exporter of the Amount of Duty so overcharged, and if it shall appear that the Amount of Duty charged in any such Entry against any Importer or Exporter was less than the same ought to have been, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties, and they are hereby required to cause Notice signed by any One of the said Commissioners or by their Secretary on their Behalf, to be given to such Importer or Exporter of the Amount of the Deficiency of the Duty in consequence of such erroneous Entry, and if such Importer or Exporter shall not within One Month after such Notice shall be sufficient Cause to such Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties why he should not be charged with and pay such Deficiency or some Part thereof, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties to order a Return to be made to the Collector of the Customs at the Port into or from which such Goods, Wares and Merchandises shall have been imported or exported, of the Amount of such Deficiency with which the said Commissioners shall have adjudged him to be chargeable, and the Duty specified in such Return shall be a Surcharge on such Importer or Exporter, and if such Importer or Exporter shall not upon Demand or within Ten Days next after pay the said Amount of such Duty be discharged, such Importer or Exporter shall forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds, and a Sum equal to double the Amount of Duty which shall be so assessed and discharged, provided that no such Notice shall be a Discharge on any Importer or Exporter unless it shall have been made within Four Calendar Months, and the Amount thereof demanded within Nine Calendar Months after the Date of the original Entry.

III. And whereas under and by virtue of the Laws now in Force in Ireland, certain Goods, Wares and Merchandise exported into Ireland, are privileged and allowed to be warehoused and stored in His Majesty's Warehouses and Stores at certain Ports in Ireland, under the past Licenses of the Crown and the Merchants: And whereas great Inconvenience has arisen to the Revenue from the Merchants not according to open their Licenses when required to do so: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Secretaries of His Majesty's Stores in such Towns as aforesaid, whenever it shall be judged expedient to do so, to cause Two or four Hours Notice to be given to be taken at the said Place of Abode of any Merchant who shall have warehoused any Goods, as aforesaid, requiring such Merchant to attend at such Warehouse or Store at a certain time in such Notice to be specified, and to open his Lock or Locks, and in Default of such Merchant's attending and opening his Lock or Locks pursuant to such Notice, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs and Port Duties in Ireland, or any Three of them, or any such Store-keeper to remove or cause to be removed the Lock or Locks of such Merchants in neglecting to attend and open such Lock or Locks as aforesaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Person to ply or sell as Cooper or Cooper on the Custom House Quay, or at the Ports of Malabar Creek, or in the Streets of the said Custom House, or any of them, and no such Person shall be so approved of by the Surveyors of the said Quay or Streets respectively, and receive from them, as a Warranty of such Approbation, a Badge signifying the same, which Badge shall be delivered to every such Person without Fee or Reward, and if any Person shall ply or sell as Cooper or Cooper on the said Quay, or any of them, or in any of the said Streets aforesaid, before or approved of as aforesaid, such Person being thereof convicted before any Magistrate of the County of Dublin and Cork respectively, shall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, and in Default of Payment of the said Sum shall be imprisoned for One Month without Bail or Mainprize.

V. And be it further enacted, That the several Provisions and Provisions under this Act, except such as are specially provided for, shall be read and put in English Copy, and shall be read for, assessed and applied in the like manner and under such Powers and Authorities and by such ways and means, and according to such Rules and Directions as aforesaid, directed and expressed for levying or recovering any Penalties or Forfeitures in and by an Act made in Ireland in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of His late Majesty King George the Second, entitled An Act for the fixing of the Excise or new Duties upon His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, according to the End of Rates as therein inserted; or in and by an Act made in the Tenth sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act in pursuance of the better Execution of the several Acts relating to the Revenue, Matters and Things under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, and Port Duties, and of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland; or in and by any other Act or Acts in force in Ireland relating to the Revenue of Custom and Excise, or either of them, as fully and effectually as all Statutes and Paragraphs as of the same were heretofore expressed and enacted, with the Homogeneity of Appeal to and for the Party or Parties aforesaid, as in and by the said recited Act made in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of His late Majesty King George the Second, or any other Act or Acts as aforesaid is provided.

VI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take Effect immediately from and after the Expiration of One Calendar Month next after the passing thereof, and not sooner, except in cases where any other Period is expressly mentioned for the Commencement of any Clause or Provision herebefore contained.

C A P. LXXVII.

An Act for granting an additional Drawback on Fine, Third and Crown Glass, for charging an additional Countervailing Duty on Plate and Crown Glass imported from Ireland, and for the better Permutation of Friends in the Exportation of Glass or Drawback. [17th July 1812.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to allow the additional Drawback, and impose the additional Countervailing Duty on Duties herebefore mentioned: Be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, there shall be allowed the following additional Drawbacks, and in respect of the several Sorts of Glass hereafter mentioned respectively made in Great Britain, or made in Ireland, and imported directly into Great Britain, for which all the Duties imposed for or in respect thereof respectively shall have been paid, and which shall after the passing of this Act be duly exported in Foreign Parts as Merchandise; that is to say,

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties in Ireland shall cause to be kept a distinct Account of the Half or Money of the Mow, arising from the respective Duties of Twenty Pounds in the said Schedule (A.) mentioned, on the Admission of any Student into the Society of King's Inns, and on the Admission of any Heir into the Line of Covert; and of the Sum of Seven Pounds, Part of the Duty of Fifty Pounds in the said Schedule marked (C.) upon each Part of Testaments bearing an Appurtenance to an Attorney; and that the Receiver General of the Duties hereby granted shall pay the same at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer; and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or the Lord High Treasurer for the time being, shall cause the said Money of the said Duty of Twenty Pounds, and the said Payment of the said Duty of Fifty Pounds, to be paid to the Treasurer of the said Society of King's Inns, to be applied by him in such manner as shall be directed by the said Society.

No. 4.

IX. Provided always, and he it enacted, That no Legacy gives for the Education or Maintenance of poor Children in Ireland, or to be applied in the Support of any public charitable Institution in Ireland, shall be liable to any Duty on Legacies under this Act; and that no Legacy consisting of Books, Prints, Pictures, Statues, Gems, Coins, Medals, Specimens of Natural History or other Specific Articles, which shall be given or bequeathed to or in Trust for any Body Corporate, whether aggregate or sole, or any Society, or any endowed School, in order to be kept and preserved by such Body Corporate, Society or School, and not for the Purposes of Sale, shall be liable to any Duty imposed on Legacies under this Act.

Legacies for Charitable purposes exempted.

X. Provided also, and he it enacted, That this Act shall not extend to charge with any of the Duties imposed in Schedule (B.) of this Act, on Advertisements, any Advertisements published by the Trustees of Hospitals relative to the Business of such Hospitals; nor to charge with any of the Duties imposed in the said Schedule on Pamphlets, any Act of Parliament, Declaration, Order of Council, Form of Prayer and Thanksgiving, or any Act of State which shall be ordered by His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, or by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, to be printed or published, or any Votes or other Matters which are or shall be ordered to be printed by either House of Parliament, or any Books commonly sold in any of the Schools of Ireland, or any Books concerning only Matters of Devotion and Piety, or any Weekly Bills of Mortality, or any Daily Accounts or Bills of Goods imported or exported, or any Daily Accounts or Bills of Goods imported or exported do contain any other Matter than Accounts of Goods imported into or exported from Ireland, and the Particulars relating to such Imports and Exports, and to be in the same to be printed and published by such Persons as Persons as shall be authorized therein by the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Chief Governor of Ireland for the time being.

What Advertisements, Declarations, &c. printed, are liable to Duty, &c.

XI. Provided also, and he it enacted, That the Duties by this Act imposed on Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes and Drafts or Orders for Payment of Money, shall not be charged on any Draft or Order for the Payment of Money on Demand payable to Bearer, drawn upon any Banker or Bankers, or Person acting as a Banker, within Ten Miles of the Place where such Draft or Order shall be actually drawn and issued, except only so far as the same are expressly charged by the Schedule to this Act assessed; provided such Place shall be specified in such Draft or Order, and provided that such Draft or Order shall bear Date on or before the Day on which the same shall be issued, and provided that such Draft or Order shall be made by Bills or Promissory Notes.

When and where promissory notes &c. drawn, not to be liable to Duty, &c.

XII. And he it further enacted and declared, That where a Draft shall be referred to any Letter, and also a Free paid cheque, such Letter shall be liable to Two Shilling Duties, one according to the Amount of such Draft, and the other according to the Amount of such Free, as the same are specified and set forth in the Schedule to this Act assessed.

Two Shilling Duties not paid for a Letter, when a Draft is referred, and a Free paid. What shall be deemed a Cheque Party.

XIII. And he it further enacted, That any Deed, Instrument, Note, Memorandum, Letter or other Manuscript in Writing between the Captain, Master or Owner of any Ship or Vessel, and any Merchant, Trader or other Person in respect to the Freight or Conveyance of any Goods, Money, Wares, Merchandise or M.L.R.S. Rates or to be taken on board of any Ship or Vessel, shall be deemed and adjudged to be a Cheque Party, within the Meaning of this Act.

XIV. And whereas it is enacted that the Management of the Duties on Playing Cards and Dice in Ireland, should be transferred from the Care of the Commissioners of Inland Excise and Taxes in Ireland, and should be placed under the Care of the Commissioners of Stamp Duties, and that for that Purpose the General Provision now in Force relating to such Duties should be repealed, and other Provisions made in lieu thereof; Be it therefore enacted, That if, under any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force in Ireland as heretofore or to be made, any Regulation for the Purpose of lessening the Collection or Management of any Duty on Cards and Dice, shall from and after the Commencement of this Act, and so long as any former Act or Acts of Parliament may be thereby repealed, and here as to any Proceeding for the Recovery or Enforcement of any Penalty or Forfeiture which shall have been incurred before the Commencement of this Act, or for the Payment of any Offence which shall have been committed against any of the said Provisions before the said time; and here as to any Regulation respecting any Countervailing Duty on the Importation into Ireland of Cards or Dice manufactured in Great Britain.

Regulations under this Act for Management of Duty on Cards and Dice repealed, &c.

XV. And he it further enacted, That on Playing Cards or Dice shall be sold or exposed to Sale or played with, which shall not be duly taxed, marked and stamped respectively according to Law, upon Pain that every Person who shall sell or expose to Sale, or knowingly play with any such Cards or Dice which shall not be so taxed, marked or stamped, shall forfeit for every such Pack of Cards and for every Die so sold or exposed to Sale or played with, the Sum of Five Pounds.

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Twenty seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for the better Execution of the Law and Preservation of the Peace within Counties at large; which said recited Act was continued and amended by an Act made in the Parliament of Ireland in the Thirty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for the better and more convenient Administration of Justice, and for the Recovery of Small Debts in a summary Way, and for the better Execution of the Law within this Kingdom, except the County of Dublin; and for continuing and amending an Act, entitled An Act for the better Execution of the Law and Preservation of the Peace within Counties at large; and which said second Act was further continued by an Act made in the Forty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and in now more extending; and it is expedient that the same should be continued; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act made in the Twenty seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, shall be and the same is hereby further continued, and shall be in force until the Twenty sixth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fourteen.

C A P. XCII.

An Act to continue, until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, certain Acts for appointing Commissioners to enquire into the Fees, Gratitudes, Perquisites and Emoluments received at several Public Offices in Ireland, to enquire into any Abuses which may exist in the same, and into the Mode of receiving, collecting, issuing and accounting for Public Money in Ireland. [5th July 1812.]

WHEREAS an Act was made in the Forty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act for appointing, until the Fifth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and four, Commissioners to enquire into the Fees, Gratitudes, Perquisites and Emoluments which are or have been lately received in the several Public Offices in Ireland therein mentioned; to enquire into any Abuses which may exist in the same, and into the proper Mode of receiving, collecting, issuing and accounting for public Money in Ireland; and the said recited Act has, by certain Acts made in the Forty fifth, Forty sixth, Forty seventh, Forty eighth and Fifty first Years of His present Majesty's Reign, been continued with Amendments until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and twelve: And whereas it is expedient that the said recited Act of the Forty fourth Year be amended by the said other recited Acts, should be continued in manner hereinafter mentioned; Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act of the Forty fourth Year amended, as amended by the said other recited Acts, shall be and the said Acts are hereby further continued until the First Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Ireland, or the Lord High Treasurer of Ireland for the time being, and they are hereby authorized and required to issue and cause to be issued order and where the same mentioned in the said recited Acts of the Forty fourth, Forty seventh, Forty sixth, Fifth and Fifty first Years aforesaid, a further Sum of Money not exceeding exceeding Two thousand Two Hundred and Fifty Pounds or Pounds as the Commissioners within the said revised Acts or any Three or more of them, shall by Writing under their Hands and Seals, out of any Part of the Public Money remaining in His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland; which Sum so allowed and paid shall be employed for the Payment of Clerks, Messengers and other Officers, and in defraying all other necessary Charges as in and about the Execution of the Powers of the said several Acts and this Act, and in such manner, and in such Proportions as shall be appointed by the said Commissioners or any Three or more of them, by Writing under their Hands and Seals in that Behalf; and that each Sum shall be accounted for by the Person or Persons to whom the same shall be issued or paid according to the Course of His Majesty's Exchequer of Ireland, without any Ties or other Charges to be taken or demanded for the issuing or Payment of the same on the p. B. of the said Accounts, other than such Sums as the said Commissioners or any Three or more of them shall appoint.

C A P. XCIII.

An Act for granting to His Majesty certain new and additional Duties of Assessed Taxes; and for consolidating the same with the former Duties of Assessed Taxes. [26th July 1812.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

W E, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, humbly shew, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty's Public Expenses, and making a permanent Addition to the Public Revenue of Great Britain, and freely and voluntarily resolved to grant certain new and additional Duties, in the manner and to the Amount specified in the respective Schedules hereto annexed; and we do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by Your Majesty's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be assessed, raised, levied and paid, unto and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, throughout Great Britain in respect of Male Servants, and other Male Persons retained or employed by any Person or Persons in any of the several Capabilities mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (C.); and in respect of Carriages of any of the Descriptions mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (D.); and the Makers and Sellers thereof respectively; and in respect of Horns, Mares and Geldings, kept by any Person or Persons for any of the Purposes mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (E.); and of all other Horns, Mares or Geldings, not before charged, and upon Hides described in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (F.); and of all Dogs, of any of the Descriptions mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (G.); and upon all Horses Dealers residing within the respective Limits described in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (H.); and upon all Persons in respect of their taking or killing Game, or other Things mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (I.); and, as set forth in the said Schedule, the several new and additional Duties respectively intended, described and set forth in the said several Schedules, respectively marked as aforesaid.

I I. And whereas it is expedient that the said new and additional Duties should be consolidated with the Duties granted by the Two several Acts passed in the Forty eighth and Fiftieth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, on the same Articles respectively: Be it further enacted, That the said Duties granted by the said Acts of the Forty eighth and Fiftieth Years aforesaid, shall be consolidated with the Duties granted by this Act on the same Articles respectively; and that from and after the respective Periods mentioned in this Act, or in the said several Schedules, for the Commencement of the said Duties respectively, the several Duties granted by the said Acts, and this Act, shall be assessed, levied and paid, in one Sum, as set forth and described in the several Schedules annexed to this Act, and the Rules therein respectively mentioned; which several Schedules, Duties and Rules, shall be construed as part of this Act, and as if the same were incorporated therewith under a special Enactment.

I II. And be it further enacted, That the said new and consolidated Duties shall be assessed, raised, levied, paid and accounted for under the Provisions and Regulations of this Act and of the several Acts in force, at and immediately before the passing of this Act, in relation to the Duties granted by the said Acts, of the Forty eighth and Fiftieth Years aforesaid, or of any Act or Acts passed or to be passed in the present Session of Parliament; and this Act, shall be construed in such manner, and to the like Effect in all respects as if the Duties hereby granted and mentioned in the respective Schedules hereto annexed were expressly granted, as and subject to the several Provisions, Allowances and Penalties in the said several Acts contained, as if the several Provisions, Allowances and Penalties were expressly enacted in this Act; and that from the respective Periods in the said Schedules prescribed for the Commencement of the said Duties, the Schedules to this Act annexed shall be read and construed in ascertaining and charging the several Rates of Duty, in lieu of the several Schedules for the like Purposes contained in any of the said Acts before mentioned, which last mentioned Schedules, and the Rules and Exceptions therein contained, shall from thenceforth respectively cease and determine; and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Methods, Rules, Directions, Provisions, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things contained in such Acts respectively, in so far as the same are respectively applicable to the Duties granted by this Act, except where other Provisions are made in this Act, shall severally and respectively in the Execution of this Act, be duly observed, put in force and put in Execution throughout the respective Parts of Great Britain aforesaid, as fully and effectually, to all Invents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Methods, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things (except as aforesaid), were particularly and respectively repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and shall severally be applied, construed, deemed and taken to belong to this Act, in like manner as if the same had been enacted therein, and expressly applied to the Duties hereby granted, (except as aforesaid).

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Duties appointed or to be appointed Additions of the Duties granted by the said Acts of the Forty eighth and Fiftieth Years aforesaid for the Current Year, commencing in England and Wales from the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and twelve, and in Scotland from the Twenty fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twelve, shall and they are hereby authorized and required, as soon after the passing of this Act as conveniently can be done, to give or leave as every Person, and to every Person residing therein, who shall be separately chargeable to the Duties by this Act granted, and to every Corporation, Company, Fraternity, Society or Partnership of Persons being able, such Notice in Writing as may be conformable to the Schedules to this Act contained, and according to which a due Affidavit of the Duties granted by this Act for the Current Year commencing aforesaid, respecting such Person respectively to prepare and produce, within Twenty one Days next ensuing the Date of such Notice, a List or Lists, or Declaration or Declarations in Writing, in the Forms and in the manner hereinafter required.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Person, Corporation, Company, Fraternity, Society or Partnership, who shall have employed any Male Person specified or defined, or intended to be specified or defined in the Schedule to this Act assented marked (C), or shall have kept any Carriage specified or defined, or intended to be specified or defined in the Schedule to this Act assented marked (D), or shall have carried on the Trade of a Coachmaker or Maker of Carriages, or have sold or repaired any Carriage in the said Schedule mentioned, or kept any House, Manse or Cellar, specified or defined, or intended to be specified or defined in the Schedule to this Act assented marked (E), or any other House, Manse or Ground, or Male Person specified or defined, or intended to be specified or defined in the Schedule to this Act assented marked (F), or any Dog specified or defined, or intended to be specified or defined in the Schedule to this Act assented marked (G), or who shall have used or exercised the Trade or Business of a Horse Dealer, as in each in the Schedule to this Act assented marked (H), within the Year preceding the Fifth Day of April and the Twenty fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twelve respectively aforesaid, shall (in every case where a due and sufficient Return, whereas the said new or additional Duties hereby granted can be computed, shall not have been made pursuant to the said Acts relating to the said several Duties on the same Articles respectively) within Twenty one Days next ensuing the Date of such Notice, cause to be prepared true and particular Lists in Writing, signed by such Person, Corporation, Company, Fraternity, Society or Partnership, or of his, her or their Bailiff, by some Person or Persons duly authorized for that Purpose, of the several Articles, Muttons and Things, in respect whereof such Person, Corporation, Company, Fraternity, Society or Partnership, shall be liable, and the particular Parts or Portions where the Affidavit or Affidavits of the Current Year is or are intended to be paid; which Lists shall respectively contain the several Muttons and Things required by the several Schedules to this Act assented, or the Rates relating to the same, and shall be made in such Form and Manner as shall be required in and by the said Notices respectively; and every such Person, Corporation, Company, Fraternity, Society or Partnership of Persons, shall be obliged and charged to the said new and consolidated Duties contained in the several Schedules to this Clause mentioned, for the Whole of the Current Year, commencing as aforesaid, at the total Rate specified in the several Schedules hereinafter mentioned, subject to such further Charges in default of sufficient Returns, and to such Power of Appeal as are prescribed and given by any of the Statutes in force in relation to the said Duties granted by the said Acts of the Forty eighth and Fiftieth Years aforesaid: Provided, that no Affidavit of the said additional Duties by this Act granted and contained in the Schedule to this Act, marked (L), shall be made for the Current Year, commencing as aforesaid, which said additional Duties last mentioned shall severally commence and take Effect from and after the Fifth Day of April and the Twenty fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirteenth, in the respective Parts of Great Britain, before mentioned, and not before: Provided also, that where a due and sufficient Return shall have been made before the passing of this Act, according to the said Acts relating to the said several Duties, whereas the said additional Duties as the like Articles may be charged and assessed, pursuant to the Rates contained in the said several Schedules, without any further Return for the Current Year, it shall be lawful for the respective Commissioners to make the said new and additional Duties to be computed and charged on the Returns so made pursuant to the said Acts, at the total Rate of the said present and additional Duties for the Current Year, subject to Appeal by the said Acts as aforesaid.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in every case where the Affidavits of the said Duties, granted by the said Acts of the Forty eighth and Fiftieth Years aforesaid, shall have been or shall be completed before the Returns required by this Act can be made of the several Articles on which new or additional Duties are by this Act granted, it shall be lawful for the respective Affidavits and Commissioners acting in the Execution of the said Acts and this Act, and they are hereby required, in every such case, to make separate Affidavits for the present Year, of the said new and additional Duties by this Act granted, and to cause the same to be collected, under the same Regulations and Provisions, as in respect of the said new and additional Duties had been added to the Affidavits of the said present Duties, in pursuance of the Directions of the said Acts before mentioned.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Person, Corporation, Company, Fraternity, Society or Partnership, liable to the said new or consolidated Duties, shall, in every Year, commencing after the Determination of the Current Year as aforesaid, cause to be prepared and delivered to the respective Officers for that Year, or Persons acting as such for their respective Districts, Parishes or Places, or one of them, true and particular Lists or declared by the said several Statutes in force as aforesaid and this Act; which Lists shall be prepared in the Form herein prescribed, and as directed by this Act, and shall every the same in the same manner as every Year so long as such Person, Corporation, Company, Fraternity, Society or Partnership, shall be liable to the said Duties, or any of them, and shall be thereunto annually chargeable according to such

XII. — If any Person or Persons shall, after the Fifth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, in England or Wales, or after the Twenty fourth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, in Scotland, do any Act for any of the Purposes mentioned in this Schedule, without having obtained such Certificate as is directed by this Act, in order to an Affidavit for the Year wherein such Person or Persons shall so do, every such Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds, to be paid for, recovered and applied in the manner hereinafter directed; and every such Offender shall also be liable to the Payment to His Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to the full Duty of Three Pence Three Shillings and Six pence Sterling, over and above the said Penalty to be charged in the Affidavit of the Parish or Place where the Offence shall be committed, by way of increased Charge by the Inhabitant or Surveyor of the said Parish or Place; which increased Charge may be made at any time within Six Calendar Months after the Duty shall have accrued, and the said Charge shall be allowed by Two Commissioners according to the Directions of the Acts relating to the Duties of Assessed Taxes, subject to Appeal whenever such Commissioners shall appoint the Time and Place for hearing and determining the said Appeal.

XIII. — It shall be lawful for any Two Commissioners for executing this Act, or for any One Justice of the Peace of the County, Riding or Division, or the Sheriff's Stewary, or for any City, Borough, Liberty or Place wherein any Offence or Offences mentioned or described in this Schedule shall be committed, such Justice being also a Commissioner for executing this Act; and he and they is and are lawfully required, upon Information or Complaint in this behalf made of any such Offence or Offences committed within the District where he or they shall sit as such Commissioner or Commissioners, within Three Calendar Months after the Offence shall be committed, to summon the Person or Persons accused, and also the Witnesses on either Side, to appear before him or them; and upon the Appearance of the Person or Persons accused, or in default of his or their Appearance according to such Summons, to proceed to hear and determine the Matter in a summary way; and upon due Proof made thereof, either by the voluntary Confession of the Person or Persons accused, or by the Oath of One or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, to give Judgment for the Penalty or Penalties, or for such Part thereof, to which Part thereof the said Commissioners or Justice shall think proper to mitigate the same (his name not being in any case registered in this behalf the One Moiety of the said Penalty or Penalties); and in default of Payment of the same at the time of Conviction, to award and issue his or their Warrant or Warrants, under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, for bringing the Penalty or Penalties so adjudged, together with the reasonable Costs and Charges attending the same, as hereinafter directed, of the Cattle, Goods and Chattels of the Offender or Offenders, and to cause Sale to be made of the said Cattle, Goods and Chattels to be disposed, in case they shall not be redeemed within Four Days; and the Money arising from such Sale shall in the first Place be liable for Payment of the said Penalty or Penalties adjudged to be paid, and in the next Place for Payment of the Costs attending the Information, Conviction and Warrant, or Informations, Convictions and Warrants, and also the reasonable Costs attending the Discovery and keeping the Goods and Chattels distrained, and maintaining the Cattle, if any, during the Four Days allowed to redeem the same, and also the Expence of the Sale thereof, and of returning the said Warrant or Warrants to the Commissioners or Justice, and covering the fees, with an Indorsement thereof of what has been done therein; and where sufficient Cattle, Goods or Chattels of such Offender or Offenders cannot be found, to commit such Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction, there to remain for any Space of time not exceeding Six Calendar Months, unless the said Penalty or Penalties shall be sooner paid; and if such Person or Persons shall feel himself or themselves aggrieved by the Judgment of such Commissioners or Justice, then he or they shall and may, upon giving Security to the Amount of double the said Penalty or Penalties, appeal to the Justices of the Peace at the next General Quarter Sessions for the County, Riding or Division, or to the Justice Clerk, or other Officer of the Court of Justiciary of the Shire, Stewary, City, Liberty or Place in Scotland; which Courts respectively are hereby empowered to examine Witnesses upon Oath, and finally to hear and determine the same; and in case the Judgment of such Commissioners, or Justice or Justices, shall be affirmed, it shall be lawful for the said Court of Quarter Sessions, or Court of Justiciary, to award the Person or Persons to pay Costs occasioned by such Information, Conviction and Appeal, as to themselves shall seem meet.

XIV. — If any Person or Persons shall be summoned as a Witness or Witnesses to give Evidence before such Commissioners or Justice receiving such Information, or before the Courts of Quarter Sessions or Justiciary, upon Appeal touching any of the Matters contained in such Information, either on the Part of the Prosecution or the Person or Persons accused, and shall neglect or refuse to appear at the Time and Place to be for that Purpose appointed, without a reasonable Excuse for his, her or their Neglect or Refusal, to be allowed by the Commissioners, or Justice or Justices, or Court before whom the Prosecution shall be depending, then and in every such case every such Person shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds, to be recovered, levied and paid in such manner, and by such means, as other Penalties mentioned in this Schedule may be recovered, levied and paid.

XV. — The Commissioners or Justice before whom any Offender shall be convicted shall cause the said Conviction to be made out in the Manner and Form following, or in any other Form of Words to the like Effect (entirely equivalent); that is to say,

BE it remembered, That on the _____ Day of _____ in the Year of our Lord _____ at _____ A. D. of _____ we were duly convicted by me [or, us] of [here state the Offence] and adjudged to pay the Sum of _____ for his said Offence.

C A P. XXIV.

An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties of Excise in Great Britain on Glass, Hides, and Tobacco and Snuff.

[9th July 1812.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in Parliament assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray Your Majesty's Public Expenses, and making a permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto Your Majesty the several additional Rates and Duties of Excise herein respectively mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected and paid throughout Great Britain, in and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon the several Goods, Wares, Merchandise and Commodities mentioned and described in the Schedules marked (A.) and (B.) respectively hereunto annexed, the several Sums of Money and Duties of Excise as they are respectively inferred, described and set forth in the said Schedules, and that there shall be made, allowed and paid for or in respect of Goods, Wares, Merchandise and Commodities for or in respect whereof any Duty of Excise is by this Act imposed to the several Purposes aforesaid to the same, the several Drawbacks of Excise as the same are also respectively inferred, described and set forth in the Schedule marked (C.) hereunto annexed, and also all such special Allowances as are particularly inserted by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force at and immediately before the passing of this Act, and the same respectively shall commence and take Effect from the respective Days or Days mentioned in the said Schedules, in cases where any special Date or Dates is or are inserted therein, and in cases where no such Date is inserted, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twelve.

II. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties of Excise by this Act imposed, as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England; and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the time being.

III. And be it further enacted, That the several and respective Duties by this Act imposed shall be accounted for, allowed off, paid, certified and discharged by the Parson or Persecutor liable to the accounting for, clearing off, Payment, Satisfaction or Discharge thereof, at such time and times, and in such manner as the Duties of Excise chargeable upon the like Goods, Wares, Merchandise and Commodities respectively, or upon any Person for or in respect thereof, upon any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act to be accounted for, allowed off, paid, certified or discharged; and except that, until and upon the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, in line and instead of Persons who shall make or cause to be made Glass in London, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, paying and clearing off the additional Duties by this Act imposed, for or in respect of Glass made in Great Britain, or of the Materials or Mould or other Preparations made use of in Great Britain in the making of Ware Glass or of Common Bottles, within Four Weeks, such Persons respectively shall pay and clear off the same within Eight Weeks; and in line and instead of Persons who shall make or cause to be made Glass in any other Part of Great Britain, paying and clearing off such additional Duties within Six Weeks, each Person respectively shall pay and clear off the same within Twelve Weeks after he, she or they respectively shall make or ought to have made such Entry as is required by the Laws in force, immediately before the passing of this Act, under the Penalties by the said Acts or any of them in that Behalf provided; save also and except that, certified upon the said Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, in and in behalf of Tanners of Hides and Skins within the Cities of London and Newcastle, and the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, paying, clearing off and discharging the additional Duties by this Act imposed, for or in respect of Hides and Skins, and Parts and Pieces of Hides and Skins tanned in Great Britain, within Fourteen Days, each Towner respectively shall pay, clear off and discharge the same within Four Weeks; and in and in behalf of Tanners in other Parts of Great Britain, paying, clearing off and discharging such additional Duties within Six Weeks, each Towner respectively shall pay, clear off and discharge within Twelve Weeks after each Hide and Skin respectively shall be marked and stamped as by the Laws in force immediately before the passing of this Act, under the Penalties by the said Acts or any of them in that Behalf provided.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where Duties are imposed or Drawbacks allowed by this Act on any specific Quantity of Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities, the same shall in every case be understood and deemed and taken to apply in the same Proportions and after the same Rate to any greater or less Quantity than such specific Quantity.

V. And whereas Commissions or Agreements may have been made before the passing of this Act by Makers or Manufacturers of or Dealers in the respective Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities, upon which additional Duties are by this Act imposed, for such Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities respectively to be delivered after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twelve, be it therefore enacted, That such Makers, Manufacturers or Dealers delivering such Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities respectively, after the Day and Year last aforesaid, in pursuance of such Commissions or Agreements, shall be allowed to add to such Money as will be equivalent to the Duties by this Act imposed for or in respect of such Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities respectively, to the Price thereof, and shall be entitled by virtue of this Act to be paid for the same accordingly.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said several Sums of Money respectively inserted, described and set forth in the said Schedules hereto annexed marked (A.) and (B.) respectively, as the Duties of Excise in the Drawbacks of the Duties of Excise for forth in the said Schedule marked (C.) upon the several and respective Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities inserted therein, shall and may be respectively raised, levied, collected, assessed, paid, recovered, adjudged, mitigated and allowed in such and the like manner, and in or by any manner of the good or special Means, Ways or Methods by which the former Duties respectively and Drawbacks of Duties of Excise respectively upon Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities of the same Sorts or Kinds respectively were or might be raised, levied, collected, assessed, paid, recovered, adjudged, mitigated or allowed, and the Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities in or by this Act respectively made liable to the Payment of or chargeable with Duties of Excise, or entitled to Drawbacks of Duties of Excise as aforesaid inserted, described and set forth in the said Schedules hereto annexed, shall be and the same are hereby made subject to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Restrictions and Particulars to which Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities in general, and also to all and every the special Customs, Rules, Regulations, Restrictions and Particulars respectively, to which the like Goods, Wares, Merchandise or Commodities respectively were subject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act, relating to the Duties of Excise; and all and every Pains, Penalties, Fines or Forfeitures of any nature or kind whatever for any Offence whatsoever committed against or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act, made for levying the Revenue of Excise or for the Regulation and Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Powers and Directions therein contained, shall and are hereby directed and declared to extend to and shall be respectively applied, provided and put in Execution for and in respect of the several Duties of Excise and Drawbacks of Duties of Excise hereby charged and allowed, in as full and ample a manner to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

VII. And whereas by an Act made in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for repealing an Act passed in the Fifth Year of King James the First, intitled An Act concerning Tanners, Curriers, Shoemakers and other Artificers concerning the setting of Leather; and also for repealing and amending certain Parts of several other Acts of Parliament relating thereto, it is enacted, that no Person or Persons along the Trade or Business of tanning of Leather by himself or herself, or by any other Person or Persons, shall, during the time that he, she or they shall be in or carry on the said Trade or Business of Tanning, viz. occupy or in any manner carry on the Trade or Business of a Shoemaker, Currier, Leather Cutter or other Artificer exercising the setting or soaking of Leather, upon Pain of Forfeiture and loss of all and every such Hide and Hides, Skin and Skins, to be by him, her or them, or any of them, wrought or tanned, during the time he, she or they shall be in the Trade or Business of Tanning, or the said Value thereof, to any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, to be recovered in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt or on the Case, or by Bill, Suit or Information, together with Costs of Suit; And whereas the said recited Statute is intended to advance the good Purposes therein intended, it is therefore expedient to insert the further Penalty hereunto mentioned; Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the Fifth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twelve, if any Person or Persons along or carrying on the Trade or Business of tanning of Leather, by himself, herself or themselves, or by any other Person or Persons, shall by himself, herself or themselves, or by any other Person or Persons during the

C A P. XCV.

An Act to amend and regulate the Assessment and Collection of the Assessed Taxes, and of the Rates and Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland. (5th July 1812.)

WHEREAS it is expedient that certain of the Powers and Provisions contained in an Act, passed in the Forty third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for consolidating certain of the Provisions contained in any Act or Acts relating to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and for amending the said Acts, so far as the same relate to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and also in another Act passed in the same Year, intitled An Act for extending the several Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and granting new Duties in lieu thereof; for granting new Duties in certain cases therein mentioned; for extending the Duties of Excise on Licences, and on Carriages registered by Constables, and granting new Duties thereon, under the Management of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and also new Duties on Persons selling Carriages by Auction, or on Commissions and also an Act, passed in the Forty fifth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intitled An Act to amend in such of an Act of the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, for consolidating certain of the Provisions of the said Acts relating to the Duties in Scotland, under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, as relate to the Appointment of Assessors and Sub Collectors, and the Notices required to be delivered

Altered in Part as follows to the said Duties; and also in an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the
the Sixth Day of April next after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, further additional Rates as I Duties in Great Britain, on the Rates and Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, and for repealing an Act passed in the Forty fifth Year of the present Majesty, for repealing various Parts of an Act made in the Forty third Year of His present Majesty, for granting a Contribution to the Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, and to consolidate and render more effectual the Provisions of a Statute in that behalf made; and also in an Act passed in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intitled, An Act for repealing the Duties of Assessed Taxes, and granting new Duties in lieu thereof, and various additional Duties to be collected thereon, and also for repealing the Stamp Duties on Gene ral Estates, and granting new Duties in lieu thereof, to be placed under the Management of the Commissioners for the Redemption of Taxes; and also in an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty, intitled,
An Act for altering the Assesses of certain Duties of Assessed Taxes granted by an Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and for granting to His Majesty certain other Duties of Assessed Taxes, as the said Statute therein is amended, and in any other Act relating to the Taxes to be paid by Assessment under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, should be amended in the Particulars hereinafter mentioned; May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be so enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Sheriff Depuie and Sheriff Substitute, in each Shire or Stewartry in Scotland, shall and are hereby directed and required, by virtue of their Offices aforesaid, without other Qualification or Requirement, to sit as Commissioners in the Execution of the said recited Act passed in the Forty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, and of all and every other Act or Acts relating to the Rates and Duties on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, in the Shire or Stewartry or District thereof far which they are appointed Sheriff Depuie or Sheriff Substitute respectively, and shall not be liable to answer as Peers or Forfeiture for selling therein as Commissioners without the Qualification required by the aforesaid Act; and each Sheriff Depuie and Sheriff Substitute shall have the same Powers, Jurisdiction, Proceedings and Authority, as are by the said last recited Act vested in the Commissioners named and appointed in virtue of the Provisions therein contained: Provided always, that before they sit as Commissioners aforesaid, they shall take the Oath or Oaths prescribed by the said last recited Act: And the Commissioners named and appointed in the several Shires and Stewartries in Scotland, in virtue of the Provisions contained in the said last recited Act, are hereby required and directed to meet as soon after the passing of this Act as conveniently may be, at the time of which Meeting due Notice shall be given to the Sheriffs Depuie and Sheriffs Substitute of the said respective Shires and Stewartries; and the said Sheriffs Depuie and Sheriffs Substitute are hereby required to give their Attendance at such Meeting, and to take the Oath or Oaths prescribed by the said Act or Acts, which Oath or Oaths any One of the said Commissioners is hereby authorized to administer: Provided always, that if it shall so happen that any of the said Sheriffs Depuie or Substitute shall be prevented, by Sickness or otherwise, from attending such Meeting so to be appointed as aforesaid, he or they may attend at any future Meeting of the said Commissioners to take the Oath or Oaths as aforesaid.

1. And whereas, in order to render the Assessment and Collection of the different Duties in Scotland under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, so far as relates to the Assessed Taxes, more convenient and efficient, it is expedient to give Power and Authority to the Commissioners of Supply in each County, Shire or Stewartry, to divide themselves into Districts as such Counties, Shires or Stewartries, wherein a Division shall be practicable and expedient; which Division to be approved of after consultation with the Justice of the Peace, and that it shall be lawful for the Governor of each County, Shire or Stewartry, with the Advice and Consent of the Justice of the Peace, for the Sheriff Depuie or Substitute of such County, Shire or Stewartry, and they are hereby respectively directed and required, as soon after the passing of this Act as conveniently may be done, to convene a General Meeting of the said Commissioners of Supply, to be held within the Place where such Meetings are usually held, upon a Day to be named in the said Statutes, and which Statutes shall bear the special Purposes of such Meeting; and the said Commissioners, or as many of them as shall be present at the said Meeting, or the major Part of them then and there present, taking into their Consideration the Extent and Population of their respective Counties, Shires or Stewartries, and the Number of Persons resident therein, convenient and capable of being so Commissioned aforesaid, are hereby authorized, and it shall be lawful for them so to divide their respective Counties, Shires and Stewartries into such and so many Districts or Divisions, as to them shall seem expedient for the Purpose of carrying into Effect the Purposes of the said recited Acts respectively, according to the Provisions of this Act, and they are hereby required upon each Division so aforesaid and let down in Writing the Names of the several Parties favoring each and every such District or Division, and to appoint Commissioners to sit for every such District or Division, from amongst those who shall be resident within or near unto each District: So that not less than Three several Commissioners shall be so let down and appointed to, each and every such District respectively, exclusive of the Sheriff Depuie or Substitute in such District, and the said Commissioners shall do every thing in their respective Districts concerning the said Duties, as is intended and directed to be done by the Commissioners appointed by the Acts before recited, so far as the want of such County, Shire or Stewartry: Provided always, that no more than One Sheriff Substitute shall sit at any Meeting in any County, Shire or Stewartry, or any Division or District thereof: And provided also, that the said Commissioners or any of them shall not be appointed from sitting as Commissioners in any other Part of the County, Shire or Stewartry, in which they are appointed Commissioners and the said Commissioners, where they shall live at each General Meeting divided the County, Shire or Stewartry entry into Districts or Divisions as directed by this Act, are hereby required to send a Roll or List of the several Persons owning each such District or Division, and also a List of the Names of the Commissioners who are to act as such District or Division, to the King's Remembrancer of the Exchequer at Whitehall, who shall by the same before the Baron of Exchequer for their Approbation, and if approved of by them shall record the said List in his Office.

And in witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the Seal of Great Britain, this first Day of June, in the second Year of his Majesty King George the Third.

III. And be it further enacted, That, for the better Execution of the aforesaid Acts for granting Dues on Profits arising from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices, passed in the Tenth sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, in any County which shall be divided into Districts in pursuance of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners at their General Meeting, and they are hereby directed to appoint such Number of Commissioners duly qualified agreeably to the said last mentioned Acts, as shall seem to them necessary and expedient, not exceeding seven a one less than Three, (consistive of the said Sheriff's Deputy and Sheriff's Substitutes) in all or Execution of the said last mentioned Acts in each such District or Division within the said County, Man or Stewary, and also to appoint a like Number, as above mentioned, of Persons in qualified as aforesaid, to supply Vacancies arising in such District or Subdivision within each Shire or Stewary, in manner directed by the said last mentioned Acts, who respectively shall be Commissioners for executing the said Acts in each of their said respective Districts.

And in witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the Seal of Great Britain, this first Day of June, in the second Year of his Majesty King George the Third.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners empowered to act for the several Cities and Boroughs in England, to divide the same into Districts or Divisions, and to appoint such Commissioners to act for each District or Division as are by Law at present authorized to act therein, and to do every thing that the Commissioners of Supply for the several Counties and Boroughs are authorized to do by this Act with regard to Divisions of Districts, but subject always to the Approbation of the Baron of Exchequer as aforesaid, and under the same Regulations and Provisions herein contained; and each District Commissioners shall have the same Powers and Authority within their said several Districts, as heretofore granted to the Commissioners of Districts of Counties or Stewaries.

And in witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the Seal of Great Britain, this first Day of June, in the second Year of his Majesty King George the Third.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said respective Commissioners to hear and determine Appeals under the said recited Acts passed in the Tenth sixth, Twelfth eighth, Fourteenth eighth, and Fifteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, respecting and regarding the Names of Assessed Taxes, and this Act, in those respective Districts for which they are respectively Commissioners, at the time or times therein mentioned, and at such Places as to them shall seem expedient; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them present at the said Meetings to be held for any Term, to appoint and employ a Fit Person to be their Clerk within each District, to attend them on each Day appointed to hear and determine Appeals under the said Acts during that Term, and to yearly, and the said Clerk shall diligently receive all Appeals brought before the said Commissioners, with the Determinations of the Commissioners thereon, in a Book to be kept by him for that Purpose, and shall carefully send the Determinations or Judgments of the said Commissioners, with the Amount of the Sum allowed, if any Relief is given, upon the Petition or other Demand concerning the Review of Appeal.

And in witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the Seal of Great Britain, this first Day of June, in the second Year of his Majesty King George the Third.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk shall, for his Trouble in attending the Commissioners on Appeals relative to the said Assessed Taxes, and their dispatching such Matters in shall be required of him, receive an Allowance not exceeding such Allowance as shall from time to time be certified to be proper by Two or more of the said Commissioners to the said Baron of Exchequer in England, who may nevertheless and they are hereby empowered to withdraw the same in whole or in part as they shall think reasonable, and to grant Warrant for Payment thereof; and each Clerk shall not under any Pretence whatsoever demand, receive or take any Fee, Gratuity or Reward, for any Matter or Thing to be done by him touching the said Appeals, from any Person or Persons, other than the Allowance to be granted to him as aforesaid, under the Penalty of Fifty Pounds.

And in witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the Seal of Great Britain, this first Day of June, in the second Year of his Majesty King George the Third.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for each District or Division shall hold their Meeting at some City, Borough, Town or Place situated within the said District or Division, which shall be most suited and convenient; and they are hereby authorized and required annually to appoint One or more Assessed Persons to be Sub Collector or Sub Collectors of the Moneys which shall be assessed under the said Acts within their respective Districts or Divisions, which Sub Collectors for Districts or Divisions shall have Power and Authority to collect and receive from all and every Person or Persons within each District or Division for whom they are appointed, all and every the Sums of Money for which such Persons are assessed under the Authority of the before recited Acts, both as to Duties arising from the Assessed Taxes, and upon Profits from Property, Professions, Trades and Offices; and the said Sub Collectors shall pay over the said Sums to be received by them, without Delay, or at farthest on or before the Fifth Day of the next Month after receiving the said Duties, to the Collector of the same Duties respectively for the County, Stewary, City or Borough, within which each District or Division, or Part thereof, is situate; and the said Collector for the County, Stewary, City or Borough is hereby required to grant to each Sub Collector a Receipt for such Moneys, in Duplicate, gr. &c. and shall be in Charge for the Moneys so received; one Duplicate, of which Receipts the said Sub Collectors are hereby required immediately to transmit to the King's Remembrancer of Exchequer at Whitehall, and which Receipts shall not be liable to any Stamp Duty whatever; and for their Trouble in collecting and receiving such Sums, each such Collector shall have an Allowance of such a Part of the Net Arrears of the said Assessed Taxes as he shall think reasonable, and which Allowance to be made shall be paid to the several Sub Collectors by the Collector of the same Duties respectively for the respective Counties, Stewaries, Cities or Boroughs, upon an Order from the said Baron, one of the said Intendant's Sealings; and which said several Sub Collectors shall, before entering into the Execution of the said Office,

And in witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the Seal of Great Britain, this first Day of June, in the second Year of his Majesty King George the Third.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk shall, for his Trouble in attending the Commissioners on Appeals relative to the said Assessed Taxes, and their dispatching such Matters in shall be required of him, receive an Allowance not exceeding such Allowance as shall from time to time be certified to be proper by Two or more of the said Commissioners to the said Baron of Exchequer in England, who may nevertheless and they are hereby empowered to withdraw the same in whole or in part as they shall think reasonable, and to grant Warrant for Payment thereof; and each Clerk shall not under any Pretence whatsoever demand, receive or take any Fee, Gratuity or Reward, for any Matter or Thing to be done by him touching the said Appeals, from any Person or Persons, other than the Allowance to be granted to him as aforesaid, under the Penalty of Fifty Pounds.

And in witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and the Seal of Great Britain, this first Day of June, in the second Year of his Majesty King George the Third.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Clerk shall, for his Trouble in attending the Commissioners on Appeals relative to the said Assessed Taxes, and their dispatching such Matters in shall be required of him, receive an Allowance not exceeding such Allowance as shall from time to time be certified to be proper by Two or more of the said Commissioners to the said Baron of Exchequer in England, who may nevertheless and they are hereby empowered to withdraw the same in whole or in part as they shall think reasonable, and to grant Warrant for Payment thereof; and each Clerk shall not under any Pretence whatsoever demand, receive or take any Fee, Gratuity or Reward, for any Matter or Thing to be done by him touching the said Appeals, from any Person or Persons, other than the Allowance to be granted to him as aforesaid, under the Penalty of Fifty Pounds.

and before he shall receive any Money on the said Duties, excises, Tolls, and any other thing in profit here-required to be done by the said recited Acts, by the Collector for the County, Shire, Stewartry, City or Burrough, so far as respects the Duties or Duties in which he or they shall be appointed Sub Collector or Sub Collectors.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Commissioners appointed at any General Meeting held for any County, Shire or Stewartry in Scotland, shall come to a Resolution, it shall be lawful for them, without any Assent from the Governor or Sheriff as aforesaid, to divide such County, Shire or Stewartry into Districts or Divisions, and to appoint Commissioners to act for such Districts or Divisions, and to do every thing which they might have done or are authorized to do by the Act when such Meeting is specially summoned by the Governor or Sheriff as aforesaid directed.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Duties in Arrear at the time when the said Commissioners, Shires, Stewartries, Cities or Boroughs, shall be first divided into Districts or Divisions in pursuance of this Act, may be collected by the respective Collectors of the same Duties respectively for each County, Shire, Stewartry, City or Borough; and the Commissioners for the respective Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Cities and Boroughs in large may act in all Matters relating to such Arrears of Duties, as if no Division had taken place, until the said Commissioners shall be of Opinion that the same should, and shall direct the same to be collected by the Collectors of Districts, under the Control and Superintendance of the District Commissioners.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Failure shall happen on the Part of the Commissioners aforesaid for any County, Shire, Stewartry, City or Borough in Scotland, to meet and divide their respective Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Cities or Boroughs, into Districts or Divisions as aforesaid directed, and at the times heretofore mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Burghs of the Kingdom in Scotland, if they think fit proper and expedient, upon taking into their Consideration the Extent and Population of such County, Shire, Stewartry, City or Borough, and of the Number of Persons resident therein, unincorporated and capable of acting as Commissioners aforesaid, forthwith to cause such County, Shire, Stewartry, City or Borough, to be divided into such and so many Districts and Divisions as to them shall seem expedient for the Purpose of carrying into Effect the Purposes of this Act, and to fix and ascertain the Names of the Persons bearing such and every such District or Division, and appoint Commissioners, Sub Collectors and Clerks, in the same manner and under the same Regulations and Provisions as are heretofore enacted.

XI. And whereas, in the said Part of Great Britain called Scotland certain Burghs, Towns and Villages
